"Ms. Shikada is a graduate of UH Mānoa and the William S. Richardson School of Law. Since law school, she's had a long and successful legal career. She was an associate in private practice. Deciding that she was really interested in public service, she has served in the Department of the Attorney General since 1989. She began as a deputy attorney general working in the Family Law Division, appearing in court daily and handling over a hundred trials. Based on her commitment to the work and her efforts to learn as much as she could about the family court system, she was given the opportunity to work with the senior family court judge of the First Circuit to revamp the family court's adoption system. Working together with the family court, they were able to clear years of backlogged adoption cases and remodel the system to greatly expedite the processing of paperwork and scheduling of adoption hearings.

"Ms. Shikada had been working in the Family Law Division for 10 years when she was asked to head the newly created Felix Unit. The purpose of forming the unit was to assign a deputy attorney general whose primary focus was to work with the Departments of Education and Health and the federal court on achieving substantial compliance with the consent decree. Her new assignment resulted in her transfer to the Education Division in 1999. Ms. Shikada served as supervisor of the Education Division from 2003 until April 2021, when she was asked to be the first deputy attorney general.

"While Ms. Shikada received mostly positive testimony, questions were raised by credible testifiers as well. I support Ms. Shikada's nomination, and I also challenged her to make the most of her time in the position to address the legitimate concerns that have been raised in the confirmation process. Mahalo."

Senator San Buenaventura noted:

"The main difference between the S.D. 2 and the H.D. 2 version for S.B. 2002 is the effective date of November '22 versus 'upon approval,' which is minor, and that's the reason I am agreeing to it."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 2002, S.D. 2, and S.B. Senator Rhoads noted:

"On S.B. 3046, Making an Emergency Appropriation to the Department of the Attorney General: this measure will provide necessary funding to the attorney general's office to support major litigation involving the State. There are several ongoing lawsuits that require the retention of expert witnesses and specialized legal counsel.
