

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY

Friday, March 22, 2019

The Senate of the Thirtieth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2019, convened at 11:38 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Sixth Day.

At this time, Senator Ihara introduced Toby In, a junior at Kalani High School and a Center for Tomorrow's Leaders Fellow, and Rin Inuzuka, a senior at Sacred Hearts Academy and president of her school's National Honor Society, both of whom were interning in his office.

Senator Keohokalole recognized State Representative Scot Z. Matayoshi and State Representative Lisa Kitagawa, who were seated in the gallery.

Senator Kidani acknowledged Justine Jumalon, a freshman at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, who had volunteered during her spring break to help with Education Week, and thanked her for all her work.

Senator Kidani then stated:

"Mr. President, on our final day of Education Week, we would like to recognize other awardees for their commitments to our students and their schools, including the 2019 Global Educator Award, the 2019 Milken Teacher of Promise Award, and the Leilehua High School esports team. At this time, we would like to acknowledge the 2019 Milken Teacher of Promise honoree, Bella Finau-Faumuina. The Kāne'ohe Elementary School special education teacher and head of the Innovation Academy receives this prestigious award in her third year of teaching, demonstrating immense educational excellence. To introduce this honoree, the senator from Kāne'ohe."

Senator Keohokalole commended Bella Finau-Faumuina, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, today I have the privilege of introducing, from Kāne'ohe Elementary School, Bella Finau-Faumuina, as the 2019 Milken Teacher of Promise Award honoree. Bella Finau-Faumuina, referred to as Kumu Bella, has regularly received high praise from students, who have spoken of her caring and effective teaching, as well as from parents, complimenting her ability to instill a love of learning in their children. Her success as an instructor is reflected in her students' increased attendance achievements and decreased problematic behaviors. She has not only shown her abilities in the classroom but has also made presentations to statewide audiences, organized district-wide professional development events, and demonstrated leadership in piloting new initiatives at Kāne'ohe Elementary School. Through her notable achievements in the classroom and outstanding leadership in her profession, Kumu Bella is more than deserving of the prestigious Milken Educators Teacher of Promise Award. Colleagues, please join me again in congratulating Kumu Bella Finau-Faumuina. Also joining us today in the gallery to honor her is her husband, Don Faumuina. Thank you. I now yield the floor to the senator from Hilo."

Senator Kahahele congratulated Joel Wagner-Wright, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, it's my honor to introduce to you Waiākea High School's Joel Wagner-Wright, who is the 2019 Global Educator Award honoree. Welcome, Joel. Colleagues, Joel Wagner-Wright is the chair of Waiākea High School's social studies department and teaches a wide range of subjects, including global studies, participation in democracy, psychology, sociology, and political science, just to name a few. After the school day ends, Joel dedicates his time to instruct an after-school global studies class and has done so for the past 12 years. He has also led students on educational tours to Japan and Vietnam. Joel discusses the topics that, while difficult to confront, most seriously affect the future of our younger generations. He has taught units on poverty, human trafficking, domestic violence, and the effects of pollution on our oceans. During a unit on poverty, Joel encouraged students to develop a campaign, conduct a march, and volunteer at a local shelter. For a unit on microplastics and ocean pollution, Joel had students teaming up with the University of Hawai'i at Hilo's marine biology program to conduct a beach cleanup and work with university students to study the impact of microplastics on local sea creatures. Ultimately, it is the impact Joel has had on his students that distinguishes him as an educator. He understands that inspiring a love for learning is far more important than any one subject. The lasting effect of his lessons and his understanding of students make Joel a model educator for teachers across this great state.

"Colleagues, seated in the gallery today, Joel is joined by his grandparents Eric and Ruby Kawamoto; his partner, Dennis Ancheta; and representatives from the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council – Ana Reidy Ungureit, Niki Shishido, Jason Shon, Erin Hoshibata. Again, colleagues, it's our honor to recognize Joel Wagner-Wright for his outstanding achievement in receiving the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council's 2019 Global Educator Award, and at this time, I'd like to yield the floor to the senator from Wahiawā."

Senator Dela Cruz recognized the Leilehua High School Library Learning Commons and esports team, and presented the following remarks:

"Today, we congratulate and recognize the Leilehua High School Library Learning Commons on its recent grand opening and the Leilehua esports team on its successful inaugural season. The Library Learning Commons provides students and faculty with the support, tools, and information that they will need to successfully navigate their learning and become self-reliant and knowledgeable to be successful in the twenty-first century and excel in the global society. Esports was made possible through the Library Learning Commons and enabled the Leilehua team to successfully compete in the Hawaii High School Athletic Association's pilot season. The esports team has already acquired the skills necessary to compete nationally, with some of the team being recognized for esports scholarships from many different colleges. Today we have with us team members Enrique Sanchez, Elizen Bumanglag, Nathaniel Jara, Chase Harrison, and Dominic Castillo, and coach Anthony Arneson. In the gallery we have Principal Jason Nakamoto, librarian Jenny Yamamoto, and Leilehua Complex resource manager Grant Toyooka. We also have family members Joshua Harrison, Pedro Kirkpatrick, Judy Sakuoka (who hasn't aged, because she was there when I was in high school—looks like Wahiawā water is very good for you), Allen Sakuoka, and Laverne Arneson. Thank you, Mr. President, and let's give them another round of applause."

Senator Kidani rose to thank the members of the Senate for recognizing educators and students during Education Week.

On behalf of the members of the Senate, the Chair expressed gratitude to Senator Kidani for the outstanding program during Education Week, noting that she and her staff had done a tremendous job and that it was uplifting and rewarding to see the great achievements by students, teachers, and administrators.

At 11:50 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:58 a.m.
