"Ms. Connors is a strong candidate for attorney general. Her academic background is stellar. From Punahou, she went to Yale for her undergraduate degree and to Harvard for law school, where she was a line editor for the Journal on Legislation.

"Since law school, she has had a successful legal career and has significant experience in both criminal and civil matters, which will prove useful as our attorney general. She clerked for U.S. District Court Judge David Ezra. She was an assistant U.S. attorney for seven years, and she has been a partner in a well-known Honolulu law firm. President Obama nominated her for a position on the U.S. District Court for the District of Hawai'i. She successfully completed the federal background checks and was voted favorably out of the United States Senate's Judiciary committee for a floor vote. Unfortunately, Justice Scalia's death brought the nomination of all federal judges to a halt, and she never got her floor vote.

"Being the state's attorney general also requires managerial ability as the Department of the Attorney General is the largest law firm in the state. Fortunately, Ms. Connors also has significant supervisory experience in an organization much larger than the AG's office. Before she attended law school, Ms. Connors spent several years in management positions in the New York City Parks & Recreation department. Having spent some time in New York City politics myself many years ago, I suspect she will find managing the much smaller Department of the Attorney General no more challenging than the Parks & Rec department in New York City.

"One final aspect of Ms. Connors's confirmation process is worth noting. The committee received no testimony in opposition, and no one that I talked to in the legal community had anything negative to say about her. On the contrary, virtually all the feedback about her was glowing. Mr. President, I support Ms. Connors's nomination to be our next attorney general, and I urge my colleagues to support her as well. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Rhoads introduced Attorney General Clare Connors, who was accompanied in the gallery by her husband, Alex; her children, Fiona and Connor; her mother, Betsy; and her sister Celeste.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2217 (Gov. Msg. No. 737):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2217 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried.

Senator Dela Cruz then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of ROBERT YU as Deputy Director of the Department of Budget and Finance, term to expire at noon on December 5, 2022, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. Yu earned a bachelor of science in accounting and a master's in business administration before working with Hawaiian Electric, Grant Thornton, and Chevron USA. Mr. Yu then brought his financial skills to the transportation industry at the City and County of Honolulu, where he worked for 25 years, first at OTS (known as TheBus and Handi-Van) and recently at HART. During his tenure with the OTS, he was vice president of finance & administration and then senior vice president & deputy general manager from 2006 to 2017, working on the daily operations of OTS. In addition, he was the administrator for the OTS deferred compensation plan and was involved in labor union grievances and negotiations, served on the OTS pension plan and investment committee, and was a trustee on the Teamsters health and wellness benefits board.

"Testifiers have described him as hard-working, innovative, honest, straightforward, and that he possesses the highest moral and ethical values. A fellow CPA describes his greatest skill as the ability to think critically and strategically, to appreciate detail but not to lose sight of the big picture, objectives, and goals. The Committee on Ways and Means reviewed Mr. Yu's qualifications for this position and, as stated in the committee report, we find him to be qualified for the position and recommend that the Senate advise and consent to his nomination. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Dela Cruz introduced Deputy Director Robert Yu, who was accompanied in the gallery by his wife, Michelle, his son Michael, and his daughter Rochelle.

At 11:43 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:57 a.m.

Senator Baker requested that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Baker’s remarks read as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise in support of H.B. 330, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, which funds youth suicide early intervention, prevention, and education initiatives in all counties focusing on youth between the ages of 10 and 24.

“Suicide was the leading cause of injury-related deaths for Hawaii’s youth from 2013 to 2017. Suicide rates are higher than the national average among young people in Hawaii, especially from the neighbor islands and rural communities, and are alarmingly high among Hawaii’s LGBTQ youth.

“It can be difficult to seek help, and even more so if you live in a community that does not have adequate services to support mental health issues. We must continue work in communities to de-stigmatize conversations around mental health, and provide residents in all communities, and especially on neighbor islands and in rural areas, the health support services they need.

“This funding will support efforts to reduce the rates of youth suicide on a statewide level. Please join me in support of H.B. 330, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 2 was adopted and H.B. No. 330, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUICIDE PREVENTION,” passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

The Earth Day Network is asking people to join this movement with the goals to, number one, educate and raise awareness about the accelerating rate of extinction of millions of species and the causes and consequences of this phenomenon; number two, achieve major policy victories that protect broad groups of species as well as individual species and their habitats; number three, build and activate a global movement that embraces nature and its values; and, finally, number four, encourage individual actions such as adopting a plant-based diet and stopping pesticide and herbicide use.
