Senator Baker rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, Ms. Awakuni Colón has a long history of service to the State of Hawai‘i. She received her undergraduate degree and juris doctorate from UH and has broad experience across private and public sectors, including private practice with Ashford Wriston and Bodden Muraoka, Hawaiian Electric Company, six years at the Public Utilities Commission, serving both as the executive director of the Division of Consumer Advocacy and as legal counsel for the commission. She’s been the administrator of the Cable Television Division and DCCA director since 2015.

“Her collaborative and inclusive approach to running DCCA is evident by the broad support from other state departments that have had the opportunity to work with her and from testimony of key individuals within DCCA. She has worked to provide educational opportunities in all sectors where the department operates, allowing consumers to make more informed choices and businesses to operate successfully. She will continue to modernize the departmental operations, allowing the department to stay ahead of real and potential threats to consumers while allowing for the efficient flow of commerce into the state.

“Colleagues, I’ve had the good fortune and pleasure to work with Director Awakuni Colón over the past four years. She is an excellent leader; her administrative skills are beyond reproach, and she is a great role model for others to follow. I urge my colleagues to join me in voting yes on Governor’s Message 540. Mahalo.”

At this time, Senator Baker introduced Director Catherine Awakuni-Colon, who was present in the gallery with her husband and several supporters from the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs.

At 11:56 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:00 p.m.

The Clerk announced:

“Members, we are taking several bills out of order, starting with, on page 38... Beginning on page 37, we have Third Reading bills.”

The Chair stated:

“All the bills on page 37 will be deferred to Tuesday’s calendar. If there are no objections from the members, so ordered.”

At 12:02 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:04 p.m.

The Chair stated:

“Before proceeding, to the members: So, I think there was a little bit of confusion. Some committee report numbers were submitted, some bill numbers were submitted, so the Clerk was given incorrect information. We’re going to work off a list of 13 bills to possibly vote on today. If there was a mistake and one of those bills should more appropriately be deferred to Tuesday, please indicate by motion. Your motion will be accommodated to make sure each member has ample opportunity to be prepared to vote on the matters. So, we’re going to start again, if there are no objections, from page 37, and we will be, without objection, doing it on consent.”
