

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Friday, April 1, 2022

The Senate of the Thirty-First Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2022, convened at 11:40 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present, with the exception of Senators Ihara and Misalucha who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Forty-First Day.

At this time, Senator Shimabukuro acknowledged a group of students seated in the gallery who had participated in the statewide Rapid 'Ōhi'a Death Outreach program, which seeks to protect and promulgate the healthy growth of the endemic 'ōhi'a lehua. Senator Shimabukuro then introduced Kailee Lefebvre, who was also present in the gallery, noting that Ms. Lefebvre had helped train each of the students about the 'ōhi'a struggles, allowing them to engage the Legislature in their desire to ensure the robust growth of 'ōhi'a in their own futures and beyond.

Senator Taniguchi welcomed teachers and students participating in the day's 'Ōhi'a Warrior Legislative Workshop, which included Mānoa Elementary School fifth graders in Lisa Secreto's class. Present with Ms. Secreto in the gallery were student teacher Sydney and students James Alipio-Gerry, Abigail Alo, Judah Althof, Zane Dalgamouni, Matisse Esparza-Queloz, Jayzen Ichiyama, Madison Garcia, Olivia Liu, Xavier Mals, Miriya Matsumoto, Ethan Moszkowicz, Teheiara Pimental, Wyatt Robinson, Tuialofa Scanlan, Brycen Sogawa, Venice Sueblinvong, and Marnie Ushijima.

Senator Keohokalole noted that the Coordinating Group on Alien Pest Species and the Rapid 'Ōhi'a Death Outreach team had worked to bridge the gap between Hawai'i's legislature and students across the state by engaging the students in a real-life experience advocating for a bill to designate 'ōhi'a lehua Hawai'i's state endemic tree. Senator Keohokalole then recognized the motivated Aloha Ambassadors from Kāne'ohe Elementary School. Present in the gallery were Aloha Ambassador club advisor Kumu Kathy and third-, fourth-, and fifth-grade students Aezyn Asia, Abigail Fong, Akio Hayashi, Paige Pana, Georgia Pakele, Cade Yamada, Olive Dumaran, Kahea Nalu'ai, Makalehua Pelletier, Avalon Spencer, Isabela Duenas, and Tatiana Pana.

Senator Shimabukuro thanked her staff for presenting the workshop, and the teachers and students for their monumental efforts in recognizing and protecting 'ōhi'a lehua as a culturally significant icon of Hawai'i. Senator Shimabukuro commented that S.B. No. 2059, which had been introduced by Senator Inouye of Hawai'i island, had successfully navigated through both the Senate and the House and was expected to cross over back to the Senate the following week. Senator Shimabukuro noted that this was quite an achievement by the young guests in the gallery, and thanked everyone for their work.

Senator Lee introduced members of his staff who were seated in the gallery: office manager Matt Prellberg, Katie Pacheco, Haley Yoshioka, and Rosario Joaquin.

Senator Keohokalole recognized Christy Martin, administrator of the Coordinating Group on Alien Pest Species, who was present in the gallery. Senator Keohokalole noted that Ms. Martin was his former boss, as his first job out of law school was with the Coordinating Group on Alien Pest Species. Senator Keohokalole then introduced former Department of Agriculture director Scott Enright as well as former Senate colleague and current United States Representative for the second congressional district Kai Kahele, who were also seated in the gallery.

On behalf of Senate President Kouchi, Senator Kanuha introduced members of Senate President Kouchi's family from Seattle. Present in the gallery were Valerie Kato, her husband Kelly Berry, and their twin sons, Masa and Takeshi Berry. Senator Kanuha noted that April was Child Abuse Prevention Month, and that they were all wearing blue today.

Senator Dela Cruz, Chair of the Committee on Ways and Means, rose to request that the referrals of the following measures to the Committee on Ways and Means be waived:

S.C.R. No. 61; and
S.R. No. 56.

Senator Dela Cruz noted:

"All measures have passed their respective subject-matter committees without a direct fiscal impact. Therefore, your Committee is requesting this waiver so they may be scheduled for a final floor vote."

The Chair granted the waivers, and the following Senate concurrent resolution and Senate resolution were placed on the calendar for Adoption on Monday, April 4, 2022:

S.C.R. No. 61, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO ASSESS THE SOCIAL AND FINANCIAL EFFECTS OF MANDATING HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR HEARING AIDS."

S.R. No. 56, entitled: "SENATE RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE AUDITOR TO ASSESS THE SOCIAL AND FINANCIAL EFFECTS OF MANDATING HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR HEARING AIDS."

Senator Taniguchi jokingly announced that today's Art at the Capitol would be cancelled and that he had changed his mind and would be running for re-election before proclaiming, "April Fools'." Senator Taniguchi then noted that today was Art at the Capitol day. Senator Taniguchi announced that, after a cancellation in 2020 and only a virtual event the previous year, the public would be invited back to the State Capitol that evening from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. for the 13th annual Art at the Capitol. Senator Taniguchi noted that the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Public Access Room would be participating. Senator Taniguchi stated that the public would be welcome to wander through the Capitol to view hundreds of pieces of local art and that a QR code would be posted at various locations around the building so that visitors could download the official booklet. Senator Taniguchi noted that the talented members of the Hawaii Youth Symphony would provide music throughout the night. Senator Taniguchi then announced that there would be a special treat with a performance by Ballet Hawaii in the Rotunda, inviting the members to come out to the rails prior to 5:45 p.m. to enjoy the first-time event. Senator Taniguchi explained that the public would be asked to enter the building at the rotunda level and that only proof of identification would be required for entry; proof of vaccination would not be required. Senator Taniguchi added that masks would be strongly recommended because some offices may require them for entry. Senator Taniguchi thanked all participants and especially Representative Cedric Gates for his leadership in continuing the event.

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I would like to thank everyone who chose to wear blue today as we mark April 1st, the beginning of Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention Month. In honor supporting this cause, every April, our local community programs, county offices, and state agencies encourage all individuals and organizations to support each other in making Hawai'i a better place for youth and families. As a community, we hope to draw attention to this cause to ensure all parents have the knowledge, skills, and resources they need to care for their keiki and promote a healthy community for all. Mahalo again to everyone."
