At this time, Senator Baker reminded the members that the Women's Legislative Caucus's Easter basket drive was underway and that they were hoping to collect baskets for women who were moving from shelters into their first house or apartment. Senator Baker noted that the baskets would be made available for pickup on April 7th and that her office would be happy to store any baskets until then. Senator Baker commented that she had picked up enough items for two baskets and that her office was on their road to getting something that would be very helpful for some disadvantaged women in the community. Senator Baker then expressed her appreciation for the members' participation.

Senator Taniguchi noted that that day marked the opening of the celebration of the 175th anniversary of Washington Place and that there had been a ceremony that morning at which fourth-grade groups from three different schools had danced the hula, along with a number of fourth-grade classes throughout the state. Senator Taniguchi commented that a number of former governors and first ladies had been in attendance, including Governor Ariyoshi and his wife, Governor Waihe'e, Vicky Cayetano, and Governor Abercrombie and his wife, and that it had been a very nice ceremony. Senator Taniguchi then noted that two Senate staff members, Jacob Aki and Roth Puahala, had also participated and had done a very good job.
