

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

Wednesday, March 27, 2019

The Senate of the Thirtieth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2019, convened at 11:35 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Eighth Day.

At this time, Senator Keohokalole acknowledged representatives of Native Hawaiian advocacy groups who were seated in the gallery: Lualualei Hawaiian Civic Club, Mākaha Hawaiian Civic Club, Wai'anae Hawaiian Civic Club, Hawaiian Civic Club of Honolulu, Prince Kūhiō Hawaiian Civic Club, Kalihi-Pālana Hawaiian Civic Club, King Kamehameha Hawaiian Civic Club, Ali'i Pauahi Hawaiian Civic Club, Sovereign Council of Hawaiian Homestead Associations, Hawaiian Affairs Caucus of the Democratic Party of Hawai'i, Hawaiian Community Assets, Hawai'i Alliance for Progressive Action (HAPA), Hawaii Teamsters Local 996, and Unite Here! Local 5, as well as Dr. Kamana'opono Crabbe of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, students from Wai'anae High School, Kamehameha Schools, and other individuals who advocate on behalf of the Native Hawaiian community.

Senator Ihara introduced his nephew Zachary Ihara, an eighth-grade student from Boy Scout Troop 82 in Kaimukī, who was attending the Senate floor session to earn his Citizenship in the Community merit badge. Senator Ihara also recognized Zachary's parents, who were seated in the gallery: his father, Percy, publisher of Generations magazine; and his mother, Laurie, whose father was the first Chinese-American federal judge.

The Chair extended an additional welcome to Percy Ihara, who was a classmate of his wife, Mrs. Joy Kouchi.

Senator Kidani introduced her sister-in-law Vicky Paresa from Wai'anae, who was seated in the gallery.

Senator Riviere honored and commended the North Shore Community Land Trust, and presented the following remarks:

"Today, I have the great honor of introducing to my colleagues and guests in the gallery the North Shore Community Land Trust. This is an organization that was founded about 22 years ago by a group of community individuals who wanted to be proactive instead of fighting always on our heels to defend the great North Shore. And the North Shore is, by many accounts, a global treasure. It's worth preserving; it's worth giving it our all, and I believe that our community really does step up to do its part to keep it great for the benefit of everybody. We have town, which is great—all the infrastructure—and we've got country, and that balance is something that we're always after. So the North Shore Community Land Trust provides a great tool and advocacy for that. So, today with us, we have the outgoing executive director of the North Shore Community Land Trust, Doug Cole. Thank you, Doug. And also Adam Borrello: Adam is taking over for Doug, and we're going to see great things coming out of him. Thank you.

"Folks, I just want to give you a quick history. This is a group that has fought to save Pūpūkea-Paumalū, which is 1,200 acres of pristine North Shore land above Sunset Beach. You may have heard of the Save Sunset Beach efforts and coalitions. They've been involved in saving Waimea Valley. They've been involved in the Turtle Bay resolution. They are now the guardians and the land stewards up at Kahuku Point: Through all the settlement, through all the work that we've all been involved with and everything else, they get a grant from Turtle Bay to preserve and enhance the wildlife and outcomes up at Kahuku Point. There are now albatross fledging and coming back, living in that area; there's monk seals; there's turtles. It's a pristine land, and they are actually doing the volunteer work and organizing, and they're open for tours if you guys would like to come out and see the great work that they're doing. Recently, you may have seen in the news that there was an extra acquisition of land out at Ka'ena Point that a family donated. There were some hang-ups in that, but this is the group that helped pull it all together. They work with the Trust for Public Land; they bring people together for voluntary land conservation. They don't go at it in lawsuits and challenges; they work with willing landowners to conserve land, such as the Sunset Ranch up in Pūpūkea. So the list is long; it's getting longer; they are a fantastic organization, and it is a great, great privilege to know them and to get to say a little bit about the great work that they do. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen; please, again, for the North Shore Community Land Trust.

"And if I may, Mr. President, I'd like to acknowledge a few other members of the organization; they're up in the gallery today with my office manager, Margarete Olson: Tim Tybuszewski, Alice Terry, Bob and Agnes Leinau. These are longtime supporters of the group and have been active with it forever: Welcome."

At 11:43 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:47 a.m.

Senator Keohokalole moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1526 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator English and carried.

Senator Keohokalole then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations to the Enhanced 911 Board of the following:

ALLISON BLAKE, term to expire June 30, 2020 (Gov. Msg. No. 548);

ELLIOTT KE, term to expire June 30, 2020 (Gov. Msg. No. 549); and

FRANCIS ALUETA, term to expire June 30, 2020 (Gov. Msg. No. 550), seconded by Senator English.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Keohokalole introduced newly confirmed board member Francis Alueta, who was seated in the gallery.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1527 (Gov. Msg. No. 581):

Senator Keohokalole moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1527 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator English and carried.

Senator Keohokalole then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DOUGLAS G. MURDOCK as Chief Information Officer of the Department of Accounting and General Services, term to expire at noon on December 5, 2022, seconded by Senator English.

Senator Keohokalole rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"I'm honored to make this recommendation because I believe Mr. Murdock to be a highly qualified candidate to serve in this position, the importance of which is ever increasing thanks to the speed at which our state and society adopt and adapt to technology. With that change comes the need for our state government to follow suit, not only in its management of our existing government operations but in its approach to modernizing these systems in a way that is both effective and accountable. Mr. Murdock has the experience and ability to accomplish these critical tasks.

"His experience includes positions he held recently as systems analyst lead for the successful and long overdue state payroll modernization, as vice president for administrative and fiscal affairs for the Hawai'i Tourism Authority, and as the state comptroller and director of the Department of Accounting and General Services. Mr. President, in addition, he also attained the rank of colonel in the United States Air Force, which included 25 years of service as a judge advocate, including roles as the executive officer to the Air Force Judge Advocate General and legal issues chief for the Air Force at the Pentagon.

"In reference to his ability, I was particularly struck by his temperament and outlook on this position, which I think speak directly to his leadership ability. Instead of focusing on the complicated minutia of IT systems management, our first conversation was a discussion about the critical nature of people management when it comes to upgrading our state technology. At the end of the day, he recognizes that this job is about managing people. You can buy the best tech on the market, but you will only implement it successfully if you conduct proper outreach and generate buy-in from the people who are tasked with using it. That is not an easy thing to achieve. I think we can all agree that that was and continues to be a major source of trials and failures for our IT efforts in the past, and I think it demonstrates a profound understanding of the situation he is coming into as CIO and the challenges that lie ahead. Colleagues, I am, again, happy to speak in his favor and urge your support for his confirmation."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Kidani, Kim). Noes, none.

Senator Keohokalole introduced Chief Information Officer Douglas Murdock, who was seated in the gallery with staff supporters from the Office of Enterprise Technology Services.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1528 (Gov. Msg. No. 602):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1528 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried.

Senator Dela Cruz then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of LINDA CHU TAKAYAMA as Director, Department of Taxation, term to expire on December 5, 2022, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"The governor has nominated Linda Chu Takayama for a second term as director of the Department of Taxation. He knows that her appointment to the department has been critical in turning around the Tax System Modernization project as she worked with managers and employees to address all of their concerns. The project is expected to finish on schedule as it moves into its final phases of this multi-year effort. Ms. Takayama has a long history of public service to the people of the State of Hawai'i. As one of the testifiers stated, she has established a record of stellar service to this state, having served in many senior positions. She served as director of Labor and Industrial Relations, deputy director of the state Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, and Hawai'i insurance commissioner. Ms. Takayama also served as a director of economic development for the City and County, and chief of staff to the United States Senate Sergeant at Arms in Washington, D.C. And she's also been in private practice throughout the past 20 years.

"Colleagues point out her notable achievements include the creation of the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund in her role as insurance commissioner during the aftermath of Hurricane Iniki, stating that her work in crafting the Hawaii Hurricane Relief Fund was stellar. Indeed, it remains one of the most successful insurance catastrophe funds in the nation. Ms. Takayama's long-term commitment to the Hawaii Foodbank has brought that organization from a good organization to a great one. Her leadership there has helped create a robust, well-functioning service helping to feed Hawai'i's people, and she has effected the repair and maintenance budget of DOE schools throughout Hawai'i's 3R's initiatives, a partnership between government and private sector to help repair, remodel, and restore our public schools.

"Her employees have witnessed her professional and management approach in leadership, experiencing how she has worked with managers and employees to improve the department. They note that Ms. Takayama has shown her commitment and determination to work toward establishing and achieving goals for the department. And I just wanted to read from her questionnaire one of the things that I think not just myself but probably many of you here also probably suffer from. In her assessment of strengths and weaknesses, in her weaknesses, she says, 'I'm often impatient with the pace of change, which appears to me to be agonizingly slow. Possibly related to the impatience is the complaint that I can sometimes be demanding.' So I think that's something that we probably can all relate to, and I'm glad that she has those traits. The Committee on Ways and Means has interviewed and reviewed Ms. Takayama's qualifications for this position, and, as stated in the committee's report, we find her to be qualified for the position and recommend that the Senate advise and consent to her nomination."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Dela Cruz introduced Director Linda Chu Takayama, who was seated in the gallery with her husband, State Representative Gregg Takayama.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1529 (Gov. Msg. No. 603):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1529 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried.

Senator Dela Cruz then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DAMIEN A. ELEFANTE as Deputy Director of the Department of Taxation, term to expire at noon on December 5, 2022, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“The governor has also nominated Damien Elefante for a second term to be the deputy director of DOTAX, a position he has held since August 2016. He brings to the position more than a decade of experience working on tax issues for the state. He is currently a trustee for EUTF and, as a deputy attorney general for the Department of Taxation, he represented the state’s interest in contested tax-related cases, collecting over $50 million for the benefit of the state. When he joined the Department of Taxation, he served as the compliance coordinator at DOTAX before being appointed its deputy director. Prior to joining the state, Mr. Elefante worked at Hisaka Stone Goto Yoshida Cosgrove & Ching, and served as a law clerk for Chief Judge James S. Burns at the Intermediate Court of Appeals. Governor Ige knows that Damien’s knowledge, skills, and abilities have helped the director effectively lead the department and administer improvements to programs and services of the department. Among these improvements is the Tax System Modernization, which will provide taxpayers with secured access to their tax accounts as well as allow for paperless payments and filings. The Committee on Ways and Means has interviewed and reviewed Mr. Elefante’s qualifications for this position, and, as stated in the committee’s report, we find him to be qualified for the position and recommend that the Senate advise and consent to his nomination.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Dela Cruz introduced Deputy Director Damien Elefante, who was seated in the gallery with his wife, Sarah.

At 12:01 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Senator Dela Cruz requested that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Dela Cruz’s remarks read as follows:

“I’d like to thank my colleagues in the Senate, as well as my counterpart in the House. Our budget discussions were smooth, efficient, and productive.

“As we reviewed budget adjustments line by line, the issues before us encouraged healthy discussions, and our differences and individual priorities were outweighed by our affinity and commitment to delivering what is best for the State of Hawai’i.

“Together, House and Senate conferees reviewed and discussed the proposals submitted by the Administration in crafting the $15.5 billion spending plan for the next fiscal biennium. Our goal was to establish priorities, make necessary cuts, and provide funding for programs that can be spent in a responsible and timely manner.

Senator Baker moved that H.B. No. 314, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Chang.

Senator Ruderman rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, this is an unnecessary bill to address a nonexistent problem, and it creates a bunch of other problems along the way. I notice that all the public testimony, both on the House and Senate side, was in opposition—100 percent, including the Retail Merchants, Hawai'i Restaurant Association, Hawaii Food Industry Association. As a retailer, I share the concerns expressed there, which include: Sometimes a cashier in this non-cash era that we have will not have the exact change to reimburse somebody, and we're putting cashiers and mom-and-pop businesses in an impossible situation, where they're criminals if they don't have $3.59 on demand. So, as a retailer myself, and as a recovering cashier, I think it's very important that the point of sale flows smoothly and without government interference, so, on behalf of the small-business community, I oppose this bill. I hope that in the future we'll support small businesses. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 314, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO GIFT CERTIFICATES," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:
