THE
 TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
 STATE OF HAWAII
 REGULAR SESSION OF 2018
 JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

FIRST DAY

Wednesday, January 17, 2018

In accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, the Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, was called to order at 10:02 a.m., by the Honorable Ronald D. Kouchi, President of the Senate.

The members of the Senate and guests rose for the invocation by Pastor Matt Higa of New Hope Kaua'i. The members and guests remained standing to sing the National Anthem and "Hawai'i Pono'i," led by Ms. Nalani Brun.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

At this time, Senator Kidani welcomed members of the Fukuoka Prefectural Assembly, who were seated in the gallery. Senator Kidani remarked that Hawai'i and Fukuoka Prefecture marked 35 years as sister-states in 2017, and noted that many members of Hawai'i's Japanese-American community celebrate their relationship with Fukuoka, tracing their roots back to the first group of contract laborers who arrived in Honolulu aboard the Yamashiro Maru in June 1885.

The Chair recognized various elected officials of the State of Hawai'i, who were present in the gallery, and thanked them for their service.

The Chair then introduced the Honorable David Y. Ige, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and his wife, Mrs. Dawn Amano-Ige.

At this time, the President addressed the members of the Senate as follows:

"I come before you this morning in a state of confusion. My staff and I had worked diligently on my opening remarks, and then the events of Saturday morning transpired, and now I'm left with the choice of what to say. And then I debated: Do I talk about Saturday's events first and hope you remember everything else I say, or should I say the whole speech first and end with Saturday's events and hope you remember what was said in the beginning of my speech? But I'm going to just begin with Saturday's events. Much has been written; numerous press conferences have been held. We are committed to make sure that it never happens again. On Friday morning, at 10 a.m., there will be a joint hearing by the House and the Senate in the Capitol auditorium. We will continue to work with the administration to find out what we need to do to ensure that best practices are employed and how we can carry out our responsibility to ensure that each and every citizen and guest of this state is going to be safe, and that accurate information is delivered.

"Having addressed Saturday's events, I'd like to go on to the other issues that face us. The other year, I spoke before the governor gave his State of the State address – and he said, 'Well, you just basically stole my speech.' So, Governor, I'm going to try to be polite to you this morning and focus on one area and give you the rest of the room for your State of the State address on Monday. We have talked much about homelessness and the varying strategies to address this issue. We've talked about affordable housing, the need to fund and the commitment to build those affordable housing units, yet in the area of affordable housing, 2,000 affordable housing units were targeted on property owned by the State of Hawai'i where the offices of the Hawaii Housing Finance & Development Corporation resides. However, after community meetings, it was determined that the carrying capacity of not just the roads, sewer and water lines, but also the carrying capacity of the residents themselves, that 800 units would be more appropriate. This example highlights the challenge that, while we have plans and we have commitments, we need to engage with community to make sure that we're going about doing this job in a responsible way. We need to ensure that, with rail going forward, we deliver on the promise of affordable units along the rail line and transit-oriented development. We have heard from Dr. Pressler that we may be seeing over $12 million in cuts in federal aid; we need to ensure that we are protecting our kūpuna, and that we are providing adequate health services for each and every resident of this state. We are committed to do that. We need to create an economy so that we are generating enough funds to pay for all of the things that we want to do.

"But the one additional area that I'd like to highlight today, in the discussion of how we get affordable housing, how do we deal with some of the homeless issues, is through education. And it is only through education and creating opportunities for each and every child in this state do we give them the opportunity to close the income gap, to be able to reach for the stars and realize their dreams. In the governor's supplemental budget press release, there was very little note of an appropriation of about $150,000 to the Pre-K program, but it's critically important to get that education to our children as soon as possible. What our Office on Early Learning hopes to do is create a better-quality program through the training that they're going to be able to do with the additional staffing. What they hope to do is work with our elementary teachers and get them better training so that, when students move from pre-k into the elementary schools, they are following into one seamless program, that the pre-k and elementary school programs complement each other to ensure the best possible opportunities for our children to get the best education. What we have – and Senator Kahele has been a champion in this chamber for – is the Promise Program, and right now it's only at the community college level, to assist students with their tuition so that financial need is not an obstacle to higher education, that each and every resident in this state is going to have the opportunity – if they desire – to go on to higher learning, that that door will be open for them to walk through. And I know that we are committed to work on expanding the program and making college a reality for each and every student in Hawai'i. Along the line of the Promise Program is the Early College program, where we are bringing university instructors to our local high schools and our students are then able to get college credits. When I talked to the principal at Waimea High School in west Kaua'i, my alma mater, where they have over 30 percent Native

Hawaiian enrollment, they are seeing many students who are the first in their family going to college. They are able to get students into a college classroom at their local high school and make them realize that they have all of the talent, the skills, and the ability to succeed, and college isn't some far-away, impossible dream for them but a reality. We are seeing families who are financially challenged able to have their children get credits and achieve a leg up to reduce the cost of what college would be through the Early College program, and this is going to be another critical stepping stone to allow our children to find that pathway to success.

“And too often, when our current K through high school students go to school, the school lunch is the only meal that those students are going to have that day, and, certainly, the best meal they're going to have. There is a pilot program that's been going on in Kohala, called the Farm to School program; it has met with great success and the DOE is starting to expand it to other schools, and they are sourcing local produce, local fruits. Last week, the DOE announced a program to use more local beef and have healthier, more nutritious lunches that our students are eating, and I have been talking to the Department of Agriculture to see if there is a way that the Department of Agriculture would be able to add some financial support to the school lunch program if the DOE has current contracts that are sourcing the products from our farmers and ranchers here in Hawai'i. If you don't know it, the Department of Education serves over 100,000 meals a day – the largest restaurant in the State of Hawai'i. If we have a commitment from the largest restaurant in the State of Hawai'i to purchase locally produced food, this is the way I see our path forward: to bring all of that agricultural land that Senator Dela Cruz has been land banking into daily use, that we'll put in active production, and we'll be able to bring back farming and address the issue of food security.

“Senator English, as the majority leader, worked diligently on the majority package; we have a brochure with the other priorities for the Senate. They are based off of the 17 sustainable principles of the United Nations. They should be in each office; as you go around and visit today, I encourage you to pick it up – because I'm told that my time is up, I have to keep the speech short today – so it'll be available to you to read. We have it posted online.

“And in closing this morning, I would like to read a quote from Dr. Martin Luther King: 'All life is interrelated. We are all caught in an inescapable network of mutuality . . . Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly. We are made to live together because of the interrelated structure of reality.' And we certainly found out on Saturday morning how connected we are to each and every one, and no matter if you were on Kaua'i or the Big Island, here on O'ahu, when we feared for our lives, for our loved ones, the most important thing we thought about is expressing that love and appreciation for those who are closest to you. I encourage all of you to make sure that you go out and express your love and always be conscious of how your last words will be remembered, and whether you would want those words to be words of anger, and I know I want to be interconnected directly and indirectly in a positive way, expressing hope, love, and – certainly, with the governor here – I want to say that we all, 25 members of the Hawai'i State Senate, are committed to work on legislation that is going to produce the best results for the people of the State of Hawai'i. Thank you very much.”

SENATE RESOLUTION

The following resolution (S.R. No. 1) was read by the Clerk and was deferred:

S.R. No. 1 "SENATE RESOLUTION URGING THE STATE OF HAWAII TO REVIEW AND UPDATE ITS TELECOMMUNICATION DEVICES AND ACCESS FOR THE DEAF, INDIVIDUALS WITH HEARING DISABILITIES, AND INDIVIDUALS WITH SPEECH DISABILITIES."

Offered by: Senators Rhoads, Baker, Green.

At 11:37 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:38 a.m.

At this time, the Chair directed Senator Taniguchi to proceed with a late introduction.

Senator Taniguchi then introduced guests from the National Conference of State Legislatures, who were seated in the gallery: Hawai'i liaison Corina Eckl and National Asian Pacific Americans Caucus staffer Irene Kawanabe.

Senator Shimabukuro invited the members to partake of the haupia that was available in the Majority Caucus Room, courtesy of Leimomi Kahn and the Hawaiian Affairs Caucus.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Last night I attended the Anne Frank exhibition at the East-West Center. It was hosted by Henk Rogers and Maya Soetoro-Ng. It was very moving and I urge all my colleagues to attend if you get a chance. As the child of a man and woman who fled from and then fought the Nazis, this was very close to home for me. One theme we heard was ‘Don’t be silent! The silence of ordinary people allowed the Holocaust to happen.’ Martin Luther King reminded me last weekend: ‘We begin to die when we remain silent about important matters.’

“On Saturday, we all got a wake-up call. There’s been much discussion since about the alarm, and this discussion is necessary and appropriate, but I am concerned that few are talking about the reason for the alarm, the big picture. The reason we are on hair-trigger alert status, the reason we have a special new alarm system, and the reason we all took it so seriously is the real threat of war, which was not turned off on Saturday. There is more concern for the alarm than for the real danger, which remains unabated! Hawai‘i may pay the first price for such a war, but the whole world will be harmed. We seem willing to prepare for a war but not willing to prevent it! (As if there’s such a thing as preparing for nuclear war.) We are unnecessarily at the brink of war not with any one nation but with any of a dozen nations. We’ve been brought to this dangerous place by the childish ravings of one man who is profoundly unfit for the office he holds and who must not be allowed to destroy our country and our planet.

“I call upon our congressional delegation to demand impeachment now for the sake of our safety and the very lives of our children. Only then – only then – can we return to a sense of basic safety. It’s absurd to be politely silent in the face of this real and urgent danger. I, for one, will no longer be silent. I hope you will join your voices with me before it’s too late. Mahalo.”

At this time, Senator Thielen invited the members to sign the Women’s Legislative Caucus package bills in the Majority Caucus Room.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Continuing on what I was talking about yesterday but more briefly, I want to remind everyone what happens when the engine light or the oil light comes on in your car. It could be a signal of a very serious problem. We can fix the problem or we can fix the warning light. We could turn off the warning light and continue happily down the road, which I think is what we’ve done with our false alarm here. It’s not a perfect analogy because we can always buy a new car; we can’t buy a new planet. But I urge all my colleagues to be more concerned with the real problem than with the warning light. Thank you.”

The Chair then made the following announcements:

“Today is the unlimited bill introduction deadline as well as the last day to submit non-administrative bill packages. Please submit all bills to the Clerk’s office by 5:00 p.m. tonight.

“After today, bill limits will be in effect for the duration of the bill introduction period. You may file up to five bills each on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week.

“The Senate session on Monday, January 22, will convene at 9:30 a.m., after which we will meet in Joint Session with the House to receive the Governor’s State of the State address at 10:00 a.m. in the House Chamber.”

RE-REFERRAL OF A SENATE BILL

The Chair re-referred the following Senate bill that was introduced:

- S.B. No.: Re-referred to:
- S.B. No. 516 Committee on Labor, then jointly to the Committee on Judiciary and the Committee on Ways and Means

The Chair made the following announcements:

“The five bills per day limit is in effect for the remainder of the bill introduction period, and the deadline to submit bills to the Clerk’s office is 5:00 p.m. each day.

“Immediately following our floor session today, please report to the House Chamber for the joint session at 10:00 a.m. to receive the Governor’s State of the State address.”

At 9:34 a.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator English and carried, the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair, to meet in Joint Session with the House of Representatives, in accordance with House Concurrent Resolution No. 2, to receive the Governor’s State of the State Address.

JOINT SESSION

The Joint Session of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai‘i, Regular Session of 2018, was called to order at 10:04 a.m. by the Honorable Scott K. Saiki, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker presented the following remarks:

“Members, this morning, we are gathered for the governor’s State of the State Address. Although the State of the State Address is not constitutionally required, it is a tradition in our state. It is also one of the occurrences when all three branches of government assemble in the same room. This gathering is not symbolic; rather, it is a reaffirmation of the framework of our constitutional form of government and, specifically, the distribution of power between the three branches. The Hawai‘i Supreme Court has described this distribution as follows: ‘While the object was to divide and allocate the sovereign power among three co-equal branches, . . . the separate powers were not intended to operate with absolute independence. The Constitution contemplates that practice will integrate the dispersed powers into a workable government. It enjoins upon its branches separateness but interdependence, autonomy but reciprocity.’ In the Hawai‘i Supreme Court’s own words, the constitutional framework rests upon the principle that the branches will not overstep their bounds. Each branch’s respect for the others ensures a government that is workable and therefore able to advance the well-being of the entire state.”

The Speaker then welcomed and introduced the following distinguished guests to the members of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature:

The Honorable Shan S. Tsutsui, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai‘i, who was presented a lei by Representative Dee Morikawa;

The Speaker then appointed Representatives Della Au Belatti and Lauren Kealohilani Matsumoto, on behalf of the House of Representatives, and Senators J. Kalani English and Brickwood Galuteria, on behalf of the Senate, to escort the Honorable David Y. Ige, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, to the rostrum.

Representative Joy A. San Buenaventura and Senator Rosalyn H. Baker presented Governor Ige with maile and 'ilima lei.

The Speaker then presented to the members of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature and guests the Honorable David Y. Ige, Governor of the State of Hawai'i.

Governor Ige presented the State of the State Address as follows:

"Speaker Saiki, President Kouchi, former governors, distinguished justices of the courts, representatives of our congressional delegation, members of the Hawai'i State Legislature, elected officials, military leaders, honored guests, family and friends: Good morning and aloha! As a new legislative session opens, I want you to know I am ready to work with you on the issues that affect us all. The state of our state is strong. We are a resilient people and the future is bright. As I stand before you today, I am struck by the beautiful and often challenging complexity that makes Hawai'i our home. We really are the most beautiful place on earth. We are of many cultures and faiths, and we live together in greater harmony than any place in the world. People from all over the planet come here to enjoy our environment, our host culture, and their gifts to all of us: the gifts of aloha, tolerance and respect, and the celebration of each other and our differences. We often need to be reminded of what makes us so special. We are one of the healthiest states in the nation. People here live longer than anywhere else in the country. We have led the nation in health insurance for decades, and, in the current chaos, we stand firm in caring for each other. We have the lowest unemployment rate in the nation. We are strong financially. Our bond rating is the highest it's ever been in our history, making it possible for us to get the most bang for our buck when we borrow money. This saves the state tens of millions of dollars, allowing us to make critical investments in our schools, housing, and highways. And we have made our voice clear: Hawai'i will not stand for the hateful and hurtful policies of the Trump White House. We are doing more than any other state to stand up for what is right – such as DACA and the Paris climate accord – and to stop what is wrong, such as the travel ban and stopping transgender members of the military from defending our flag and our freedoms.

"And yet so many of us are living paycheck to paycheck, relying heavily on our extended families to make ends meet. Owning a home is out of reach for many families, with housing costs rising faster than wages. Too much of our time is spent in traffic, affecting our families and quality of life. The growing gap between those doing well and those who are not should concern all of us. We depend too heavily on imported food and fuel. And we must find a just place in our relationship with our own history and with the people of the first nation of Hawai'i. And the challenges to our island environment, such as global climate change, stare us in the face every single day.

"I honor my predecessors, former governors, and I have built on what they have done. In doing so, I affirm three truths about Hawai'i and the way we govern. First, I see Hawai'i as a place and a people that cherish our children, celebrate our diversity, and want a better life for the next generation. Second, I see Hawai'i as a place and a people where we believe in 'ohana; we respect our kūpuna and understand that our 'āina and our ocean are critical to our quality of life. And, finally, I see Hawai'i as a place and a people where we still believe in the promise of Hawai'i and the prospect of limitless opportunities. This is the legacy of our host culture, the cultures of our immigrant families, and all those who choose to call Hawai'i home. We have put these values and beliefs into action to chart the course to our collective future.

"It is one thing to say our children matter; it is quite another thing to do something about it. We have invested more widely in classrooms than in previous years. We promised to cool 1,000 of Hawai'i's hottest classrooms, where soaring temperatures have hindered learning for years. I'm proud to report, with the Legislature's support, that we exceeded our original goal, and we're at 1,200 classrooms and counting. I also promised to empower our schools so they can focus on 21st-century skills and critical learning. In meetings around the state, community members, teachers, staff, and principals expressed frustration about the top-down mandates and a one-size-fits-all approach to schools. And so, with more than 3,000 parents, teachers, and community members from around the state, we created a new Blueprint for Education. This blueprint for change is now in the hands of new DOE leadership. I also recognized that it is not enough to say to our teachers, 'We respect how hard you work.' That's why we've given our educators the pay raise that they have long deserved.

"Now, let's talk about housing. When we say 'ohana, we truly mean nobody gets left behind. For those who want to live in Hawai'i, probably no issue is more challenging than finding a decent, affordable place to live. And probably no issue challenges us as a society more than the daily sight of those who are now living on our streets and in our parks. We have dedicated more money to mental health treatment and services, including to our homeless population. We have initiated the largest annual increase in production of affordable housing with thousands of new units coming to market. We're on track to meet our goal of 10,000 new housing units by 2020, with at least 40 percent affordable. And this session, I'm requesting $100 million to maintain the momentum and produce more affordable homes across the state.

"It has been my firm belief that the state must remain committed to developing and delivering Hawaiian homelands to beneficiaries. In 2016, we provided $24 million in funding to the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. This was the highest level of funding in the department's 95-year history and more than double what had been set aside previously. For its part, Hawaiian Home Lands has been ramping up development of vacant and turn-key lots. More than 220 lots were awarded in 2017, and that number will more than double in 2018. We have also worked hard with the department to spend down federal funds and identify alternative sources of revenue that can be used to sustain the agency over time.

“Our Housing First policy focuses on transitional housing as a way to get people into permanent housing. The new Kaka’ako Family Assessment Center moves families off the streets and into permanent housing in less than 90 days. A ‘special team’ in public housing reduced the vacant unit turnaround time from 267 days to just 7 days. And our landlord summits increased the number of landlords willing to rent to families transitioning out of homelessness. Even in the tragedy that is homelessness, there are significant signs that these policies are starting to make a difference. Homelessness is down 9 percent statewide – the first decline in eight years. There’s more to be done, for sure. We continue our efforts to offer services to those who have so far refused to leave the streets to move into a better life. We have set aside monies in this year’s budget to support more progress on the homelessness front. Our budget request also includes $15 million in additional funding for Housing First initiatives, outreach services, and maintaining safety in our public places. We also know how important community partners have been in tackling this challenge. Take Kahauiki Village, a permanent housing project for homeless families launched by local businessman and philanthropist Duane Kurisu. Duane brought together the city, state, nonprofits, and businesses to make the village a reality in record time. The first 30 families moved in recently. Duane, please stand to be recognized.

“Ohana also means that you should be able to put food on the table and be home with your family to eat it. That means jobs that pay well and commutes that work. Even though tourism is up and unemployment is low, many of our residents are living paycheck to paycheck, one health emergency or car repair away from crisis. Some people may have two or three jobs to make ends meet. The challenge is not just about creating jobs, it’s about creating quality jobs and the training that go with them. I understand the frustration of many, and that’s why I’m working to transform our economy to give residents a diversity of employment opportunities that pay higher wages and lead to a better quality of life for all. We’re tackling another quality-of-life issue, and that’s traffic congestion. I have three goals: get projects done quickly, get them done inexpensively, and get them done with minimum impact on the environment. And we are making progress. From zipper and shoulder lanes and other contraflow lanes to safety around our public schools and truck-only routes, we are going to where the problems are. We’re reducing back-ups and bottlenecks – in West and Windward O’ahu, Kahului, Lahaina, Līhu’e, Hilo, Kona, and other communities all across the state. We want commute times to be shorter.

“We must create a better life for the next generation – it is what we all want. We all dream of our children succeeding here in Hawai’i. With my three children on the mainland, I know firsthand how hard it is to have them an ocean away. My personal goal – the goal to which I have dedicated my service as governor – is creating a Hawai’i that gives all of our children the choice to live and call Hawai’i home. My grandparents came to Hawai’i in search of opportunities. It is not acceptable to me that many of our kids are essentially becoming immigrants in other places because we don’t have the opportunities here in Hawai’i.

“While there is more to do, I am proud of what we have accomplished together. We have more Early College programs so high school students can earn college credits, saving families money and making it easier to graduate with degrees. We expanded campuses and offer more courses at UH West O’ahu and Pālanui. The creation of Hawai’i’s Promise scholarships helps to pay for the costs of attending UH community colleges.

“The Entrepreneur’s Sandbox in Kaka’ako brings start-ups together in one shared space and helps with loans and grants. We also founded the annual ‘hackathon’ competition, which enlists hundreds of professional and amateur code writers to develop solutions for the state’s biggest information technology challenges. We must prepare our young people for jobs in this sector and that means supporting STEM education, focusing on science, technology, engineering, and math. The good news is that it is expanding at all levels. The University of Hawai’i is one of the leaders in this work, with the Mānoa campus increasing its STEM graduates by more than a third in recent years and the community colleges leading the way, tripling their numbers. Also helping to train students in our schools are partners like DevLeague, a computer programming and coding academy founded by two local software engineers. They are working with the DOE and private foundations. Together, they are teaching high school students advanced coding and cybersecurity skills. We’d like to recognize DevLeague’s founders, Jason Sewell and Russel Cheng.

“To be sure that workers in Hawai’i’s existing industries aren’t left behind, we’ve made available a wide variety of vocational training opportunities through the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. These programs match training with current job openings in fields ranging from computer science and shipyard welding to banking and food safety. And within state government, as we ride the wave of modernization, we remain fully committed to retraining every worker to use the new computer systems and technology tools. Technology helps us be more responsive to serve the public.

“We have always been a state that cares about the elderly. We are making good on that. I am proud that, together, we were able to pass Kupuna Care legislation that provides assistance for full-time family caregivers who also have full-time jobs. This is a win for Hawai’i’s families. We also worked to make sure those who have served our state get to retire with the dignity they were promised and deserve. With the Legislature’s support, we took aggressive steps that will save us $1.6 billion over the next 20 years.

“As our kūpuna have taught us, paying our bills, honoring our obligations, and saving for the future is how we build a brighter future. And we have done that. One value that has guided this administration is to not simply pass on our debts to our kids and our grandkids. Together we have made tremendous strides in this task – rebuilding our Rainy Day fund to $310 million. We have gone after tax cheats and collected millions from those who were not paying their fair share. And we are working to modernize our tax collection system to make it easier and fairer for the people of Hawai’i. We made needed changes to improve the system so we can collect the tax revenues we rely on to deliver state services. I believe we’re on the right track to accomplish this major task.

“We’re also making great strides in protecting our ‘āina and ocean resources. To date, we have protected over 40,000 acres of watershed forests on Kaua’i, O’ahu, Moloka’i, and Hawai’i islands. We helped preserve Turtle Bay lands from further development. A joint agreement with the U.S. Navy is helping us reach our renewable energy goals. And together, we’ve established guidelines to use recycled water on food crops. Working with all of you here in the Legislature, we were able to provide tax credits for organic farmers, which means a healthier people and healthier lands. And you passed and I signed a law to abide by the Paris climate accord – the first state in the nation to do so. We understand deeply and fully what the future requires of us. I also fought to give Native Hawaiians a seat at the table when it comes to management of Papahānaumokuākea Marine National Monument. The Office of Hawaiian Affairs is now a co-trustee of the monument.

“Our goal of increasing local food production is another golden opportunity for Hawai‘i. We are blessed with four growing seasons and a land-grant university with a College of Tropical Agriculture that has a long history of cutting-edge work. With all of these factors, Hawai‘i can and must become the premier center for new agricultural technologies. We already have ag tech startups going strong here in Hawai‘i. One company that comes to mind is Smart Yields. They help small and medium farmers to increase their production with data analytics and other technology tools. The company received international attention when it was chosen to be part of the Vatican’s very first tech accelerator focused on global food production. At this time, I’d like to recognize Smart Yields CEO Vincent Kimura and his mentor, Hawai‘i island farmer Richard Ha. What we need now is the driver to make greater local food production possible. There is no better way than through our schools. I applaud the new leadership in the DOE’s Farm to School program, the leadership provided by Lieutenant Governor Shan Tsutsui, and the great cooperation of the Department of Agriculture and the State Procurement Office. Shan, please stand to be recognized.

“Clean energy is not only critical to air and water quality, it is important to our economy and our wallets as we work to reduce our reliance on imported fossil fuels. Working with the Legislature, I was the first governor to sign into law a bill requiring 100 percent of Hawai‘i’s electricity to come from renewable sources by 2045. This demonstrates what we can accomplish when we work together. We want hydropower, sea water air conditioning, solar and wind energy, biomass, and the fullest possible use of our waste streams. We celebrate the Hū Honua power plant on the Big Island as well as the new solar farms on other islands. And this week, we will join NRG Energy, Hawaiian Electric, and Kamehameha Schools in celebrating three utility-scale solar projects here on O‘ahu. As a next step, we will grow a carbon market here in Hawai‘i. This way, carbon polluters from around the world can invest in restoring Hawai‘i’s koa and ‘ōhi‘a trees and forests to offset their carbon emissions, wherever that is. We want the brainpower and the imagination of the world to continue to come here. They can help us find our way to 100 percent renewable energy sources for electricity and, in doing so, help the world find its way to 100 percent. Let us take the billions we export for fossil fuels, spend it here, and then export the energy systems we develop.

“We are dreaming big and creating the promise of limitless opportunities. Anything less means we are letting down the next generation. Hawai‘i has so much potential in this new globally connected world. We are already viewed as the ideal research base and testing ground for innovative, globally significant technologies such as telemedicine, smart cities, and autonomous, driverless vehicles. Hawai‘i is a leader in solving the issues of our time. Much of what we do here in Hawai‘i is ground-breaking. Hawai‘i is home to many talented individuals breaking new ground every single day. Hawai‘i is full of stories of business innovators blazing the trail to create new products and services. The Big Island’s Tina Fitch turned her start-up Switchfly into a global software platform used by almost every major travel and hospitality company in the world. Now, she’s returned home and started a second company, Hobnob, which we hope achieves equal success. Tina, who flew in to be with us this morning – Tina, can you rise to be recognized?”

“In our own state government, employees are helping us improve the services to the public every day. One example is a team of young millennials known as ‘The Three Amigos’ – Jodie Nakamura, Ryan Mercado, and Liam Tobin. The wait time for workers’ comp hearings has been cut in half because of their efforts. This 2017 Team of the Year from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations launched a project to digitize mountains of paperwork from some 20,000 claims a year. And there are many more dedicated workers just like them all around the state. Jodie, Ryan, and Liam – please stand to be recognized. They’re just a sampling of our homegrown talent. We just need to do more to create the supportive environment around them that will launch and sustain their careers here in the islands.

“I hope you’ll leave today knowing that we have laid important groundwork and that Hawai‘i is on the edge of something exciting. At the beginning of my speech, I said Hawai‘i is a beautiful and complex place. I believe that is our gift to our children and to the future. Imagine a future economy for Hawai‘i that isn’t reliant solely on tourism and the military. Imagine a future where local entrepreneurs are inventing useful products and services that are sold across the globe. Imagine that we use our temperate weather and four growing seasons to develop new high-tech agricultural tools that increase yields for farmers from Hawai‘i to India. Imagine that we farm our nearshore ocean waters to feed our own communities and the growing global demand for seafood. And with these businesses, there’s new demand for scientists, technicians, and marketing professionals. And what does this mean for the people of Hawai‘i? It means a healthier economy with quality jobs that enable us to improve our schools, take care of our kūpuna, and provide more affordable housing. This future Hawai‘i isn’t as far off as it seems. We’ve already set things in motion. We’ve put stakes in the ground and we’re making progress. To face the challenges of the future, Hawai‘i must seize the opportunities, embrace change, and identify the game-changing steps that we need to take. Together, the possibilities are limitless. I believe the qualities we treasure most about Hawai‘i are what will draw our children back to us.

“When I ran for governor four years ago, I wanted to take my lifetime of public service and fundamentally change the path we were taking. I have committed my life to the people of the State of Hawai‘i. No matter what challenges we face, no matter what frustrations or issues we have with one another, I find my strength and courage in our shared sense of unity. We must work together. Mahalo and aloha!”

Senate President Ronald D. Kouchi then rose and stated:

“Mahalo, Governor Ige. I, too, share your vision, your aspirations and hopes for this state and the people who reside here, the guests who we welcome here. I would reiterate in that vision of the Hawai‘i in the future, again, that it is with the 100 percent renewable energy that we’re providing to the citizens of this state. I want to restate that because the island of Kaua‘i and the Kaua‘i Island Utility Cooperative, with two of those solar battery storage facilities and the recently-agreed hydro project – a partnership with the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, DLNR, and ADC – Kaua‘i is driving through 60 percent and will be heading to 70 percent renewable within the next 18 months. And at one point last year, for about five minutes, Kaua‘i Island Utility Cooperative ran with a hundred percent renewable energy on the grid.

“So, like the governor, I’m not here to talk about dreams; I’m here to say what we are doing and how we’re going to continue to do it and how we’re going to do it better. I commit to the governor on behalf of the Hawai‘i State Senate and to the Speaker of the House that the Hawai‘i Senate stands ready to work with your branches of government to ensure that we get the results that we desire for the people of Hawai‘i.

“I’d like to close with a quote from Yehuda Berg: ‘Hurt people hurt people. That’s how pain patterns get passed on, generation after generation . . . Break the chain today. Meet anger with sympathy, contempt with compassion, and cruelty with kindness. Greet grimaces with smiles. Forgive and forget about finding fault. Love is the weapon of the future.' Mahalo."

At 10:58 a.m., President Kouchi declared the Joint Session adjourned.

ADJOURNMENT

ADJOURNMENT

At 5:00 p.m., the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Friday, January 26, 2018.

SIXTH DAY

Friday, January 26, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:39 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Baker, English, and Ruderman who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Fifth Day.

At this time, Senator Kidani recognized a group of student leaders who were present in the gallery, and noted that the Secondary Student Conference, sponsored and organized by the Hawai'i State Student Council, was taking place in the Civic Center with the theme of "Courage To Take The Lead."

Senator Green introduced Alif Chowdhury, a student from Bangladesh attending Konawaena High School as a participant in the Kennedy-Lugar Youth Exchange & Study (YES) Program.

Senator Espero introduced Ivan Hordiienko, a student from Ukraine attending James Campbell High School as a participant in the Future Leaders Exchange (FLEX) Program.

Senator Harimoto introduced Bunafsha Nuralieva, a student from Tajikistan attending St. Andrew's Priory as a participant in the FLEX Program.

Senator Inouye introduced Mahmoud Madieh, a student from Palestine attending Parker School as a participant in the YES Program.

Senator Wakai introduced Kieran Rong Chen Siek, a student from Malaysia attending Wai'anae High School as a participant in the YES Program.

Senator Galuteria introduced Eivile Cakaite, a student from Lithuania attending St. Andrew's Priory as a participant in the FLEX Program.

Senator Tokuda introduced Ana Dedabrishvili, a student from Georgia attending James B. Castle High School as a participant in the FLEX Program.

Senator Inouye congratulated and commended Amy Alohilani Bircher for her outstanding achievements, and presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President and colleagues and honored guests, I would like you all to join me to honor and recognize Amy Bircher of Kailua-Kona and to celebrate her recent and continuing success as a screenwriter. Amy, who is a constituent of District 4, applied for and was selected to participate in the March 2017 Creative Lab Hawai'i Writers Immersive program, along with a cohort of seven others. At this time, I would like to yield the floor to the chair of the Senate Committee on Economic Development, Tourism, and Technology to introduce the innovative DBEDT accelerator program that is providing economic opportunities for many of our state residents."

Senator Wakai presented the following remarks:

"Lights, camera, action! That's what Hollywood provides. Mentors, access, knowledge – that's what Creative Lab provides. It's an accelerator program bringing here to Hawai'i a number of leaders in the media, music, and design industries and partnering them with creative entrepreneurs. The end result is increased global exports, not of products but of our unique intellectual property. Did you know that, currently, in Hawai'i, the creative sector is a 3.6 billion – with a 'B' – dollar industry? It represents more than 4 percent of the state's gross domestic product. Creative Lab is tucked away in the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism and is a nationally recognized program. From 2013 to 2017, this accelerator produced 45 programs with more than 1,500 participants. Approximately 200 of these entrepreneurs participated in the immersive program and ideation workshops and collaborated in projects that resulted in three motion pictures, six options, five web series, one app, and six licensed songs. Ladies and gentlemen, Creative Lab has developed a growing community of successful innovators. It's become so successful that the program had to expand to the neighbor islands, and that's why my colleague Senator Inouye will pick up the script from here."

Senator Inouye rose and stated:

"Through the Creative Lab program, Amy has been guided by executive director Michael Andres Palmieri and coached by professional writers Doug Atchinson, Jessie Nickson-Lopez, and Luisa Leschin. Following her dream, Amy started working hard on her project with her program fellows under Mr. Palmieri's supervision. A few months after a five-day intensive workshop, Mr. Palmieri forwarded a copy of Amy's project, 'Victorian Christmas,' to producers who were looking for a writer for an open writing assignment. Upon reading the script, the producers optioned Amy's screenplay, which is now making its way through Hollywood networks and studios for financing. In the meantime, during CLH networking opportunities, Amy met Pamela Ribon, the CLH animation program mentor and screenwriter of Disney's movie Moana. Ms. Ribon introduced Amy to a friend of hers who just happened to have written Amy's favorite Hallmark Christmas movie. This writer, now a producer, helped Amy get her first work-for-hire opportunity writing a Lifetime mini-movie, which is 15 minutes long, that was released on December 3, 2017, titled Delivering Christmas. Amy has landed two additional work-for-hire projects: an adaption of a novel and an original movie of the week. These results are completely tied to her participation in the CLH Writers Immersive program. Amy was recently selected by her peers and mentors to attend the National Association of Television Program Executives (NATPE) in Miami. While there, Amy was able to attend intensive workshops and network with television industry executives.

"On a personal note, Amy Alohilani Bircher was born in Hawai'i and raised on Hu'ehu'e Ranch on Hawai'i island, the youngest of four children. As a young girl, her passion for reading evolved into a love for writing. After graduating from Hawai'i Preparatory Academy, she attended Sonoma State University in California, where she earned her degree in communication studies. Amy is married to Chad Bircher, and they have two boys, Noa and Cody. A special hobby of Amy's is growing lavender, making candles, and baking homemade bread.

"With Amy on the floor, we have DBEDT director Luis Salaveria; Georja Skinner, Creative Industries Division chief officer; and Michael Palmieri. Mr. President and colleagues, in the gallery, we have Amy's husband, Chad Bircher; her parents, Carl and Christine Carlson, from Kona; and her sister, Lori Carlson. Also in the gallery are some of Amy's fellow cohort members: Alexander Deedy, Patrick Kelly, Phil Rios, Robert Barclay and Stacy Barclay, Robert Joe, and Toan Doran. Congratulations, Amy, and thank you, folks, for being here with us. Congratulations, Amy, and now I'd like to yield the floor back to Senator Wakai for another presentation."

Senator Wakai rose and stated:

“I’d like to give you a little bit more background on the person who nurtured and shaped Amy into the magnificent innovator she is today. That person is Michael Andres Palmieri. Michael is the executive director of Creative Lab Hawai‘i. He has flown in from New York just to join us for this special occasion. He is a veteran of the entertainment industry, having written and produced content for major motion pictures, television, theme parks, and the web. He has even worked with prominent production companies, such as Disney, Warner Bros., and 20th Century Fox. For the past 20 years, Michael has also been designing, facilitating, and producing training and development programs for media entrepreneurs. It was through one of these intensive programs that he met Amy and became her mentor. He has forged connections with entertainment industry giants and is thus instrumental in creating a pipeline for local aspiring innovators working in this field. Therefore, we’d like to take this opportunity to recognize Michael Palmieri for his championing of the arts and supporting Hawai‘i’s creatives. We sincerely appreciate all your efforts in trying to grow the arts here in the State of Hawai‘i.”

At 11:59 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:08 p.m.

But what this clearly shows is how important it is for us lawmakers to fund arts and music in our schools. Our students are talented; they can compete with anybody in the nation and the world, and Bruno Mars has shown what our students and youth are capable of on the world stage, so congratulations to Bruno Mars. I’ll see if we can get a certificate for him here in the Senate. Thank you.”

NINTH DAY

Wednesday, January 31, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:33 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Eighth Day.

At this time, Senator Keith-Agaran rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I'd like to introduce one of my constituents, who is visiting with us today. Actually, he used to sit here on the floor with us. I want to introduce Shan Tsutsui, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i for another – how much longer are you here? For today.

"I first met the lieutenant governor years ago, when he came by my law partner's office and we were sitting around; some people were enjoying adult beverages – I can't remember who. And we were trying to find someone to run for the vacant – well, it wasn't a vacant Senate seat yet, but it was a seat that represented our community, and this young guy sitting there, all of a sudden said, 'You know, I might be interested.' And we said, 'Yeah, yeah, okay,' and he ended up filing; he ended up running, and he ran probably one of the best campaigns ever, one that was truly grassroots, and it turned out that he was probably one of the best representatives of my community that we've had in many years. (And it didn't hurt that he went to Maui High School like I did.) And when I was privileged enough to be appointed to the State House, he was a very good partner. In fact, he was the senior partner because, unfortunately, I wasn't with the majority in the House, so I think I was an additional person that he had to take care of in whatever position he had in the State Senate. I remember, in the last campaign that we did together, when he was running for reelection in 2012, I recall that we were sign-waving together on Ka'ahumanu Avenue. I was actually listening to the World Series while we were sign-waving, and he was telling me that he was thinking that he was going to try to become president in the Senate. And I said, 'Yeah, yeah, yeah, right.' And he did, and he again served capably, very capably, in that position. I think those of us who were serving in the House understood that, for the first time in a while, I think the Senate probably showed the House that there was another chamber in the Capitol. I think his one, probably, mistake was to leave the State Senate because that opened it up for me.

"But I'm very glad to be able to call him friend; he's been someone who I care about, and I know that he has always cared about my family as well, and we all share a lot of the same friends, and I want to thank you for your service to the state. And, you know, for everyone here, I don't blame you for wanting to go home; I look forward to that every Friday. Thank you."

Senator Baker rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"We can't let our esteemed colleague and friend go without a little more ceremony, so we have styled a very unusual but unique Senate congratulatory certificate for our friend. It's unique in that it's been signed with messages from your former colleagues, all of us here, and I wanted to take this opportunity to read just a paragraph so that you can be memorialized in our Journal. It says:

The Hawai'i State Senate is honored to formally recognize and thank Shan Tsutsui for his years of service first as a State Senator and as Lieutenant Governor.

... Shan ... has been a strong advocate for R.E.A.C.H. (Resources for Enrichment, Athletics, Culture and Health). This program provides an organizational framework for public middle and intermediate schools to offer expanded learning opportunities during after-school hours. Lieutenant Governor Shan Tsutsui was also a driving force behind the Farm to School Initiative, which supplies schools with fresh, locally grown produce in order to improve the nutrition of our Keiki. ...

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i hereby recognizes Lieutenant Governor Shan Tsutsui for his dedication to furthering successful initiatives and programs which have been of great benefit to the future leaders of our islands and expresses its appreciation and aloha for his service to the people of the State of Hawai'i. We wish him and his wife, Lyndelle, and their three daughters, Mikayla, Kaylee and Kenna great success and happiness in all future endeavors.

"So, as a token of our appreciation, we are presenting you with this certificate that shares some messages from all of us. Mahalo."

Senator Tokuda rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Sadly, I do not have any wisdom from Dr. Seuss, but I do have something that I would like to share briefly with my fellow Under 40 Club member. For those of you who may not know, on the very first day here in the State Senate, I was privileged enough to receive a very special lei from our lieutenant governor. I was very scared, walking into this building for the first time, and he came up to me and he presented me with a gift. And I can tell you, though, upon the birth of my first child, I put that gift to very good use. It was a lei, much like this [holds up lei] that also contained a pacifier because, he proudly told me, 'I have been waiting for you for so long because now I am no longer the youngest member of the State Senate. Congratulations!' It took me a decade for the good senator from Hawai'i Kai to take over the reins of being the new youngest member of the State Senate – congratulations, by the way! But upon him creeping up to that age where he was going to be leaving us, we made a pact that we would forever be members of the Under 40 Club. We grandfathered ourselves in, by the way, since we're both now over 40, and we also capped it off, so we are proud members – the only members – of the Under 40 Club of the Hawai'i State Senate.

"But I wanted to thank him for taking me in when it was quite a scary place to be, here amongst our esteemed colleagues – and for reminding me to make sure that I balance out the heavy work of representing my district but also taking time to be with my husband, to raise a family, to have a family, and what that would be like, because having two little children has still, to this very day, been the biggest blessing for me; to make sure that I had those family trips, that I played soccer with them on the field, that I went to Cub Scouts, that I took them out at every possible occasion, brought them to the Capitol but went home with them to tuck them into bed. You know, Shan, you've been that role model for me, and you deserve everything in the world in terms of making sure that you can be there for them. So, thank you for being role models for all of us moms and dads who want to make sure that we can set good policy for them but, at the very end of the day, make sure that they know that they've got a good parent who's always going to be there for them. So, thank you so much for everything that you've done for us and what you've done for your family as well.

"So I now continue, as we start off in the beginning, we also do in the end, give you back a pacifier because you deserve this, and it's important that you remember: The Tao Te Ching, something that I remember reading long ago, reminds us that 'amidst the worldly comings and goings, observe how endings truly become beginnings.' This is not the end for you because I know that our state, our country, needs good leaders like you to remind us constantly what's important in what we do. So thank you."

Senator English rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I remember when the lieutenant governor first came to the Senate, and I was so happy because, I said to him, 'Now you're the youngest member of the Senate!' That was a title we've all passed on, right? You know, Shan has been such a great colleague to us, and for the Maui delegation, I can tell you that we've accomplished some incredible things together that Maui County, all four of our islands, have benefited from, and the entire state. But one thing I've always admired about Shan is this: that there was always the human side to him, and he always recognized the importance of family, the importance of the relation with each other, and the importance of friendship. So, we've been through a lot, Shan and I together, and 15 years of working together doesn't end here, and I look forward to working with you on many other projects in Maui and throughout the state. I do have a marble table stand upstairs that you can take home with you when you're ready. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kidani rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Well, you can call him Shawn or you can call him Shane; recently it's Stan but I think his name is Shan! Mr. Lieutenant Governor, thank you for many memories; thank you for being a great friend. I remember, about nine-and-a-half years ago, when I first won my first election, he was on the phone with my friend Charlotte Nekota, telling her, 'She won her election! She won her election!' And I'm watching the TV and said, 'He doesn't know anything! I'm waiting for the announcement!' But thank you for being there when I first came in and helping me along. What I appreciate most in recent years is how hard you have worked on issues that are dear to me, not just coaching softball, but the Farm to School program; after-school, middle school programs, and I hope that we can continue your legacy because the next Farm to School program will be in Mililani. And I appreciate your hard work because we've talked about it for years, but it never happened until you did it. Good luck to you; mahalo."

The Chair presented the following remarks:

"Although not customary, I want to say something. In the 2000 election that Senator Keith-Agaran referenced, with the lieutenant governor running a textbook campaign, I personally was immersed in a very unsuccessful campaign to be the mayor of Kaua'i. In early 2003, my friend Senator Kim was coming to Kaua'i to meet with Mayor Baptiste, and with downtime before the meeting and the scheduled arrival of the plane, she asked me if I would pick her up, and I said, 'Sure, we can go get some coffee; we can chat for a little while - happy to see you.' And she came with some young, fresh-faced gentleman and, upon being introduced, I said, 'Oh, are you with Senator Kim's staff?' Well, I was corrected that this was the new senator from Maui, and then they said 'Shan,' and fortunately for me, he either forgot about the incident or forgave me when I came to the Senate, and he befriended me.

"It's unusual to be 14 years someone's senior yet refer to him as a mentor, someone who has tremendously influenced my life in a positive way, and I want to express my appreciation to him for that. I know, in talking about the succession, my comment was that his leaving leaves a gaping hole in the political fabric of this state. And while we've talked about the contributions he is going to be making because he's still young, in knowing his extended family, in knowing Lynn, Mikayla, Kaylee, and Kenna, it is certainly my belief that the greatest contribution that he is going to make to the State of Hawai'i is what his daughters are going to accomplish by the values that he and his wife and family have passed on to them and the skills and talent that they possess. And so, while I look forward to his next chapter, I'm certainly anxiously waiting to see the contribution that his three daughters are going to make to this great state. So, to you, Lieutenant Governor, thank you very much for your service; to your family, thank you so very much for sharing him with us and the rest of the state."

THIRTEENTH DAY

Tuesday, February 6, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:30 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twelfth Day.

At this time, Senator Tokuda welcomed a group of fifth-grade students from Le Jardin Academy, who were seated in the gallery with teachers Maggie Foley, Rob Marsden, Eric Ameng, and Cheryl Coolen-Derosier.

Senator Espero celebrated the Hawaii Adaptive Surf Team, and presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President, colleagues, and guests: Today we honor an organization and their members who have made our state proud. These individuals are shining examples of perseverance and a relentless spirit. Christopher Reeve once said: 'So many of our dreams at first seem impossible, then they seem improbable, and then, when we summon the will, they soon become inevitable.' Mr. President and colleagues, the individuals that we honor today live those very words in their daily lives.

"AccesSurf is a local nonprofit organization that allows any person with a disability to enjoy our ocean. Founded in Hawai'i in 2006, AccesSurf provides free beach and ocean access programs. AccesSurf gives modified and flexible surfing and salutary instruction on water recreation both nationally and locally. AccesSurf also informs the public about helping people with disabilities. One of the programs which has developed from monthly beach events is the Hawaii Adaptive Surf Team.

"The goal of the Hawaii Adaptive Surf Team is to guide and mentor adaptive surfers toward their highest possible potential. The HAST consists of a base of 20 members throughout the islands. The members train with professional surfers and practice all year long. Another objective of HAST is to support and sponsor participation in surfing championships. These events include the local Hawaii Surfing Association competitions and world competitions. World events include the Western Surfing Association, Hale'iwa International Open, USA National Surf Competition, and International Surfing Association Adaptive World Surfing Championships.

"The International Surfing Association Adaptive World Surfing Championships tournament recently took place in La Jolla, California, from November 29 to December 3, 2017. The HAST team from Hawai'i placed fifth in the world out of 26 countries and proudly brought home six medals in the individual divisions. Colleagues, let me introduce the medalists that comprised the representatives to the championship tournament – and our championship team from Hawai'i: First of all, I'd like to ask Chris Courtois, the coach, to rise and be recognized; Ann Yoshida; Ava Heller; Meira Duarte; Darian Haynes; Rich Julian; and Buster Kawasaki. Let's give them a big hand, everybody. I'd also like to send a special aloha to Ms. Cara Short, the executive director of AccesSurf, who unfortunately is not able to join us today. In the gallery, supporting and watching are friends and family: Mr. Jerry Heller, Ava's dad and coach, please rise; and all other family and supporters and friends of AccesSurf in the gallery, will you please rise and be recognized? ## FOURTEENTH DAY

Thursday, February 8, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:37 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirteenth Day.

At this time, Senator Baker welcomed a group of sixth-, seventh-, and eighth-grade students from the Lokelani Intermediate School Student Council, who were seated in the gallery and were visiting O'ahu with teacher Cathy Fitzpatrick and parent chaperones to participate in the USS Missouri Digital Media Program.

Senator Kahele recognized 11 members of the Associated Students of the University of Hawai'i Kaua'i Community College Student Government, who were present in the gallery with student life coordinator and staff advisor John Constantino and co-advisor Crystal Cruz.

Senator Galuteria honored and recognized Grammy Award-winning vocalist Peabo Bryson, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, it's my distinct honor to welcome to the Hawai'i State Senate a friend and a premier vocalist in the contemporary music of the world in this last quarter-century: Please welcome Mr. Peabo Bryson. And, Peabo, by the way, thank you so much for doing our contemplation moment, and we thank our senator from Maui for deferring to us today. The words resonated with each one of us, and I'm sure we'll take home the great message. Thank you so much.

"Now, Peabo is a two-time Grammy winner, as we all know, with a beautifully rich operatic voice that survived the passage of time. We were talking in my office before we came down; he's got a beautiful 50-year-old daughter who's going to take care of his 5-week-old baby, so he spans the length of time. In fact, he was saying that she's going to actually be taking care of her 5-week-old uncle? There you go. Obviously, he's a champion of popular culture and music. He's created many duets with a bevy of beautiful and talented women, including Natalie Cole, Roberta Flack, Melissa Manchester, Regina Belle, and Lea Salonga. Beautiful! Peabo enjoyed tremendous success with such musical hits as 'If Ever You're in My Arms Again' – and feel free to chime in any time – 'Can You Stop the Rain,' 'Through the Fire,' 'Unconditional Love.' In 1992 and 1993, Peabo won a Grammy Award for his performance of the song 'Beauty and the Beast' with Celine Dion and 'A Whole New World' with Regina Belle, the theme song for Aladdin. Peabo will spend his first public appearance this Valentine season right here in Hawai'i, performing tonight at the Hawaii Convention Center, so on behalf of the Hawai'i State Senate, my friend, we want to extend to you our sincerest appreciation for joining us here today and for your contributions to the music world and your future contributions as well. We wish you the warmest aloha! Thank you so much, and the best in all future endeavors – Mr. Peabo Bryson. Mahalo; thank you so much. And, Mr. President, I'd like to ask for a brief recess so that we can say aloha no to our honored guest.

"We do have special guests who came with Peabo. In the chamber today, joining in is Lara Cuevas – she is a vocalist in his orchestra; Jaymee Rodriguez; Dwight Watkins – that's Peabo's best friend; Andrew and Diana Garcia; and Jennifer Duran of the Love Rocks! concert – they all accompanied Peabo today. Thank you, Mr. President."

At 11:44 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:54 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2183 (Gov. Msg. No. 537):

Senator Tokuda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2183 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator English and carried.

Senator Tokuda then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of LEONARD HOSHIGO as Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, term to expire at noon on December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator English.

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Director Hoshigo has worked at the ILWU for 26 years in various positions."

The Chair interjected to call a recess, to allow the gallery audience to transition to the House Chamber.

At 11:45 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:48 a.m.

Senator Tokuda continued her remarks in support of the nominee as follows:

"As I was stating before, Director Hoshigo worked at the beginning of his career at ILWU for over 26 years in a number of different positions, including housing representative, organizer, international representative, international vice president – a very good advocate for achieving affordable home ownership and developing rental housing for individuals who were unable to purchase a home, dealing with collective bargaining agreements, supporting state assistance for agricultural and tourism employers, and gaining quite a bit of experience through this capacity. He then went on to serve as the education and political director for the Hawaii Regional Council of Carpenters from 2001 to 2015. The work that he did at the carpenters union helped to lead to the successful contract negotiation for project labor agreements for military housing developers that privatized military housing to ensure that houses for Army, Navy, Marines, and Air Force families would be built efficiently for the next 50 years at area standard wages for our construction workers – always looking out for our working men and women here in Hawai'i.

"He has served as deputy director for the last three years, assisting in managing the department. He has overseen some of the most critical and challenging areas of our department: some of the divisions that have been challenging, to say the least, such as Work Comp, Unemployment Insurance, Workforce Development Council, and HIOSH. This will definitely help in his new capacity as director of the department: the ability to dig deep into some of those areas and the ability to now look at trying to find solutions to those areas most in need. Mr. Hoshijo has also served and will continue to serve on various low-income rental housing nonprofit corporations and labor boards.

“While currently balancing all administrative functions alone, given that there is currently no deputy director for the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations – although I’ve been told by the governor’s chief of staff that we will soon be getting a deputy director – Director Hoshijo has been very willing to work with your Labor committee to gather data that is necessary for us to be able to make good policy decisions and to be a voice back to the administration to be sure that we get the decisions and information that we need from the administration on key issues of importance to the Legislature – issues such as paid family leave, issues such as minimum wage, pay equity, and other things. I look forward to continuing to work with Director Hoshijo, and I would humbly ask and encourage the confirmation of Director Hoshijo today in order for us to be able to make the deadlines in accordance with the attorney general’s opinion. Mahalo.”

Senator Taniguchi requested that remarks in support of the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Taniguchi’s remarks read as follows:

“I have known Leonard Hoshijo since our days as undergraduates at the University of Hawai’i at Mānoa. Since those days, I have known Leonard to be a hardworking, conscientious, and sometimes witty person – and always a straight shooter. He has many years of experience in the labor field, collective bargaining negotiations, organizational management, labor policy, and legislative affairs, and is currently serving as the Deputy Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. I strongly support his nomination to serve as Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, and ask my colleagues to vote to confirm him. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Shimabukuro).

At this time, Senator Tokuda introduced Director Leonard Hoshijo, who was present in the gallery with Ford Fuchigami, administrative director for the Office of the Governor, and staff supporters from the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

At 11:53 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:57 a.m.

I would like to begin by thanking the Senate President, my Senate colleagues, the staff of the Ways and Means Committee, the Governor’s Administrative Director, the Department of Taxation, the Department of the Attorney General, the staff of the Legislative Reference Bureau, and the planning departments of the County of Kaua’i, County of Maui, County of Hawai’i island, and the City and County of Honolulu for the long hours of research, deliberation, and discussion on the provisions of Senate Bill 2963, Senate Draft 1.

“I would also like to recognize House Speaker Scott Saiki and House Committee Chairs on Finance and on Tourism, Representatives Sylvia Luke and Richard Onishi, for their efforts to work together with members of the Senate to create a balanced and fair measure.

“Growth of Short-Term Vacation Rentals

“Online booking business models such as Airbnb, Expedia, or VRBO; HTA’s successful marketing; and the impact of social media ‘influencers’ on tourists wanting an ‘experiential’ vacation all have created an explosive statewide growth of short-term vacation rentals. As has been noted in testimony before this committee, this growth has been good for those tourists seeking different vacation experiences. This growth is occurring across the nation. The 80th Council of Mayors adopted in June 2012 a resolution that, among others things, urged establishing

‘... a reliable way for the municipality to identify and contact the short-term rental owner; (2) make the tax collection and remittance obligations clear to the short-term rental owner; and (3) treat short-term rental tenants the same as long-term rental tenants. Regulations that accomplish all three can achieve a high level of compliance, and are highly effective.’

“Impact of Growth on the Counties

“Zoning Violations: But the growth of this market in Hawai’i has had an impact on the availability of long-term rental housing and, in some communities, has changed the residential characteristic of these neighborhoods, despite county zoning ordinances.

“Economic incentive to rent units to tourists rather than residents is high. For example, operators of these short-term vacation rentals can make more money from the periodic vacation rentals than from long-term rentals, while others only want their units rented for short periods of time, thus removing the units from the long-term rental markets.

“On the other hand, there is an inadequate housing supply for our own residents and the cost of rentals seems to be rising.

“Even though the Counties of Maui and Kaua’i and the City and County of Honolulu have regulated short-term vacation rentals, the explosive growth of these rentals are occurring outside of the allowed land use and are thus an illegal use of the properties. (The County of Hawai’i is currently writing its land use ordinances.)

“Enforcement of Zoning Ordinances: The county planning departments have indicated how difficult it is to locate, identify, and stop zoning ordinance violations when the operators are renting out short-term vacation rentals for very significant amounts of money on a daily business. The cost of defending such county litigation simply becomes a cost of doing business that is absorbed by the rental fees. Moreover, not only are the number of enforcement actions growing, but at the same time the process of enforcement is slowed in one county as the disputes go before a volunteer board.

“Other Violations: Moreover, because it is easy to rent out a room, a condominium, or an entire house through these online booking platforms, many people may be completely unaware of their obligations under state law and county ordinances, such as paying the Transient Accommodation Tax. And, those assisting homeowners with property rental management may also be unaware of their own legal responsibilities.

“A California resident, wanting to move to Hawai’i, was invited by Airbnb to be a ‘co-host’ for other Airbnb operators in the State of Hawai’i. She testified that her ‘services’ to the operators included some property management services, but also testified that she did not have a required real estate license to do those services.

“Impact of growth on collection of the Transient Accommodations Tax and Gross Excise Tax: The Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, along with the Department of Taxation and the Department of Budget and Finance, estimate that given the number of hotel rooms and visitor arrivals in 2017, tourists rented short-term vacation places for over 12,000 nights. While these departments also assumed that some taxes were actually paid, they also estimated that there was approximately $67,000,000 in uncollected Gross Excise and Transient Accommodations Taxes.

“S.B. 2963 S.D. 1 addresses these issues by improving the counties’ ability to enforce land use ordinances, allowing for the transient accommodations broker to collect and pay appropriate taxes on behalf of the operators or plan managers of short-term vacation rentals; and it makes the online platform broker responsible for benefiting from or encouraging behavior by its operators and others hosts that is illegal.

“For the counties, the bill specifically:

- Allows for judicial review by the circuit court and for fees, costs, and disgorgement of profits obtained through unfair or unlawful business acts and practices and imposes a minimum fine of $25,000; and
- With the consent of the operators and plan manager, the bill provides for disclosure of information between the transient accommodation broker and the state and county governments for purposes of enforcing the ordinances and laws.

“The bill does not preempt the counties’ role and responsibilities with regard to their zoning ordinances. The counties must still craft and enforce land use zoning ordinances for short-term vacation rentals. And as many testifiers noted, two of the counties are still working on those ordinances, and once each county has developed its compliance processes, the bill provides payments by the State of up to $1,000,000 to each county for setting up and enforcement.

“For tax collection, the bill makes it easier to collect and pay appropriate taxes by allowing transient accommodation brokers to become the State’s agent for collect and paying taxes; and to encourage payment of taxes, it also provides a temporary amnesty program for a short period of time.

“And finally, to ensure that the public’s welfare and safety are respected by this new business model, the bill imposes liability upon the transient accommodation broker for benefiting from or encouraging the use of illegal actions of others such as:

- collecting fees for booking services from illegal transient vacation rentals;
- entering into business with an illegal short-term rental operator; and
- on behalf those operators, employing, contracting, or otherwise engaging in business with any person who is not properly licensed or in compliance with applicable laws and ordinances.

“In closing, this bill provides a fair and balanced means of maintaining the safety and welfare of our residents without undue strain upon the economic benefits of short-term vacation rentals through transient accommodation brokers.

“Again, I would like to thank my colleagues in the Senate and the House for their effort and hard work in reaching a consensus on these issues. Mahalo, Mr. President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2963, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“As we mark one month past since our notorious false alarm on January 13, I want to remind my colleagues that even though the alarm has been turned off, the danger remains. Much has been said and bills proposed to better handle the next alarm; this is understandable and well-intentioned. But, in fact, survival of the next nuclear war is largely a fiction. Any country which launches a nuclear attack is not practicing sanity, but that country knows, tactically, that it has only one chance to launch and the world will end very, very soon. That country won’t be sending a measured single weapon; it will unleash its full force at once as its only hope of survival. Considering missile defense systems and assured retaliation, such a state will launch dozens of missiles, and the response will be measured by the sanity and self-control of the leader of the attacked country. God help us if our current leader is still in office. Depending on the size and where they explode, between 10 to 100 nuclear bombs are enough to make our planet unlivable regardless of where those bombs fall. At least aboveground, the atmosphere will be deadly poisonous for years. And, of course, if we are ground zero, no building, law, or preparation will provide meaningful shelter. The only action that will help us survive a nuclear war is preventing it. I urge my colleagues to realize this. Our future and the lives of our children depend on preventing a nuclear war, not preparing for one. Mahalo.”

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's remarks read as follows:

"This bill (2013) began with a call from a Papaikou constituent. She is completely bedridden. At the point of her original call, her husband had just returned home from the hospital and was receiving hospice care.

"She became acutely aware of her need for a renewed state ID, in order to be able to access their accounts upon his passing.

"In order to get an ID, she would either have to go into the DMV office, or have to get a note from an MD that she was unable to come in to get one. Her Primary MD had recently informed our constituent that she had been removed as a patient since she had not come in for office visits for quite some time. The doctor was also retiring.

"After a number of calls to the Office on Aging at the County and other agencies supporting elderly issues we gave her the name of a doctor that did house calls.

"When she wrote her letter to us a few months later, her husband had passed away. She still had no ID, and even a hospice nurse practitioner offered to write her a note, but the DMV requires a Medical Doctor sign the note.

"Finally, we called Bay Clinic and they were extremely helpful – getting their Chief MD, a nurse, and a health care coordinator to visit. She now has her ID, and a health provider to manage her health care.

"This scenario will be happening more and more, which is why we need to be more flexible and accommodating to the growing number of elderly in our communities. I ask your support on passing this bill through Third Reading."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2013, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CIVIL IDENTIFICATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, none. Excused, 3 (English, Ihara, Keith-Agaran).

TWENTIETH DAY

Friday, February 16, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:35 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator English who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Nineteenth Day.

At this time, Senator Shimabukuro welcomed students from Ka Papahana o Mailikukahi and Pūnana Leo o Wai'anae, as well as other Hawaiian language immersion students who were present in the gallery.

Senator Galuteria recognized and honored various individuals for their dedicated work in the Hawaiian language, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, this morning at Washington Place, Governor Ige proclaimed 2018 Year of the Hawaiian, Ke Au Hawai'i, celebrating accomplishments of Native Hawaiians for the past 30 years. The last Year of the Hawaiian, Ho'olako, was celebrated back in 1988. If accomplishments of the past 30 years are indicators of what lies ahead, the future for Hawaiians in our homeland is bright, and to all who call Hawai'i home, we are one. In addition, Ke Au Hawai'i will be interpreted as the era, or age, of the Hawaiian: a period of time considered as being of a distinctive character, an epoch, or a point in time, a distinctive period. This is Ke Au Hawai'i, and February is also 'Ōlelo Hawai'i Month, as evidenced by the many Pūnana Leo haumāna (students) joining us today.

"Our honorees today reflect a movement toward a vibrant Hawaiian language community that wasn't here 30 years ago, and our first honoree – we'll call him the grandfather of the movement – is Larry Kauanoa Kimura. Dr. Larry Lindsey Kimura has worked tirelessly to revitalize 'ōlelo Hawai'i for almost 50 years. He is a pioneer of the 'ōlelo Hawai'i movement, a respected icon of 'ōlelo Hawai'i, a kumu, and prolific songwriter of mele Hawai'i. Dr. Kimura is an associate professor of Hawaiian language and Hawaiian studies at Ka Haka 'Ula o Ke'elikōlani College of Hawaiian Language at UH Hilo. He founded the Ka Leo Hawaiian language radio talk show that aired on KCCN 1420 AM for 17 years, and Larry, I was one of the on-air personalities at the time, and we couldn't speak a lick of Hawaiian before you came along. The Native Hawaiian speakers currently in existence are largely due in part because of Dr. Kimura, who has prepared curriculum for Papahana Kaiapuni Hawai'i, the Hawaiian language immersion programs in the public schools. He is also a well-known songwriter of original mele and songs frequently performed on the radio and at Hawaiian events. So, colleagues, please help me in welcoming and honoring a man affectionately referred to by many as the tūtū of the Hawaiian language revitalization movement and present-day Hawai'i, Dr. Larry Lindsey Kimura. Aloha, thank you, mahalo!"

Senator Kidani rose to present the following remarks:

"Aloha, Mr. President. Your constituent, Lolena Nicholas, is a native speaker from the island of Ni'ihau and a kupuna in the Hawaiian language revitalization movement. Lolena was one of the first kumu at Pūnana Leo o Honolulu in 1985 and continues to teach to this day. Lolena has served as a mānaleo, a native Hawaiian language speaker, for the Kawaihuelani Center for Hawaiian Language. Lolena is fondly and lovingly known as Auntie Lolena to thousands of 'ōlelo Hawai'i students from across Hawai'i. She was a co-host for Ka Leo Hawai'i, a Hawaiian language radio talk show that brought mānaleo together in the Hawaiian language from across Hawai'i. In 2014, a film was produced on her life's work in revitalizing the use and prevalence of the Hawaiian language. Please help me in welcoming and honoring Lolena Nicholas, an inspiration to native Hawaiian language speakers throughout Hawai'i, a strong proponent of 'ōlelo Hawai'i, and the keeper of her mother tongue, ka 'ōlelo Hawai'i – Lolena Nicholas."

Senator Shimabukuro rose to present the following remarks:

"Dr. Ku'uipolani Kanahele Wong was born and raised on the island of Ni'ihau speaking 'ōlelo Hawai'i. In 1983, Kumu Ipo began her 'ōlelo Hawai'i career as a kumu at the Pūnana Leo o Honolulu preschool, the first Hawaiian-medium preschool on O'ahu since the late 1800s. Dr. Wong continued as a mānaleo, a Hawaiian-language speaker, resource at the Kawaihuelani Center for Hawaiian Language while continuing her studies there. She is the first native from Ni'ihau to receive her doctorate degree in education. Her dissertation provides her perspective on the stories, traditions, history, and unique and distinct features of the Ni'ihau dialect. Dr. Wong currently serves as an associate professor at UH Mānoa and as a director of the Kawaihuelani Center for Hawaiian Language. She has served as the luna 'ike 'ōlelo for the Baibala Hemolele, the Hawaiian Bible project, and as a deacon at the Kawaihae'o Church of Honolulu. Please help me in welcoming and honoring Dr. Ku'uipolani Kanahele Wong."

Senator Kahele rose to present the following remarks:

"Mr. President, colleagues, what a beautiful day – e ola ka 'ōlelo Hawai'i! It is my honor to introduce our next honoree for today: Kananihohea Kawai'ae'a Māka'imoku. Kananihohea is a graduate of the first Hawaiian-immersion class in 1999, from Ke Kula 'o Nāwahīokalani'ōpu'u on Hawai'i island. She began as a Pūnana Leo o Honolulu student in its inaugural year and also attended Hawaiian-immersion schools at Wai'au and Keaukaha. Kanani graduated with her bachelor's degree in Hawaiian studies in 2002 and received her teaching certificate from Kahuawaiola Indigenous Teacher Education Program at UH Hilo in 2004 and her master of arts degree in indigenous language and culture education in 2009. She is the first immersion graduate to return as a Hawaiian-immersion teacher and is now helping to orient and prepare new immersion teachers from across the state as they begin their teaching careers. In 2017, she joined the Kahuawaiola education faculty at Ka Haka 'Ula o Ke'elikōlani College of Hawaiian Language. Today, she lives in Puna with her husband and has two children, who both attend Ke Kula 'o Nāwahīokalani'ōpu'u. Please help me in welcoming and honoring Kananihohea Kawai'ae'a Māka'imoku, a product of Hawaiian-language immersion who is now passing on her knowledge and love of the Hawaiian language to the next generation of Hawaiian-language speakers. Mahalo, Mr. President."

Senator Galuteria rose and stated:

"Mahalo, thank you. Dr. Papaikanī'au Kai'anui was educated entirely in Hawaiian-medium schools, beginning at Pūnana Leo o Maui and later at the Hawaiian-immersion sites at Pā'ia Elementary School, Kalama Intermediate School, and Kekaulike High School. Dr. Kai'anui graduated with the first Hawaiian-immersion class on Maui in 2001. She completed her bachelor's degree in social work in 2006, her master's degree in social work and bachelor's degree in Hawaiian language from UH Mānoa in 2008, and her doctorate degree from USC in 2012. Dr. Kai'anui was the first immersion student to complete a doctoral degree. Her doctoral dissertation provides policy insights on ways to improve the education of immersion students being educated through the medium of the Hawaiian language. Kauka is currently an instructor of Hawaiian at Maui College. Please help me in welcoming and acknowledging and honoring the achievements of Dr. Kai'anui in expanding the number of individuals who are able to speak and think in the Hawaiian language. Mahalo! Mahalo."

The Chair remarked that while he's normally introduced as "the Senator from Senate District 8: the islands of Kaua'i and Ni'ihau," he was very proud that morning to be "the Senator from District 8: the islands of Ni'ihau and Kaua'i," with Ni'ihau so proudly represented in the Chamber. The Chair further noted that the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs and the Committee on Water and Land had started a pilot project the previous year to post hearing notices in Hawaiian, with the Committee on Higher Education starting to do so as well during the current legislative session. The Chair commented that it's not just about "the great words and recognition, but the action of our deeds" in the Senate leadership team, of which the "kūpuna" category consisted of Vice President Kidani, Majority Leader English, and Majority Caucus Leader Galuteria, with Majority Whip Kahele in the "other" category.

At 11:48 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:56 a.m.

"Currently, Linda Chu Takayama is the interim director of the Department of Taxation. She's also serving as the chair of the Hawaii Foodbank – named the number one charity in Hawai'i – and is a director on the board of the Hawaii Health Information Corporation. Her previous work experience includes director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations; director of Economic Development for the City and County of Honolulu; 20 years' experience as an attorney with practice areas in county, state, and federal regulatory and government affairs, health, insurance, land development and corporate business law. She has also served as the deputy director of the state Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, Hawai'i Insurance Commissioner, chief of staff of the U.S. Sergeant at Arms in Washington, DC, and director of State Legislative Affairs and Agricultural Issues for the Grocery Manufacturers of America in Washington, DC. She has much experience: Her career has included positions that required knowledge of budgets, finance, accounting, and investment. When working in Washington, DC, for the U.S. Sergeant at Arms, she was accountable for a budget of more than $120 million. When Hawai'i was hit by Hurricane Iniki, as a commissioner, she engineered the creation of a $1.5 billion pool for the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund to stabilize the market. I believe Linda has a proven track record of bringing large and small projects to a successful conclusion and within budget, and she's creative in finding out-of-the-box solutions to difficult problems and is not afraid to be the first one to offer creative solutions. I urge my colleagues to support advise and consent."

She was a staff director of the Hawai'i State Senate Judiciary committee, senior legislative researcher, and a legislative analyst. She has provided advice and counsel to governors, cabinet officials, and legislative leadership on current and evolving fiscal conditions. She has helped manage the governor's office administrative operations and provided executive support for cabinet officials on policy issues, budget, and legislative proposals. She has advised and supported university presidents and Board of Regents in successful budget negotiations with state legislative and executive budget agencies, resulting in additional general fund support in FY15 for campus operations. She has provided leadership and management of legislative staff working groups to successfully implement the Senate's paperless initiative, and she successfully managed budget negotiations with state legislative branch and executive budget agencies. "Today, Mr. President, is the Lunar New Year, also known as the Spring Festival. It's often referred to as the Chinese New Year, but that's not entirely correct because the Korean and Vietnamese communities also celebrate the new year today and formerly the Japanese community as well. It is a really big deal in these places; it is like Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's all rolled into one. It's a time for families to be together, for a lot of food, for watching the famous CCTV Lunar New Year program on TV, gambling – mahjong is very popular. And it's also a popular time for traveling, so if you visit our tourist precincts in our beautiful State of Hawai'i, you'll see many travelers from these countries. So, I would just like to wish everybody this year happiness, good health, prosperity in the Year of the Dog. I would like to wish everybody xīn xiǎng shì chéng, wàn shì rú yì, gǒu nián wàng wàng, and hau'oli makahiki hou!"

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"This bill will require the Governor to provide written notice to the Senate no later than the 41st day of the legislative session in which the nomination is to be considered. Members of our boards and commissions provide valuable services to the State and some hold considerable power. The Senate needs time to vet these nominees in order to faithfully fulfill its advise and consent function mandated under the state constitution. It is exceedingly difficult to take the necessary due diligence in the last few weeks of the legislative session, as we prepare for conference. This bill would require that GMs are transmitted to the Senate by the deadline without fail. This bill will protect the State by allowing the Senate to properly vet gubernatorial nominees to boards and commissions. Please join me in supporting S.B. 2055."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2055, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

TWENTY-THIRD DAY

Thursday, March 1, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:34 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Galuteria, Ihara, and Riviere who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-Second Day.

At this time, Senator Baker commended and congratulated the 2017 Hawaii Healthcare Heroes, and presented the following remarks:

"It's my pleasure to introduce our Healthcare Heroes for this year. The Healthcare Association of Hawaii is a leading voice for healthcare providers in this state. The organization works to positively influence state and federal policy to provide quality and accessible health care to the people of Hawai'i. Through HAH, patients are given the opportunity to acknowledge the service of outstanding healthcare providers who have demonstrated exceptional commitment and noteworthy expertise. The five 2017 healthcare providers that we're honoring on the floor today are being honored for the exemplary care that they delivered to patients, as well as their loved ones, across the state. These folks truly are the epitome of selfless service for the betterment of our community and, therefore, are more than worthy to be designated and honored as a 2017 Healthcare Hero. I'd like to now yield the floor to Senator Ruderman for our first introduction."

Senator Ruderman presented the following remarks:

"Jessica Ackerman is our first Healthcare Hero. Jessica is a nurse practitioner at Queen's Medical Center geriatric services. She is devoted to providing compassionate care to our kūpuna, taking the time to learn from her patients and their caregivers. Jessica earned her bachelor of science in nursing from Hawai'i Pacific University and went on to obtain a master of science in nursing from the University of Hawai'i. She says being a nurse practitioner allows her to help patients and their families learn about their medical concerns and how to take care of them. The personalized care that she demonstrates toward her patients makes her truly worthy of recognition as a 2017 Healthcare Hero. May we please recognize Jessica?"

Senator Kidani presented the following remarks:

"Dr. Anne Dempsey practices at the Kauai Medical Clinic, and I am honored to introduce her on your behalf, Senate President Kouchi. Dr. Dempsey earned her medical degree from the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas. Dr. Dempsey practiced as a hospitalist for nine years in Austin, Texas, and has been a practicing internist at Kauai Medical Clinic since 2014. She enjoys meeting people from all walks of life as well as inspiring them to improve their health through diet and exercise. She is honored to have made a difference in someone's well-being as, to her, that is what being a doctor is all about. Her passion, empathy, and expertise make her deserving to be among the recipients of the Healthcare Hero award – Dr. Anne Dempsey. Thank you."

Senator Rhoads presented the following remarks:

"Our next honoree is Cheri Teranishi-Hashimoto. Cheri has known she wanted to become a physical therapist since high school, when she underwent physical therapy after sustaining sports injuries. Ever since then, she has dedicated herself to her career, earning her doctorate of physical therapy from Des Moines University Osteopathic Medical Center and is now the Women's Health & Cancer Rehabilitation program director at the Rehabilitation Hospital of the Pacific. Despite devoting her life to treating her patients, Cheri remains humble and thinks that the real heroes are her patients. Her dedication and humility make her worthy of recognition as a 2017 Healthcare Hero."

Senator Shimabukuro presented the following remarks:

"Gary Oshita brightens any room that he enters. As the activity coordinator in the Recreational Therapy department at Maluhia, Gary plans, implements, and leads a therapeutic recreational program on a daily basis. Gary started his career as a personal fitness trainer at 24 Hour Fitness and was then a PE teacher at Pearl Ridge and Linapuni elementary schools. Gary has been bringing smiles of joy to the residents of Maluhia for over a decade. Gary's compassion and ability to bring such joy to our kūpuna make him worthy of receiving a Healthcare Hero award. Let's give a hand to Gary Oshita. (He's got some fans in the gallery, I see.)"

Senator Nishihara presented the following remarks:

"Our final Healthcare Hero is Dr. Baron Wong. Dr. Wong is a hospitalist and internal medicine physician who specializes in geriatrics at Wahiawa General Hospital. Dr. Wong graduated from the John A. Burns School of Medicine and completed the University of Hawai'i geriatrics program in 2001. He has been at Wahiawa General Hospital as a hospitalist, geriatrician, and internist since 2002. Dr. Wong wanted a career in this field so he could care for patients with compassion, love, and dignity. He also believes that everyone can be considered a Hawaii Healthcare Hero as long as they truly care for patients with compassion."

Senator Baker rose and stated:

"I'd like to introduce in the gallery some supporters of our Healthcare Heroes, along with Hilton Raethel, the CEO and president of Healthcare Association of Hawaii. Will all of the supporters of our Healthcare Heroes, along with Hilton, please rise to be recognized? Thank you, Mr. President. I would again like to wholeheartedly thank all of our honorees for the significant positive force that they are in their chosen field of medicine and health care. Thank you."

At 11:42 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:49 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2542 (Gov. Msg. No. 504):

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2542 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of JADE BUTAY as Director of the Department of Transportation, term to expire at noon on December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Over the years, it has been my honor and pleasure to get to know Jade. For the Department of Transportation, Jade brings a plethora of experience, knowledge, and professionalism. From Jade's testimony on February 7, he shared his personal story from childhood to who he is today. As a Filipino immigrant coming to Hawai'i at the age of 13, speaking almost no English at the time, Jade benefited greatly from public education, and graduated from Radford High School with honors. He went on to the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa to earn a bachelor's degree in business administration, double-majoring in finance and accounting. With a desire to further his education, Jade attended Babson College in Massachusetts, one of the most prestigious schools for entrepreneurship in the United States, to earn his master's in business administration. After earning his master's degree, Jade pursued various positions, from serving as a legislative assistant and budget analyst to a congressional aide and management consultant. Then came his first major role: In 2011, Jade served as the first deputy director for the Department of Transportation until 2013. Then he served one year as a deputy director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations under the Abercrombie administration. In his more recent experience, Jade returned to the Department of Transportation to continue his commitment and dedicated service to the public as deputy director from 2015 to 2017.

"For those of us who have been lucky to know and work with Jade, we recognize him as a person whose character embodies the values of hard work, determination, grit, and decency. For example, in October 2017, Jade was part of the 2017 Filipino Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i's Goodwill and Trade Mission to the Philippines. During their visit, Jade noted that growing up in San Nicolas, Ilocos, the transportation system consisted of jeepneys, kalesa – which is the horse-drawn carriages; I've been in one of them – or the kariton – the carabao-drawn cart – or tricycles navigating on unpaved roads. Now, serving as the interim director of the Department of Transportation in his adopted land, he realized this is truly a remarkable feat. It proves that one can come from modest circumstances or faraway places and still be fortunate enough to be involved in extraordinary circumstances. Now, a funny story about Jade: Not only is he ready to lead all the airports, the harbors, and highways in the state, but he is always game for anything. Last month, I invited him to join me for a Sustainable Transportation Forum meeting in Hilo, which he accepted. However, apparently, word did not get to him that it was actually a roundtable discussion that would be televised for all to see. He said he would have prepared differently had he known; first of all, he would have worn a different aloha shirt. Still, he proceeded with confidence and did a wonderful job.

"Thank you, Jade, for your commitment and dedication. Although your father is no longer with us, I know he is here in spirit and very proud of you as this confirmation could not have happened to a more qualified person. Colleagues, by approving Jade's nomination today as the director of the Department of Transportation, we will ensure continuity and a seamless transition for the department. Therefore, in closing, I urge all of my colleagues to support the nomination. Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Green).

At this time, Senator Inouye introduced Director Jade Butay, who was present in the gallery with his mother, Renee Butay, and his sister Melody.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2543 (Gov. Msg. No. 505):

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2543 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of ROY CATALANI as Deputy Director of the Department of Transportation, term to expire at noon on December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"I have known Roy for over 15 years. We had worked together when I was chair of the Transportation committee during the Lingle administration and now, as chair of the Transportation and Energy committee, during the Ige administration. For the Department of Transportation, Roy brings a wealth of legal experience and working knowledge of federal, state, and county regulations. Roy's collective experience makes him well-suited to oversee budgeting, contracting, staff services, and other critical administrative functions for the DOT. During his secondary education in the state of Oregon, Roy earned a bachelor's in psychology and political science from the University of Oregon. And because he enjoyed Oregon so much, Roy continued on to earn a juris doctorate degree from the University of Oregon School of Law and is a longtime member of the Oregon State Bar and the Hawaii State Bar Association.

"Now, this is the part where you have to be very careful what you list on your résumé. In Roy's early employment, he pursued various positions as a dishwasher, highway survey aide, and pizza delivery driver as well as internships at the state penitentiary, Ethics Commission, and the federal court. I mention Roy's early employment because who would imagine that the highway service aide or intern at the state penitentiary would one day make partner at numerous Honolulu law firms such as Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel, LLP; Catalani Nakanishi & Caliboso, LLP; and Rush Moore, LLP? During his time as an attorney, Roy was also active in the community. In 2004, Roy served as a chair of the State of Hawai'i Land Use Commission, several terms as chair of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association, and currently serves as board chair of the Native Hawaiian Legal Corporation. In his most recent experience, Roy served as vice president of strategic initiatives and external affairs for Young Brothers, Limited, since 2005.

"Today, with much appreciation – and I know Jade and DOT would agree – we could not be more fortunate for your return to public service as deputy director of the Department of Transportation. For those of us who have been lucky to know and work with Roy, we recognize him as a person whose character embodies the values of hard work, fairness, integrity, and diplomacy. To his friends and family, Roy is a caring and nurturing father who is very committed to his two sons. We know that he diligently supported older son Ryan's performance as a magician, and on many afternoons and weekends, he can be seen at the athletic field cheering and coaching his son Alex. On a side note, as you can see, Roy is a very sharp dresser. A little known fact, however, which only his close friends know: He still has clothes in his closet that he wore in college and, without his wife Lorna's guidance, he would be seen in them today.

"As deputy director of the DOT, Roy will be responsible for the administrative functions, including personnel administration, central computer services, business management activities, environmental compliance, civil rights, emergency management, and contract services. Colleagues, esteemed members of our beloved Senate, by approving Roy's nomination today as the deputy director of the Department of Transportation, we will ensure legal continuity and a seamless legal transition for the department. Therefore, I urge all of my colleagues to support his nomination. Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Green).

At this time, Senator Inouye introduced Deputy Director Roy Catalani, who was seated in the gallery with his wife, Lorna.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2605 (Gov. Msg. Nos. 538 and 539):

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2605 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations to the Medical Advisory Board of the following:

ANTHONY KATRAS, MD, term to expire June 30, 2021 (Gov. Msg. No. 538); and

JUDY KOVELL, MD, term to expire June 30, 2021 (Gov. Msg. No. 539), seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominees as follows:

"Dr. Katras and Dr. Kovell both have extensive medical experience and prestigious academic merits in their respective fields. Dr. Katras is the senior vascular surgery consultant, and Dr. Kovell is the psychiatry residency program director for the department of behavioral health. Both are currently serving at Tripler Army Medical Center, and their résumés speak for themselves and are available on the Senate Portal. I'm confident that their experience and expertise would make them valuable assets to the Medical Advisory Board. Therefore, I urge all my colleagues to support their nominations. Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Green).

At 11:53 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

And while I would have liked to have seen disclosure notification included in this legislation, I support 3095 because it's a step in the right direction. Positive aspects of this draft are that we upped the number of schools from five to ten that'll have vegetative buffer zones around them, and a pilot program to monitor drift at three schools, so I would urge you to please join me in supporting this important legislation. Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2247, S.D. 1, Relating to Opioid Antagonists. The purpose of this measure is to expand the scope of registered pharmacists' practices by allowing them to prescribe and dispense opioid antagonists without the need for a collaborative agreement, following completion of an approved training program. Pharmacists would also be required to provide recipients of opioid antagonists with educational materials on the risk of opioid overdose and instructions on how to use an opioid antagonist.

"This bill is timely given the unfortunate severity of the nationwide opioid epidemic which we currently face, and the alarming increase in opioid overdose related deaths. Opioid overdoses are often preventable when treated with the timely administration of an opioid antagonist drug, such as naloxone. According to the Centers for Disease Control, opioid overdose fatalities increased to a staggering 64,000 in 2016 – up 11,000 from the estimated 53,000 fatalities in 2011. These unintentional drug poisonings, more commonly referred to as drug overdoses, are found to be a leading cause of injury-related mortality in the State of Hawai'i. Furthermore, it is estimated that about 400 non-fatal drug overdoses occur in Hawai'i each year, which resulted in around $9,800,000 in hospital expenses in 2016.

"This bill seeks to prevent overdoses in our communities. Pharmacists are proven to be well-situated to battle this problem, and the Legislature has a history of allowing pharmacists to dispense certain types of medications.

"I urge my Senate colleagues to please join me in supporting S.B. 2247, S.D. 1, so that we may continue to reduce the number of opioid deaths in the State, and mitigate the effect this epidemic has on our local communities."

S.B. No. 36, S.D. 2:

Senator Baker moved that S.B. No. 36, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, remarks in strong support of S.B. 36, Relating to Consumer Protection. This bill seeks to require the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs to regulate public, educational, and governmental access channel number designations unless expressly prohibited by federal law.

"Public, educational, and governmental access channels (PEG) are critical to government transparency as they provide local residents unfiltered access to government broadcasts of the Legislature, county councils, and neighborhood board meetings. PEG access programming also provides valuable information to viewers and serves as a vehicle to connect Hawaii's unique communities through the discussion and coverage of cultural matters and events, as well as a way to warn residents of potential natural disasters and emergencies.

"Spectrum (formerly Charter Spectrum) of Charter Communications has released plans to relocate PEG access channels, placing their channel designations in a location unfamiliar to consumers, or what is often referred to as 'digital Siberia.' These plans are not at all necessary but rather done at Spectrum's preference. The location of PEG channels are well known by consumers because local community programs have expended great effort in branding their respective channel designations. If these long-standing programs are relocated, confusion would occur and the process of re-branding would not only be impractical, but costly.

"Federal law bestows limited power to local franchising authorities (LFAs) regarding the regulation of cable services, and federal rules explicitly state that LFAs may not impose requirements on cable operators regarding the provision or content of cable services. However, it is incumbent upon local legislators to do what they can to send a message to Spectrum and let them know that if they are going to operate in the state, they will be expected to serve some public service. Hawaii's geography naturally limits some in-person participation in government by otherwise involved citizens. Allowing neighbor island residents to remain involved and informed about what is going on within their government is one of the many important functions our PEG channels serve.

"Please join me in supporting both S.B. 36 and the pending resolution, which seek to hold our franchised cable operators accountable to the public. Thank you.

"I strongly encourage my colleagues to vote yes on this measure. Without the protections of this measure, all of the hard work that local producers put into their programs – who Hawai'i residents not only rely on but grew up with – will be lost."

Senator Baker moved that S.B. No. 2646, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2646, S.D. 1, Relating to Prescription Drugs. The purpose and intent of this measure is to reduce the access of the public to potentially addictive substances by requiring prescribers to consult the state electronic prescription drug accountability system before issuing a prescription for certain controlled substances.

"Drug overdose rates have increased catastrophically in Hawai'i, increasing by 83 percent from 2006 to 2014. Thirty-five percent of all drug overdose deaths between 2010 and 2014 were caused by prescription opioids alone. Alarming enough, prescribers are not currently required to consult the state electronic prescription accountability system when prescribing certain addictive drugs.

"Under this measure, no prescriber shall prescribe a schedule II, III or IV controlled substance without first requesting, receiving, and considering records of the ultimate user from the state electronic prescription accountability system as needed to reduce the risk of abuse or addiction to a controlled substance, as needed to avoid harmful drug interactions, or as otherwise medically necessary.

"Furthermore, the administrator of the state electronic prescription accountability system shall promptly disclose only the requested data to the requesting subscriber. To limit the amount of drug overdose deaths in our state, it is important we pass this measure."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2656. As we age, we often end up prescribed multiple medications to maintain our health. Synchronizing the receipt of those medications, so that our seniors do not have to go pick up medications at various different times during the month, has proven to be a best practice and helps ensure the health of seniors and others taking multiple medications. I urge my colleagues to join me in support of this measure."

Senator Gabbard requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Gabbard's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2928, S.D. 2. We established the Farm to School Program and coordinator position in the Department of Ag in 2015 with Act 218 and the Department has been doing its best to move this program forward. It's been encouraging to see the good work that the LG, DOE, and the Farm to School and School Garden Hui have been doing with the 'Aina Pono Farm to School program to get local produce into our schools.

"S.B. 2928, S.D. 2 would establish a three-year Farm to School Grant Program in the HDOA. This bill would raise the bar by providing direct support to local entities for the development of community-level farm to school programs. These grants would be for the procurement of foods, school garden-based educational and apprenticeship activities, initiatives to sustain or expand existing farm to school programs, and food safety and good ag practices training and implementation. WAM also added a provision to assist farmers and ranchers in acquiring Good Agricultural Practices certifications from the USDA.

"A number of states operate farm to school grant programs, including Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Vermont. As many of you know, I'm a strong supporter of getting our state to produce more of its food through organic, natural farming, and regenerative methods, and also of getting more of our young people into the farming profession. And what could be better than getting healthier, local food into our keiki's school lunches?

"This is a win-win for local farmers who get to supply the food and for young people who, of course, benefit by becoming healthier from eating fresh produce instead of processed food. And tied to that, of course, is the educational component of having more school gardens, living laboratories where our young people can get their hands in the soil and learn how to grow their own food. This fills an important gap in our educational system because our farmers are aging out with 63 being the average age of Hawai'i farmers. Please join me in supporting S.B. 2928, S.D. 2."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2672 was adopted and S.B. No. 2928, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII FARM TO SCHOOL PROGRAM," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2675 (S.B. No. 3104, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2675 be adopted and S.B. No. 3104, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President I rise in strong support of S.B. 3104, S.D. 2, Relating to Pharmacy Benefit Managers. Pharmacy Benefit Managers, or PBMs, serve as middlemen between drug manufacturers, health plans, and pharmacies. They contract with health plans to negotiate prices with drug manufacturers through both upfront discounts and rebates, and additionally charge pharmacies dispensing fees. PBMs create formularies – lists of preferred drugs – and negotiate discounts off a manufacturer's price of a medication in order to have it included on the formulary. Without inclusion in formularies, insurers will not cover the drug and physicians will not prescribe it, giving PBMs considerable leverage to set drug prices, and limit patients' access to medication.

"Three companies, Optimum RX, CVS Caremark, and Express Scripts, hold 80 to 85 percent of market share in their industry. Due to this overwhelming market share, pharmacies rely on contracts with PBMs as third party payers to serve most prescription drug plan beneficiaries. PBMs negotiate byzantine contracts with independent pharmacies, and pharmacies must either accept the contract terms laid out by the PBMs or forego the opportunity to serve 80 to 85 percent of their customers. As a result, independent pharmacies are frequently contractually forced to fill prescriptions at a loss, sometimes losing hundreds of dollars on a single prescription.

"These losses are forcing our independent community pharmacies out of business. These pharmacies are deeply rooted and engaged with the communities they serve. They have personal relationships with their patients and are key players in keeping healthcare costs down. Community pharmacists help ensure that their patients adhere to their medication regimes, preventing costly modes of care, such as visits to the emergency department. Local, independent pharmacies are an integral part of the healthcare system incumbent upon legislators to create if we are to drive down the cost of health care in the state.

"S.B. 3104 is another step towards that goal. Specifically, it addresses issues with a PBM's maximum allowable cost list, or MAC list. A MAC list is a list of the maximum allowable reimbursement costs of multi-source generic drugs established by a pharmacy benefit manager. PBMs manipulate their MAC lists with almost no transparency, allowing them to pay aggressively low reimbursements to independent pharmacies while blatantly self-dealing to their own chain pharmacies. Recently, the Arkansas Pharmacist Association studied records of reimbursement rates for over 270 popular drugs and found that CVS Caremark paid CVS pharmacies at least $60 more per dispensed prescription than was paid to independent pharmacies for dispensing the same drug amount.

"In 2015, the Legislature passed Act 175 to address MAC list transparency, which, among other things, required that reimbursement amounts for drugs on the MAC list be accessible online. The PBMs have responded by developing a nearly unusable online system whereby each individual drug for each plan must be looked up one at a time, causing independent pharmacies to devote unnecessary staffing resources to the already complicated appeals process. Specifically, S.B. 3104 will:

- Require a comprehensive, user-friendly MAC list be sent to independent pharmacies upon request;
- Specify that PBMs may only update their MAC lists every 15 days and must provide notice to their contracting pharmacies prior to doing so;
- Clarify the appeals process after a PBM denies a reimbursement to a pharmacy based on maximum allowable cost; and
- Consolidate existing PBM statutes to clarify that the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs is responsible for enforcement, rather than the Department of Health.

“CVS Caremark, Express Scripts, and Optimum RX claim they reduce premiums by saving health plans money, while drug prices skyrocket, and they line their pockets with billions of dollars in profit every year. Express Scripts’ 2017 revenues were higher than Wells Fargo, Bank of America, Boeing, and even Microsoft. CVS Caremark and Optimum RX’s parent companies occupy the number six and seven position on the Fortune 500 list. Do not believe the PBMs when they say that they are in the business of saving consumers money; they specialize in extracting it. I would add, as a side note, that it is particularly curious that CVS Caremark began drastically reducing reimbursements to independent pharmacies in the months leading up to CVS entering a $69 billion bid to purchase the health insurance giant Aetna.

“The rising price of drugs is a major driver of health care spending. PBMs use their outsized market share to exert influence on drug pricing, and manipulate those prices to put competing pharmacies out of business. Please join me in standing up to these companies and supporting our local pharmacies. Support S.B. 3104, S.D. 2 and you will support local businesses that have served our communities for generations. Thank you.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2654, Relating to Chapter 245, Hawai'i Revised Statutes. The purpose of this measure is to regulate electronic cigarettes and make unlawful the shipment of tobacco products or electronic cigarettes to anyone other than a licensed retailer. It also increases the licensing fee for persons engaged as a wholesaler or dealer of tobacco products and increases the retail tobacco permit fee.

“Tobacco use is a heavy burden on Hawaii’s healthcare system and economy, causing approximately 1,400 deaths per year among adults. An estimated 21,000 children in Hawai‘i currently under the age of 18 will ultimately die prematurely from smoking. Each year, smoking costs approximately $526,000,000 in direct healthcare expenditures and $387,300,000 in lost productivity within the state.

“The electronic smoking device industry, including the production of e-liquids, is growing rapidly. According to a 2016 report from the United States Surgeon General, e-cigarette use has increased considerably in recent years, growing an astounding 900 percent among high school students from 2011 to 2015. E-cigarette use among youth and young adults is also strongly associated with the use of other tobacco products, including combustible tobacco products. Toxicologists have also warned that e-liquids pose significant risks to public health, particularly to children with ingestion of e-liquids containing nicotine, potentially causing acute toxicity and possibly death.

“The Surgeon General’s report found that there are numerous policies and practices that can be implemented at the state and local levels addressing electronic smoking device use among youth and young adults, such as preventing access to e-cigarettes, significant increases in tax and price of e-cigarettes, retail licensure, and regulation of e-cigarette marketing. Furthermore, tobacco products are taxed at a lower rate than cigarettes, even though their use carries similar health risks. Research has shown that increasing cigarette prices, such as through cigarette taxes, tends to reduce the rate of smoking by adult and youth smokers. Such a tax on e-liquids will also encourage users of e-liquids to quit, sustain cessation, prevent youth initiation, and reduce consumption among those who continue to use them. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting S.B. 2654, S.D. 2.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2696 was adopted and S.B. No. 2654, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHAPTER 245, HAWAII REVISED STATUTES,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2488, Relating to Medical Cannabis. The intent of this measure is to establish a working group to address the complexities surrounding the topic of reimbursement by health insurance for medical cannabis for qualifying patients.

“The working group will explore options and make recommendations on issues regarding actions taken in other states, potential parallel reimbursement models for other types of non-prescription therapies, associated liability issues for health plans, the potential impact on insurance premiums, insurance riders for alternative therapies, which could serve as a model for medical cannabis reimbursement, and other relevant issues that may arise.

“It is worthy to note that Act 30, Session Laws of Hawai‘i 2016, established a legislative oversight group to develop and recommend legislation to improve the medical cannabis dispensary system in the state to ensure safe and legal access to medical cannabis for qualifying patients. The working group explored the potential for medical cannabis costs to be reimbursable through health insurance, however, the issues surrounding health insurance reimbursement for medical cannabis are quite complex. A separate, dedicated working group modeled on the original working group is necessary to further explore this issue.

“I strongly encourage my colleagues to vote yes on this measure. The health benefits from medical cannabis are evident and are drastically improving the lives of hundreds of Hawai‘i patients.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2891, S.D. 1, Relating to Telehealth. The purpose and intent of this measure is to fund a pilot project to expose healthcare providers and patients to the benefits of telehealth. Many residents of Hawai‘i are unable to obtain timely and appropriate health care due to the shortage of healthcare providers. The elderly in particular experience some of the greatest barriers in receiving health care. Lack of financial resources, physical mobility, and transportation are some of the many issues that prevent the elderly from receiving timely health care. Telehealth is a viable solution to maximize patient convenience and compliance. However, the use of telehealth is not as robust as it should be in Hawai‘i.

“The 2017 State Telehealth Summit indicates that provider comfort and patient expectations are the most significant barriers to telehealth adoption. Department of Health research in other jurisdictions reveal staff support is needed to assure that patients and technology are situated properly for the telehealth endeavor.

“The proposed pilot project shall assist residents at two distinct project sites, both of which shall have a medically underserved area designation by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. One site shall be located in a rural county and the other site shall be located in an urban county. These sites will utilize telehealth as the primary means to deliver health care and include at least one federally qualified health center or rural health clinic in each project site.

“Within six months of the exhaustion of all pilot project funds, the Department of Health shall release a public evaluation report on the outcomes of the project. To learn more about the potential benefits the utilization of telehealth can bring to Hawai‘i, it is important we pass this measure.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2700 was adopted and S.B. No. 2891, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TELEHEALTH,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2701 (S.B. No. 2511, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2701 be adopted and S.B. No. 2511, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2511, S.D. 2, Relating to Language Access. The purpose and intent of this measure is to establish two permanent full-time equivalent positions within the Office of Language Access to assist the State and State-funded agencies in implementing the requirements of language access law. Language is a barrier for those living in Hawai‘i who identify with having a limited English proficiency. In response, the Hawai‘i Office of Language Access (OLA) was established to provide oversight to multiple State-funded agencies in their implementation of Hawai‘i language access law.

“The OLA is currently understaffed, operating with only three authorized full-time positions since 2013. As a result, the OLA staff has been unable to implement important aspects of their language access plans. This has caused those with low English proficiency to lack access to government services. This measure will require an appropriation from the State of Hawai‘i general revenues to fund the two full-time positions. The sum appropriated shall be expended by the Department of Health. To provide sufficient government services to those with low English proficiency, it is important we pass this bill.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2312, Relating to Grants. The intent of this measure is to clarify the grant application process requirements for organizations that may receive a grant from the State.

"This bill requires all organizations that receive a grant from the State to be in compliance with all registration and annual reporting requirements of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, and to provide proof of tax compliance when applicable.

"Currently, there is no requirement under existing law or in the State's grant application process for applicants to provide proof of compliance with Hawaii's charitable solicitation laws. According to the Department of the Attorney General, nonprofit charitable organizations that have received State grant funds, and that would otherwise be required to be registered or have been granted an exemption from registration by the Attorney General, have been found not in compliance with the requirements specified in this bill. We have a responsibility to ensure that recipients of State funds are acting in a transparent and responsible fashion.

"While I have no doubt that nonprofit organizations benefitting from State grants facilitate great work and orchestrate meaningful projects, we must exercise due diligence that these funds are dispersed fairly. It is our duty to make certain that organizations abide by the proper process requirements. Please join me in support of this measure."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2732 was adopted and S.B. No. 2312, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GRANTS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2493, S.D. 2, Relating to Insurance. The purpose of this measure is to delay the implementation of the producer licensing requirements amended by Act 152, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2017, until January 1, 2020.

"Act 152 conforms the State's producer licensing requirements to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners' Producer Licensing Model Act. One of the provisions eliminates producer-to-producer appointments. While this is a necessary update to our insurance code, it requires that a significant number of contracts between insurers and independent producers must be finalized before these producer licensing requirements take effect on January 1, 2019. Due to the large number of independent producers in Hawai'i, concerns have been expressed that full compliance by this date may not be possible. As such, additional time to comply with the law is necessary. Thank you."

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2736 be adopted and S.B. No. 2658, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2658, Making an Appropriation for Emergency Medical Services. This bill appropriates funds to the Department of Health for the purchase of ambulance vehicles and their operational cost – two 24-hour, seven days-a-week ambulance units, one each for the counties of Kaua'i and Hawai'i. This measure seeks to ensure that residents in the counties of Hawai'i and Kaua'i receive the same level of emergency medical services that are available to residents in other areas of the state.

"In January, the Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Health held a joint informational briefing with the House Committee on Health and Human Services to gather information on the state of emergency medical services within the four counties. The Emergency Medical Services Advisory Committee and the Department of Health's Emergency Medical Services and Injury Prevention Branch recommended that additional ambulance units to the counties of Hawai'i and Kaua'i be prioritized, as response times are critical in matters of life or death.

"In gathering testimony for this measure, we found that a new ambulance unit had not been added to Kaua'i since 1992, despite a 6.9 percent population increase. This increase in population is primarily made up of the elderly and homeless community located in outlying areas around the island of Kaua'i. As a result, response times have consequently increased. In some regions of Kaua'i, from 2010 to 2015, 34 percent of emergency calls exceeded the mandated response time of 20 minutes. Similarly, on the island of Hawai'i, the volume of emergency calls has increased without an equivalent increase in emergency medical services.

"In a medical emergency, the difference between life and death can hinge on a matter of minutes. We must ensure that those who require emergency medical intervention statewide receive care in a timely manner. Please join me in support of this measure.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2736 was adopted and S.B. No. 2658, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT MAKING AN APPROPRIATION FOR EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2199, Relating to Insurance. This measure will authorize the State to submit a State Innovation Waiver proposal to the federal government under section 1332 of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and to implement the conditions of the waiver upon approval by the federal government. Section 1332 under the ACA allows a state to implement innovations that help provide access to quality health insurance while preserving basic protections under the ACA.

“Act 43, Session Laws of Hawai‘i 2017, established the Affordable Health Insurance Working Group to address the complexities of the healthcare system and the related uncertainty of the ACA in light of recent federal actions. One of the recommendations that came out of the working group’s discussions was to submit an application for an additional Section 1332 State innovation waiver to set up a state-run reinsurance program for patients in the individual health insurance market.

“A state-run reinsurance program will help control the cost of health insurance in Hawai‘i by pooling risk to cover patients with costly medical claims. To maintain the proper functioning of the individual health insurance market, it is important we pass this measure. Please join me in supporting S.B. 2199. Thank you.”

Senator Gabbard requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Gabbard’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2930, S.D. 2. Members, as we know, this bill is ultimately about protecting O‘ahu’s drinking water. The facts are that there have been 37 documented leaks at the Navy’s Red Hill Underground Fuel Storage Facility since the facility began operations in 1943. The facility stores up to 187 million gallons of fuel on any given day and that fuel is located 100 feet above an aquifer that supplies drinking water to 400,000 of our island’s residents.

“This bill would require the DOH to adopt administrative rules for upgrades to large field constructed underground storage tanks. The bill would also require the Navy to upgrade the tanks to secondary containment, meaning a tank within a tank or a double lining.

“The key sticking point is when these improvements need to happen by. The Navy contends that they need until 2037, the deadline currently spelled out in the Administrative Order on Consent that was arrived upon after the January 2014 leak at Red Hill.

“However, you might have heard the news that Circuit Court Judge Jeffrey Crabtree ruled in favor of the Sierra Club in their case against the Department of Health over the situation at Red Hill. The judge said that DOH’s current administrative rules that have been exempting underground storage tanks from state regulation conflicts with a 1992 state law. The 1992 state law required that these underground storage tanks be replaced or upgraded by December 22, 1998, to prevent releases for their operating life.

“Since the 1992 law, the Navy has already had 26 years to upgrade the Red Hill fuel tanks. And if we go with their plan to have them upgraded by 2037, then that would be a total of 45 years for them to do the job. Let that sink in for a moment!

“The tanks were built in 1943 in 3 years with technology from that time, but the Navy needs 45 years to upgrade the tanks using today’s technology? That makes no sense and is totally unacceptable given the importance of our water supply to current and future generations of O’ahu residents.

“The Navy has testified that the Red Hill facility is critical to our nation’s defense. I don’t argue with that, but we shouldn’t be put in a situation of pitting our island’s water supply against our nation’s defense. Red Hill can and should be upgraded as quickly as possible to secondary containment and this bill will continue the conversation until we can arrive at the right dates for that to happen by. I ask you to join me in supporting this very important bill. Mahalo.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 3008, S.D. 2, Relating to Payday Lending. Under current law, payday lenders can – and often do – offer predatory, unaffordable loans that can trap the most financially vulnerable citizens of Hawai'i in a cycle of inescapable debt. This a completely unacceptable breach of trust to the people of the state we represent. To remedy this, we have worked diligently with the Pew Charitable Trusts, Hawai'i Community Assets, and the Division of Financial Institutions to offer S.B. 3008, which will disallow predatory payday loans and replace them with a sustainable small-dollar loan program, with the Division of Financial Institutions providing industry regulation and oversight.

"While this bill is lengthy and appears quite dense on paper, the loan concept within the bill can be easily understood via three key statutory rate caps. These caps operate synergistically to provide both consumer protection and lending flexibility. First, and most crucially, monthly payments toward the loan are capped at 5 percent of the borrower's verified gross income. This serves to keep monthly loan repayments affordable and prevent cyclical debt. Second, the total amount of money a lender can collect in connection with a small dollar loan is capped at 50 percent of the principal loan amount. This prevents a lender from extending out the repayment term longer than necessary to continue collecting fees and interest. Third, the interest rate (which includes fees) is capped at 36 percent with full amortization of the loan amount across term, which prevents a lender from front-loading the allowable fees and forcing a default. The result is a small-dollar loan that is flexible enough to accommodate a wide range of borrower types while remaining affordable.

"Consider, for example, a consumer with an annual salary of $24,000 wishing to borrow $1,000, the maximum amount allowed by S.B. 3008. The consumer's monthly payments would be capped at $100/month (5 percent of gross income). At 36 percent interest, the borrower would need a minimum of 13.6 months to repay the loan without overextending their budget. Because the maximum interest and fees are capped at 50 percent of principal, a lender would be prohibited from extending the loan term beyond 15 months. By contrast, a person making $60,000/year could borrow $1,000 and repay the loan relatively quickly, with a minimum term of about 4.5 months, paying $120 in interest/fees to the lender, or choose to extend the loan out over 15 months, with lower payments, but still be guaranteed to never to pay more than $500 in interest and fees.

"I would like to stress that this bill represents a compromise, and a balancing of values. I recognize that small-dollar lending can be a difficult business, and research shows that defaults do occur more frequently than with other loan types. Simultaneously, we reject the notion that this bill will put payday lenders out of business. The annual percentage rates on small-dollar loans are high and the loan structure outlined in this bill requires that small-dollar lenders retain the existing exemption to the usury statute granted to payday lenders. Additionally, S.B. 3008 allows for a $25 monthly maintenance fee. These concessions are included in the bill because it has been demonstrated that there is real value in low-income individuals gaining access to credit. However, if existing payday lenders refuse to operate under a business model that prohibits them from exploiting and entrapping vulnerable citizens in never-ending debt, then they are more than welcome to cease their operation and leave Hawai'i a better, more consumer-friendly place, and allow ethical businesses to take their place. Please join me in supporting S.B. 3008, S.D. 2, a common sense piece of legislation that will help the people of Hawai'i. Thank you."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2655, S.D. 2, Relating to Psychology. The purpose and intent of this measure is to establish recommended criteria for the licensure of school psychologists based in part on the National Association of School Psychologists's standards. This measure will also require school psychologists to be licensed by the board of psychology. Properly licensed psychologists provide important services to help children and create a supportive learning environment in our schools. Hawai'i is currently the only state without certification or licensure for school psychologists.

"Without specified licensing for this field of practice, the State cannot ensure functioning school psychologists are properly qualified and delivering appropriate services. Ensuring that Hawai'i's school psychologists are licensed by the National Association of School Psychologists holds those within the field of school psychology to a national standard of credentials. Accredited school psychologists should be subject to regulation and appropriate control in order to protect the public from unqualified practice and unprofessional conduct. To provide proper and effective mental health services to Hawai'i's youth, it is important we pass this measure."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 3107, Relating to Chronic Health Conditions. S.B. 3107 is a multifaceted bill which addresses the several issues faced by residents with multiple chronic health conditions. Chronic health conditions include not only physical ailments such as diabetes and lung disease, but can also include mental health disorders, substance use disorders, and homelessness. The bill appropriates funds to coordinate effective care for persons suffering from these ailments through the following initiatives:

- (1) A comprehensive and coordinated continuum of treatment services;
- (2) A pilot project for a centralized referral system;
- (3) Case management programs for substance use disorders; and
- (4) Supervisors for volunteer peer mentors and coaches and incentives for volunteer peer mentors and coaches.

"Treatment of multiple chronic conditions is not only an issue which affects those afflicted; it is expensive to treat these individuals and those distributed are borne throughout the healthcare system, primarily via insurance premium increases. Approximately 66 percent of total healthcare spending is directed towards the approximately 27 percent of Americans living with multiple chronic conditions. Coordinated care can lead to lower costs for taxpayers and better health outcomes for patients.

“Please join me in support of this measure that will lead to better health outcomes for those with multiple chronic health condition and will likely save money on health care costs in the long term. Mahalo.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2304, S.D. 2, Relating to Tobacco. This bill seeks to reduce the use, access, and exposure to tobacco products amongst Hawaii's youth community by prohibiting the issuance and renewal of retail tobacco permits, including the sale of electronic smoking devices, at a place of business which is located within 500 feet of preschools, schools, and public playgrounds.

"A 2008 study discovered that behaviors of smoking were significantly higher among students within areas that contained the highest density of tobacco retailers, as compared to fellow students within areas that did not contain any tobacco retailers nearby. Additionally, studies indicate that electronic cigarette use can lead to increased rates of traditional tobacco products, especially among youth, who use electronic cigarettes at an alarming rate. The increase in popularity of electronic cigarettes among youth is due in part to purposeful marketing, selective flavor options, and widespread availability. Studies indicate that the tobacco industry spends an estimated $24,300,000 on marketing costs per year in Hawai'i. In addition, the electronic smoking device industry is estimated to have spent $115,000,000 in 2014 – a nearly 1,700 percent increase from 2011 spending. The marketing of such products has become increasingly prevalent in public life, much of which appeals directly to children and youth.

“The 2015 Hawai‘i Youth Risk Survey reports that as much as 25 percent of high school students, and as much as 15 percent of middle school students, have used electronic vapor products. This is alarming, as there exists no conclusive evidence to indicate that electronic smoking devices are a safe alternative to other tobacco products, as exposure to nicotine increases the risk of addiction and may disrupt critical brain development. Furthermore, states such as California and New York have implemented similar tobacco retail buffer zones which range from 300 to 1,500 feet around schools, parks, libraries, and other youth-oriented areas.

“Reducing the proximity of prominent marketing, social pressure, and general availability of tobacco products from sites most frequented by children serves as a common sense action we can take in the challenge to keep Hawai‘i’s youth healthy. Please join me in support of this measure, so that we may together continue the fight to keep our youth healthy. Mahalo.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2653, Relating to Chapter 453, Hawai‘i Revised Statutes. This bill amends Chapter 453, Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, to allow the Board of Medicine by endorsement to approve a license to practice medicine granted by another state with similar standards. S.B. 2653 would also appropriate a sum from the Compliance Resolution Fund in order to implement this measure.

“We continue to face a primary care provider shortage which is particularly acute on neighbor islands. Currently, red tape can unnecessarily impede licensure of qualified physicians, surgeons, and osteopathic physicians. Licensure by endorsement will provide an expedited and efficient process for a provider to become licensed in the state, addressing our provider shortage in a real and meaningful manner. Additionally, this bill has the support of the Board of Medicine. Please join me in support of S.B. 2653, which will help ensure that residents have access to the quality health care they deserve.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, rise in strong support of S.B. 2988, Relating to Kūpuna Care. We launched the Kūpuna Caregivers program last year to lift some of the burdens placed upon families caring for an elderly family member at home. The program allows qualified, employed caregivers to receive additional caregiving services for their kūpuna and thus allow the family caregiver to stay in the workforce, earning their own retirement benefits.

"Community feedback regarding the program has been overwhelmingly positive. The need for the Kūpuna Caregivers program is evident; within just a few weeks of its launch, the Executive Office on Aging documented over 500 requests for services. To continue assisting Hawaii's kūpuna, we must pass S.B. 2988, which appropriates a necessary $4,000,000 for this fiscal year, fully implementing the program.

"As we all know, Hawai'i families take pride in caring for their kūpuna. Family caregivers play a significant role in Hawaii's healthcare system by providing long-term care to the elderly. According to the AARP, there are 154,000 unpaid family caregivers in Hawai'i, with the average caregiver being a 62-year-old married woman, who cares for an elderly parent or husband while remaining active in the workforce. Caregiving for an elderly family member takes an emotional, physical, and financial toll on caregivers, and care recipients often worry they will become a burden on family members. The Kūpuna Caregivers program is a way to alleviate these burdens and concerns. As Hawaii's aging population continues to grow, caregiver assistance is critical in supporting caregivers' health as well as the health of Hawai'i's kūpuna.

"I strongly encourage my colleagues to vote yes on this measure. The first year of funding made the first critical step in establishing the program, and it helped assist dozens of families across the state. This year, we must take the next step: funding the program in its entirety so that we may support all other Hawai'i families who are in desperate need of the support offered by Kūpuna Caregivers. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2862 was adopted and S.B. No. 2988, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO KUPUNA CARE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, remarks in strong support of S.B. 2056, S.D. 2, Relating to Health. This measure seeks to limit obesity and to improve the health of our keiki, by requiring restaurants to offer a healthy beverage option as the default beverage for any children's meal. Healthy options within the bill include water – either sparkling or flavored, which does not contain artificial sweeteners – milk or non-dairy milk alternatives, or a serving of six ounces or less of 100 percent fruit juice.

"Hawaii's families have become increasingly busy, making routine shopping for and preparation of healthy meals less convenient. As a result, dining out has become an appealing and time-conserving option for many. In a 2013 study which examined the most profitable fast-food chains, it was discovered that only 3 percent of children's meals offered met USDA nutritional standards.

"Obesity is associated with many other serious health conditions, such as type 2 diabetes, heart disease, stroke, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, certain cancers, asthma, low self-esteem, and depression. In addition to these serious personal afflictions, a 2013 report estimated that the State of Hawai'i spends about $473,000,000 in obesity-related medical costs – costs which may be avoided through education and encouragement of better nutrition choices.

“Research has shown that sugar-sweetened beverages constitute about 9 percent of the daily caloric intake for children, and that the consumption of such sugar-sweetened beverages contributes to obesity. By requiring restaurants to offer healthy beverage options as the default included beverage, rather than a preference which must be voiced by the customer, families can effectively reduce this contributor to childhood obesity in the State of Hawai‘i.

“I strongly encourage my colleagues to vote yes on this measure, so that together we may promote a healthier future for our keiki and our communities.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, remarks in strong support of S.B. 2298, Relating to Healthcare Preceptor Tax Credits. The purpose of this bill is to create a tax credit that encourages volunteer preceptors to offer professional instruction, training, and supervision to students and residents seeking careers as primary care physicians and advanced practice registered nurses throughout Hawai'i, and will build capacity for clinical education at nationally accredited in-state academic programs for the training of primary care physicians, advanced practice registered nurses, and pharmacy professionals. This measure seeks to address both current and future healthcare delivery needs in the state.

"The Legislature finds that demand for healthcare providers in Hawai'i is growing because of an increase in population size, particularly among the aged population; an improvement in access to care due to broader insurance coverage; and a higher prevalence of chronic diseases. At the same time, there is a primary care provider shortage in Hawai'i that will be exacerbated by the projected retirements of current physicians and advanced practice registered nurses. If the gap between healthcare supply and demand isn't addressed, patients will suffer from longer wait times to see providers and poorer health outcomes. Additionally, the evolution of healthcare delivery means academic institutions across Hawai'i face challenges in ensuring an adequate number of future healthcare professionals who are well-distributed by location and are prepared to deliver primary and specialty healthcare, including behavioral health, in rural, urban, and suburban settings across Hawai'i. Thus, the Legislature acknowledges that in order to meet these growing healthcare demands, the State must work with academic institutions and healthcare professionals to ensure there is an adequate and well-prepared healthcare workforce for Hawaii's residents.

"Many Hawai'i high school and college students are interested in pursuing careers in the healthcare industry. However, in-state educational institutions are constrained by the lack of clinical education sites here and the limited supply of qualified volunteer preceptors in primary and specialty care fields. Efforts are currently underway to address the clinical site limitations, including travel support from health professional schools in Hawai'i for students and residents who incur high costs for training away from their home island. However, with the high cost of out-of-state training, the State must consider expanding our in-state capacity to educate our future healthcare professionals.

"There is an urgent need to recruit additional clinical preceptors who are largely volunteers that share the kuleana of educating the future healthcare workforce while maintaining their own patient care load. Because providers assume the mentoring of students in a clinical practice setting to give them real life experience, preceptors who go above and beyond their regular patient-care responsibilities can find themselves subject to burnout and fatigue, especially in busy clinical care settings. Some states, including Maryland, Georgia, and Colorado, have identified preceptor tax exemptions as an effective means to increase the supply of health preceptors for students training in our medical, nursing, and pharmacy programs.

"With the passage of S.B. 2298, S.D. 2, Hawai'i has the opportunity to establish an effective, beneficial partnership between academic institutions, the healthcare industry, preceptors, and communities which need Hawaii's future healthcare workforce. I respectfully and strongly urge my colleagues to join me in supporting S.B. 2298, S.D. 2 and to vote yes on a measure that supports Hawaii's future healthcare workforce by benefitting from the wisdom of experience-provided, compassionate, and professional preceptors to guide them. Mahalo."

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2899 be adopted and S.B. No. 2489, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2489, S.D. 2, Relating to Taxation. The purpose of this measure is to amend the formula for the amount of transient accommodations tax (TAT) collected from time shares by increasing the base on which time shares are taxed specifically from one-half of the gross daily maintenance fees paid by the owner of the time share to a more appropriate percentage of the gross daily maintenance fees paid by the owner of that time share.

"Hawaii's existing formula for levying taxes on time share units has not been adjusted since its enactment in 1998. TAT remitted by transient accommodation operators is based upon the 'fair market value' of individual units. 'Fair market value' for time shares is defined as one-half of the gross daily maintenance fees paid by the owner of the time share, a value sometimes referred to as the time share occupancy tax (TOT). Time share remittances have little relation to the actual fair market value of the unit being rented and result in an unintended tax advantage compared with other transient accommodations, such as hotels. This bill seeks to revise the existing tax formula which significantly underestimates the fair market value of many time share units, particularly those units not rented in the open market.

"Time shares have changed significantly since their inception and now operate in a manner very similar to hotels. Yet, time shares operating in this manner have a significant and unintended tax advantage. Time shares should pay their fair share. Please join me in support of S.B. 2489."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2293, S.D. 2, Relating to Affordable Housing. The purpose and intent of this measure is to preserve the Front Street Apartments on Maui as an affordable housing project by requiring the Hawai‘i Housing Finance and Development Corporation, or any appropriate entity of the State determined by the governor, to immediately initiate negotiations with the owners of the Front Street Apartments.

“The aforementioned state agency would be required to make available, without competitive award, public financing resources to extend affordable rents at the Front Street Apartments through at least 2027 for apartment tenants as of January 1, 2018, who meet certain median family income levels.

“The agencies’ other option would be to acquire the property, provided that certain apartment units are reserved for tenants who meet certain median family income levels.

“This measure would also authorize the State to exercise powers of eminent domain to provide for the public financing of the acquisition of the Front Street Apartments by condemnation through the expenditures of funds at the disposal of the State, if an agreement to extend the affordable rents or acquire the property is not reached within a reasonable time. Additionally, funds would be appropriated to the Hawai‘i Housing Finance and Development Corporation (HHFDC) for the purposes of negotiating with the owners of the Front Street Apartments and requiring the County of Maui to appropriate matching county funds.

“The Front Street Apartments on Maui provide affordable housing to more than 250 low income residents. The apartments were developed in 2001 as an affordable rental housing project using state financing and tax credits, and were wholeheartedly expected by apartment residents to remain affordable to low income individuals for a total of 50 years.

“The owners of the Front Street Apartments exercised an option to remove the property from affordability requirements tied to the development of the property. This will allow them to rent at market rates and raise rents for existing tenants. Current tenants of the Front Street Apartments consist of households with incomes below 60 percent of the area median income for the County of Maui. Should the Front Street Apartment tenants lose their units, there are nearly no other affordable rental units for them to move into, and many could become homeless as a result.

“To protect the residents of the Front Street Apartments for almost certain eviction, it is important to pass this measure.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, remarks in strong support of S.B. 2660, Relating to Medical Coverage. In October 2013, researchers from the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health found that firefighters possess a higher risk than the general population of being diagnosed with certain types of cancers. This increased risk of deadly disease is a result of firefighters’ service to their communities, and result from exposure to toxic chemicals produced by burning buildings and vehicles.

“S.B. 2660 will provide the medical coverage we owe our brave firefighters by requiring their private health plan to pay for or to provide medical care in the event of a controverted workers’ compensation claim. In the case of an accepted workers’ compensation claim for leukemia, multiple myeloma or non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma, an employer will be liable for 137 percent of medical care services and supplies.

“This measure will give firefighters diagnosed with cancer the ability to access more affordable healthcare and provide a significant amount of support to the families of our first responders, and for that reason, I strongly encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting this measure.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 8 was put by the Chair and carried.

Senator English then moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2910 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Wakai and carried.

By unanimous consent, S.B. No. 2670, S.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS," was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, March 8, 2018.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2697 (S.B. No. 2519, S.D. 1):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2697 be adopted and S.B. No. 2519, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Gabbard then offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 9) to S.B. No. 2519, S.D. 1:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2519, S.D. 1, section 2, is amended by amending page 2, lines 6 to 12, to include a provision that requires the contracts entered into to benefit agricultural and agriculture-related projects and to read as follows:

"§163D- Municipal solid waste diversion. The corporation may enter into contracts with private businesses to remove select municipal solid waste, glass, and food and green waste from the waste stream for use in other business sectors, including agriculture, construction, and energy production; provided that any contract shall benefit agricultural and agriculture-related projects. The corporation may adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91 necessary to carry out the purposes of this section."

Senator Gabbard moved that Floor Amendment No. 9 be adopted, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Gabbard rose to speak in support of the amendment as follows:

"Mr. President, this amendment is necessary to clarify that municipal solid waste diversion projects called for in this bill benefit agricultural and agriculture-related projects."

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 9 was put by the Chair and carried.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I just wanted to clarify that the Ways and Means committee voted on February 13; an error was made in recording two of the members' votes. The record of votes sheet on Senate Bill 2519 was marked with Senators Harimoto and Riviere voting 'no,' but it should have been marked 'aye with reservations.' Therefore, I am requesting that the Senate Journal accurately reflect these votes that were made on February 13."

The Chair so ordered, and directed the Clerk to record the Committee on Ways and Means vote for S.B. No. 2519 in the Journal with Senators Harimoto and Riviere voting "Aye with Reservations," and to update bill status to reflect the correct information.

Senator Gabbard moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2697 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz and carried.

By unanimous consent, S.B. No. 2519, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ENVIRONMENT," was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, March 8, 2018.

At 10:11 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:12 a.m.

The Chair clarified:

"Apparently, recording the information accurately on this bill continues to be a problem. I believe that I recognized Senator Dela Cruz for his explanation before I clearly said that Amendment No. 9 had been adopted. Now that Senator Dela Cruz has given his explanation, we ordered the Clerk to make the correction, and we now have given 48-hours' notice to Senate Bill 2519, Senate Draft 2. Can we go to Floor Amendment 10, Madam Clerk?"

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2895 (S.B. No. 2047, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2895 be adopted and S.B. No. 2047, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Nishihara then offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 10) to S.B. No. 2047, S.D. 2:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2047, S.D. 2, section 1(a), is amended as follows:

1. By inserting a new paragraph at page 1, line 4, to read:

“(1) Contracting and procurement policies and practices, including:

- (A) Whether contractors and vendors are adequately screened and qualified; and
- (B) Compliance with state and federal laws and whether contracts are awarded in accordance with the state procurement code;”

2. By renumbering the remaining paragraphs accordingly.

SECTION 2. Senate Bill No. 2047, S.D. 2, section 1, is amended by making a technical, nonsubstantive amendment by deleting the subsection (a) designation at page 1, line 1.

Senator Nishihara moved that Floor Amendment No. 10 be adopted, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Nishihara rose to speak in support of the amendment as follows:

“The amendments were, as made by the Committee on Ways and Means, an attempt to narrow the focus and scope of Senate Bill 2047, S.D. 1, for reasons of efficiency, but failed to adequately address certain issues, specifically in regards to contracting and procurement policies and practices, which was a factor in prompting the introduction of the bill. Therefore, I’d like to reinsert the language provided to the Clerk previously included in Senate Draft 1 back into the bill.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 10 was put by the Chair and carried.

Senator Nishihara then moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2895 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz and carried.

By unanimous consent, S.B. No. 2047, S.D. 3, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY,” was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, March 8, 2018.

The Clerk then stated:

“Mr. President, we’d like to take two matters out of order from the ordinary calendar, beginning on page 86.”

S.B. No. 2699, S.D. 1:

Senator Dela Cruz moved that S.B. No. 2699, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz then offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 11) to S.B. No. 2699, S.D. 1:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2699, S.D. 1, is amended as follows:

1. By amending SECTION 1, item 2, on page 1, line 9 to page 3, line 18, to read:

“2. By amending the definition of “gross rental” or “gross rental proceeds” to read:

““Gross rental” or “gross rental proceeds” means the gross ~~receipts,~~ sales or gross charges collected from consumers, including but not limited to booking fees, resort fees, cleaning fees, lodging fees, transient fees, or any other fees collected, but does not include fees collected for ground transportation, airfare, meals, excursions, tours, or other fees unrelated to the transient accommodations, cash or accrued, of the taxpayer received as compensation for the furnishing of transient accommodations or entering into arrangements to furnish transient accommodations and the value proceeding or accruing from the furnishing of ~~such~~ the accommodations or entering into arrangements to furnish transient accommodations without any deductions on account of the cost of property or services sold, the cost of materials used, labor cost, ~~taxes,~~ royalties, interest, discounts, or any other expenses whatsoever. Every taxpayer shall be presumed to be dealing on a cash basis unless the taxpayer proves to the satisfaction of the department of taxation that the taxpayer is dealing on an accrual basis and the taxpayer’s books are so kept, or unless the taxpayer employs or is required to employ the accrual basis for the purposes of the tax imposed by chapter 237 for any taxable year in which event the taxpayer shall report the taxpayer’s gross income for the purposes of this chapter on the accrual basis for the same period.

The words “gross rental” or “gross rental proceeds” shall not be construed to include the amounts of taxes imposed by chapter 237 or this chapter on operators of transient accommodations or transient accommodation intermediaries and passed on, collected, and received from the consumer as part of the receipts received as compensation for the furnishing of transient accommodations[-] or entering into arrangements to furnish transient accommodations. Where transient accommodations are furnished through arrangements made by a ~~travel agency or tour packager~~ transient accommodations intermediary at noncommissionable negotiated contract rates and the gross income is divided between the operator of transient accommodations on the one hand and the ~~travel agency or tour packager~~ transient accommodations intermediary on the other hand, ~~gross rental or gross rental proceeds to the operator means only the respective portion allocated or distributed to the operator,~~ the tax imposed by this chapter shall apply to each operator and transient accommodations intermediary with respect to that person’s respective portion of the proceeds, and no more. For purposes of this definition, where the operator maintains a schedule of rates for identifiable groups of individuals, such as kamaainas, upon which the accommodations are leased, let, or rented, gross rental or gross rental proceeds means the receipts collected and received based upon the scheduled rates and recorded as receipts in its books and records.”

2. By adding a new SECTION 9 to the bill to read:

“SECTION 9. Section 237D-15, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“§237D-15 Application of tax. (a) The tax imposed by this chapter shall be in addition to any other taxes imposed by any other laws of the State, except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter; provided that if it be held by any court of competent jurisdiction that the tax imposed by this chapter may not legally be imposed in addition to any other tax or taxes imposed by any other law or laws with respect to the same property or the use thereof, then this chapter shall be deemed not to apply to such property and the use thereof under the specific circumstances, but the other laws shall be given full effect with respect to such property and use.

(b) In order to determine if the tax under this chapter is to be levied, assessed, and collected upon transient accommodations the following presumptions shall control.

- (1) If a person lets a transient accommodation for less than one hundred eighty consecutive days, it shall be presumed that the accommodation furnished is for a transient purpose.
- (2) If a person lets a transient accommodation for one hundred eighty days or more, there is no presumption one way or another as to the purpose for which the accommodation is furnished.

The operator shall have the burden of proving to the department whether an accommodation is not being furnished for a transient purpose. If the department is satisfied that an accommodation is not furnished for a transient purpose, then the department shall not levy any tax under this chapter. The department shall adopt rules to implement this section.

(c) Except as otherwise provided, this chapter shall apply to a transient accommodations intermediary who furnishes or enters into an agreement to furnish transient accommodations at noncommissioned negotiated contract rates in the same manner as it applies to an operator.”

3. By renumbering SECTIONS 9 and 10 of the bill as SECTIONS 10 and 11.

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Floor Amendment No. 11 be adopted, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose speak in support of the amendment as follows:

“This floor amendment amends the definition of ‘gross rental’ and ‘gross rental proceeds’ to include agreements to furnish transient accommodations for future use, and amends the HRS section 237D-15 to ensure that this chapter also applies to transient accommodation intermediaries.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 11 was put by the Chair and carried.

By unanimous consent, S.B. No. 2699, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX,” was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, March 8, 2018.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2926 (S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2926 be adopted and S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Inouye then offered the following amendment (Floor Amendment No. 12) to S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 2:

SECTION 1. Senate Bill No. 2996, S.D. 2, is amended by changing the effective date from July 1, 2050, to January 1, 2019, in section 25 to read as follows:

“SECTION 25. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 2019; provided that section 11 shall take effect upon the satisfaction and discharge of:

- (1) That certain Certificate of the Director of Transportation Providing for the Issuance of the State of Hawaii Airports System Revenue Bonds dated as of May 1, 1969;
- (2) That certain Indenture of Trust dated as of December 1, 2013, between the department of transportation and U.S. Bank National Association; and
- (3) All obligations issued and outstanding under the Certificate and Indenture.”

Senator Inouye moved that Floor Amendment No. 12 be adopted, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Inouye rose speak in support of the amendment as follows:

“Requesting the amendment to change the date from July 1, 2050, to January 1, 2019. This amendment would provide a clean effective date to satisfy that certain Certificate of the Director of Transportation Providing for the Issuance of the State of Hawaii Airports System Revenue Bonds dated as of May 1, 1969; that certain Indenture of Trust dated as of December 1, 2013, between the Department of Transportation and U.S. Bank National Association; and all obligations issued and outstanding under the Certificate and Indenture.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 12 was put by the Chair and carried, with Senator Ihara voting “Aye with Reservations.”

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2926 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz and carried.

By unanimous consent, S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 3, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AN AIRPORTS CORPORATION,” was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, March 8, 2018.

S.B. No. 3067, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator English, seconded by Senator Espero and carried, S.B. No. 3067, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION,” was recommended to the Committee on Ways and Means, with Senators Ihara and Thielen voting “Aye with Reservations.”

S.B. No. 2609, S.D. 1:

Senator Taniguchi moved that S.B. No. 2609, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“Colleagues, a few years back, we passed a law with unanimous support in both the House and the Senate which required the financial disclosures by certain board and commission members to be public. We had identified the boards and commissions that are responsible for managing a significant amount of lands or our higher education system, where they’re responsible under autonomy for a significant number of decisions, and we felt that that had to be public information so these board and commission members could be held accountable.

“What this measure does, is it strikes or redacts the personal income dollar value range by certain board and commission members so that those are no longer public. I think we need to keep this information public, but for those of you who do support making it private, I do want to point out that it has the ironic impact of taking a board or commission member who has mainly, like, a hundred-dollar value of revenue – say, a stock portfolio or something – and tars them with the same brush as a board or commission member who may have a $500,000 contract from somebody because, now, nobody’s going to know what the range is of these board or commission members’ financial interests. They’re going to assume that they’re all fairly high.

“I also want to point out that the purpose behind this is often that it’s difficult to find board or commission members who are willing to serve when this financial information is public. We have not had a single vacancy unfilled because of this information. We did have some people resign when the law went into effect, but every single position was filled immediately by people who were willing and understood the public policy behind having this information be public. So, I oppose the measure, and I hope you would join me in that opposition.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2609, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 18; Ayes with Reservations (Espero, Gabbard, Harimoto). Noes, 7 (Green, Ihara, Kim, Rhoads, Riviere, Ruderman, Thielen).

S.B. No. 2461, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Taniguchi, seconded by Senator Rhoads and carried, S.B. No. 2461, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL

FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SERVICE ANIMALS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

S.B. No. 270, S.D. 1:

Senator Baker moved that S.B. No. 270, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 270, S.D. 1, Relating to Minors. The purpose and intent of this measure is to prohibit persons licensed to provide professional counseling from engaging in, attempting to engage in, or advertising sexual orientation change efforts on persons under 18 years of age.

“According to the American Psychological Association, sexual orientation change efforts, also known as conversion therapy, tend to do more harm than good. Participants in sexual orientation change efforts report many negative consequences from these interventions including anger, guilt, and hopelessness. Children and adolescents who participate in these types of interventions, which often used fear-based techniques, are given inaccurate scientific information regarding sexual orientation and are also at risk of increased self-stigma and psychological distress.

“Furthermore, all leading organizations involved in the treatment of children have issued statements opposing sexual orientation change efforts. These organizations include the American Medical Association, American Academy of Pediatrics, American Psychiatric Association, and National Association of Social Workers.

“To protect Hawaii’s youth from the harmful effects of conversion therapy, it is important we pass this measure. Please join me in voting aye.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Mr. President, I really find it disheartening and disappointing that we need to have this legislation in this day and age. As a mom, I consider this child abuse, but it’s apparent that there are those in our community who believe that they can change the sexual orientation of a person through psychological therapy, and they do want to deny our young people the freedom and right to be what he or she wants to be. I’ve always supported keiki as a mom, and I really feel that our mental health professionals have testified and provided evidence that says this is a deplorable practice and it is very harmful. There are numerous organizations that have come forth, human rights groups, both nationally and locally – they’ve all joined in support of Senate Bill 270, S.D. 1. Here in Hawai’i, we do have a culture of acceptance and tolerance; we have grown – many of us have grown – on this issue, and we accept people, who and what they are, regardless of their race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation. We do base our society as the preamble of our constitution reads, ‘with an understanding and compassionate heart toward all the peoples of the earth,’ so let’s rid Hawai’i of this practice. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 270, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MINORS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Gabbard).

S.B. No. 2848, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Rhoads, seconded by Senator Gabbard and carried, S.B. No. 2848, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BOTTOMFISH,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2572 (S.B. No. 2231, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2572 be adopted and S.B. No. 2231, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“Colleagues, what this bill does is it eliminates the daily fine penalty for board and commission members who do not file their ethics or financial disclosure. This does not have the support of the agencies that monitor these disclosures and, in fact, they testified that in some cases, the board or commission members – and these, again, they’re the public as well as the not-public financial disclosures – that the only hammer they do have in going after the board or commission members who refuse to file them is the fact that there are daily fines. These fines can be waived, but if we eliminate them, what we’re essentially doing is telling board and commission members, if they want to pay a one-time $75 fee, they don’t have to file the financial disclosures. We have this law on the books. A lot of people complain about the fact that laws are not enforced. We would be taking away the enforcement mechanism to have the financial disclosures filed by these board and commission members. I ask that you oppose the bill, and I do want to point out that it has a retroactive effective date. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2572 was adopted and S.B. No. 2231, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

S.B. No. 2549, S.D. 1:

On motion by Senator Baker, seconded by Senator Taniguchi and carried, S.B. No. 2549, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIQUOR LICENSES,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara). Noes, 1 (Rhoads).

S.B. No. 2865, S.D. 1:

Senator Kahele moved that S.B. No. 2865, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Kahele requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kahele's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President I rise in strong support of this bill. Colleagues, Paul Coleman was an astrophysicist at the University of Hawai'i (UH) Institute for Astronomy (IfA) and the first and only Native Hawaiian with a doctorate in astrophysics. He was a proud St. Louis School graduate, who received his BS in Physics from the University of Notre Dame and his PhD in Physics at the University of Pittsburgh in conjunction with the National Radio Astronomy Observatory. His doctoral research focused on the sizes of distant galaxies observed at radio wavelengths, and the implications of these for cosmological models.

"He was a tireless advocate for astronomy in Hawai'i. He spoke to business groups, rotary clubs, and chambers and educational institutions across Hawai'i, advocating for UH and the IfA. At the IfA, he led our National Science Foundation's (NSF) Research Experiences for Undergraduates program for nearly a decade. This highly competitive program brings a dozen undergraduates from around the country to conduct research with IfA astronomers during the summer. He helped lead the NSF's mitigation program for the DKIST, to advance Native Hawaiian participation in STEM fields. Paul worked closely with the Faulkes Telescope North project on Haleakalā, a remotely operable telescope designed to be used by students around the world.

"Perhaps most importantly, Paul Coleman served as a mentor to a new generation of Native Hawaiian scientists. His vision was that Native Hawaiians, by engaging in the sciences and especially astronomy, would become major users of these facilities, connecting the future of astronomy with the rich history of Polynesian voyaging. He was an advisor for the 'Imiloa Astronomy Center in Hilo, and served on the State's Hawaiian lexicon committee, developing new Hawaiian words to keep up with advances in science. Paul's dedication to the Native Hawaiian community and to Native Hawaiian youth in STEM was irreplaceable and unparalleled and for what he most passionately advocated. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2865, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE INSTITUTE FOR ASTRONOMY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Harimoto, Kim, Riviere, Taniguchi, Thielen). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2596 (S.B. No. 2645, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Baker, seconded by Senator Tokuda and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2596 was adopted and S.B. No. 2645, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE ENVIRONMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2597 (S.B. No. 2498, S.D. 2):

Senator Baker moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2597 be adopted and S.B. No. 2498, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, remarks in strong support of S.B. 2498, S.D. 2, Relating to Polystyrene Foam Containers. This measure intends to protect the economy and the environment of the State of Hawai'i by effectively prohibiting the sale and the distribution of prepared food using harmful polystyrene foam containers.

"Polystyrene is one of the most common forms of litter pollution in the state, and is widely known to possess long-lasting, harmful effects upon the environment. Fragments of the ultra-light material often break off and accumulate on land and in waterways. These fragments then leach styrene, a known carcinogen, and other toxins into the environment which then find their way into the local food chain. While such toxins eventually become an inseparable part of the food chain on the molecular level, the dangers of polystyrene foam can also be witnessed in their immediacy, as it is often ingested by marine animals and local birds resulting in serious physical harm.

"In addition, as a means of reducing the use of all non-reusable food containers, I support the implementation of a broad education campaign to inform consumers of certain harmful product materials and effective ways to discontinue use of those materials. Furthermore, the widespread littering of polystyrene throughout our islands results in significant damage to the state's number one industry, tourism.

"I strongly urge my colleagues to join me in protecting our invaluable natural resources and preserving public health by voting yes on this measure."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2597 was adopted and S.B. No. 2498, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO POLYSTYRENE FOAM CONTAINERS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Wakai). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2599 (S.B. No. 815, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Baker, seconded by Senator Tokuda and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2599 was adopted and S.B. No. 815, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO REAL ESTATE DISCLOSURE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2600 (S.B. No. 2567, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Baker, seconded by Senator Tokuda and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2600 was adopted and S.B. No. 2567, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CESSPOOLS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Ruderman).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2601 (S.B. No. 2571, S.D. 2):

Senator Baker moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2601 be adopted and S.B. No. 2571, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2571, S.D. 2, Relating to Water Pollution, a measure which will protect our vulnerable coral reefs and marine ecosystems by prohibiting the sale of sunscreens containing either oxybenzone, octinoxate, or both.

“Our reefs are under extreme threat from global climate change. From 2014 to 2016, the longest bleaching events ever occurred, killing coral reefs on a greater scale than has ever been previously recorded. While State-level policy addressing climate change is useful, we cannot hope to solve this global problem in Hawai‘i alone.

“A 2015 study published in the credible, peer-reviewed Archives of Environmental Contamination and Toxicology showed severely deleterious effects on larval coral in a laboratory setting. These effects were shown to occur at an oxybenzone concentration less than those that have been measured at some of our beaches here in Hawai‘i. However, there have been some concerns raised about this study by other credible, non-industry-funded scientists, particularly related to the fact that this study was carried out in the laboratory, and may not accurately reflect conditions on the reef, where pollutants could be rapidly dispersed and diluted. Overall, when considering the many stresses already faced by reefs and the evidence of toxicity of certain components of sunscreens to corals and other marine organisms, a proactive policy is required to protect our reefs, especially in Hawai‘i, where we have high levels of marine-based tourism.

“Additionally, over-exposure to UV radiation is indisputably a human health concern, and because one doesn’t typically apply make-up before going for a swim in the ocean, I support the commonsense exception for cosmetic products.

“Please join me in support of S.B. 2571, Relating to Water Pollution. Thank you.”

Senator Gabbard rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“This bill would ban the sale of any sunscreen product containing oxybenzone or octinoxate without a medically licensed prescription. More and more research from around the world is telling us that these two chemicals are both harmful to coral reefs and human health. Scientific evidence indicates that these chemicals induce coral bleaching, harm and kill coral larvae by creating gross deformities, and act as an endocrine disruptor. As it relates to human health, these chemicals are linked to causing breast cancer to become more aggressive, polluting breast milk, causing Hirschsprung deformity in newborns, are associated with women’s uterine diseases, threaten male sexual health, and can damage DNA. There’s evidence that oxybenzone is even showing up in our aquifers and drinking water. There are many sunscreens available that don’t contain the chemicals, and some are even made here locally. And this is a good first step in keeping oxybenzone and octinoxate out of our water and away from our bodies. Mahalo.”

Senator English rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Members, many of the companies that produce these sunscreens have come and talked to us, but I understand that the major companies are already beginning to phase these out of their production, and they’re simply waiting for FDA approval. So, I think the best way that we can help is to encourage the FDA to speed up the approval process so that they can remove these chemicals in sunscreen, and we would protect our reefs that way. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2601 was adopted and S.B. No. 2571, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WATER POLLUTION,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Taniguchi). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2608 (S.B. No. 2299, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Taniguchi, seconded by Senator Gabbard and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2608 was adopted and S.B. No. 2299, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NATUROPATHIC MEDICINE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 3 (Green, Rhoads, Riviere).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2609 (S.B. No. 2491, S.D. 2):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2609 be adopted and S.B. No. 2491, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Gabbard.

Senator Green rose to seek a ruling on a potential conflict of interest as follows:

“Mr. President, could I ask just for a clarification on a potential conflict of interest? I’m a health care worker that this might affect.”

The Chair responded:

“Well, it affects all health care workers, so no conflict, Senator Green.”

Senator Green continued to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“So, Mr. President, just for clarity, I think, for colleagues: It had come up in conversation that maybe we don’t need to add extra protections, and I respect that. The circumstance is kind of like this: If you’re in an emergency setting and you’re taking care of a patient and there’s violence, you may have to continuously go into the setting because you’re committed morally to make sure you do whatever’s necessary to get their care to its completion. So, there may be some unique circumstances for health care workers that I’ve been discussing where you will continue to go in, no matter what, even if there’s a threat, and I think that that’s one of the premises that should be at least considered for this bill. Thank you, Mr. President.”

The Chair clarified that since the measure affects a class of health care workers, and therefore does not affect Senator Green as a sole individual, there is no conflict of interest.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2609 was adopted and S.B. No. 2491, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE WORKERS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara, Keith-Agaran). Noes, 1 (Rhoads).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2611 (S.B. No. 2650, S.D. 2):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2611 be adopted and S.B. No. 2650, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Chang requested that remarks in support of the measure with reservations be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Chang’s remarks read as follows:

“S.B. 2650 amends Act 211 by requiring to certain motion picture theater owners and operators to provide open movie captioning for at least two showings per week. Although this bill is well intentioned, I believe it may be misguided.

“Since the passage of Act 39 and Act 211, movie theater operators have taken steps to be more innovative in their services to the hearing impaired community. Operators have provided eyewear, closed captioning readers, assistive listening devices, and descriptive audio devices for the hearing impaired. Not only have they been offering use of these technologies, they have also been offering open caption screenings above and beyond their legal obligation.

“Despite the good faith of the movie theater operators, since the passage of Act 211, theaters have seen a decrease in attendance during the year, approximately 95,000. This leads to an increase in movie ticket prices and the loss of local jobs in an important segment of our economy.

“I am hopeful that the Legislature, the deaf community, and the theater operators will be able to collaborate on positive solutions that benefit everyone.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2650, S.D. 2, Relating to Movie Theaters. This bill would restore the provisions of Act 39 (SLH 2015), which required that movie theaters with more than two locations in the state to hold at least two movie showings per week with open captioning. S.B. 2650, S.D. 2 additionally requires that one showing be an evening showing, because the deaf and hard-of-hearing have to work during the day, just like everybody else.

“The deaf and hard-of-hearing community strongly prefers open captioning to any type of eyewear and have stated this virtually unanimously in testimony to multiple committee hearings. Open captioning allows deaf and hard-of-hearing individuals to enjoy movies in a manner similar to non-deaf individuals. One attends a movie in a theater to connect with not only the people on screen, but with the people with whom you attend. To see a friend’s face light up with laughter or grow sullen during a sad scene is part of the experience of attending a theater. Eyewear deprives deaf and hard of hearing individuals of that experience. The Legislature’s policies have deprived the deaf community of this experience. We need to reverse course and restore open captioning to our movie theaters. It is the right thing to do. Please join me in supporting S.B. 2650, S.D. 2.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2611 was adopted and S.B. No. 2650, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOVIE THEATERS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Chang, Wakai). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2618 (S.B. No. 2474, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2618 be adopted and S.B. No. 2474, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Briefly, I just want to explain that on the east side of the Big Island, we have more helicopter flights going to our national park than any national park in the country. It results in up to 160 overflights of some people’s houses. And that’s the reason for this bill, because nobody – no agency – regulates noise once the aircraft leaves the airport. And if anyone were to do so, it would be the Department of Health, and it’s our hope the Department of Health will get involved in helping to protect those citizens. Thank you.”

Senator Kahele rose in support and stated:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I’d like to add the comments of the senator from Puna into the Journal as if they were my own.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2618 was adopted and S.B. No. 2474, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NOISE CONTROL,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

On motion by Senator Dela Cruz, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2628 was adopted and S.B. No. 2603, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GOVERNMENT ACCOUNTABILITY,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2636 (S.B. No. 2735, S.D. 2):

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara, Thielen). Noes, none.

S.B. No. 2925, S.D. 1:

Senator Kidani moved that S.B. No. 2925, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Kidani rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“This bill clarifies and strengthens the parameters under which the Department of Education can and should provide services to youngsters with autism spectrum disorders in our public schools. While it is somewhat technical in nature, the bill's provisions have undergone intense review for several weeks and months by professionals in the field of behavioral analysis along with state and outside experts. The goal is to assure that appropriate services are provided, totally in accord with professional standards, that meet requirements to be reimbursable by Medicaid. Providing these services and applying these standards will go a long way toward meeting the educational needs of this special population of students. I urge your support for this important enhancement to the DOE's special education capabilities. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2925, S.D. 1, Relating to the Practice of Behavior Analysis. This bill serves to clarify the licensing exemptions individuals under specific conditions who provide behavior analysis services and requires the State Department of Education to create and implement a plan to provide Medicaid billable applied behavioral analysis services to all students diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder. The practice of behavioral analysis includes the empirical identification of functional relations between behavior and environmental factors, also known as functional assessment and analysis. Such analysis involves the use of contextual factors, motivating operations, antecedent stimuli, positive reinforcement, and other consequences in order to help individuals develop new behaviors, increase or decrease existing behaviors, and to display certain behaviors under specific environmental conditions.

"Initially established by Act 199 (SLH 2015), the behavioral analyst program within the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs created licensing requirements for behavior analysts seeking to practice within the state. The creation of this regulatory program is necessary to ensure public health, safety, and welfare, as well as a means of preventing unqualified practice and unprofessional conduct. In addition to ensuring safety within the behavioral analysis community, Act 199 created a regulatory scheme that would allow for insurance coverage of the services provided.

"Shortly thereafter the codification of Act 199, the Legislature recognized a licensed provider shortage in the behavior analysis community, leading to the passage of Act 107 (SLH 2016) that temporarily exempted some practitioners from established licensing requirements so that they may operate as direct support workers. In doing so, the Legislature sought to encourage the development of a strong behavioral analysis workforce that could fulfill the needs of Hawaii's communities.

"S.B. 2925, S.D. 1 allows for the expansion of behavior analysis services so that students enrolled in the Department of Education schools have access to the resources so many require."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2925, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE PRACTICE OF BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1:

Senator Baker moved that S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 3064, S.D. 1. This measure is meant to address the visual blight of 'double poles,' a situation that occurs when a utility pole is decommissioned and a new pole is installed adjacent to the old pole. Delays in removing the old poles are typically caused by joint pole ownership agreements, and some of these delays are unavoidable under the current agreements. New joint pole agreements are currently under review at the Public Utilities Commission (PUC), which will help alleviate the double pole problem. S.B. 3064, S.D. 1 requests immediate favorable action by the PUC on these new agreements. Further, Hawaiian Electric Company and Hawaiian Telecom have entered into a memorandum of understanding to jointly address the double pole situation in the interim.

"The problem of double poles is recognized by stakeholders and is being actively addressed. Taking that into consideration, it seems more prudent for the Legislature to monitor the situation and have the various parties make reports on progress. If the problem continues, we can revisit the issue and impose a more prescriptive legislative solution. Please join me in supporting S.B. 3064, which will keep our vistas pristine, as is befitting beautiful Hawai'i."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 3064, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO UTILITY POLES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

S.B. No. 2843, S.D. 1:

Senator Dela Cruz moved that S.B. No. 2843, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Harimoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, the state has been working very hard to address the health hazards related to smoking, and I think we're making good progress, so I find that reducing the tax on large cigars to be contrary to the state's goal of reducing smoking, so I will be voting no. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2843, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 17; Ayes with Reservations (Gabbard, Green, Ihara, Kim). Noes, 8 (Baker, Chang, Espero, Harimoto, Rhoads, Riviere, Ruderman, Thielen).

S.B. No. 2415, S.D. 1:

Senator Dela Cruz moved that S.B. No. 2415, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President: In opposition, and permission to submit written comments, please, on both this measure and there's another measure coming up, S.B. 2416, so if I may put written comments in each of those? That's my request; thank you."

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“As we all know, homelessness and a lack of affordable housing and rentals are two of the primary issues of this legislative session, and this bill is an attempt to raise money for our homeless problem and our housing and lack of inventory, so I urge all of my colleagues to support this. This is a very important measure for our very poor and low-income. Thank you.”

Senator Riviere rose in rebuttal as follows:

“I’m sorry, but I believe that this measure just raises the conveyance tax. There is another measure that was on consent calendar or is actually up for amendment on Thursday that would direct monies to affordable housing, and I am in support of that measure, but this one and the other one that I’m objecting to just flat-out raise the tax, and I’m sorry, but now I’ve got to comment. The conveyance tax was never created for this big money grab that it is becoming. In recent years, we capped the amount of monies going to the Legacy Land funds and to the affordable housing funds. Those monies were coming out of the conveyance tax for several years now, but they’ve been reduced and capped, and now with those reductions and caps, we’re on the verge of creating wholesale, large increases to the conveyance tax. So, for those reasons, I’m in opposition, and I don’t need to submit written comments now. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2415, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CONVEYANCE TAX,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Riviere).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2665 (S.B. No. 2784, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Taniguchi, seconded by Senator Rhoads and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2665 was adopted and S.B. No. 2784, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII PUBLIC HOUSING AUTHORITY,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Thielen). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2673 (S.B. No. 2319, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2673 be adopted and S.B. No. 2319, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Kahele requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kahele’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of this bill. Colleagues, the University of Hawai‘i in 2018 is at a crossroads: Declining enrollment over the last five years; tuition is at an all-time high; half a billion dollars in deferred maintenance at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa; and the average graduate leaves with $22,000 in debt. Administrative bloat has soared with more administrative positions and $100,000+/year salaries than ever before. If we are going to reshape the university and demand a leaner, more efficient public institution of higher education, we must start at the top, and that begins with the Board of Regents.

“There is no justification for the number of regents (14) that currently exists today, their composition, selection process, and term limits. It costs the university millions every year to sustain the airfare, lodging, per diem, meals, and incidental costs to have 14 regents. The University of Hawai‘i Board of Regents must be reshaped, and the policies of the past and their selection process must not be a blueprint of success for the future. The governor should directly appoint the Board of Regents. The number of regents should be reduced, and the O‘ahu seats should more accurately reflect the student composition, with an equal number of regents coming from urban and rural districts. The roles and responsibilities of a regent should also be clearly defined, as most regents today do not understand the unique challenges at the campus level that are felt by students, faculty, and staff. In addition, the regents should be detached from the UH System; that includes having a separate staff prepare information, briefings, legal advice, preparatory material, and agendas.

“The University of Hawai‘i is Hawai‘i’s greatest underutilized resource, and if the university requires a greater investment by the State Legislature, then the university led by the Board of Regents needs to prove that it can and will be proper stewards of public taxpayer dollars. Unless there is change in the Board of Regents, there will not be change at the University of Hawai‘i. I strongly support this bill and encourage my colleagues to support it as well. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2673 was adopted and S.B. No. 2319, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII BOARD OF REGENTS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23; Ayes with Reservations (English, Green, Keith-Agaran, Rhoads, Riviere, Ruderman, Tokuda). Noes, 2 (Ihara, Thielen).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2680 (S.B. No. 3058, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2680 be adopted and S.B. No. 3058, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Kahele requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kahele’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President I rise in strong support of this bill. Colleagues, when the tsunami of 1960 destroyed downtown Hilo, one of its lasting effects, which affects us to this day, was the relocation of many of those businesses to public lease land. Another, and more obvious, effect was the necessity to redevelop the Banyan Drive hotels, also located on public lands. All this occurred in the early days of statehood, when the state was changing and reacting to a history of concentration of resources, especially land owned by the large estates, as well as public lands, by the Big 5 and other concentrated interests. We essentially had a land oligopoly. The statutes governing public lands written at that time were primarily focused on the historical use of agricultural and pastoral lands by large landowners. The public laws that were enacted sought to provide for open access to all state lands and to require that all public leases end after a certain time, be returned to the state, and then determine who can use the land next, either by auction or negotiation. This was to solve the problem of 'roll over' leases always going to the same plantations, ranches, or big businesses. It should be noted that over 99 percent of leased lands by the state were designated as agriculture or pastoral at that time.

"The times have changed, and the laws that were written for rural, undeveloped lands are ill-suited for already developed economic lands in urban areas. Those public lands with hotels, warehouses, stores, parking lots, storage areas, etc. need constant reinvestment to respond to a changing and evolving economy. For that, the lessee needs to be able to extend or renew their lease in order to borrow the money necessary to make those improvements. The ability to finance or mortgage a commercial property is the key element that allows property to be put, and kept, at its 'highest and best use.'

"Many of the leases in East Hawai'i used for commercial, industrial, and hotel and resort properties on state land are nearing the end of their lease terms. Faced with the uncertainty of continued tenancy, lessees have had little incentive to make any investments in improvements and to ensure the long-term maintenance of the facilities they had originally invested in. As a result, the improvements and infrastructure on these properties have deteriorated. This is particularly the case in the Banyan Drive and Kanoelehua areas on Hawai'i Island, and the Legislature has recognized these areas as being of a 'blighted' nature. This is a real source of embarrassment to our community and creates a hidden problem as well. That is, these properties are operating inefficiently and costing our business and tourism economy growth in both jobs and investment.

"The 1960 tsunami led to the forced relocation of Hilo businesses away from their historic area (owned in fee simple) to a newly-zoned industrial area created for their use on nearby state owned land, now called the Kanoelehua Industrial Area (KIAA). To this day, approximately 91 percent of all industrial-zoned land in Hilo is owned by the State of Hawai'i. The leases were non-negotiable and a mixture of direct leases by drawing (HRS §171-13) and by public auction. Some businesses were allowed to purchase their leasehold lots during the first two years of their tenancy. Thus, the area is now a mix of fee simple and state leasehold lots. There are approximately 70 leases on 59 acres of state land. There are over 25 acres of industrial-zoned land in close proximity to KIAA under DLNR management, currently undeveloped and available by lease. For the last 20 years, there have been various attempts to address the problem of deteriorating industrial and hotel and resort infrastructure in East Hawai'i by authorizing the Board of Land and Natural Resources to issue new leases to the existing lessees, particularly in the Banyan Drive area. This bill aims to address these longstanding issues to spur economic growth in East Hawai'i for land controlled by the State of Hawai'i. I strongly support this bill and urge my colleagues to support it as well. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2680 was adopted and S.B. No. 3058, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC LANDS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara, Ruderman, Thielen). Noes, none.

At 10:51 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:53 a.m.

At this time, the Chair clarified that Senator Thielen voted "No" on S.B. No. 2843, S.D. 1, and that Senator Ihara voted "Aye with Reservations" on S.B. No. 3058, S.D. 2.

Senator Galuteria welcomed a group of 35 students and 4 adult chaperones from King William C. Lunalilo Elementary School, who were seated in the gallery.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2692 (S.B. No. 2387, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2692 be adopted and S.B. No. 2387, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Kidani requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kidani's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 2387, S.D. 1. Last year, I had the opportunity to visit schools in Kohala with my colleague, Senator Inouye, to enjoy firsthand the implementation of the Farm to School program in a school cafeteria. It was an amazing experience. Fresh produce and locally-produced beef were on the menu. The cafeteria staff was inspired and enthusiastic about preparing meals, and the students loved it.

"I was so pleased this year when it was announced that Mililani High School in my district – the second largest high school campus in the state – would be the next campus to embrace this initiative. I've been to the school, met with cafeteria staff, ate with the students – we had a wonderful time.

"Over the last several months, we have been talking to the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Education, and local farmers and food producers about how to best handle expansion of the program. S.B. 2387, S.D. 1 offers further support by establishing two positions in the Department of Education to work with the Department of Agriculture and the schools to go forward.

"Farm to School is a win-win for Hawai'i – for farmers who will now have an additional market for their products, and for students who will now have fresher, healthier, and more nutritious meal options. 'Fresh & Fabulous' can be the new descriptor for school lunches – let's get on with it. Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2692 was adopted and S.B. No. 2387, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII FARM TO SCHOOL PROGRAM," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 3099, S.D. 2, Relating to Solid Waste Management. This bill will establish a grant program to identify Hawai'i-based alternatives for sustainable recycling and reuse of plastic products, in light of the recent Chinese ban on 24 types of plastic scrap. Additionally, it addresses the recent decrease in redemption rates of recyclable containers by requiring the Department of Health to set benchmarks to reach an 85 percent redemption rate, and increasing the deposit beverage container fee from 5 cents to 10 cents if redemption rates stay below 80 percent for two consecutive years. S.B. 3099 also requires a report to the Legislature on redemption, as well as provides two additional staffing positions within the glass advance disposal fee program.

"Recycling programs decrease the amount of waste in our landfills, on our streets, and in our oceans. The State is past due in investigating serious local solutions to repurposing our waste. I believe this measure is a good first step towards addressing solid waste issues in-state, rather than expending additional fossil fuels in shipping our waste to China for repurposing. The impact of global climate change demands that we immediately begin reducing our own consumption of plastics and other waste, and come up with ways to repurpose the waste that we do generate. Please join me in supporting S.B. 3099, S.D. 2."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2705 was adopted and S.B. No. 3099, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Harimoto rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

"As currently worded, this bill will have unintended consequences. It may once again put Hawai'i in jeopardy of being decertified by the Federal Highway Administration, which would mean losing millions of federal highway dollars. We changed our statute in 2015 to comply with federal requirements, so we must take care not to fall back into non-compliance. So, I look forward to clarifying the wording – there are simple fixes to this bill – as it moves on to the House. Thank you."

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2751 (S.B. No. 2436, S.D. 2):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2751 be adopted and S.B. No. 2436, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“I just want to clarify my reservations because I don’t want to be misunderstood. I do support shortening the time for turning in firearms, but I believe that we should do a shorter time turnaround rather than seven days. These are situations where somebody has gone through a court process and been deemed disqualified under existing law to hold a firearm. Currently, they have 30 days to turn the firearm in. This bill would shorten it to seven days. I would prefer a 48-hour period, which I think is more than enough time because there has been a court process – the person has been deemed to be disqualified from owning a firearm, and in cases of domestic violence or mental illness, the court actually will have an immediate turn-in of the firearm, so it shouldn’t be difficult to do a 48-hour time period. Thank you.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“Mr. President, as our previous speaker spoke, the current law states that they have 30 days to surrender all firearms and ammunition if the person is disqualified, and I supported the Senate Draft 1 version that passed out of the Public Safety, Intergovernmental, and Military Affairs committee, which shortened the deadline from the 30 days to the 24 hours. However, this bill was amended in committee to go from the 24 hours to the 7 days; I understand that if there’s some problem with the 24 hours, I think 48 hours would be the max that I would support at this point. If someone is found to be disqualified, why would they need seven days to surrender these weapons? Section 134-7 contains a lengthy list of the persons who are prohibited from owning or possessing firearms, including those who have been indicted, suffering from mental disease, drug abusers, and those served with court orders involving domestic violence. We established these laws because there’s a reasonable justification that certain people should not possess these weapons, so who knows what they’re capable of doing if we give them seven days in order to turn in their firearms? And so I do support the measure; I just do not support the number of days being reduced. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“We as a state have some of the strictest, if not the strictest, gun control laws in the nation and, certainly, this seven days is just not acceptable, especially when you know and see what’s going on in the news today, where, literally, it could just take one little spark to create havoc. So, hopefully we’ll be able to make changes to this bill as it moves along, and if you could take the words of the senators from the windward side and Kalihi and put them in the Journal as if they were my own, I would certainly appreciate it. Thank you.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“If I could just have the Clerk recognize my reservation vote, and if they could also have the comments from the senator from Kalihi entered as my own, as well.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Nishihara requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Nishihara’s remarks read as follows

“Mr. President and colleagues, I rise to speak in favor of S.B. 2436. This bill addresses the issue of potential gun violence by shortening the period of having individuals who are disqualified from ownership, possession or control of firearms and ammunition from the current 30 days to 7. While it may not prevent acts of domestic abuse from escalation, it attempts to lower the possibility of violence occurring when firearms are removed from the home. The present law allows the police to seize weapons from the home when there is a clear danger as in cases of TROs and threats of harm to individuals in the home. This bill allows the chiefs of police in the various jurisdictions in our state to have an added authority. I ask for your support in passing this measure. Mahalo.”

Senator English rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“I’d like the words of the senator from Kalihi inserted into the Journal as if they were my own.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“As a proud recipient of an ‘F’ from the National Rifle Association, I would like to ask that my strong reservations be entered into the Journal, along with the remarks from the senator from Kalihi and the senator from Waimānalo. Mahalo.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Ihara rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in support of the measure with reservations, and could the record reflect that my reasons are the same as articulated thus far? Thank you.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“I rise with reservations for the same reasons that have been expressed. I just want to add one more point: If a person who has been determined ought not to own a firearm, seven days is not only not justifiable but is also dangerous. That’s a week for somebody to stew on the fact that their firearms are being taken away and go through all the various cycles of their emotions – an opportunity to create trouble that we don’t need to have. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2751 was adopted and S.B. No. 2436, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Baker, Chang, English, Espero, Gabbard, Green, Harimoto, Ihara, Keith-Agaran, Kidani, Kim, Ruderman, Thielen, Tokuda). Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2754 (S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2754 be adopted and S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Riviere requested that remarks in opposition to the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Riviere’s remarks read as follows:

“I cannot support S.B. 2922, which seeks to constitutionally allow a new state property tax for the purpose of increasing funding for public education.

“First, no dedicated revenue source is safe from the whims of future legislatures and other political pressures. Special funds are often redirected to pay for other priorities and there is no assurance the base education funding would not be cut in direct proportion to the additional revenue of the property tax to pay for other state priorities. For example, California approved a lottery 'to fund education,' and then local governments cut their base education allocations. Government money is quite fungible.

"Second, renters ultimately pay property taxes on investment properties. The median home price on O'ahu is nearly $800,000. This measure would enshrine in the constitution the ability to tax properties valued at $1 million or more. It will not be long before the median price home falls into the taxable category. Indeed, a million-dollar home is not uncommon today. The effect of this tax would be to increase the rental price by several hundred dollars per month. Many teachers rent the homes in which they live. While teachers might gain a pay raise greater than the additional tax, how will all the other families struggling to survive in other walks of life be able to pay this additional cost?"

"Third, the proposed state property tax would restrain counties from managing the one and only source of general funds that is under their authority. Every dollar the state might collect would compete against, and thereby restrict, counties from addressing their own priorities like police, fire, ambulance, parks, sewers, public transportation, refuse collection, etc.

"Finally, the reason Hawai'i is the only state in the nation not to pay for schools through local property tax is because we have the only statewide school system, supported by our general excise tax, income tax, business taxes, transient accommodation tax, and other taxes. All other states have local school districts paid for by local property taxes, and few areas in the country have a combined cost of living higher than Hawai'i.

"In summary, the solution for funding our schools is not to create a new property tax, which would surely be diluted by other competing interests, and which will adversely impact the cost of living for renters, but, rather, the solution is to increase the priority of education amongst decision makers, including the BOE, DOE, HSTA, the governor, and legislators."

Senator Kidani rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"This proposal has been up for discussion before. It would place a question on the ballot to allow voters to decide if they want to create a dedicated source of funding for our public education system – for our students and for our teachers. The schools need our support to create 21st-century learning environments. There can be no better investment in Hawai'i's future than a fully-funded public education system that supports the talent and aspirations of our keiki (including our Waiialua robotics team). We have set a framework to make this happen; let the voters decide if they have the will to commit to this important education initiative. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Could I just have Madam Vice President's words entered into the record as if they were my own? And also, I just want to point out that the West Virginia teachers – the entire state's teachers – have been on strike for the last about 10 days for a 5 percent pay increase, but if you adjust for cost of living, West Virginia teachers make about 15 to 20 percent more than Hawai'i teachers do. So, I just wanted the body to take note of that as well. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2754 was adopted and S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, entitled:

"A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES VIII AND X OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF HAWAII TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATURE TO ESTABLISH A SURCHARGE TO INCREASE FUNDING FOR PUBLIC EDUCATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2755 be adopted and S.B. No. 2046, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Kim rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I'm sure everybody agrees that we cannot understand why anyone would need to equip firearms with a means of increasing its rate of fire for any kind of civilian use. Our nation has experienced too many school shootings and, according to our state DOE, in 2017, there were nine school shootings across the United States, and this year alone, in 2018, we have already had nine. We equaled last year's number and we have nine more months to go in 2018. Most of these tragedies, the killers have used semiautomatic or automatic weapons that have enabled them to fire rapidly and to increase the number of people that they have injured and killed. This has to stop, and we need to – on all levels – take a stand against allowing people to sell or possess these rapid-fire arms. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2755 was adopted and S.B. No. 2046, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Kidani rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"I rise in strong support of stipends to educational professionals and ask that my written comments be entered into the Journal."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kidani's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of S.B. 3070, S.D. 1. This bill would create a fund to provide stipends to education professionals who are studying to earn their teacher licenses.

"In the first go-round on this program, which was created just last year, we promised to support people already in the public school system, such as substitutes, emergency hires, and education assistants, who want to move ahead and obtain their licenses. The program is called 'Grow Our Own,' and is one step we can take to help alleviate our chronic and persistent teacher shortage. It's an approach that came out of discussions I initiated with the UH Mānoa College of Education, UH West O'ahu, and other stakeholders . . . and I am pleased to inform you that the first cohort of 56 candidates for licensure began their classes under this program in January.

"I was invited to their orientation session as instruction was getting underway . . . and I can tell you the passion these students have for their students was truly inspiring. Several of them came up to me – some with tears in their eyes – thanking me for this opportunity to further their education and become a part of the solution to our teacher shortage.

"There is already a waiting list of applicants for this program, and so it is imperative that we support them with the funds requested in S.B. 3070, S.D. 1. I urge your yes vote for this important education initiative. Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2796 was adopted and S.B. No. 3070, S.D. 2, entitled:

Senator Nishihara requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Nishihara's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President and colleagues, I rise to speak in favor of S.B. 1293.

"This bill is the result of discussions from H.C.R. 85, which called for the task force to study effective incarceration policies to improve Hawai'i's correctional system. One of the recommendations was to call for the transfer of the Corrections Population Management Commission from the Department of Public Safety to the Judiciary. The Commission has the supervisory oversight of the number of inmates in the correctional facilities. By replacing the Director of Public Safety with the Chief Justice along with other amendments, it is the hope that will bring us into correcting some of the reported deficiencies that have plagued our criminal justice system. There is still much that needs to be done, but this is just one of the things that will lead to a fairer and more responsive system of delivering justice to our society. I ask for your support. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2812 was adopted and S.B. No. 1293, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“I know that this is a well-intentioned bill and there are a lot of good things in here, including expanding the commissioners to outer islands and videoconferencing. But I oppose this bill because it appears as if it’s a continuation of a vendetta against the Public Utilities Commission for making a decision last year – they made a decision; it was very controversial. I believe it was received with relief from most of our citizens and with displeasure from a lot of our corporate community. It has appeared since then as if they are being punished for that decision. And so I hope, if we’re going to fundamentally restructure the PUC, we do it at a time when it does not appear to be a partisan politicization of that process. I find it curious that there’s two effective dates in here for different clauses, but it’s most important that the Public Utilities Commission remain independent and not politicized, and I believe that this measure appears to go in the other direction. Thank you.”

Senator Baker rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“As was noted when CPH heard this measure, this is a work in progress. We had not received the auditor’s report. I would just call everyone’s attention to the report of the auditor on the Public Utilities Commission, which called into great question some of their processes and procedures. It really has nothing to do about the NextEra decision or any other decisions they’ve made: It simply is they are adjudicative; they are fact-finding, and they have tremendous influence, and they need to be held to the highest standards possible, and they need to be reviewed with some cautious eye to make sure that they are following best practices. That’s really all this bill is designed to do. Your Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Health will be having an information briefing on the auditor’s report that I believe will further inform the members of some of the measures that we may want to consider as this measure moves forward. There’s no ill will toward the PUC; they do very important work, but they need to be reflective of the entire community; they need to make sure that they are doing the best that they can with the very generous resources that they have, and they’re working in the best interest of the State of Hawai‘i. Thank you.”

Senator Chang requested that remarks in support of the measure with reservations be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Chang’s remarks read as follows:

“S.B. 2648 is being used as a vehicle to codify recommendations made by the State Auditor for the structure and operation of the Public Utilities Commission. I believe that no organization is perfect, and there may well be valuable changes in the auditor’s report that should be adopted in law. However, I am concerned that the current text of the bill does not reflect best practices as adopted by other jurisdictions. The Public Utilities Commission itself has noted that this bill may cause confusion and create inefficiency and ineffectiveness, and it hinders on the commission’s ability to perform duties in a timely matter. The bill also raises legal issues.

“I would have preferred that S.B. 2648 be amended to include the amendments offered by the Ulupono Initiative, which provided thoughtful recommendations.”

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I have remarks I’d like to enter into the Journal as well as the remarks from the senator of Maui. Mahalo.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye’s remarks read as follows:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of Senate Bill 2648.

“Last week, a report came from the auditor relating to the Public Utilities Commission. The report identified areas to improve the commission’s current structure and operations to adjust to the changes in the regulatory landscape throughout the country, which now include the area of energy regulation.

“As chairperson for the Energy committee, I believe it is essential that the structure and operations of the commission to operate more efficiently and effectively by incorporating a diverse commission and staff with subject matter expertise and stronger organizational skills for a more robust foundation for decision-making.

“Therefore, I stand in support of S.B. 2648 and, in agreement with Senator Baker, to move forward this bill as it will make various updates to the structure and operations of the Public Utilities Commission to increase efficiency and effectiveness, including: establishing guiding principles; establishing docket review and decision-making processes; permitting teleconference and videoconference abilities; specifying senior staff members who must file public financial disclosures; beginning January 1, 2019, increasing the number of commissioners to five; updating the composition of the commission; specifying training requirements; clarifying commissioners' ability to appoint and employ staff; clarifying the roles of the executive officer and chief counsel; permitting the neighbor island members to receive per diem compensation and compensation for travel expenses; and requiring the commission to report to the Legislature regarding the certain staff duties.

"Thank you, Mr. President, for the opportunity to share remarks."

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2873 be adopted and S.B. No. 2522, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"I believe there would be a loss of trust in the ADC due to obvious conflicts of interest if they were allowed to invest and be owners in some of their tenants' businesses. Just imagine you're leasing from ADC and your neighboring parcel happens to be in a business partnership with ADC; do you think you're going to feel like you're being treated fairly? The Agribusiness Development Corporation's mission is to support the development of agriculture in the state, not to get involved in private enterprise. I would also note that almost all beginning agricultural ventures lose money for a few years. Why do we want our state government to be on the balance sheet for risky ventures? There's no guarantee that any given venture is going to be profitable, and in agriculture, it's especially true. This is a deviation from ADC's mission and a deviation from government's mission with regards to private enterprise that we should not encourage. Thank you."

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Currently, agriculture companies and companies developing technology for agricultural applications have limited access to investment capital and loan financing. This bill would establish the agriculture accelerator program to authorize the Agribusiness Development Corporation to invest in existing or new agricultural businesses approved by the board of directors of the ADC in return for equity in those agriculture businesses. The ability for ADC to invest in existing or new agricultural business and technologies will provide the means to assist local farming operations, diversify Hawai'i's agriculture, and attract and retain businesses. Furthermore, the Hawaii Strategic Development Corporation already has programs to stimulate private capital investment in Hawai'i – they do not invest in agricultural companies – the state already does this. HSDC uses public funds to provide incentives to private investment's activities by co-investing public and private financial organizations to increase the impact of the public investment. And I just want to quickly read from the 'Agriculture Technology' magazine:

Modern farms and agricultural operations work far differently than those a few decades ago, primarily because of advancements in technology, including sensors, devices, machines, and information technology. Today's agriculture routinely uses sophisticated technologies such as robots, temperature and moisture sensors, aerial images, and GPS technology. These advanced devices and precision agriculture and robotic systems allow businesses to be more profitable, efficient, safer, and more environmentally friendly. . . .

Farmers no longer have to apply water, fertilizers, and pesticides uniformly across entire fields. Instead, they can use the minimum quantities required and target very specific areas, or even treat individual plants differently. Benefits include:

- Higher crop productivity
- Decreased use of water, fertilizer, and pesticides, which in turn keeps food prices down
- Reduced impact on natural ecosystems
- Less runoff of chemicals into rivers and groundwater
- Increased worker safety

In addition, robotic technologies enable more reliable monitoring and management of natural resources, such as air and water quality. It also gives producers greater control over plant and animal production, processing, distribution, and storage, which results in:

- Greater efficiencies and lower prices
- Safer growing conditions and safer foods
- Reduced environmental and ecological impact

“We need this agriculture accelerator so we can invest in technologies and help Hawai‘i’s ag economy. Thank you.”

Senator Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“As opposed to the HSDC, which takes state monies, puts it into a fund, and is managed with a board that distributes the grants to various people – they’re not directly investing or controlling the future of these businesses; they’re participating. My concern with this project is that ADC will have direct control over who gets the grants and, as previously stated, as the landlord of great amounts of land in the state, there’s a potential for conflict. So, should this measure come back from the House and have, maybe, a nice firewall between the decisions of the guys doing the land management and the fund creators, then I think it’d be worthy of consideration, but in its present form, I cannot support it. Thank you.”

Senator Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“I just would like to explain my opposition to the bill. I applaud the chairperson of the Ways and Means committee for the desire to bring technology into our agriculture – I think we do need that in Hawai‘i; diversified agriculture needs a lot more help than we’ve been giving it. However, normally I would vote ‘with reservations’ just to express the concerns mentioned prior to me standing up, but because the bill has an effective date, we may not have that opportunity, so I am just voting no. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2873 was adopted and S.B. No. 2522, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara, Kim). Noes, 4 (Harimoto, Riviere, Ruderman, Thielen).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2883 (S.B. No. 2972, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2883 be adopted and S.B. No. 2972, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Kahele rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“Mr. President, I’d like to please request that my written remarks in strong support of Senate Bill 2972, which will help with the redevelopment in East Hawai‘i and on the Banyan Drive peninsula, which is state-owned, are inserted into the Journal.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kahele’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of this bill. This bill, S.B. 2972, will utilize the current mechanism of redevelopment in the Banyan Drive peninsula of Hilo that was created by the County of Hawai‘i under former Mayor William P. Kenoi. It used Chapter 53 of the HRS (Urban Renewal Law) to create the Banyan Drive Redevelopment Agency (BDHRA) in 2014. This bill will appropriate $250,000 of state funds to the BDHRA, provided the County of Hawai‘i match the $250,000. The funds will come from the DLNR land special fund, which currently has an approximate balance of $11 million. These funds will be used for the completion of a master plan for the peninsula, environmental assessment studies, and infrastructure studies, as well as other critical studies.

“Currently, the State of Hawai‘i Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR), through its land division, collects approximately $850,000 in lease rent annually and puts nothing back into the Banyan Drive peninsula. In essence, the DLNR is an absent landlord and for years has not properly maintained this valuable piece of State property that is so critical to the economic success and vitality of East Hawai‘i. The time to redevelop Banyan Drive (which will, as a result, bring in higher lease rents to DLNR) is now. However, what is vital to that process is the financial investment to make it possible. This bill will accomplish just that, and I strongly support this bill and encourage my colleagues to do so as well. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2883 was adopted and S.B. No. 2972, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND DEVELOPMENT,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2886 (S.B. No. 2501, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Dela Cruz, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2886 was adopted and S.B. No. 2501, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOMELESSNESS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23; Ayes with Reservations (Galuteria). Noes, 2 (Harimoto, Riviere).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2890 (S.B. No. 3090, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2890 be adopted and S.B. No. 3090, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“I want to thank the author of the bill because I think he’s been very accommodating in listening to the concerns and made a number of amendments to the bill, and clearly this should move forward and continue the discussion. But I do want to point out two serious concerns that I have remaining with the bill. One is, this would be the first time where we would be paying members of an authority or commission or board that’s overseeing our land management, and I’m concerned about the precedent that would set for our other land management boards, but also for the fact that it almost puts this board or commission on a path of commercializing that land resource in order to be able to support its continued operations. So, I think that that portion of the bill needs a lot of discussion. And then the other is we do have a fairly significant body of law about the public trust obligation of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, and I have some concerns about taking such a monumental resource away from that agency, but I’m still open to the discussion on how we would make sure that we would meet those public trust obligations if we were to create a new authority. Thank you.”

Senator Kahele rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“Mr. President, I’d like to please request my written remarks in strong support of Senate Bill 3090 are inserted into the Journal, and I’d like my colleagues to note that after four audits – the first one being a scathing audit in 1998, with follow-up audits in 2005, 2014, and 2017 – that this would be the first time that the Senate will take a new path forward for the management, the proper stewardship, and a new governance model for the Mauna Kea lands, which are some of the most pristine and culturally reserved and revered lands in all of the State of Hawai'i, so I thank my colleagues for the consideration of Senate Bill 3090."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kahele's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of this bill. Colleagues, ho'olohe. Listen. It was something I realized I had not done on my journey to navigate what many would consider impossible: a solution for peace on Mauna Kea. In recent memory, few issues of land management have divided and polarized Hawai'i like Mauna Kea. It may be the Kaho'olawe of our generation. The journey to a peaceful solution for Mauna Kea cannot be measured by any western poll; it has to be nurtured by the greatest gift Hawai'i has to offer – aloha. What is aloha? Aloha is reciprocity, balance. In order to understand this, you must understand the Hawaiian worldview. The Hawaiian worldview is rooted in the physical, intellectual, and spiritual institutions from which life cycles emerge. It is a foundational set of guidelines and the framework for fundamentally shifting from western-modeled behaviors and value systems towards island consciousness. To live like an island, to think like an island. When things are out of balance, we look to aloha to find that balance between our people, our 'āina, and our universe. Aloha is the only way to find balance for Mauna Kea and balance is the only pathway to peace. For you cannot have peace, you will not have peace, if you do not have balance. Today, Mauna Kea is not in balance and so our community is not at peace.

"My conversations that have begun across this state, because of S.B. 3090 proposing a restructuring of the management and stewardship of Mauna Kea, are educational, candid, and deeply personal. Mahalo to everyone who has taken the time to submit testimony on this bill, who have attended listening sessions, and who have allowed me to listen, feel, respect, acknowledge, and understand how special Mauna Kea is to all of us. From Nānākuli to Waimea, from Pukalani to Hilo, the message is clear . . . something has to change. Mauna Kea's recent past must not be a blueprint for our future.

"I've said it before and I'll say it again: there is never a perfect bill and there is never a perfect time. Despite assertions to the contrary, this bill does not attempt to destabilize the situation nor does it circumvent any ongoing effort in the courts. Rather, it aims to achieve balance on Mauna Kea and the ability for all to coexist through collaboration, collective leadership, mutual respect, and aloha. Change is difficult and, in some respects, may be humanity's greatest obstacle. But, Mauna Kea has been here for a thousand years and will be here long after all of us are gone, and it is this legislature's kuleana to ensure that Mauna Kea's immense cultural, spiritual, ecological, and astronomical significance is properly nurtured and cared for, for the many generations that will come after us all. Only by protecting and preserving our 'āina and perpetuating our unique and special culture can we make Hawai'i a strong place for all our keiki. This must be done with the aloha that exists in each and every one of us, for the common good and collective existence of us all. I strongly support this bill and encourage my colleagues to do the same. It is time for the Legislature to act on Mauna Kea. Mahalo."

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2911 be adopted and S.B. No. 2276, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Just briefly, colleagues, I want to explain why this pilot program is appropriate in East Hawai'i. In East Hawai'i, for caseworkers of foster parents, we have the highest caseload in the state; we have the largest distances to cover; we have the largest family sizes, and we have the largest number of position vacancies. We also have the highest number of abuse of our clients, so it was the great desire of the folks involved in this that we limit their caseload and allow more caseworkers to address this very serious problem. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2911 was adopted and S.B. No. 2276, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CHILD WELFARE SERVICES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2913 (S.B. No. 2990, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2913 be adopted and S.B. No. 2990, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Already, in our state, we have 247,000 of us who serve as family caregivers to our loved ones. And by 2020, 40 percent of our workforce will be caring for aging parents, yet 42 percent of the private sector employees in our state do not have access to even a single day of paid leave to care for a loved one if they fall ill or to bond with a newborn child. While there have been passionate arguments for years against these measures and opposition to establishing paid family leave policies, the reality is, the rest of the world has figured out what we haven't already: that taking care of families is common sense. And for businesses, that equals dollars and cents. Out of 193 countries in the United Nations, only a few do not have national paid parental leave policies: New Guinea, a few in the South Pacific, and the United States. In fact, we are the only developed country without a national paid parental leave policy – definitely an outlier.

"Senate Bill 2990 puts us on a thoughtful yet solid path to establish paid family leave for all of our workers, with processing of payments starting in July of 2022. With the necessary stakeholders convening together, from business to human resource professionals to advocates and insurance, Senate Bill 2990 establishes a framework and the necessary implementing mechanism to provide our working families with paid leave benefits that will strengthen and lift up our entire community. I humbly ask your support and consideration as this measure continues to cross over. Thank you.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Mr. President, unless you go through a situation and become a caregiver and understand what’s happening, it’s very easy to feel that this is not important and is not something that we need to pass out. Recently, having my mom needing caregiving and having served as a caregiver, it just heightened the need for this, and so I ask that the remarks of the senator from Kāne’ohe be inserted into the Journal as my own. Thank you.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Baker rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“I, too, rise in strong support of this measure and would ask that the remarks from the senator from Kāne’ohe, who happens to be our Labor chair, be inserted in the record as if they were my own. Thank you.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2913 was adopted and S.B. No. 2990, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Taniguchi).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2928 (S.B. No. 3088, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Dela Cruz, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2928 was adopted and S.B. No. 3088, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:42 a.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator English and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Thursday, March 8, 2018.

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILLS

The Chair re-referred the following House bills that were received:

H.B. No.: Re-referred to:

H.B. No. 2557, Committee on Economic Development,
H.D. 1 Tourism, and Technology, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

H.B. No. 2559, Committee on Economic Development,
H.D. 1 Tourism, and Technology, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

At this time, Senator Kidani rose on a point of privilege to clarify that her vote on S.B. No. 2600, S.D. 2 was "Aye with Reservations."

Senator Rhoads introduced Kat Brady and Henry Curtis, constituents of the Thirteenth Senatorial District who were well-known around the State Capitol.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I just want to remind my colleagues that next Monday night at 6:00 in the Capitol auditorium, we'll be having a Music Night, which all of you are welcome to come and join us – sing a song or listen. It's all just for fun, and please invite your staff and friends. Thank you."

Senator English recognized Federated States of Micronesia Pohnpei State Senator Brian Etscheit, who was present in the gallery.

Senator Nishihara rose on a point of personal privilege to clarify that his vote on S.B. No. 2585, S.D. 2 was "Aye with Reservations."

Senator Baker rose to note that not all of the advise and consent messages had come down from the Office of the Governor, and that although the Committee on Commerce,
Consumer Protection, and Health would be hearing about 40
Governor's Messages in a public hearing the following day, there were still more nominees to come. Senator Baker then expressed her hope that the governor's office would be more diligent this year than they were last year in sending the rest of the nominees.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak on a point of personal
privilege as follows:

"I just wanted to ground us for a little while. Today, we passed a lot of appropriation bills, but when I look at the financial plan, this year, we're going to be spending $174 million more than what we're bringing in. Next year, we're going to be spending $218 million more than what we're bringing in, and the year after that will be $191 million more than what we're bringing in. In regards to our general fund tax revenues: From 2007, it went from $4.4 billion to $6.3 billion; GO bonds outstanding: $4.3 billion in 2007 to $6.9 billion; pension unfunded liability: $5.1 billion in 2006 and in 2017, it's now $12.9 billion. Our health unfunded liability was at $6.3 billion in 2006 and now it's $9.3 billion. So I just ask that we show some financial restraint and try to find some other mechanisms of economic development so that we can increase

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY

Thursday, March 8, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:31 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Shimabukuro who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-Fifth Day.

At this time, Senator Galuteria introduced representatives from the cosmetics and technology industries, who were seated in the gallery: Junji Sugawara, CEO, JCosme; Isao Sueishi, CEO, Jsix and JCosme; Motohiro Noda, Jsix Japan, Seven Tech Coordinator; Philip Walstad, co-founder, Seven Tech; Jason Thelin, co-founder Seven Tech; Brian Nelson, CEO, Seven Tech; Brent Jensen, EVP, Seven Tech; Dean Rostrom, MD, Evergreen Clean; Itaru Inaho, Seven Tech Japan; and Alan Tamashiro, representative for JCosme in Hawai'i.

Senator Espero welcomed a group of sixth-grade students from Holomua Elementary School, who were accompanied in the gallery by their teacher, Hailey Scott.

Senator Kim recognized and commended Moanalua Gardens Foundation for its stewardship of Kamananui (Moanalua) Valley, and presented the following remarks:

“Mr. President, Moanalua, or Kamananui, Valley is the last undeveloped valley in urban Honolulu and it is – no surprise – part of my senatorial district, and before that, it was part of my city council district, so you can understand my special interest and my concern for this valley. For over a hundred years, Moanalua Valley was under private ownership with limited public access. Since 2008, however, the valley was sold to the State of Hawai'i and was opened to the public for education and recreational purposes. With more people visiting the area, plans had to be created to keep the valley accessible, user-friendly, safe, and secure while preserving its history, its cultural assets, and natural beauty. To this end, Moanalua Gardens Foundation has been designated as the lead organization to direct the stewardship of the valley.

“Managing a foundation is not an easy task, and it takes a lot of money. In addition to that, it takes certain kinds of individuals who will devote their time and ideas to better the lives of many. Moanalua Gardens Foundation luckily has several citizen volunteers who are committed and dedicated to making Moanalua Valley a cultural and educational environment. And these individuals do not get paid; they do it because of their love. So, leading the stewardship and following through with the valley's master plan are two very key individuals: First, Alike Jamile, the executive director and president of Moanalua Gardens Foundation, and his partner is Pauline Worsham, the foundation's managing director, and both of them have given their time and their hearts to this organization. They spend many hours; they spend a lot of their own resources, and I know they visit probably many of you here in this chamber, all in the name of helping to preserve Moanalua.

“Also, there are many people sitting in the gallery, members of the foundation who also help preserve this valley, and if I may introduce them: First, Charles Cooke, IV: He is the secretary and treasurer of the foundation. Also, Steven Onoue: He's a director and president of Moanalua Valley Community Association. He's my constituent; I've worked very closely with him on many issues of the area. We have Brendon Lee, director and second vice president of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs and president of Kamehameha Alumni. We have Aaron Stewart, director and assistant vice president and compliance officer of First Hawaiian Bank. Then we have Kimo Kahoano, who you all know and love: he's a director and radio personality, but Kimo, I have to say, back in 1982 – when his hair was black and he was much younger – he actually served as my very first emcee for my very first fundraiser. And, finally, no stranger to this place, Marlene Sai: Marlene is a director and recording artist, entertainer, and business professional. Now, Marlene and I also have a story – we go back to the 1970s, '71, where she was the lead singer with Ed Kenny in the Tapa Room, and I happened to be a line dancer there, and we spent many nights and shows in the Tapa Room entertaining tourists from all over the world.

“And so, Mr. President, I would like all of you to thank and congratulate the Moanalua Foundation. Mr. President, it takes a village to preserve, protect, and remind us of our precious heritage, and how fortunate for us that we have such devoted individuals who comprise these villages. Thank you.”

Senator Galuteria acknowledged Kimo Kahoano, and noted that they did the morning radio shows on 1420 AM and FM 100 together for eight years. Senator Galuteria also acknowledged Marlene Sai, who allowed him to perform in her orchestra when she headlined at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel's Monarch Room for three years.

Senator Kim noted that the Honorable John Waihe'e III, former Governor of the State of Hawai'i, also participates on the Moanalua Gardens Foundation board.

Senator Rhoads recognized Kat Brady and Henry Curtis, constituents of the Thirteenth Senatorial District, who were seated in the gallery.

At 11:40 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:50 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY

THIRD READING

S.B. No. 1011, S.D. 2:

Senator Inouye moved that S.B. No. 1011, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's remarks read as follows:

"As Hawai'i moves forward with plans to eliminate all fossil fuel from ground transportation, we should also consider plans for funding the maintenance and operations of Hawai'i's roads and highways. The state highway fund depends on three primary fee sources: the gas tax, weight tax, and vehicle registration fees. The gas tax paid by a driver is closely related to the amount of driving done by a driver operating a vehicle propelled by an internal combustion engine. Therefore, these drivers pay a fee that is related to the amount of road degradation they contribute to when they drive. Because drivers of electric motor vehicles and hybrid motor vehicles pay little to no gas tax, these drivers do not pay for the road degradation they contribute to. With S.B. 1011, S.D. 2, we, the Senate, can work on how electric motor vehicles and hybrid motor vehicles can contribute their fair share to the state highway fund since they do not consume, or consume limited quantities, of gasoline. Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the Senate for your consideration."

S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 3:

Senator Inouye moved that S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 3, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"With every flight to and from the Aloha State, Hawai'i residents and visitors alike have recognized our airports are inferior to other airports serving leading travel destinations. Hawai'i is only one of three states to manage the operations of its airports, whereas a single construction project can take up to 50 detailed and time-consuming steps to process. Moreover, when you have more than one project underway, this process can be cumbersome and redundant, leading to lengthy and costly delays in part due to the multiple agencies that impact the decision-making. With support from the Department of Transportation, creating the Hawaii Airports Corporation is the first step to improving the management, efficiency, and facilities at Hawai'i's airports. The Hawaii Airports Corporation will operate with a strong commercial and customer focus, and be able to adjust to economic opportunities and market conditions through dedicated expert airport leadership, management continuity, and year-round decision-making consistent with industry best practices.

"Since the first hearing of S.B. 2996, my committee has worked to incorporate all of the various aspects to effect the transfer of functions from the Department of Transportation to the Hawaii Airports Corporation. We incorporated input from the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, Subcontractors Association of Hawaii, State Procurement Office, and the Office of the Attorney General. In the Ways and Means committee, we continued to be vigilant and further incorporated input from the State Procurement Office, Office of the Attorney General, American Institute of Architects and American Council for Engineering, and the Office of Hawaiian Affairs. Then, this past Tuesday, we approved the amendment to change the effective date to January 1, 2019. Therefore, I'm confident, Mr. President and colleagues, that S.B. 2996, Senate Draft 3, has a solid foundation to create a robust and prosperous Hawaii Airports Corporation. Thank, you, Mr. President, and I urge my colleagues for a favorable consideration.

"And at this point, Mr. President, I do want to give thanks to the SMA staff. This is the sixth draft, and we really appreciate what our committee does, and we want to thank Wayne and Casey and his staff for their diligence and patience for what our committee has put upon them. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kim rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I agree with our transportation chair that our airport is very inferior to other airports around the nation, and I also appreciate the hard work that our transportation chair has put into in developing this measure and trying to make it a better measure. However, I still have a lot of concerns; it's no surprise to everyone here that I have had concerns on this measure. I believe that this corporation will mean less transparency to what is going on at the airport and will be added bureaucracy. I think we need to keep in mind that this corporation will be a board that meets once a month, possibly even more – hopefully more – and that they will hire an executive director, but everyone else will remain exactly the same – the exact same group, the same people, the same project managers that we currently have – and so I'm not sure how that will change all of the problems that we currently have.

"As far as pointing to the fact that procurement is a problem and that procurement with the board, that they will not have the kinds of problems that they currently have, let me just remind everybody that the Hawaiian Airlines hangar project went through procurement, and it wasn't that that made problems. They had 3,500 deficiencies. The problem was not just the contractor but also the consultant that we hired and paid millions of dollars to oversee this contract to make sure that it was done properly and it was done according to the specs. It was also the fact that our own airport manager did not catch any of these 3,500 deficiencies and paid the contractor and approved the payments of the contractor. So, basically, it's been poor oversight on the part of the state as well as our consultant. And so I strongly feel that, like HART and many other boards that we have currently in operation, the airport corporation will just be one more of them, and maybe we'll be back here – or future legislators will be back here – to undo what we do today, just as we're undoing the Board of Regents advisory board, so thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"The senator from Moanalua Valley-Kalihi stated some good points. However, as lawmakers, we're in a position to make certain that we craft the bill that has this entity to be open, transparent, and, at the end of the day, in the best interest of our state and the residents of Hawai'i. We've been working on this since last session. We're continuing this session, and let's move this bill forward and, hopefully, between the House and Senate, we can come up with a strong, workable measure that will benefit all of us. Thank you; I ask for your support."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2996, S.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AN AIRPORTS CORPORATION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22; Ayes with Reservations (Baker, Harimoto, Nishihara, Rhoads, Riviere, Ruderman, Thielen). Noes, 2 (Kim, Taniguchi). Excused, 1 (Shimabukuro).

At this time, Senator Wakai rose to clarify that his vote on S.B. No. 2699, S.D. 2 was "Aye with Reservations."

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I just want to thank DOTAX and the budget office and the attorney general for all their help with some of the revenue bills, and I just want to summarize some of the actions that the Senate took that will help the state's financial plan:

- Senate Bill 2699, which we just passed today, will generate $19.4 million this year and $49.5 million next year.
- Senate Bill 2489, the time share bill, will generate $20.2 million this year and $22.8 million next year.
- Senate Bill 2821, the conformity bill, will generate $9.2 million this year and $14.2 million next year.
- The conveyance tax, Senate Bill 2415, will generate $8.6 million this year and $9.4 million next year.
- HRPTA, Senate Bill 508, will see a one-time $14.4 million; thereafter, it'll be $4.6 million every year after that.

- Senate Bill 2484, the estate tax, will generate almost a million dollars this year and almost $2 million next year.

"I just want to have the members keep in mind that the state is overspending by $174 million this year, $218 million next year, and $191 million in 2021, so despite those numbers that I announced earlier, it will help the financial picture a little bit. However, there are things that are in the budget that we can't count on. The administration had put in $33 million this year for the Airbnb TAT bill and $67 million next year; that's no longer in the financial plan. There are some additional adjustments, which the administration has had to take out of the financial plan which further reduces revenues. So I'll have my office draft a summary of these so that the Senate can have a clearer understanding of where we're headed in the next couple years with the financial plan. Thank you."

Senator Ihara rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, on Monday, a great surfer, entrepreneur, and environmentalist passed away: George Downing. A couple of reapportionments ago, while representing Waikiki, I spent many, many hours with George, learning about ways to keep sand on Waikiki Beach while not harming the environment and surf spots. I was in awe of this noble gentleman. He made me feel his love for our islands, and with George Downing, I felt hope for the future. I believe that George is responsible, in large part, for protecting our shorelines from beachside developments, harmful to our environment and our sense of who we are as a people. Mr. President, I would like to request that the Senate adjourn with a moment of silence to honor George Downing, one of Hawai'i's environmental and community heroes. Thank you."

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:08 p.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator English and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Friday, March 9, 2018, on a rising vote, observing a moment of silence for George Downing.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

Friday, March 9, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:36 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Rhoads and Shimabukuro who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-Sixth Day.

At this time, Senator Riviere welcomed a group of fifth-grade students from Lā'ie Elementary School, who were seated in the gallery with their parent chaperones and teachers Colleen Spring and Jo-Ann Keliikuli. The visiting group also included teachers Hana McMullin, Sandi Aluli, Roxane Coleman, and Liz McOmber; and parent chaperones Kalei Judd, Bere Uluave, Stephanie Robertson, Stacey Cannon, and Shakira Feagaimaalii.

Senator Kidani welcomed site coordinators, parents, and other family members from several of the 70 HCAP Head Start centers around O'ahu, who were participating in their fifth annual visit to the State Capitol. Senator Kidani noted that the federally-funded program is the largest early childhood program in the state, serving more than 1,500 children and their families each year. She then introduced Grant Kogami, director of HCAP Head Start; Angel Lin, policy council vice-chairperson; and assistant directors Donna Manibog, Jennifer Tanele, and Suzie Uyeda.

Senator Wakai recognized visitors from Governor Wallace Rider Farrington High School, who were present in the gallery, including Vice Principal Ron Oyama, Jed Cardenas, Francis Garcia, Chris Afa, and Daniel Sanchez.

Senator Gabbard honored and commended the Windward Zero Waste School Hui, and presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President, colleagues, and our guests in the gallery, here's a question you may not have pondered before: How many tons of food waste do you think three elementary schools can generate in a year? A ton? Two tons? How about over 31 tons? We are honored to have with us today the Windward Zero Waste School Hui, which is made up of three schools: Ka'ōhao Public Charter School, Ka'elepulu Elementary, and Kainalu Elementary, who are 100 percent dedicated to food waste recovery and food security. In fact, the 2017 food waste recovery total among these three schools was 63,400 pounds – that means over 31 tons of food waste not dumped in our landfill. So, you may ask, what happens to all this waste? Well, instead of lecturing and testing students on food waste recovery and food security, these schools are actually involving their keiki in a hands-on approach to every step of recycling food, paper, and cardboard waste.

"Recently, Senator Thielen and I were invited to see them in action firsthand. We began the visit at Kainalu Elementary in, appropriately, the cafeteria, during lunchtime. As students finished eating, they lined up before buckets that were already arranged and manned by their fellow students wearing hairnets and aprons, and then the magic started to happen. Students began dumping their food scraps into one bucket; milk and liquids went into another bucket, paper waste into another container, separating and stacking the paper trays. It was all organized and routine, almost reminiscent of an assembly line. The food waste was quickly moved to an outdoor area, where a student weighed the food scraps; another student recorded how many gallons of liquid waste there were – of course, they were incorporating their math skills – and then the buckets were transported a couple hundred yards by a parent volunteer driving a golf cart to be dumped and mixed into hot compost piles that neatly surround the school's organic garden. After being layered with soil, green waste, and water, the leftover food, which would normally create a smelly mess and fill up landfill space, is left to cook for six months. Leftover compost: How about a compost club for the folks who live around the school, where they can come by and buy some compost, with that money going to support the program? And I talked to one of the janitors, who'd been there forever at the school – 25, 30 years – and the janitorial staff were a bit skeptical at first, with this new change and everything, but when I talked to this one guy, he looked at me and he says, 'Eh, brah, no stink in the dumpster, no flies; we are in heaven! We love this program!'

"The hui schools also built and maintain vermicast bins, where worms work hard to process food scraps along with paper and cardboard waste. The result: soft, sweet-smelling soil that will nourish the school garden and, yes, the students plant and maintain and harvest that as well. How successful is the Windward Zero Waste School Hui? For the students, this is a way of life now, and they in turn have the potential to grow a healthier future society. Think about this: If all of Hawai'i's 292 public schools adopted this protocol for dealing with food waste, it's estimated the annual dumpster diversion would be about 7.5 million pounds, and almost 9,000 cubic yards of rich compost would be produced, and 236 green jobs would be created to implement the program. The hui program is actively changing the mindset of the next generation to one where there is no waste, where everything can be reused, and growing your own food is fun and 'ono. In recognition of their amazing program, the EPA selected them for the top award in the nation in the 2016 Food Recovery Challenge. So, at this time, I'd like to yield the floor to my colleague from Kailua to say a few words."

Senator Thielen rose to present the following remarks:

"I'm proud to introduce the three schools that make up the Windward Zero Waste Hui, which are in my district. Ka'ōhao Public Charter School, which was formerly Lanikai Elementary School, as Senator Gabbard mentioned, won first place in the 2016 Food Recovery Challenge. But in addition to recycling 100 percent of their food waste, they also recycle 98 percent of their cans, bottles, green waste, paper, cardboard, and Mylar, and they also use recycling as a learning opportunity. In December, they had the sad announcement that their 54-year-old monkeypod tree needed to be removed due to the roots breaking the water lines. (I'm sad to say I was a student at the school when that tree first went into place.) The third graders were studying the carbon cycle, and they designed a plan for reuse of the beloved tree: The small branches and leaves were ground into composting mulch; the woody mulch from the big branches would be spread around the property for soil restoration; and the trunk was made into benches and tables to enhance the campus. When the tree was torn down on December 21, the tree cutters said it was the first time for them to have nothing left in their trucks for disposal after a large tree-cutting: zero waste.

"Ka'elepulu Elementary, one of the other schools, started their program in August 2016 with their 201 students. They also recycle a hundred percent of their cafeteria breakfast and lunch food waste and a hundred percent of their cans and bottles and some of the green waste.

"Kainalu Elementary, as the senator mentioned, has a compost club. They started their program in January 2017. All 463 students are recycling a hundred percent of their cafeteria breakfast and lunch food waste and a hundred percent of their cans and bottles. I can personally attest to the quality of the compost, which they test there, which is of a far, far higher quality and value than the compost that's made by the traditional green waste processors in Hawai'i, and also their vermicast, because I'm using both, as a member of the compost club, in our orchard. Our lemon trees are doing fantastic and the leeks that we're producing this year are much bigger than anything in prior years. So thank you very much for your efforts and your work, and I know that there are many members in the community who are signing up to become members of the compost club.

"All three of these Windward Hui schools will be entering their 2017 data that they keep from their environmental programs to the EPA national Food Recovery Challenge and, again, they do this as a learning opportunity to be graphing and charting and measuring the weights of the collection, the temperatures of the compost piles, and the value of the compost that's produced. So thank you very much, and I turn it now back to Senator Gabbard."

Senator Gabbard rose and stated:

"The folks behind this wonderful program are: First is the founder and the hui coordinator and former State Representative, Mindy Jaffe; and also the site leader and parent volunteer, Heather Marsman. I would also like to recognize Lindsey Whitcomb, a former site leader and current fundraiser for the program, who couldn't be here with us today as she is in Connecticut, and Jordan Nelson, the hui operations manager, who is busy managing lunch collections at their hui sites right now as we speak.

"The Hawai'i State Senate hereby honors and commends the Windward Zero Waste School Hui for involving our keiki in recovering food and other school waste. Your inspiring example will hopefully plant the seeds of change in the other 289 public schools statewide as well as in our private schools as well as in our homes, our businesses, and around the world. With zero waste and abundant gardens, we can all flourish. We wish you success and many more hot compost piles and wriggling worms. So mahalo nui loa. Please, another hand for our guests."

The Chair commented to Senator Gabbard and Senator Kidani that there certainly may be an application in the measuring of waste that they're doing at the three schools that would assist in the Farm to School Program as well, as they strive to get more and better data to help with that program.

At 11:51 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:57 a.m.

At 4:30 p.m., the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Monday, March 12, 2018.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY

Monday, March 12, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:33 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Shimabukuro who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Twenty-Seventh Day.

At this time, Senator Baker noted that it was the American Physical Therapy Association's Legislative Day Event at the State Capitol – which brings together physical therapy professionals from across the state to participate in a full agenda of activities, to bring awareness and demonstrate their role in the healthcare system and to address current legislative issues of great importance to the profession – and introduced Gregg Pacillio, Hawai'i chapter president; Joanne Zazzera, legislative chair; Dr. Justin Ledbetter, legislative day event chair; and Joy Gold, representative from the Hawai'i chapter of the American Physical Therapy Association, all of whom were present in the gallery.

Senator Galuteria welcomed a group of students and their teacher from Kupu, a Honolulu-based organization that empowers future generations to create a more sustainable, pono Hawai'i through hands-on training programs, internships, and service learning opportunities that educate and mentor youth to become stewards of our culture and environment and to develop a strong connection to the place in which we live. The students were accompanied by teacher Manning Tate in the gallery: Pualani Diana Matautia, Kyle Tagawa, Danon Throman, Dane Throman, Marlene Sylvester, and Justin Holmberg.

Senator Wakai recognized and congratulated the United States Small Business Administration's State of Hawai'i Small Business Award recipients, and presented the following remarks:

"Ladies and gentlemen, colleagues: This morning, we celebrate the economy. The state is basking in the lowest unemployment in the nation, partially due to the good work by the folks here on the floor with us today. We are going to be honoring three different groups of businesses and their award-winning members and entrepreneurs here in the state. We're going to start with the winners of the 2018 Small Business Administration's Small Business Awards; we have four of them here with us this morning. SBA is a federal agency whose mission is to aid, counsel, and protect small business concerns and preserve free competitive enterprise. 'Small business' doesn't necessarily mean 'small impact' – they provide a big boost to our economy, and give lawmakers the resources to provide much-needed government services.

"Our first honoree is Terri Funakoshi, director of the Patsy T. Mink Center for Business & Leadership. Terri has been honored as a 2018 SBA Small Business Advocate for Women in Business. This award is given to individuals who advocate for women and raise awareness of their significant contributions to our economy. Terri has an extensive history of helping female entrepreneurs succeed. She has always stood up, supports women, and leads by example. Terri regularly trains and mentors business owners in marketing, finance, and management. As director, she established a variety of innovative projects and programs, such as InnovateHER, Girls' Summit, and the Mink Leadership Alliance, all aimed to help level the playing field for women entrepreneurs. Ladies and gentlemen, Terri Funakoshi."

Senator Gabbard presented the following remarks:

"I'd like to introduce and recognize Linda Fernandez, president and chair of Fernandez Entertainment. Fernandez Entertainment has been honored with the SBA Family-Owned Small Business of the Year, which is awarded to family businesses with more than 15 years of history. Having been in business for more than a century, Fernandez Entertainment has been rightfully honored with this award. Established in 1903 by EK Fernandez, the business has since grown to receive international acclaim within the carnival, fair, and circus industries. However, the business has remained true to its roots as it remains locally owned and within the family. After marrying Kane Fernandez, Linda joined the family business and made it her lifetime passion. Under her leadership, the business continues to grow, increasing revenues and creating local jobs and, most importantly, delighting and bringing joy to generations of Hawai'i families. Congratulations, Linda Fernandez and Fernandez Entertainment."

Senator Kahele presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, I have the pleasure this morning of introducing the president and CEO of the Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement, Michelle Kauhane. Colleagues, Michelle has been awarded this year as the 2018 SBA Small Business Advocate for Minorities. This award is given to those who assist and advocate on behalf of minority-owned businesses. In Michelle's capacity as president, she has been instrumental in growing, developing, and transforming Native Hawaiian communities. She has grown the community loan fund and secured additional funding from federal departments and programs. And beyond those financial affairs, she regularly dedicates time to testify in support of Native Hawaiian issues, and serves on various councils and committees, such as the National Council of Asian Pacific Americans and local homestead councils. In all that she does, Michelle continues to look forward for ways to better the islands. Congratulations, Michelle."

Senator Keith-Agaran presented the following remarks:

"On behalf of your Valley Isle delegation, it's my pleasure to introduce Teena M. Rasmussen, director of the Maui County Office of Economic Development. Teena is being honored today as the 2018 SBA Small Business Advocate for Business and Industry. This award is given to individuals who advocate and support small businesses, and understand this critical role these businesses play in the economy. Teena's support for small businesses knows no bounds. Her passion, no doubt, comes from the fact that she herself is a small-business owner. Her hard work and dedication have paid off as her own business, Paradise Flower Farms, has become the largest grower, wholesaler, and Internet provider of Hawai'i's flowers. In her capacity as director, she has founded several key small business events, such as the Made in Maui Festival. She's led trade missions, supported the Shop Small Business Saturday, established small-business loans and grants, and much more. Teena is truly a champion of small business. Congratulations, Teena."

"Mr. President, she's the final SBA awardee this morning, and we're now going to shift gears. We're acknowledging a budding musician and songwriter who just graduated from an innovative state program."

Senator Thielen congratulated and recognized Olivia Cargile, and presented the following remarks:

"It's wonderful to see our SBA nominees this year are all women. I'd like to introduce another budding female entrepreneur: Olivia Cargile. Liiv is also entering the field of business, but she's doing so as a 17-year-old singer, songwriter, producer, and multi-instrumentalist from Kailua. She's a very accomplished young woman: She's performed locally, nationally, and released nine original songs. She's established her own business and was nominated for a Hōkū Hanohano Award. Liiv, in the summer of 2017, was chosen to participate in DBEDT's Creative Lab Music Immersive program, an accelerator that gives artists the opportunity to work with world-class mentors in the music industry and provides access to new markets. Liiv was honored to be selected for the Creative Lab music immersion program, and she described it as 'life-changing.' During this weeklong program, Liiv produced the song 'Bring You Back,' which was selected for a Fox television primetime medical drama series called The Resident, which premiered January 21 this year. This prestigious song placement helps Liiv establish her reputation as a professional singer/songwriter on a national stage. Liiv is applying to business music schools so that she can take control of her career rather than being at the mercy of others, and flourish as an entertainer.

"So, the Hawai'i State Senate takes pride in congratulating Liiv on the placement of her song in a nationally syndicated TV series, and I want to recognize Olivia's parents, Chris and Gina Cargile, who've joined us today in honor of their daughter. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Wakai congratulated and commended the Hawaii Venture Capital Association's award recipients, and presented the following remarks:

"Our last set of honorees are real innovators, and there are actually a few guys in this group. I present to you the winners of the 2018 Hawaii Venture Capital Association Entrepreneur and Deal of the Year awards; we have six of them here with us today. The Hawaii Venture Capital Association stands as a nexus for entrepreneurs, capital formation, and networking opportunities. The association strives to foster entrepreneurship through education and exposure to members of the business community. HVCA's Entrepreneur and Deal of the Year awards are held annually to honor achievements in the local venture community. For the first introduction, I would like to yield the floor to Senator Galuteria."

Senator Galuteria presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, I'd like to introduce two individuals from the Manaola Group LLC, who were selected as the Entrepreneurs of the Year. The first is Carrington Edward Manaola Yap, the creator and cofounder and designer of Manaola Group; and also Zachary Pang, cofounder and CEO of Manaola Group LLC – thank you so much. Manaola, as most of us have come to know, is a Hawaiian fashion label that appeals to the changing times, respectfully and thoughtfully embodying and invoking the spirit of Hawaiian culture and the values of our islands. The group was originally founded in 2016 but has grown rapidly from a small startup to become a globally recognized and high-demand brand. Just last year, Manaola debuted at the New York Fashion Week and has also been showcased at runways from Hawai'i to San Francisco. Despite the success, the company and its founders have stayed true to their Native Hawaiian heritage and have not forgotten what their ancestors have taught them. The company employs a traditional stamping method known as 'ohe kāpala to create their designs – this is bamboo stamping – and it's digitized them into modern silhouettes. These designs relate to Native Hawaiian ideologies, often referring to significant stories, places, or animals significant to the islands. In addition, the company remains locally based and takes care to create culturally conscious designs. Manaola Group can only become bigger and better."

"I might add that Manaola is a member of the famed musical Lim Family. As a matter of fact, his father, Ed Yap, is up there, who plays bass, and he's wearing a Manaola design, obviously. Also, in addition to dad, Manaola's mom is a kumu hula – Nani Lim Yap – and his aunt is also a kumu hula – Leialoha Lim Amina, who was my classmate at Kamehameha Schools. Aloha to you all and thank you so much. Congratulations to Manaola and Zachary – thank you so much."

Senator Green presented the following remarks:

"Luke Joseph, I'd like to introduce you: founder and CEO of iFirst Medical Technologies, inventor of the iFirst analyzer and microfluid exchange cartridge – a round of applause for Luke. Luke has been named Tech Entrepreneur of the Year, which is given to those whose work has created new technology and innovations to make our lives more efficient, fun, or just plain better. Luke aims to revolutionize health care and he very well may with this technology through iFirst Medical Technologies. Rather than having a patient wait in a lab for their tests, he brings the lab to the patients, to our families, tests on site with a simple finger prick – you don't have to draw blood for this – safely transmits information to clinicians and produces results immediately, all within the comfort of a patient's home. This is especially beneficial for patients who oftentimes wait for days to get tested and receive results or who might be too sick to go to a hospital or facility. Luke's innovative vision and entrepreneurial spirit have helped his business grow, and, in the long run, iFirst will ease medical burdens on patients and make health care more accessible. And I would just add, congratulations, Luke – I could see this helping people globally; this really will be a great technology. Congratulations on your award."

Senator Nishihara presented the following remarks:

"I'd like to introduce Aaron Ackerman, sustainability team leader at the architectural/engineering firm Bowers + Kubota. Aaron was honored as the Island Innovator of the Year, which is given to those whose efforts have helped our island state. This award celebrates an innovator who has demonstrated leadership and commitment to tackling a significant problem in the islands. Aaron has a multidisciplinary background that allows him to meaningfully address economic, environmental, and social issues. He has experience as an owner, fundraiser, borrower, designer, builder, advocate, educator, among other roles. This allows him to seek balance in his projects, as he recognizes the importance of creative and sustainable goals but also tries to accommodate project budgets. Aaron applied these skills when trying to attack local problems. Aaron tackled the problems of waste management, which is certainly a problem in the islands. For the past seven years, he has been building a house that meets 20 strict ecofriendly criteria required for certification by the International Living Future Institute. Seventy-five percent of the house is made with reclaimed construction waste; the house is proof that Hawai'i's waste issue can be solved. Congratulations, Aaron."

Senator Taniguchi presented the following remarks:

"I have the honor of recognizing Tom Knapp-Ramos, founder of Swipewrap. Tom was named Student Entrepreneur of the Year. This award is given to younger members of the innovative community who have a passion for learning new things, the tenacious spirit of an entrepreneur, and a potential for growth. Tom fits all of these qualities and more. He has always been interested in how things work, including hardware gadgets, computer software, human psychology, and product success. The intersection of these interests is what led Tom to pursue Swipewrap, a software that has digitalized gift-wrapping all while keeping the personal touch. Despite being an online service, users can still unwrap digital gifts with their fingers on their smartphones, thus preserving the fun gift-giving" experience. It will not be long until Swipewrap becomes a household name. Congratulations, Tom.”

Senator Kim presented the following remarks:

“Mr. President, I have the honor of introducing our final honoree. Among all of the entrepreneurs, we have another woman, and she is Mylen Yamamoto and Cropsticks by Cropmade. Mylen was born and raised here and is a graduate of Moanalua High School. Unfortunately, she’s not able to join us, but we do have Chul Lee, who is representing her. Mylen – founder, creator, and CEO of Cropsticks by Cropmade – was named People’s Choice Startup of the Year. This award is given to the startup that the innovation community believes best represents the interests of Startup Paradise and also serves as an example for others to follow in their successes, popularity, and the unwavering support of their fellow community leaders. Cropsticks by Cropmade is an innovative chopstick with a built-in rest from a sustainable bamboo and is part of a larger line of sustainable goods for Asian cuisine. By using sustainable materials, the business hopes to leave a positive impact on the planet. Cropsticks began when Mylen’s chopstick kept rolling off her tray table on a flight to Asia. She believed there was a better way to use chopsticks, and the idea was born.

“Besides Mylen, Cropsticks has four other team members: Ron Tansingco, Jay Chang, JGarrett Karr, and, of course, Chul Lee. Each one of them brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the business, which has allowed Cropsticks to grow and partner with over 50 restaurants, retailers, and hotels, including Roy’s restaurants, Hakkasan Group, Disney, and Walgreens, and it won’t be long before Cropsticks becomes nationally and internationally recognized. Congratulations to Cropsticks by Cropmade.”

Senator Wakai rose and stated:

“Mr. President and colleagues, thank you for allowing us to acknowledge the multitude of talented individuals who are driving our economy and giving Senator Dela Cruz all that he could possibly ask for to operate the State of Hawai‘i. In the gallery, we have District Director of the Small Business Administration Jane Sawyer; also, the division chief for Creative Industries, Georja Skinner, is with us; and for the last group, the former president of the Hawaii Venture Capital Association, Bill Spencer, plus a few of the other HVCA awardees. Thank you to all of you for nurturing our economy.”

Senator Wakai then recognized Luis Salaveria, director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, who was seated in the gallery.

At 11:57 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:13 p.m.

"At this time, I'm happy to represent the fourth-happiest city in the nation: Pearl City. And we have some of those members who live in that district. Mr. President and colleagues, the Pearl City High School Band is an example of an exceptional and special group of students willing to share the music and spirit of our islands with audiences and other students around the world. Pearl City High School was one of the two western states honored by the National Band Association with the Blue Ribbon Award, one of the highest caliber of bands that performed in various venues under the direction of Mr. Chad Kamei. They performed at Troy University, Alabama, in 2013; the 2011 London New Year's Day Parade in London, England; the 2009 Hamamatsu Festival in Hamamatsu, Japan; and at the 2007 Beijing International Olympic Youth Festival and Parade held in Beijing, China, as a pre-Olympic celebration.

"Pearl City High School is one of two schools selected for the award for the Western Division. The band consists of 230 students under the direction of Mr. Chadwick Kamei, who explained that the program application examined its concert band, while others such as marching and jazz band, solo performances, and ensembles were also taken into consideration. The school was required to submit recordings of performances from the past several years in activities students take part in in and outside of the school and much more.

"The Senate recognizes and congratulates the band members and their parents and, most importantly, the band director, Chadwick Kamei, for their hard work and commitment in striving to make the best music possible. Special thanks go to the band members' parents, educators, and business sponsors for their support. So, again, I congratulate Pearl City High School Band for receiving an exceptional and prestigious award: the National Band Association's Blue Ribbon Award.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Chang, English, and Harimoto who were excused.

At this time, the Chair welcomed Sean Galuteria, son of Senator Brickwood Galuteria, who was seated in the Senate Chamber as the "twenty-sixth senator."

Senator Baker noted that it was the State Council on Developmental Disabilities' eighteenth Annual Day at the Capitol, and welcomed 68 participants from across the state, as well as Daintry Bartoldus and her staff who organize the annual event. Senator Baker then recognized participants from Maui, Moloka'i, and Lāna'i, who were seated in the gallery.

Senator Rhoads introduced Blane Sardinha, Che Yi, Nathan Brown, Sang Byun, and Justin Lee, members of the Self-Advocacy Advisory Council who were seated in the gallery.

The Chair extended additional congratulations to Lorenzo Tagura-Bear for delivering a particularly enjoyable and impressive speech at the Hawai'i Convention Center.

The Senate reconvened at 11:43 a.m.

Senator Ruderman recognized and honored the 2018 Boys & Girls Club of Hawai'i honorees, and presented the following remarks:

"Today, we have honorees who are the finalists from the Boys & Girls Club Youth of the Year award, recognizing outstanding records of volunteer service, peer leadership, and community spirit. I'm proud to introduce our first honoree, who's from my district of Puna on the Big Island, Ms. Mia Dahl. Mia has been a member of the Boys & Girls Club for three years. She immerses herself in everything the club has to offer and enjoys going to the club to help others and make new friends. Mia is a freshman at the Hawaii Academy of Arts & Science, where she maintains a 4.0 grade point average – one of five charter schools in our district that we're very proud of. She volunteers at her school, working with elementary school students in completing homework assignments and cultivating the school's garden. Mia has impressed many with her dedication and service to community. She's actively searching for ways to give back and make a difference in the lives of those in her community. She and her mother put together meals for the victims of Hurricane Iselle and, through this work, she developed a passion for helping those in need. Mia aspires to become a pediatrician in her local community. Congratulations, Mia."

Senator Keith-Agaran presented the following remarks:

"Maui is proud to present Caylie Peterson, Maui Youth of the Year finalist. Caylie is from Ha'ikū and has been a member of the Boys & Girls Club for six years. She's a role model for younger members of the club and actively engages with them through arts and crafts. For the past three years, she has represented the Ha'ikū Clubhouse in the annual Little Chef Big Chef competition. Caylie is a high school sophomore at King Kekaulike High School, where she maintains a 3.7 grade point average. As a member of the school's Japanese club, she has developed a passion for learning languages. She is also an active member of the drama club and will perform in the school's spring musical this year – I think, in their new auditorium. Caylie has impressed many with her entrepreneurial skills. She created her own business growing Hawaiian chili peppers, Meyer lemons, and kaffir lime leaves in her home garden, selling her produce to a local Thai food restaurant. On behalf of your Maui Senate delegation, congratulations, Caylie."

"And, Mr. President, before I yield the floor, let me also acknowledge the other Maui participants in the Youth of the Year award: Jaenahleyn-Kaiola Kanaha, Kayla Kennedy, Makamae Naleieha, and 'Ōiwi Gormley."

Senator Kidani presented the following remarks:

"I'm proud to recognize Cornelius Phillips. He is Hawai'i's military Youth of the Year finalist. Cornelius is originally from New Orleans, Louisiana, and has been a member of the Boys & Girls Club for five years. He immerses himself in everything that the club has to offer: more specifically, the Keystone, Torch, and Pacific Teen Panel programs. He is also a member of the Schofield Teen Center basketball team. Cornelius is a senior at Mililani High School, where he maintains a 3.6 grade point average. He is also a member of the National Honor Society and, through NHS, he has participated in various volunteer service activities both at the school and in the community. Cornelius has impressed many with his academic performance. He has received honor roll for the past 12 academic quarters and recently received a college scholarship to attend Louisiana Tech University. Congratulations, Cornelius."

Senator Wakai presented the following remarks:

"I am delighted to introduce to all of you Hannah Bethard, Hawai'i's military Youth finalist. Hannah is a sophomore at Radford High School. She is originally from San Antonio, Texas, and has been a member of the Boys & Girls Club for three years now. She is very involved in the cooking and art clubs and the SMART Girls program – it's an all-female leadership program at Radford. Hannah is a high school sophomore who is enrolled in rigorous academic courses, such as AP English, honors biology, honors world history, and AP geometry. She also participates in her school's Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (JROTC) program, serving as its vice commander for the past two years. Hannah has impressed many with her advocacy in mental health issues; she selflessly gives her time to talk to her peers, members of the club, and other social groups about the importance of seeking help and understanding best mental health practices. Congratulations, Hannah.”

Senator Galuteria presented the following remarks:

“I’m proud to present Shalain Maxin. Mahalo. Shalain is from Honolulu and has been a member of the Boys & Girls Club for five years. She immerses herself in everything that the club has to offer: more specifically, the Girls Power and Leaders in Training programs. Through club activities, she has created opportunities to both empower her peers and give back to her community. Shalain is a senior at McKinley High School, where she has become a prominent member of the Reserve Officers’ Training program (ROTC), attaining the third-highest rank in her battalion. She is also the co-captain on the Junior Reserve Officers’ Training program Rangers team. And she’s impressed many with her dedication and service to community, actively searching for ways to give back and make a difference in the lives of those around her. Shalain’s success will surely inspire all youth who pass through the doors of their local Boys & Girls Club. Congratulations, Shalain; thank you for joining us.”

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

Friday, March 16, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:35 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Chang, English, Harimoto, Kahele, and Tokuda who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-First Day.

At this time, Senator Nishihara welcomed visitors from the YMCA of Honolulu, including president and CEO Michael Broderick and members of his staff, who were seated in the gallery.

Senator Kim recognized and honored Gustav H. Webling Elementary School on the occasion of its fiftieth anniversary, and presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President, education has always been a priority for me, and I attended public schools throughout my life. During my school years, I was encouraged and motivated – as many of you were – by our teachers, our counselors, and our coaches. Therefore, it's a pleasure to recognize the individuals and institutions that have shaped our lives and so many of our island children's lives, and have developed outstanding citizens and contributors to our nation and state. I speak of our public schools and, today, we honor one school that is celebrating 50 years of educating our children, and that school is Gustav H. Webling Elementary School.

"Now, Webling Elementary, for those of you who don't know where that is, sits in Hālawā Heights, and began as a two-building school on February 26, 1968. If you can, picture 300 students temporarily housed at 'Aiea Elementary School, walking from 'Aiea Elementary to their new school, with the fourth- and fifth-graders walking and the younger children riding the bus. Today, it is a school that houses three classroom buildings, two portables, a cafeteria, an administration building, and a play court. And from 18 faculty and staff, there are now 50 full-time faculty and staff. Our principal, Chad Matsuda, his faculty, and staff look after nearly 500 students in their care. They provide a challenging and meaningful, safe, educational environment for their students with emphasis on academic achievement, leadership skills, character education, and cultural pride. But while much has changed during the past half-century, the commitment of Mr. Matsuda and his faculty and staff has remained undiminished by time, and we honor them today for their service, their dedication, and their professionalism. On the fiftieth anniversary of Gustav H. Webling Elementary School, I invite my colleagues to join me in congratulating principal Chad Matsuda. Up in the gallery is his parent-community network coordinator, Christine Haramura. We thank her for being part of the educational community that provides an enriching environment for the children of Hawai'i, and we look forward to your celebration in the next several months that you'll be having for the fiftieth anniversary."

At 11:40 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:43 a.m.

RE-REFERRAL OF HOUSE BILLS

The Chair re-referred the following House bills that were received:

H.B. No.:	Re-referred to:
H.B. No. 1489, H.D. 1	Committee on Labor, then jointly to the Committee on Judiciary and the Committee on Ways and Means
H.B. No. 1570, H.D. 1	Committee on Ways and Means
H.B. No. 1985, H.D. 1	Jointly to the Committee on Higher Education and the Committee on Water and Land and the Committee on Ways and Means
H.B. No. 2592, H.D. 1	Committee on Water and Land, then to the Committee on Ways and Means

At this time, Senator Shimabukuro announced that the YMCA had invited the legislators to a luncheon in Conference Room 309 from 12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. that afternoon.

Senator Baker announced that the Women's Legislative Caucus would be holding their annual Easter basket donation drive to benefit clients at the Institute for Human Services, The Salvation Army, and the Windward Spouse Abuse Shelter, and encouraged the members to participate.

Senator Baker continued to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Members, this morning, we heard House Bill 2739, which is the medical aid in dying bill, and I want to give a shout-out, not only to the committee members, who sat with me through the entire hearing – and it was actually much shorter than last year's – but to the Clerk's office, all of the staff, and Sergeant-at-Arm's staff for helping us to bring people into the hearing room in an orderly manner. We had a time keeper from Clerk's staff who was very diligent about making sure that the timer was activated for each testifier who spoke for two minutes and then we were able to move on to the next testifier. We really couldn't have had a productive hearing, in my view, if we hadn't had all of the support from our agencies: Sergeant-at-Arms and Clerk's office as well as SMA. So thank you all very much on behalf of the Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Health. Mahalo."

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I'm a few days late in saying this, but on Monday night, we had our second occasional Music Night here at the Capitol, and in addition to thanking everybody who took part in it – including our distinguished senator from Waikīkī – I particularly want to thank the Sergeant-at-Arms office for staying late on several nights and making that all happen. I know you guys worked extra for it; thank you very much. Mahalo to everybody who joined us."

Senator Kidani announced that Education Week would take place the following week, with floor presentations honoring Teachers of the Year, exceptional student science-technology teams, community service-minded students, and the 2018 School Counselor of the Year; as well as other activities to welcome early education advocates, public charter schools, and the annual Friends of the Library of Hawai'i book sale.

The Chair remarked:

"I, too, strongly believe that the cornerstone of a strong democracy is the ability to express a dissenting opinion and being unafraid to do it in a public place. Several years ago, it seemed pervasive throughout the state that it was to come and be as unruly and rude as you could be and try to intimidate others into silence, and so I can't underscore the words of the CPH chair to our staff, to her, and to the members of the committee for the way in which you conducted the hearing. Also, while I know, Chair Baker, you were in the room conducting the hearing, as I walked outside, we had the sheriff's department; while present, they were present in an inoffensive manner as to not heighten anything. I wanted to express my thanks to the sheriff's department as well, for working with our staff and our members to ensure that anyone from the public was able to get here and be unafraid to express their opinion on the bill before the committee today, and commend each of you on a job well done. So, thank you very much to all of you who were involved."

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:51 a.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator Galuteria and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Monday, March 19, 2018.

THIRTY-THIRD DAY

Monday, March 19, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:39 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senators Harimoto and Ruderman who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Second Day.

At this time, Senator Espero recognized Kaniala Peters Clark, a senior at James Campbell High School whose interests include government and politics, who was spending his spring break as a volunteer in Senator Espero's office.

Senator Keith-Agaran introduced friends Mike Shimei and his sister, Barbara Shimei, and John Gasidlo, who were accompanied in the gallery by Senator Keith-Agaran's wife, Kallie.

Senator Gabbard recognized and honored Hui O Ho'ohonua (HOH808), and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues and guests, it's my honor and pleasure to introduce the Hui O Ho'ohonua (HOH808), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community development networking organization that is restoring the land surrounding Pu'uloa and the Pearl Harbor and neighboring 'Ewa moku to once again provide food. 'Pu'uloa' refers not just to the main mountain surrounding Pearl Harbor but to the waters that feed it. 'Ewa is the only moku where the rivers of all 12 of its ahupua'a converge into one place: Pearl Harbor. Historically, this area was 'āina momona, or 'abundant land,' and, as a side note, it's interesting that the Hawaiian concept of 'āina momona can be likened to the biblical expression of 'the land flowing with milk and honey.' Thus, HOH808's vision of a Pu'uloa as a land plentiful with lo'i, fishponds, and sustainable community gardens seeks to inspire all that they do. Hui O Ho'ohonua also envisions their efforts as a way to address existing hazards to human health caused by pollution over the last 100 years.

"Folks, these may seem like challenging tasks to accomplish, and they are. But would we expect anything less from an organization whose mission statement is 'Impossible is where we start'? That is actually their mission statement: Impossible is where we start. And how, you may ask, does one accomplish the impossible? By practicing HOH808's core values, which are, first, maintaining the faith of a child in accomplishing the impossible; second, honoring every citizen with dignity and selfless service; and, third, conducting business ethically and professionally with integrity. As a centralized hub, HOH808 initiates, administers, operates, and maintains a network connecting all levels of the community to accomplish sustainable community development initiatives, such as modernizing alternate transportation corridors, completing restoration of contaminated ecosystems, and the reutilization of stormwater runoff. HOH808's core values motivate them to strive for the impossible. Their hard work, determination, and aloha resulted last October in the official renaming of the former West Loch Shoreline Park to Kapapahu Point Park, serving to initiate the healing process caused by years of sacred-site desecration. HOH808's work at Kapapahu includes restoration of the park's entire shoreline area, its wahi pana, and the three Apokeo fishponds. These sites will be used to educate the community of the cultural importance of the fishponds and the wahi pana and the impact their restoration will have on future generations. Other significant HOH808 accomplishments include a community Pu'uloa bike path cleanup event, a collaborative effort to restore Loko Pa'aiau fishpond, and a meta-study of existing research and planning initiatives for the Pu'uloa region.

"In closing, we'd be remiss to not celebrate their recent accomplishment in the introduction of House Concurrent Resolution 214, introduced by Representative Ty Cullen, which recognizes the 30-day period from the last Saturday in September to the last Sunday in October as Malama Pu'uloa Month, celebrating one of the first settlement sites on O'ahu. If passed, Malama Pu'uloa Month would be an island-wide community celebration of the sacred waters of Pu'uloa, celebrating not only Pu'uloa herself but all that she touches, including the streams and marshes that surround the sacred waters. The month-long celebration seeks to educate the community on Pu'uloa's rich and culturally significant history; educate a generation in a collaborative approach with public and private organizations within the community to come up with the best solutions for the clean-up of Pu'uloa; encourage everyone island-wide to learn the mo'olelo of Pu'uloa so that they may attain a deeper connection with whatever part of the island that they're from; and, lastly, this would culminate in a festival at Kapapahu Point Park.

"And so, I'll introduce Tony Chance, executive director; Sandy Webb, chair of the board of directors; Heath Todd, vice president; Carena Phillips, visual communications; and Trey Lima, project leader. Jordan Muratsuchi, the outreach coordinator, could not be here today because of sickness. So the Hawai'i State Senate hereby honors and commends Hui O Ho'ohonua – mahalo to executive director Tony Chance and the entire HOH808 team for being guardians of Pu'uloa. Your attitude of taking on the impossible and persevering with faith, honor, and integrity should be an inspiration for all in achieving good for the community, ecosystem, and culture. Please give them another hand, and thank you."

At 11:47 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:52 a.m.

Senator Rhoads extended an additional welcome to Jessica Yamauchi and Trish La Chica from the Hawai'i Public Health Institute, who were accompanying the Youth Council of the Coalition for a Tobacco-Free Hawai'i in the gallery.

Senator English acknowledged members of his office staff, who were seated in the gallery: Aunty Libby Suyat-Kimball, Sharon Lum Ho, and Cissy Kapi'olani Rees.

Senator English then extended an additional welcome to members of the Coalition for a Tobacco-Free Hawai'i from Hāna, who were present in the gallery.

Senator Kidani commended the Department of Education's 2018 Teachers of the Year, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, this week we will be recognizing excellence in our public schools with an opportunity to meet teachers and students who have been singled out for their achievements. I can think of no better way to begin than by introducing the Department of Education's 2018 Teachers of the Year. Each year, dozens of candidates are nominated by their peers and administrators to recognize the contributions they make to our public schools, our students, their colleagues, and our communities. Nominees are reviewed through a rigorous process that examines their ability to inspire students to learn and their work that earns respect among students, parents, and peers. Next to parents and grandparents, the adults who play the biggest part in the lives of our keiki are their classroom teachers. For several hours every day, we entrust our youngsters to their expertise and care. The importance of helping to train teachers, supporting their work in the classroom and after hours, and making sure they know we appreciate their work cannot be overstated. And, this morning, we want to make sure that our guests here with us on the floor know that we appreciate their passion for teaching and their commitment to their students. Five of this year's distinguished teachers are with us today; the three who were not able to join us are at spring break workshops or tending to family matters. To begin our introductions and presentations, I yield the floor to Senator Espero."

Senator Espero presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President, colleagues, and guests: I am proud and honored to introduce this year's 2018 Strive HI Teacher of the Year, Ms. Vanessa Ching, of Ewa Makai Middle School. In recognition of outstanding teachers who succeed in providing high-quality learning opportunities for their students, Strive HI annually selects from its ranks those who demonstrate personal excellence, collaborative leadership, cutting-edge curriculum instruction and assessment, and personify the excellence in their school. Every student and teacher at Ewa Makai would agree that this aptly describes Vanessa both personally and professionally. Her work has been described as 'developing a culture of environmentally conscious students, community members, and parents.' Vanessa is a National Board Certified elementary and special education teacher who has honorably taught within the Hawai'i DOE for 14 years. Vanessa Ching holds many positions at Ewa Makai Middle School, including Green Program coordinator, yearbook advisor, as well as student activities coordinator. Her advocacy and lessons in Green Initiatives have inspired her students to reduce their carbon footprints and to extend this initiative throughout the entire school. Ewa Makai won the National Green Ribbon School certification and is the only school statewide to have received this honor. The community of 'Ewa Beach is incredibly fortunate to have teachers like Ms. Ching dedicating their lives toward educating and developing our youth.

"Congratulations, Vanessa Ching. If I may, Mr. President, in the gallery, we have the principal of Ewa Makai Middle School, Kim Sanders; husband Joshua Ching; math teacher Jenna Nitahara; media teacher Ethan Toyota; PE teacher Scott Yorimoto; Ewa Makai Middle School Manager of the Year Francis Santa Monica; national PE Teacher of the Year Gregg Agena; and former Principal of the Year Edward Oshiro. Thank you for joining us at your State Capitol! Congratulations, Vanessa!"

Senator Dela Cruz presented the following remarks:

"Thank you, Mr. President; it's an honor to honor the next recipient on your behalf. This morning, I'm proud to present Ms. Amanda Fretto of Chiefess Kamakahelei Middle School, the Kaua'i District Teacher of the Year. Ms. Fretto is a certified special education teacher with a master's in educational psychology. She has demonstrated her passion for education by refining and maintaining the Unified Champions School program and Team Unify through Special Olympics, where her outreach and peer mentorship via United Sound has afforded students with special needs the opportunity to experience music in new ways. Thank you, Ms. Fretto, for your tireless devotion to the special education community, and best wishes on your continued efforts to inspire, empower, and motivate your current and future students as they strive to reach their full potential. Congratulations on this outstanding achievement. Let's give her another round of applause."

Senator Thielen presented the following remarks:

"Thank you, Mr. President, and also, thank you, Senator Kidani, for your introduction, which highlights the importance of teachers and the honor of this award. Although he is unable to join us today, I would like to recognize Del Onaga. His outstanding work earned him Teacher of the Year for the Windward District. Del Onaga teaches at Olomana School, which is an alternative learning center for students with academic or behavioral problems. So, Mr. Onaga is the teacher who is taking over the education for students who have not been able to be reached by other schools and, in some cases, this is often the school of last resort. Mr. Onaga helped begin his school's successful Engineering Academy, and he's the career & technical education teacher. He's worked with at-risk students at Olomana School for seven years, guiding them to a better future. His calm teaching style and unrelenting persistence have not only touched, but changed the lives of many students. I can't emphasize enough how essential Del Onaga's role is in getting these kids better prepared for jobs and adult life. We are blessed to have him and the other excellent teachers who are here today in our community."

Senator Ihara presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President and colleagues, it is my honor to introduce the Hawai'i Public Charter School Teacher of the Year, Cristin Priolo. Cristin is a 2013 founding faculty for the School for Examining Essential Questions of Sustainability, also known as SEEQS. Cristin has served as a SEEQS special education teacher and currently teaches sixth-, seventh-, and eighth-grade history as well as serving as the lead coordinator for SEEQS' project-based learning program. Cristin makes a difference in the lives of her students by working collaboratively with teachers, parents, and community organizations. Her lessons teach students to love learning and instill in them the confidence that they can and will be successful. One parent has named her a 'milestone person' because Cristin is unforgettable and her impact will last throughout her students' lifetimes. Her students learn to closely examine evidence, practice listening to others' points of views, and weigh the tradeoffs of their decisions. These skills are integrated through community-based projects that stimulate students' sense of inquiry and other content that touches students personally. The success of her methods is evidenced, as students at SEEQS score higher than DOE's English proficiency averages for grades six through eight. Cristin is dedicated to each student's emotional growth and unceasingly makes her lessons the best these kids have ever had. Please help me to congratulate Cristin Priolo, the Hawai'i Public Charter School Teacher of the Year. Mr. President, I'd also like to introduce, in the gallery, the SEEQS school leader, Buffy Cushman-Patz. Thank you; welcome.

"Mr. President, Senatorial District 10 joins the Senate in also honoring the Honolulu District Teacher of the Year, Naomi Salaveria, from King Liholiho Elementary School. Naomi is a veteran elementary school teacher of students with special needs and multiple disabilities. She works collaboratively with parents and other professionals to create teams that support student well-being, social and academic growth. Naomi uses touch, taste, visuals, music, movement, art, and animals to inspire her students to learn, think independently, and develop their unique skills. Naomi's compassion for her special education students has encouraged personal responsibility in each of her students' own success in life. Naomi has seen much success when her students learn to handle their physical and emotional limitations, when they make connections, and when they find solutions and become more independent. Naomi believes in celebrating every success, especially the small. So, today, please help me celebrate Naomi Salaveria's 'small' success in being named 2018 Honolulu District Teacher of the Year. I'd like to also introduce, in the gallery, Naomi's parents, Bob and Frances Bean, and her husband and daughter, Luis and Maria Salaveria. They look familiar; congratulations. Thank you, Mr. President."

The Chair interjected to lead the members and audience in a round of applause to recognize Mr. Del Onaga.

Senator English presented the following remarks:

"While she could not be here with us today, I'm honored to introduce Francine Hughes, Maui's Teacher of the Year. Francine is currently a district resource teacher at the DOE, with 20 years of teaching experience. She is certified in elementary education with a master's in educational leadership. Her shared leadership style successfully promotes collaboration and understanding of DOE initiatives. She credits her husband for his support and encouragement and Sharon Abrigo, a former mentor and colleague, for shaping her professional development design. Complex Area Superintendent Lindsay Ball describes Francine as a 'highly reflective, solution-oriented, lifelong learner who believes that developing and nurturing relationships is the key component when collaborating with fellow educators.' Colleagues, please join me with a round of applause as we honor Maui's Teacher of the Year, Francine Hughes."

Senator Kahele presented the following remarks:

"While she could also not be here today, colleagues, I wanted to take a moment to recognize the 2018 Hawai'i District Teacher of the Year, Ms. Erika Kaneo. A National Board certified elementary teacher, Ms. Kaneo works with second- and third-graders at Waiākeawaena Elementary School in the Hilo-Waiākea complex area. She takes great care to build effective, differentiated, and individualized instruction on three key principles – that students learn best when they: one, feel engaged; two, feel like they belong; and three, are given opportunities to succeed. Ms. Kaneo gains her inspiration from her mother, who met every challenge as an opportunity for growth and change. Complex Area Superintendent Keone Farias describes Ms. Kaneo as a teacher 'who believes in helping students and teachers at different levels to grow to their full potentials while approaching problems as opportunities, and that combination is the key to success.' Colleagues, please join me in a round of applause for the 2018 Hawai'i District Teacher of the Year, Ms. Erika Kaneo. Mahalo Mr. President."

Senator Kidani presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President, colleagues, it is my pleasure to introduce Gregg Iha, our Central District Teacher of the Year for 2018. The last time I chatted with Gregg Iha was at Mililani High School, where all of the schools in Mililani had set up displays and organized a huge program of activities to celebrate Character Counts. Character Counts has been a central element of campus life at Mililani schools for several years. Character Counts encourages students to think and act responsibly when they make decisions and interact with others: fellow students, teachers, coaches, and families. Students and teachers talk about and behave in accordance with the Six Pillars of Character: responsibility, trustworthiness, respect, fairness, caring, and citizenship. These are worthy behavior goals for all of us. As a resource teacher for the Leilehua/Mililani/Waiākea complex, Gregg Iha has been a champion for Character Counts. It is a natural outgrowth of values that have been a focus of Gregg's career in service to our schools – always value every individual. In his own words, 'Sometimes you lead by force of character, sometimes you lead with love, but always lead with honor and strength of character.' Aloha, Gregg, and mahalo for being a teacher.

“Mr. President, I would also like to acknowledge Gregg’s wife, Diane, who is here with us today, as well as his parents, Richard and Patricia Iha, also in the gallery. Mahalo for joining us; thank you.

“Mr. President, recognizing excellence among our public-school teachers is always inspiring. The challenge for the DOE is to select just eight teachers for honors each year when, truly, we could sing the praises of hundreds. Congratulations to the 2018 Teachers of the Year, who we honor this morning. They are representative of their campus colleagues statewide, and we are so very, very grateful for all of their work on behalf of our keiki. Mahalo.”

At 11:57 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:03 p.m.

At this time, Senator Inouye, Chair of the Committee on Transportation and Energy, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for H.B. No. 1508, H.D. 2, Proposed S.D. 1.

Senator Inouye noted:

“It is a short notice, Mr. President, because the contents of House Bill 1508, Proposed Senate Draft 1, will be Senate Bill 2752, Senate Draft 2, which did not make it past the first House committee. House Bill 1508, Proposed Senate Draft 1, creates a revolving line of credit sub-fund of an unspecified amount from the umbrella of the Hawaii green infrastructure special fund for any state agency or department to finance cost-effective energy-efficiency measures. As the Legislature’s intent of the GEMS fund was to be available for the underserved – particularly low- and moderate-income homeowners, renters, and nonprofits – GEMS will also help decrease both utility bill expenses for state buildings and assist with meeting the state’s energy efficiency goal. My hope, Mr. President, as chair of the Transportation and Energy committee, is to keep this measure alive in H.B. 1508, Proposed Senate Draft 1.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Inouye announced that the Committee on Transportation and Energy would be holding a public hearing on H.B. No. 1508, H.D. 2, Proposed S.D. 1 on Wednesday, March 21, 2018, at 1:15 p.m. in Conference Room 225.

Senator Tokuda, Chair of the Committee on Labor, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for S.C.R. No. 34 and S.R. No. 17.

Senator Tokuda noted:

“This addresses alternatives to opioids in the NFL, and in order to meet the SCR deadline with the joint committee referral, we’d like to hear it when the committees meet later this week.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Tokuda announced that the Committee on Labor and Committee on Economic Development, Tourism, and Technology would be holding a joint public hearing on the measures on Thursday, March 22, 2018, at 3:00 p.m. in Conference Room 229.

Senator Kahele, Chair of the Committee on Higher Education, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for H.B. No. 2299, H.D. 1.

Senator Kahele noted:

“House Bill 2299, House Draft 1, seeks to facilitate the process by which the University of Hawai’i obtains approval to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless a county agency, its officers, agents, and employees for university purposes and university functions on county property. I’d like to kindly request that the 72-hour notice requirement be waived for this bill, and it’s necessary to facilitate the appropriate consideration of this bill in light of its late re-referral.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Kahele announced that the Committee on Higher Education would be holding a public hearing on H.B. No. 2299, H.D. 1 on Thursday, March 22, 2018, at 1:21 p.m. in Conference Room 224.

Senator Shimabukuro, Chair of the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs, requested a waiver of the notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for S.R. No. 43 and S.R. No. 44.

Senator Shimabukuro noted:

“Mr. President, the SCRs for both of these resolutions are already on the hearing notice and we inadvertently left the SRs out.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Shimabukuro announced that the Committee on Hawaiian Affairs and Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and Health would be holding a joint public hearing on the measures on Thursday, March 22, 2018, at 1:15 p.m. in Conference Room 016.

Senator Gabbard noted that it was the forty-fifth annual National Ag Day, which celebrates and recognizes the importance of agriculture in our everyday lives, with the theme of “Agriculture: Food for Life.”

Senator Galuteria announced that the 2018 Senate Staff Directory had been released and would be distributed to all the members’ offices.

The Chair thanked Senator Galuteria and his staff for their work in creating the directory.

Senator Kidani announced that Education Week activities would continue the following day, with a rally by the Hawaii Children’s Action Network in the Rotunda at 10:00 a.m.; visits to legislative offices by representatives from a number of organizations, including People Attentive To Children (PATCH), University of Hawai’i P-20, Hawai’i Association for the Education of Young Children, Hawai’i Public Charter Schools, and Early Childhood Action Strategy; as well as informational displays by the University of Hawai’i at Mānoa College of Education in Conference Room 225 on ways to meet the critical shortage of teachers and the “Grow Our Own” recruitment program.

Senator English remarked that it was the first day of spring – the vernal equinox – on which the lengths of day and night were roughly equal, and reminded the members to smell the flowers along the way.

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:11 p.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator English and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 21, 2018.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

Wednesday, March 21, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:37 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Harimoto who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Fourth Day.

At this time, Senator Baker recognized volunteers from the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACS CAN), who were visiting the State Capitol to promote cancer awareness and policies that will help reduce the incidences of cancer in Hawai'i.

The Chair thanked the volunteers for their advocacy work, and referenced a newspaper article from earlier that week that cited a savings of over a billion dollars in healthcare costs for the State of Hawai'i due to such efforts.

Senator Rhoads extended an additional welcome to Devon Ayagi, a volunteer with the ACS CAN who used to work in Senator Rhoads's office.

Senator Chang introduced Julianne Chu, Miss Hawai'i USA 2018, who hails from Niu Valley and was visiting the State Capitol in support of Education Week. Senator Chang noted that Miss Chu is a second grade teacher at Kahala Elementary School, from which Senator Chang had graduated back in 1994.

Senator Kahele noted that it was Hawai'i Aerospace and Aviation Day at the State Capitol, and introduced Melissa McCaffrey of the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association, Stacy Howard of the National Business Aviation Association, and Ross Garelick of the Aerospace States Association – Hawai'i chapter, all of whom were present in the gallery.

Senator Espero welcomed representatives from HawaiiKidsCAN, a nonprofit organization dedicated to education and making certain that every child in Hawai'i has the opportunity to succeed, who were visiting the State Capitol to discuss the importance of computer science. Present in the gallery were executive director David Miyashiro; Redwan Chowdhury, Edward Flores, and Aryn Dyer, students from the James Campbell High School computer science program; Alyssa Knight, a teacher at DevLeague; Henry Longburg; and Kekoa McClellan.

Senator Kidani rose and stated:

“Our guests this morning include two high school teams of super-science achievers. Each has excelled in top-level competitions: in one case, winning top honors against other finalists in an international forum, and, in the other, making a return performance to a premier national contest. To introduce our first honorees: Senator Riviere.”

Senator Riviere congratulated the Waialua High School Robotics Team, Team 359, and presented the following remarks:

“It gives me great pleasure to introduce to those gathered here today and to talk about the Waialua robotics program. They're known as Team 359; they're known as the Hawaiian Kids. They're the first robotics program in the State of Hawai'i, and they have achieved so many victories and accomplishments that we could go on all day about that. But, most recently, they've come from Montreal. We talked about an international competition; I don't know about you folks, but when you meet somebody who travels a lot, you say, 'Where are you going now?' Well, these guys are off to Japan this week; they're off to Montreal last month; they're off to, you know, Kansas coming up later. They're always traveling; they're always working; they're always earning their funds to travel; they're working on their projects. This project, if you don't understand robotics: There's a day when the game is revealed nationally, and these kids get up at four in the morning or three in the morning or some godawful hour because they're going to announce globally the competition, and they're there and they don't stop – these kids go all day; they go all night. Many of them are in other programs, but their hearts are with the robotics program. When you go to the Waialua robotics classroom, the staging area, it's like walking into Yankee Stadium and seeing all the Yankees banners or walking into Boston Garden and seeing all the Celtics banners. These guys come home with awards that you can't believe.

“And it's a great privilege of mine to be from the same community as these guys – Waialua – because if you talk to anybody globally, they say, 'Oh, yeah, we have a robotics team.' You say, 'Well, I'm from Waialua,' and they always go, 'Oh, I see. Yeah.' So they recognize that name. So the small town that we are – the sugar mill closed in 1996. Glenn Lee came along and took up the challenge to start robotics and the STEMs – all the stuff we talk about STEM now was originated partly through the robotics efforts and that brought back a vitality to Waialua. When the sugar mill closed, people were leaving town; there was no future; things were happening; there was a great funk in our community, but now we have these guys as a great example of the pride that they bring to us every day. Glenn Lee just got back from Dubai: He was honored as one of the top 10 finalists in the world – there's 30,000 applications to be the global teacher; the prize was $1 million. He's one of the top 10 finalists. They flew him to Dubai, and he just got back a couple days ago or last night. So he's driving the program; he's a former Milken Educator Award winner in 2011. With him today is Vicky Pescaia – and I'm going to introduce them all in just a moment – and three representatives of the team. But I want to encourage everybody to go to the FIRST Robotics Hawai'i regional tournament at the Stan Sheriff Center. It's warming up today but the competitions begin Friday morning. If you haven't been to one of these things, it is a spectacle. It is fun; the competition is intense, and what's most amazing is, as competitive as they are, they have to work in conjunction with other teams. So, although Waialua comes home with banners fairly regularly, they have to do it with an alliance of two other teams, so there's three teams who come together to compete in the end, to make it happen.

“So, we're here to honor this year's team; we have three representatives of the team. Abraham Shell, Anthony Miyataki, and Toshio Yoshizumi: these are the three guys who are more or less the captains or some of the leaders of the team. And next to them is Vicky Pescaia – she's a teacher who helps immensely – and, of course, their leader, Glenn Lee. Ladies and gentlemen, Waialua robotics.”

Senator Dela Cruz recognized the Leilehua High School CyberPatriot Team, and presented the following remarks:

“I also want to congratulate Waialua High School. Even though we've honored them, Glenn Lee's a proud graduate of Leilehua High School.

“Mr. President and colleagues, the Leilehua High School CyberPatriot team was named the U.S. Army All Service Team in the Nation for 2017. CyberPatriot is the nation's premier high school cyber defense competition that challenges teams to develop solutions to real-life cybersecurity situations. The National Cyber Defense Competition has over 4,000 teams registered and more than 1,500 teams in the All Service Division representing all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Canada, the U.S. Department of Defense Dependent Schools in Europe and the Pacific, as well as other teams abroad. The teams advance through extremely competitive qualifying rounds to earn the distinction of being one of the 13 final teams in the CyberPatriot National Finalist field. The Leilehua High School Army JROTC team has previously won two consecutive Army Service Championships in 2012 and 2013, making this their third win in addition to the three consecutive Hawai'i State CyberPatriot championships. This year, the Leilehua CyberPatriot team has again won the Hawai'i State championship and advanced to the national finals in April in Baltimore, Maryland. Here with us today, we have Lieutenant Colonel Nicholas Spiridigliozzi and team members Cadet Jacob Huerta, Cadet Tyler McWilliams, and Cadet Jarod Olive-Stalling. I'd also like to recognize, in the gallery, First Sergeant and Mrs. Jacob Huerta, Cadet Jacob Huerta's parents. Congratulations, and go Mules!"

Senator Dela Cruz then honored the 2017 Outstanding Educator, and presented the following remarks:

"Today, we'd also like to recognize Colette Miyamoto-Kajiwara. She was named in 2017 the Outstanding Educator by corporate sponsors Spectrum and Hawai'i Pizza Hut. Colette is the director of the alternate learning center Storefront School in Wahiawā, where she has engaged at-risk students for more than 30 years. In fact, when I was in high school, I used to work for her. (She looks the same; it's the Wahiawā water.) Storefront is totally dedicated to motivating students from central O'ahu who face challenges at home or in the classroom, giving students the encouragement and motivation to make good decisions and to overcome and succeed. Storefront's curriculum focuses on language arts, math, social studies, science, and electives. Some of us may wonder, where do some of these students go when they get suspended or when they get kicked out? And Colette is always there to make sure that they can continue their education. In Colette's own words, 'We become the students' friends, confidants, advisors, disciplinarians, and surrogate parents, and help rebuild lives. We teach our students that they need to be resilient to move forward because backward is not an option if they want to survive.' Let's give her another round of applause. Joining Colette, we also have her proud husband, Glen Kajiwara. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kidani rose and stated:

"As with the Teachers of the Year yesterday, a challenge is in recognizing just a few when so many deserve to be honored. As an example, just a few days after we invited our guests for the week, we learned that the Moanalua High School Symphony Orchestra won first place in a national music festival competition in Atlanta. We congratulate them for this achievement, and we expect that before the school year ends in a few weeks, we will hear of other such accomplishments by other exceptional students and the teachers, advisors, coaches, and counselors who mentor them. As chair of your Committee on Education, I have been privileged to visit so many of our public schools, where wonderful, wonderful things are happening – where principals, teachers, and students are doing exceptional things and making us proud. We will share more stories of excellence tomorrow."

Senator Kidani then recognized the following early education advocates, who were seated in the gallery: Deborah Zysman and Michael Fahey from Hawaii Children's Action Network; Kim Guieb from University of Hawai'i P-20; Kathy Murphy from the Hawai'i Association for the Education of Young Children; Jordana Ferreira from PATCH – People Attentive to Children; Kerrie Urosvich and Doug Imig from Early Childhood Action Strategy; Caroline Soga and Lori Tagami from the Hawai'i State Public Charter School Commission; and Lauren Moriguchi and Wimmie Wong Lui from the Executive Office on Early Learning.

Senator Kidani also introduced several University of Hawai'i College of Education graduates who volunteer to host teacher candidates in their own classrooms to provide mentoring support: Susan Nakama, a mentor teacher at Kalei'opu'u Elementary in Village Park who holds a master's degree in education curriculum and instruction; Ben Boltz, a mentor teacher at Waipahu High School who holds a master's degree in teaching; and Joni Wong, a mentor teacher at Pearl Harbor Elementary who holds a master's degree in special education.

At 11:56 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:06 p.m.

Senator Kidani then honored and recognized the Prudential Spirit of Community Award recipients, and presented the following remarks:

"This morning, we welcome exceptional middle- and high-school students who are recognized for their outstanding school and community service. They were selected for the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards for the State of Hawai'i – the largest such youth recognition program in the U.S. The awards are sponsored by Prudential Financial in a partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Since 1995, the program has honored more than 120,000 youth volunteers at the local, state, and national level. The stories of our honorees demonstrate an uncommon commitment to service to others that is truly inspirational. To begin our introductions: Senator Espero."

Senator Espero presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President and guests, I'd like to first introduce Ms. Mahealani Sims-Tulba, this year's Prudential Spirit of Community Awards winner. This nationwide program is the largest youth recognition award system based on volunteer community service. In 1995, the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards was created in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals to pay homage to students in grades 5 through 12 for their service to others nationally, statewide, and locally. The goal of the program is to applaud young people already making a positive impact in their communities and also to embolden others to consider how they may enrich their neighborhoods.

"Mahealani Sims-Tulba is a senior at Sacred Hearts Academy. She is known by many for the book she authored on bullying titled It's Okay to Be Different. She uses the book to connect with and encourage other young people – many who might be facing bullying. Much of her community service involves reading and talking to elementary-, intermediate-, and high-school students at schools and libraries, where she freely gives copies of her book along with her silicone bracelets.

"Mahealani also established a nonprofit foundation to disseminate the problem of bullying to students throughout Hawai'i. Her B.R.A.V.E. campaign, 'Be Respectful and Value Everyone' – words we should all live by – includes a music video that she created, a weekly television program appearance, an annual toy drive for children in need, and participation in innumerable community events. Mahealani's B.R.A.V.E. campaign has touched more than 40,000 students across Hawai'i. I look forward to the bright future that lies ahead for Mahealani and her continued dedication to bettering our state and its people. Congratulations, Mahealani. And, in the audience, if I may: residents of 'Ewa Beach, her parents, Mr. Augie T. and his wife, Kim."

Senator Tokuda presented the following remarks:

"It is my honor to acknowledge Grace Kennedy, who unfortunately could not be here today but is the recipient of the 2018 Prudential Spirit of Community Award as one of Hawai'i's top youth volunteers. Grace is an eighth-grade student at St. Anthony School in Kailua, Hawai'i, who has raised thousands of dollars to benefit sick and abused children in Hawai'i since joining Kidz For A Cause as a board member. She began her volunteerism at an early age by selling tickets to a benefit theater show and raising $1,000 to help purchase clothes, toys, and school books for children at the Children's Justice Center on O'ahu. She then recruited her friends to help organize a celebrity chef dinner for 100 people, raising more than $6,000 to expand a local hospital's neonatal intensive care unit. She will receive a well-deserved thousand-dollar cash reward and engraved silver medallion and a trip to Washington, DC, from April 28 through May 1, 2018, to meet top youth volunteers from around the world. It is with great pleasure that I acknowledge Grace Kennedy, a 2018 Prudential Spirit of Community Award recipient. While she cannot be here today, let's give her a well-deserved round of applause."

Senator Rhoads presented the following remarks:

"It's my privilege and honor to introduce Justin Wong, the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards distinguished finalist. Justin is 18; he lives here in Honolulu; he's a senior at Roosevelt High School. He has worked with other young members of the Center for Tomorrow's Leaders to reduce political polarization among his peer group by creating public dinner discussions and starting discussions online. An avid volunteer with 400 service hours to his credit, Justin has served two terms as president of his school's Leo Club and has participated in beach cleanups, pet walks, and other volunteer activities. Thank you very much; thank you for your service, and can we give him another round of applause? Joining him today in the gallery are his parents, Karen Wong and Guokan Huang. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kidani presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, I am super pleased to introduce Emily Smith. Emily is a 15-year-old sophomore at Ho'ala School in Wahiawā, and I note with pride that she and her family reside in my district in Mililani (for which she gets extra points). Emily is also involved in a cause that is near and dear to my heart: She is founder of a pet-rescue organization she calls Lend-A-Paw. Through manufacture of dog treats and pet toys, and support of charity fundraising efforts, Lend-A-Paw aims to ensure that shelter animals are able to live in a safe environment and are well-fed. As might be expected, Emily uses social media to spread the word, through a website, a YouTube channel, and presentations in schools and elsewhere in her community. Well done, Emily – thank you for your commitment to this wonderful cause. And I'd also like to acknowledge her mother, who's in the gallery: Noriko Lancaster.

"I also would like to recognize the representative from Prudential who has been accompanying these students around their visit to the Capitol today – Gerri Marks, Prudential vice president for government affairs. Gerri, thank you so much for bringing the students and helping them with their scholarships. I hope that you'll continue to bring students to us each year to recognize for their very, very wonderful work in the community; thank you."

Senator Kidani then recognized Bianca Yanuaria for being selected as the 2018 Hawai'i School Counselor of the Year, and presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President, during National School Counseling week in early February, Sylvia Koch – a longtime counselor at Kipapa Elementary School in my Senate district – wrote a thoughtful essay about the importance of school counselors in our public schools. Sylvia is president of the Hawaii School Counselor Association. In discussing the importance of school counselors in the education process, she writes that they take an active and sometimes critical role in helping students cope with difficult situations, and teach them strategies to deal with the conflicts that confront them. The 600-plus Hawai'i public- and private-school counselors work behind the scenes, she says, as they support their school faculty and teach students character education, violence prevention, career planning, and much more.

"Each year, the association selects a Hawai'i School Counselor of the Year, who participates in national events. Our guest this morning had the honor of meeting with former First Lady Michelle Obama when she was in Washington, DC, in February. We are so pleased that she can be with us. Here to introduce her is Senator Thielen."

Senator Thielen presented the following remarks:

"Thank you, Mr. President, and thank you, Senator Kidani, for that introduction, which recognizes the magnitude of this award and the importance of school counselors. Colleagues, I'm very proud today to introduce Bianca Yanuaria. As Senator Kidani mentioned, the Hawai'i School Counselor of the Year award is a very competitive competition with over 600 – both public and private – school counselors to choose from. School counselors have a great impact on so many of our keiki: They help students cope with life lessons outside of classroom content and help develop the whole child. Bianca is a spectacular counselor. She has made a huge and positive impact at Keolu Elementary, earning herself this national recognition. In just four years at Keolu Elementary, Bianca was able to accomplish significant initiatives, including creating a recess program to deal with conflict resolution on the playground. She reduced chronic absenteeism by 11 percent, and she helped start the Aloha Committee to build relationships among faculty. It's clear that Bianca fully embraces her role and has found her calling, for which we are very grateful. She was quoted as saying, 'It's humbling to be recognized for doing what I'm passionate about.' Colleagues, we all recognize that in today's world, when there's so many traumas going on at high schools because students are feeling isolated and alone, the importance of counseling. Especially in our elementary schools, so students can gain these conflict resolutions and other ways to channel their emotions into positive outlooks so that we can have a safer and more robust Hawai'i. We greatly appreciate what you do. Thank you very much, Bianca, for encouraging our kids to keep going. It's apparent that you, yourself, have gone above and beyond to give these children the support that they need to thrive. The Senate recognizes your award and appreciates your contribution.

"I'd also like to recognize Bianca's family, and I know that they play a great deal in her role by providing support to her; they've come in today from Maui and also from Las Vegas. We have Bianca's husband, John Datiles; her father, Ben Yanuaria; her aunties Letty Tuazon and Jackie Yanuaria-Domingo; her cousin Chris Yanuaria; and, most importantly, her grandma Romana Yanuaria. Mahalo, Mr. President, and I would like to turn the microphone back to Senator Kidani."

Senator Kidani rose and stated:

"It is always a pleasure to be able to recognize excellence in our public schools. Colleagues, I urge you to take some time to visit your neighborhood campuses. You will be amazed at what you learn and by the people you meet. Stop by in the early morning to have school breakfast; drop in at one of the schools in Mililani that are next up in the Farm to School fresh and fabulous lunch program. Talk with teachers and principals and counselors and students. You will know from these experiences why it is critical that we fully fund public education: to build Hawai'i's future.

"Colleagues, Mr. President, thank you so much for this week, helping to honor all the wonderful people and the wonderful things that make us proud of our public schools. Thank you for your participation in this week's presentations. Mahalo."

The Chair praised the excitement and enthusiasm of Bianca Yanuaria's grandmother and other family members, as they proudly waved and smiled to her from the gallery to celebrate her achievements.

At 11:58 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:07 p.m.

Senator Kidani commended Sheri Rolf, Hawaii Foodbank food drive coordinator, and presented the following remarks:

"As you know, colleagues, from time to time, we get involved in discussions about 'food security.' Often these discussions are in terms of assuring an adequate food supply for island residents by encouraging local agricultural enterprises and food processing plants and so forth. Those are 'big picture' issues. For 20 percent of the state's residents – that's one out of every five people who live in Hawai'i – food security is much more narrowly focused. Think, 'Where is my next meal coming from?'. Think, 'How am I going to feed my family this week?'. More than 120,000 households now receive food assistance in some form through the Hawaii Foodbank and a network of food pantries, soup kitchens, rehabilitation centers, homeless and domestic abuse shelters, and other venues and programs. Sustaining this effort requires tremendous focus and hard work by a corps of dedicated volunteers. There is no one more focused and hard-working than our honoree this morning, Sheri Rolf – director of the Hawaii Foodbank Annual Food Drive for the past 29 years.

"Sheri and her volunteers kicked off the 2018 Food Drive in late January. Momentum builds each year through the spring, and culminates this year on April 21, when hundreds of people will be out all day, island-wide, to collect food and monetary donations. Thousands will contribute and everyone celebrates. However, the work goes on, as the need does not diminish. Success is assured because of people like Sheri Rolf, who readily declares, 'I feel lucky to have the privilege of serving in this position, as it is the best volunteer job ever. We just want to provide hope for tomorrow.' Mahalo, Sheri, for all of your hard work for nearly three decades with Hawaii Foodbank. We have asked all senators to bring something with them this morning so that you don't leave empty-handed.

"I would also like to introduce Sheri's guests in the gallery this morning, starting with her husband, Dave Rolf; also Malcolm Inamine, interim president and CEO of Hawaii Foodbank; and the rest of the Hawaii Foodbank staff. Thank you. Mahalo."

At 11:53 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:03 p.m.

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

Tuesday, March 27, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:35 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Seventh Day.

At this time, Senator Kidani congratulated Melveen Ku'uleipuanani Leed on receiving a lifetime achievement award from the Pan-Pacific and Southeast Asia Women's Association, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, it is my distinct honor to introduce our guest this morning, the legendary Melveen Leed. Perhaps I should say that she needs no introduction – first, because she has already been introduced. But, second, because she is one of those people who, when you say 'Melveen,' her name is instantly recognizable. Melveen received a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Pan-Pacific and Southeast Asia Women's Association at a banquet at the Convention Center on Saturday night. She is only the second recipient from Hawai'i in the organization's 90-year history of service in the Pacific.

"It's not the first time our guest has been recognized for her life's work: In 2005, the Hawai'i Academy of Recording Arts presented their award to her. It was just one of many times the academy has honored her – she's received nearly a dozen Nā Hōkū Hanohano Awards and was named Female Vocalist of the Year in five different years. She has recorded 28 albums in 18 different languages and, last year, she was inducted into the prestigious Hawaiian Music Hall of Fame.

"Melveen's talents have taken her around the world – Las Vegas and other U.S. venues, including the Grand Ole Opry; Russia; Europe; Hong Kong; Japan; and many more – and her versatility has shown as she expanded her repertoire to include country, gospel, Latin, pop, reggae, folk, blues, and jazz, but never straying too far from her Hawaiian music roots. Along the way, she scored roles in the original Hawaii Five-O, became an entertainment entrepreneur with the formation of Melco Hawaii in 1985, and took up jewelry design. And you might be interested to know that her current business card says: Melveen Leed, Vocalist, Sketch Artist. She has done it all. Mr. President and colleagues, it is an honor to welcome Melveen Leed to the Capitol as an artist in the truest sense of the word. Mahalo, Melveen, for your many years of pure and joyful celebration of our islands.

"Mr. President, several guests are in the gallery this morning to join in this event: Melveen's husband, Mike Reyes; Melveen's daughter, Kaula Sempio; her cousin Leilani; another Mililani resident, Kumu Hula Iwalani Tseu; vocalist and staffer in the House of Representatives, Ms. Marlene Sai; and my guest, Dr. Belinda Aquino – she got to know Melveen recently and wrote a wonderful article about her in a recent issue of the Filipino Chronicle. Also with us this morning are friends Wendy Low and Mary Keegan, president of the Pan-Pacific and Southeast Asia Women's Association – it was her organization that honored Melveen at the Convention Center this past Saturday night; also from the association, Daniel Sataraka. And I'm sorry if I missed any of the other guests, but thank you all for joining us to honor Melveen. Mahalo."

Senator Kim rose and stated:

"We all know what a wonderful, gifted artist Melveen is, but there are some things that I don't know that everybody knows about her, and I just wanted to highlight that. When she entertained, she would call the hospital and find a terminal patient, and she would actually call that patient when she had her show, and then she would go and visit. I mean, this just shows the kind of caring and personal touch that Melveen believes in and that she reaches beyond to help people, and that just shows her heart, and I think that's something that I want everybody to know about. Also, that she has a prayer rock garden, and she has names of people on the rocks that she prays for on a regular basis. And I think that is just so, so special of you, Melveen, to take the time from your busy schedule to share all of your talents with everyone, so we thank you for all that you've done for the people of Hawai'i. Mahalo."

Senator Galuteria rose and stated:

"I ask that you instruct the Clerk to enter the remarks of the genteladies from Mililani and Kalihi into the Journal as if they were my own." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.) "And I'd like to add just two more words of affection – what's missing here is actually what we call you: Da Tita. So if we could please put that in the Journal where appropriate. Mahalo, Tita! Good to see you! Thank you, Mr. President."

At 11:42 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:52 a.m.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

Wednesday, March 28, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:38 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Harimoto who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Eighth Day.

At this time, Senator Rhoads welcomed a group of constituents from Nu'uano, Pu'unui, and Liliha who were touring the State Capitol that morning. The group consisted of Tom Wong, Frank Skrizanek, Bobby Kakuda, Sharon Ikeda, Rudiger Ruckmann, Benjamin Bruch, Wallace Shirai, David Kochi, Stephen Lerman, Peter Bowman, Janet Chin, Prescott Yamanaka, Winston Yamanaka, David Patrick, Cora Yamamoto, Colin Smith, Pat Murphy, Wini Hui, Winnie Pang, Patricia Brown, Xueyou Su, Liufang Ai, Mei Farman, Han Sun Kim, Kang Sik Park, Myrna Sato, Carol Takehara, Cynthia Kan, Henry Renteria, Lillian Inatsuka, Cathy Miyamoto, Sean Witwer, Mel Won, Donald Guerrero, Owen Osumi, Jay Domanguera, and Magdalena Domanguera.

Senator Shimabukuro introduced State Representative Cedric Asuega Gates, who was present in the gallery with Auntie Sweetie from O'ahu's Westside.

Senator Shimabukuro then congratulated Kahumana for its outstanding contributions to the community, and presented the following remarks:

"Alternative Structures International is better known as Kahumana. They are located in the beautiful Lualualei ahupua'a of Wai'anae, where it just celebrated its fortieth birthday this year. Through the state's Homeless Programs Office, Kahumana is now the largest provider of homes and jobs for homeless families on O'ahu, serving over 1,000 homeless keiki and their parents and kūpuna each year. Through their jobs program, in the last year, Kahumana placed 155 previously unemployed and homeless people in permanent jobs. Clients were placed in Aulani Resort and other hotels; Monkeypod and other restaurants; Longs Drugs and other retail establishments, such as Walmart and Home Depot. Through the state's Developmental Disabilities Division, Kahumana is a provider of services to the growing population of people with developmental disabilities and autism through its Leeward and Windward learning centers.

"For 10 years, Kahumana has been making 1,200 local healthy lunches a day in their Kahumana training kitchen, featuring produce from the Kahumana Organic Farm, and delivering them to over 35 locations. Kahumana is losing their lease on their current training kitchen and is seeking to build a new one that will train 50 homeless, unemployed, or disabled people per year. The new kitchen will make double the number of healthy lunches per day and deliver them to homeless shelters, to Head Start and other daycare, preschool programs, elementary schools, and the YMCA.

"Colleagues, 40 percent of O'ahu's homeless families live in Wai'anae. All of them live with extremely low income, and 35 percent are unemployed. These families often do not qualify for long-term permanent housing subsidies; Section 8 and public housing are not available for most of these families as well. Therefore, Kahumana is focusing on its mission to increase income through work. They have a community-based approach that's been successful for 40 years in Wai'anae, and now they're taking their unique and holistic approach to other communities throughout the state.

"Representing Kahumana today are one of its founders, Father Phil Harmon, and CEO Tom McDonald. And also, in the gallery, we have Audrey Enseki-Tom, the project coordinator. Thank you very much."

Senator Shimabukuro then recognized and honored Puamakamae DeSoto, and presented the following remarks:

"The Buffalo Big Board Surfing Classic, regarded as the waterman Olympics of the world, was founded in 1976 by Mākaha waterman Buffalo Keaulana and boasts the largest variety of surf disciplines in any one contest. In the 2018 Buffalo Big Board Surfing Classic, Puamakamae DeSoto achieved the Waterwoman of the Year honor – the highest female honor – with the highest overall combined score of any female in the event. More impressively, Puamakamae, at age 12, is the youngest person in history to receive this honor. The Buffalo Big Board Surfing Classic hosted 13 events, from the traditional finless alaia shortboard to the newly innovated 16-foot-long, 8-foot-wide SUPsquatch. These were two of the seven disciplines in which Puamakamae competed. The other five include the traditional paipo, women's open longboard, tandem surfing, team stand-up paddle surfing, and tandem bullyboard.

"Aside from being an outstanding athlete, Puamakamae is an honor roll student at 'Iolani School and a proud product of Hawaiian language immersion education through the sixth grade. Puamakamae is also a published poet and photographer. Her carefree style and rigor in the ocean attribute to a legacy Mākaha waterwoman, including Pua Mokuau and Rell Sunn. As motivated and busy as Puamakamae is, she still finds time to volunteer every month at Nā Kama Kai's ocean clinics, sharing her aloha and knowledge of the ocean with the youth of Hawai'i. Her achievements and contributions to ocean culture and the community inspire and remind us how the ocean empowers our youth.

"I want to give a special thanks to Senator Donovan Dela Cruz and his staff for coordinating this floor presentation.

"The Senate of the State of Hawai'i congratulates and honors Puamakamae on being named the 2018 Buffalo Big Board Surfing Classic Waterwoman of the Year. She is accompanied today by her very proud parents, Mālia Ka'aihue and Duane DeSoto. And in the gallery, we've got grandparents Pamela and Abraham Kapana Jr.; Cathy DeSoto; sisters Honua and Keānuenuue DeSoto; and auntie Pua Ka'aihue; and anyone else for the DeSotos."

At 11:45 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:54 a.m.

FORTIETH DAY

Thursday, March 29, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:36 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Ninth Day.

Senator Rhoads requested that the names of visiting constituents introduced the previous day be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, the names of the constituents were entered into the Journal of the Thirty-Ninth Day.

Senator Gabbard noted that it was the first Annual Vietnam War Veterans Day, and recognized a number of guests who were present in the gallery, including: veterans from all branches of the military who served from 1955 to 1975; Gold Star families and families of service members who were still missing in action; and members of the Fiftieth Commemoration of the Anniversary of the Vietnam War State Planning Committee, chaired by Colonel Jean Castagnetti, who volunteered their services for over three years to organize events welcoming home veterans such as creating the book, A Time To Honor – Hawai'i Edition: Stories of Service, Duty, and Sacrifice from the Vietnam War, and holding a recognition dinner, a concert, a parade, a joint ceremony at Punchbowl, and corresponding events on Molokai, Kaua'i, Lāna'i, Maui, and Hawai'i island.

Senator Ihara welcomed a group of fifth-grade students from King Liholiho Elementary School, who were present in the gallery with their teachers, Lynn Sakata and Fred Magnenat.

Senator Thielen introduced Jessie Garbeil, a student at Mid-Pacific Institute who had been serving as an intern in her office during spring break. Ms. Garbeil was seated in the gallery with Eliza Wilcox, Senator Thielen's legislative assistant.

Senator Baker recognized State Representative Della Au Bellati, co-convenor of the Women's Legislative Caucus and Majority Leader of the House of Representatives.

Senator Taniguchi extended an additional welcome to Ron Lockwood, an active member of the McCully-Mō'ili'ili Neighborhood Board for many years, who was seated in the gallery among the group of veterans.

Senator English acknowledged the presence of the Honorable Mark E. Recktenwald, Chief Justice, Supreme Court, State of Hawai'i, in the gallery.

Senator Kim acknowledged Mike Lilly, former Attorney General of the State of Hawai'i.

Senator Shimabukuro welcomed her constituents, DeMont Conner and Rachel Kailianu, who were seated in the gallery.

Senator Ihara congratulated the Hawai'i State Ethics Commission on 50 years of promoting ethics and integrity in state government, and presented the following remarks:

"Mr. President and colleagues, 50 years ago, in January 1968, Governor John Burns swore into office the first state ethics commissioners in the United States. That was in 1968. In 1967, the bill that established the States Ethics Commission passed without fanfare – not much floor debate. And the commission worked very hard in its first few years: They issued over 1,350 formal and informal opinions on ethics issues, many of which are effective today. (They're those many bound volumes of opinions that some of you may have.) Hawai'i was also a national leader after the 1970s Watergate scandal, helping to form what's known today as COGEL – I generally go to that conference – the Council on Governmental Ethics Laws. It's a national good-government agency organization.

"Ethics commissioners volunteer hundreds of hours to safeguard the public trust by promoting, educating, and enforcing the highest standards of ethical conduct. In addition, good-government groups and activists and the media have aided in the cause of ethical governance in Hawai'i. Mr. President, I have the honor of introducing Hawai'i's ethics commissioners and others. First, commission chair Rey Graulty. Thank you, Rey. Senator Graulty, as we sometimes like to call him, is a former good-government legislator; he chaired the Senate Judiciary committee a couple decades ago – I believe your desk was on this side – and has also served as the state insurance commissioner, a circuit court judge, and ethics professor at Chaminade University. Next, vice chair Ruth Tschumy. Ruth is vice chair of the commission; she's a retired teacher, author, and member of many nonprofit boards and serves as a volunteer mediator with the Mediation Center of the Pacific. Next, welcome Melinda Wood. Melinda is an active community volunteer, former immigration specialist, and retired East-West Center grants specialist. We also have David O'Neal. David is general manager of Mililani Town Association. He previously worked in the healthcare industry and is active in the community. And the last commissioner is not able to join us: She is Susan DeGuzman; she's a 30-year employee who retired from the judiciary. So, thank you all for your volunteer service. Also joining us today is Ethics Commission executive director Dan Gluck. Before joining the Ethics Commission, Dan served 10 years with the American Civil Liberties Union, leaving as its legal director – a successful one, I believe. He's also clerked for Justice James Duffy and U.S. District Judge Michael Seabright, and has taught civil rights seminars at UH Richardson School of Law. Finally, Mr. President, we have someone who is the institutional memory for the commission, who's been with the commission as long as I've been here: Susan Yoza; she is the associate director since 1987.

"I also want to thank the special guests who've joined us in the gallery, some of whom have been recognized. The chief justice has been recognized. We also have the commission's hard-working staff: Nancy Neuffer, Virginia Chock, Bonita Chang, Kee Campbell, Patrick Lui, Christina Longman, Lynn Santiago, and Pat Mukai. Also, we have joining us another good-government agency, Campaign Spending Commission: I wanted to introduce Kristin Izumi-Nitao, executive director of the Campaign Spending Commission, as well as Tony Baldomero. And then, also, we have one of the early executive directors of the State Ethics Commission: I believe Gary Slovin is in the house today. Thank you. Now, I'd like to turn the floor over, Mr. President, to the senator from Kalihi."

Senator Kim rose and stated:

"I, too, want to join in with my colleague in congratulating and commending the men and women of the Ethics Commission for their service and their commitment to upholding the highest standards for conduct of public officials. You know, it's not often easy to deal with ethics and to have ethics legislation because it's not always black and white and, as lawmakers, we do follow a set of standards, and I believe we all make every effort to uphold those standards with the highest regard. However, there's often misconceptions; there are many gray areas, and much of this has caused a loss of confidence, sometimes, with the public and the people that we serve. It leads people to feel disconnected from government, and that's why it's so important that we do have transparency and accountability in our democracy and here, in the Legislature. These values help to strengthen and validate the democratic process, and our ethics code is instrumental in upholding these values of transparency and accountability and to maintain the public's trust and reaffirm the importance of honesty and integrity in our conduct. And in this regard, the Ethics Commission and their staff, past and present, have provided the leadership that gives the public confidence in their institution and those we serve.

"I also want to shout out to Senator Graulty; he and I were elected in 1982 to the House of Representatives, served there, and supported him as he became a senator here on this floor. So, Representative Graulty, it's good to see you; it's good to see that your family's doing well. So, Mr. President, thank you very much."

Senator Nishihara acknowledged the presence of the Honorable John Waihee III, former Governor of the State of Hawai'i, in the gallery.

Senator Galuteria acknowledged the presence of former State Representative Blake Oshiro in the gallery.

At 11:51 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:58 a.m.

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3252 (Gov. Msg. No. 638):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3252 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Rhoads and carried.

Senator Taniguchi then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of RUSSELL A. SUZUKI as Attorney General of the State of Hawai'i, term to expire at noon on December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Taniguchi rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Russell Suzuki received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa and his doctorate of jurisprudence from Ohio State University. He currently serves as acting attorney general and, previous to that, has served as first deputy attorney general under attorneys general Douglas Chin, David Louie, and Mark Bennett. He has practiced as a public-sector attorney at the Department of the Attorney General for the past 36 years. Prior to his service at the Department of the Attorney General, he practiced criminal defense law, family law, business law, and military law at the Law Offices of Yoshiro Nakamura, who was my mentor when I first got into the Legislature in 1981. We received testimony submitted in strong support of Mr. Suzuki's nomination. Many testifiers observed that Mr. Suzuki's seasoned judgment, extensive knowledge, and professional demeanor will continue to be great assets to the Department of the Attorney General. I would ask my colleagues to support Russell A. Suzuki's nomination to Attorney General for the State of Hawai'i. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Taniguchi introduced Attorney General Russell Suzuki, who was present in the gallery with his family, including his brother Stanley Suzuki; sisters Patricia and Deborah Suzuki; nephew Bryce Suzuki; aunt Hattie Hirata; cousin Linda Yanagihara and her daughter Alicia; cousin Susan Aoki; cousin Barbara Fukushima and her son Dennis Fukushima, Jr.; as well as staff members of the Department of the Attorney General.

THIRD READING

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3251 (H.B. No. 2739, H.D. 1):

Senator Taniguchi moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3251 be adopted and H.B. No. 2739, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

The Chair welcomed Senator Harimoto after his absence, and allowed him to address the members of the Senate from his seat, should he need to remain seated during his remarks.

Senator Harimoto rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"So, one year ago, I stood here to speak on a similar bill. I stand here once again today to speak in opposition to this bill. Last year, I spoke about my personal experience with pancreatic cancer, one of the most deadly forms of cancer, in which most people die within weeks or months of being diagnosed. I faced an almost certain near-term death, if not from complicated surgery with a high mortality rate, then from the aggressive cancer itself. My faith in God, prayers, and a sense of hope got me through this, and after a long and painful recovery, through eight months of chemo and radiation, I was in remission for the past year. It was nothing short of a miracle. Because of this personal experience, I feel so strongly that we must always have hope and never give up.

"This bill will likely pass by an overwhelming margin, so I would just like to share what's in my heart. While I respect all views and opinions, this is a highly personal, emotional, and polarizing issue with apparently no middle ground. People are so passionate on both sides. For me, I just cannot vote to create an environment of hopelessness and allow physicians to assist in causing death. Polls show that I am in the minority on this issue, but, as we learned from the last presidential election, polls are not necessarily reflective of the will of the people. They're only snapshots in time, and it depends on who you ask, what they understand about the issue, and what question you ask. I point to the first poll that a lobbyist showed me last year. It showed that 88 percent of the people supported assisted suicide. But consider the question that was asked: 'In the event I am diagnosed with a terminal illness, I want to be able to manage my own medication to lessen suffering and to preserve my dignity and be in control of my own pain as I see fit to bring about peaceful death.' If someone asked me this question, I would also say yes. Who would be against 'to lessen suffering,' 'preserve my dignity,' and 'peaceful death'? The question does not state that you would end your own life. And I wonder why supporters have used various names for this: physician-assisted suicide, aid in dying, death with dignity, compassionate choice, and now, this year, Our Choice. Euphemisms do not change what it is: It is physician-assisted suicide.

"There are so many concerns with this bill. These concerns have been well-documented in hundreds, perhaps thousands, of testimonies submitted in both House and Senate committees this year and last year. Concerns are raised by physicians, healthcare providers, individuals, as well as the faith community. Some concerns have not been fully addressed and may result in significant issues in the future. While some concerns may be deemed opinions, other concerns are based on facts.

“For example, Merriam-Webster’s dictionary defines suicide as ‘the act or an instance of taking one’s own life voluntarily and intentionally.’ The fact of the matter is that even if you have a terminal illness, willfully ingesting drugs to end one’s own life is the very definition of suicide. How can we change the meaning of a word so ending one’s own life is not suicide?”

“Another example is that this bill would require death certificates to state that the disease that the person has caused the death. If you end your own life, that is the very definition of suicide. This bill would require physicians to not truthfully state that the real cause of death, on a government document, is in fact suicide.

“A final example of fact is that suicide rates have been increasing and it is a concern of the public and government. Consider the following: A news account reported that, according to recent reports, the number of suicides among teens and adults is rising. The New York Times reported that suicide rate had reached a 30-year high. A report in 2011 stated that the number two happiest state is Hawai‘i, which comes in fifth for suicides. According to the Garden Island, in September 2017, ‘Kauai is suffering. A 2017 suicide epidemic is increasingly worrying police and service organizations with the death toll so far this year already nearly double the number reported in all of 2016 and far higher than any year since at least 2012.’ U.S. News & World Report in December 2017 reported the following: ‘Hawaii legislators are grappling with how to prevent suicides, the leading cause of fatal injuries in the state. The Honolulu Star-Advertiser reports one person dies every two days by suicide in Hawai‘i. The state Department of Health statistics show there was an average of 186 suicides a year from 2012 to 2016, compared to 120 in the early 2000s.’ It goes on to say that ‘the Prevent Suicide Hawaii Task Force presented a plan to reduce suicides in Hawaii by at least 25 percent by 2025.’ I find this bill to allow physician-assisted suicide to be contrary to the public policy goal of reducing the number of suicides. By legalizing physician-assisted suicide, what message are we sending to the people, especially impressionable youth? By the time we study the impact of this law, after enacted, it may be too late for far too many of our youth.

“Some people argue that I should leave my religion out of it. These people fail to understand that my faith forms the very foundation of who I am. It gives me my moral compass for right and wrong; it guides me to be transparent, to operate with honor and integrity; it gives me clarity to see through the fog and understand what I must do; it gives me the courage to stand alone, if necessary, for what I believe in; it gives me compassion toward others and the ability to love, respect, and forgive everyone; and it allows me to get through the toughest of challenges with deep faith and a sense of hope that shines its light brightly when there is darkness. Should I really be required to check my religion at the door? This is not even possible: My faith is the essence of who I am. The bigger public policy question we should be considering is this: What kind of society do we want for our children and our grandchildren? I want a society for them that is filled with faith, hope, and love, where life is regarded as precious and we have compassionate end-of-life options through good palliative and hospice care. We should not be creating laws to allow physicians to be complicit in causing death. Instead, we should be making laws to give people a sense of hope.

“And, finally, I’d like to share that I was not supposed to be here today. Last week, I was diagnosed with cancer in my lung, and I was scheduled to begin chemo yesterday, which meant that I would be out of commission for several days and I wouldn’t be here. But when I went to my chemo session yesterday, I was informed that my health insurance plan had not approved my chemo yet, so, Senator Baker, maybe I need to chat with you about that. My doctor’s staff worked to obtain approval while I waited all afternoon. Finally, at the end of the day, they said, ‘Hopefully tomorrow.’ So, after this session ends, I will hurry out to hopefully get my chemo treatment, but I thank God for giving me this unexpected opportunity to be here today to speak on this bill and to cast my ‘no’ vote.

“In closing, I pray that, should this bill become law, that we can all put our differences aside and come together to move Hawai‘i forward, toward a shared vision of the future for the sake of our children and our grandchildren. I leave you with these words that bring me so much comfort in regards to this bill and also for my second battle with cancer that I’m now facing: Jeremiah 29:11 says, ‘For I know the plans I have for you . . . plans to prosper you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.’ Thank you.”

Senator Green rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“Colleagues, please bear with me. I rise in support with very serious reservations. I give this brief set of comments with a great conflict in my heart, Mr. President. I am a physician and, as a physician, I’m sworn to do no harm. But one might harm a patient by not relieving their suffering. Thus, the true conflict: to stop suffering but to still do harm, or to do harm while ending someone’s life while ending that suffering? Without a doubt, this is the most complicated issue that we have ever had before us, so there’s no easy answer. However, if a patient with bone cancer comes to the hospital when I’m on duty, and they’ve gone through palliative care and chemotherapy, and they’ve had all the treatment they can, and they’ve seen a psychiatrist and they’re not depressed, but they still have severe pain, I see them as a human being, not as a doctor, and I can’t ignore that suffering. I can’t ignore that pain; I can’t look the other way.

“So I’ll vote in favor of this bill with deep reservations. This bill has flaws, colleagues, and it has important safeguards. Of all the bills, this is the one bill we shouldn’t still pass with flaws, we should not race to pass – we have 30 days left in this session. Though it may seem painful politically, we should still be debating this measure to get all of the solutions in place if we’re going to pass a bill of this magnitude.

“A couple of concerns: As noted by my dear colleague, a physician should never be asked to misrepresent a cause of death. It sets the most dangerous precedent. If I was asked to provide a prescription to end someone’s life, I would not misrepresent the cause of death. That would not be ethical. This bill should do more to ensure that we pursue hospice care and palliative care, and some of the champions of this bill have also championed those causes, and they should be commended for that. Finally, the healthcare providers who prescribe end-of-life medication should, in this bill, have been mandated to have formal training in palliative care or psychiatric care or both, because I, for instance, would not appropriately prescribe the end-of-life medications; I don’t have adequate training. I’ve been well-trained as a family doctor and as an emergency room doctor, but I would want a physician who had had that training to know best how to do this, if they were going to be asked to end someone’s life. That should be in the bill; that must be in the bill. Finally, provisions of this bill don’t help some of those who will still be suffering. My aunt had Lou Gehrig’s disease. I took care of her when I was a resident back home: I came on call one night as a second-year resident, and there she was, in the intensive care unit, unable to move, unable to speak. She was locked in; she couldn’t move; she would not have been able to avail herself of end-of-life, though she was suffering. The same can be said of someone who’s had a catastrophic stroke, has locked-in syndrome. I take care of some individuals who have been alive for 10 or 12 years; they can’t move anything except blink their eyes. If we had more time – though it might not please those who are opposed to physician-assisted suicide – those very individuals might really want to have the capacity to end their life because they're suffering so severely. But with a month still left on the clock, because lobbying has pushed us to a quick end of this bill, we don't have that capacity. People with severe MS also are not at the end of life; they're not addressed in this bill. They can't avail themselves if they need it. So there are flaws in the measure, and we often say no piece of legislation is perfect, but the one piece of legislation, respectfully, that must be perfect is this one, if we're going to pass it.

"So, you ask, why would I vote in favor of it? Well, at the end of the day, if we can mitigate the severe suffering of one individual that has failed palliative care, that has failed all of the care they can get to alleviate their depression, that has not been able to stop their suffering, and the families have been there for them to make sure we don't make a mistake as healthcare providers, then we should do all we can to stop their suffering. That's what we have to do for our loved ones, and I do personally pray that we don't make any mistakes and that we do alleviate suffering with the passage of this bill. But please do search your hearts: It would be better to make it perfect before we pass this bill. Thank you, colleagues."

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"This bill is all about freedom. Freedom to live one's life as we choose is the essence of this country's laws. The founders left their homes and friends in Europe, mostly fleeing from religion, seeking the freedom to live life without rules imposed by someone else's interpretation of religion. There are other examples of society evolving on what some would call religious issues. All of the following were once outlawed in our country based on interpretations of a Bible: working on Sundays; selling alcohol on Sunday; the right to marry if you're gay or divorced; the right to divorce; women's rights, including voting, freedom to control their own bodies; the right to vote for women and people of color; interracial marriage; the right to not be owned as a slave. All were laws based on someone's interpretation of religion. Did the Bible change or did society change? As Martin Luther King Jr. said, 'The arc of justice is long and it bends toward freedom.' Religions rightfully carry great respect in our society but must not dictate our laws. Why? Because interpretations differ and change over time and, most importantly, I may not interpret the Bible the same as others. I may read a different Bible; I may choose to not follow a Bible. That right is enshrined in our Constitution. Thus, our laws must be based on reason, society's ever-changing norms, and guided always by the principle that Americans desire and deserve freedom. Whenever one's freedom does not impinge on another's rights, that freedom is the essence of our laws. If you don't believe in it, don't do it, but there is no reason to deny to others the freedom to live – and to die – as we choose. Thank you."

Senator Rhoads requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Rhoads's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, in support of House Bill 2739, the medical aid in dying bill. I am pleased that after decades of debate on this sensitive issue, we are on the verge of enacting a bill that will allow those who wish to end their own lives because of a terminal illness to do so.

"When you are healthy and active, it is difficult to contemplate a time when you might not want to continue your life. Unfortunately, for many injury or illness can cause unbearable pain. If the prognosis is such that you know beyond a reasonable doubt that all that is left to you is suffering and unending trips to the hospital or the doctor, this bill gives you the option to end your life on your own terms.

"No one is required to take advantage of the provisions of HB 2739. Anyone who tries to force or trick someone into doing so commits a criminal act. No doctor or healthcare professional is forced to participate either. Utilizing HB 2739 is entirely voluntary. In addition, HB 2739 has more safeguards than any other bill in the country. Furthermore, if you ask for the prescription authorized under this bill, you can always change your mind and not use it.

"Last year I introduced Senate Bill 1129, which is very similar to HB 2739. It passed the Senate and stalled in the House. While I hope I never have to use this bill, I am proud to have played a significant role in finally getting a medical aid in dying passed after all these years.

"Mahalo."

Senator Riviere rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

"You've seen me get up here to speak when I feel passionate about an issue. It's easy when you know the answer; this one has been wearing me out. Everybody seems to have it easy: 'Oh, yeah, this is an easy question! Let somebody decide for themselves!' Other people come and say, 'No, I work in a cancer center, and the palliative care is there, and there's always a miracle; there's chemotherapy.' Great words from a great friend over here, who spoke about his personal journey. So I have, for the last two years, waffled back and forth. My wife advocates, you know, go for it, do it; it's there; the public seems to want it. But my inner compass, my heart, says we're crossing a very profound threshold here: Now we're supporting death one way or another.

"I think the bill was much worse last year because the provisions that were put in this year are a step in the right direction. As the senator from the Big Island mentioned, the death certificate is a problem. It's ridiculous that we're going to falsify the cause of death when we, this body, could probably pass legislation that says that insurance – if the real question about falsifying the death certificate is the insurance claims, I don't know why we can't pass a law that says anybody doing insurance in the state would have to honor this procedure. So why we don't do that, I don't know. So we say, 'Oh, we'll just say, for the dignity of the person ...' I think we can all accept and we're at the point where we are now a state-endorsed procedure. That's the other thing that's interesting: Why do we need to endorse it as the state? Why is it so relevant?

"But I think we are there; I think people understand it; people have the compassion for the dying and the people who are in pain and they want to end it. And I'm not opposed to that; I've never been opposed to that ultimate decision, but I have suffered with this decision on how we're going about implementing the program. The pills that are going to be distributed – 200 Seconal pills – they're going out, and we hope somebody brings them back in if they're not used. We hope that, at the time of consumption of this 'medicine,' that the person is still of sound mind and body and not being unduly influenced. We have cases that are terrible of elder abuse and chronic abuse of people that we're charged with taking care of, so I'm worried that we run the risk of potentially pushing somebody, encouraging somebody, 'Come on, end it,' you know, 'let's go, get it over with,' and I think we've seen that. People documented cases on the mainland where there have been nurses who thought it was their responsibility to end the suffering, and I'm not saying that's going to happen here, but these are the thoughts that I'm worried with.

"I have talked, again, with people on both sides of this and they both seem to know the answer, and I have tried diligently to come to what is the correct place. And we all know that this is a personal vote and you have to vote your conscience, but what does my conscience tell me? At this point, it appears that my conscience tells me that, okay, this bill is going forward; we're not making somebody do it, but, for the concerns I've just described, Mr. President, this has been the hardest single issue I've ever had to deal with, and I applaud the members for being respectful and deliberative in the process. But I think we can make more improvements on it next year, and I certainly hope we're not coming back next year, trying to strip away some of the protections. So, thank you, Mr. President, for allowing me to speak."

Senator Gabbard rose to speak in strong opposition to the measure as follows:

"Although the conversation about medical aid in dying has been going on in Hawai'i for over 20 years, I sincerely believe that it's premature to end that conversation now by passing the measure that's in front of us today. Much has been said about the so-called protections in the bill that will prevent abuse; however, I'd like to offer some points to consider as we make our decision on this legislation.

"Number one: Passing this legislation opens the door to normalizing other types of suicide, and appropriate safeguards aren't in place. You may know that the Netherlands was the first country to legalize euthanasia in 2002. They've now proposed extending euthanasia to old, healthy people who feel they have 'completed their lives.' Belgium also became the first country in 2014 to expand its euthanasia law by explicitly allowing it for children. Ponder that for a moment. And of course, our mind says, 'Oh, that could never happen in the U.S.!' The fact is, there are very real concerns for our kūpuna and the disabled, who may be made to feel that they're a burden on society and their family members because of the passage of this bill. Now, you might scoff and say that, well, that's not what's being proposed in the bill before us, which doesn't allow these things and has plenty of good safeguards against abuse. As we know, this bill we're considering is based on the Oregon model. However, in my research, I came across an alarming recent exchange between a Swedish citizen investigator and Mr. Craig New, a research analyst for the Oregon Health Authority, about their Death with Dignity Act. And what came out in their written correspondence is that Oregon's six-months-to-live terminal disease rule is interpreted as their life expectancy if the disease were allowed to take its course absent further treatment. And what this means is that these terminally ill patients can obtain the life-ending drugs even if their lives could be prolonged for years, or even cured, with proper medical treatment. The Oregon law also doesn't compel patients to exhaust all treatment options first or continue their current treatment. Additionally, if a doctor in Oregon suggests a treatment that would possibly prolong life or cure the patient and the health insurance company won't provide the coverage, then that person is still eligible for the lethal drugs. If H.B. 2739 passes, we would be doing the same here in Hawai'i. Additionally, there have been statements by the bill's advocates that there haven't been any cases of abuse, but in Oregon, keep in mind, they don't keep their medical records. And here in this bill, we have a clause on page 18 and 19, and I quote, 'Information collected pursuant to this section by the department shall not be disclosed, discoverable, or compelled to be produced in any civil, criminal, administrative, or other proceeding.' So the question is, how would the abuse ever come to light?

"Second, this bill will send mixed messages to our youth. A September 26, 2017 Star-Advertiser article entitled 'Suicide prevention training offered to Oahu students' pointed out that suicide was the leading cause of death among youth ages 10 to 19 in Hawai'i and efforts are being made to reduce suicide prevalence. So, the question is, why are we telling our youth that suicide is a respectable, government-sanctioned alternative? Queen's Health Systems pointed out in their testimony on this bill that their physicians are concerned with the 'social contagion effect.' They noted that a study published in the Southern Medical Journal found that legalizing physician-assisted suicide led to a 6.3 increase in total suicides relative to other states. The effect was larger in individuals over 65, with a 14.5 increase in suicides.

"Point number three: And then there's the death certificate – it's already been discussed. We teach our children to be honest and to tell the truth, and we're always talking about honesty and transparency in government, yet this bill doesn't tell the truth because on page 13, lines 12 and 13, it states that, and I quote, 'the death certificate shall list the terminal disease as the immediate cause of death.' The immediate cause of death. I'm sorry, I just don't get this. Obviously, the immediate cause of death is the life-ending drugs, so, to date, I have not heard a plausible explanation as to why this falsehood is able to stand in this legislation. Queen's Health Systems, in their testimony, said, in a very diplomatic way, and I quote, 'We do not support legislating physicians to complete the official death certificate in any way other than the most accurate manner.'

"And number four: It's all about choice. I've heard repeatedly that it's all about choice; people should have that choice. The reality is that people already have the choice. You may not recall, but last year, I told you about Louie, a constituent that I ran into at Costco who was angry that this issue was taking up so much time and energy. He had pancreatic cancer, stage 4, and he said no one was denying him the choice to end his life. He had already gone online, did the research, purchased the Seconal, and when it was time, his family was going to throw him a going-away party, and he was going to go into the bedroom, quietly take the drugs, and leave his body. So where's the denial of choice? Why are we insisting that government be involved in this deeply personal decision?

"And, finally, you may have noticed the half-page ad that was in the Star-Advertiser on March 21. It was paid for by the Hawai'i Physicians for Compassionate Care. A group of over 130 Hawai'i doctors signed their names. And the bold headline says, 'Shouldn't Doctors Have A Say?' The first subheadline:

Our Professional Obligation

As doctors, we tend to shy away from politics. However, when elected officials dictate how we should practice medicine, we feel compelled to respond.

And when the lives of our patients are at stake, it is our professional obligation and ethical responsibility to interject.

The second subheadline:

Rigorous Safeguards?

Legislators have told our patients that current physician-assisted suicide and its "rigorous safeguards will be the strongest of any state in the nation and will protect patients and their loved ones from any potential abuse." Based on our combined years of clinical and professional experience, we respectfully disagree.

And the last subheadline:

More Discussion Needed

Respected physicians pleaded with legislators last session to mandate education on hospice and palliative care for all physicians. Sadly, that request was not taken seriously. As licensed practicing physicians, we believe this matter requires more thoughtful discussion as well as a thorough legal analysis by attorneys.

“So I strongly agree with that last sentence: ‘As licensed practicing physicians, we believe this matter requires more thoughtful discussion as well as a thorough legal analysis by attorneys.’ Colleagues, I urge you to pause and consider the long-range implications and very real negative consequences of the passage of this bill, such as pharmaceutical companies jacking up prices of the pills, which has already happened, and the inability to prove wrongful death suits. For all these reasons, I ask you to join me in voting no or, at the very least, recommit this measure to JDC for further deliberation. Mahalo.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“Mr. President, this has been a struggle for me, and I think it’s up to the very minute that it’s a struggle. I voted for it straight in committee to come out. In 2002, this measure came up, and I struggled with it then. And while I supported it then, I felt the bill at the time did not have enough safeguards in it, and I voted no – one of three of us who voted no on the measure. The bill did not pass then, and maybe, in hindsight, it was right that it didn’t pass then, because there were not enough safeguards, and today, this bill has a lot more safeguards in it than it had at that time. But as pointed out, it’s not a perfect bill. We could do more, and I’m hoping that we do more. But in the meantime, people are suffering – we have seen our family members; we have been caregivers; we see our colleagues. It’s not an easy decision; it is a personal one for all of us. So I think, before you judge, people should have that right to decide. We’re not forcing anybody. While I voted no back then, I do vote yes today, with reservations, but it is ‘yes.’ Thank you.”

Senator Nishihara requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Nishihara’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President and members, I rise to speak in favor of H.B. 2739, H.D.1, the Our Care, Our Choice bill.

“This bill, as we all know, allows mentally competent residents who are at least 18 years old and have been given six months or less to live to request a life-ending prescription. Licensed physicians would prescribe medication to be self-administered by the patient. The requirements include submittal of two verbal requests within a minimum of 20 days apart and one written request to their attending physician for a prescription. The written request would have to be signed by two witnesses who can attest that the patient is of sound mind and is acting voluntarily. One of the witnesses cannot be a relative; the other cannot be one who stands to inherit anything upon the patient’s death. Two health care providers need to confirm a patient’s diagnosis, prognosis, competence, and that the request is voluntary. Before any medication is prescribed, a patient would need to receive mandatory counseling from a psychiatrist, psychologist, or clinical social worker. The bill further calls for criminal penalties for tampering with a patient’s prescription request or coercing a patient to request a prescription. Finally, the patient has the right to rescind a request at any time, regardless of their mental state.

“H.B. 2739 is thoughtful, carefully worded, and compassionate. Is it a perfect bill that all can agree on? The answer is no. There are some who would question the morality, religious ethics, physician’s oath to do no harm, safeguards, and even the removal of hope. Some say that this is a rush to judge and institute a law that on its face endorses suicide. The supporters of this bill – and there are many here and outside of this chamber – take issue with that. This is not an easily rendered decision for all of us. The issue of allowing individuals the right to control their end-of-life decisions requires all of us to step outside of our own biases and moral standards. We need to consider the patient’s decision to take the final and ultimately truly personal choice of how one lives and, at the end, how one’s life should end. Many of us will probably never have to walk that final path; illness and untimely death will see to that. Loved ones will mourn their passing. The phrase, ‘To finally be at peace,’ is expressed frequently and with the hope that it will bring comfort to the living. This bill allows the patient the choice to reach the finality of that peace. I ask my colleagues to vote in favor of this bill that offers a most important element of selecting and making that choice. Thank you.”

The Chair then remarked:

“Before calling the vote, I would briefly say to Senator Rhoads: Thank you very much for the homework you put in before session last year and the vehicle that the Senate moved to Senators Baker and Taniguchi, the committee chairs, who put in the work and the effort last year and took amendments from the testimony and put forward to the public a document, so that we could debate, discuss, and work to get to the bill that we would be comfortable in voting. I would like to acknowledge all of the work you put in last year that seems to have been left out of the conversation this year. And with all of those efforts, I think that it has helped get us to a better place with the bill we’re going to be voting on today, so thank you for your efforts. Thank you to your committee members, who assisted you, and, most importantly, thank you to the public, who has been engaged with us every step of the way on this issue.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3251 was adopted and H.B. No. 2739, H.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

FORTY-FIRST DAY

Monday, April 2, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:36 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Harimoto who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Fortieth Day.

At this time, Senator Galuteria introduced James Thomas Lee Labrie, who was present in the gallery with his foster mom, Eulalia Paz.

Senator Ihara welcomed a group of fourth-grade students from Ala Wai Elementary School, who were seated in the gallery with teacher Lori Kwee, skills trainer Marie Pagaragan, and parent chaperone Ricardo DeLacayo.

Senator Green recognized the following representatives from Hawaii Building Future Champions, a nonprofit organization that provides a football program for high-risk youth: chief executive officer and commissioner Pastor T; coach Pule Toloumu; coach Alefosio Iu; student athletes Melmolina Adtrik Piamon, Royce Wilms, Talitonu Alauni, Freddie Gregorio, Tony Matautia Jr., Mauga Tauiliili; board secretary Camille Rockett; Jay King; Clayton Tom; and board director and assistant commissioner Pastor Ava.

Senator Tokuda honored various Oroku Aza restaurant owners, and presented the following remarks:

“Good morning, colleagues. For almost a century, the honorees on the floor and in the gallery have been bringing Hawai'i's people together around food. They have been the go-to places to meet and eat, the comfort food all of our families have craved, the supermarkets that fill our refrigerators. But what most may not realize is that to understand how they came to be, you also have to know where they all came from. You know that saying, ‘It takes a village’? Well, the Uchinanchu who opened these establishments emigrated from Oroku, Okinawa. This project began when Columbia Inn closed in 2000 (my husband and I still crave a chopped steak, and we can hear the sizzling platter and smell it and definitely want one right now, I can tell you that much), and Gene Kaneshiro and Howard Takara, along with his daughter Holly, who was then the president of our Oroku Azajin Club, spearheaded the Hawaii Okinawan Restaurant Project. It has since documented the story of how Ushi Takara, who started American Café in 1923, took in dozens of Uchinanchu from Oroku under his wing, mentoring them and helping them to open their own restaurants. Overall, the project has identified over 325 restaurants in Hawai'i that were owned or being run by Uchinanchu, of them 75 from Oroku village. As a yonsei whose great-grandparents Kama and Moshi Kakazu also emigrated from Oroku and with relatives among the honorees here today, I am both humbled and grateful for the opportunity to recognize generations of businesses that have contributed to Hawai'i and still do today.”

Senator Tokuda then recognized the following honorees: Sidney Takara, grandson of Ushi Takara, who owned and operated American Café and was known as the “Father of Oroku Restaurants” for teaching, training, mentoring, and supporting many Oroku restaurant owners; Howard Takara, former board member of the Oroku Azajin Club and son of Yuki Takara, who owned Harriet's Saimin and Yuki's Café; Howard Takara's wife, Jane; Ethel Teruya, wife of Wallace Teruya and sister-in-law of Albert Teruya, owners of T&W Coffee Shop, Times Grill, and Times Supermarkets; and Ethel Teruya's son Dexter Teruya, daughter-in-law Valerie Teruya, daughter Rosemarie Love, and grandson John Love.

Senator Dela Cruz recognized the following honorees: Galen Teruya, president of the Oroku Azajin Club from 2014 to 2015 and grandson of Albert Teruya, who owned T & W Coffee Shop, Times Grill, and Times Supermarkets; Gene Kaneshiro, son of Fred Kaneshiro and nephew of Gentaro Kaneshiro, owners of Columbia Inn; Doris Sheppard, Gentaro Kaneshiro's daughter; Robert and Jeanne Kaneshiro, Gentaro Kaneshiro's son and daughter-in-law; Judy Morita, daughter of Masaji Uyehara, who owned Aiea Drive Inn, Ilima Drive Inn, Keone's Lounge, and Smile Café with his brothers Sam and Johnny; Judy Morita's son Wayne Morita and grandson Gavin Morita; and Beverly Taira, president of the Oroku Azajin Club, who served for many years as a board member, vice president, and president-elect, and who has supported the documenting of the 75 Oroku Azajin restaurants.

Senator Kim recognized the following honorees: Karen Nakamura, daughter of Robert and Nancy Teruya, owners of Aloha Grill, a restaurant located in the heart of Honolulu on Bethel Street that held banquets and had a bowling alley; Karen Nakamura's husband, Wayne; Linda Teruya; Ruby Uehara, Virginia Takara, Leatrice Kakesako, and Harry Teruya, whose father, Kana Teruya, owned Lucky Grill, U.S. Café, Choice Inn, and Kaimuki Inn; and Shari Tamashiro, who was instrumental in documenting the history of the family restaurants by guiding Howard Takara, Holly Takara, and Gene Kaneshiro in recording the oral histories of 12 restaurateurs and creating an Okinawa Restaurant Exhibit at Honolulu Hale so that the story of Okinawan-owned restaurants would not be lost.

Senator Ihara recognized the following honorees: Karen Kanemasu, whose parents, Herbert and Margaret Uyehara, owned Capital Drive Inn and New Capital Café; Karen Kanemasu's husband, Wayne; Sandra Ikehara, whose father, Masao Uyehara, owned Lindy's Café and Silver Surf Fountain; Sandra Ikehara's daughter Carrie Kawaguchi; and Jane Suwa, whose father, Paul Uyehara, owned Paul's Coffee Shop.

Senator Rhoads recognized the following honorees: Mary-Ann Uehara, whose grandparents Kana and Uto Uehara owned Bert's Café; Helen Uyehara, daughter-in-law of Ichiro and Kameko Uyehara, who owned Happy Café and Kaka'ako Inn; Susan and Clifford Sagara, Helen Uyehara's daughter and son-in-law; and Liz Teruya, granddaughter of Saburo Teruya, who owned Kapiolani Grill.

Senator Nishihara recognized the following honorees: Barbara Teruya, whose father, Robert Uehara, owned Chidori Restaurant and Ellen's Bar & Grill; Jason Takara, whose parents, Edward and Roberta Takara, owned E & R Koffee Kup and Jane's Coffee Shop; and Violet Irinaka, whose father, Kame Uyehara, owned Denver Grill.

Senator Gabbard recognized the following honorees: George Kamimura, whose grandfather Kame Taira owned Pacific Bakery & Coffee Shop and Palama Hotdog Shop; Francis Takara and Mae Katahara, whose father, Charles Takara, owned New Aala Café and Nancy's Grill; Mae Katahara's husband, Alvin; and Gary and Neal Uehara, whose father, Harold Uehara, owned LaSalle Grill.

Senator English recognized the following honorees: Herbert Uehara, whose uncle Tsuneko Uehara owned Clover Inn and U.S. Café; Frederick Takara, whose father, Saburo Takara, owned Café Paris and Ramona Café; Alice Masutani and Lorraine Kajikawa, whose parents, Kamado and Yoshiko Uyehara, owned Café Seven Seas; and Dustin Ebesu, grandson of Kamado and Yoshiko Uyehara.

Senator Baker recognized the following honorees: John Takara, whose uncle Keikyū Takara owned Bluebird Café and McCully Fountain; Muriel Arakaki and William Teruya, whose father, Harry Teruya, owned Chef's Café and Sierra Café; Muriel Arakaki's husband, Wayne, and their son Scott; and Lorraine Egusa and Russell Takara, whose parents, Taru and Chiyoko Takara, owned Kaimuki Inn and George's Inn.

Senator Galuteria recognized the following honorees: James Uyehara, whose father, Jenichi Uyehara, owned Metropolitan Grill; James Uyehara's wife, Jane; Gary Kobashigawa, whose father, Roy Kobashigawa, owned Sheridan Grill with his brothers Mike and Larry; and Margaret Takara, whose father-in-law, Kojiro Takara, owned Star Grill.

Senator Tokuda rose and stated:

"Thank you very much, colleagues, for helping us to acknowledge, again, generations and decades of Uchinanchu establishments that have helped to feed so many of our island families. And, yes, we're all very hungry, so please also, as has been told to all of your offices, join us for some food and fun and fellowship – I think I even might have seen a sanshin case with some of you – right after session as well. We will be feeding you! I assure you there will be andagi and there will be pork and possibly even some bitter melon, for those of you who would dare. But let's give another round of applause for all of our honorees and our special guests here with us on the floor and in the gallery. And as might have been also mentioned, generations continue, and we're so proud to see not just our nisei and sansei here, but the yonsei and gosei are also carrying on the torch. So the fact is, if you want to continue to eat this food, Oroku restaurants are continuing; establishments like Tatsuo's on Sand Island are carrying on what started off generations ago. The legacy continues, so we're very proud to see that."

The Chair then stated:

"Before calling for the recess, I wanted to just take care of a housekeeping item before I forget. To Senator Keith-Agaran, I extend my apologies. When I thanked Senator Rhoads for his drafting of the initial bill last year that the Senate moved over and Chairs Baker and Taniguchi for the hard work last year, I forgot that Senator Keith-Agaran was that hard-working Judiciary chair, so, Senator Keith-Agaran, I corrected it in the press release but publicly want to extend my thanks to you and Senator Taniguchi for carrying the torch this session."

At 11:58 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:05 p.m.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of the appointment of GM 597 – Mr. Mielke to the Board of Directors of the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawai'i Authority.

"William F. Mielcke has a long history of serving the people of Hawai'i. He is one of the few residents of Hawai'i that has been appointed to boards and commissions by every governor, with one exception, since Governor Quinn. As such, Dr. Mielcke's over fifty years of selflessly volunteering his time to help Hawai'i grow into the vibrant, strong, and diversified economy it is today is almost unprecedented and has been a great service to the people of Hawai'i.

"Mr. Mielcke is committed to helping Hawai'i grow and plays a very important role in helping the Natural Energy Laboratory of Hawai'i Authority realize its full potential by focusing their efforts on marine science and advanced energy. Mr. Mielcke firmly believes that this is a seamless fit for West Hawai'i. The green 'sustainable' aspect of the technology park is a perfect complement to the existing visitor industry properties along the Kona-Kohala coastline.

"Therefore, in closing, I urge all of my colleagues to support GM 597. Thank you, Mr. President."

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Tuesday, April 3, 2018

The Senate of the Twenty-Ninth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2018, convened at 11:38 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Forty-First Day.

At this time, Senator Shimabukuro welcomed her son and his classmates from Ka Waihona o Ka Na'auao Public Charter School, who were seated in the gallery with teacher Kapua Belay and chaperones Kalei Sagapolutele, Marie Belai, and Osey Costales.

Senator Wakai recognized the Moanalua High School Symphony Orchestra, and presented the following remarks:

"Please allow me to get this presentation off to a magnificent start [plays audio recording]. That was a clip of the overture to Morning, Noon, and Night in Vienna, not by the Boston Philharmonic but by our own Moanalua High School symphony in Atlanta just last month. It is with absolute pleasure that I recognize the Moanalua High School Symphony Orchestra and its revered music director, Mr. Elden Seta. Ladies and gentlemen, year after year, this former Milken Award-winning teacher doesn't just rebuild his music program; he reloads it. Last month, Mr. Seta led a group of extraordinary students to this year's American String Teacher Association's National Orchestra Festival. This annual festival brings together renowned orchestras from around the country to receive placement, ratings, comments, and instruction from prolific music leaders. Participation is based upon résumé, credentials, recommendation, and live performance recordings. Moanalua was one of 20 high schools nationwide selected to attend in Atlanta last month. The students' dedication and long rehearsals paid off: The group took first place for the high school full orchestra category and were also named grand champion in the high school division. For decades, Moanalua has distinguished themselves as the premier high school music program in Hawai'i. Now, I've long argued they were probably one of the best in the nation – well, now we have confirmation. This before you, ladies and gentlemen, is the number one music program in America.

"Mr. Seta is joined here by some of his astounding musicians; I'd like to take a moment to recognize them. We have Emiley Hadano, symphony orchestra president; Annika Wong, symphony orchestra vice president; Megan Ganeku, symphony orchestra secretary and concert master; Carissa Miyamoto, symphony orchestra librarian; Brooke Kumasaka, symphony orchestra librarian; Efen Enriquez, symphony orchestra equipment manager; and Raidyn Mendez, symphony orchestra equipment manager. How about a round of applause for all of them? Congratulations on making Moanalua and the State of Hawai'i proud; congratulations to you, Mr. Seta, the maestro of this prolific, legendary program at Moanalua."

Senator Dela Cruz commended the Mililani Town Association on celebrating 50 years of leadership and service, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, with all due respect to you and your home districts, I'd like to declare central O'ahu as the best place to call home in the State of Hawai'i. The intent is not to start a debate, although I can understand if you rise in opposition to this. The intent is to recognize that over the past five decades, the vision of developers of Mililani Town and Mililani Mauka as Hawai'i's largest planned community has been fulfilled. The vision actually dates back 60 years, when Castle & Cooke first conceived of Mililani. A decade later, in 1968, sales of the community's first 800 homes began, and Mililani Town Association was established to guide property use and ensure a safe and secure living environment for all resident families. It is the association's fiftieth anniversary that we recognize today as we welcome MTA's Board of Directors and general manager to the floor.

"In 1986, the National Municipal League named Mililani Hawai'i's only All-American City. The community has been recognized as one of Money magazine's Best Places to Live in the U.S. And we all know that Mililani High School – home of the Trojans – consistently ranks at or near the top in the U.S. News & World Report compilation of Hawai'i's Best High Schools.

"The list of good things about Mililani and Mililani Mauka could go on and on (besides being the hometown of Senator Kidani). There are 16,000 households and nearly 50,000 residents, 7 recreational centers, and a full calendar of monthly activities for young and old. All of this is the result of careful attention to values cultivated by MTA that encourage positive interactions among neighbors, businesses, and civic organizations.

"Please allow me to introduce MTA's Board of Directors: president Bob Barrett; vice president Senator Michelle Kidani, who has served on the Board for 18 years; board secretary Josie Hart Ka'anehe; and board members Will Kane, Neil Takeda, former State Representative Michael Magaoay, Val Okimoto, Noriko Salangdron, and Glenn Yoshimori – on the board for more than 30 years (Glenn is not able to join us today). Also with us is MTA general manager David O'Neal, and I'd like to take this moment to wish him a happy birthday. I would also like to recognize additional guests in the gallery, MTA staff: Sheryl Kamikawa, executive assistant; Kaleo Perreira, aquatics manager; and Caryn Tangalin, human resources manager. Also with us are Stan and Kaulana Salangdron, husband and daughter of board member Noriko Salangdron.

"Mr. President, the official celebration of the association's fiftieth anniversary will take place on Saturday, April 21, at Mililani High School's football stadium. The program will include music and fireworks, very much in keeping with the town's image as an All-American City. Mahalo to the board, and congratulations to the association."

At 11:48 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:55 a.m.

Senator Riviere requested that remarks in opposition to the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Riviere's remarks read as follows:

"I am in opposition to this resolution because it would authorize construction of a shoreline hardening revetment on public land. It is unfortunate this condominium project was built so close to the ocean and part of the beach front has eroded. There is a swimming pool between the buildings and the ocean, and a pool deck is next to the shoreline. In other words, there remains private property on which a shoreline protection system might be constructed.

"Each year, we pass additional laws and resolutions calling on government agencies to begin a managed retreat from the eroding shoreline and to prepare for rising sea levels. Unfortunately, we rarely hold ourselves accountable when the tough decisions arrive and we often grant variances that defeat these policies. I understand the desire of the property owners to protect their investment, but they have no right to harden the shoreline on public land, which in this case is the beach. There is still room for them to build a structure on their own property.

"If I expect others to follow our laws and defend our managed retreat policies, I must hold myself to the same standard and make the difficult decisions when required. I must, therefore, vote No on this resolution."

Senator Thielen requested that remarks in support of the measure with reservations be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Thielen's remarks read as follows:

"While I support this resolution, I recognize the precedent this may set for other applications to harden our shorelines. Therefore I agree with other senators that this resolution may impact other regions of our state.

"The reason I support this particular application is based on the local topography, soil makeup and surrounding shoreline area. In other applications these place-specific facts may vary, and therefore may not justify approving this kind of structure."

Senator Taniguchi reminded the members that the annual Art at the Capitol event would take place that evening, with the opening program starting at 4:30 p.m. in Room 325.

Senator Galuteria rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Colleagues, we are saddened at the loss of our beloved Senator Daniel Kahikina Akaka this morning, the aloha statesman. Much has been said about his incredible public service in the short period since his passing this morning at about 4:30 a.m. I would like to offer a few words that speak to not only his public service as we well know – because we aspire to be Senator Daniel Kahikina Akaka in all that we do.

“We often wonder how he made it through such a hostile environment in Washington, D.C., and still remained the aloha statesman, but I think that in knowing the way he grew up would make us understand why he was such that statesman. May I offer to you that his faith in God was his source of aloha and that all that he believed in informed all of his decisions. And how do I know that? That’s because we’re all Kawaiaha’o Church folk. From the very beginning, I knew him as Uncle Danny – Senator Uncle Danny. I grew up with his children, Millannie, Danny Boy, Gerard, Millannie’s other brother Alan, and Millannie’s other brother Nicky. So we grew up each Sunday knowing and loving each other, along with the other clans at Kawaiaha’o Church: the Kamakawiwooles, the Burgesses, the Donlins, the Kaaihues, and the Galuterias, and, of course, the Akakas. And Uncle Danny would come each Sunday and he’d head right down to the choir room because he was the choir director for Kawaiaha’o Church. So, in many ways, his musical direction informed his leadership because you had to get everybody to harmonize, and that he did.

“So, colleagues, we’ve lost a dear icon of aloha, but be advised that he sits on your shoulder now: Wherever you go, he’ll be with you, so be informed of his aloha when you make your decisions. The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 15 was put by the Chair and carried.

At 10:19 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:49 a.m.

H.B. No. 1652, S.D. 1:

By unanimous consent, action on H.B. No. 1652, S.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NON-GENERAL FUNDS,” was deferred to the end of the calendar.

At this time, Senator Ihara welcomed students of the senior class of Sacred Hearts Academy, who were seated in the gallery.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3614 (H.B. No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3614 be adopted and H.B. No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

SECTION 1. House Bill No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, is amended by amending section 6, page 5, line 15, to page 6, line 3, to read as follows:

“SECTION 6. All new construction within the Mauna Kea science reserve area is prohibited; provided that “new construction” shall not include the decommissioning of telescopes or activities related to the repair, maintenance, and upkeep of existing telescopes; provided further that this section shall not apply after a proclamation is issued by the governor that the:

- (1) Auditor has submitted the report pursuant to part I of this Act;
- (2) University of Hawaii has adopted rules pursuant to section 304A-1903, Hawaii Revised Statutes; and
- (3) The office of Maunakea management has complied with the requirements established pursuant to section 5 of this Act.”

SECTION 2. House Bill No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, is amended by amending section 8, page 6, line 11, to read as follows:

“SECTION 8. This Act shall take effect on December 31, 2033.”

Senator Kahele moved that Floor Amendment No. 17 be adopted, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Kahele rose to speak in support of the amendment as follows:

“Colleagues, this floor amendment will defect the effective date to December 31, 2033. It will also clarify ‘new construction’ to not include any construction concerning the decommissioning of an existing telescope or the repair, maintenance, and upkeep of existing telescopes on Mauna Kea.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in opposition to the amendment as follows:

“Mr. President, I do not disagree with the substance of this amendment, and I certainly appreciate the efforts of our senator from Hilo to hold the university accountable. If there’s anyone who wants to hold UH accountable, I am one of those, and I support the measures that he has been proposing.

“However, I also support the process that we have here in our Senate and in our rules and mainly the processes to allow the public the opportunity to have a say and to testify on many of these measures, especially those that have far-reaching effects. In our Rule 23, it says, ‘If a bill: (B) Contains any significant or substantial amendment made by a committee other than the last standing committee to which the bill has been referred;’ it must have a public hearing, and (C), ‘The public has not been provided with an opportunity to submit testimony on the significant or substantial amendment;’ and, therefore, there should have been a hearing. On those procedural issues, Mr. President, I will be voting against the amendment, although I agree with it, and then therefore vote against the bill at this point in time.

“I’ll also point out that it’s not necessarily an emergency in the sense that we didn’t realize or know that these are issues that were out there. Unfortunately, we have deadlines, and ideas as to how we can hold them accountable came after the process, unfortunately, but we have to guard the fact that the public needs to have a say on that measure. I reluctantly will vote against this measure. Thank you.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 17 was put by the Chair and carried, with Senators Baker, Espero, Gabbard, Green, Taniguchi, and Tokuda voting “Aye with Reservations,” and Senators Inouye, Kim, Ruderman, and Thielen voting “No.”

Senator Kahele moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3614 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz and carried.

By unanimous consent, H.B. No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII,” was placed on the calendar for Third Reading on Thursday, April 12, 2018.

At 10:54 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 10:55 a.m.

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"This measure is going to allow us to continue the discussion on law enforcement reform. We've been looking at ways that we can improve our law enforcement personnel and agencies. We're one of the few states that do not have statewide standards in terms of education, recruitment, training, supervision of our law enforcement agencies, and when you look at some of the issues that have been occurring here locally as well as nationally, this is something, colleagues, that we must do. And it's been several years that we've been talking about it; I'm very happy to see that we are moving forward and possibly looking at a certification and decertification process so that we will definitely have our safe communities and neighborhoods. The majority of our law enforcement officers are professional, law-abiding citizens, but this is an attempt to make the whole system better, and I look forward to us moving this forward. Thank you very much."

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Regardless of the wording of this bill, everybody who's come to Hawai'i to look at a rocket launch facility ends up looking at Ka'u. It's got geographical advantages that nowhere else in the state has, particularly water on three sides, a lot of empty land, and pointing toward the equator. In the past, Ka'u has rejected several rocket launch facilities, and they rejected them very vehemently. That's because the nature of the community is agricultural-based and it cherishes its clean environment. I understand that this is an electric launching facility; I wonder if they realize that Hawai'i island has one of the most expensive electricity costs in our nation, and I wonder how that's going to work out. I also hope that one day, those who propose and advocate for controversial, lifestyle-changing major projects with environmental and cultural impacts will talk to the people impacted and/or their representatives before they proceed with the proposal. As the senator from the district that this always seems to happen to, I will oppose any such projects. Thank you."

Senator Wakai rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"The opportunities for our aerospace growth are limitless, and this measure in front of us simply allows for us to say, 'Go ahead, SpinLaunch: Test your new and innovative way of launching small satellites someplace in Hawai'i.' So, in the Ways and Means committee, there were changes to the language of this measure, which doesn't say that it's going to be on the Big Island, doesn't say it's going to be in Ka'u, doesn't say it's going to be anywhere specifically in Hawai'i but just simply that we embrace this idea, this innovative approach, and would like to see it, hopefully, tested someplace in the state. So, there's misconception that somehow this particular project will end up in Pōhū Bay. It's certainly been made clear to myself and to the proponents of SpinLaunch that that is a highly inappropriate area, but I would hope that my colleagues will see the huge opportunities that stand in front of us with a number of small satellites that will need to be launched into space in the very near future and see that Hawai'i could play a significant role in this for economic benefits as well as scientific discovery. So, rather than being closed-minded to saying, 'Not in one place,' let's be open-minded to say, 'Someplace in the State of Hawai'i.' Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

"I understand the need to be taking a look at this. I think there was a suggestion, though, because we didn't want to inadvertently create more hardship with this bill, the possibility of adding a sunset clause or another idea to be able to come back and take a look at the data about the impacts the bill has on the employment in the disability community. Thank you."

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“You know, I noticed in the testimony that only the industry supported this. The mayor of my island had a pithy quote that I’d like to repeat: ‘Tax giveaways should be reserved for good corporate citizens.’ I agree with him. The helicopter industry is one of the biggest problems in our community, and my community has the biggest problem with four helicopters of any community in the nation. We’ve been trying for a couple years to get this industry to come to the table; for the most part, they have not done so. Rather than oppose the bill, I’m going to support it with reservations in hopes that, in conference, we can discuss moving this to a two-year pilot project, where we grant these tax exemptions to those who are good corporate citizens, particularly those helicopter companies that have installed quiet technology. Then, instead of it being a pure negative, we can turn it into a motivational tool to help these companies become good citizens and help resolve one of the greatest problems we have in our district. Thank you.”

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“While the windward district of O’ahu may not have the largest problem in the nation with helicopter noise, I think it does rank up there in the top 10, with the number of tours and other things, and I agree with the comments of the senator from the Big Island and also with the Big Island Mayor: The tax credit should be reserved for responsible corporate citizens and actually to encourage and reward good behavior. I think it’s an excellent idea to limit the tax credit to the helicopters that are going to be adopting the quiet technology because we’d actually be giving them a tax break so they can put those saved revenues toward some improvements in their operations, which will provide tremendous relief to our residents. There are also other ideas, such as rewarding corporations that would agree to some type of good-behavior compact, to not run tours during the weekends or the early morning hours or in the late evenings, when it’s going to be bothering residents. There are many good-behavior things that many of us have tried for years to get these organizations to adopt that they have not adopted, and I think it’s worthwhile to be holding back on any final decisions until we get that change of behavior. Mahalo.”

Senator Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"In the bill, the way it's come out of the final committee, it would provide tax breaks to a business in Kapolei where they are paying half of their employees barely a living wage salary, which means they could be paying the other half of their employees much less than a living wage salary, so I'm not sure why we are rewarding this type of behavior, and I would strongly encourage, in the conference committee, any effort be made to be moving the requirements up, because if we really are trying to build up a professional workforce in Kapolei, then we need to be looking at something that is significantly higher in the salary range. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3652 was adopted and H.B. No. 2659, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

"I support the intent of this bill, and I hope we do come out with a paid family leave bill this year. As the employer of more than 200 people, I'm concerned about the uncertainty of what it will look like, and that's why I vote 'with reservations.' I preferred the task force that was going to come back and make suggestions, but I support whatever effort makes this succeed this year, and I appreciate the efforts of the Labor chair in this regard."

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in opposition to the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's remarks read as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in opposition to House Bill 2598 – which requires the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations to establish paid family leave for all workers by January 1, 2021, as well as requires reports to the Legislature. I understand the intent of this bill is to allow for paid leave in the workplace, and agree that citizens need to balance the needs of work and family. However, I do not support this bill.

"As many national rankings have shown, the cost of doing and running a business is extremely high. With every additional workplace mandate, the competitive distance is increased, which, in turn, affects the ability for employers to sustain and create jobs, as well as provide benefits to employees. In addition, the implementation board in this bill has broad authority to implement a program with potentially very little input from employees or businesses.

"Therefore, members of the chamber, I stand in opposition to H.B. 2598, and thank you for your consideration. Mahalo."

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Paid family leave is about recognizing the importance of our workers and our families. I'd first like to thank, and I truly appreciate, the Ways and Means committee for putting forward the amendments that both Chair Johanson and I have made recommendations for so that we could have a full array of options going into conference.

"The measure before us is a result of a series of conversations and discussions that we have been having with both advocates and businesses, focused on what best practices could create a paid family leave model that most efficiently and effectively delivers benefits to our workers and our families while at the same time ensures that we have the least amount of initial and ongoing costs, which is very important to our taxpayers. While very different from the previous versions of the bill, the measure that we have before us identifies expanded TDI as the established model – a model found in many of the states that have paid family leave – and it was put forward specifically to address the concerns that were identified by business as to that uncertainty that was established in the previous bills because it was going to be the job of the implementation task force and various studies to identify the model and then put it forward in the years to come.

"That being said, as we know, it is going into conference committee, and we will do the due diligence of looking to see what that final outcome is. We appreciate that we now have an array of options to look forward to in terms of being able to, once and for all, make sure that our workers and our families have the dignity and that option of paid family leave to be able to take care of one another going forward, because we know all too well the statistics, and they're very daunting: By 2020, 40 percent of our workforce will be taking care of an aging family; in fact, right now, in our community, over 240,000 individuals have that responsibility that they bear very willingly and lovingly to care for an aging loved one. Paid family leave, the bottom line: It just makes sense. And I thank you for allowing us to keep these measures moving forward so that we can go into conference and, hopefully, at the end of the day, pass a measure that can help us take care of our families and our workers."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3679 was adopted and H.B. No. 2598, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FAMILY LEAVE," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3688 (H.B. No. 1270, H.D. 1, S.D. 2):

On motion by Senator Dela Cruz, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3688 was adopted and H.B. No. 1270, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND ACQUISITION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Harimoto).

H.B. No. 1900, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

Senator Dela Cruz moved that H.B. No. 1900, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"For fiscal years 2019 through 2023, the administration has presented a financial plan and a budget balanced on deficit spending and depending on the carryover funds to cover expenses. With the current state financial plan, we are on a path to deplete our $1 billion carryover balance by 90 percent. The state is spending more than what it generates. The Senate put together a responsible financial plan; we looked at ways to cut costs, reduce spending, and put forward bills to generate revenue, which have crossed over to the House. These measures will bring the overall state's financial plan in the black by fiscal year 2022, one year earlier compared to the current state financial plan. Act 49, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2017, provides a base budget of $14.3 billion, of which $7.421 billion are general funds for fiscal year '19. Including all governor's messages that the Legislature received, the administration proposed to add $121.3 million to the base budget, of which $65.6 million are general funds. In addition – or, should I say, subtraction – the Legislature can no longer count on the $33 million and $67 million in the out-years of B&B revenue.

“Working with the subject matter committee chairs and putting together the Senate draft, we kept in mind our fixed cost obligations, such as our health benefits, Medicaid, pension, and debt service. These obligations alone account for 49 percent of our supplemental budget spending. The Senate draft of the budget puts forth an additional $70.7 million in general funds. Of that $70.7 million, $65 million in fiscal year '19 are nonrecurring costs and do not add to the base budget. The Senate draft proposes to add $14.6 million for the base budget for years going forward, of which $5.6 million are in general funds to pay for programs like Kupuna Care and Medicaid, adult dental health programs – many of these programs are to address Hawai'i's increasing aging population.

“Changes in the Senate draft of the budget and the additional revenue bills that the Senate has passed over to the House include proposed one-time revenue infusions of $79 million and additional $120.7 million in recurring revenue going forward. Additionally, per the 2016 state reserve policy, which recommends having 10 percent of the general fund balance on hand, we have invested $81.4 million into the Emergency and Budget Reserve Fund, the rainy day fund, in order to get that balance up to $700 million.

“The committee feels it's important to limit the growth of government and reduce duplicative services. Where applicable, departments should be working with each other to provide services to Hawai'i's residents. With that in mind, and incorporating the departments' requests this year for fiscal year '19, the Senate reduced 32 positions to maintain the position ceiling identified in Act 49, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2017.

“There are many competing needs the state must address, and we must prioritize. The committee recognizes the state's role in overseeing and managing a range of services for our kūpuna, addressing issues surrounding homelessness, investing in the development of affordable housing, funding early childhood education and the Hawai'i Promise Program, and making preparations to scale up our farm to school programs statewide. The Senate draft of the state budget includes funding the following priorities: Investing into the development of increasing our affordable housing inventory; supporting programs and services for agriculture; funding to support grants for local businesses to help expand and diversify our economy; providing funding for early childhood education, early college programs, and the Hawai'i Promise Program; funding to protect our natural resources; funding to support critical Medicaid and adult healthcare services, including Kupuna Care and caregiver programs; providing funding for critical programs to address homelessness, such as Housing First, Rapid Re-Housing, and the implementation of ohana zones; and an infusion into the state's rainy day fund.

“The Committee on Ways and Means worked closely with each Senate subject matter committee chair to identify Senate priorities to be included in the Senate draft. For the Department of Agriculture, in working with the Ag chair, we included $1 million for invasive and hazardous plant mitigation and $300,000 for environmental protection, pesticide drift buffer zone pilot program. In addition, two positions for farm to table statewide.

“In working with the Government Operations chair, we've included $118,000 for salary increases for the State Procurement Office and $265,000 for the Hawaii State Digital Archives.

“In working with the ETT chair, we've included $200,000 for Creative Lab Hawai'i expansion to neighbor islands, $150,000 for PISCES, $150,000 for unmanned aerial systems, and $1.5 million for the accelerator program.

“In working with the Transportation and Energy chair, we've included $300,000 for the state energy plan. We also reduced $81 million in debt service payments, retirement payments, and health premium payments in working with the Ways and Means committee.

“In working with the Public Safety chair, we've added two positions for the State Fusion Center and $1.5 million for repair and maintenance for Homeland Security office, Hawaii State Veterans Cemetery, Hawaii Operations Center, and additional buildings statewide.

“In working with the Education chair, we've added $2.8 million for the Hawai'i Keiki program; $1 million for early college; $1.1 million for alternative teacher route programs; $1.5 million for complex area superintendents professional development for special projects fund; and $1 million for Title IX training for equity specialists, principals, and complex area superintendents; $100,000 for a public library land pilot project; and $800,000 for hard-to-staff and National Board certified incentives.

“In working with the CPH chair, we've added $3.8 million for Kupuna Care statewide, $4 million for Kupuna Caregivers fund, $3 million for new ambulances on Kaua'i and Hawai'i island, two positions for the Office of Language Access, and, as a result of our WAM site visit to the Big Island, we've added $1.5 million for the Hilo Medical Center cardiac unit.

“In working with the Human Services chair, we've added $4.4 million with $6.6 million federal match to restore adult health Medicaid benefits, $15.9 million for various homeless initiatives to provide a comprehensive and statewide solution, which provides funds for Housing First, Rapid Re-Housing, Family Assessment Center, outreach and civil legal services, property storage and debris removal, ohana zone pilot project, and for coordinated statewide homeless initiative.

“In working with the Labor chair, we've included two positions for the Hawai'i Labor Relations Board.

“In working with the Water and Land chair, we've added 10 positions and $4.5 million for lifeguard services, operations, and improvements to state parks; $1.2 million for state trails; $1.4 million for ocean safety educational services; and $5 million, working with the Ag chair and the Water and Land chair, for the Hawaii Interagency Biosecurity Plan. We've added five positions and $3.1 million for DOCARE training academy dispatch center and safety enforcement at small boat harbors.

“And working with the Judiciary chair, we've added seven positions and $1 million for the State Historic Preservation office.

“In working with the Transportation chair, we've also added $824,000 for a new airport access road in Kahului, in addition to shuttle buses and operations and additional money for the consolidated rental car facility.

“In working with the Higher Ed chair and Majority Leader, we've added four positions and $568,000 for the Center for Pacific Island Studies at UH Mānoa, $200,000 for rat lung lab research at UH Hilo, eight positions and $500,000 for health and safety and campus development at UH West O'ahu, and $700,000 for the Hawai'i Promise Program for UH community colleges, eight positions for student success initiatives, and seven positions and $1.5 million for repair and maintenance at the UH System.

"I really want to thank the committee members for all their hard work and I would like to acknowledge their efforts, time, and dedication as well as the efforts and hard work that the vice chair put into crafting the CIP budget. Also mahalo to Senate leadership and the members of the Senate, the subject matter chairs, in developing and discussing their priorities and making the hard choices, realizing that we need to live within our means. Lastly, I'd like to thank the Ways and Means staff for their hard work: committee chair Dane Wicker; budget chief Erin Conner and bills chief Duncan Osorio; and budget and bills staff Ardis Zhong, Alika Ke-Paloma, Derek Chan, Janos Palko, Lance Tashima, Robert Nishimoto, Moya Gray, Leiomalama Solomon, Sydney Hart, Ashley Kurisu, Chung Chang, and Weston Yap, and I'd also like to thank Dot Fujinaga, David Cho, and Tina Deitschman, if you can all stand and be recognized. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Kahele rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"Brief comments, Mr. President: I just would like to also thank the senator from Wahiawā, the Ways and Means chair, as well as the senator from Wailuku, the vice chair, and, as previously noted, the Ways and Means staff, who are here in this chamber today, for their incredible hard work to provide a balanced and well-thought-out budget for the state. The Ways and Means chair came up with innovative revenue-generating measures that will help close the gap on the overspending of the state as well as maximize taxpayer dollars to ensure that services that benefit our kūpuna, that benefit Housing First and homeless programs, our K-12 education system, the University of Hawai'i, and our healthcare programs – like the $1.5 million for the Hilo Medical Center's cardiac program – are great, great things that this state's budget does, so I'd like to thank the Ways and Means chair and look forward to voting in strong support of this bill. Mahalo."

Senator Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I just wanted to echo some of the remarks of the WAM chair, but I also wanted to add my own personal thanks to members of my own staff: to my office manager, Susan Wong; Danielle Evangelista; as well as the session staff, Justin Fragiao and Pamela Ono. And I especially wanted to thank a guy who probably spent more late hours than I probably expected him to, but I'm glad he did, and that's Robert Nishimoto, who's already been introduced, if he could stand. He was the CIP specialist this year, and you should hang around because there's going to be more work as we go to conference. Thanks."

The Chair remarked:

"I'd just briefly say thank you to the Ways and Means chair, vice chair, and committee for their work, as well as to the staff for their hard work, and especially in the items described by the Ways and Means chair, really reaching, I think, in a very strong and positive way to affirm the goals that were set out by the Senate when we met and identified the priorities that we laid out. So, I thank you for following the roadmap that was put together back in December and early January and coming up with a product that really matches what we hoped to accomplish before we began this session. So, thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1900, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3707 (Gov. Msg. No. 503):

Senator Tokuda moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3707 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator English and carried.

Senator Tokuda then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of RYKER WADA as Director of the Department of Human Resources Development, term to expire at noon on December 3, 2018, seconded by Senator English.

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, as you know, the director of the Department of Human Resources Development plays an important role in allowing the state to deliver efficient and effective services to the public. It is his or her responsibility to oversee the recruitment and retention of our state employees, the classification of positions, supporting the collective bargaining process, and ensuring compensation of employees at proper pay levels – no small task, indeed. It is my belief that the nominee is more than capable of carrying out these responsibilities, having also served as deputy director, and it is his responsibility to represent new opportunities in front of him to continue to apply his skills in service to the people of Hawai'i, and he has been doing this altogether in a herculean way, ever since being appointed.

“Acting Director Wada previously served, as I mentioned, as deputy director to this state department before the retirement of former Director Nishimoto. Prior to his work at DHRD, he served as the personnel regional officer for the windward district of the Department of Education, where I have witnessed his work firsthand. He is also the former managing attorney for the Legal Aid Society of Hawai'i, so his work for the public has been ongoing for many, many years as well. In his personal statement, the nominee explained his vision for the department: It is his goal to enable DHRD to provide quality service with improved efficiencies, customer service, and staff support, building up his team and making sure he serves everyone with service.

“The Committee on Labor also heard testimony from both former and current colleagues of the nominee, all of whom expressed confidence in his ability and knowledge. His over 15 years of legal and human resources experience in both the public and private sectors will serve him well in dealing with the numerous labor protocols overseen by DHRD, a constantly changing landscape. And while there were many testimonies that we received from colleagues, past and present, and from many individuals of the public, I will say that the greatest vote of confidence that we received and the testimony that I had to somewhat force out of the individual came from his father, who usually resides at the Majority staff table but I believe is in the gallery today. I really appreciated, not just the vote of confidence, but it was very touching to hear his words as well.

“Colleagues, as we know, we have often heeded the advice and counsel of Mr. Wada, but it’s very clear that the apple has not fallen too far from the tree, so it is with great humility and honor that I humbly ask for your support as we recommend Director Wada to lead the Department of Human Resources Development as he takes them under direction in the right way. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Harimoto, Kouchi).

At this time, Senator Tokuda introduced Director Ryker Wada, who was accompanied in the gallery by his wife, Vanessa Ito; his parents, Richard and Margaret Wada; his sons, Ezekiel and Elijah; his in-laws, Steve and Ann Ito; his cousins Susan and Kristin Minato; staff supporters from the Department of Human Resources Development; as well as Leonard Hoshijo, director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, and Ford Fuchigami from the Office of the Governor.

At 12:16 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:25 p.m.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3708 (Gov. Msg. Nos. 633 and 634):

seconded by Senator English.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Wakai moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3717 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Taniguchi and carried.

Senator Wakai then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations to the Stadium Authority of the following:

MICHAEL IOSUA, term to expire June 30, 2022 (Gov. Msg. No. 687);

ROSS YAMASAKI, term to expire June 30, 2022 (Gov. Msg. No. 688);

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Harimoto, Kouchi).

H.B. No. 2259, H.D. 1, S.D. 3:

On motion by Senator Dela Cruz, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried, H.B. No. 2259, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MARINE EVENTS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Harimoto, Kouchi).

H.B. No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 3:

Senator Kahele moved that H.B. No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"This bill does exactly one thing for certain: It kills the Thirty Meter Telescope. It's a $1.4 billion project which will bring more high-paying jobs in the private sector and private sector construction jobs than we've ever seen before in our state. Often, we profess to want high-tech projects to come to Hawai'i, but now we propose to sidestep the legal process to kill a project that has spent 10 years moving forward in good faith. Often, we hear of a chilling effect on future business; this is a deep-freeze, door-slammng-in-the-face, anti-welcome for the next job-creating tech proposal that so many of us say we desire. We're telling the world that, besides the tedious, time-consuming nature of our due process, we will also pull the rug out from under you at the last minute, regardless of legal rulings. One cannot say they support this bill and are not opposed to TMT. This bill is above all else a death warrant to TMT, unfairly, without public input or due process. The moratorium is intended to punish UH for mismanagement and perhaps right some wrongs. But the only real victim is TMT, a private venture that has done its best to proceed legally, with community support, through our labyrinthine permitting process. The benefits of this project to Hawai'i in quality job creation and educational benefits is unsurpassed.

"The Hawai'i Supreme Court is currently reviewing the appeals regarding the permit process. It's their kuleana to do so. That's due process and the legal way forward. We must not, with one sentence that has never seen public input nor due legislative deliberation, negate the legal process and kill a major project. The label 'gut and replace' rightfully carries negative connotations to our observers – sometimes it's used unfairly; in this case, it's well-deserved. The moratorium part of this bill is a major new proposal with massive consequences which was inserted without due process in violation of Senate rules. So, if we're successful, we're embarking on another long series of appeals and challenges instead of relying on a long-established legal process, which is underway and which this bill sidesteps. If unsuccessful, it undermines public support for fair play and due process, and reinforces the impression that we do whatever we want regardless of laws and rules and due process.

"I am neither blindly pro-TMT nor blindly opposed; I support TMT if its permits are legal and oppose it if not. I believe in the rule of law. But I highly value fair play, the legal process, and, most importantly, the fact that democracy necessarily includes the public. The demo in democracy means 'the people.' Sometimes that's inconvenient and time-consuming and yet it's the most important aspect of what we do and the thing that legitimizes what we do. Saying one has talked to a lot of people and feels a sense of urgency and has good ideas does not remove the requirement for public input, fair play, and due process. Although we know this bill will likely not survive as is, still I urge my colleagues to not abandon respect for our process by approving a bill which is in violation of the most basic principles of our process. Those who speak of wanting to advance high tech in Hawai'i, who advocate for economic growth so our kids can live here, who want to advance business and educational opportunities in Hawai'i: Your words will ring hollow if you vote for this bill. This bill will kill the biggest high-wage job creator and educational booster our state has ever seen. The Thirty Meter Telescope is the largest private sector proposal we have ever had; this huge, consequential project being unfairly targeted by this bill deserves fair play and due process. Thank you."

Senator Kahele rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"Senators, colleagues: This is a tough issue, but this legislature, both the House and the Senate and those who came before us, take on tough issues. It is our highest duty to the State of Hawai'i and its people to find solutions to the state's most pressing needs. And just like Kaho'olawe was 40 years ago, Mauna Kea is the Kaho'olawe of this generation. Dr. Martin Luther King once spoke of the fierce urgency of now, and I truly believe, as evidenced by other failed projects in this state, that there is such a thing as being too late. We are at a defining moment in our state's history, and it is time for us, as the leaders of this state, to raise our level of consciousness and understanding that the care and the protection of our 'āina, from the mountain to the sea, is part of our kuleana, our responsibility. The Legislature has now completed 10 public presentations and community listening sessions that have resulted in hundreds of conversations with people all over our islands. And there is one thing that resonates time and time again, and that is we have to do – we must do – a better job of protecting and managing Mauna Kea, and it cannot wait any longer. We need to stop tearing apart the very fabric of our community. We need to hold state agencies entrusted with the care of Hawai'i's most precious natural resources and wonders accountable.

"My dad would often say, 'We are all in this together,' and only by working together can we restore balance and peace on Mauna Kea through the aloha that exists in each and every one of us, which makes Hawai'i the special place we all call home.

Colleagues, I humbly ask you to support this bill so we can continue this conversation into conference with our partners in the House. Mahalo, Madam President.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“I rise in reluctant opposition to this measure. Madam President, I certainly agree with the remarks made by the senator from Hilo. I believe that we must continue the conversation about Mauna Kea, and there have been many bills this session on that and that conversation. However, at the same time, I think it’s very important that we adhere to our rules; and so, based on our Senate Rules, Rule No. 23, Public Hearings on Bills, this bill contains significant and substantial amendments that the public has not been provided an opportunity to submit testimony. And so, to be consistent in my support of transparency in government and following our rules, I must vote in opposition. Mahalo.”

Senator Green rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I just would like to say that the irony of this is that some people – and I respect their opinion – may have reservations about passing this bill today, while we still have three weeks left, because of a lack of transparency, but in reality, we often don’t get any input from the neighbor islands, and the good chair from Hilo has actually taken this dialogue much further than any other bill that’s been debated this session. So, my initial discomfort because of internal rules that we make, in this case, is outweighed by the fact that the senator from Hilo really went the extra mile to get thousands and thousands of pieces of input from people on the Big Island and other islands. So, I know the rules are important – there’s no doubt – but he has gotten incredible input, so I’ll be supporting him today.”

Senator Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“I agree with the senator from Hilo that we do need to act, and that’s why I will be voting to support House Bill 1985, although with some reservations, because that bill sets forward the dialogue that the good senator from Hilo has been leading around the state about having a new management authority.

“This bill, however, House Bill 1585: It’s not a matter of just violating our internal Senate rules; it’s a matter of the constitutional requirements that any bill that we pass into law has to have a public hearing and an opportunity for the public to testify. So, the senator from Puna very eloquently raised those basic democratic principles that were violated in this bill, but it’s also unnecessary because, if House Bill 1985 is to pass, that would create a new management authority that would be responsible for managing Mauna Kea, and the provisions in this bill requiring the University of Hawai’i to do certain things would be irrelevant because it would be the new authority that would be tasked with passing the administrative rules and making the management decisions that the University of Hawai’i has failed to make over the last 10 years. So, therefore, I oppose this bill and prefer that we move forward with the other that the good senator of Hilo has done so much work on.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1585, H.D. 1, S.D. 3, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 15; Ayes with Reservations (Baker, Gabbard, Green, Ihara). Noes, 8 (Espero, Inouye, Kim, Riviere, Ruderman, Taniguchi, Thielen, Tokuda). Excused, 2 (Harimoto, Kouchi).

H.B. No. 1652, S.D. 2:

On motion by Senator Baker, seconded by Senator Tokuda and carried, H.B. No. 1652, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO NON-GENERAL FUNDS,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Harimoto, Kouchi).

H.B. No. 1985, H.D. 1, S.D. 2:

Senator Kahele moved that H.B. No. 1985, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“This bill is also a gut-and-replace bill, which I normally oppose on principle. However, I do support this bill with reservations to allow the discussion to continue because all the concepts in this bill had public hearings and due process at some point along the way, at least in the Senate bills which previously contained these concepts. In that sense, to me, it is not the same as the recent bill, whose major concepts were never vetted in public nor with due legislative process.

“While I have concerns for the process, I commend the senator from Hilo for his herculean effort to address a big issue with fresh new ideas, to craft a consensus, to listen to all concerned and incorporate their concerns. I also commend him for big-picture, outside-the-box thinking, which is so welcome and so needed here. He took the radical, unusual step of talking to and listening to all those concerns and the impacted citizens. I recommend this practice be widely used generally: Go talk to the affected people instead of hiding things from them as long as possible. What a concept! Talk to the people and listen to them.

“So, I do have concerns about the process, but because these concepts had public input and the support of Senate committees, I find it a tolerable use of this procedure and will support further discussions with reservations. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1985, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAND USE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21; Ayes with Reservations (Baker, Gabbard, Green, Ihara, Kim, Riviere, Ruderman, Shimabukuro, Taniguchi, Thielen). Noes, 2 (Inouye, Tokuda). Excused, 2 (Harimoto, Kouchi).

Senator Baker rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, Governor’s Message 652 is to advise and consent to a new PUC commissioner: Jennifer Potter. Your committee had an opportunity to review her résumé, to have a hearing, and I can tell you that she is highly qualified, very capable of coming up to speed with the workings of the PUC based on her history working with municipal districts in California, working for the Natural Energy Institute here in Hawai’i, the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, and all of the background that she has on demand side, pricing, on looking at smart options. With her background and experience, Jennifer brings a wealth of knowledge to the PUC to help move the agenda forward, and I’m so pleased that the support for her was overwhelming. She resides on Maui; she happens to be my constituent, but that just adds to her qualifications because she’s very well-qualified from her education and her work background. I’m delighted to stand in strong support of this nomination and ask all of you to join me in confirming Jennifer Potter as our next Public Utilities commissioner, Governor’s Message 652. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

“I’m speaking in support, sir. This measure is about the future of Hawai’i and how we are going to fund the education needs and expenses for the next 5, 10, 20 years. It is so important that we look at another revenue source where we’re not hurting our residents with a general excise tax, with an income tax, with a property tax. This is the way that we can provide millions of dollars to improve our education system. And over the last 19 years that I have served, we have seen that there is always room for improvement, and that is certainly the case today, especially with technology and other opportunities. Bear with me, my colleagues, because this is one of the most important measures I believe we’re going to be passing this legislative session because this is truly about the keiki and your districts and your schools and your students and your relatives and your friends and your neighbors and the future of Hawai’i. So, with that, my colleagues, I look forward to your support on this measure and the future of this bill. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, and S.B. At this time, Senator Gabbard rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"First of all, happy Aloha Friday Hemp Day. I see the smattering of my colleagues who are wearing hemp shirts, so I wanted to personally thank each of you for supporting the bills that I began introducing in 2014, and ask that you indulge me for a couple moments here.

"Many of you don't know it was in 1999 when the first study was done out in Wahiawā; it was privately funded, lasted three years, and it was determined that the Chinese variety of hemp seed was the best for this climate. Also, December 14, 1999: Governor Cayetano proclaimed it as Industrial Hemp Day in Hawai'i. In 2014, we passed a two-year study; it was Act 56. In 2016, Act 228 – we passed a five-year pilot study. And then yesterday, you may have read that the Department of Agriculture launched the five-year pilot program.

"So, the Hawai'i Farmers Union did a survey a while back: Over a hundred farmers in Hawai'i are ready to plant hemp, so they'll now be able to go pay their fee at Department of Ag, get their seeds, and start putting hemp in the ground. And I guarantee you this is going to be a huge boon for our farmers, for the economy here in Hawai'i. I also wanted to mention that because there are over 25,000 products that are made out of hemp, and my pitch from the very beginning has been a cottage industry with the Hawai'i branding, right? The Hawai'i label, the hula girl underneath the coconut tree with the guy strumming his 'ukulele. Then, you have products like Hāna hemp granola, Hanalei hemp toothpaste, Honolulu hemp aloha shirts, Hawai'i island hemp shampoo; these are just some of the products that will be coming our way. By the way, I was at a national hemp conference this last summer, and in Kentucky, tobacco sales are down so they're switching over – there's 12,000 acres of hemp planted in Kentucky. So I talked to some of my colleagues over there, on the mainland, especially the ones from Kentucky, and I said, 'Look, guys, you guys are going down. You have no chance! When the hemp products from Hawai'i hit the market, who's going to buy Kentucky hemp shampoo? Are you kidding me?' And they all go, 'Sit down, Gabbard! Sit down!'

“So, I just wanted to say again thank you for your support over the years. 1999 to 2018: It only took 19 years to get this done; it’s been a long time coming. Mahalo, thank you.”

Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“To amplify on what the previous speaker said, I note that today, on the federal level, Chuck Schumer will be introducing a bill to decriminalize cannabis federally, and Mitch McConnell is introducing a bill to legalize hemp, being from Kentucky, of course. This is a plant that has possibly more economic, medical, and environmental potential than almost anything else before us. We’ve had 70 years of prohibition against this product that was widely used before that time. It was begun by an effort by the timber and oil industry to squash their competition from the hemp crop. Just imagine the damage that’s happened to our environment over these 70 years while we deforested and burned all this oil instead of hemp! It was amplified by Nixon’s war on drugs, which, as most of us know, was actually a war on culture.

“I think it’s time to be serious: Stop snickering and joking about what might be the most important move we can make and join the modern world. It’s time to stop the fear and recognize the potential and the urgency to stop this harmful prohibition. By the way, there are thousands of people in prison for nonviolent, victimless cannabis crimes, including my dear friend, Share Christie, who is in Honolulu Federal Detention Center rotting away right now – I’ve visited her many times. Her husband spent four years in there, and now she’s in there for three years. There’s no reason for it; it’s time to stop thinking of it as a joke and recognize the serious problem that’s before us and the serious potential we have if we join the modern world. Thank you.”

The Chair then made the following announcement:

“The deadline to file committee reports on amended House concurrent resolutions in order to meet Monday’s second crossover deadline is 4:30 p.m. today. The Clerk’s office will distribute a list this evening of all resolutions to be scheduled for adoption on Monday.”

ORDER OF THE DAY

FINAL READING

MATTER DEFERRED FROM WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 2018

S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, H.D. 1:

Senator Kidani moved that S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Taniguchi.

Senator Kidani rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“Colleagues, I rise in strong support of Senate Bill 2922, S.D. 1, H.D. 1. In moving this bill forward, our ultimate goal has been consistent and clear: We seek a measure to fully fund our public education system. The proposal is to allow the Legislature the authority to establish a tax surcharge on investment real property, proceeds from which would be dedicated to educating our keiki. Step one – as provided for in Senate Bill 2922 – is to place a question on the ballot so that the voters can decide whether the Legislature should be granted this authority.

“The bill as originally drafted elicited a good deal of testimony that, in some ways, may have detracted from the primary goal of funding our schools. Testifiers debated property values at which the surcharge would be applied and several other matters. While the House removed that specific language, the public should be assured that the Senate has no intention of taxing the homes you live in – that is, homes for which resident-owners receive a homeowner’s exemption. The public should further be assured that the Senate has no intention of approving any surcharge on investment properties valued at less than $1 million. And further, no consideration has ever been given to a surcharge on commercial properties. The intent is and always has been to focus on residential properties.

“However, House amendments to the bill have simplified the issue, in my perspective. The bill now proposes the ballot question: ‘Shall the Legislature be authorized to establish, as provided by law, a surcharge on investment real property to be used to support public education?’ Should the voters pass this con am, we will have to come back in next year’s session to pass a bill that would put the parameters of exactly who we are taxing and what amount we are taxing in the bill, so we will have another go at this.

“I urge your support for Senate Bill 2922, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, so that we may move forward decisively on this critical matter to provide for our keiki’s education. Mahalo.”

Senator Riviere rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“While I may be the only person in opposition on the floor today, I want to take a moment to express my severe concerns with this project. I think it’s a very creative idea. I applaud the HSTA for looking for ways to find additional funding for education, and I absolutely admire their creativity; however, this is bad policy. It’s bad policy because, for years, we have this tug of war between the state and the counties over funding. We’ve allotted property taxes as the vehicle that the counties shall use to pay for fire, police, emergency, parks, and everything else – repaving those city roads, among other things. So, the property tax is something that we have specifically given the counties. We use other taxes, such as the general excise tax, the TAT we control. So, the effect of putting an overlay on top of county property taxing authority will then inhibit the counties’ ability to raise funds as they see fit and as they need. Therefore, they will be back to the Legislature to ask for ever more parts of the TAT, so we have this convoluted tax process: We’re taking some from here and we’re giving some there.

“I would note that in California there was a measure to approve the state lottery many years ago, and the basis was, ‘We shall create a state lottery to fund education.’ No sooner did that happen that the state money started rolling in, then the local authorities ceased to fund at the same rate that they were doing, so, therefore, there was no net gain in the end. It was just shifting it around because money, as we all know, in government is fungible. So, if we create a special fund through property tax that clamps the city’s ability to raise its monies and we put it into that fund, I guarantee this membership will then fund less of the general funds on the back end because all the other priorities are going to be calling out for demand. So, what we’ll do then is we’re going to create more taxes but not actually address the problem that we’re trying to address. No funds are ever safe from ourselves, right? We raid funds and special funds all the time.

“Forty-three percent of Hawai’i households rent the home that they live in – forty-three percent of families are trying to make a living here. So, now we’re going to tax investment properties; who pays that property tax? Is it the owner of that property – we’ve got to soak it to the rich guys who own these houses? No, it’s the renters who are then going to be faced with two or three hundred dollars or four hundred, however the structure is set, each month additionally. So, while we then are supporting a part of our population, we’re now hurting many, many others. And we can say that this is only going to be for those rich guys, but I challenge somebody to point out to me where a tax has not grown and expanded. We created the conveyance tax to pay for the Bureau of Conveyances. Next thing, we used it to fund natural area reserves, which was a creative idea and it was a good idea. We used that money to fund the legacy lands; we used that money for rapid re-housing or affordable housing. So, those are all great concepts, just as this is a great concept. But the monies now for the natural area reserves are general-funded, and that money is still getting scooped out of the conveyance tax. We had measures on the floor this year to increase the conveyance tax, so the conveyance tax has now become this cash cow because we’re going to soak it to those rich guys again. But the repercussions come down to the regular people and the average people and people who are just trying to survive. While I believe this Senate presently has no intention of taxing owner-occupant houses and taxing affordable rental housing – I believe that to be the case now – there is nothing that would prevent us from doing that in the future when times are tight and we’ve got to pay for other priorities. So, the tax will expand; renters will suffer; no funds are safe; the money will be cut on the back end on the general funds; the counties are impeded.

“And so then you say, ‘Well, Senator, what are your solutions?’ I have spoken before: My wife is a teacher; she has taught a few years in the public education system and she has taught in private schools. My sister works in California for the public schools. So, I’m invested in education. My kids are at Waialua High School or have graduated from Waialua High School. I’m not shirking my responsibility; I’m calling on us, if we are serious about education, to make education that priority. Teachers are paid through collective bargaining; we don’t set the pay for teachers. Construction is handled through the Department of Education, CIP projects; we spend lots of money to fix things that are often neglected for far too long. So, we have some structural problems that we need to address. Throwing, presumably, more money at it – which will, in effect, be cut on the back end – may look nice and may sound nice, because I support quality education as much as everybody else. This is a bad idea; it’s a great, creative idea, but in practice, when you look at the side effects, it is, unfortunately, bad policy that can go wrong in many ways in future years if not in the next year. So thank you for allowing me to speak on this in opposition.”

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I would just want to make note that several other states have had teacher strikes recently. West Virginia, Colorado, Kentucky, Oklahoma have all had teacher strikes that have recently concluded or are still ongoing, and they all share something in common: Even before they went on strike and got any of the pay increases that they fought for, if you factor in the cost of living, Hawai’i teachers made less than they do – make less than they did – and they still make less than they do and, of course, after the settlements, make even less less than they did before. We have hundreds of vacancies in the DOE every year. Part of it, a big part of it, is we’re just not paying our teachers enough, and I don’t see how we can go forward and try to have a good education system if we don’t have the most fundamental component of an education system, which is good teachers.

“I would also just briefly address the tax issue. There were people back in 2005 who wanted to use the GET surcharge to go for education instead of for rail or for transportation, which was the offer to the other counties other than Honolulu. We didn’t end up going that route, but the Legislature has been more than willing and has bent over backwards to help the counties with transportation needs. I suppose you could argue that maybe we should’ve all just stayed in our own lanes and let the counties pay for rail with real estate property tax increases, but that's not where we're at right now. I think that sort of cross-matching tax policy is maybe a little confusing, but, unfortunately, I think it's a necessity at this point. So, with my support. Mahalo."

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, I ask that the comments by the senator of Mililani be entered into the Journal as if they were mine as well. It's just about time that we have dedicated funding for education and for our teachers and our students. Mahalo." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"As has been mentioned, teachers nationwide are demanding fair pay. I think it's about time; I'm so pleased to see them be successful in other states. As has also been mentioned, adjusted for cost of living, Hawai'i has the lowest-paid teachers in the nation. Nationwide, we can see what the lack of quality education does to an electorate: It ends up with people who have a disbelief in basic science, an inability to think logically, and sloganism replaces actual logical discourse. I think that doing nothing in the face of our teacher crisis – or doing the same, ineffective things – is not an option. We're losing teachers at a rate that no other state sees. I, myself, am agnostic as to which mechanism we use, but we need to fix this problem. Teachers are not just any other category of workers, but they are crucial to our keiki and our society like no other category of workers, and I applaud the Education chair and all who support this for her bold commitment to trying something new and supporting our teachers. Thank you."

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I promise I won't speak as long as I spoke last week on this, but let me make it clear, and I think we all know, that this is a vote that we're going to be putting to the people. And as I said last week, this is probably one of the most important measures, in the top three, that we're going to be addressing today. It's about the education of our students and how we're going to fund our educational system. And, obviously, there is so much at stake here when it comes to teachers' pay, new facilities, technology, equipment. If we can get the voters to support this, then next year is going to be the big, major discussion by everyone – all the stakeholders involved – on what is the best way to fund our education system. Today, it's been hit and miss. We've given when we can, but it hasn't been constant; it hasn't been dedicated, and this is the opportunity now, colleagues, to support education and those teachers and the students and the administrators who need our assistance. Thank you."

Senator Gabbard rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"As a former high school teacher in American Sāmoa and a former substitute teacher at Kapolei High School and the middle school out there, I get it. We've been talking about this issue for so many years and, again, I would applaud the creativity of the concept of what we're trying to do here. But, in fact, I agree with what they're doing in Finland: We should be paying our teachers on the same level as what we are paying our doctors and our lawyers. When we get serious about taking care of this very important institution that is educating our keiki, that's what we should be looking at. So, like the senator from 'Ewa, I agree that what's going to happen, if we pass this out today, is there's going to be a very good conversation about this, a two-part conversation, between now and the election; and then, if it passes in the election in November, we'll have another conversation in terms of next legislative session. So, I urge you all to vote up on this. Thank you."

Senator Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I just wanted to address the senator from North Shore, who I think raised excellent and very valid points. I wanted to say that in my district, the vast majority of rentals that are occupied by the working class are definitely worth less than $1 million. So, I think if we craft it to specifically target luxury homes – maybe they could even be $2 million or more – and exempt multi-family homes to make sure that we're really looking at these luxury homes that are used maybe for vacation rentals and that kind of thing by people who are foreign investors, and beachfront properties, I think then we will hopefully avoid hurting the renters. So, thank you."

Senator Green rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"I think this is the moment where we can show that we truly respect our teachers as a profession. I went to public school. My father was a public school teacher and all of my in-laws are schoolteachers. I think that if we don't start really stepping up for education, we will never show that we truly support expanding the opportunities for our children to move up through the middle class and have greater opportunities. So, I'm surprised that we haven't done this before, but I'm honored we're doing it today."

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I also am a proud graduate of the public school system, and if not for public schools, I don't know if I'd be sitting in this seat here today. But I also, in 2012, got certified as a substitute teacher. I understand how hard it is to be a teacher, but it's also so very rewarding. To be able to frame and develop young people's minds, I think, is something that we need to reward our teachers for. And our teaching profession should be respected and they should be making $150,000 or more a year – that's the kind of profession it is and that's how important our teachers are, and it's about time that we start to look at that. I feel that we in the Legislature should be funding them, and if we're not, then we need to find other ways, and this is a creative way. But just to emphasize that it is the voters who will decide – it's the renters and the voters and everyone else who will have that opportunity to make that decision, and that is our democracy in progress. So, I support the measure and urge my colleagues to do the same. Mahalo."

Senator Nishihara rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"As a former educator and school administrator, I rise in support of the measure. You know, there have been many polls taken of the public's view about supporting education, and, as we know, polls come and go. But this is one measure that will actually be put before the public and that really comes to putting where your economic sense and your support for education are, so they have an opportunity to show that, more than just a poll, there's real teeth behind this. And I think having that support going forward – assuming we get the necessary votes to make it go – that it's time we can maybe make an impact for public education in the State of Hawai'i. On that, I'll be voting in favor of the motion. Thank you."

Senator Tokuda rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"I know that many things have been said on this floor in support of this measure and, definitely, as a proud public school graduate of Castle High School and the proud mother of two little boys who will be part of the Class of 2026 and 2028 of Castle High School – third-generation proud Knights – definitely, I am in support of a measure that will put more resources toward our public schools. But I also definitely want to add that I think, as a legislature, we’ve been doing things every single day that will also support education, which is something that we have to do in parallel. So, I want to also thank our Ways and Means committee and our chair for taking steps already to make sure that base funding – something I know that is not easy to do – already continues to rise the tide, which is essential and not easy, because while we look for alternative means of funding for our schools, we know that base funding is what is critical and sustainable to make sure that all of our children, all of our teachers and educators, have the resources that they need to make sure that our future is bright, that our children are supported, our teachers have the resources to make sure that they are prepared to enter the world educated and supported every single day. You know, every morning I walk by hundreds of little ones, parents, teachers, and I see the struggles, but I see the opportunities, the challenges, in their faces.

“So, this is really an opportunity that we present to our voters, a real challenge to be able to say yes or no on that ballot, but really something that we’re looking at to be able to supplement the resources that we’re providing. But I really want to thank all of you for, number one, casting that vote for that budget that provides this opportunity already, immediately, but also now, with this vote on this constitutional amendment, providing the voters with an opportunity for themselves to be able to say, ‘Yes, we continue to support our educators and our children as the future for this state.’ So, strong support for this measure and I also commend you, colleagues, for everything that we’ve been doing to make sure that that base funding that is so critical is there for our students and our teachers. Thank you.”

Senator Kidani rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I wanted to address the funding fact and whether this is coming through real property taxes, et cetera. You know, the reason why Hawai‘i boasts how low our property taxes are is because they pay zero dollars into the state funds or into our education funds and, frankly, I wouldn’t be bragging about that when our keiki and our schools are so lacking. If it’s not going to be through the increase of real property taxes or some kind of tax, it’s going to be general excise tax. Do we continue to raise that or do we cut somewhere? Do we cut from our Department of Human Services, who takes the biggest bite out of the state’s budget, mainly because a lot of our kūpuna are living longer and we prize them dearly, so we pay for kupuna programs. Are we going to now pit our kūpuna against our keiki? I think not. I think we have to stand up and look at this: Do we want to educate our keiki to the best of our ability? So, please consider that when you vote, and let’s pass this con am today. Aloha.”

The Chair remarked:

“My wife was a member of HSTA and a teacher for nearly 20 years, but I’m not going to ask for a ruling on a conflict as she is in year 15 of what was intended to be a one-year sabbatical and is not employed by HSTA at this particular time. I know that we’ve heard a lot of testimony, especially in support, and the normally non-biased press appears to have weighed in with their red attire as well this morning.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments made by the House to S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES VIII AND X OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF HAWAII TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATURE

TO ESTABLISH A SURCHARGE TO INCREASE FUNDING FOR PUBLIC EDUCATION,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Riviere). Excused, 1 (Harimoto).

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

RECONSIDERATION OF ACTIONS TAKEN

S.C.R. No. 142 (H.D. 1):

Senator Baker moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on April 18, 2018, in disagreeing to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 142, seconded by Senator Tokuda and carried.

Senator Baker then moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 142, seconded by Senator Tokuda.

Senator Baker noted:

“This measure started out to look like a resolution for Cancer Week in Hawai‘i. That resolution was adopted by the House; we adopted the House version. This was the companion to that measure and was amended to address a very important topic, especially in light of the recent passage of our death-with-dignity bill. This SCR now addresses palliative care, and I would ask that we accept these amendments made by the House and move this measure forward.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 142, and S.C.R. NO. 142, H.D. 1, entitled: “SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO CONVENE A WORKING GROUP TO EXAMINE PALLIATIVE CARE SERVICES AND DEVELOP RECOMMENDATIONS TO EXPAND PALLIATIVE CARE SERVICES IN HAWAII,” was placed on the calendar for Final Adoption on Tuesday, April 24, 2018.

Senator Inouye moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on April 18, 2018, in disagreeing to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 186, S.D. 1, seconded by Senator Espero and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate agree to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 186, S.D. 1, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Inouye noted:

“I believe we need a process to improve all of the roads used by the public in our beautiful Aloha State and the amendments made to Senate Concurrent Resolution 186 is the right place to start. What it does is it urges the Office of the Mayor, County of Hawai‘i, to study the feasibility of creating an oversight authority for subdivisions in the County of Hawai‘i; validates homeowner associations if none are stated in subdivision deeds for those subdivisions with private roads; audits or validates disputed assessments imposed by such homeowner associations; as well as resolves disputes on such matters between property owners and their respective homeowner associations. Therefore, Mr. President, colleagues, I agree with the amendments made by the House to S.C.R. 186.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 186, S.D. 1, and S.C.R. NO. 186, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: “SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR, COUNTY OF HAWAII TO STUDY THE FEASIBILITY OF CREATING AN OVERSIGHT AUTHORITY FOR SUBDIVISIONS IN THE COUNTY OF HAWAII,” was placed on the calendar for Final Adoption on Tuesday, April 24, 2018.

At this time, Senator Kidani congratulated the Mililani Town Association on its fiftieth anniversary celebration, as well as the Mililani High School varsity baseball team on winning the Oahu Interscholastic Association championship, and Kipapa Elementary School Principal Corinne Yogi for receiving the Masayuki Tokioka/Island Insurance Excellence in School Leadership award. Senator Kidani then thanked her colleagues for supporting S.B. No. 2922, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, and invited the members to a luncheon provided by the Hawaii State Teachers Association in Room 329.

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 3-18 be adopted and H.B. No. 1900, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator English.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I just have brief remarks that I would like to insert into the Journal if I may be permitted. I'd just like to thank my colleagues in the Senate, as well as my counterpart in the House. Our budget discussions were relatively smooth, efficient, and productive. As we reviewed budget adjustments line by line, the issues before us encouraged healthy discussions, and our differences and individual priorities were outweighed by our affinity and commitment to delivering what's best for Hawai'i. Together, House and Senate conferees reviewed and discussed the proposals submitted by the administration in crafting the $14.4 billion spending plan for the next fiscal year. Our goal was to establish priorities, make necessary cuts, and provide funding for programs that can be spent in a responsible and timely manner. This budget does not just fund our short-term needs, but it outlines our priorities and a plan for the future of Hawai'i.

"The budget supports agriculture, with Farm to School statewide, expanding extension agents for the College of Tropical Ag. It helps our economy by expanding Creative Lab to our neighbor islands, aquaculture accelerator and incubator initiatives, PISCES, the Excelerator program, and special enforcement services for tax collection. In education, we funded alternative learning centers, the Office of Hawaiian Education, Hawai'i Keiki program, early college, teacher mentoring and certification programs, online learning expansion for higher education, and support for programs that encourage student success in continuing education. In healthcare, $7.1 million to boost payments for foster children and caregivers; $4.5 million for new ambulances for Hawai'i island, Kaua'i, and O'ahu; $1.5 million for the Hilo Medical Center cardiac unit; and $28 million for Maui Health System. For homelessness, a lump sum of $15 million for homelessness initiatives, including Housing First and Rapid Re-Housing. In regards to our aging population, we put in $3.8 million for Kupuna Care; $1.2 million for the Kupuna Caregivers program, doubling the amount proposed by the administration, allowing for expansion to serve more of our senior population; $1.7 million for Aging and Disability Resource Centers for each county; and many, many other different priorities that were provided by the subject-matter chairs.

"I want to again thank the committee members for all their hard work. I'd like to also acknowledge the effort, time, and dedication of the vice chair for crafting the CIP budget. And a mahalo goes out to the Senate leadership and subject-matter chairs again in developing and discussing their priorities and making hard choices, realizing we need to live within our means. And lastly, I'd like to thank the Ways and Means and Finance staff for their hard work. Mahalo!"

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of H.B. 1900, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, the Executive Supplemental Budget, and commend the WAM and FIN chairs and their staff on expeditiously crafting a budget that will significantly help the people of Hawai'i. I want to highlight some of the budget items I'm most excited about – those that will keep residents of Hawai'i healthy and happy, especially our kūpuna. H.B. 1900 funds the innovative, first-in-the-nation Kupuna Caregivers program with $1.2 million. This program gives support to our kūpuna and their family caregivers while allowing the caregivers to remain in the workplace. This funding will expand access to the program, greatly benefitting our kūpuna and their families. The budget also adds nearly $4 million for Kupuna Care, which provides critical services to our aging population.

“The budget adds $2.1 million to the Hawai‘i Keiki program, which coordinates school-based health services to keep our keiki healthy and ready to learn. This program is designed to improve both health and educational outcomes, leading to healthier, more successful youth.

“The bill also adds significant funds for chronic disease prevention and services for the chronically homeless, which will improve residents’ quality of life and save the state money over the long-term. The bill also adds funding in the emergency medical services branch for two critically needed ambulances for Kaua‘i and Hawai‘i island. I commend this forward-thinking investment in our health infrastructure that will continue to serve residents for years to come. Similarly, the bill adds $28 million to the Maui Health System, which will allow our hospitals to offer the quality of care our residents deserve.

“Additionally, the budget will provide significant benefits to the people of Maui, including funding to complete the new high school in Kihei, improvements for Lokelani Intermediate School, and millions of dollars to complete the Lahaina Bypass.

“Please join me in supporting H.B. 1900, a budget that makes great strides toward improving the health and overall well-being of the people of Hawai‘i.”

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3819 (Gov. Msg. Nos. 694, 695, and 696):

Senator Kidani moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 3819 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kahele and carried.

Senator Kidani then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations to the Board of Education of the following:

CATHERINE PAYNE, term to expire June 30, 2021 (Gov. Msg. No. 694);

DWIGHT TAKENO, term to expire June 30, 2021 (Gov. Msg. No. 695); and

MARGARET COX, term to expire June 30, 2021 (Gov. Msg. No. 696), seconded by Senator Kahele.

Senator Kidani rose to speak in strong support of the nominees as follows:

"Your Committee on Education heard from the nominees and received statements of support for all three individuals.

"Nominee Catherine Payne is very well known to many of us – her name is synonymous with Hawai'i public education. She has devoted her adult life to our schools as a distinguished teacher and administrator at the highest levels. Following her so-called retirement from the DOE, where she was principal at Farrington High School, Catherine has served as commissioner and chair of the Public Charter School Commission and is also currently DOE interim complex area superintendent for the Farrington-Kaiser-Kalani complex. When her appointment to the Board of Education is approved, she will leave both of those positions and will serve as chair of the Board of Education beginning July 1. We welcome Catherine's willingness to continue to serve, bringing her wealth of experience in the classroom and in leadership positions to more directly shape education policy.

"Nominee Dwight Takeno is director of administrative services in the UH System Office of the Vice President for Research and Innovation. Previously, he was director of collective bargaining and a human resources specialist at UH Mānoa. He was also interim executive director and chief negotiator for HSTA. In his presentation to your committee, Mr. President, Dwight indicated that many of his views on public education have been formed in deep and meaningful conversations with his spouse, Deanne, who has been a public school educator for the last 28 years. He said that, if confirmed, he expects that those conversations will continue but acknowledges that with his new position as a board member, the dynamics of that relationship may change.

"The third nominee to the board is a re-appointment in recognition of valuable service by a longtime Hawai'i educator from Kaua'i: Margaret Cox. As with the previous two nominees, Maggie brings decades of experience to her deliberations as a board member. She currently chairs the board's Student Achievement Committee, and has made a point of inviting complex area superintendents to her committee's meetings to discuss their approaches to special education. She is also the board's representative on the Career and Technical Advisory Council that includes representation from DOE and the UH. The council recommends program priorities that should receive federal funds that are allocated to high schools for career and technical education programs."

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of Gov. Msg. No. 694 as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of all of our GMs. I especially wanted to single out G.M. No. 694, Catherine Payne, for Farrington High School – go Govs! Also G.M. 711, Michael Tetsutani for the Motor Vehicle Repair Industry Board, also from Farrington High School. And G.M. No. 729, Edmund Aczon for the Land Use Commission. Thank you, Mr. President."

MAUREEN RAWLINS, term to expire June 30, 2020 (Gov. Msg. No. 670), seconded by Senator Kahele.

Senator Kidani rose to speak in strong support of the nominees as follows:

"Mr. President, I also rise in strong support of the governor's nominees for appointments and re-appointments to the Early Learning Board. The board is responsible for formulating the state's policies on early learning, a critical component of preparing our keiki for lifelong success. Your Committee on Education heard testimony in support of five individuals who already serve on the board or who are being proposed for board membership. Those being reappointed are Ann Tom, senior outreach program specialist for the Learning to Grow program under the University of Hawai'i's Center on the Family; Edeluisa Baguio-Larena, CEO for Maui Family Support Services; and Maureen Rawlins, director of strategic partnerships and collaborations for 'Aha Pūnana Leo. The two And, colleagues, we all know that we are one of the safest states in the nation for various reasons but certainly because of the gun control laws, which we have passed over the years. I’m very happy that we are taking leadership on this measure as well, where we are banning bump stocks, and I urge all of you to support this bill because, certainly, this is needed, and we don’t need any of the gun violence happening on the mainland to happen here. Thank you, Mr. President.”

FINAL READING

MATTER DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1-18 (S.B. No. 192, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1-18 be adopted and S.B. No. 192, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

“Colleagues, I completely support providing the emergency funding to respond to the recent floods on Kaua’i and O’ahu and in other areas of our state. If there was ever a need to use the rainy day fund, this is certainly it, so I wholeheartedly support that. I just have some sorrow about the fact that we are taking some money from the natural area reserve fund to help fund this.

“I greatly appreciate the fact that, under the state budget, we have moved support for much of the natural area reserve and the forestry work into general funding, but there still is going to be a net loss of the overall amount of funds that are dedicated to protecting our natural and cultural resources. We talk a lot about how important taking care of these natural and cultural resources is, but I remember when I was the DLNR chair, the last year I was there, we actually did a survey of the number of acres that the state had acquired and put under the jurisdiction of the Department of Land and Natural Resources to manage over the prior decade. It was something like about 120,000 acres of land that had been acquired by the state and either dedicated for parks, natural area reserves, or as undedicated and reserved lands that were required to be managed by the department. And with that 120,000-plus acres, there were exactly zero dollars allocated and zero new positions allocated. And so we continue to put a greater and greater burden on this department, which is the department that takes the lead in the state responsibility to manage our public trust resources, but we tend to not fund that. And then to turn at a time like this, and to take some of the money that’s in reserve there under those special funds for this – it’s very, very hard for me to support that.

“So my hope is that – because these emergency funds, in many cases, are going to be replenished by FEMA under the federal emergency declaration – next year, as those FEMA monies come into the general fund, we will be able to reinstate some of the monies for the Department of Land and Natural Resources and to take care of these natural area reserves and the other areas because this is all of our kuleana under our state public trust responsibility. Thank you.”

The Chair commented:

“I’d also let you know: Deputy Director Sniffen said that the highway funds, besides FEMA, will be 95 percent reimbursable as well, so we will be tracking the money coming back from the federal highway funds as well.”

Senator Dela Cruz requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Dela Cruz's remarks read as follows:

“TOBACCO MASTER SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT (EBRF)/TRANSFER THE BALANCE OF THE NARS FUND

“The State's Financial Plan currently shows about $367 million in our Emergency and Budget Reserve Fund, more commonly known as the 'Rainy Day Fund'.

“In 2016, the Administration put in place the State Reserve Policy, which recommends having 10 percent of the general fund balance on hand. Based on this policy, the EBRF should be at $700 million.

“To shore up this fund, this bill will allow for the funds received from the settlement to be deposited into the EBRF.

“In addition, the Legislature enacted Act 84, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2015, which converted funding for DLNR programs from special funds to general funds. There is $15,307,518 unencumbered in the natural area reserve fund, established under section 195-9, Hawai'i Revised Statutes. This section will transfer the excess balances from the Natural Area Reserve Fund into the General Fund.

“KAUA'I COUNTY DISASTER AND FLOOD RELIEF FUNDING

“Part II of this bill provides the County of Kaua'i the funds they need to repair vital infrastructure as well as public facilities including roads, bridges, county parks, and other infrastructure that were severely damaged. It also provides $25 million for disaster relief for other areas of the state that have been adversely impacted by the recent rain that occurred this month.

“The record-breaking amount of rainfall on Kaua'i was unprecedented. In just 24 hours, Hanalei recorded over 28 inches. In 48 hours, parts of the island got over 32 inches of rain.

“Preliminary estimates put the damage to state highways alone at $20 million to $25 million. This immediate infusion of funds allows the County of Kaua'i to deploy resources to assist the affected communities. Furthermore, once expenses are made a portion of the funds will eventually be reimbursed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 1-18 was adopted and S.B. No. 192, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

“This resolution originally requested an assessment of the availability of long-term care beds. The companion passed both houses, so this resolution could become available to study port-wine stain treatment. The resolution is important because birthmarks known as port-wine stains are not just cosmetic issues: They can cause severe medical problems ranging from glaucoma, if the eye is affected, to other medical needs. Your committee believes S.C.R. 83, H.D. 1 worthy of our favorable action.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 83, S.D.1, and S.C.R. No. 83, S.D.1, H.D. 1, entitled: “SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO ASSESS BOTH THE SOCIAL AND FINANCIAL EFFECTS OF PROPOSED MANDATED HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE THAT REQUIRES INSURERS, HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL SERVICES PLANS, AND HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATIONS TO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR MEDICAL PROCEDURES TO ELIMINATE OR PROVIDE MAXIMUM FEASIBLE TREATMENT OF PORT-WINE STAINS,” was placed on the calendar for Final Adoption on Friday, April 27, 2018.

Senator Tokuda moved that the Senate reconsider its action taken on April 24, 2018, in disagreeing to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 149, S.D.1, seconded by Senator Kahele and carried.

Senator Tokuda then moved that the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 149, S.D.1, seconded by Senator Kahele.

Senator Tokuda noted:

“This is our Senate concurrent resolution to convene a working group to review, collect data, and make recommendations on our home care workforce, especially as our community continues to age very rapidly. The House has made substantive amendments to the resolution that are in alignment with the original intent of the working group, and we are in agreement with these changes.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.C.R. No. 149, S.D.1, and S.C.R. No. 149, S.D.1, H.D. 2, entitled: “SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE ON AGING AND THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII CENTER ON AGING TO CONVENE A WORKING GROUP TO REVIEW IN-HOME CARE SERVICES AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS TO IMPROVE THE QUALITY OF CARE AND URGING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH TO ADOPT ADMINISTRATIVE RULES TO PROTECT CONSUMERS,” was placed on the calendar for Final Adoption on Friday, April 27, 2018.

At this time, Senator Ruderman rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Last Friday, on 4/20, or Hemp Day, I mentioned my friend Share Christie, who’s serving several years in Honolulu Federal Detention Center. I realize federal prison is not our kuleana, but I need to tell you about her, otherwise no one will know. I’ve visited Share many times. This week, I learned that Share’s visitation privileges were revoked. No coherent explanation was provided. For the four years her husband, Roger Christie, was in prison, no visits were allowed from Share for three of those years. They waited until Roger was released, then put Share in for at least three years. Husband Roger Christie is not allowed to visit – her husband is not allowed to visit her. I hope you can see this is not a normal incarceration; someone has made a decision here in our Aloha State to inflict maximum pain and suffering to this peaceful, nonviolent couple. We all remain silent about it. Share has also been denied medical treatment for a very painful injury, denied extra blankets and pillows to be made more comfortable. She has not been allowed to see a doctor after months of requesting help. In our name, this is how we are treating two of the most peaceful, loving people I’ve ever met. What kind of society does this?”

“Some might say they deserve it; after all, they broke the law. Roger operated what he called a cannabis ministry. They used cannabis as a sacrament. To some, it may sound outlandish, but I assure you, Roger is the real deal, a true believer following his calling. He has shown me documents he’s collected about the religious use of cannabis going back to and including biblical mentions and the anointing oil used by Jesus of Nazareth. He operated his ministry with full knowledge and approval of our mayor, our police chief, and our attorney general. When a new mayor or police chief came along, he informed them. He believed in what they were doing; he hid nothing and hurt no one. Then the feds busted them. Roger, true believer that he is, wanted a trial, believing that a jury of his peers would not convict him. But at trial, he was not allowed to present their well-prepared, legally solid religious freedom defense, and because Roger had refused a plea deal, they were imprisoned. So now Share Christie sits in federal prison. Her neighbors are serious meth dealers and violent, hardened criminals. She does not deserve it.

“On Friday, I discussed the environmental damage of 70 years of burning oil and deforestation, completely unnecessary, due to hemp prohibition. I add to that the rise in opioid addiction and deaths, which destroys lives, also unnecessarily. Two of the states with legal cannabis have seen decreases of 25 percent in opioid addiction and deaths. Nothing we are now considering will bring such a benefit. Of course, just as with the timber and oil industries, we can now add the pharmaceutical industry, which profits obscenely from this suffering. I hope you can all see that this prohibition is not random, is not without dire consequences, and is supported by deep-seated corruption from these industries. We should stop being a party to it. I met some years ago with a constituent who was seeking a source for legal medical cannabis; he had a card but no supplier. He explained to me how much this helps him when available, and he showed me what he has to take when it’s not: Oxycontin and another opioid pain reliever. He hated taking them. There is still no legal medical cannabis available on our island. Is this caution, as we like to say, or is it recklessness? My neighborhood once had a cannabis-based economy. After a crackdown on such illegal plants, the meth epidemic replaced it. It was like day and night, and today, we still face increased violence and crime due to meth and heroin. There is no one in my neighborhood who thinks the meth era is preferable to the cannabis era. Barack Obama said the problem with cannabis criminalization is poor people go to prison for it but wealthy people do not.

“If I’ve taken a few minutes of your time, I hope you’ll forgive me. I do it for my friend Share Christie, suffering 24/7 for years in a high-security facility in our town at our taxpayer expense, who has no voice and whose story must be heard. Several years ago, Senator Espero, as then-chair of the Public Safety committee, joined me in visiting Roger Christie. I thank him for that because I, myself, was afraid to go; I wasn’t sure if they’d let me out if I went alone. Our visit resulted in better treatment for him and some attention to his case. After his scheduled release date passed, he was held in limbo for many months longer than he should have been due to inaction by the authorities. When I scheduled a second visit, to be accompanied by more publicity, he was miraculously released. I’ll be visiting Share again soon, given permission to do so. Again, Senator Espero is willing to accompany me. I invite others to join us. If so, we will bring attention to an injustice. If not, please consider the real effects of our outdated, barbaric policy toward cannabis in general: massive environmental destruction; increased addictions to hard drugs, both legal and street; and ruination of people’s lives. This year, we made modest adjustments to our medical cannabis program. Next year, we should decriminalize cannabis or, at the least, allow counties to regulate cannabis as a type of pilot program. The harmful effects of cannabis prohibition cause real harm to real people. It’s not theoretical; it’s not a joke. We need to take action, and we need to rise above the irrational, unjustifiable fearmongering, and end the barbaric treatment of our citizens. Thank you.”

The Chair then announced:

“The decking deadline for all non-fiscal bills in conference is 11:30 p.m. tonight.”

Senator Ihara rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“I wanted to inform you, as presiding officer of this body, and the senator from the Big Island: I’ll be joining him when he visits the prison, and I hope others will join us, too. Thank you.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“The Affordable Care Act recently celebrated its eighth anniversary. While some may argue otherwise, I am confident in stating that the Affordable Care Act (ACA) is the greatest advancement in women’s health in a generation. Before 2010, being a woman could be considered a pre-existing condition, and women paid thousands of dollars out of pocket for basic care, such as birth control and annual checkups.

“Today, the ACA requires that health plans cover important preventive services without any co-pays for enrollees. These services include birth control, breast and cervical cancer screenings, and annual well-woman exams. Since ACA became law, over 55 million women gained guaranteed coverage of these additional preventive benefits without cost-sharing. This shift in access saves women an average of $269 annually and saves lives.

“Further, the ACA established Essential Health Benefits, a minimum level of coverage that most health plans have to provide. These benefits include important services, such as prescription drug coverage and maternity care. Prior to the ACA, only 12 percent of individual market plans covered maternity care.

“Congressional Republican leadership continues to find ways to destabilize the market and further chip away at health care access. Most recently, Congress failed to attach payments to insurers – meant to financially stabilize the health care exchanges – to the government spending package that was signed into law.

“We can’t wait around while Congress plays political games with our health care. Hawai’i will lead by example, which is why I am backing and working to advance a package of health insurance bills in the Legislature.

“Senate Bill 2340, sponsored by the Women’s Legislative Caucus, will prohibit insurers from denying coverage for those with pre-existing conditions, from charging women more for coverage simply because of their gender, and will allow young people to stay on their parent or guardian’s plans until age 26. This bill, in conjunction with other health insurance measures up for consideration today, will shore up our state insurance laws in the event that the ACA or portions of the law are repealed.

“In a recent Gallup poll, 55 percent of Americans worry ‘a great deal’ about ‘the availability and affordability of health care.’ Hawai’i is no different. Since the ACA became law, more than 54,000 people in Hawai’i gained insurance coverage, and 560,000 people with pre-existing conditions can no longer be denied coverage. More than 268,000 women have gained insurance and approximately 6,000 youth in Hawai’i have gained coverage because of the ACA requirement that allows young people to stay on an insurance policy until they turn 26 years old.

“Please join me in defending the gains we’ve made in the state due to passage of this landmark law, regardless of what happens in Washington. Support S.B. 2340, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1. Thank you.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"This measure establishes liability protections for individuals utilizing rescue tube devices in an attempt to save another person in a drowning incident, as well as for owners and operators of property where a rescue tube is located.

"As a state which attracts millions of visitors every year due to its beautiful shorelines, the risks of drowning are very present, ultimately accounting for nearly half of all non-resident fatal injuries that are the result of drowning, with approximately 80 percent of those drownings occurring in the ocean. On average, one drowning per week occurs in the State of Hawai'i, making this a public health and safety matter we cannot ignore.

"While lifeguards are present at many public beaches, not all of our shorelines are manned by their watchful eyes, and though warning signs are posted in many public places, they may often be overlooked. In the event of a water incident, safety devices such as rescue tubes help make rescue operations safer for everyone involved. This measure will encourage deployment of more emergency rescue devices by limiting liability associated with their use.

"Please join me in support of this commonsense measure."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"This measure will require the attorney general to defend any civil action pursued against a county and any person employed by the county to provide lifeguard services at a designated state beach park under an agreement between the State and the county.

"The passage of this measure is timely, as the rate of visitation to our beautiful state continues to rise. With these large numbers of out-of-state visitors comes an increased risk for ocean safety-related incidents to occur, placing greater demands on the lifeguards posted at state beach parks contracted by county governments. Due to the nature of their work, lifeguards may be placed in situations that could result in litigation. This is especially true since the Legislature allowed the protections of Act 170 expire last session. We should seek to restore the protections of Act 170. Until then, this bill is a commonsense step forward. This measure will ensure that the State will provide legal defense services for our contracted lifeguards, should the need arise, provided the civil action is not the result of the lifeguard's gross negligence or wanton act or omission.

"Our county lifeguards provide an invaluable service, not only to our resident population, but also to any individual who visits our state and seeks to enjoy our renowned shorelines. Please join me in supporting H.B. 2097."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"The purpose of this measure is to allow a social club granted federal tax-exempt status to sell wine from the social club's inventory for off-premises consumption. This measure will also waive certain requirements for the issuance of class 10 special liquor licenses and enable class 10 special liquor licensees to auction off liquor in sealed or covered containers or services that provide liquor.

"Certain nonprofit organizations have faced a very difficult process when attempting to obtain a special liquor license for a fundraising event. Situations like these can prove to be burdensome in time and money as many nonprofit organizations operate on small budgets. This measure streamlines the special license process and reduces the burden on nonprofit organizations by waiving fees and other requirements for applications for a class 10 special liquor license required for fundraising events, allowing them easy access to an effective fundraising tool. This measure also permits a tax-exempt social club to sell wine from the social club's inventory and clarifies the ability of a class 10 special liquor licensee to auction off liquor or services that provide liquor.

"To reduce the burdensome process nonprofits face when planning fundraising events, it is important we pass this measure. Please join me in support of S.B. 2612."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“This bill prohibits prospective employers from requesting or considering a job applicant’s prior wage or salary history in the job application process, prohibits enforcing wage secrecy policies, and bans retaliation or discrimination against employees who disclose, discuss, or inquire about their own or coworkers’ wages for the purpose of exercising rights under the law.

“Women are still paid 84 cents on the dollar compared to men, and a contributing factor is an employer’s ability to consider a job applicant’s previous salary history. The cycle plays out as follows: women disclose their previous salary (which is typically lower than a male’s in a similar role) and, in response, receive lower salary offers. Pay secrecy inhibits workers from pursuing claims of pay discrimination, as women cannot challenge wage discrimination they do not know exist. By prohibiting employers from requesting previous salaries, preventing enforced wage secrecy and banning retaliation against employees who do inquire about their own or coworkers’ wages, we encourage conversations surrounding equal pay, and can begin chipping away at the gender pay gap.

“Please join me in support of this bill, which is part of the Women’s Legislative Caucus package. Thank you.”

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"This bill is a critical step forward in improving the access for firefighters in receiving comprehensive medical benefits upon a diagnosis of cancer. This bill intends to address medical claims of cancer arising from the course of duty, and to include an expanded list of target organs that have been identified by a University of Cincinnati study regarding cases of cancer diagnosis in firefighters. This bill does not seek to create any new benefits or enhance the existing benefits of firefighters.

"In October 2013, researchers from the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health found that firefighters possess a higher risk than the general population of being diagnosed with cancer. The study additionally found that cancers of the respiratory, digestive, oral, and urinary systems accounted for much of the higher rates of cancer amongst a group of 30,000 firefighters from three different major U.S. cities. During the 2016 Session, this legislative body passed H.C.R. 32, which resulted in the convening of a specialized task force to examine relevant issues pertaining to cancer in the firefighting profession. Through its evaluation, the task force had found that some states, such as Arizona, California, Nevada, North Dakota, and Virginia, had enacted statutes which would ensure the existence of special benefit programs for firefighters diagnosed with cancer as a result of the occupational hazards which they face.

"H.B. 1778 will provide the medical coverage our local firefighters deserve, by requiring their private health plan to pay for or to provide medical care in the event of a controverted workers' compensation claim. In the case of an accepted workers' compensation claim for leukemia, multiple myeloma, or non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, an employer will be liable for 137 percent of medical care services and supplies.

"Firefighters risk their lives daily to protect Hawaii's communities and are exposed to multiple carcinogens and toxicants when responding to fire emergencies. Ensuring that they receive timely and proper medical treatment is imperative to lessening the emotional and financial burdens that the families of firefighters who are diagnosed with cancer endure.

"This measure will give firefighters diagnosed with cancer the ability to access more affordable healthcare and provide a significant amount of support to the families of our first responders, and for that reason, I strongly encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting this measure.

"I strongly urge my Senate colleagues to join me in voting yes on this critical measure."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I write in strong support of S.B. 2293, which will require the Hawai'i Housing Finance and Development Corporation to institute proceedings for the condemnation of the ground lease for the Front Street Apartments affordable housing project, beginning the process to take control of the Front Street Apartments property via eminent domain. The Front Street Apartments opened as a 142-unit affordable housing project in 2001, and was supposed to remain affordable for 50 years. Unfortunately, the leaseholder, Front Street Affordable Housing Partners, used a legal loophole to put the project up for sale after 15 years, renegeing on its promise to the state's residents.

"I am proud the Legislature has chosen to initiate the process to secure the property. This strong action will put the State in the strongest possible negotiating position to ensure that the Front Street Apartments remain available to our low-income residents, and communicates to the people of the Hawai'i that the affordable housing crisis is a primary legislative priority. I would urge the County of Maui to appropriate the matching funds to begin this process.

"Additionally, the bill appropriates $30 million for expedited completion of the Leiali'i affordable housing project, mauka of the Hawaiian Homelands property, by 2021.

"This bill is a huge win for Maui and clearly establishes a commitment from this body to pursue affordable housing options statewide. Please join me in support of S.B. 2293, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1. Thank you."

Senator Gabbard requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Gabbard's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 3095, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1. As chair of the AEN committee, it's been no secret that I feel that sustainable ag methods, like organics and natural farming, are the direction that we should be heading in our state. This is good for our environment and the health of our residents.

"Because we've strayed over the last hundred years with the industrial ag model and the use of petroleum based fertilizers and toxic pesticides, we've done a lot of damage to our Hawai'i nei. For many years, thousands of people around our state have been demanding that the Legislature take action on the health and environmental concerns associated with the use of pesticides, especially in large-scale ag operations. As we know, the conversation on pesticide regulation began heating up back in 2006 and 2008 when students and teachers at Waimea Canyon Middle School on Kaua'i were sickened by odors which were believed to be pesticides. For years, there were rallies, marches, and heated discussions about the need for regulation of pesticides on that island, as well as many other parts of the state. This issue continued to flare up until 2013 when the Kaua'i County Council voted to override Mayor Carvalho's veto of Bill 2491 by a 5-2 vote on November 16th of that year. Bill 2491 did the following:

- Required large agribusinesses to disclose the type of pesticides they spray on their fields and the growth of genetically modified crops.
- Imposed buffer zones, prohibiting the growth of genetically modified crops near schools, dwellings, medical facilities, public roadways and waterways.
- Required companies to provide annual reports of genetically modified crops grown on their fields to the county Office of Economic Development and state Department of Agriculture.

"Shortly after the bill was enacted as Ordinance 960, Syngenta and other biotech companies filed a lawsuit against the county. This court case wound its way through the federal courts and finally on November 18, 2016, Federal Judge Consuelo Callahan confirmed the ruling that Kaua'i couldn't enact its pesticide regulations, because this was the state's domain.

"This kicked the issue to the Legislature, where it languished for the past several years. Our Department of Agriculture did institute a Good Neighbor Policy first on Kaua'i and later statewide. The Good Neighbor Policy is a voluntary program whereby biotech companies report and make their pesticide use public on a monthly basis, notify neighboring property owners within 1,000 feet of pesticide spraying, and create 100-foot buffer zones. This is something, but at the same time it's only voluntary!

"The truth is we've been slow to action and I apologize to the people of our state for that! I know that S.B. 3095 isn't perfect, but it's a compromise and a solid, first step in better protecting people from these dangerous chemicals. One of the highlights is that we'll be the first state in the nation to ban chlorpyrifos, which studies show is very harmful to human health. We'll also have restricted use pesticide reporting, a pesticide drift study at three schools, and 100-foot pesticide buffer zones around all public schools. The bill will increase the cap of the Pesticide Use Revolving Fund from $250,000 to $1 million for pesticide training, create two new positions in the DOA, and put $300,000 toward outreach and education.

"Kudos to the Senate President and the other Senate conference co-chairs – the senators from West Maui, Wahiawā, and Mililani – our House counterparts, and all the Neighbor Island folks who spent their time and money to go back and forth to show their support for this bill. S.B. 3095 is a very solid step in an on-going conversation about the future of our beautiful islands. It's a win for all those residents around our state who've sacrificed their blood, sweat, and tears over the years on this issue and for us legislators, who are finally hearing their voices and taking action! Mahalo nui."

Senator Shimabukuro requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Shimabukuro's remarks read as follows:

"As we are all painfully aware, homelessness has become an epidemic problem across our state. This year's Wai'anae Boys & Girls Club Youth of the Year has a poignant story: Although his parents could be housed, they choose to live at Wai'anae Boat Harbor due to their drug use. This was the subject of his winning speech, and a video of his speech went viral on social media. Our hearts go out to these innocent children, who are homeless due to circumstances beyond their control.

"O'ahu has only one homeless youth drop-in center located in Waikiki that operates only four days per week from 3 to 6 p.m., so no overnight stays are allowed. When sex trafficking victims, run-aways, and other at-risk, non-violent youth get in trouble and appear in Family Court, my understanding is the only place that can house them other than Detention Home is the Bobby Benson Center, which almost never has room. Family Court judges often have no choice but to send them back to the streets.

"At the same time, the need to imprison youth is decreasing. Based on this, the state sought and has received U.S. Department of Justice grants and other funds to address the need to house at-risk youth. S.B. 2791, which transitions the Hawaii Youth Correctional Facility into the Kawaihoa Youth and Family Wellness Center, is a key part of the solution. The bill is not asking for any money, only authorization to implement these wonderful solutions. The conference committee adopted DOE's suggested amendment, and UPW's concerns are addressed since the bill would actually create jobs by increasing enrollment at the facility.

"The HI Youth Services Network supported this bill, and I would like to quote key portions of their testimony:

The number of youth at [HYCF] has declined to the lowest level ever – about 20 youth in a facility built for 60 that had 120 fifteen years ago;

At the same time, the number of adolescents receiving services from the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Division has increased; and,

The number of youth in out-of-state residential treatment has increased. Youth are only placed out-of-state if there are no appropriate services available in Hawaii.

It is clear that increasing access to mental health and substance abuse treatment improves outcomes for youth in the juvenile justice system. Providing prevention and treatment services in portions of the facility no longer needed for court-sentenced youth makes sense.

"I urge you to vote in favor of S.B. 2791 to get us a step closer to long-overdue Juvenile Justice Reform."

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, remarks in strong support of H.B. 1906, which seeks to increase protections for health care workers by increasing the criminal penalties for assaulting a health care worker while performing their duties. It would make intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causing bodily harm to certain health care workers a class C felony offense.

"Health care workers often operate in an environment of high stress and emotion, which unfortunately can lead to incidences of violence. Health care workers have significantly higher rates of on-the-job nonfatal assaults, and the Bureau of Labor Statistics found that health care providers are at 16 times greater risk for violence than other workers. Nurses are often the primary targets of nonfatal assaults, and psychiatric nurses have the highest rate of assault. Health care providers do not deserve to be subjected to violence while caring for patients. This bill will offer some desperately needed protection.

"Eight other states already consider assault against any health care worker a felony. Similar protection already exists for teachers, other educational workers, emergency medical technicians, and employees who work in correctional facilities. H.B. 1906 will send a clear message that if a patient or family member seriously assaults a nurse or other health care worker, that individual will face significant consequences.

"Hawaii's demand for health care providers is high, and we currently face a provider shortage. We must make it a priority to keep our vital health care workers safe while they care for our community, and encourage more men and women to join the health care workforce. Please join me in support of H.B. 1906. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 67-18 was adopted and H.B. No. 1906, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HEALTH CARE WORKERS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's remarks read as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of House Bill 2589 – which authorizes the Department of Transportation under certain conditions to designate shoulders upon which the Department may authorize the driving of motorcycles.

"A 'Motorcycle Shoulder Use Law' reduces the risk of death, injury, and damages sustained by motorcycle operators and passengers caused by rear end accidents involving automobiles and other motor vehicles.

"Also, this will allow motorcycles to move through stalled and stopped traffic, especially during gridlock on Hawai'i freeways and highways, thereby eliminating overheating problems associated with air-cooled motorcycles, which, unlike motor vehicles, have no radiators and, therefore, rely on movement to maintain cooling.

"Therefore, members of the chamber, I stand by the decision of the Senate and House committees on Transportation to pass H.B. 2589 on April 26, 2018, and I welcome your support. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 79-18 was adopted and H.B. No. 2589, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTORCYCLES," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's remarks read as follows:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of House Bill 2442 – which requires the counties to take into custody any abandoned vehicle on a public road within 10 business days.

"Currently, there is no timeline for the removal of abandoned vehicles, and that is why we see a massive amount of abandoned vehicles across all our communities. In their testimony to the Senate Committees on Transportation and Energy and Public Safety, Intergovernmental, and Military Affairs, the City and County of Honolulu stated that in 2017, Hawai'i saw 84,051 new or transferred vehicles brought onto the islands, of which, in the same year, they investigated 28,263 complaints regarding an abandoned vehicle and removed 9,668 unwanted vehicles left on public property. Ten days is a very reasonable amount of time to accommodate coordinated efforts to remove unsightly and sometimes dangerous abandoned vehicles on the sides of our roads.

"Therefore, I stand by the decision of the Senate and House committees on Transportation to pass H.B. 2442 on April 26, 2018, and I welcome your support. Mahalo."

Senator Inouye moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 104-18 be adopted and H.B. No. 2587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Nishihara.

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I appreciate my colleagues giving the County of Maui and a couple of other counties additional time to do the right thing and adopt the extension, the county surcharge on state tax, because the counties do need the money and this is certainly a way to provide that, recognizing that a full 33 percent of this is exported to our visitors. Mahalo.”

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye’s remarks read as follows:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of House Bill 2587 – which extends the period in which a county may adopt a surcharge on state tax, under certain conditions, from March 31, 2018, to March 31, 2019.

“The additional time will provide Hawai‘i and Maui counties with the opportunity to continue meeting with community members and to gather additional information to make sound decisions on how to best move forward. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 104-18 was adopted and H.B. No. 2587, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 115-18 (H.B. No. 2010, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Wakai moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 115-18 be adopted and H.B. No. 2010, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Thielen.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I’d like to say ‘hooray for the Senate’ on this bill. This year, we are passing the mark of 10 million tourists coming to visit the State of Hawai‘i in 2018. Now, you would think, from reading HTA’s annual report to the Legislature, that we’ve also passed a watershed mark as far as revenue to the state. According to the head of HTA: ‘We began 2017 hopeful Hawai‘i’s tourism industry could replicate the success of 2016, which saw the highest totals ever recorded for visitor spending ($15.91 billion) [and] generated state tax revenue’ more than we’ve ever received before. But the reality is, the 9.4 million visitors that we had in the last year generated less revenue when you account for inflation than we received back in 1989, which was our watershed year for visitors. Back in 1989, in inflation-adjusted revenues, the state received $17.9 billion from tourists when we had less than 6.5 million visitors in that year. How is that possible? Well, back in those days, visitors spent, on average, about $2,500 per visit. Today, and for the last 13 years, visitors are spending about $1,800 per visit. So, about 13 years ago, we passed a watershed moment in our state. How is that possible? Because, about 13 years ago, we approved timeshares and then, with the internet coming on board, we have vacation rentals, so visitors can and do come to Hawai‘i and spend significantly less money. And this is again why I say ‘hooray for the Senate.’

“We tried to address that issue with our bills on vacation rentals, to be able to gather the revenue and have a fair playing field between people doing unpermitted vacation rentals and permitted vacation rentals and hotels. To also support the counties in enforcing their land use restrictions so that we could perhaps reverse this trend and end up with higher-paying visitors with less wear and tear on our resources and less congestion for our residents. We also – hooray for the Senate – tried to deal with the additional wear and tear 10 million visitors are having on our recreational resources, like our trails, and we tried to get more funding to support our trails so that we could protect visitors and residents alike. Unfortunately, the House did not agree, similar to their not agreeing on how to address vacation rentals, so we’ve left our trail system with under $2 million – which, by the way, is the amount of funding that they’ve had every year for the past 25 years, to deal with an increasing amount of visitors – about 3.5 million more people each year – coming and walking on our trails, and we’ve left our state vulnerable, God forbid, for the next injuries that happen, to liability, to compensate people for the fact that they are on trails that are unmanaged for the volume of people that are going on it. So, I look forward to next year, to coming back and working with the Senate and hopefully getting the House to agree to taking some steps to manage our trails and recreational spaces, to manage the vacation rental glut.

“And also, I’m really happy that we are passing this bill, and thank you very much to the chair of Economic Development and Tourism, to start to take our foot off the gas pedal – instead of more, more, more visitors – and to take a breath and to try and figure out how we deal with this new paradigm, where visitors are able to come to Hawai‘i, spend significantly less money. We’re crossing the 10 million visitor mark. We need to figure this out or we’re going to see a decreasing spiral over the next 10 years. Thank you, fellow colleagues.”

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 129-18 (S.B. No. 2237, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Kidani moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 129-18 be adopted and S.B. No. 2237, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I just am asking that our colleagues be patient with the transfer for the properties. We do have an ambitious timetable in the bill, and I think it is going to take some time to walk through, especially the properties where we have to subdivide them in order to protect our public parks and transfer only the areas under the Department of Education. But I think the bill in its final form has ended up good, and I support it.”

Senator Kidani requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kidani’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in strong support of S.B. 2237, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1. This bill proposes that title to City and County of Honolulu lands on which public schools are situated be transferred to the State Department of Education.

“The intent is not to take park lands as some have perceived – the city lands in question are already being used by the DOE. The intent is to allow the DOE to make the best use of school property, even creating much needed revenue opportunities to support their operations.

“Many public schools in Hawai‘i require extensive renovation or rebuilding, and this process is unnecessarily complicated by having state schools on county land, or situated on both county and state land. Transferring a fee simple interest for county school lands to the State will greatly simplify the process of undertaking much needed repairs and renovations. This could be valuable, for example, for schools in high-density urban areas and along the rail right-of-way corridor. Allowing the DOE flexibility to make best use of their properties could lead to public-private partnerships for new school facilities, perhaps even developing affordable housing opportunities through the construction of rental units.

“I urge a yes vote on S.B. 2237, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 129-18 was adopted and S.B. No. 2237, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara, Taniguchi). Noes, none.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 144-18 (S.B. No. 2571, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Rhoads moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 144-18 be adopted and S.B. No. 2571, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Gabbard.

Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“This measure will protect our vulnerable coral reefs and marine ecosystems by prohibiting the sale of sunscreens containing either oxybenzone, octinoxate, or both, beginning January 1, 2021. You know, our reefs are under extreme threat from global climate change. From 2014 to 2016, the longest bleaching events ever occurred, killing coral reefs on a greater scale than has ever been previously recorded. I’m very proud of the Senate leadership in our legislature, along with the House, that we’ve taken to address, with statewide policy, our climate change, but we know that Hawai‘i cannot do it alone, and this is one way that we can help. In 2015, a study published in the Archives of Environmental Contamination and Toxicology showed deleterious effects on larval coral in a laboratory setting. These effects were shown to occur at oxybenzone concentrations less than those that have been measured at some of our beaches here in Hawai‘i. Considering the many stressors already faced by reefs and the evidence of toxicity of certain components of sunscreen to corals and other marine organisms, a proactive policy is required to protect our reefs, especially here in Hawai‘i, where we have high levels of marine-based tourism. Additionally, overexposure to UV radiation is indisputably a human health concern: It causes skin cancer. And because one doesn’t typically apply makeup before going for a swim in the ocean, I support the common-sense exception for cosmetic products. I’m pleased to see that some of our manufacturers of sunscreen products have already begun to reformulate their products to ensure that we don’t see an increase in skin cancer for those who enjoy the out-of-doors here. I want to extend a particular mahalo to Chair Rhoads for his leadership in this area and for bringing forth the bill that we have today. Please join me in supporting Senate Bill 2571, Conference Draft 1. Mahalo.”

Senator Gabbard rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“Colleagues, this legislation is a big step forward for the protection of our coral reefs, marine life, and human health. When it goes into effect on January 1, 2021, it will be the first law passed, not only in the country, but in the entire world, to ban sunscreens that contain the dangerous chemicals oxybenzone and octinoxate. And, for the record, Mexico has taken administrative action to ban the use of sunscreens with these chemicals in their nature preserves, but this measure will be the first law. Scientific evidence indicates that these chemicals induce coral bleaching, harm and kill coral larvae by creating gross deformities, and act as an endocrine disruptor. As it relates to human health, these chemicals are linked to causing breast cancer to become more aggressive, polluting breast milk, causing Hirschsprung deformity in newborns, and associated with women’s uterine diseases, threaten male sexual health, and can damage DNA. There’s evidence that oxybenzone is even showing up in our aquifers and our drinking water.

“Worldwide, 50 percent of our coral reefs were lost in 2014 and 2015 because of coral bleaching. The main factor that has contributed to the decline of our coral reefs is localized pollution, such as sewage, pesticide runoff, and chemical sunscreens. So how much sunscreen are we talking about? According to the US National Park Service, more than 6,000 tons of sunscreen end up in Hawaiian waters every single year. And to localize this a little bit more, DLNR has reported that 55 gallons – that’s right, 55 gallons – of sunscreen are going into our nearshore waters each day on Maui. So, with this volume of chemical sunscreens pouring into our oceans in areas like Kapalua and Hanauma Bay, of course, our reefs are going to have next to no chance of recovery.

“The fact is, S.B. 2571 was inspired by science. And my hat’s off to Dr. Robert Richmond of UH, Dr. Ruth Gates at the Hawai‘i Institute of Marine Biology, and Dr. Craig Downs of the Haereticus Environmental Lab for providing us the facts to help us make an informed and educated decision. It’s encouraging to know that our tourist industry is stepping up, with companies such as Hawaiian Airlines, Aqua-Aston, Sheraton, Outrigger, Kā'anapali Resort, and Napili Resort are all doing their part to provide reef-friendly sunscreens to their guests. For the record, reef-friendly sunscreens refer to those that have been scientifically proven to be safe in our environment and contain active ingredients such as non-nanosized titanium dioxide and zinc oxide. And as I mentioned, Dr. Craig Downs, a forensic ecotoxicologist, has been one of our principal scientific experts in crafting this legislation. He informed us that he'll be excited to now allow his six-year-old daughter, Evelyn, to swim in Kapalua and Hanauma Bay and outdoor swimming pools in our state once this ban takes effect. Think about that for a moment: The scientist who has shown us the high concentration of oxybenzone in Hanauma Bay thinks that it's too dangerous for his daughter to get in the water there. Much has been said about whether there will be enough alternatives to sunscreens that contain oxybenzone and octinoxate. However, even the mainstream names of sunscreens already offer alternatives, not to mention eco-friendly ones like Raw Elements, All Good, Babo Botanicals, Badger, Goddess Garden, Happy as Larry, Hawaii Medicinal, Kuleana Sun Protection, Little Hands Hawai'i, Mama Kuleana, Manda Naturals, Raw Love, and SolKine Maui that are on store shelves today. And Little Hands Hawai'i is actually making their sunscreen here. So S.B. 2571 is a good first step in keeping oxybenzone or octinoxate out of our water and away from our bodies, and it's definitely the right thing to do. Please join me in voting yes on this important bill. Mahalo."

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I'd like to rise in support of this measure, and if you could take the words of the senators from Maui and Kapolei and please put them in the Journal as if they were my own, I would certainly appreciate it very much." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

"Now, if our coral reefs could speak and talk, they'd be saying, 'Thank you very much, Hawai'i Legislature,' as well as the marine life that lives along our corals, our precious corals that we here, as well as millions of tourists each day, enjoy. As was stated, in 2015, there was research that showed the harmful effects, done by Dr. Craig Downs from the Haereticus Environmental Lab in Virginia, who also happens to have attended the University of Hawai'i, so it's good to see one of our own local researchers and scientists involved in this. And, in 2016, at the Honolulu Coral Reef Symposium, he presented his research and his work, his science, to the world, and the world took notice and began watching Hawai'i. In September of 2016, the IUCN World Conservation Congress came to Hawai'i and very excitedly listened and read about what Hawai'i was doing. We had legislation in 2017 that didn't pass, but this year was the year, and I want to congratulate those stakeholders, the Maui Ocean Center, Sierra Club, Surfrider Foundation, Hawai'i Reef & Ocean Coalition, and all of the ocean enthusiasts as well as students, because many elementary school students, high school students, also got on board with this cause and understood how important it is to preserve and help our coral. There are many factors hurting and harming our coral, and some of them are out of our control as lawmakers, but this is one that is a no-brainer. Imagine a man-made chemical and if it were poured all over you and it just stayed there 24 hours a day: That's what's happening at Hanauma Bay and other areas. And with this measure, in 2021, we will be making groundbreaking history as we show the world the way in taking care of our ocean resources and protecting our marine environment. So, colleagues, I urge you to support this and thank you very much for what we are doing on this measure."

Senator Nishihara requested that remarks in support of the measure with reservations be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Nishihara's remarks read as follows:

"Senate President and colleagues, I rise in support of S.B. 2571 with reservations. The bill as crafted appears to address some of the concerns raised by environmentalists over the use of sunscreens containing the compounds oxybenzone and octinoxate in the health of our coral reefs. While no one disputes the need to protect our reefs, to identify these products as having a significant effect in coral bleaching ignores the much larger environmental issues of ocean acidification, rising temperatures in our oceans, and runoffs from the land. These have larger impacts on our coral health. The reason for the use of sunscreens is the clear and present danger of melanoma, skin damage caused by our ever-present sun. The conditions that make Hawai'i so attractive also increase the likelihood of melanoma to not only our visitors but our resident population as well. So, we have to balance the competing interests of preserving our important reefs and lowering the risks of skin cancer. Delaying the implementation of this bill to 2021 in hopes that the sunscreen manufacturers can find a safer product at least recognizes the complexity of the problem. It is for the reasons stated that I am voting with reservations. Mahalo."

Senator English rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I ask that the words of the previous speakers from Maui and Kapolei and 'Ewa be inserted into the Journal as if they were my own." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

"I'd also like to add my perspective on this. You know, colleagues, we've worked very hard on many things, but this particular one is a momentous achievement for us, and here's why. We have to take action on things that we don't have full information on, and some have argued that we need to have more studies, we need to have more science, we need to look at this more in-depth, but I prefer the precautionary principle that we take action now based on the information that we have, protect the resource, and then take a look at further science. I think that's the more prudent way to go, and I think we should look at this precautionary principle as we move forward with other pieces of legislation relating to the environment because if we get it wrong, we lose something forever.

"I'd like to also point out that, in many ways, this bill helps us to achieve the legislative agenda that we put forward early on in the session, particularly number 12, Responsible Consumption and Production, and I'll read this. It says, 'We will work diligently to achieve sustainable management, efficient use of natural resources, promote sound management of all wastes, enact methods for companies to adapt sustainable practices and provide people with relevant information for sustainable lifestyles.' We also hit number 14, Life Below Water: 'We will take action to sustainably manage and protect our marine and coastal ecosystems by supporting policies that aim to reduce pollution and enhance ocean-related management.' We've also hit a few others with this particular bill, but I want to point out that when we began this session, we had a very ambitious agenda, and I want to congratulate everyone here in the Senate because I think, in many ways, we have met our goals. And as we move forward with this particular measure, the entire world will watch. We've set a standard that's very high that many sovereign states will aim toward: Many countries in the South Pacific and the Indian Oceans and the Caribbean oceans, island nations, will take this as a template and, hopefully, will begin enacting it in their jurisdictions. So, with that, Mr. President, I rise in strong support of this measure and I add my congratulations to this body. Thank you.”

Senator Inouye requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye’s remarks read as follows:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of Senate Bill 2571 – which bans the sale, offer of sale, or distribution in the State of any sunscreen that contains oxybenzone or octinoxate, or both, without a prescription issued by a licensed healthcare provider to preserve marine ecosystems.

“Peer-reviewed studies have documented the negative impact of these chemicals on corals and other marine life in a laboratory setting. Prohibiting the sale of products containing oxybenzone and octinoxate may benefit the health and resiliency of Hawai’i’s coral reef ecosystems. Therefore, I firmly believe this simple, straightforward bill is vitally important to the survival of our endangered coral reefs and nearshore marine environment, and can easily be implemented on July 1, 2021, since there are already numerous affordable and effective sunscreen products and protective active wear readily available on the market that do not contain oxybenzone and octinoxate. Hawai’i will become the first state to pass this momentous law to protect our coral reefs, and I thank you for the opportunity to provide remarks on S.B. 2571. Mahalo.”

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Colleagues, we’ve been working on this measure or some similar to it for several years now, and I’m very happy that this is the year that we pass the bill that can lead to state-level certification, decertification of law enforcement officers. When you look at what’s happening in law enforcement throughout the nation more in particular versus Hawai’i, there is certainly a need to have this level of policy and legislation for our state. Now, let me say that the majority of our law enforcement officers at the state and county level are professional, law-abiding citizens. But it’s also important that we have strong oversight of these individuals because these individuals carry guns and have a badge, and they have a perceived authority over all of us that no other person has. And when they say, ‘Stop,’ you’d better stop. But it’s important as well that we get control of the situation statewide and provide standards in education, in recruitment, in training and instruction and retraining so that we know that our law enforcement officers at the state and county level are the best-trained and the best individuals protecting our communities, our neighborhoods, and our families. I urge you all to support this and again thank you for your support.”

Senator Thielen rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I want to recognize the remarks and the hard work for many years of our Majority Floor Leader in getting this bill passed. We are the last state in the nation to pass a statewide standards board for our law enforcement officers. It is long overdue, but this is a very, very good bill, and I’m proud of our Majority Floor Leader for what he was able to do after many years of work. So thank you.”

Senator Nishihara requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Nishihara’s remarks read as follows:

“Senate President, I rise in support of H.B. 2071, C.D. 1. Colleagues, as stated in the bill, Hawai’i is currently one of a small number of states that has no statewide standards for law enforcement personnel at the county or state level. This bill requires the governor to appoint a law enforcement working group to recommend professional recruitment, hiring, and training standards for all state and county law enforcement officers who carry firearms and badges and have arrest authority. It further prohibits a law enforcement officer who has been terminated for misconduct by a state or county department, agency, or office in the capacity of law enforcement from being hired by another state or county law enforcement department, agency, or office. In order to secure the public’s trust in government’s responsibility and accountability for who is hired to safeguard its citizens, the creation of a statewide standards working group, which will be tasked to recommend certification and de-certification requirements for all state and county law enforcement personnel, is needed. While each of our counties state that they have their standards, it is time for our state to progress to a more consistent and uniform standard. It is for that reason I will be voting in support of this measure. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 148-18 was adopted and H.B. No. 2071, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 155-18 (S.B. No. 2027, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Green moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 155-18 be adopted and S.B. No. 2027, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Espero.

Senator Green rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“This bill will prevent hundreds of families from becoming homeless, so I really wanted to thank our colleagues for committing to this kind of approach to homelessness.”

Senator Espero rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Colleagues, homelessness and housing was the top priority for this legislative session, and I’d like to say that we delivered, this session. We provided assistance in building and constructing affordable rentals to the tune of $570 million, some of this being appropriations, some being a tax credit. And we have funded over $50 million for homeless services. I do believe that this is the year and the first step where, hopefully, down the road, we will start to see some significant changes. The changes and the progress has been slow for many of us, and I certainly believe that ohana zones and safe zones will also help as well as we fight this homeless problem on a multi-prong approach. Thank you for your support, and please vote on this measure.”

The Chair stated:

“I would also note to your remarks, with the Front Street bill and $30 million, it’s $600 million, so it sounds like a little better ring than $570 million.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 155-18 was adopted and S.B. No. 2027, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO APPROPRIATIONS TO ADDRESS HOMELESSNESS,” having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 159-18 (S.B. No. 3058, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 159-18 be adopted and S.B. No. 3058, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Kahele.

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“I oppose this bill for two primary reasons: One, it allows for 40-year extensions of leases in East Hawai’i without any opportunity for any other business to bid or offer ideas for other uses for the land. This means that the parcels will have been held for 95 years by the same business without anyone else ever having the opportunity to bid on a lease. This is good for the businesses that currently hold the leases, not so good for other businesses who wish to lease state land as well.

“Second, the justification for allowing a no-bid extension is that the current businesses will have to pay for substantial improvements on the parcels to retain the leases. S.B. 3058 defines ‘substantial improvements’ as ‘thirty percent of the market value of the existing improvements’ – not the land itself, the existing improvements. The argument has been made that these properties are derelict and, with the end of the leases approaching, no one is going to invest any money to improve them. If that is true, then 30 percent of the value of a dilapidated building is not very high. Thirty percent of almost worthless is not a very big number.

“A potentially redeeming provision is that the bill only authorizes and does not require the Board of Land and Natural Resources to approve no-bid lease extensions. Should this bill become law, I urge the BLNR to protect the interests of the taxpayer and drive a harder bargain than this legislation does.”

Senator Kahele requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kahele’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President I rise in strong support of this bill. This bill, S.B. 3058, seeks further redevelopment on public lands through a pilot project in East Hawai’i over the course of the next 10 years. This bill seeks not only to revitalize and encourage economic growth that is so desperately needed in Hilo, but also to correct certain provisions in HRS §171-36 that hamper the optimal use of these specific public lands. S.B. 3058 is modeled after Act 219 of the 2011 legislative session that was championed in this chamber but was restricted to hotel and resort leases and sunsetted in 2016. Act 219 allowed hotel and resort lessees STATEWIDE on these specific zoned lands to extend leases for 55 years. DLNR, in previous testimony during the 2017 session, has referred to Act 219 as a successful Act.

“Of the 4.1 million acres of land that comprise the State of Hawai’i, 1.8 million acres are held in trust by the State. Our statutory framework governing land use was established between 1959 and 1961, when the majority of land laws were focused on the agricultural sector of our economy and not the economic sector that focused on industry, commerce, and residential uses. The Special Land and Development Fund’s inventory totals 596 acres under lease, of which 130 acres are a par-3 golf course, 105 acres are along the ocean for the Ocean Institute, and 200 acres are open ag lands on Maui for a wind farm. So, for the remaining urban lands zoned industrial, commercial, or resort, DLNR manages 135 acres. If you add the SIB park for income-producing lands, you have 240 acres statewide as the majority of public lands held for economic benefit purposes. In Hilo, DLNR manages 79 parcels, which total approximately 58.8 acres in the KIAA. Approximately 70 leases, which govern the 79 parcels and encompass over 350 businesses – the economic heart of Hilo – generate $2.1 million in annual lease revenue for DLNR. Most of the leases were established pursuant to Act 4, Special Session of 1960, resulting from the destruction of Hilo Bay as a result of the 1960 tsunami. The State leases in Hilo expire over a 30-year period; leases expire between 2014 and 2044. The majority of the parcels are occupied by industrial and commercial uses.

“S.B. 3058’s extension of leases, dependent upon substantial improvements by the lessee, requires a DLNR board-approved development plan, as well as a commitment to make substantial improvements and invest at least 30 percent of the market value of the existing improvements in order to be considered for a lease extension. The 58.8 acres represents 0.00015 percent of the public lands that could be affected by this legislation. In addition, the statutory language in this bill only affects lands that are already under lease or that are seeking existing extensions.

“Finally, as someone who is also a strong supporter of the public trust doctrine, which exists to ensure that ‘public lands’ should be used to benefit all citizens of Hawai‘i, especially its beneficiaries, I also recognize the reality of the Hawai‘i we live in today in 2018 and the modern principles that guide our financial markets, which should distinctly differentiate between our urbanized, developed lands zoned industrial, commercial, or resort from our lands that are in the conservation or agricultural districts that frequently have conservation, recreation, or sustainability (notably food and water) as their ultimate public purpose. Developed urban lands are to support and should support the economic activity of the state through fostering private investment in leasehold improvements by keeping these lands at its ‘highest and best use.’ This bill will do just that and will put East Hawai‘i on a path for economic success in the near future, generate increased tax revenues for the State, provide much needed jobs on Hawai‘i island, and enhance the economic wellbeing of Hawai‘i’s people. I encourage my colleagues to support this bill. Mahalo.”

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I’d like the comments from the senator of the Hilo district be entered into the Journal as if they were mine. Mahalo.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Green rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Members, this is our comprehensive approach to homelessness, as was alluded to before. This is a $30 million appropriation to work on ohana zones, and I know some people in the public wonder why we would invest so much in solving the homeless crisis. Well, obviously, from a humanitarian perspective, it’s the right thing to do. In addition to that, when you look at the complexity of the lives of the 8,000 individuals in Hawai‘i who are homeless and see that 20 percent are chronically homeless, many of whom suffer with addiction or mental illness, you begin to see the value of taking on this problem aggressively. The Medicaid budget, as you’re aware, is $2 billion in the State of Hawai‘i, of which a very small percentage, about three-and-a-half percent – 3.61 percent, to be specific – consume $1.2 billion of that budget. That’s about $82,000 per person per year. Many of our homeless fall into this category. Those numbers tell you that, with a very small percentage of our people consuming a very large amount of our resource, we could do better. By providing some of these services, by providing emergency room diversion, by providing medical respite, by providing services for those who are suffering the greatest, we can see hundreds of millions of dollars remain with the state to work on other solutions that you guys have supported very wholeheartedly. So, not only are we going to help many of the individuals who suffer the greatest on our streets, which include many children, we will also see a good investment of our resources while people suffer less, so thank you very much, colleagues. I think this is a landmark piece of legislation, and this is something that will reap benefits for years for our people who struggle the most.”

MATTERS DEFERRED FROM EARLIER ON THE CALENDAR

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 60-18 (H.B. No. 2247, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

By unanimous consent, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 60-18 and H.B. No. 2247, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CAMPAIGN FINANCE," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference.

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 69-18 (H.B. No. 1768, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1):

By unanimous consent, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 69-18 and H.B. No. 1768, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO INFORMATION PRACTICES," were recommitted to the Committee on Conference, with Senator Ihara voting "Aye with Reservations."

At this time, Senator Galuteria rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, first of all, I'd like to ask that the words sung by the good senator from Kapolei be entered into the Journal as if I sang them myself. And, also, I'd like to expound on some of those lyrics, if I may, and hopefully with the same poetic license. Thank you. First of all, members, as our legislative session winds down, I'm filled with gratitude toward the Senate, with deep respect for the culture and the processes of this august body. Thank you so much.

"It's been an incredible year for all of us and for the people of Hawai'i. Firstly, when the clouds blackened and atmospheric pressure went down and the rains came, we addressed flooding to the north side of Kaua'i and other areas, notably east O'ahu. Blessings to all affected by this natural phenomenon.

"Returning to our ongoing concerns, we began with the basics: a roof over our heads. Thank you to the leadership, knowing that the cost of buying or renting an affordable place to live is out of reach for too many of our residents. We funded millions in appropriations to the rental housing trust fund, to the dwelling unit revolving fund, and to various tax-exemption programs that provided developers the incentives to build more affordables.

"Moreover, we knew and we do know that 7,000 sheltered and unsheltered homeless in Hawai'i are 7,000 too many, and that our agencies and counties must have the flexibility to adapt their programs to end homelessness in their communities. We appropriated millions toward existing homeless outreach and even created new zones to provide transitional housing and services to those who are unwilling to participate in existing shelter programs. Amazing!

"Knowing how important a good public-school education is to the future of our keiki and our state, this year, we passed a proposal to amend the constitution to give the Legislature power – if approved by the voters – to create a new and lasting source of revenue to better fund education.

"We took steps to protect the health of our citizens by creating mandatory disclosure of pesticide use and buffer zones around schools and, as we heard the eloquence of many colleagues, the banning of certain sunscreens that have been shown to harm coral reefs.

"And in historic fashion, let's not forget, colleagues, that we responded to the call from many in our community and adopted a medical aid in dying bill to allow mentally competent and terminally ill Hawai'i state residents who are suffering to make an informed and voluntary decision to receive life-ending medication, and inserting safeguards to ensure that the decision to end one's life is voluntarily and knowingly made. I'm sharing this not to pat ourselves on the back but just to remind us that we have done incredible things this year.

"However, not all that we have done in the Senate this year has resulted in passage of legislation. We had numerous conversations in committee and in caucus on the direction of Hawai'i tourism. We certainly are not going to fault our marketing agency for being so successful and, amid social media being what it is, the welcome mat to areas outside of the norm have become the norm. So how do we increase the economic benefit of tourism while minimizing the impacts? What policies must we craft and implement to ensure this outcome? In short, how do we polish and care for our crown jewel, the islands of Hawai'i, and, in so doing, increase the satisfaction of our residents and tourists, in that order?

"Just a few more comments, Mr. President, if I may. We also began to question and seek answers to development on Mauna Kea, which has divided our community over the last 50 years. We researched and culled an incredible amount of data about the history of government action – or, maybe, inaction – on the mauna. Two things we are sure of: Mauna Kea is sacred, albeit 'sacred' is subjective – sacred, nonetheless. And Mauna Kea is the greatest platform in the world for viewing the universe, hands down. So if you've got to go someplace else, go, but we've still got the best place in the world.

"So these are dynamic initiatives, colleagues: exactly what we should be doing. Equally important, though – and this is where I want to point this out – we have pieces of legislation that do not necessarily make the front pages or feel the warmth of the spotlight. Let me close with one that we can be particularly proud of. Knowing that all, or, at least, most, of the legislation we draft is informed by personal experience, we just moved a bill, S.B. 2714, that provides tax relief to disabled individuals who have to retrofit their cars with special ramps and other equipment in order to adapt to their special circumstances. So, I was at Longs the other day, sometime during the session, and I ran into two friends: Molly and Billy. They would also come to see me play music in another life, and it was so nice to see them. Molly would come rolling in on her wheelchair, find a comfortable spot, and proceed to do what she did best: become the most ridiculously sociable person in the room. Billy came along for the ride, pun intended. Molly was an incredible athlete at one time in her life, but then she was in a terrible accident, rendering her without use of her legs and limited use of her arms, but that didn't stop her. She always left us feeling better about her, about ourselves, and about our lives. So, fast forward: We all exit the store together and walk to our cars, theirs being a van specially modified with heavy equipment adapted to their special circumstance, at which time, Molly – not Billy – presses several buttons on her wheelchair, and the ramp declines. She gives me a little peck on the cheek – 'Aloha, Brick, good to see ya' – and rolls up and into her van. Billy shakes my hand and jumps into the passenger seat. Molly has taken her place on the driver's side, slipped her hands, which are in a permanent gripped position, into a specially modified steering wheel, starts the car, deftly backs it up, and drives off.

"So, after doing some research, colleagues, I learned of the enormous cost of modifying and adapting these vehicles. The added weight meant added tax. Now, Molly didn't ask for the tax break, and she certainly didn't ask to be disabled. And I saw this as an equality issue, and that's why the bill was drafted and I believe we ultimately passed it, because that's what we attempt to do here in our Capitol. As servants of the public, we are tasked, to the best of our abilities, with ensuring quality of life for the people of Hawai'i – all people of Hawai'i. So, I just wanted to share that with you. We have a few days left; we're almost there. No matter what happens between now and when President gavels us out, nothing takes away the fact that we've tried our best, so thank you for allowing me the time to share this story of Molly and Billy with us, and with that knowledge, I remain a proud member of this body, the Hawai'i State Senate. Thank you."

Senator English rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I'd like to insert a number of documents into the Journal. Apparently, last year, I inadvertently forgot to insert our legislative program."

The Chair having so ordered, the documents are identified as "ATTACHMENT A" to the Journal of this day.

The Chair then remarked:

"I'll talk about the overall program as we adjourn on Thursday but, as we voted on all but one bill today, to all of the committee chairs, to all of the members who participated through the process and especially the last two weeks of conference committee: Thank you for a job well done. To all of our staff, whether it's the staff in the offices or in the support agencies that we have, to each and every one of you: My heartfelt thanks for all of your efforts that have resulted in the bills that we have passed today and the one bill that we will pass on Thursday. Thank you very much for a job well done."

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:23 a.m., on motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator English and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Thursday, May 3, 2018.

Climate change, preparedness, justice and community wellbeing - we are energized to succeed.

The new year has already presented us with new challenges and much change. As we prepare for a new federal administration, the Hawai'i State Senate remains committed to our values in serving the people of Hawai'i. On behalf of the members of the Senate, I am pleased to present our goals for the 29th Legislative Session.

We, the Hawai'i State Senate, are committed to a vision and future for Hawai'i that are viable and will sustain our communities for generations to come. The Senate upholds its commitment to openness, inclusiveness, and collaboration on behalf of the people of the State of Hawai'i.

As we enter the Twenty-Ninth Legislative Biennium, we are mindful of the significant effects a new President and Federal Administration may have on Hawai'i's residents and the affairs of our State. In consideration of these changing circumstances, we remain committed to focusing on the needs of Hawai'i and present our four over-arching themes for the upcoming legislative session. Our legislative priorities embrace Hawaiian values and aim to improve the quality of life for our keiki, kūpuna, and nā 'Ohana.

The Hawai'i State Senate will focus on the following areas during the 2017 Session:

Ola Lehulehu ▸ People and Communities

- Education – We will collaborate with educational leaders and interested stakeholders to identify and focus on priority educational needs and opportunities. We will strive to produce workforce-ready graduates to provide opportunities to cultivate and diversify the workforce and economy of Hawai'i.
- Affordability – We acknowledge Hawai'i's extremely high cost of living and the financial stress this places on many individuals and families. We will therefore explore options to increase affordability for residents, including avenues to better support low-income wage earners in Hawai'i.
- Social Services – We will support the State's core functions, including strengthening our social safety net to ensure our keiki, kūpuna, families, and individuals are protected. We will also continue to support the creative coordination of social service and educational strategies that address the multi-faceted nature of homelessness.
- Health Care – We will support collaborative efforts to ensure that funding for Native Hawaiian health care continues. We will further support Native Hawaiians and Pacific Islanders by focusing on essential social and cultural determinants that improve health outcomes amongst our indigenous population. We will also encourage options to improve health care for our keiki and our residents in rural areas and will support collaborative efforts to provide better dental care for keiki and adults throughout our communities.
- Food Security – We will further explore opportunities and policies that support our local farmers, encourage good agricultural practices, and increase our local food production. Efforts that support food self-sufficiency will have positive effects on our local job market and economy.

Aloha Kaiāulu Ho'oulu ▸ Preparedness

- Community Development – We will work diligently to understand and promote smart community development, in particular transit-oriented development. We recognize transit-oriented development as a unique opportunity to address many socio-economic challenges. Because land along public transportation corridors presents an opportunity for the State to maximize land development, we support collaboration with interested stakeholders, including private businesses and non-profit organizations. We are also committed to supporting affordable housing and necessary infrastructure to strengthen our community.

- Government Services – We will focus on improving the efficiency and modernization of government services, including election participation. We will continue to encourage the enhancement of the State's information technology systems and incentivize the use of technology. We will also support efforts to advance innovation-oriented projects that improve living standards in Hawai'i, while streamlining resources to most efficiently and effectively promote innovation and economic growth.
- Financial Analysis – The Hawai'i State Senate is committed to analyzing tax credit cost information provided by state agencies; assessing the viability of existing tax credits, exemptions, and exclusions; and determining whether each tax credit, exemption, or exclusion continues to be useful and beneficial to the State.

Aloha Honua ▸ Climate Change and Energy

- Environment – We will protect and preserve Hawai'i's natural resources by exploring ways to improve agricultural practices and mitigate climate change impacts. We are committed to supporting the preservation of Hawai'i's unique geographical features, including coastlines and watersheds. In addition to supporting existing conservation and enforcement efforts, we will encourage the use of innovative technologies to combat invasive species, address biosecurity risks, conserve the State's water resources, address changing sea levels, and protect the State's fragile marine ecosystem.
- Sustainability – We will continue our commitment to renewable energy alternatives that are practical and economical for the State and take into account Hawai'i's natural environment and terrain. With recent progress and clean energy goals in mind, we will further encourage the availability of renewable energy and advance projects to improve energy efficiencies.

Pono Kaulike ▸ Transforming Justice

- Rehabilitation – We will explore alternatives to incarceration and options to reduce the recidivism rate amongst our incarcerated population, through means such as strengthening community ties. We will support efforts that enable incarcerated individuals to develop useable skills that will help in their transition back into their communities.
- Public Safety – In an effort to promote continued public safety, we will encourage effectiveness, transparency, and interagency collaboration, and insist on higher standards of conduct and appropriate training.

It is the Hawai'i State Senate's sincere hope that we can work collaboratively with the House of Representatives, the Governor, and the Judiciary to achieve all the goals outlined in this Program.

FINAL READING

H.B. No. 2601, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 2:

Senator Keith-Agaran moved that H.B. No. 2601, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator English.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, remarks in strong support of H.B. 2601, C.D. 1, Relating to Transportation. This bill will allow the counties to collect additional fees on motor vehicles rentals from out-of-state residents to be used for roadway projects which increase capacity and relieve congestion. Hawai'i has an abundance of rental cars being used on its roadways on a daily basis. The daily use of these vehicles has a detrimental impact on infrastructure and contributes to traffic congestion, especially on neighbor islands where the number of rental cars may equal or even outnumber resident-owned vehicles on any given day. H.B. 2601 will ensure that roadway infrastructure critical to both visitors and residents alike is sufficiently maintained and meets capacity requirements. Further, the revenues generated by this fee will be utilized by the counties wherein they are generated.

"This measure will provide a dedicated revenue stream for which to use revenue bonds for roadway projects, and for that reason, I strongly encourage my colleagues to join me in supporting this measure."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 2601, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At 11:56 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:02 p.m.

At this time, the Chair invited the members to make late introductions of guests in the gallery.

Senator Kahele introduced Eugene Bal, who had just been confirmed for a second term on the University of Hawai'i Board of Regents. Senator Kahele remarked on Mr. Bal's extensive background in public and private service, having graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and having served as a naval captain and executive director of the Maui High Performance Computing Center. Senator Kahele then expressed his confidence that Mr. Bal would work diligently on the board to help shape the university and move it forward, and invited his colleagues to join him in a round of applause to congratulate Mr. Bal.

Senator Kahele then introduced Randy Moore, who had just been confirmed for another term on the University of Hawai'i Board of Regents. Senator Kahele remarked on Mr. Moore's extensive background in public and private service, having served at Castle & Cooke, Moloka'i Ranch, Kaneohe Ranch, and as a teacher at Central Middle School and assistant superintendent at the Department of Education. Senator Kahele expressed his confidence that Mr. Moore would work very hard over the next five critical years at the University of Hawai'i, noting that Mr. Moore had served as board chair and currently serves as vice chair.

Senator Kahele also introduced Micah Alameda, newly confirmed member of the Board of Directors of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority. Senator Kahele remarked that Mr. Alameda was a familiar face to those in the State Capitol, having served as legislative aide and committee clerk for the late former State Senator Gilbert Kahele. Senator Kahele opined that Mr. Alameda was a fantastic millennial, and that he was going to bring energy and enthusiasm to the board, as well as his knowledge as current marketing manager for Nā Leo TV.

The Chair commented that he had heard the word "millennial" used more than once during the confirmation hearing, and expressed additional support for Senator Kahele's assessment of Mr. Alameda.

Senator Inouye thanked members of her staff: office manager Angela Thomas, Sara Perry, Tonga Hopoi, and session staff Ka'ala Coleman.

Senator Inouye also recognized Luis Salaveria, director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, and Ford Fuchigami, both of whom were present in the gallery, and expressed her appreciation for their work.

Senator Wakai rose to extend additional congratulations to the newly confirmed members of the Board of Directors of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority, reiterating that Micah Alameda, as the youngest member of the board, would bring dynamic, fresh ideas to the body. Senator Wakai also recognized David Arakawa, who was seated in the gallery, and spoke of his illustrious legal career, which included serving as legal counsel for Hawaiian Airlines and as the current director of the Land Use Research Foundation. Senator Wakai noted that one of Mr. Arakawa's strongest suits was his ability to bring various parties together as a mediator and bridge-builder, which the Hawai'i Tourism Authority needed, and congratulated him on his confirmation to the board.

Senator Kidani recognized Danicia Honda, a Mililani resident and member of her session staff, for her recent work on a special project to give 37 young women from Wai'anae High School free makeovers and hairstyling for their senior prom.

The Chair extended additional thanks to Danicia Honda for her generous heart and outstanding efforts.

The Chair then thanked Senator Tokuda for the block letters she had left on the podium, noting in good humor that they were clearly worth less than $25 and were within the ethics guidelines, and that she had also glued them together so that he'd always have them in the correct order.

Senator Kim introduced George Szigeti, chief executive officer of the Hawai'i Tourism Authority, who was seated in the gallery.

The Chair then announced:

"There is a communication coming from the Governor that we need to deal with before proceeding with the rest of the agenda."

At 12:10 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:24 p.m.

Senator Baker acknowledged members of her staff who were present in the gallery: Heath Williams, Colleen Garrett, Khadija Karodia, Elliott Klopfin, and Veronique Jenkins. Senator Baker also thanked the Senate Majority research staff who had worked with her that session: Rebecca Grigsby and Larry O'Boyle.

Senator Chang thanked members of his office staff for their hard work throughout the legislative session: office manager Adrian Tam, constituent director Cameron Sato, legislative aide Allen Awaya, and intern Malia Nolan.

On motion by Senator Espero, seconded by Senator English and carried, S.R. No. 146 was adopted.

At this time, Senator Green rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Very informally: Mahalo to you all. Mahalo for being dear friends, for being thoughtful colleagues, for helping so many people. I can't tell you how much I appreciate having been a part of the Senate and, for a brief time, the House before you. I would say not a single person in this room isn't someone who I haven't had the privilege to argue with, to fight with, to collaborate with, and that really is a great honor, and it says something to be able to go to battle over issues and come out on the other side and see change for the better, so thank you. Thank you, each and every one of you. I really appreciate it. I wish you all the best. I won't be back in this body next year, and I particularly wish the best to the senator from Kāne'ohe and the senator from 'Ewa. I wish you well; I wish you success. I know you'll do great things in whatever capacity we all serve. The people of Hawai'i have the good fortune of working with each and every one of you. We've been through a lot together, colleagues. In 14 years, we've seen volcanic eruptions; we've seen tsunamis; we've seen floods, and you've been there for the people of Hawai'i, and it's been an honor to be a part of that, even just a small part.

"A couple personal stories: The day we had the earthquake on Big Island, much to the horror of the nurses at the hospital, as the hospital was shaking, I came out in my underwear into the middle of the door as it was shaking, and we realized that we were going to see an influx of patients. So, I put the proper clothing on and, minutes later, a guy came in who had fallen and cut his thumb off. And we didn't have services – this was in Pāhala, at the time, down south on the Big Island. I got on the phone right away and began calling for help because we all need help; that's what you guys have provided me, help, through these years. In that particular case, we started calling around because I didn't have the expertise, just like I didn't have the expertise when I came in as a junior legislator to work on some of these issues, and you helped me through those problems. That time, I realized we didn't have the services on Big Island. We walked through and reattached that guy's thumb through the good help of someone over here on O'ahu, which I also feel – I've had a lot of good help from people on O'ahu over these years. And after that, I realized we needed more services on the Big Island, and you helped us get better scans, and you helped us get better x-ray equipment. And then, many years later, when I was walking door to door in Na'ālehu, a guy came, stuck his thumb in my face, and I thought, 'Oh, God, I'm about to get socked.' And this guy said, 'I'm a Republican!' And I said, 'Okay, please don't punch me, sir.' And he said, 'No, you don't understand!' I look closer and there was a scar down that guy's thumb and it still worked, and I felt gratified that we had these experiences together, and it melded that little world of health and politics, and I've had that lucky experience with all of you and with patients back home. We built a trauma system together because we passed the tobacco tax, which meant that we could fund those services that the neighbor islands often didn't have. We built a cancer center together these past years – incredible. We covered autism care: I was so happy that day – that was the happiest day of all the 14 years here with you, colleagues, so thank you for that moment again. We changed the trajectory of heart-lung disease because of your work. You have no idea, probably, how many people's lives you've saved because of the work you've done. It's just so gratifying to have been a small part of that.

“The last thing I would say is that I’ll miss you guys because it’s been a big part of my life. But the biggest changes of all occurred because I got to come here. A week after getting elected to the House back in 2004, I was walking around, trying to meet people, find out what this place was about, and there was a young woman who was working for a senator who I’d heard very good things about: Her name was Susie Chun Oakland, and she had a staffer who was leaving and I was meeting them for the first time, and her name was Jaime – Jaime Ushiroda – who was working for Senator Chun Oakland. And I chased Jaime around a little bit, and she’s sitting right there, and she became my wife not too very much longer, and then, just a year or so later, during an informational briefing, Maia was born. And then, a couple years later, while filming an ad for Abercrombie or near to the time filming an ad for Abercrombie, Sam was born, and they’ve been with us all this time. So, I look at this experience as having been not just an honor to be with you all, to be with some of the House members, but to have formed a life here in Hawai‘i, so I just want to say I have a great deal of love and affection for you. I will miss you, and I wish you great successes and Godspeed to continue to take care of the people of Hawai‘i. Thank you for including me and my family in your lives. Thank you.”

Senator Kim rose to thank office manager Lisa Vargas-Omo, committee clerk Nancy Bernal, and session hires June Yamanuha and Micah Witty-Oakland. Senator Kim also thanked the permanent support staff in the Senate Clerk’s office, Sergeant-at-Arms office, Senate Majority Research, Senate Data Systems, and Senate Communications. Senator Kim then bid Aloha to her colleagues from Kāne‘ohe, ‘Ewa Beach, and Hawai‘i island.

Senator Riviere rose to extend additional thanks to the staff of the Senate Clerk’s office, Sergeant-at-Arms office, Senate Journal, Senate Majority Research, and other support offices, and applauded everyone for their work. Senator Riviere then acknowledged and thanked his staff: Margarete Olson, Maxx Phillips, and session staff Kayla Economou.

Senator Espero rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“On May 1, I submitted an application for retirement, and on June 1, I will be leaving this august and very precious organization, entity, that I have come to see as a family and a place where, working together, I know we have done amazing things for the people of Hawai‘i. And as I look at each and every one of you, I will have special memories because there’s a spectrum of emotions and passion and involvement that all of you have that truly shows that we have the people’s interest at heart. And we are here to do the best, although we know we are sometimes targets; people don’t always agree with us, but at the end of the day, I believe we can say proudly and strongly that we have done well. We have done much for our constituents and this year was no different.

“This is my nineteenth legislative session, and I want to thank Governor Ben Cayetano, who first appointed me when my representative in ‘Ewa Beach stepped down mid-term. I want to thank my constituents from ‘Ewa Beach and, early on, a part of Waipahu, prior to reapportionment, for continuing to elect me; my friends, supporters; my dear and precious family, who has been there from the very beginning – Mom and Dad, Ed, and others. And of course, our support staff: Carol and her office; Casey; Ben; Michi and Jill, our photographers who have been memorializing our daily events; Print Shop; the Supply Room; our deputy sheriffs – everyone who’s a part of this State Capitol. It’s been a pleasure, an honor, and a privilege working with all of you.

“And I can proudly say that in my 19 years, I’m happy that I have made a difference and I have been able to help pass legislation, whether I introduced it, working on the fringe. I’d like to name a few because some of these, we have had some success, but in many of them, there’s still much that needs to be done: Prison reform, police and law enforcement reform, inmate rehabilitation, gun control, creating a medical cannabis program, banning oxybenzone in sunscreen, homelessness and affordable housing issues, buffer zones around schools and disclosure laws on pesticides, supporting the arts and Hawai‘i fashion, building an aerospace industry, memorializing the Honouliuli Internment Camp, condominium association laws, fireworks laws, building the UH West O‘ahu, the rail transit system – these are issues that have been near and dear to me and that I know that we will be able to redefine and even make things better in this, and I’m hoping that many of you in here will pick up the mantle and continue fighting for these issues that are so important. And in the future, I really do hope that this body will pass a bill on an airport authority, statewide mail-in ballots, legalization of cannabis, more housing funding, space tourism, and other issues that are near and dear to me and where I hope that, in the future, I will be able to contribute in a different way. But, certainly, I do not see this as a goodbye. I will cherish the memories with all of you, and I do look forward to the coming months and the coming years because there’s much, much more to be done for our state and for our constituents, and I know that this body here will be taking the leadership role and will be making the change that Hawai‘i so dearly needs. We are becoming a state of haves and have-nots, and we need to stop that and we need to change it – and we can, through raising the minimum wage and, more importantly, building affordable rentals, colleagues. If there’s one area we have an impact on, we can build affordable rentals. And I look forward to that time where, in the future, we will be able to share successes again.

“So, Mr. President and all of those who are watching upstairs, thank you for some of the best 19 years in my career, and it was an honor and privilege working with all of you. Aloha and mabuhay!”

Senator Tokuda rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Colleagues, I stand before you today feeling much the way I did when I first entered these chambers: extremely humbled, truly grateful, and excited and ready for what lies ahead. And while this is the same dress that I used to wear walking door to door in our very first campaign, so much has changed inside, and I have all of you and so many others to thank for that.

“You know, I struggled for months to try to figure out what the right words would be to say in this very moment. I knew, or, at least, I thought, there would be poems – senator from ‘Ewa Beach, you disappoint me – that there might be platforms and accomplishments, and expectations would definitely be high for me to produce a Seussian quote, indeed. (Don’t worry; the speech is still young.) In these final days of session, though, much was made, as we all know, over Senate or House position, whose name was on the bill, who could bring back the most money to put into those reports that would be mailed out to the district, and how each committee that was chaired by each of us fared and how many bills were still alive or perhaps dead. And as I looked back over our time together, I could definitely have made much out of all of this and how we have all shared in each of these particular spreadsheets of endeavors. But something kept tugging at me, that there was just more that needed to be said.

“In talking last night to my younger brother Kyle, telling him about my struggles, about what it was that needed to be expressed on the floor, what I experienced over the years with all of you and some who aren’t here in these halls today and some who look down and bless us from above, I thought of a doctor ... Doctor Strange, that is – an Avenger, of course. I recalled one of the most poignant conversations he had with the Ancient One about how arrogance and fear keep us from learning one of life's most simple and significant lessons: It's not about you. In the work that we do, in the defense of the causes and the beliefs we fight for, it's not about you; it's not about me. What we do here is greater than any one of us. Forward movement requires the participation of many others whose names may never grace any one of these vote sheets that we cling to, but their contributions to public service are no less great. Like the blocks that we play with as children – and you know I like my blocks, right? Obviously, from what you see here – the work that we do here is sometimes imperfect and sometimes things just fall all over the floor. It may feel wobbly, but in the end, we connect together with so many other individuals who at times push and they pull, maybe for or against the outcomes, maybe trying to kill things, maybe trying to change things, but each finding their unique place and coming to the realization that it's not about you or me. It's not about their position or their point or their perspective. It's about the greater good. It's about all of us.

“Colleagues and friends, we go through this humbling experience of running for office in each of our individual districts and we walk through those chamber doors individually, yet everything that we go through here in this amazing chamber is an amazing collective experience together, for which I'm extremely humbled and grateful. You've been there for me when things were not so simple, when things were wobbly and rough. We've celebrated together when things all came together. You've caught me when I've fallen down, and you've stood by my side when times were tough. You were the best 'us' anyone could possibly have asked for.

“And looking back on this session and those that came before, I also keep thinking about how, at times, we all try to leave our mark. We mark up bills throughout the process; we mark our time through the speeches that we make on this very floor; we hope to leave a positive mark on our communities by what we do every single day, through legislation that we work hard on together and collectively. Well, here's a mark that I'm often asked about every single day. When Matt and Aden were going through preschool and kindergarten, they were quite the little 'opihi in that they wouldn't let go of Mommy. And so we started a tradition. I put a little happy face on their hand and mine so that they knew that, any time in the day, if they started to feel scared or worried, they knew that they could look down and they'd know that we were connected – that at some point, we would be back together again. And lately, as you can quite imagine, it's been a little busy, and it's been rough, and so the babies started to throw their hands back out at me, and I know exactly what that means. They want a happy face. They want to know that, any point in time, they can look down, and even if it's going to be late or maybe it's going to be tomorrow, Mommy's coming home. We're connected.

“Throughout my day, I often pause and I look down at my little happy face. It reminds me of what's most precious. It reminds me of what gives me purpose, not only as a mother and a mommy, but as a senator as well. And I'll be honest to you, it's probably more important to me sometimes than my children that I have this on my hand. It serves as a reminder to me that the work we do here is not just about us. It's in service to our moms and dads, our boys and girls, our kūpuna, our working men and women, our families and our people who are depending on all of us. And while it started off as a way to get my little boys to go to school and stop clinging onto me, this little happy face is my compass. It's the compass that gives me purpose and meaning on why I keep on fighting and never stop moving. It's the compass that guides me and that drives me. It's the compass that connects me back to what matters most. We all have compasses, I know, that guide us, that touchstone that connects us to what matters so much in our lives, so on each of your alphabet blocks, as you saw me earlier today, putting on, I've given each of you a happy face as well. (I know you thought it was a gold star; it's a happy face right there.) It's that little reminder to each of you that even as things get hectic, even as things get rough, it's important to hold your compass close, let it guide you.

“Colleagues, the 'us' for which I'm grateful includes so many amazing people, and I'm very thankful to have all of you in that group, to have been there for me for so many years. And while I know I'd probably start crying – I'm pulling another Susie – if I name all of them, I do especially want to send a shout-out to my husband, who isn't here, my husband, Kyle. He's been the love of my life, and he's had my heart since we were 12 years old, and I could not do anything without him. I also want to make sure that I send a huge shout-out to Darlene, who's been with me for far longer than we've even been in this building. As another mother of two boys, she always makes sure that she helps me keep that balance so that my compass is always close, and I don't know what I would do without her. And to Papa Vaughn, who also knows the importance of family and has been my teacher since I was in elementary school as well; and to Nic, who has made sure that everything was right on ship as well, and those who we acknowledged today: Kate – Kate's been a mentor to me for almost decades at this point; Sheryl is part of our team, who I know has such a bright future ahead; and so many, many more who aren't with us right now but as part of our team have always been there for us. Again, I can't go there or I'm really going to start losing it.

“But just thank you so much for this amazing experience, but I especially want to send a huge shout out to my colleagues from Kona and 'Ewa Beach. For you I have a special quote, from the Scarlet Witch; I borrowed it from this special friend of mine: 'Everyone's story begins once upon a time ... and it's up to us to cherish the time we're given to ensure we live happily ever after.' Well, we're about to go on quite an adventure together, and I can't wait to see what memories we have in the next few months ahead, but I know, given the time that we have had together on this Senate floor and in this body, that the time that we will spend together, it will be on behalf of the people of this state, so I look forward to seeing our story evolve, this journey that we have ahead together and ensuring that all of us live happily ever after as we embark on this journey ahead of us.

“Again, colleagues, thank you so much for everything, for being this wonderful part of 'us' that we have been together and, especially, not wanting to disappoint you in this speech, my favorite and final quote from Dr. Seuss: 'Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened.' Thank you again for everything, and I very much look forward to all the happy memories we continue to make together. Mahalo.”

Senator Gabbard rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“I have a surprise announcement to make that I think that you all will enjoy. No, I'm not retiring. Actually, I'm announcing the birthday, the auspicious occasion, of a very dear colleague of ours. It will be on Sunday; Breene Harimoto will be turning 64 years old. And I don't know, Brickwood, how does that go? 'Will you still need me, will you still feed me, when I'm 64?' Is that right? So, I know Cheryl will continue to feed you, Breene, but I did bring you some toffee, so happy birthday to you on Sunday, and aloha.”

Senate President Kouchi then addressed the members of the Senate as follows:

“I know I got to see most of the support staff. I didn't see Communications, as their door was locked and they were out working, so thank you for your efforts during the session. And also not to be forgotten is Charlotte and the Legislative Reference Bureau, all of the employees there, for their tireless efforts.

“When I assumed the position of President of the Senate, I had great hopes to be able to continue to uphold the great tradition of the Hawai‘i State Senate, and it pains me this afternoon to know how miserably I’ve failed as I see the House has concluded before us for the first time since I’ve been here. But if the Speaker and his members will indulge me, I’ll cut my speech in half so that we can greet each other as we’re going to adjourn.

“To my wife, Joy, who is in the gallery – I certainly begin by thanking her for her support to allow me to have the opportunity to do this work, and it hasn’t been easy. Two years ago, in March, she lost her mother; in February of this year, her father, and yet she has been that rock for me, and I am truly grateful and certainly love you with all of my heart, and appreciate everything you do for me.

“To Senator Green: This job can certainly be stressful at times, but it was nice to have a fourth-floor neighbor who would talk about Pittsburgh sports and distract me from the business and the stress at hand and bring a smile to my face, and I will treasure that Pittsburgh Pirates cap that you gave me that is less than $25 and within the ethics guidelines.

“In the eight years that I’ve been in the Senate, seven years I’ve spent on the leadership team, Senator Espero has been on that leadership team all of the years that I was there, and I appreciate his point of view. I appreciate his counsel and have enjoyed working with him and also parking cars next to each other in more than one place, and so, to you, I am grateful for having had the chance to work with you, Senator Espero.

“To Senator Tokuda, since I’m bossed around by an Okinawan woman at home, I just want to say thank you when you asked me to be the vice chair of Ways and Means when you were the chair, and to put your trust in me to have your back and to work at your side, to follow instructions as well as work as I do at home. But I learned an incredible amount and certainly admired the work ethic that you brought to the job and what you did, and I am so grateful for the opportunity you gave me, so thank you very much, Senator Tokuda.

“When we began, the Speaker talked about homelessness in the other chamber as a top priority, and I talked a lot about education because I talked about affordable housing the previous year, and we did talk about closing that wage gap and about the unrest, not just here in Hawai‘i, but across our nation, because of that ever-widening gap and that education was going to create the opportunities so that our children can compete with anybody in the world. And so, while much has been made about the incredible homelessness and affordable housing packages, much has been accomplished in the way of education. I had hoped, two years ago, to have Mahina Anguay, the principal of Waimea High School, here at the rostrum with me to talk about her as a Tokioka Award-winning principal in just her third year at Waimea, transforming a school whose community rose up to remove the previous principal, and all of the great things that she has done. And then I found out a month ago or so that she had a tumor between her sinus cavity and her brain, and she went to Stanford and, a little over a week ago, had it removed and found out it was benign. I believe that today is her first day back at work at Waimea High School and, thanks to Senator Keith-Agaran and working with him, she’s going to be returning to the campus to start planning an improvement to their library to have a 21st-century STEM library so that their students are going to be able to have all the latest technology, all of the tools, to be able to let them excel.

“But the important thing isn’t that the Speaker talked about homelessness as a priority, I realized as everybody asked what is the reason why the collaboration happened, what is the reason that the House and the Senate worked as well as they did together? It began, I believe, when both sides looked at the incredible damage in Kaua‘i and East O‘ahu, and put together the aid package and then made the commitment to get the budget done early so that that money can be available to help those people who are devastated in those communities. And that night, when they voted, in extending my thanks, I repeated the words of Pastor Matt Higa that he shared with us here: While the House and the Senate do not always see eye to eye, today, we came together to see heart to heart. And when we started working by looking at what was in each other’s heart is when we were able to have the tremendous achievements that the House and the Senate have created in this legislative session.

“There is much talk about superheroes and blockbuster movies at the box office, and when that person finds out that they are now blessed with superhero powers, there’s usually somebody who says, ‘It is your responsibility to use those powers for good and not evil.’ And to the House and the Speaker, to each and every one of you, you truly adhered to those words to use all of your power to ensure that we did good for the people of Hawai‘i. Speaker, would you come and join me, please? So it’s not about the priority about homelessness that this session was about and it’s not about education. It’s just one word that all of the members of the House and Senate exhibited, and I look forward to us continuing to exhibit that trait, and it’s leadership. Thank you, Speaker, for your leadership. Thank you for all of you for your leadership on these issues. You know I like to find a quote, inspirational quote, to end my remarks. Today, I will simply let the work that each and every one of you did stand as the inspirational quote for today.”

At 1:00 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 1:10 p.m.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1621

Honorable Members
Twenty-Ninth Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1621, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Consumer Protection."

The purpose of this bill is to protect consumers in cases where damaged goods are returned and where high turnover restaurant franchises do not participate in national advertising campaigns.

This bill is objectionable because it may be unconstitutionally vague and it presents practical challenges to enforcement.

Due process requires that laws "state with reasonable clarity the act it proscribes and provide fixed standards for adjudging guilt, or the statute is void for vagueness." State v. Gaylord, 78 Hawai'i 127, 138, 890 P.2d 1167, 1178 (1995). In this bill, the phrases "typical duration," "approximately one hour" and "moderately priced," among others, in the definition of "high turnover restaurant," do not state with reasonable clarity the requirements of the statute, and do not provide fixed standards to avoid arbitrary or subjective enforcement.

In addition, even if this bill is not unconstitutionally vague, a plaintiff will need experts and witnesses to demonstrate whether the "typical duration of customer stay is approximately one hour," and whether the restaurant is "moderately priced." As a practical matter, the high costs of expert testimony, the limits of recovery, and the uncertainty of results will prevent lawsuits from being filed and will therefore impede enforcement.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1621 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ David Y. Ige

State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 48, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Technology."

The purpose of this bill is to merge the Hawai'i Strategic Development Corporation (HSDC) and the Hawai'i Technology Development Corporation (HTDC) into the Hawai'i Innovation, Technology, and Research Corporation.

This bill is objectionable because it creates operational issues and disrupts the core functions of HTDC. Specifically, this bill eliminates 1.5 permanent positions and 6.25 temporary positions. Although funds are appropriated to pay for these workers in those eliminated positions, the bill fails to create new positions into which these workers may be placed. Additionally, amendments to HTDC's budget, combined with amendments in Act 53, the Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2018, create a net reduction in HTDC's core resources that will adversely impact its operations.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 48 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2407, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Medical Cannabis."

The purpose of this bill is to allow the medical use of cannabis to treat opioid use and substance use disorders, or withdrawal symptoms resulting from the treatment of those disorders.

This bill is objectionable because the Department of Health, through section 11-160-7, Hawaii Administrative Rules, already has an evidence-based petition process to add a condition to the list of debilitating medical conditions for which medical cannabis can be used. That petition process involves an investigation and evaluation of credible medical and scientific evidence to determine whether the use of cannabis by patients who have the condition would result in a benefit to the patient's health. That process, which is made available to patients and physicians, should be used before adding this condition to the list of debilitating medical conditions in section 329-121, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2407 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2519, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Environment."

The purpose of this bill is to authorize the Agribusiness Development Corporation (ADC) to enter into contracts with private businesses to remove select municipal solid waste, glass, and food and green waste from the waste stream for use in other businesses, provided that it benefits agriculture and agriculture-related projects.

This bill is objectionable because it provides ADC with broad authority that may interfere with the counties' authority to direct the disposal of municipal solid waste to specific locations. Counties currently have control over waste stream flows under section 340A-3, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which authorizes counties to require that all solid waste be disposed of at certain designated facilities or areas. It is unclear whether ADC's or the counties' authority would have priority when determining control over the municipal waste disposal, and allowing ADC to remove certain wastes from the waste stream could interfere with a county's comprehensive solid waste management plan.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2519 without my approval.

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2524, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to County Land Use Requirements."

The purpose of this bill is to require the owner of any parcel of land subdivided as a condominium property regime in agricultural or preservation lands to provide public notice of sale no later than ninety days after the sale of the parcel. This measure also prohibits residential use of sheds or other structures on agricultural lands unless permitted under county ordinances and rules.

This bill is objectionable because the measure could allow, if permitted under county ordinances and rules, residential uses on agricultural land in the City and County of Honolulu that has been subdivided exempt from county subdivision requirements. This could result in the loss of land used for agricultural purposes in contradiction to state land use policy that seeks to preserve agricultural land for agricultural uses.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2524 without my approval.

Gov. Msg. No. 1257, dated July 10, 2018, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 2699, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS TAX," which was returned without approval and reads as follows:

“EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 10, 2018

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2699

Honorable Members
Twenty-Ninth Legislature
State of Hawaii

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2699, entitled “A Bill for an Act Relating to the Transient Accommodations Tax.”

The purpose of this bill is to ensure that Transient Accommodations Tax (TAT) is imposed on resort fees charged by hotels and other transient accommodations. Section 1 of this bill amends the definition of “gross rental proceeds” to include resort fees and adds a definition of “resort fee.” “Resort fee” is defined as: “any charge or surcharge imposed by an operator, owner, or representative thereof to a transient for the use of the transient accommodation’s property, services, or amenities.”

Section 2 of this bill authorizes the Department of Taxation to issue administrative rules further defining “resort fee” and “gross rental proceeds” and clarifies that the bill does not prevent the Department of Taxation from collecting TAT on resort fees prior to the issuance of administrative rules.

This bill is objectionable because it creates the potential for a large and ambiguous expansion of the TAT and also undermines the Department of Taxation’s current interpretation of the TAT.

The current draft of the bill does not properly reflect the Department of Taxation’s current position. The qualifier “mandatory” in the definition of “resort fee” was removed and would allow an overzealous interpretation of that term. Such an interpretation would subject charges to the TAT even if those charges were unrelated to the letting of the transient accommodation. This may include discretionary charges such as those for long-distance telephone calls, movie rentals, room service, and any other charge to the occupant of a transient accommodation. The potential for such a large and ambiguous expansion of the TAT, which directly affects the state’s largest industry, was not fully contemplated during the legislative process and may lead to many unintended consequences.

Furthermore, by omission of the word “mandatory,” this bill simultaneously undermines the Department of Taxation’s current position and leaves the agency with no guidance toward a new position.

The Department of Taxation’s current position is clear; its position is that only mandatory resort fees are subject to the TAT. By its exclusion of the word “mandatory,” this bill undermines that interpretation. During the 2018 Legislative Session the proposed definition of “resort fee” was amended numerous times to both include and exclude the qualifier “mandatory.” The final bill omits “mandatory,” therefore it could be argued that the bill overturns the Department of Taxation’s position that only mandatory resort fees are subject to the TAT. Even though the bill may overturn the Department of Taxation’s current position, it offers no guidance toward a new position. This bill’s definition of “resort fee” does not limit what may be included in “resort fee” in any way. Therefore, the bill leaves full interpretation of the definition of “resort fee” to the Department of Taxation while simultaneously undermining its current interpretation.

The lack of clarity inherent in this bill will lead to ambiguity, confusion, and unintended consequences within the TAT.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2699 without my approval.

Respectfully,

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2919

Honorable Members
Twenty-Ninth Legislature
State of Hawai’i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai’i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2919, entitled “A Bill for an Act Relating to Public Libraries.”

The purpose of this bill is to establish a pilot program to generate revenue through the lease of public library lands to support the mission of the public library system.

This bill is objectionable because there are questions as to who owns the title to the various land parcels on which the public libraries are located. If the public library lands are public trust lands set aside for public purposes by executive order and those lands are no longer needed for library purposes, the executive orders should be withdrawn and the lands returned to the Department of Land and Natural Resources. Further, the Hawai’i State Public Library System does not have the resources and expertise to undertake the leasing of public lands for purely income generating purposes.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2919 without my approval.

“EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 10, 2018

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 2992

Honorable Members
Twenty-Ninth Legislature
State of Hawai’i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai’i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 2992, entitled “A Bill for an Act Relating to Campaign Finance.”

The purpose of this bill is to exempt signs and banners from the requirement that campaign advertisements contain the name and address of the person who paid for the advertisement and whether the advertisement has been approved by the candidate. Signs and banners advocating the passage or defeat of a ballot issue are still required to contain the name and address of the candidate, candidate committee, or noncandidate committee paying for the sign or banner.

This bill is objectionable because exempting signs and banners from election law disclaimer requirements will reduce transparency in campaign finance. It is important to be able to identify the sources of campaign materials, including signs and banners, and to identify whether the advertisement was approved by the candidate.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 2992 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Gov. Msg. No. 1322, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

House Bill No. 1614, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 as Act 213, entitled: "RELATING TO AUTOMATIC RESTRAINING ORDERS."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB1614 HD1 SD1 CD1

HB1614 HD1 SD1 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AUTOMATIC RESTRAINING ORDERS" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to add a new section to Chapter 580, HRS, which requires that an automatic restraining order be issued when a complaint is filed for an annulment, divorce, or separation.

The legislative intent is to preserve the assets of the parties and their dependents and to maintain the current island of residence and school of enrollment of any minor children of the parties. In addition, the legislature hopes that family court congestion can be reduced by providing automatic orders. Previously, only the Kaua'i family court automatically issued restraining orders for annulment, divorce, or separation cases. With enactment of this law, this process will now be uniform state-wide.

Concerns were expressed in testimony about the potential negative impacts this new law may have, especially on victims of domestic violence filing for divorce. We will consult with the Judiciary and others in the coming months to determine whether amendments to this law are necessary should there be unintended negative consequences.

For the foregoing reasons, HB1614 HD1 SD1 CD1 will become law as ACT 213 (18), Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,

/s/ David Y. Ige

Gov. Msg. No. 1323, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

House Bill No. 1646, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 as Act 214, entitled: "RELATING TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB1646 HD1 SD1 CD1

HB1646 HD1 SD1 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to establish a procedure to allow newly-elected United States Senators from Hawai'i to begin their terms of office earlier than newly-elected senators from other states, to acquire seniority and maximize their ability to represent the state. The bill requires the Governor to appoint a newly-elected senator to office if the incumbent vacates the office prior to the expiration of the incumbent's term of office.

The requirement that the Governor appoint a newly-elected senator to office in cases where the incumbent chooses to vacate the office prior to the end of his or her term may put undue pressure on incumbents who lose their seats in a general election to leave before they complete their term of office.

For the foregoing reasons, HB1646 HD1 SD1 CD1 will become law as ACT 214, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gov. Msg. No. 1324, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

House Bill No. 2601, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 2 as Act 215, entitled: "RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB2601 HD1 SD2 CD2

HB2601 HD1 SD2 CD2, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TRANSPORTATION" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

This bill will assess an additional fee of $2 per day upon vehicle renters who do not possess a Hawai'i driver's license.

Tourism is Hawai'i's largest economy and we need to be extremely careful when we increase the overall cost when visiting our islands. Nevertheless, the State's highway fund revenues are declining due to increased fuel efficiency and electric vehicles. Although we encourage the greening of the transportation industry, the Department of Transportation needs to find new ways to replenish the highway fund and respond to residents' concerns regarding the condition of the State's roadways.

Over the last few sessions, my administration's legislative package has included numerous bills to increase these revenues, but none have come to fruition. Although this measure could affect our tourism industry, this is a start as we look toward continued discussions to increase the revenues for the State's highway fund.

For the foregoing reasons, HB2601 HD1 SD2 CD2 will become law as ACT 215, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gov. Msg. No. 1325, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

House Bill No. 1876, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 as Act 216, entitled: "RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB1876 HD1 SD1 CD1

HB1876 HD1 SD1 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

This bill would allow motor vehicle insurers the ability to satisfy their requirement under Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) section 431:10C-119 to maintain a local complete sales and claims office if a licensed producer maintains an office in every county where the insurer does business.

Due to Hawai'i's unique island geography, it's possible that some islands may lose the insurer's physical presence resulting in the change in requirement to one office per county. The lack of physical presence would particularly affect seniors and those who have limited Internet access. Moving towards a regional call center model could also lead to local residents having to deal with mainland personnel who lack familiarity with Hawai'i laws, local auto repair shops, hospitals, and doctors.

Nevertheless, technology is taking over the sales and claims process and leading us in the direction of reducing brick and mortar locations. Due to the customer's ability to select from one of many auto insurance companies, it should be up to the insurance company to determine the proper balance between technology and customer service.

For the foregoing reasons, HB1876 HD1 SD1 CD1 will become law as ACT 216, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,

/s/ David Y. Ige

Gov. Msg. No. 1326, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

Senate Bill No. 2461, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, C.D. 1 as Act 217, entitled: "RELATING TO SERVICE ANIMALS."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: SB2461 SD1 HD1 CD1

SB2461 SD1 HD1 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SERVICE ANIMALS" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to 1) establish a civil penalty for knowingly misrepresenting an animal as a service animal; and 2) conform existing Hawai'i law with the definition of "service animal" under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Enforcement of this civil offense may be problematic because there is no official registry or form of recognized identification for a service animal. The ADA prohibits asking any questions beyond "is the dog a service animal, required because of a disability?" and "what task(s) has the dog been trained to perform?" In other words, the ADA makes it illegal to ask about the nature of the person's disability, require proof of the disability, and/or require the animal to perform the stated task. Additionally, owners are allowed to train their own animals, as opposed to being professionally trained.

None of the county police departments submitted testimony. However, it appears they would be the primary agencies responsible for enforcement. It may be difficult to prove in court by a clear and convincing standard that a person knowingly misrepresented an animal as a service animal. However, it is worth noting that similar legislation is present in at least fifteen other states.

For the foregoing reasons, SB2461 SD1 HD1 CD1 will become law as ACT 217, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,

House Bill No. 2589, H.D. 2, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 as Act 218, entitled: "RELATING TO MOTORCYCLES."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB2589 HD2 SD1 CD1

HB2589 HD2 SD1 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MOTORCYCLES" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

This bill will authorize the Department of Transportation to designate shoulder lanes upon which motorcycles are allowed to operate when traffic is halted. It will also prohibit the opening of automobile doors that interfere with motorcycles in the shoulder.

The shoulder lane is designated to accommodate stopped vehicles and emergency vehicles on highways, as well as bicycles on arterial roadways. There are significant concerns that this could compromise road safety and create more dangers for operators of all vehicles.

Despite the possible safety concerns, we trust that the Department of Transportation will properly vet which shoulder lanes can be accessible to motorcycles while carefully considering optimal safety measures.

For the foregoing reasons, HB2589 HD2 SD1 CD1 will become law as ACT 218, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Gov. Msg. No. 1328, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

Senate Bill No. 2027, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1 as Act 219, entitled: "RELATING TO APPROPRIATIONS TO ADDRESS HOMELESSNESS."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: SB2027 SD2 HD1 CD1

SB2027 SD2 HD1 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO APPROPRIATIONS TO ADDRESS HOMELESSNESS" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to appropriate $1.5 million for fiscal year 2018-2019 to the Department of Human Services to continue and to improve the coordinated statewide homeless initiative to prevent homelessness and re-house homeless people in the state.

This bill authorizes the Department of Human Services to contract the services of a master contractor to procure and oversee subcontracts for the coordinated statewide homeless initiative. The master contractor will operate a coalition of agencies to provide: (1) homeless diversion services by providing short-term financial assistance to households in the eviction process; and (2) housing navigation services and placement of homeless households into permanent housing.

Homelessness continues to be a major issue in Hawai'i and requires resources and the coordinated efforts of all levels of government and the private sector to ameliorate. However, we are concerned about the statutory requirement that the entire amount of $1.5 million be provided upfront to the master contractor. The provision of all appropriated public funds in advance to a private entity is not aligned to standard procurement processes consistent with the goals of public accountability and public procurement practices. This mandate severely limits DHS's ability to carry out its fiduciary duty to manage and oversee taxpayer funds as required by this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, SB2027 SD2 HD1 CD1 will become law as ACT 219, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/ David Y. Ige

Gov. Msg. No. 1329, dated July 12, 2018, informing the Senate that on July 10, 2018, the Governor allowed the following measure to become law without signature, which reads as follows:

House Bill No. 2071, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, C.D. 1 as Act 220, entitled: "RELATING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT."

"Dear President Kouchi, Speaker Saiki, and Members of the Legislature:

Re: HB2071 HD2 SD2 CD1

HB2071 HD2 SD2 CD1, entitled "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LAW ENFORCEMENT" will become law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

This bill will establish an unpaid fifteen-member Law Enforcement Standards Board responsible for the certification of county police officers, state public safety officers, and employees of the Department of Transportation, Land and Natural Resources, Taxation, and Attorney General with police powers.

The Board will also be responsible for developing minimum standards, establishing and maintaining curriculum and training programs, and establishing procedures and criteria for the revocation of certification.

Although this bill presents implementation and funding issues, we recognize the need for accountability and public confidence in law enforcement. The community deserves to have the highest quality law enforcement and this statewide Board will begin discussions to achieve that. The administration is committed to working with the police chiefs and all law enforcement officials to successfully implement this measure.

The administration and the four police chiefs have concerns regarding the implementation of this bill. First, Hawai'i has no existing certification process. The Board will need to develop the criteria and certify all law enforcement officers, and the one-year timeline is unrealistic.

Second, all four counties have already established accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA), the gold standard in public safety. The state has law enforcement officers with varying duties and scopes of authority. An accreditation system still needs to be established that accommodates these varying responsibilities. We do not want this bill to compromise what the counties have worked to achieve.

Third, the state does not have joint training facilities to accommodate a robust training program. The $100,000 appropriation is inadequate to build and maintain these mentioned facilities. It would also be unreasonable to expect the counties to train the state's law enforcement officers.

Fourth, Hawai'i has a unique situation with our unions, collective bargaining statutes, and "home rule" precedence. Establishing a decertification process could be difficult with collective bargaining and existing arbitration procedures.

We hope to have continued conversations next session to address the bill's implementation challenges including providing adequate resources to help the Board and law enforcement achieve the intent of this measure.

For the foregoing reasons, HB2071 HD2 SD2 CD1 will become law as ACT 220, Session Laws of Hawai'i 2018, effective July 10, 2018, without my signature.

Sincerely,
/s/ David Y. Ige

No committee shall sit during the time when the Senate is actually in session without first securing the approval of the President, except Conference Committees that may sit at any time.

A quorum shall be a majority of the membership of the committee.

(2) A favorable vote of a majority of the members present at a decision-making meeting duly constituted with a quorum is required to report a matter out of committee. A member voting "with reservations" shall be counted as a favorable vote.

(3) The presence of a quorum and the final vote of each member who is present at the decision-making meeting of a standing committee shall be recorded by the chair or by a member of the committee designated by the chair. This record shall be attached to and shall be a part of the report of the standing committee.

(B) Contains any significant or substantial amendment made by a committee other than the last standing committee to which the bill has been referred; and

(C) The public has not been provided with an opportunity to submit testimony on the significant or substantial amendment;

then, prior to reporting the bill out of the last standing committee, the last standing committee to which the bill was referred shall hold a public hearing to provide the public with the opportunity to testify on the bill.

Rule 24 Committee Reports.

(1) The leadership committees as may be appointed by the President and Standing Committees shall report from time to time upon all matters referred to them.

The President may exercise such powers authorized under Chapter 21, relating to the issuance of subpoenas, and the President, committee chair and other duly delegated members of the Senate may exercise such powers authorized under Chapter 21 aforesaid, relating to the administering of oaths, and the compelling of witnesses who have been subpoenaed to testify. All committee meetings held on matters referred to it by the Senate shall be open to the public unless otherwise ordered by the Senate or otherwise provided by these Rules.

(2) The report of the committee shall state findings of fact and conclusions based thereon, together with a distinct recommendation as to the disposal of that matter. A report recommending a measure for passage shall clearly state the legislative intent and purpose of the measure.

(3) The report shall also include the identity of organizations or titles of individuals representing organizations who submitted testimony on legislation for, against or comments only on the measure. A summary of any individual or individuals who submit testimony as private citizens shall also be provided.

(4) A report upon a bill shall state clearly the amendments, if any, proposed. If a substitute bill for one or more referred to the committee shall be reported, such substitute bill shall agree with the subject of the bill or bills referred to the committee.

(5) The committee shall report whenever a majority of the members present at the decision-making meeting duly constituted with a quorum is in favor of reporting the bill or resolution out of the committee. The report, after being made available, for review by the members of the committee, and after subsequent revisions thereto, if any, shall be the final report of the committee. The final report of the committee shall be attested to by the signature of the chair on behalf of the members of the committee. The action of the committee on the bill or resolution or any amendments thereto, if any, and the final vote of each member of the committee recorded by the chair or the chair's designee at a decision-making meeting shall not be changed in the review of the report, unless the change is made at an open decision-making meeting conducted with a quorum of the committee present. The minority of the members present at any decision-making meeting duly constituted with a quorum may report.

When a bill is ordered into Committee of the Whole, such order may dispense with the reading of the whole bill before considering it section by section.

(5) In Committee of the Whole, the rules of procedure in the Senate shall be observed except that any member may speak more than once on the same subject, but no person shall speak a second or further time until others desiring to speak shall have had an opportunity, nor shall the motion for the previous question be allowed. However, a Supplemental Appropriations Bill need not conform to this rule, nor an amending bill where the intent and effect of the amending bill can be clearly identified and understood without repeating the entire section or subsection, in which case only the paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses or items to be amended need be set forth as the President may allow. (5) Any proposed senate draft that makes major amendments or wholesale changes that could affect the referral of the bill shall be submitted to the President for review and if the President deems it appropriate, the bill may be re-referred as determined by the President. The President's determination of any proposed re-referral shall be made within twenty-four hours of receipt of the proposed senate draft.

(6) Each Leadership and Standing Committee shall consider the bills and other matters referred to it as expeditiously as may be possible.

When the bill is reported from committee it shall take its place in the order of business for future consideration.

(2) A bill on its third or final reading may be read by its title only. Upon the final passage of any bill, the Ayes and Noes shall be called. Such passage shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the Senate and the Ayes and Noes shall be entered on the Journal.

(3) All bills, except on first reading, shall be identified by title on the Order of the Day before consideration by the members unless waived by the President.

Rule 51 Bills: Property of Senate.

All bills introduced in the Senate shall be deemed the property of the Senate and under its control unless they shall become law, subject however to the right of the House of Representatives to amend or to refuse to agree with the bills.

(1) All amendments proposed to any bill shall be in writing, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, and shall be sent to the Clerk's desk to be filed with the bill.

(2) The fundamental purpose of any amendment to a bill shall be germane to the fundamental purpose of the bill.

(3) The Clerk shall prepare and distribute copies of any proposed floor amendment to each member of the Senate present.

(4) A floor amendment shall be deemed pending only after its proponent has been recognized by the President and its adoption has been properly moved and seconded.

(5) A floor amendment that relates to a different subject, is intended to accomplish a different purpose, incorporates any other bill pending before the Senate, or would alter the nature of the bill as reported, is not germane and shall not be considered by the Senate.

(6) An amendment to a floor amendment that is not germane to both the floor amendment and the bill as reported shall not be considered by the Senate.

When a bill originating in the Senate shall have passed its third reading, or when a bill originating in the House which has been received from the House shall have been amended, or when a carry-over bill from an odd-numbered year originating in the House passes its third reading in the Senate in an even-numbered year session, such bill or such amended bill shall immediately be certified by the President and Clerk and sent to the House of Representatives for its consideration.

Rule 58 Bills: Correction of Errors.

When a bill has passed both the Senate and the House of Representatives and an error in it is discovered prior to its having received the approval of the Governor, the bill may be returned by Concurrent Resolution to the house last considering the bill for proper correction.

Rule 59 Bills: Order of Consideration.

(1) The Clerk shall ensure that bills that have passed first reading are made immediately available. When the bills have been made available to the members of the Senate, the Majority Leadership, appointed by the President, shall refer the bills to the various committees. When the committees have considered the bills and reported on them, the committees shall return the bills to the Clerk, and the Clerk shall place the bills in the Second Reading File. The Senate shall consider the bills in the order in which they appear in the Second Reading File.

(2) The Clerk shall arrange bills that have passed second reading in the order of their passage on second reading, regardless of the date of their reference to committee or the date of the committee report on them. The Clerk shall place them on the Third Reading File in the order in which they passed second reading and the Senate shall consider them on third reading in that same order. However, if the third reading of a bill is set for some particular date, that bill shall be removed from the Third Reading File.

Rule 60 Bills: Special Order of Consideration.

All bills and other matters set for consideration on particular dates, shall be arranged in the order of the several votes making such assignments. A list shall be made of such special orders, and when the time for consideration arrives, such bills and other matters shall be considered in the order of assignment. If an adjournment shall be had before all of such special orders are disposed of, the remainder shall go over and come under the head of unfinished business on the following day, unless otherwise ordered.

PART VI. RESOLUTIONS; MOTIONS

Rule 61 Resolutions and Motions: Form.

All resolutions shall be typewritten, dated and signed by the introducer, otherwise they shall not be considered. The Senate shall not introduce any congratulatory, commemorative or memorial resolution but shall express the sentiment contained in such resolutions by means of a suitable certificate. Motions and amendments may be verbal but shall be reduced to writing if requested by the President, and shall be read from the desk if so ordered.

Rule 62 Motions: Disposition.

After a motion is stated or read by the President, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Senate, and shall be disposed of by vote of the Senate; however, it may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before an amendment has been adopted or before the decision on the motion if not amended.

Rule 63 Motions Applicable to Pending Matters.

Whenever any bill or resolution or other matter shall be under discussion, the only motions relative thereto shall be:

- (1) To lay upon the table,

- (2) To postpone to a certain time,
- (3) To postpone indefinitely,
- (4) To commit or recommit, and
- (5) To amend, which motions shall have precedence in the order named.

The first two motions shall be decided without debate and shall be put as soon as made.

A motion to recommit will require a floor vote.

When any of the motions shall be decided in the negative, they shall not be revived the same day relative to the main question under discussion. If all are negative as aforesaid, the only remaining question shall be as to the adoption of the bill, resolution or other main question.

Rule 64 Matters Postponed Indefinitely.

When a question is postponed indefinitely, the question shall not be acted upon again during the session in which it was introduced.

Rule 65 Motion for Previous Question.

The object of the motion for the previous question is to cut off debate. It shall always be in order. It shall require a three-fifths vote to carry it.

Whenever the motion shall be carried, the author of the resolution or introducer of the bill under discussion shall be permitted to close the debate, after which the main question, subject to Rule 63, shall be put. The author or introducer may delegate to another such right to close.

Rule 66 Motion for Reconsideration.

(1) When a motion has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted on the side that did not prevail to move for a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted on the prevailing side may move to reconsider it on the same or the succeeding day of session, or, with the consent of the Senate, on any subsequent day and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

(2) When a motion for reconsideration has been decided by vote, that vote shall not be reconsidered.

(3) When a bill or resolution or other matter upon which a vote has been taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, and shall have been transmitted to the House of Representatives, a motion to reconsider shall be deemed to include a request to the House to return the same. If not complied with by the House, then the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be set aside. If such motion shall pass, the Clerk shall promptly communicate to the House the request for return of the matter to be reconsidered.

PART VII. PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Rule 67 Petitions, Memorials, and Miscellaneous Communications.

(1) Any person may petition the Senate. Petitions and other memorials, except as provided in Rule 61, shall be in writing, signed by the petitioners.

(2) All petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the Senate or to the President and members shall be presented to the Senate by the Clerk.

(3) A brief statement of the contents of such petitions, memorials or other papers shall be made orally by the Clerk.

(4) Every such petition, memorial or other paper shall be ordered filed or referred to a committee, as of course, by the President, unless such action is objected to by a member at the time such petition, memorial or other paper is presented.

(5) No such petition, memorial or other paper shall be debated on the day it is presented, except with the consent of the Senate.

PART VIII. ORDER; DEBATE; VOTING

Rule 68 Questions of Order.

(1) A question of order may be raised at any stage of the proceedings, except during the calling of the roll when the Ayes and Noes are called for. Unless submitted to the Senate, such questions shall be decided without debate by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the Senate. Laying such appeal on the table shall be held as sustaining the ruling of the presiding officer.

(2) Any question of order may be submitted to the Senate for its decision.

Rule 69 Debate: General Limitation.

No member shall speak more than twice, unless such member be the mover of the matter pending, in which case such member shall not be permitted to speak in reply until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 70 Voting: Methods.

There shall be five methods of ascertaining the decision of the Senate upon any matter.

(1) First, by voice; Second, by raising of hands; Third, by rising; Fourth, by call of the roll of the members and a record of the Clerk of the vote of each; and Fifth, by unanimous consent.

(2) Whenever the Senate is ready to vote on any question, the President shall rise, and after stating the question, shall request all those in favor of the affirmative of the question to vote "Aye." The President then shall call upon all voting in the negative of the question to vote "No." The President then shall announce the result to the Senate.

(3) If any member shall doubt the result, as announced, the President again shall state the question and call upon the members to vote either by rising in their places, and they shall remain standing until counted, or by raising their hands and the result again shall be announced.

(4) The President shall, when one-fifth of the members present so request, and may, when one member so requests, allow a roll-call vote. Clerk shall call the roll of the members of the Senate. Each member, when called, shall vote in a clear loud voice, "Aye," if voting in the affirmative, or "No," if voting in the negative. The Clerk shall record each vote and such record shall become a part of the Journal of the Senate. The President shall announce the results as above set forth.

(5) With the unanimous consent of the Senate, the President may direct the Clerk to record an "Aye" vote for each member of the Senate. If there is no objection, the Clerk shall so record the vote. If there is objection, the President shall ask for the names of the members voting "No" and order the Clerk to record no votes for them.

Rule 71 Voting: Rights of Members.

(1) No member, on any account, shall refrain from voting unless excused by the President. A member voting "with reservations" shall be counted as a favorable vote. A member may vote "Kanalua" the first time the member's name is called by the Clerk on any vote, but if the member votes "Kanalua" on the next call of the member's name, the member's vote shall be recorded as "Aye."

(2) The President may excuse a member who has a monetary interest in the question, or whose right to a seat in the Senate will be affected by the question, or whose official conduct is involved in the question. If a member thinks there may be a personal interest in the question, the member shall rise and disclose the interest to the President. The President then shall rule whether the member has a conflict of interest. If so, the member shall be excused from voting.

(3) Whenever the Ayes and Noes are called, no one, without unanimous consent, shall be permitted to explain a vote.

(4) After the announcement by the President of the result, no one shall be allowed to vote or to change a vote.

PART IX. DECORUM; DISCLOSURES; PEER REVIEW; PUNISHMENT*Rule 72 Misconduct; Procedure; Peer Review.

No member of the Senate shall be subject to a charge for misconduct, disorderly behavior, or neglect of duty unless the person making the charge shall have first given notice of the charge to the President and to the member being charged.

Upon receipt of the charge, the President shall attempt to resolve the matter in an administrative proceeding. If the matter cannot be resolved administratively, the President may appoint a Special Committee to be chaired by the Vice-President or such other member as the President may designate to investigate, hear and report upon the conduct of the member charged for misconduct, disorderly behavior or neglect of duty. Any member so charged shall be informed in writing of the specific charge or charges made against the member and have opportunity to present evidence and be heard in the member's own defense before the Special Committee. Following its investigation and hearing, the Special Committee shall file its report with the President setting forth its findings and recommendations.

If the committee recommends dismissal of the charge or charges, the President may dismiss the charges without further hearing, or the President may present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration. The Senate, by a majority vote, may dismiss the charge or charges against the member without a hearing.

If there is no dismissal of the charge or charges, or if the committee recommends censure, suspension or expulsion, the President shall present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration and decision. The member who is charged, shall be informed in writing of the presentation of the charge or charges of the committee report to the Senate and be given an opportunity to be heard in the member's own defense. The Senate, by a majority vote, may dismiss the charge or charges without a hearing, or with notice and an opportunity to be heard in the member's own defense, censure a member or, upon a two-thirds vote of all the members of the Senate, suspend or expel a member.

At any stage of the charge against a member, the member shall have a right to be represented by a person or persons of the member's own choosing.

Rule 73 Decorum: Transgression of Rules.

If any member transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President, or any member, may call such member to order, and, when so called to order, the member immediately shall sit down. The President then shall decide the question of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Senate.

The President may call for the sense of the Senate on any question of order.

Rule 74 Decorum: Address.

When any member is about to speak, such member shall rise from the member's seat and address all remarks to the President. While speaking, the member shall confine all remarks to the question under debate, shall refer to other Senators by title only (e.g., "Senator from the _____ District"; "The Chair of the Committee on _____"; "The Majority Leader,") and not by name and shall avoid personalities.

Rule 75 Decorum: Person Called to Order While Speaking.

Whenever any person shall be called to order while speaking, such person shall be deemed to be in possession of the floor when the question of order is decided and may proceed with the matter under discussion.

Rule 76 Decorum: Presence in Senate.

No person shall sit at the desk of the President or Clerk, except by permission of the President, nor shall any person, other than a member, officer or permitted employee or person, sit in the main Senate floor area during any of the sessions of the Senate.

Rule 77 Decorum: Conduct in Session.

When the President is putting any question or addressing the Senate, no one shall walk out of the room or across the floor. When a member is speaking, no one shall entertain a private discourse, nor shall anyone pass between the member speaking and the Chair.

No one shall cause any annoyance or disturbance on the Senate floor by use of sound-emitting electronic devices such as cell phones or pagers.

Rule 78 Decorum: Disorderly Conduct in Session.

If, during any session of the Senate, any member should behave in a disorderly manner the President shall order the member to be seated and preserve the peace. If such member then shall persist in disorderly conduct, the President shall order the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove the member from the Senate and the member shall not be permitted to take a seat during the remainder of that day's session, except upon satisfactory pledge given to the Senate for future good behavior.

Rule 79 Decorum: Recording of Debate Called to Order.

If any Senator is called to order for words spoken in debate, upon the member's demand or on that of any other Senator, the words objected to shall be taken down in writing and noted by the Clerk, and, if required, shall be read for the information of the Senate.

Rule 80 Decorum: Smoking.

No member or other officer shall smoke anywhere within the capitol.

Rule 81 Standards of Conduct.

(1) Members should conduct themselves in a respectful manner befitting the office with which they as elected officials have been entrusted, respecting and complying with the law and acting at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity of the Senate.

(2) Members should not lend the prestige of public office to advance the private interests of themselves or others; nor should members convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to unduly influence pending public business before them.

(3) Members should treat their fellow Senate members, staff, and the general public with respect and courtesy, regardless of political or religious beliefs, race, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, or physical disability.

(4) The legislative duties of members as prescribed by law and these Rules should take precedence over all of their other business or professional activities. Members should freely and willingly accept certain restrictions on their business activities and professional conduct that might be considered burdensome by an ordinary private citizen, and should perform the duties of elected office impartially and diligently. To the greatest extent reasonably possible, members should:

- (A) Refrain from allowing family, social, business, or other relationships to unduly influence the member's legislative conduct or judgment.
- (B) Refrain from showing bias or prejudice, including but not limited to bias or prejudice based on political or religious beliefs, race, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, or physical disability, in the performance of their official duties.
- (C) Exercise patience, tolerance and courtesy to all those with whom they deal with in an official capacity, and require staff and others subject to their direction and control to maintain similar standards of conduct, fidelity, and diligence inherent in public service.
- (D) Exercise the power of appointment impartially and on the basis of merit, refraining from making unnecessary appointments and approving compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.
- (E) Afford to every person who wishes to participate in the legislative process the opportunity to be heard according to established procedures.

- (F) Consider at all times whether their conduct would create in reasonable minds the perception that their ability to carry out legislative responsibilities with integrity and independence is either questionable or impaired.
- (G) Refrain from using, or permitting the use of, the privileges and prestige of their public office to derive undue personal, professional, or financial benefits for themselves, members of their families, or others with whom they maintain personal, business, or professional relationships.
- (H) Refrain from engaging in financial and business dealings that involve them in frequent transactions, or continuing business or professional relationships, with those persons likely to derive benefits from public financial matters either pending or already deliberated and voted upon by the Senate, to the extent that such conduct may reasonably be perceived as personal exploitation of their public office.

Rule 82 Decorum: Solicitation Prohibited.

An officer or employee of the Senate shall not solicit subscriptions, for any purpose, from any other officer or employee thereof, nor from any Senator. Nor shall any person be permitted to solicit or receive subscriptions or contributions for any purpose on the floor or in the lobby of the Senate or in any Senate office.

Rule 83 Disclosures.

Each member shall file with the Ethics Commission of the State of Hawai'i, a disclosure of the member's private financial interests, as prescribed by law. Each member shall file with the Ethics Commission any change in such financial interests.

If a legislative matter which affects a member's interests arises before the member has made a disclosure to the Ethics Commission, the member shall disclose orally such interest to the Senate before voting. The member then shall immediately make the written disclosure required by law and the Rules of the Senate.

Any member who has filed a disclosure as required by this Rule need not make a further oral disclosure on the Senate floor of any interest so filed.

Rule 84 Violating Confidence.

If any matter covered in Rule 35 or 36 shall be disclosed by any Senator, the Senator shall be liable to censure, or, by a two-thirds vote, to suspension or expulsion from the Senate. If an officer or other person authorized to hear such matter shall disclose the matter, such officer shall be dismissed and such other person shall be liable to punishment for contempt comparable to the punishment provided for by Article III, Section 18 of the Hawai'i State Constitution and in the manner as therein prescribed.

Rule 85 Conflicts of Interest.

(1) No member shall vote on any legislation if the member has a direct financial interest in the legislation, unless the member is part of the class of people affected by the official action based upon the member's profession, trade or business; provided that this rule shall not apply to votes on the recommendations of a committee when a member has disclosed a potential conflict. For the purposes of this rule, a "direct financial interest" means that the legislation affects the legislator's personal business, property, or financial interest.

(2) If a member is uncertain as to whether a conflict of interest exists, the member may request a ruling from the President by giving notice and disclosing the direct financial interest to the President prior to voting. When making a determination in cases where a portion of a measure may place a member in a conflict of interest, the President shall give due consideration to the context of that portion as it relates to the overall purpose of the measure. If the President determines that a conflict exists, the President shall excuse the member from voting.

PART X. QUESTIONS TO STATE OFFICERS*Rule 86 Questions to State Officers.

Any member of the Senate may ask any question of any state officer relating to the officer's respective department by reducing such questions to writing, over the member's signature, reading the same before the Senate, and furnishing the officer with a copy of such written question. Any officer questioned shall reply to such question upon the following day, unless the Senate shall grant a definite extension of time for replying.

PART XI. AMENDMENT, SUSPENSION AND INTERPRETATION OF RULES*Rule 87 Amendments; Suspension; Violations.

(1) No rule of the Senate shall be amended or rescinded nor shall any new rule be adopted, without one day's notice of such change. Any such action shall require a majority vote of the members of the Senate.

(2) Any rule may be suspended for a particular purpose upon a majority vote of the members of the Senate.

(3) Any violation of these Rules shall be referred to the President for appropriate action.

Rule 88 Parliamentary Procedure.

Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedures, 2010 edition, where not inconsistent with the Rules and practices of the Senate, shall govern.

PART XII. MISCELLANEOUS POWER

Rule 89 Administrative and Financial Manuals.

The Senate shall adopt by majority vote an administrative and financial manual of guides, the purpose of which is to establish uniformity in administrative practices and to ensure compliance with Senate policies.

Rule 90 Decorum; Disrespectful Conduct During Session by Non-member.

If, during any session of the Senate, any non-member should behave in a disrespectful or disorderly manner the non-member shall be subject to arrest and removal from the Senate Chamber by the Sergeant-at-Arms or by any other law enforcement officer of the State, as directed by the Sergeant-at-Arms. Any removal of a non-member by the Sergeant-at-Arms and its personnel shall be restricted to removal of the non-member from the Senate Chamber and through non-physical means, whenever possible. Once a non-member is removed from the Senate Chamber, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall relinquish control of the non-member to the Department of Public Safety or other law enforcement officers of the State.

For the punishment of a non-member, the provisions of Article III, Section 18, of the Hawai'i State Constitution or section 710-1078, Hawai'i Revised Statutes, pursuant to Act 204, Session Laws of Hawaii 2012, shall govern.

Rule 91 Issuance of the Senate Pin.

- (4) The Senate pin shall not be presented to an individual or representative acting on behalf of any current or past member.
- (5) If the Senate pin presented under this Rule is lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use without fault or neglect on the part of the current or past member to whom it was furnished, the President may replace the Senate pin upon request.

Prior to offering the initial meeting notice for signatures, the chairs shall consult with one another on the information to be included in the notice. Lead chairs from both houses are encouraged to sign meeting notices first, before distributing them to other chairs to sign.

Chairs shall provide at least 24 hours public notice of the first meeting of the Conference Committee and are strongly encouraged to provide more than 24 hours notice if at all possible. 6. Attendance at Meetings

a. To convene the initial conference committee meeting only the lead House and Senate chair must be present. All other conference committee managers, especially any co-chair, should attempt to be present.

b. Once a conference has been opened, reconvening of any subsequent meeting of a conference committee shall require the following:

All other conference committee managers, especially any co-chair, should attempt to be present at the convening of and during each meeting.

c. For decision-making at a meeting, a quorum must be present. "A quorum shall be a majority of the House Committee managers and a majority of the Senate Committee managers, and shall include the lead House and Senate chair and majority of the chairs of the Conference Committee for their respective chamber." See Section 9.a of the "Procedures." The lead House and Senate chair of the conference committee must be part of this quorum.

d. For a measure with fiscal implications, approval must be given by the chair representing the House Finance Committee and Senate Ways and Means Committee during the decision-making on the measure.

7. Conference Discussion

8. Decorum in Conference Committee Meetings and Courtesy to the Public and to the Managers

a. Managers shall respect the differing views of other managers and conduct themselves in a courteous manner.

b. Chairs shall ensure that meetings convene and reconvene at scheduled times. If none of the chairs of one of the Committees are present within 15 minutes of the scheduled meeting time, the chairs of the other Committee shall have the names of the absent chairs paged through the State Capitol public address system.

c. If none of the absent chairs are present within 30 minutes of the scheduled meeting time, the chairs present shall inform the managers and members of public present that the Conference Committee cannot be convened or reconvened, and that, pursuant to 5c of these Committees on Conference Procedures, a 24-hour advance notice shall be provided for a subsequent meeting of the Conference Committee.

9. Decision-making Meeting

The decision-making meeting of a Conference Committee shall comply with the following open meeting provisions:

- a. A quorum of the Conference Committee shall be present for the decision making meeting. A quorum shall be a majority of the House Committee managers and a majority of the Senate Committee managers, and shall include the lead House and Senate chair and majority of the chairs of the Conference Committee for their respective chamber.
- b. To report a measure out of Conference Committee in amended form, Conference Draft (CD), a majority of the quorum of managers for each respective chamber shall vote in favor of the proposed amendments.
- c. The lead chair (or the lead chair’s designee) representing their respective chamber shall call the roll and be the recorder of the quorum and the votes on that measure for that chamber. (Sample attached).
- d. If, after naming a Conference Committee on a measure, the Conference Committee managers representing the chamber from which a measure originated agree to the amendments made by the non-originating chamber, only a quorum of those representing the originating chamber shall vote on the agreement at a duly noticed meeting. For example, if after naming a Conference Committee on a House measure, the House managers of the Conference Committee decide to agree to the amendments in the Senate draft (SD) of the measure, then only the House managers of the Conference Committee shall vote on the measure, returning it to the House in its SD form. For such action, only a quorum of the Conference Committee managers representing the chamber from which the measure originated need to be present. The “Record of Votes of a Conference Committee” sheet detailing the votes of the managers of the originating chamber shall be filed with the appropriate chamber without a Conference Committee Report.

10. Conference Committee Reports

- a. A majority of the House and Senate chairs, respectively, of a Conference Committee shall attest to the action of the Conference Committee by signing the Conference Committee Report on behalf of their respective managers; provided that no Conference Committee Report concerning a measure with fiscal implications shall be reported out of a Conference Committee without the signature of the chair (or the chair’s designee) of each fiscal committee to which the measure is referred. The “Record of Votes of a Conference Committee” sheet detailing the votes of the managers of the Conference Committee shall be attached to the report as a part thereof.
- b. All House measures reported out of Conference Committee shall be filed with the House Chief Clerk, and likewise all Senate measures shall be filed with the Senate Chief Clerk. A document filed in the originating chamber shall be deemed simultaneously filed in the other chamber. Only the original Conference Committee Report, with the attached Record of Votes, and the Conference Draft of the measure shall be required for filing.
- c. If the Conference Committee votes to report the measure out, the Committee must file a Conference Committee Report and Conference Draft with the appropriate chamber’s Chief Clerk.

11. Decision-making Deadlines

On the deadline nights for Final Decking of both non-fiscal and fiscal bills:

- a. Conference Committees shall conclude their negotiations by 6:00 p.m. to allow adequate time for final preparation of the bills and Conference Committee Reports.
- b. To provide all chairs with ample opportunity to review and sign the Conference Committee Reports before filing, all Conference Committee Reports shall be available for review and signature by 9:00 p.m.
- c. All Conference Committee Reports and Conference Drafts of measures shall be filed with the respective Chief Clerk by 11:30 p.m.

12. Electronic Transfer

Should a Conference Committee for which the vehicle is a Senate bill decide to use a proposal drafted by the House, the House chair shall have the House proposal electronically transferred to the appropriate Senate office so that the Conference Draft can be prepared. The converse shall apply to House bills with proposals drafted by the Senate that the Conference Committee agrees to.

13. Exceptions to these Deadlines and Procedures

Exceptions to these deadlines and other procedures may be made only with the advance written approval of both the Senate President and the House Speaker.
