Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2011 (Gov. Msg. No. 519):

Senator Lee moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2011 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Inouye and carried.

Senator Lee then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of EDWIN SNIFFEN as Director of the Department of Transportation, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Inouye.

Senator Lee rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"After reviewing Ed's résumé, qualifications, and experience, your Committee on Transportation and Culture and the Arts voted to advise and consent on his nomination. As a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and Santa Clara University, Ed has been a professional licensed engineer with almost 30 years of experience in transportation. For the past eight years, he served as the DOT deputy director for Highways where, in this role, he was responsible for 780 employees, $500 million in capital improvement projects, special maintenance projects, and operational funding. He's championed safety for all users, modernization of the highway system, and among many things Ed's worked on were upgrading highway roads and bridges; expediting conversion to clean energy fleets; reducing environmental impacts from construction; and leveraging federal dollars to effect the overall priorities of the state, including broadband, housing, homelessness, and education.

"As Highways director, Ed leveraged resources and key partnerships to tackle our state's highest priorities. He incentivized affordable housing development with strategic infrastructure projects, collaborating with the counties, developers, and community members to increase access to low-cost housing. He also directed $25 million of federal highway funds toward broadband pilot programs in eight underserved communities. And when the pandemic struck, Ed responded proactively, authorizing the use of Highways facilities, notably the H-3, for COVID reporting, awareness, and testing, which I think has been a first in the state for use of those kinds of facilities.

"Throughout his time at DOT, Ed has overseen innovative responses to vacancies in the department, like the Wiki Wiki Hire pilot program, which hired 46 highly skilled engineers in just over nine months. As director of Highways Division, he worked hard to bring federal money to the state, finding creative solutions to fund projects by thinking outside the box. He's pledged to collaborate with the Legislature, increase transparency and accountability, work with communities that we serve to continue addressing Hawai'i's most critical needs through a connected and modernized transportation system. Given his depth of experience, I believe Ed is well qualified to lead the Department of Transportation, and I recommend we advise and consent on G.M. 519, Edwin Sniffen, for the director of the Department of Transportation."

Senator Rhoads rose to request that remarks in opposition to the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Rhoads's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President: I rise in opposition to Governor's Message 519 nominating Ed Sniffen as Director of the Department of Transportation.

"I genuinely hope I am wrong about Mr. Sniffen and that, if confirmed, he will have a successful tenure in office.

"However, I have several concerns which lead me to vote no.

"1. He appears to believe that the federal money that the Department receives is 'his' money. Of course, it is taxpayers' money like any other source of funding and the Legislature must appropriate it, just like any other source of State income.

"2. I am not convinced he will lead the Department out of the 1970's. Cars are still the highest priority to the Department and seemingly to Mr. Sniffen as well. Pedestrian and bicycle safety consistently takes a backseat to the flow of vehicular traffic. In the district I represent, there are dangerous crosswalks that he refuses to take the necessary steps to make safer despite being handed funding to do so on a silver platter.

"3. Finally, he apparently believes that the Legislature has no role in transportation policy. He seems to believe that transportation policy should be left to the Department. This is of course nonsense. The Legislature is constitutionally granted policymaking authority and is the body that gets to decide what transportation priorities should be.

"Despite my no vote, if confirmed, I will continue to work with him in areas where we agree. We both owe the people of the State of Hawaii our best efforts regardless of our differences."

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"May I have the remarks from the previous speaker, the chair of the transportation committee, be entered into the Journal as if it was mine? Mahalo." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Since I’ve been here (a very short time), Ed Sniffen and the Department of Transportation, everything that he did, everything that he had accomplished and he said he was going to do, he really put his mouth to the pavement, literally. When we were in dire need of information on what was going on with our money from our communities, he was very much so that he was okay to explain to the community. Same thing as what Senator Lee said: He really knows how to work with the community and convince them, because I was very much in my community, as you guys know—was very against teacher housing because of our traffic situation. He sat me down, and he convinced me that if we work together with teacher housing, that he can work with my community in getting better ways of transportation in and out of ‘Ewa Beach. And that’s the reasons why, colleagues, I ask you guys for your guys’ support for Ed Sniffen for director of DOT because he put his mouth where our money is, or something like that. Thank you again, God bless.”

The Chair commented that he liked Senator Fevella’s “mouth to the pavement” example.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Rhoads).

Senator Lee introduced Director Edwin Sniffen, who was present in the gallery with his mother, Lynette Sniffen; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Randy and Bev Kim; wife, Heidi Kim; sons Sam, Simon, and Eli; and friends, supporters, and ‘ohana from the Department of Transportation.

The Chair requested that Director Sniffen stand above the nearby descending steps, and Director Sniffen did so. The Chair then explained that much had been made of the orange slippers Director Sniffen had apparently worn the previous Tuesday night for the budget hearing. The Chair then noted that Director Sniffen had chosen to wear shoes to his confirmation that evening, and thanked Director Sniffen.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2012 (Gov. Msg. No. 515):

Senator Moriwaki moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2012 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Lee and carried.

Senator Moriwaki then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of JADE BUTAY as Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Lee.

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in support of the nominee with reservations as follows:

“I believe it is a solemn responsibility of the Senate to evaluate whether the governor’s nominees are qualified to lead their departments. We look at the nominee’s vision and goals, ability to inspire and lead staff, and integrity. We look at past performance, performance during committee hearings, and testimony from those with direct knowledge of the nominee.

“Jade Butay served for almost 11 years as deputy director of Labor and Industrial Relations, and as director of Transportation. He holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa and also a master’s from Babson College.

“Supportive testimony spoke of Jade as personable, collaborative, a good listener. Those who have worked with him agree that he is nice and friendly but state that he did not lead or inspire. Several staff called him a ceremonial director. One said he was unsuccessful in gaining Jade’s support to improve the agency. Instead, Jade told him their job was to be caretakers, ensuring nothing went wrong. Another complained he returned $2 million in federal funds that was to address helicopter noise without a good explanation. We also heard about the lost opportunity to get federal funds to help modernize our harbors when it became the Akaka Marine Harbor I. And he reclassified civil service positions into excluded managerial positions by bypassing the state’s required review and approval, then filled the position without open recruitment, an act that lacked integrity. During labor committee hearings, he read written testimony but was unable to answer questions. He lacks vision beyond caring for our workers and having a thriving workforce by enhancing current department programs.

“I believe the state needs a leader who is proactive and who will inspire staff to solve our post-COVID labor challenges. I have had discussions with Jade and the governor to address his performance. Jade has agreed to work together with us, his department managers, staff, and stakeholders on workforce shortage and incentives to retain talent, unemployment insurance modernization, enforcement of wage standards, worker health and family leave benefits, occupational safety and health in the workplace, support for small businesses, and addressing the need to balance labor and management concerns, and to be fair and transparent in staffing his department. Yes, I have concerns, but with others testifying to his professionalism and good character, and with his promise to hold himself accountable to lead the Department jointly with his administrators—not ceremonially—and to meet specific performance outcomes, I ask my colleagues to recommend (with reservations) Jade Butay as director of the Labor and Industrial Relations Department. Thank you.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“I respect and I love my colleague, Senator Sharon Moriwaki. I don’t have all the intel that she has. The only thing that I have, Senate President and colleagues, is the experience that I had personally. In my heart, when I had asked him very kindly—not everybody maybe remember this—he was going to let go our own Ed Sniffen when I first got into this building, and I reached out to him, and I begged and plead to him to reconsider, and giving him, Ed Sniffen, the position that he deserved, and now look where he’s at today. And he took my words seriously, came in to me, and I know I made mistakes here, colleagues, before—I did, and I know I did and I regret it. There was one that I did that I voted for that I thought he was going to be doing good in DBEDT, and he turned around and flipped this up on all of us and stabbed most of us in the back. But this time, I really believe that Jade Butay, going forward, is going to be able to do the job because, not only with Senator Sharon Moriwaki, myself—and I told you this, Jade—that we’re going to hold your foot to the fire. But I support him because of his opening his heart, mind, and soul and gave my good braddah—my good friend, Ed Sniffen—another chance to serve this community and this state that he did a great job in, and now he’s director. Thank you, Senate President.”

Senator Inouye rose to request that remarks in support of the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye’s remarks read as follows:

“I have known Director Jade Butay for a long time during my time in public office. He has always shown a willingness to collaborate with others and find solutions that are best for the people of Hawaii. His track record and substantial experience in Hawaii State Government more than qualifies him for the position of Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. I am pleased that Governor Josh Green has decided to leave a critically important department such as the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations in the hands of Jade Butay.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Dela Cruz, Keohokalole, Lee, Moriwaki). Noes, none.

Senator Moriwaki introduced Director Jade Butay, who was present in the gallery with Department of Labor and Industrial Relations deputy director Bill Kunstman, executive assistant Grace Ichikawa, state equal opportunity officer David Rodriguez, Bobby Ichikawa, Jovanie Dela Cruz, Amy Agbayani, Agnes Malate, Deanna Espinas, Brian Lee, and Pane Meatoga.

At this time, Senator Fevella rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Today, our staff, Minority director Joyce Oliveira, is retiring. She's been of service to this state and the county for decades. Before she came to my office, everything that I wanted and how I wanted the office to be run, she—over and beyond, what she had done. I'm going to truly miss her. What I'm saying here is very small to whatever that she had contributed to this state; I mean, she worked with a lot of people here in this chamber, in the city and state. And she contributed that she did to making us successful and being great in what we do, from not only with the senators and representatives and councilmembers—you guys know that she also used to work for the mayor and the rail, and she did a great job when she was there. So, again, I just want to give a round of applause to Joyce Oliveira on her retirement, and best wishes."

Senator Gabbard reminded the members that he had encouraged them to go out and hug a tree on Earth Day the previous week. Senator Gabbard noted that it was Arbor Day that day, when appreciation is shown for trees. Senator Gabbard then encouraged the members to go out and plant a tree the following day.

Senator Kim rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I like to think that I taught Joyce Oliveira everything she knows. She first worked for me my first session in 1982 in the House of Representatives, and then later on worked for me for, I don't know how many years in the Honolulu City Council. And then, when I came over here, we couldn't pay her enough to bring her over here, so she stayed over there at the Council and worked there until she finally came back over here. I'm saddened that she is retiring, but I'm sure we're going to have her come back in some other way, so thank you."

Senator Shimabukuro invited members, staff, and guests to a free public showing of aloha 'āina films Hawaiian Soul, Like a Mighty Wave, and Standing Above the Clouds in the Auditorium immediately following floor session. Senator Shimabukuro explained that the short films were about the Hawaiian movement and that the showing would be hosted by Lanakila Mangauli, a newly appointed member of the Mauna Kea Stewardship and Oversight Authority.

Senator Kidani invited members and guests to an exclusive screening of the film Beyond Bars: Prison Women Speak on Monday, May 1st, at 2:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. Senator Kidani noted that the locally made film was produced by Kailua resident Tadia Rice and featured the poignant stories of five currently and formerly incarcerated women from the Women's Community Correctional Center who allowed profound insight into their experiences in the prison system and who they are today. Senator Kidani explained that the screening would be followed by a question-and-answer panel discussion with Beyond Bars participants, including entrepreneur Zoe O'Brien and Paipai o Ko'olau peer mentor Momilani Cody from Windward Community College.

Senator San Buenaventura introduced members of the Hawai'i State Teachers Association who were seated in the gallery. Senator San Buenaventura noted that they had just ratified their agreement.
