"It is day three of our 2023 Education Week program, and I am eager to welcome our inspiring guests. The success of our students is a testament to the support they receive from their collective school community, and the awardees we are recognizing today demonstrate educational leadership in various capacities. From principals and assistant principals to librarians and counselors, their collective efforts are essential to establishing a healthy educational environment for students to thrive. To begin today's program, I would like to call upon the senator from District 17."

Senator Dela Cruz rose to present the following remarks:

"For our first Education Week presentation of the day, I would like to introduce the National Association of Elementary School Principals 2022 Hawai'i National Distinguished Principal, Aaron Tominaga.

"Each year, the District of Columbia Office of Overseas Schools and the U.S. Department of Defense Education Activity honors one principal from each state as the National Association of Elementary School Principals Principal of the Year winner. These educators are distinguished by their tremendous leadership, innovation, and dedication to their students, staff, and colleagues. Their guidance sets a foundation of respect, inclusivity, safety, and kindness from which their community can thrive, making them invaluable in our schools.

"A dedicated Hawai'i DOE educator for 25 years, Principal Tominaga is currently in his fifth year as principal of Waipahu Elementary. In his role, he oversees a student body of 950 students; 95 percent are eligible for free and reduced-price meals, and nearly 50 percent of students are English-language learners. Principal Tominaga is credited with developing a comprehensive system to track and monitor English language arts and math progress to accelerate support for students. These needs are met through regular meetings between teachers and curriculum coaches, differentiated professional development for teachers, and classroom data sharing to track students' academic progress. This resulted in a significant decrease in at-risk students in both English language arts and math. In 2018, Principal Tominaga was a nominee for the Masayuki Tokioka Distinguished Principal Award. He is a passionate leader and a catalyst for change. His ability to unite students, staff, and teachers is truly remarkable and deserving of recognition.

"Colleagues, please join me in honoring the National Association of Elementary School Principals' 2022 Hawai'i National Distinguished Principal, Aaron Tominaga. I now return the floor back to the senator from Mililani."

Senator Kidani rose to present the following remarks:

"Each year, the National Association of Elementary School Principals selects a cohort of assistant principals throughout the country to recognize in their National Outstanding Assistant Principal Program. The program is dedicated to promoting extraordinary educational leadership through their role as assistant principal. These educators are distinguished by their tremendous leadership, innovation, and dedication to their students, staff, and colleagues. I am honored to recognize, from my own district, the 2022 winner of the National Association of Elementary School Principals' National Outstanding Assistant Principal award, Stacy Kawamura.

"An educator of nearly 20 years, Ms. Kawamura served as vice principal of Waikele Elementary for 7 years. She was instrumental in developing the school's national distinguished academy pathway, which began as an arts academy before expanding to include age-appropriate career and technical education courses aligned with Waipahu Complex's career readiness and establishing pathways to college. Ms. Kawamura helped establish Waikele as the nation's first elementary academy pathway program, exposing primary school students to a variety of career opportunities and easing their transition to secondary schools. Ms. Kawamura now serves as the principal at Honowai Elementary, where she has led the school since May 2022.

"It is with great pride that we celebrate the National Association of Elementary School Principals' National Outstanding Assistant Principal awardee, Stacy Kawamura. I now yield the floor to the senator from District 13."

Senator Rhoads rose to present the following remarks:

"It is my pleasure to recognize Shelley Lau, the winner of the 2022 Hawai'i Association of School Librarians Golden Key Award. The Golden Key Award was established in 1979 to recognize a school librarian who has made significant professional contributions to the profession in Hawai'i and given notable service to the organization. Their mission aims to advocate excellence, facilitate change, develop and provide leaders in the school library media field through collaborative efforts, and to provide leaders and students with educational support and use of information technologies.

“The dedicated librarian of Aina Haina School since 2010, Ms. Lau previously served as the webmaster for Hawai‘i Association of School Librarians, and taught online professional development courses on eBooks for Department of Education educators. Ms. Lau led numerous conferences, elevating the profession and uplifting her colleagues in the pursuit of educational excellence. She has been an invaluable resource who is committed to the profession, and is credited with nurturing and inspiring many school librarians throughout her illustrious career. An alumna of the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa Library & Information Science Program, she has also attended many of their courses to share insights about her role as an elementary school librarian and has offered her expertise as a cooperating librarian for students completing their school library practicum.

“It is a privilege to recognize Shelley Lau as the winner of the 2022 Hawai‘i Association of School Librarians Golden Key Award. I now yield the floor to the senator from District 9. Mahalo.”

Senator Chang rose to present the following remarks:

“I am honored to acknowledge another exceptional librarian whose commitment to education and remarkable leadership are deserving of recognition: the 2022 Outstanding Library Service awardee, Joanna Dunn—please stand.

“Formerly known as the Outstanding School Administrator Award, the Hawai‘i Association of School Librarians’ Outstanding Library Service Award recognizes an individual’s role in developing successful school library programs in Hawai‘i. Individuals may be legislators, community leaders, parent volunteers, teachers, business leaders, or retired educators in addition to school administrators. This award aims to broaden the spectrum of awardees who have made significant contributions to Hawai‘i library services, literacy, and education.

“A public school educator of over 30 years, Dunn has dedicated her life to education. She has served Hawai‘i’s keiki for over three decades as a teacher, technology coordinator, and resource teacher. Throughout her teaching career, she has touched the lives of countless students at ‘Aiea and Waipahu High Schools, Pope Elementary School, as well as the Office of Curriculum and Instructional Design. Committed to educational excellence and providing students with the best learning environment possible, Dunn has been the educational specialist for Library Media Services in the Office of Curriculum and Instructional Design for the past eight years. As such, she works to promote and support innovative school library media programs and services as a valuable resource for students and teachers.

“Colleagues, please join me in celebrating the 2022 Outstanding Library Service awardee, Joanna Dunn. I now turn the floor over to the senator from District 19.”

Senator Aquino rose to present the following remarks:

“It is with great pride that I acknowledge an individual whose support for students is paramount: the American School Counselor Association’s 2023 School Counselor of the Year, Shely Chang.

“The American School Counselor Association’s School Counselor of the Year award recognizes counseling professionals in elementary, middle, and high schools throughout the United States for their devotion to the academic and career success of their students, as well as their social-emotional well-being. Honorees are selected on the basis of extensive criteria including the development of creative counseling innovations and programs, leadership skills, and contributions to academic improvement.

“Ms. Chang has been a dedicated school counselor at Ka‘imiloa for the past 18 years. She is committed to promoting programs and activities focused on students’ health and wellness, as well as the collective school community. She is a former Peer Mediator Advisory member and serves on the Ka‘imiloa Student Council Advisory and Ho‘okui after-school enrichment program. Ms. Chang is a member of both the American School Counselor Association and the Hawaii School Counselor Association, and her tremendous efforts helped Ka‘imiloa receive RAMP recognition as a school who is committed to delivering comprehensive, data-informed school counseling programs aligned with the American School Counselor Association’s National Model framework. Beyond the classroom, Ms. Chang helps to plan many school activities and events, gathering faculty, students, and their families for assemblies, career days, parent nights, and fall carnivals. She cares deeply about her school community and is passionate about nurturing and supporting her students.

“Please help me recognize our deserving School Counselor of the Year, Shely Chang. I now return the floor back to Senator Kidani.”

Senator Kidani rose and stated:

“In addition to these extraordinary awardees, I would also like to recognize Principal Laura Ahn of Niu Valley Middle School, who was unable to join us here today. Principal Ahn received the prestigious Hawai‘i Association of Secondary School Administrators’ 2022 Hawai‘i State Principal of the Year award. She helped to reset the culture at Niu Valley Middle School with a focus on professional development and systems dedicated to student success. Her efforts have uplifted the students, faculty, and staff, allowing the school community to truly thrive. Senate President, may I request that her name be entered into the Senate Journal along with the other awardees today? (The Chair so ordered.)

“Colleagues, today’s honorees demonstrate the transformative power of leadership in our educational community. Their support nurtures and empowers our young people, inspiring them to strive not only in their academic efforts, but to care for their mental and emotional health as well. These leaders are invaluable to our community, and I know we are all deeply grateful for the work they do and their commitment to our keiki.

“I look forward to returning tomorrow to celebrate some of the exceptional student honorees joining us here for day four of our Education Week program. Senate President, I now yield back to you.”

The Chair having so ordered, the names of the awardees read as follows:

“Awardees on the Floor: Joanna Dunn, Shely Chang, Shelley Lau, Aaron Tominaga, and Stacy Kawamura.

“Guests in the Gallery: Danae Dunn, Karissa Dunn, Hugh Dunn, Doreen Skedeleski, David Skedeleski, Dustin Chang, Koi Chang, Trace Lau, Lillian Shimoda, James Tominaga, Sharon Tominaga, and Keith Kawamura.”

The Chair noted the day’s brief agenda and announced that the Senate would conclude, adjourn, and then greet the honored guests and have time for pictures.

Senator Aquino introduced Captain Kara Dreftak-Utley, an Army chaplain stationed at Schofield Barracks, and staff member Jayne Nantkes, who were seated in the gallery.

Senator Lee recognized visitors from the American Association of University Women who were present in the gallery.

RE-REFERRAL OF A SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

S.C.R. No. 57 Committee on Agriculture and Environment

At this time, the Chair shared a quotation from author and poet Maya Angelou, noting that he had come across it on January 26 and had saved it for Education Week:

All information belongs to everybody all the time. It should be available. It should be accessible to the child, to the woman, to the man, to the old person, to the semiliterate, to the presidents of universities, to everyone. It should be open. . . .

Information helps you to see that you're not alone. That there's somebody in Mississippi and somebody in Tokyo who all have wept, who've all longed and lost, who've all been happy. So the library helps you to see, not only that you are not alone, but that you're not really any different from everyone else. There may be details that are different, but a human being is a human being.

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:58 a.m., on motion by Senator Wakai, seconded by Senator DeCoite and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Thursday, March 16, 2023.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

Thursday, March 16, 2023

The Senate of the Thirty-Second Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2023, convened at 11:34 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-First Day.

At this time, on behalf of Senate President Kouchi, Senator Kanuha acknowledged two visitors from Kaua'i: Michelle Emura from the American Cancer Society and Rainier Fernandez from Waimea High School.

The Chair shared his belief that the visitors from Kaua'i were at an appointment, and explained that he had met with them earlier that morning.

Senator San Buenaventura noted that the day marked the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACSCAN) Cancer Action Day at the Capitol. Senator San Buenaventura explained that ACSCAN is a nonprofit, nonpartisan advocacy affiliate of the American Cancer Society that supports evidence-based policy and legislative solutions designed to eliminate cancer as a major health problem, and gives people power to fight cancer with the training and tools needed to make their voices heard. Senator San Buenaventura introduced ACSCAN volunteers who were seated in the gallery: Cynthia Au, Lila Johnson, Holly Ho-Chee-DuPont, Abigail Bertelsman, Benita Brazier, Chelsea Gonzales, Michelle Emura, Laura Creider, Lily Au, Mark Vasconcellos, Patricia Cornett, Kellen King, Jennifer Bueno, Ashley Rodrigues, Conan Wykes, Kristin Lau, Tina Nguyen, Cheryl Okuma, Jenny Hausler, McKayla McCullah, Josh Fowler, Rainier Fernandez, Lee Lord, Chandra Quinlan, Leana Abe, MaryJane McCullah, Kelsey Nishi Darling, Sarah Luchenbill, Kealohanui "Nui" Browning, Ryan Ozawa, Constancio Paranal, and Mary Kemp.

Senator Kidani congratulated the U.S. Senate Youth Program delegates, Phi Theta Kappa co-president, and LifeSmarts winners, and presented the following remarks:

"Colleagues, I would like to begin our Education Week program today by taking a moment to acknowledge the awesome students and staff at Waipahu High School, who have 10 Presidential Scholar nominees this year. There are only 74 nominations statewide, 29 of whom hail from public schools. It is an amazing accomplishment, as these Waipahu nominees represent one-third of all public school nominations this year. I would like to congratulate Principal Zachary Sheets, the faculty and staff of Waipahu High School, and these deserving nominees: Rovialyn Arciaga, Harold Jay Cacal, Audrey Dagdagan, Ciara Mae Francisco, Mya Habon-Godding, Danica Regine Ilaga, Janine Lei Lopez, Sean Michael Valencia Monte, Hunter Von Tungaln, and Maverick Yasuda. Senate President, may I request that their names be entered into the Senate Journal? (The Chair so ordered.)

"Today marks day four of Education Week, and we have the pleasure of welcoming student guests to the Senate floor who represent some of the brightest young minds of their generation and the future of our community here in Hawai'i. I would like to welcome the student awardees, their families, teachers, and peers who have gathered here to recognize them. I would like to open with the Hawai'i delegates of the 2023 U.S. Senate Youth Program. I call upon the honoree's residential district senator from District 10."

Senator Ihara rose to present the following remarks:

"The U.S. Senate Youth Program was created by a Senate resolution in 1962 and has been sponsored by the U.S. Senate and funded by the Hearst Foundations. This merit-based program was established to further national youth education on the three branches of government, the responsibilities of elected officials, and to emphasize the importance of democratic decisions and relationships throughout the world. Each year, only two delegates from each state are selected. It is my privilege now to recognize one of the 2023 Hawai'i delegates who happens to come from my District 10, Daniel Pruder.

"Daniel is a senior at Punahou School and leader of the school's Model UN, civic engagement programs, and theater program. He has served on the Honolulu Youth Commission since 2021 as vice-chair and currently as chair. Daniel has also volunteered with the first legislative committee of Vote16HI, which seeks to lower the statewide voting age to 16. He was awarded Outstanding Advocate for Children and Youth during the 2022 Hawai'i Children and Youth Day celebration, and received the Mayor's Award of Recognition for his appointment to the Honolulu Youth Commission.

"I am honored to recognize Daniel Pruder as one of the deserving Hawai'i delegates of the 2023 U.S. Senate Youth Program. Thank you, Daniel; congratulations. Mr. President, I yield this floor back to Senator Kidani."

Senator Kidani rose to present the following remarks:

"The U.S. Senate Youth Program delegates are nominated by teachers and principals, and selected by state departments of education as well as the District of Columbia and Department of Defense Education Activity based upon outstanding leadership abilities, extraordinary volunteerism, and academic rank within the top one percent of their state. The program mission aims to instill knowledge and interest of the American political process in student delegates and affirm their lifelong commitment to public service. It is with great pride that I acknowledge our second student delegate, who is from my district, Mr. Maverick Yasuda.

"Mr. Yasuda is a senior at Waipahu High and a member of student government, Phi Theta Kappa collegiate honor society, Ivy League club, and serves as the vice president of the school's Academy of Natural Resources. He will receive an associate's degree in liberal arts upon graduation. Mr. Yasuda is also the current student member on the Hawai'i State Board of Education, representing the voices of 168,000 public school students. He was named Outstanding Advocate for Children and Youth during the 2022 Hawai'i Children and Youth Day celebration. His participation in the U.S. Senate Youth Program is a testament to his outstanding commitment to his academic and extracurricular pursuits as well as his admirable service contributions.

"Please join me in recognizing Maverick Yasuda as one of Hawai'i's 2023 U.S. Senate Youth program delegates. I now yield the floor to the senator from 'Ewa Beach."

Senator Fevella rose to present the following remarks:

"I have the great honor of recognizing an outstanding individual from my District 20 who is not only an extraordinary student but an extraordinary leader as well. Please help me welcome international co-president of Phi Theta Kappa, Keziah Christie Unciano Ancheta.

"Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society (otherwise known as PTK) is an internationally recognized honor society that provides scholarship and leadership opportunities for its members. PTK was established in 1918, and by 1929, it was recognized as the official national honor society for junior colleges with a focus on academic excellence and enrichment. Now in its 105th year, PTK has grown to include more than 3.8 million members in the U.S. and 11 nations, with a presence on nearly 1,300 campuses. In 2018, Waipahu High School made PTK history when it became the first high school in the nation to charter a chapter of Phi Theta Kappa.

“Ms. Ancheta has been a proud member of Waipahu’s PTK Beta Chi Omega Chapter since 2021, serving as the 2021–2022 PTK Pacific Region president before making PTK history for the second time when she was elected as PTK’s 2022–2023 international co-president while a senior at Waipahu High. In this role, she is the first and youngest dually enrolled student to serve as an international officer.

“Ms. Ancheta is a dually enrolled student in her senior year at Waipahu High School and the University of Hawai‘i. Upon graduation, she will receive an associate in arts degree with a certificate in business management from Leeward Community College. She was an inductee for the Phi Theta Kappa’s Beta Chi Omega Chapter, the National Honor Society, National Technical Honor Society, and has also received career technical engineering (CTE) honors. Beyond the classroom, Ms. Ancheta was recognized as a mayoral appointee for the Honolulu Youth Commission, serving as secretary. Her historic leadership appointment is a testament to her outstanding commitment to her academic and extracurricular pursuits as well as her admirable service contributions.

“Please join me in celebrating Keziah Christie Unciano Ancheta for her historic appointment as Phi Theta Kappa’s 2022–2023 international co-president. I now yield the floor to Senator Fukunaga. Mahalo.”

Senator Fukunaga rose to present the following remarks:

“For our final Education Week presentation of the day, I am delighted to acknowledge the winners of the 2023 LifeSmarts competition. With us on the floor this morning is Maryknoll School team captain Chris Ho—please stand to be recognized.

“Four teams from O‘ahu schools took top honors in the 19th annual statewide competition, with Waipahu High School’s Team 2 taking fourth place, Kalani High School’s team taking third place, Waipahu High School’s Team 1 earning second place, and Maryknoll School winning first-place honors. Joining us here today are the deserving District 11 team members of Maryknoll School, our 2023 LifeSmarts competition winners. I guess we should ask all of them to stand and be recognized: Adam Nelson, Maddy Agustin, Benson Leung, Kaitlyn McLeod-Asahan, and their coach, Kit-U Wong.

“The annual LifeSmarts consumer education competition is a game show-style contest that tests students on their knowledge of personal finance, health and safety, the environment, technology, and consumer rights and responsibilities. It is sponsored in Hawai‘i by the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs and the Office of the Securities Commissioner in partnership with the Hawaii Credit Union League. It is a free educational program that prepares students to enter the real world as smart consumers by teaching them the skills they need to succeed in a modern global marketplace.

“In the statewide final hosted at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa’s Campus Center Ballroom, Maryknoll School emerged victorious, and so we’d like to welcome them to the Capitol today and to congratulate them on winning this award. Thank you very much. I now yield the floor to Senator Kidani.”

Senator Kidani rose and stated:

“Before we close our program today, I wanted to also recognize the 2022 Hawai‘i delegates of the U.S. Senate Youth program, Enjl Himoya, who graduated from Hilo High School, and Joshua Ching, who graduated from Kamehameha Schools Kapālama. These extraordinary young men represented Hawai‘i last year and have since gone on to further their studies. Mr. Himoya is currently attending the University of California, Berkeley, where he is studying business administration and legal studies, data science. Mr. Ching is currently attending Yale University, where he is studying political science and ethnicity, race, and migration studies.

“I would also like to take a moment to recognize the third-place winners of the 2023 LifeSmarts competition from Kalani High School, who have joined us here today in the gallery—please stand.

“Senate President, may I request that the names of the second-, third-, and fourth-place winning LifeSmarts teams and the 2022 Senate Youth Program delegates be entered into the Senate Journal? (The Chair so ordered.) Thank you, Mr. President.

“Colleagues, today’s deserving honorees are an important reminder of the profound kuleana we have to nurture our keiki as the future of our state. As your Education chair, I am especially moved and proud to recognize the accomplishments of our students as they make strides on their academic journey. They may very well be sitting in these seats one day (not too soon for some of us, I hope), reflecting upon this moment of recognition which affirmed their commitment to community. Tomorrow is our final day of Education Week 2023, and I am eager to acknowledge the dedicated educators joining us on the Senate floor to be honored for their extraordinary contributions. Senate President, I now yield the floor.”

The Chair having so ordered, the names of the LifeSmarts teams read as follows:

“LifeSmarts 2023 3rd Place: Kalani High School: Brandon Tran, Kyla Iglesia, Andy Chen, Michelle He, Mason Vuong, and coach Mike Zane.

“LifeSmarts 2023 4th Place: Waipahu High School Team 2: Avril Rose Valdes, Jarell Ballesteros, Breeana Cabigas, Louis Marco Coloma, Nhut Ky Lu, and coach Cindy Takara.”

The Chair having so ordered (on the Twenty-Ninth Day, March 13, 2023), the names and accomplishments on the honorees read as follows:

“Guests in the Gallery: Isaiah Ancheta, Tiffany Ancheta, Klem Unciano, Leticia Unciano, Hazel VonBehren, Frankie Lee, Michael Ho, Cynthia Ho, Mario Agustin, Julian Yates, Jana Nelson, Zachary Nelson, Maddy Agustin, Adam Nelson, Kaitlyn McLeod, Flossie Steffany, Laurie Katagiri-Hoshino, Curtis Pruder, Sina Pruder, Kit-U Wong, Brandon Tran, Kyla Iglesia, Michelle Ho, Brandalyn Tran, Monica Yasuda, Theresa Kong Kee, Gloryana Akapo, Ryan Udel, Minh Ly Tran, and Sandy Sho.”

The Chair led the members in a round of applause for all the honorees.

The Chair stated that, because of the short agenda, the Senate would conclude the agenda and greet the honored guests on the floor after adjournment. The Chair invited team members sitting in the gallery to come down to the floor at that time.

Senator Shimabukuro recognized University of Hawai'i-West O'ahu vice chancellor David McDonald.

Senator Kim congratulated National Blue Ribbon Schools, Milken State Educator of the Year, and Milken Teacher of Promise, and presented the following remarks:

“Mr. President, today is our fifth and final day of Education Week 2023, and I am pinch-hitting for our Education chair, so I take this opportunity to thank the many hands who have contributed to making this week's program a tremendous success, from our Senate and House staff and community partners to our distinguished guests and their supportive schools and families.

“So we start our final day of presentations with our exemplary National Blue Ribbon Schools. The National Blue Ribbon School program was established back in 1982 to recognize the state's top performing public and non-public schools across the country who have successfully closed subgroup achievement gaps in English and mathematics as measured by state assessments.

“Three Hawai'i campuses earned distinction as Blue Ribbon Schools this year: Kahala Elementary, Nu'uuanu Elementary, and Hōkūlani Elementary. Joining us on the Senate floor are two of the three dedicated principals of our amazing National Blue Ribbon Schools. I call upon the senator from District 10 to recognize our first school.”

Senator Ihara rose to present the following remarks:

“Mr. President, I am proud to acknowledge our first exemplary recipient, Principal Ervin Pasalo and Hōkūlani School—could you stand and be recognized? Thank you. Hōkūlani Elementary School is located in my Senate district at the foot of St. Louis Heights and is one of only three schools in Honolulu to have received the National Blue Ribbon award for 2022. This is the school's third Blue Ribbon School award; previous awards were in 2005 and 2012. Hōkūlani School is an Exemplary High-Performing School and is ranked in the top 15 percent of Hawai'i's schools for achievement in English and math. Mr. President, Ms. Laurie Luczak, Hōkūlani principal at the time, is in the gallery, and I'd like to ask her to stand and be recognized. Hōkūlani performed 12 percentage points above average in English and 30 percentage points higher in math.

The school has a balanced approach to education by offering specialized learning experiences such as social-emotional learning, coding, Spanish, and Hawaiian. Hōkūlani is also an art integration school, leveraging grant initiatives with programs like ArtBento and Artists in the Schools to embed creative and expressive opportunities for students to engage in core curricular standards.

“Please join me in congratulating again Principal Ervin Pasalo and Hōkūlani Elementary School as a 2022 National Blue Ribbon School. I now yield the floor to Senator Rhoads.”

Senator Rhoads rose to present the following remarks:

“It is with great pride that I recognize Principal Ned Uemae and Nu‘uanu Elementary School as our second recipient. A former National Blue Ribbon School awardee in 1986, 2003, and 2006, Nu‘uanu Elementary affirmed its position as a top school for a fourth time as a 2022 awardee. In doing so, it met the performance award criteria for Exemplary High-Performing Schools, and it ranked in the top 15 percent in achievement in math and English. Nu‘uanu’s performance outpaced other performance averages statewide in English language arts (ELA) (12 points higher) and math (14 points higher).

“Nu‘uanu offers specialized learning experiences such as performing arts, technology, social-emotional learning, as well as a variety of extracurricular activities established through partnerships with community organizations. All Nu‘uanu educators are fully licensed, have an average of 16 years of teaching experience, or have been at the school for an average of 16.5 years. The school’s parent organization, ‘Aikane o Nu‘uanu, is credited with fostering a strong school community culture, coordinating school-wide events like campus beautifications, pumpkin-carving nights—which I’ve had the honor of judging—movie nights, and family fun nights.

“It’s an honor and privilege to acknowledge Principal Ned Uemae and Nu‘uanu Elementary School as a 2022 National Blue Ribbon School. I yield the floor to the senator from District 12. Mahalo.”

Senator Moriwaki rose to present the following remarks:

“I have the honor of introducing Hawai‘i’s 2023 Milken Educator Award winner, Esther Kwon. Esther is a Waikīkī resident and assistant principal of Wahiawā’s Daniel K. Inouye Elementary School. This is the Oscar award of teaching excellence. It was launched by the Milken Family Foundation in 1987 to reward and inspire excellence in the world of education by honoring top educators across the nation. Milken honorees are selected by a blue ribbon panel of educators who seek outstanding elementary and secondary school teachers, principals, and other education professionals who meet the criteria for excellence.

“Ms. Kwon has been dedicated to the Wahiawā school community as a teacher and tutor for 10 years and now as its assistant principal. She is a former fifth-grade and gifted and talented enrichment teacher and contributed many hours in after-school tutoring and in the Korean language. She also served on the school’s community council, as student council advisor, and leads the Pineapple Academy’s distance learning program, overseeing 12 elementary schools in the Leilehua–Mililani–Waialua Complex Area. Ms. Kwon was a 2016 Hawai‘i State Teaching Fellow. She understands firsthand the importance of student belonging and social-emotional well-being as Daniel K. Inouye Elementary serves a student population almost entirely composed of military dependents. She has been dedicated to helping these students to overcome challenges of family relocation due to military service and to strive for academic success. She is a passionate leader and exceptional educator who is truly deserving of the Milken national recognition.

“Colleagues, please join me in congratulating our 2023 Milken Educator awardee, Esther Kwon from the Daniel K. Inouye Elementary School. I now yield the floor to Senator San Buenaventura.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to present the following remarks:

“The Milken Teacher of Promise award is granted by the Milken Family Foundation and recognizes teachers who showcase educational excellence during their first years in the classroom, demonstrating tremendous promise at the onset of their career. It is with great pride that I present the Hawai‘i District’s Hilo–Waiākea Milken Teacher of Promise recipient, Hippolyte Assi.

“Mr. Assi’s transition into teaching combines his passion for healthcare and education. Having worked in the healthcare industry for a decade with a doctor of pharmacy degree, he began teaching as a substitute teacher at Hilo High in 2018. He completed the UH Leeward Community College teacher certification program, became a provisional licensed teacher, and joined the Hilo High staff in 2019. Mr. Assi is currently a health services teacher who provides career and technical education training for students. His efforts focus on providing students with hands-on health services learning opportunities, particularly in the fields of nursing and clinical care. In addition to his work at Hilo High, Mr. Assi has also taught at Sweetwater Health Services, a post-secondary vocational school for nursing and pharmacy technician students.

“It is our honor to recognize Hippolyte Assi as the Hawai‘i District’s 2022 Hilo–Waiākea Milken Teacher of Promise awardee.

“I also have the great privilege of recognizing the Hawai‘i District’s 2022 Milken Teacher of Promise honoree, Annie Henbest. Ms. Henbest is from the Ka‘ū–Kea‘au–Pāhoa Complex Area.

“A proud educator of 10 years, Ms. Henbest has invaluable experience in elementary, middle, and high school grades. She began teaching as a literacy and technology coach at Pāhoa High & Intermediate School before transitioning to vice principal in 2022. In this role, she has enjoyed supporting teachers and addressing a variety of learning challenges they experienced in the classroom through open communication and collaboration. Ms. Henbest believes that her greatest strength as an educator is her ability to foster and maintain meaningful relationships with students and colleagues, which is also her favorite aspect of her job. She has been able to positively impact the Pāhoa school community by striving to guide, empower, and encourage fellow educators in their efforts to support the best interests of their students. She is truly an exceptional educator who is deserving of recognition.

“I am thrilled to celebrate Annie Henbest as the Hawai‘i District’s 2022 Ka‘ū–Kea‘au–Pāhoa Milken Teacher of Promise honoree. I now yield the floor to Senator Chang.”

Senator Chang rose to present the following remarks:

“I’m thrilled to acknowledge another deserving educator, Jessica Lobo Atnip. She is the Central District’s ‘Aiea–Moanalua–Radford Milken Teacher of Promise recipient.

“Ms. Atnip is in her third year of teaching at ‘Aiea Intermediate, her Teach for America placement school. When she joined the community in 2020, she taught general education classes for seventh- and eighth-grade English. Now in her third year, she is currently the department head of ‘Aiea’s newly established English language department, serving as the eighth-grade English language arts teacher and coordinator. Ms. Atnip notes the highlight of her academic career as a recent milestone, when district representatives informed her of the incredible progress they witnessed in her students, who committed extensive efforts on their English language proficiency assessments. She notes that knowing her students were so inspired to reach their full potential as her proudest moment as an educator. It is a testament to her tremendous support, guidance, and leadership that her students are striving for success.

“Please join me in congratulating Jessica Lobo Atnip, the Central District’s ‘Aiea–Moanalua–Radford Milken Teacher of Promise awardee.

“Colleagues, I also have the tremendous honor of recognizing our last floor presentation of the 2023 Education Week program and another amazing constituent of District 9. Please join me in welcoming our final awardee, the Leeward District’s 2022 Pearl City–Waipahu Complex Milken Teacher of Promise recipient, Kisa Matlin.

“Ms. Matlin is currently in her third year of teaching at Waipahu High School, where she works with the Academy of Natural Resources as a science and career and technical education teacher. She also serves as a co-advisor of the Academy of Natural Resources ambassadors program and the Waipahu High School chapter of Future Farmers of America. Throughout her tenure at Waipahu, Ms. Matlin has advised students in their entrepreneurial pursuits, coaching them in the design, creation, and marketing of locally produced, value-added products. She and her students were also featured on OluKai Hawai‘i’s Anywhere Aloha Fridays online video series, demonstrating how to tie-dye tote bags for the Made in Hawai‘i marketplace using turmeric. Ms. Matlin acknowledges this recognition as a testament to her role model and grandmother, Lillian Shigeko Hatate, who was a Hawai‘i DOE educator for 30 years. She hopes to pay the gift of educational excellence forward and is proud to have a hand in growing future stewards of Hawai‘i.

“Please join me in congratulating the Leeward District’s 2022 Pearl City–Waipahu Complex Milken Teacher of Promise recipient, Kisa Matlin. I now yield the floor to Senator Kim.”

Senator Kim rose and stated:

“Before we close, Mr. President, I’d like to take a moment to acknowledge several other incredible awardees who received the education awards but were not able to join us today on the Senate floor: Principal Sarene Oda and Kahala Elementary, who earned the prestigious National Blue Ribbon title, as well as other district Milken Teacher of Promise honorees—Keonaona Mahi of Kawanakoa Middle School, Alohalani Ligsay of Wahiawa Middle School, Brianna Craig of Hāna High School, Kayla Emocling of Kapolei High, William Kjontvedt of Baldwin High, Mikayla Kloepfel of Kalāheo High School, and the 2023 Hawai‘i state Milken Teacher of Promise recipient, Tristan Nguyen of Kalani High School.

“I’d also like to mahalo David Miyashiro and today’s amazing community partner, HawaiiKidsCAN, who are hosting Work-Based Learning Celebration Day, which will begin this afternoon. From 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the Capitol Auditorium, guests will have the opportunity to hear from students, policymakers, and additional partners Hawai‘i P-20 and the Chamber of Commerce Hawaii on how our state is preparing students to survive and thrive upon graduation. It is a wonderful way to close Education Week by focusing on the future of education and the post-secondary dreams of our students. Mahalo nui to all of our guests and community partners for hosting this event, and we hope all of you members will join us.

“Colleagues, on behalf of the Education chair, Senator Kidani, it has been a pleasure to recognize the deserving honorees of our 2023 Education Week program. I join Senator Kidani in thanking all of you for your participation, as well as to the House Education chair and our Senate and House staff who helped coordinate this week. Personally, even though she’s not here, members, please join me in thanking Senator Kidani for her tireless work in putting together Education Week. Mr. President, I now yield the floor back to you.”

The Chair having so ordered (on the Twenty-Ninth Day, March 13, 2023), the names and accomplishments on the honorees read as follows:

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

Monday, March 20, 2023

The Senate of the Thirty-Second Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2023, convened at 11:36 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present, with the exception of Senator Keith-Agaran who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Thirty-Third Day.

At this time, Senator DeCoite introduced members of his staff who were seated in the gallery: office manager Rebecca Crall, who had offered a moment of contemplation prior to the Senate's floor session; Richard Oshiro; and Javen Alania.

Senator Awa introduced students and teachers from Kahuku Elementary School. Present in the gallery were Anela Manu, Leilani Lauaki, Maile Fotu, Talia Tipoti, Lolohea Sulunga, and Malia Plunkett.

Senator Lee introduced Mr. Andrew McClean, a good friend and recovering former legislator who had served as chair of the transportation committee in Maine.

Senator Wakai honored and recognized Carissa Moore, and presented the following remarks:

"Surf's up in the Senate. Colleagues, we are in the presence of greatness. Carissa Moore is the most accomplished female surfer to walk the Earth or carve up waves. She represented Hawai'i with grace and power by becoming the first female gold medalist in Olympic surfing history. She left her indelible mark at the Tokyo Games in the summer of 2021. Due to the pandemic, the Senate finally has an opportunity to acknowledge her immense contributions to surfing and the state.

"Carissa Moore began surfing in Waikīkī at age five. She went on to win a record 11 National Scholastic Surfing Association amateur titles. In 2010, she turned pro and was named Rookie of the Year. By the ripe old age of 18, she became the youngest person, male or female, to win a surfing world title. She would go on to win five—five—world championships. Carissa is in the Surfers' Hall of Fame. A few other accomplishments include being named Adventurer of the Year by National Geographic, Woman of the Year by Glamour magazine, and James E. Sullivan Award recipient, which recognizes an outstanding athlete whose athletic accomplishments are complemented by qualities of leadership and sportsmanship. She's the first surfer and first Native Hawaiian to win that award.

"Carissa is an unrivaled surfer and an advocate for others. In 2018, she launched the Moore Aloha Charitable Foundation, where she gives back to the community by donating to local surf clubs and speaking out against sexism, binge eating, and body shaming to help young girls develop confidence.

"Carissa was born in Honolulu and graduated from Punahou, where she also met her husband, Luke. Together, they have two dogs: Maya and Tuffy. When she is not surfing, Carissa enjoys scrapbooking and spending quality time with her family.

"After claiming the gold medal in Tokyo, Carissa was interviewed about her connection to the sport. She said, 'The ocean has changed my life and I can't imagine my life without it. I'll be surfing until I'm in the ground. Riding waves makes you feel free, it makes you feel present, it makes you feel more in love with yourself and the ocean and the environment.' Those words capture the power of the ocean and Carissa Moore's connection to it. As she has redefined surfing, she has never forgotten her roots. Thank you, Carissa Moore, for all you have done for the sport and the state of Hawai'i.

"Carissa is joined in the gallery with her family: her mother, Carol Moore, and her husband, David Yamada—if you could please stand to be recognized. And both of them are accompanied by Keith Amemiya and my staffers, Lori McKeown as well as Richard Mizusawa. Thank you all for being a part of this momentous occasion."

The Chair requested Ms. Moore's patience and noted that the Senate had a short agenda and would take several minutes before adjourning, after which the members would personally congratulate Ms. Moore and take pictures.

Senator Kim announced that the Committee on Higher Education and the Committee on Public Safety and Intergovernmental and Military Affairs would be holding a public hearing on the measure on Wednesday, March 22, 2023, at 3:17 p.m. in Conference Room 225.

Senator Kim continued on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, I would like to bring the members’ attention to an article that appeared in the Star-Advertiser today in the sports section. I’m going to just read a couple of the quotes here from Dave Reardon, ‘Imagine paying $59,000 to be told to communicate better’:

We should all be a bit wary of a 570-page report in which the fifth word is spelled ‘Monoa,’ as in the ‘University of Hawaii at Monoa.’ Apparently, the $59,000 invoice for an independent investigation about a year in the making by College Sports Solutions doesn’t include springing for spellcheck. . . .

For the most part, it’s the same old, same old, we heard at the time of (and before and after) the crisis that resulted in most of the best and most experienced UH football players leaving the program. Basically, its bosses (coaches, administrators) telling unhappy underlings (student-athletes), ‘Hey, we’ve got to communicate better.’

Now it’s official, because an outside source—contracted by some of the bosses—says so. . . .

The CSS report tells us that no NCAA rules and no laws were broken, and all those communication problems seem to have vanished with the hiring of Timmy Chang as the new football coach. This was such a good thing for UH that the athletic department has been reported as having ‘embraced’ the report.

The report also came to the stunning conclusion that building a new football stadium might be good for morale.

You can’t pay for advice like that. Hey, wait ... we just did.

I hope you all read the article. Thank you.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of the measure with reservations as follows:

"I stand in support with reservations: in support because it promotes transparency, reservations because, with the removal of the $25 limit, it actually appears that we are targeting grassroots fundraising, which I think we should really be promoting. And, secondly, based upon the testimony of the Campaign Spending Commission, this doesn't actually solve the problem that they want to solve, and for those reasons, I stand with reservations. Thank you."

At this time, Senator Lee, Chair of the Committee on Transportation and Culture and the Arts, requested a waiver of the public notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for H.B. No. 110, H.D. 1.

Senator Lee noted:

“There have been a few developments late in the process we’d like to consider but also want to make sure the public has an opportunity to comment and provide testimony.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Lee announced that the Committee on Transportation and Culture and the Arts would be holding a public hearing on the measure on Thursday, March 23, 2023, at 3:00 p.m. in Conference Room 224.

Senator DeCoite encouraged the members to check out Manufacturing Day, which was taking place on the fourth floor of the Capitol until 1:00 p.m.

The Chair remarked that Kauai Kookies were among the items featured on the Manufacturing Day tables.

Senator Fevella rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Governor continues to criticize and condemn my colleagues and I for doing our jobs and our constitutional duties. To quote you, Senate President, last Tuesday, you said you were troubled when the governor said we should just give him a chance and let everyone that he nominates be confirmed just because. I agree with you, Mr. President. If that were the case, the law would simply be written that the governor appoints who he wants to have on his team. But the law instead says that the Senate has a duty and responsibility to advise and consent. It is the responsibility that everyone in this chamber takes very seriously. Thank you, Senate President.”

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“I should be getting a royalty for the amount of times Civil Beat insists on featuring me in their mostly interesting but fictional stories. I get it—like the senator from Ka’a’awa mentioned in his moment of contemplation, there are heroes and villains. That storyline sells. But, really, what we should be after are the facts and the truth. I don’t get the fact that the Senate is in chaos, and if that’s a member’s reality, well, bills are moving, committees are meeting, the budget is getting crafted. Those who feel that there is chaos should probably get more organized and focus on their work instead of the hype.

“Going back to the facts and the truth, the truth is, several of us had voiced concerns about a nomination that was referred to the Water and Land committee. Fact one: Concerns are based on past performance, lack of outcomes, and issues brought up by current staff overseen by the nominee. Fact two: In a leadership meeting, when these concerns were being discussed, the subject-matter chair did not dispute them. The subject-matter chair’s response was to ‘vote your conscience.’ Other colleagues also had mentioned that they had been approached by Office of Planning staff with concerns.

“When people get frustrated, they start calling others names, creating the narrative of heroes, villains, and bullies. We need to stick to the facts and focus on the people’s work, solve our state’s most challenging problems. We have a responsibility to vote and vet the nominees. As a member of the COVID committee, I saw firsthand many instances where the administration froze, were not up to the challenge, and responded slowly. We have to do our job. We have to feel confident that these nominees are up to the challenge. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Kim rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, I think it should be made known to the public that, as a member of this body, we are all entitled to sit in on any committee. That is the only time that a member has the opportunity to ask questions because if you wait till we get to the floor, we cannot ask the nominee questions or ask about a bill. So to be chastised, as I was by the governor, that I went into a committee that I was not a member, we have every right to do that. And I invite any member to sit in on my committee—if you have questions, you are so welcome to come in—and I’ve always had that opportunity, and I know many of you have invited me to sit in your committees. And so I think we should go on the record to let the public know that that is our right. We may not vote in those committees, but we have every right to be in the committee, to know what’s going on. Otherwise, how can you vote on this floor if you’re not part of the discussion? And that is what we also get criticized for: that we make our decisions before we even hear what the public has to say. So I think that we should go on record and that should be well known to everyone. Thank you.”

The Chair emphasized that any member could attend another committee meeting. The Chair requested that any member planning to attend a meeting of a committee the member was not part of to notify the committee chair of the member’s intent, which would ensure that proper arrangements, including a seat at the table, nameplate, and microphone, would be made for the member’s effective participation.

The Chair then announced that there would be a leadership meeting in his office immediately following adjournment.

The Chair invited Ms. Moritsugu and Ms. Furukawa to the floor for picture-taking following adjournment. The Chair noted that Ms. Moritsugu’s father, former acting U.S. surgeon general, and Norman Mineta, former Transportation secretary, had been two Asian Americans who had broken through the glass ceiling in holding those federal government positions.

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

The Chair stated:

"On the matter of advise and consent, this has obviously now become a large issue in the press, and members who had not had the chance to meet with Mr. Glenn now realize that any vote that they cast will probably be asked for the rationale and supporting statement to the vote, and we've been asked to defer this till Friday so that those who have not met with Mr. Glenn will have the opportunity.

"Also, it has been reported in the media that there have been discussions about Mr. Glenn's nomination in caucus, and on Monday, we talked about Senator Rhoads and the ethics bills, and on Tuesday, we had Erika Moritsugu and an associate from the White House talk to us about issues in the White House, and I had to reassure the members of the caucus that this has never been discussed in caucus until today.

“I have talked to all of the members in the caucus, and there isn’t a member who has come forward to tell me that they felt coerced in any way by Senator Dela Cruz or Senator Kidani on how to cast a vote, but they did feel some pressure from the Water-Land chair in how they were going to vote. It is routine for Senator Kidani as the vice president, Senator Kanuha as the majority leader, and other members of the leadership team to continually take the temperature of where members of the caucus are leaning. And so, with that request, with the attention that has been brought onto this nominee’s vote, I will ask, if there are no objections, that we defer this item to Friday.”

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1225 (Gov. Msg. No. 506):

By unanimous consent, action on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1225 and Gov. Msg. No. 506 was deferred until Friday, March 24, 2023.

ORDER OF THE DAY
ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1226 (Gov. Msg. No. 528):

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1226 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Elefante and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of LAURA KAAKUA as Deputy to the Chairperson of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, term to expire December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Laura Kaakua has a long history of legal, land use, and conservation experience through the years. Ms. Kaakua is a member of the Hawaii State Bar Association and a graduate of the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i. She earned her bachelor of arts degree at Boston College and is the recipient of certificates and awards from several organizations. Most recently, she has been the president and chief executive officer of the Hawai‘i Land Trust. She has held that position since March 2019 to the present. Prior to that, she enjoyed a brief stint as a lecturer at the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i in 2017.

“From April 2010 to March 2019, Laura Kaakua was the native lands program manager for the Trust for Public Land in Honolulu, Hawai‘i. She enjoyed a six-month contract working on the annual Envision Hawai‘i conference from October 2009 to March 2010. She also worked in various capacities within the legal realm for the Third Circuit Court, the United States District Court, and Earthjustice. She also worked at the Office of Hawaiian Affairs and as a team leader for the Hawai‘i Youth Conservation Corps. Her recent community service includes leadership council member for the Land Trust Alliance, Nā Pualei o Līkolehua hula hālau, Protect Kaho‘olawe ‘Ohana, and the Access to Justice Commission.

“Ms. Kaakua will be bringing her legal understanding, conservation background, and management experience to serve the Department of Land and Natural Resources as the deputy to the chairperson. As deputy, she will be accountable as part of DLNR’s leadership team to the people of Hawai‘i. She plans to work with legislators during the legislative sessions and work with the various divisions within DLNR to improve the DLNR’s capacity to fulfill its mission.

“Over her term of service, Laura Kaakua will work every day to accomplish the following goals:

- Support community stewardship and responsibility of DLNR’s lands and waters through legal agreements that make practical sense and allow community and DLNR stewards to focus their limited time and resources on actively caring for the lands and sea;
- Partner with landowners, stewards, farmers, ranchers, and watershed partnerships where DLNR has land to cohesively manage at the ahupua‘a and moku levels;
- Work closely with the Legislature to ensure DLNR has the resources and legal authority needed to accomplish its mission and increase the amount of private and federal funds that go toward conserving and enhancing Hawai‘i’s natural, cultural, and historic resources;
- Work with educational and nonprofit partners to build a pipeline of local stewards and scientists who will become DLNR’s future leaders and diversify the economy through green jobs and innovation;

- Increase transparency and build public trust through open communication, physically going into communities—especially on the neighbor islands—to find common a path toward and managing and supporting DLNR’s 10 divisions.

“Mr. President and members, Ms. Laura Kaakua is highly qualified for the position, and offers the DLNR continuity and enhancement in its mission to nurture Hawai‘i’s land and ocean resources. I strongly ask that you advise and consent in her favor. Mahalo.”

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“You know, Mr. President, productivity, metrics, and walking the walk: Those are the bars by which I believe this body tries to judge the nominees. In this situation, the deputy director has proven to my community that she has done that. She got handed quite a storm with the wrecking of the luxury yacht on Honolua Bay. She flew out on her weekend and was there working with both community advocates, the environmental community, Native Hawaiian community, and others on taking swift action to rectify the situation. Only recently, after a Kona storm, when more vessels ran aground, she made sure the Department responded readily and prevented damage to the Hauola stone, a cherished mark of the Native Hawaiian community and history. She has walked the walk—she’s been the first deputy director that I can recall who’s been out in our community—and so I’d just like to say a few words in support of the nomination. Thank you for letting me do so.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Inouye introduced Deputy Laura Hokunani Edmunds Kaakua, who was present in the gallery with her husband, Josh Kaakua; children Pono and Melia Kaakua; parents, John and Ginny Edmunds; in-laws Joe and Girlie Kaakua; extended family Uncle Muddy Hashimoto and Krislyn Hashimoto; and Department of Land and Natural Resources support staff.

Senator Wakai explained that the jewelry on each member’s desk was a promotional item for a locally produced film about the shaka, which has its origins in Kahuku and has become a global symbol of the aloha that lives in everyone. Senator Wakai expressed his hope that the members would enjoy the item and promote the movie, which was scheduled to come out later in the year.

The Chair made the following announcement:

“The deadline to file standing committee reports on House bills that need to pass Second Reading and move laterally to the final Senate committee is 10:00 p.m. this evening.”

ORDER OF THE DAY

ADVISE AND CONSENT

MATTER DEFERRED FROM WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 2023

The Chair made the following observation:

"All motions for advise and consent will be in the affirmative, even in the case of Director Sadayasu, who was a negative recommendation, so anyone voting 'yes' on any of the four advise and consent matters is voting 'yes' to confirm; anybody voting 'no' would be in opposition to the confirmation."

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1225 (Gov. Msg. No. 506):

Senator Inouye moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of SCOTT GLENN as Director of the Office of Planning and Sustainable Development, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. Glenn has already been serving as the director of OPSD since December 2022 and has adeptly navigated through the duties and responsibilities of the position.

"Prior to his appointment to the Office of Planning and Sustainable Development, Scott Glenn demonstrated his leadership ability by reinvigorating the Hawai'i State Energy Office after the Legislature reestablished the agency as part of its efforts to help the state achieve a more resilient, clean-energy economy. Before that, Mr. Glenn served as the director of the Office of Environmental Quality Control, where he was responsible for the modernization of the state's environmental review process. Before coming into public service, Scott Glenn worked in the private sector, where he focused on planning, asset management, and risk analysis and led or held key roles on multiple multi-million dollar projects for both public- and private-sector clients.

"As director, Mr. Glenn will bring an innovative, data-driven, collaborative cross-sector approach to today's challenges. Mr. Glenn will be supporting OPSD's mission and statutory activities. He outlines 11 specific activities pursuant to HRS Section 225M-2, which includes the following:

- State comprehensive planning and program coordination via state functional plans;
- Strategic planning of significant issues and formulating alternatives and opportunities;
- Planning coordination among state agencies and the state, county, and federal governments;
- Statewide planning and geographic information system through the gathering of various forms of data and information;
- Land use planning by developing and presenting the state in all boundary change petitions and proceedings before the Land Use Commission;
- Coastal and ocean property policy management and sea level rise adaptation coordination by administering the Hawai'i Coastal Zone Management (CZM) Program;
- Regional planning and studies to determine carrying capacity and impacts;
- Regional, national, and international planning by participating in and ensuring consistency to the extent practicable with regional, national, and international planning efforts;
- Climate adaptation and sustainability planning and coordination;
- Smart growth and transit-oriented development (TOD) by acting as the lead agency to coordinate and advance smart growth and TOD planning within the state;
- Environmental review by performing the duties set forth under HRS Chapter 343.

“One hundred twelve testifiers submitted testimony in support of Mr. Glenn, and seven opposed. Many of his colleagues and distinguished government officials have spoken very highly of Mr. Glenn. For these and many other reasons, Mr. President and colleagues, I ask you for your support of Scott Glenn in his nomination as director of the Office of Planning and Sustainable Development. Mahalo, Mr. President.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, I have grave concerns about this nominee. As a leader, he failed to take care of his staff. At the State Energy Office, he promised to build energy projects, and he failed to deliver. And the most important concern I have is, he has failed to be a man of his word.

“At his confirmation hearing in Water and Land on March 8, 2023, I specifically asked him, knowing the deadline of the AES plant, I approached him and asked him if he came to legislators to request a deadline extension. In the hearing, he said he did. I spoke to my colleagues and my colleague from the energy subject matter, and he said, ‘No, the G.M. did not talk to me about an extension legislation.’ Then, again, I got reports from AES workers on G.M. 506 that he did not reach out to them, either. After the March 8 hearing, he came up to me in the hallway area, and he said, ‘Oh, Senator, I misspoke in the hearing.’ As why today I wanted to put on the following worker in the evidence of the coal plant that was going to meet the deadline in 2020. He had an opportunity to take action—failed to take action in 2020, 2021, and 2022. He did not misspeak to me in the hallway: He lied. I oppose G.M. 506 strongly because not only in his previous position as the energy chair, but environmentally, he failed our communities in environmental, not taking the steps that he needed to do when it came to the windmills and informing the communities of energy that wasn’t so clean and wasn’t so firm, and when they were trying to build on Camp Pālehua windmills that we got wind of it—pardon my joke—and we stopped it. The community got together and stopped it. He told me, when I was in the energy, when Senator Kai Kahele was there, in the committee when I first got here: No more windmills. Soon after that—reason why I remember this, I don’t need write um down, because I take it seriously when somebody like to use the word ‘mislead.’

“Colleagues, when I spoke yesterday from my heart, I was truly troubled in this chamber because I was taught, and I was taught right, by the leadership of this body that all we have is our word. So when we give each other our word here, we’re family. And what had happened: He tried to convince for opportunities to have windmills in Camp Pālehua, offshore windmills—in my community, both of them. When he said in the hearing, he gave me his word: No more windmills. Trying to help the community of Kahuku on the setbacks—no cooperation. You have to have a backbone to lead, and he did not; he failed. And this is the person that we’re going to put forward of this body leading our department? I urge my colleagues to vote with me in opposition to Scott Glenn, G.M. 506. Thank you, Senate President and colleagues; God bless.”

Senator Wakai rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“Mr. President and colleagues, the state made a grave mistake by passing a law in the summer of 2020 to shut down O’ahu’s coal plant, largely based on assurances by the State Energy Office that there would be plenty of solar projects coming online. Its closure two years later, which was last September, coupled with rising oil prices have left residents paying for that mistake. Today, energy bills are 25 percent higher than a year ago.

“I didn’t watch the Water and Land confirmation hearing on March 8 because I was preparing for my own confirmation hearing for nominees to the Department of Law Enforcement as well as the Department of Defense. As I headed to that hearing, Mr. Glenn stopped me near the rail. He looked frazzled, and he wanted to alert me that he just made a misstatement to the committee about meeting with me on the coal plant closure. I agreed: We never discussed options prior to that coal plant being shut down. Mr. Glenn went on to convey to the senator from ‘Ewa that he had misled the committee as well and admitted to never conveying a plan. Instead of accepting his mistake, Mr. Glenn tried to cover it up. On March 18th, he sent a letter to the Water and Land chair claiming that he met with me in the Powering Past Coal Task Force meetings that began in 2021. This was a group of 20 people Zooming in online. There was no one-on-one meeting to, again, talk about any kind of mitigation plans for the shutdown of the coal plant when our renewable energy projects were obviously not going to come online soon enough.

“Members, we all make mistakes—that is forgivable. Trying to cover it up is not. I encourage you to vote ‘no’ on this nominee.”

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“We vote today on whether the nominee can lead the Office of Planning and Sustainable Development (OPSD). I cannot vote ‘yes’ on Scott Glenn. I’ve known Scott—appreciate his work on the Office of Environmental Quality Control in its update of the environmental impact statement rules and at the State Energy Office. However, effective leadership is more than working with stakeholders to achieve initiatives. Leadership also requires inspiring and bringing employees along, including those who may disagree and take issue with our actions—all this to achieve the joint mission of the office. I’ve heard some very serious concerns from OPSD employees. They feel unsupported in their work—subject-matter experts with their opinions disregarded. Some have already left; others say they will leave if Scott is confirmed. As labor committee chair, I know that the state faces a significant workforce shortage. We cannot afford to lose qualified staff and, in particular, in this very important office that plans for our future. We need leaders who can inspire and support employees to change government to make sure we serve the public. Thank you, Mr. Chair.”

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“The descriptions I’ve heard of Mr. Glenn are ones that I just don’t even recognize the individual that I thought I knew a little bit. He and his wife live in the building I live in in Chinatown, and my experience with him has always been he’s very straightforward, almost to the point of, sometimes he tells you things you don’t want to hear because he thinks it’s the truth, and sometimes we don’t always want to hear exactly what the situation is. He understands very clearly what’s going to happen to the state of Hawai‘i as global warming progresses, and he’s a capable enough person that he’ll make great contributions in helping the state deal with the many things that we’re going to have to deal with as global warming gets worse. I think he’ll do a great job in this position, and I hope that my colleagues will agree with me. Mahalo.”

Senator Kidani rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“My concerns with the nominee have to do with his past performance, which lacked outcomes in his role as the chief energy officer and issues that have surfaced in his role as director of Office of Planning and Sustainable Development. Statute 196-71 established the Energy Office to do this:

- Provide analysis and planning to actively develop and inform policies to achieve energy efficiency, renewable energy, energy resiliency, and clean transportation goals with the Legislature, Public Utilities Commission, state agencies, and other relevant stakeholders;
- Number two, lead efforts to incorporate;
- And three, provide energy efficiency, renewable energy, energy resiliency, and clean transportation to reduce costs and achieve clean energy goals across all public facilities;
- Number four, engage the private sector to help lead efforts to achieve renewable energy and clean transportation goals through the Hawai‘i Clean Energy Initiative.

He did not do these things.

“We are all suffering from the high cost of living, especially high cost of energy. The nominee was in charge of the Energy Office and should have played a significant role in planning to keep our cost of energy down. He had a very significant voice in shutting down the lowest cost of energy for O‘ahu, and during the session of 2020, he did not talk to our subject-matter chair, even though he lied during his confirmation hearing, saying that he did. His lie was that he informed us—this body—that the retirement of the coal plant was going to increase the cost significantly. He also was informed that the solar farms forecasted to make up for the loss of 20 percent of O‘ahu’s energy would be delayed but did not recommend to this body that we hold off on that legislation or make a contingency plan. He had full opportunity to come back to the legislators in 2021 and 2022 before the shutdown of the coal plant to let us know of the further delays in the solar projects and could have put in a bill to mitigate this issue, but nothing was done. For this reason, Mr. President, I cannot support this nominee.”

At 12:02 p.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 12:06 p.m.

The Chair called for a Roll Call vote, and clarified the voting procedures.

The motion was put by the Chair and, Roll Call vote having been requested, failed to carry on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 12; Ayes with Reservations (Shimabukuro). Noes, 12 (Aquino, Awa, Chang, DeCoite, Dela Cruz, Fevella, Keith-Agaran, Kidani, Kim, McKelvey, Moriwaki, Wakai). Excused, 1 (San Buenaventura).

By unanimous consent, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1225 was received and placed on file.

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1336 (Gov. Msg. No. 505):

At this time, the Chair made the following observation:

“Members, pursuant to Senate Rule 37, the final question on nominations made by the governor must be stated in the affirmative. So, again, a ‘yes’ vote is to confirm; a ‘no’ vote is against confirmation.”

Senator Kanuha moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1336 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Richards and carried.

Pursuant to Senate Rule 37, Senator Kanuha moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of CHRIS SADAYASU as Director of the Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Richards.

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“As the chair of your Committee on Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism, I took my responsibility in vetting the G.M. nomination very seriously. I want to make sure that the next director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism is ready for the task and can help the department, its divisions, and attached agencies succeed in their missions. I did not come to my recommendation to not advise and consent lightly. I’m a fan and a supporter of our current governor, and I want to support the administration, and the best way I can do this is to be honest—to be honest and to make my recommendations based on the information in front of me and based on the performance we have seen so far.

“It was my task and the task of the EET committee members to vet this nominee. These are the concerns shared by the majority of the EET committee members as well: concerns over his understanding of the Sunshine Law, serious concerns over his ability to manage all of the staff under his jurisdiction at DBEDT and attached agencies. His résumé mentions that he previously supervised four employees. DBEDT and its attached agencies has 330 employees. His inexperience in managing and communicating with staff became apparent during our WAM briefings. It was clear to committee members that there was a lack of communication, which led to the nominee making announcements about pending actions before his attached agencies were notified. A director cannot blindsides staff like that. A director has to have a clear communication plan. They need to know how to get updates and reports from their employees, and give clear instructions and deadlines. A healthy communication plan fosters a productive and healthy work environment. Another point that became evident during the WAM briefings was a lack of familiarity with his own department’s budget, and when questioned by the chair of WAM on certain line items, he was willing just to let them be taken out instead of backing up the planned budget put together. He didn’t take ownership of his department’s budget and, by not doing so, he also failed to back up his staff. He had a lot of supportive testimony, but most was boilerplate, where they were just relisting items from his résumé without any actual examples of the leadership accomplishments of community involvement.

“As members of the Senate, we must take responsibility to advise and consent seriously. This is the business of the state; people’s livelihoods depend on this. It’s not about who we like or who we are friends with. The question is: Can the person do the lead and do the job well? Clearly, he cannot. All of us have an obligation to our constituents to confirm department heads who will operate our departments effectively and efficiently. Mr. President, this is not a personal decision for me. This vote is about process and the ability to get the job done. I don’t feel Mr. Sadayasu has the capacity to do what is being asked of him at this time. I ask for you to support the decision made by your Committee on Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism to not advise and consent on this nominee. Mahalo.”

Senator Fukunaga rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“During the past 20-plus years, more than almost any other department within the state cabinet, Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism has been the product of multiple changes that the State Legislature and the executive branch have agreed upon. Its policies and procedures have been driven by legislative priorities to diversify Hawai‘i’s economy while determining how to strike the appropriate balance between Hawai‘i’s traditional reliance on tourism, military spending, and construction against future-oriented industries that build upon local residents’ creative strengths. Where conditions have fallen short, as was recently pointed out in the Star-Advertiser’s coverage of the leaking roof and structural issues associated with the Convention Center or with Aloha Stadium’s rust problems, I believe that the Legislature is just as responsible as our other executive agencies for delayed corrective action. As such, Chris Sadayasu’s long-term experience within a variety of DBEDT agencies and in county government gives him a unique perspective that few other candidates have. The fact that he is well respected within the department and among those who interact with the department demonstrates his strengths of being hard-working, analytical, and demanding as well as being fair and inclusive. I therefore urge my colleagues to join in confirming Mr. Sadayasu as director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism. Thank you.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“Mr. President, Chris Sadayasu appeared before several WAM and EET hearings. These hearings were the opportunity for Mr. Sadayasu to demonstrate his ability to lead, to present new ideas and innovation, and display strong decision-making skills, but the nominee missed the mark. He appeared before the committee unprepared. Mr. President, like any sports team, the DBEDT needs a head coach, someone who will show strong understanding of the fundamentals, someone who will be visionary with skills to advance the strategies, but what Mr. Sadayasu showed us, his experience that we all talk about in a different department, was all mid-level management. He never took a lead role in those positions. Even in HTA, he was behind the scenes. I oppose this nominee and wish my colleagues will support me in not recommending, and opposing G.M. 505. Thank you, Mr. President and colleagues; God bless and aloha.”

Senator Kim rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“Mr. President, it does not give me any pleasure to stand up and explain my vote in opposition, but we have been accused that our votes are political rather than based on job performance. So, as a member of the EET committee, my vote was and is based on the nominee’s résumé of his experience and his job performance before the Ways and Means committee budget briefings and his performance at the confirmation hearing. Here are the specifics: The DBEDT director’s job description is to manage the development and implementation of economic change through retention, expansion, attraction of commerce and light industry, and the creation of incentive zone programs, business growth, and expansion. The nominee’s résumé lacks experience in these areas and does not exhibit the skills needed to manage and oversee a department of six divisions and ten attached agencies. He has never managed more than five employees throughout his whole work history. This lack of management skills and collaboration showed itself when he, on January 25th, during the budget briefing, announced, unrelated to the day’s agenda, that he was taking over the USA marketing RFP and not the destination RFP, which I thought was baseless since it was not consistent with his reasoning. I quote the nominee: ‘The director’s office is going to take on the USA marketing RFP and we’re going to issue it ourselves. We’ll take it on, and we’ll manage it. I haven’t even informed them—HTA—and I’m going to inform the board tomorrow.’ It is troubling that he did not collaborate or inform HTA before making this announcement publicly that he, as the HOA, was taking over just half of the RFP. Then, the next day, when he met with HTA, he changed his mind. Mr. President, a thoughtful, experienced director would not have jumped the gun and be so erratic.

“Further, during the Ways and Means budget briefings, the nominee was not prepared. He did not display the ability to identify and prioritize DBEDT’s budget, adds of hundreds of thousands of dollars. He did not exhibit fiscal restraint, and approved all 60 new adds that was asked for; he did not reject any one of them. Of the 60 new adds, 50 were identified by him as the number one priority, while 9 were number two, and just 1 as number three. And, during that budget briefing, several DBEDT division heads responded that they would not be pursuing some of the new asks and did not need them, which reflected the director’s lack of vetting his division budget request.

“Finally, on the DBEDT’s webpage, ‘About the Director’ states, ‘Sadayasu has over 17 years of experience as an expert in economic development in DBEDT’s various attached agencies, including HTA.’ Mr. President, my research, along with reviewing all of the HTA’s board meeting minutes as well as the standing marketing committee minutes during his time at HTA and other attached agencies: The record does not reach the level of ‘expert’ in economic development. At HTA, he was a mid-level manager with no decision-making responsibilities. These minutes also show that:

- In 2016, his first year that he was at DBEDT, he was absent from seven out of eleven regular board meetings;
- In 2018, absent from eight of twelve regular board meetings, and the same year, 2018, absent from four out of nine standing marketing committee meetings;
- In 2020, absent from eight of the nine regular board meetings, and the same year, 2020, absent from seven out of the eight standing marketing committee meetings;
- In 2021, absent from all regular board meetings and all marketing committee meetings until August 2021, when he left HTA.

In the meetings he did attend, he did not have any role in the discussions of his assigned areas of marketing or sports. So this is far from being an expert as described on the DBEDT’s webpage.

“Mr. President, Mr. Sadayasu is an enthusiastic young man and deserves a chance, but my research and all that I’ve seen, read, and heard, he is not ready to lead one of the most important departments in the state during this time of economic uncertainty. Therefore, Mr. President, I cannot support Governor's Message 505. Thank you."

The Chair called for a Roll Call vote, and clarified the voting procedures.

The motion was put by the Chair and, Roll Call vote having been requested, failed to carry on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 8; Ayes with Reservations (Chang). Noes, 15 (Aquino, Awa, DeCoite, Dela Cruz, Fevella, Gabbard, Keith-Agaran, Keohokalole, Kidani, Kim, Kouchi, Lee, McKelvey, Moriwaki, Shimabukuro). Excused, 2 (San Buenaventura, Wakai).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1337 (Gov. Msg. No. 520):

Senator McKelvey moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1337 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Gabbard and carried.

Senator McKelvey then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of KEITH REGAN as Comptroller of the Department of Accounting and General Services, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Gabbard.

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"During the hearing for the deputy, we brought up several issues. Mr. President, your Committee on Government Operations—we went ahead and put the nominee through a grilling process. As I like to say, it was like a Redondo dog on a hibachi at a UH game. We saw, during the WAM info briefings, there were a lot of questions raised about the nominee and his grasp of the area and his relationship with the subject matters. I met with him and explained to him of these areas, and I also talked to him about the fact that you are the acting comptroller now; it's time to walk and do things and not discuss it.

"We brought up issues during the hearing of the deputy, Mr. President, and during his hearing, he went ahead and he described the fixes to which we were seeking, like deficiencies in paying out vouchers: vouchers for Department of Health and Human Services that go to our nonprofits to take care of our needy community. He came forward with the fix for these issues. He's found creative ways to fill other vacancies that are much needed and develop a recruitment pipeline using our colleges, our high schools, and even appearing himself personally at job fairs which DAGS has been holding. He's addressing the mold situation at DOE and facilities on Hawai'i island, and didn't shrink away from the criticism that came up about the situation during the committee hearing. Mr. Regan has a detailed, intricate knowledge of all of the divisions in DAGS, from Public Works all the way to Central Services, and many of them have formally and informally vouched for his involvement and team-building spirit for this agency. He has created a 'DAGS in your district' bulletin to update us lawmakers on specific DAGS-related projects, incidents, and issues, as well as response plans to help us better communicate projects to our constituents. He has done a deep dive with the support of administrators like Public Works on how we can address the big issues in project delivery that are being overlooked. He has encouraged current measures and initiatives. He has identified the need for provided immediate office space and support for the School Facilities Authority so they can grow into what we envision them to be. He has met with your committee chair and given us detailed metric reports and updates on the different divisions in DAGS, and he's even identified how we can truly introduce new policies next year to address what is the slowdown in the construction delivery process that goes far beyond procurement. He has worked with risk assessment division on emulating creative solutions that other states have done to address the spiraling costs of insurance for our state facilities. And, finally, he has implemented the job program in DAGS and looks to expand it to the neighbor islands, a program that will be visiting all of our schools in my district. The principals and teachers are happy to finally see jobs being done and permitting being bundled.

"We started the relationship with Mr. Regan, we challenged him, and he has grown and he has delivered. He has worked with your office on addressing issues within the central campus itself. So, through this exact process, Mr. President, I think he has responded well. He has the support and camaraderie of his agency, he knows his program areas, and he's willing to work hard for the people of Hawai'i, and for that I'd like to go ahead and ask your support for the advise and consent for Mr. Regan as the comptroller."

The Chair reminded visitors in the gallery to silence or turn off their cell phones.

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"Keith Regan is one of the leading examples of a qualified candidate to lead a state department. He has constantly shown the Senate his leadership through his preparation. Prior to his meeting with me, we had discussed and has knowledge of the functions of his department. I had a chance to meet with Keith Regan prior to his nomination, and we easily came to an agreement about possibly creating a state permitting office. His leadership role in and at the County of Maui, HTA, and DCCA as a front-row player, not a backseat driver, and prove his qualification and have no doubt that this nominee, Keith Regan, will be able to lead the department successfully. I ask my colleagues to please support G.M. 520, Keith Regan. Mahalo and God bless."

Senator Wakai rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Keith Regan is aspiring to be the state's comptroller. He has proven himself to be a state collaborator: He comes to us with 16 years of government experience, first at Maui County and more recently with the Hawai'i Tourism Authority. During his tenure at HTA, I worked closely with Mr. Regan, who was the chief administrative officer. Whenever I asked for data or documents, he was always forthcoming and always responsive. We didn't always agree on tourism policy, but we always interacted respectfully. DAGS faces significant vacancies, a substantial deferred maintenance backlog, and reducing the state's dependency on leased office space. Over the past few months, I've seen improvements to modernize operational efficiency, innovative approaches to overcoming these lingering challenges, and supporting his team through improved communication and personal development growth opportunities. Mr. Regan has the ability to bring people together to overcome challenges that may seem insurmountable at first. Maintaining the state's infrastructure is vitally important; it's not super exciting, but Mr. Regan provides a sense of excitement and an expectation that we will see much better outcomes in the years ahead. I encourage all of you to support this exemplary collaborator to be our next comptroller."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (San Buenaventura).

Senator McKelvey introduced Comptroller Keith Regan, who was present in the gallery with his wife, Lynn Araki-Regan; son Riley Regan; in-laws Ann and Fred Araki; uncle George Shimada; and friends and colleagues from the Department of Accounting and General Services.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1338 (Gov. Msg. No. 524):

Senator Shimabukuro moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1338 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Ihara and carried.

Senator Shimabukuro then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of KALI WATSON as Chairperson of the Department of Hawaiian Homelands, term to expire December 31, 2026, seconded by Senator Ihara.

Senator Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Mr. President, your Committee believes that Mr. Watson’s extensive project development and legal background, combined with his lifelong service on behalf of Native Hawaiian housing and cultural issues, qualifies him to serve as chairperson of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. Your Committee finds that Mr. Watson is an established and sophisticated project developer with a proven track record of success, and that his subject-matter expertise and fluency in the complex field of housing development, which encompasses bond financing, housing tax credits, project management, and land use and zoning laws, will allow him to immediately take the helm and begin putting plans into action for the benefit of Native Hawaiian people.

“Your Committee finds that one of the chief concerns for many who testified was the need to quickly and efficiently encumber the $600 million appropriated by the Legislature through Act 279, Session Laws of 2022, before the funds lapse, and your Committee appreciates Mr. Watson’s express intent to aggressively pursue the 20 projects identified in the strategic plan approved by the Hawaiian Homes Commission.

“Members, we’ve received some recent concerns from the Ahupua’a o Nānākuli Homestead; Mr. Watson will be reaching out to this important group of beneficiaries to discuss their concerns.

“Mr. President, your Committee, after full consideration of the background, experience, and qualifications of the nominee, has found him to be qualified for the position to which nominated and recommends the Senate advise and consent to his nomination. Mahalo.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

“Beneficiaries, constituents, and our Hawaiian community asked me to share my deepest concerns about G.M. 524. Nineteen years of dealing with DHHL and his nonprofit. He was asked over 10 times at his confirmation hearing about his many conflicts of interest. Just imagine, three out of the five of my colleagues in the Hawaiian committee are attorneys. None of them could get a clear answer about how he was to avoid his many conflicts of interest. One of my colleagues even asked him, ‘Why did you send in your answers to the committee’s questionnaire on your Hawaiian Community Development Board (HCDB) letterhead?’ The G.M. 524 did not and could not see that there was a problem with his using HCDB letterhead. Most ethical people will see that there should be a clear separation, but no: This G.M. said he would encourage his nonprofit to stay engaged with DHHL.

“My colleagues, we already know these delinquent lease rent payments over $130,000, cause of hazardous material costing over $2 million to clean up on his license on the parcel of Kalaeloa, and conflict upon conflict upon conflict of interest and blindness. What disturbs me in the committee was that he said his son, on one of the properties off in Mā’ili, he pays him $4,500 a month to clean that property. I urge you, colleagues, go check out the property: no maintenance. So these are the things, because of his attorney and his intelligence and engagement since he has left DHHL—he knows how to work the system, and Kali been working the system for a long, long time.

“I’ve had opposition to this man for decades. Mililani Trask testified in favor of this man—hmm, why? Geothermal on Hawaiian home lands, family and friends. Patty Kahanamoku-Teruya wants to be back a commissioner. These are the things you gotta look on who came. Crabbe from Moloka’i, the largest contaminator on Moloka’i, came—not only came, but also threatened my staff member. These are the people that he deals with. These are the people that’s willing to go against their Hawaiian community to get what they special interest conflicts that he has. What disturbs me is what Crabbe told my staff, and I don’t need this for that [puts down paper]. He was outside there supporting the opposition of Kali Watson’s nomination. This guy, Crabbe, comes up to my staff talking story, then he realized that he works for me. This is what he told my staff: ‘Wow, back in the day, politicians would get assassinated.’ That’s us. And I know I don’t call myself a politician—I’m an elected official—but I wasn’t afraid for myself, colleagues. I was afraid for my staff and my fellow colleagues. But this is the kind of people thinking that this is the kind of decade we’re living in. This is not 1976. We have to stop the insanity and stop recycling people that’s not pono for our people to go forward and prosper. I ask you, colleagues in this chamber: Do the right thing and vote ‘no’ on this nominee. Thank you, God bless, and aloha.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 21; Ayes with Reservations (Kidani). Noes, 2 (Awa, Fevella). Excused, 2 (Chang, San Buenaventura).

Senator Shimabukuro introduced Chairperson Kali Watson, who was present in the gallery with his wife, Judith Pavey; executive assistant Richard Hoke; and supporters, friends, and colleagues from the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands.

S.R. No. 78	Jointly to the Committee on Government Operations and the Committee on Health and Human Services

The Chair noted that the advise and consent process has always been challenging because members often lined up on ideology but would often come to different conclusions when they looked at individuals and their performances. The Chair commended the members for having done their homework in arriving at their decisions and for the work they would continue to do. The Chair stated that he expected the members not to change at all as they continued to hold nominees accountable, ensure their questions were answered, and assess whether nominees carried themselves well. The Chair then wished the members a great long weekend.

ORDER OF THE DAY

H.B. No. 91, H.D. 1, S.D. 1:

Senator Rhoads moved that H.B. No. 91, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Gabbard.

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Although it appears that it is one of those ethics bills that we should pass, especially with the events that occurred last session, if you read page 2, it says, 'Failure to obey such a court order shall be punished as contempt,' which is a misdemeanor or a petty misdemeanor, and the addition of, 'In addition to contempt proceedings, the commission may file the commission's order,' and goes on to, 'Provided that there shall be no appeal from the judgment.' This is very troubling, especially since the last bill that we passed upon third reading allowed the Campaign Spending Commission to mail us these proceedings without certified mail but presumed that, upon their mailing of the proceedings, within seven days, that we have received it. The more common people who are violated are first-time campaigners. My concern is, when this came to hearing, the deputy attorney general at the last hearing, I requested her opinion as to whether or not this passes due process. She said she did not study it. She said she was there for the Campaign Spending Commission and not to advise us, and, for those reasons, since I have concerns about the due process, constitutional right of somebody who may be adjudged to be punished for contempt—a criminal case—I stand in opposition. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 91, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO ORDERS OF THE CAMPAIGN SPENDING COMMISSION," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

ORDER OF THE DAY
ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1428 (Gov. Msg. No. 512):

Senator San Buenaventura moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1428 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Aquino and carried.

Senator San Buenaventura then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of CATHERINE BETTS as Director of the Department of Human Services, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Aquino.

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, two years ago, I asked you to confirm Director Betts, and I mentioned her strong history of working as a deputy attorney general, Status of Women advisor, and her heart. Colleagues, I again ask you to join me and support her nomination to continue as director of the Department of Human Services.

“Cathy Betts has led the DHS through the waning days of the pandemic after Director Bhanot’s resignation. At a time when the public increasingly relied on the Department of Human Services for food, SNAP benefits, and health Medicaid benefits, Director Betts did not shirk from the huge responsibility, and led the agency well. During her term, Hawai‘i was the first in the country to implement pandemic EBT programs for schoolchildren who were not able to acquire school meals due to stay-at-home orders. Over 127,705 families were served. Hawai‘i’s Med-QUEST was the first in the country to implement Medicaid eligibility for COFA residents. As I said, it shows her heart.

“When the child-care industry was dying and did not look like there were enough child-care workers to be able to serve the working parents when they were able to get back to work, Director Betts again stepped up to the plate. She led DHS in distributing over $165 million in federal child-care relief funds and child-care stabilization grants to prop up a child-care industry decimated during the stay-at-home orders. It is not easy to create a fair distribution process at a drop of a hat with spending deadlines, but Director Betts did so and provided child-care subsidies so that there will be a child-care workforce ready for parents eager to get back to work.

“There is more work to be done, and Director Betts, if confirmed, will step up to the challenge. During her tenure, DHS-attached agencies, like the Office of Youth Services, was heralded nationwide for having zero girls incarcerated for a period of almost three months. No one else in the country was able to achieve this feat. Department of Human Services has the biggest budget of all the state agencies because the agency affects every one of us, and Director Betts has stepped up to the plate, ran the agency well during crisis, and she deserves a reappointment, and I ask my colleagues to join me in confirming her nomination. Thank you.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Since my time in office, I’ve had some time working with Ms. Betts and the Department. Adult protective services, our community service branch—we needed to have some individuals, some people, place in in taking care of suspect of adult abuse. She supported the enforcement and the protections for kūpuna and valuable adult services that she provides—just her ongoing compassion. I got to meet with her. A lot of stuff, when we do these things, are confidential, but she assured me that the individual in my community was going to be taken care of, and he was. So, again, colleagues, one of the things that I really, really like what she does in her efforts is the involvement of missing and murdered Native Hawaiian women and girls. Going forward, we’ve just got to continue to keep the momentum going. Colleagues, I ask you guys to join me in highly supporting G.M. 512, Cathy Betts. Thank you, Senate President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Ihara, Kidani).

Senator San Buenaventura acknowledged Department of Human Services colleagues and other supporters of Director Catherine Betts. Present in the gallery were Cyndi Vallente, Joseph Campos, Cari Uesugi, Mimari Hall, Judy Mohr Peterson, Scott Morishige, Katherine Korenaga, Daisy Hartsfield, and Jennifer Muraoka; deputy attorneys general Lila King and James Walther; and attorney general Anne Lopez.

The Chair invited Director Betts to come down to the floor following the Senate’s adjournment for picture-taking.

"The Healthcare Association of Hawaii is a leading voice for healthcare providers in the state. The organization works to positively influence state and federal policy to provide quality and accessible healthcare to the people of Hawai'i. Through HAH's Healthcare Heroes awards, patients are given the opportunity to acknowledge the service of outstanding healthcare providers. These providers are honored for the exemplary care they deliver to patients and their loved ones across the state. They truly are the epitome of selfless service for the betterment of our community, and are more than worthy as honorees of the 2022 Healthcare Hero award. I would now like to yield the floor to Senator Chang to say a few words about our first honoree, Dr. Andrew Baldwin, who, unfortunately, is unable to be here today."

Senator Chang rose to present the following remarks:

"Kaua'i resident Alana Fujikawa is sure she would not be alive today if not for the skill and compassion of her Hawaii Healthcare Hero, Dr. Andrew Baldwin. Alana suffered a stroke, and there was also a tear in her aorta. The team at Wilcox Medical Center on Kaua'i was able to treat her stroke but did not have the expertise to repair her aorta. After various inquiries, Straub Medical Center agreed to have her flown to O'ahu to have the procedure. Dr. Baldwin explained the risks and benefits of the surgery to her. His calm demeanor made the complicated procedure seem less terrifying, and he explained her options in clear and simple terms. Alana says that she was touched by his humility, that she believes her case inspired him, and that it was a privilege to be cared for by him. Thank you, and I now yield the floor to Senator Rhoads."

Senator Rhoads rose to present the following remarks:

"I am happy to recognize the next honoree, physician assistant Lindsey Hayes of Kaiser Permanente. Lindsey's patient, Betty, was hanging curtains in her bedroom and accidentally fell on her back onto a concrete floor. She was in pain, and she knew she needed to get help. Betty didn't have anyone around to help her, so she struggled to get up and drove to Kaiser's Waipio Clinic's same-day care. Lindsey and the nurses were surprised that Betty was able to drive herself and sit normally after this fall. The team took several x-rays, and Lindsey checked back in on her every 10 minutes while she was waiting for the results. After a full analysis, Lindsey advised Betty that her lower spine had been broken in two places. Betty credited Lindsey Hayes for putting her at ease. Betty states, 'Lindsey was so kind, caring, and thoughtful. He showed so much sympathy, professionalism, and patience. He is excellent in every way.'

"How about a nice round of applause for physician assistant Lindsey Hayes? I would like to yield the floor to my colleague from Senate District 25. Mahalo."

Senator Lee rose to present the following remarks:

"I'd like to introduce our next Healthcare Hero, Shelley Johnstone, who's also from Kaiser Permanente. While there, a young woman, Andrea Farm's mother had her health severely decline in 2020, and due to the COVID-19 lockdowns, Andrea was no longer able to visit her mother, who was in a care home facility. Shelley Johnstone worked miracles with her mother. Shelley knew how to make Andrea's mom feel comfortable and smile, and she did a tremendous job facilitating communication between Andrea, her mother, and her mother's healthcare providers. Shelley would explain why Andrea wasn't able to visit after the lockdowns started, and although her mother couldn't speak, Shelley was able to read her expressions in order to communicate with her.

"Andrea's mother eventually passed, but it would not be the end of Shelley's help to the Farm family. In November of 2021, Andrea's father had minor surgery and was sent to recover at a rehab facility. To Andrea's surprise, Shelley was at that facility to care for her father. Andrea knew at that point that with Shelley's care and compassion, her father would be in good hands.

"Congratulations again. I would now like to yield the floor to Senator Keohokalole."

Senator Keohokalole rose to present the following remarks:

"I have the distinguished honor of presenting the next Healthcare Hero, Lillian Lau, a registered nurse case manager at Oahu Home Healthcare. O'ahu resident Mark Kramer was told he might die if he did not receive treatment for his infected foot. He was urged to undergo a partial amputation in order to treat a severe infection. Mark wasn't willing to accept Civil War-era medicine in the 21st century, and insisted on antibiotic therapy instead.

"Mark met Lillian Lau after he was released from the hospital and qualified for nursing visits at home. Lillian made regular visits to help him recover and regain his strength. She provided all the right follow-up medical attention and treated him as a whole person, which he says made a huge difference in his recovery. Many months after his release, Kramer's feet are healed, and the infection has subsided. Mark said his ability to utilize Lillian's medical knowledge and lean on her emotionally took a big burden off of him during his recovery.

"Thank you very much for your work, and congratulations. I would now like to return the floor to the senator from Puna."

Senator San Buenaventura rose to present the following remarks:

"The final honoree to be recognized is Dr. Bernard Riola from the Hawai'i Health Systems Corporation, who was nominated for this award by Amber Ramsey of Kaua'i.

"As a single mother of a three-year-old, Amber had a particularly challenging situation during the pandemic. Dr. Riola's compassion, bedside manner, generosity, and patience should be commended. Dr. Riola took the time out of his busy schedule to answer all of Amber's questions and give guidance on what she needed to care for her toddler. As a result, when her son contracted COVID-19, she was incredibly prepared. Today, her son is healthy, and Amber feels empowered to handle whatever may come next. Amber says that 'Dr. Riola's compassion saved a three-year-old boy and his mother from feeling helpless during the pandemic.'

“Colleagues, I would like to again wholeheartedly thank all of our honorees for their significant contributions and care for their patients. It is truly an honor and privilege to acknowledge and recognize these Healthcare Heroes.

“Mr. President, I’d also like to acknowledge Hilton Raethel and the rest of the staff from the Healthcare Association of Hawaii who are in the gallery this morning. Please stand to be recognized.

“Mr. President, at the appropriate time, may we have a recess to greet our honored guests? And I now yield the floor back to you. Thank you.”

The Chair noted the day’s light agenda and announced that the Senate would conclude the agenda and adjourn, after which the members would greet the guests and take pictures.

ORDER OF THE DAY ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1434 (Gov. Msg. No. 533):

Senator McKelvey moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1434 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Gabbard and carried.

Senator McKelvey then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of MEOH-LENG SILLIMAN as Deputy Comptroller of the Department of Accounting and General Services, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Gabbard.

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Everybody, Ms. Silliman has committed a lifetime of service work in government. Prior to relocating to Hawai'i, a 10-year tenure at Manhattan District Attorney's Office was where she worked, including positions of deputy director of fiscal affairs and deputy director of operations. Her areas of responsibilities included program initiatives, fiscal management, automation, procurement, telecommunication, space planning, and facilities management. She has over 15 years of employment with the State of Hawai'i, over 12 years serving in the capacity of business management officer at both DCCA and DAGS, and over 2 years as a branch chief at the Department of Budget and Finance. Due to her comprehensive operational knowledge of the state processes and aspects of state government, businesses, and accounting processes, she has played an integral and critical role in ensuring that the transfer of knowledge from one administration to the next goes as smoothly as possible.

"She has a proven record of leadership as evidenced by the testimonials noting her leadership and mentoring skills. DAGS, being a central support agency, needs to be able to provide quality and consistency in the delivery of essential support services to other state departments and agencies. Ms. Silliman has acquired the technical knowledge and expertise about the operations and management of DAGS, and is therefore well qualified to support the comptroller in fulfilling the DAGS mission. Mr. President, she and the comptroller have worked well together as a team, and it's because of this teamwork I feel that she is qualified to serve in this capacity. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

FORTY-SECOND DAY

Friday, March 31, 2023

The Senate of the Thirty-Second Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2023, convened at 11:31 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Forty-First Day.

At this time, Senator Fukunaga honored the life and legacy of Dr. Franklin S. Odo, and presented the following remarks:

"I'd like to start this morning's introductions with a brief quote from Dr. Franklin Odo: 'If you don't control your own culture and your own vision of life, and your own participation in life, then you don't control anything. And that's what we're about. The true spirit of any kind of democracy is to have people be autonomous at the same time that they know that they're dependent on the community around them.' These comments were from a 1990 oral history interview with the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa Center for Oral History. Thirty-three years later, this statement rings true even more for us and for Hawai'i's future generations.

"Today, we're honoring the life and legacy of Dr. Franklin Odo, or Franklin, as he was known fondly by those he mentored, passed away at the end of 2022 after a lifetime dedicated to the community and public service. We're very honored to have with us this morning, as we remember his life and legacy, some of his family and colleagues. I'm going to introduce those of his family and colleagues who are on the floor with us, and I'd like to ask all of you to please rise and then remain standing. Thank you. First, we have David Odo, Franklin's son, who is director of academic and public programs at Harvard Art Museums. Next, we have Alan Odo, Franklin's brother, who has joined us from the island of Kaua'i. Next, we have Sarah Odo, Franklin's niece, who lives in Mililani. Next, we have Dr. Rod Labrador, Franklin's colleague, who is the professor and chair of the UH Ethnic Studies Department at the University of Hawai'i. And, finally, Dr. Davianna McGregor, Franklin's colleague, who is the professor and director of the UH Ethnic Studies Center for Oral History. I will now yield the floor to Senator Lee to introduce some of Franklin's colleagues and community leaders in the gallery with us today."

Senator Lee rose and stated:

"Thank you to all who are joining us this morning. Please stand to be recognized as I call out your names: Ty Tengan, professor at UH, ethnic studies; Noel Kent, retired professor of ethnic studies at UH; Ibrahim Aoude, professor, also at UH in ethnic studies; Bill Kaneko, Franklin's student and past president of JACL Honolulu; Reyna Kaneko, community leader and president, Japan-America Society of Hawaii; Mariko Miho, community leader and director, Sons and Daughters of the 442nd; Nate Gyotaku, community leader and president and executive director of the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawai'i; Liann Ebesugawa, community leader and past president of JACL; Minda Yamaga, community leader and president, JACL; Hanako Wakatsuki-Chong, community leader and superintendent of the National Park Service – Honouliuli National Historic Site. We appreciate your longtime commitment to social justice and your presence today. Congratulations, and thank you so much for joining us this morning. I yield the floor to Senator Inouye."

Senator Inouye rose to present the following remarks:

"Colleagues, for over 50 years, Dr. Franklin Odo was a nationally recognized scholar and professor of Asian American and ethnic studies. In the 1960s and the 1970s, Dr. Odo taught at Occidental College; the University of California, Los Angeles; and California State University, Long Beach.

"Dr. Odo returned to Hawai'i in 1978 to serve as director of the Ethnic Studies Program at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, where he was instrumental in elevating the program to department-level status. He lobbied the Hawai'i State Legislature and the University administration for faculty positions and resources to elevate the status and capacity for the program to fully teach, research, and explore race relations in Hawai'i in offering its first bachelor of arts degree. I yield the floor back to Senator Lee."

Senator Lee rose to present the following remarks:

"Franklin left academia in 1997 to serve as director of the Smithsonian Institute's Asian Pacific American Center. Between 1997 and 2010, he brought national attention and awareness of Pacific Asian American history, culture, and arts to the Smithsonian Institute and organized numerous exhibits, studies, and projects featuring the histories and experiences of Asian and Pacific Islander immigration, culture, and experiences in the United States. Franklin helped found the Honolulu chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League, and led a delegation of panelists to testify before the Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians. Franklin's efforts led to consideration and documentation of the wartime experiences of Japanese Americans interned in Hawai'i as part of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988. The act provided for $1.8 billion in appropriations and a presidential apology for the unlawful internment of Japanese Americans on the West Coast and in Hawai'i. I now yield the floor to Senator Fukunaga."

Senator Fukunaga rose to present the following remarks:

"Franklin's greatest legacy, however, will forever be embodied in his students. Over the years, he was a teacher, mentor, and friend to thousands of college students who were awakened and inspired by his experiential and activist teaching style. He challenged their way of thinking in evaluating events of the past and how those events were relevant to current-day events. He instilled in all of his students the need to create their own history in their own way.

"Members, we also have provided a copy of a recent Hawai'i Herald article that chronicles some of Franklin's legacy, and hope that you'll be able to enjoy many of the stories about Hawai'i's past. At the appropriate time, Mr. President, we will request a brief recess so that we might honor the Odo family and Franklin's colleagues who are here with us today. Thank you."

Senator Keohokalole rose and stated:

"In 2004, in the fall, I was heartbroken to find that my wife, who was my girlfriend at the time, elected to take on a lucrative and amazing opportunity to spend the semester in Washington, D.C., at the Smithsonian, and she worked for Dr. Odo during that time—eventually returned (I chased her) and we got together, but she was profoundly impacted by that experience. It shaped our family going forward. I'm really grateful to have all of you here today from ethnic studies and also the family to honor Dr. Odo, so thank you so much for joining us. Mahalo, Mr. President."

At 11:41 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:46 a.m.

ORDER OF THE DAY

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1435 (Gov. Msg. No. 509):

Senator Wakai moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1435 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Elefante and carried.

Senator Wakai then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of KENNETH HARA as Adjutant General of the Department of Defense, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Wakai rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"Kenneth Hara is battle-tested and deserves to continue to be our state adjutant general. When the state was trying to figure out how to deal with the onset of COVID, the state was blessed to have General Hara steering us through uncharted territory. Kenneth Hara assumed his duties as Hawai'i's adjutant general in December of 2019. Within months, COVID enveloped the planet, and General Hara was thrust into being incident commander. He oversaw a multi-agency effort to coordinate testing, contact tracing, and vaccination efforts across our islands. Under his leadership, Hawai'i was able to keep its infection rate well below nearly every other state in America. His leadership and understanding of the constantly evolving situation kept all of us safe. General Hara's leadership during the COVID crisis earned him widespread praise and recognition. In 2021, the U.S. military bestowed upon him its Legion of Merit for his exceptionally meritorious performance. Remember back in 2018, General Hara was appointed dual status commander for the Kilauea volcanic eruption and Hurricane Lane. He juggled those two natural disasters with ease. His track record is impeccable.

"General Hara joined the Hawaii Army National Guard in May of 1984. He has served active-duty assignments in Korea, Iraq, Kuwait, and Afghanistan. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his heroic service. Throughout his 38 years of military service, General Hara has contributed to improving essential mission services throughout the state of Hawai'i's National Guard, implemented new initiatives and programs, developed innovative strategies to address various civil challenges. Like many department heads, General Hara is facing increased public demands with inadequate staffing. He is currently assessing the entire organization and position descriptions to better align with the department's functions.

"Government needs to be prepared for catastrophic or man-made disasters. Major General Hara is a proven leader with a calm and steady leadership style. The best man for the job is already on the job. Colleagues, I ask that you support Kenneth Hara's nomination to continue as Hawai'i's adjutant general."

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"I do have comments that I'd like to enter into the Journal in totally great support and proud of our Hilo-born young man, and we're all pleased that he's come a long way and still extending his service to the people of Hawai'i. Mahalo."

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye's additional remarks read as follows:

"I have worked with Major General Kenneth Hara during the past administration and have always found him to be dedicated and passionate in his service to the State of Hawaii. Major General Hara has plenty of experience responding to several crises in Hawaii including the 2006 earthquake that struck Hawaii Island, the Kilauea volcanic eruption and Hurricane Lane responses in 2018, and he deftly navigated the COVID-19 pandemic by creating a roadmap for Hawaii's response plan to the pandemic. I am confident that Hawaii will be in safe hands with Major General Kenneth Hara leading the Hawaii Department of Defense."

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"I would say the words of Senator Wakai but too big, the words. General Hara was always willing not only to serve—I mean, I got here; I was pretty new. But whenever time I called him and I needed something in my district when it comes to the helicopters that is flying over Kapolei or 'Ewa Beach or blowing up something in Hale'iwa, up in that area, he would always have an answer, and he would always be able to answer the questions and the concerns of my community, so, again, colleagues, I totally support him. Thank you, Senate President."

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"I would just like to say that, living on a neighbor island like Moloka'i, our challenges has always been having access to air support, whether it was to bring over the Black Hawk chopper to have our communities understand how important they are to us as well as the commitment of the National Guard. He is that individual. I've had the opportunity to work with General Hara and his team, and I can tell you that he is always there to rise to the occasion. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"General Hara, at a time when everyone was stressed, held his composure and, like Senator Fevella and Senator DeCoite have said, has reached out and was always willing to attend town halls to ease the kinds of concerns we had during the pandemic. At a time when a lot of leaders have shown their stress and have been short with us, General Hara had held his composure and his patience, and for those reasons, I am in gratitude, and I strongly support him."

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"I don't support General Hara just because he lives in my district. During COVID, the COVID committee met with many directors, and we often felt that General Hara was almost held back from doing the best that he could do to help Hawai'i, but he really helped make sure that we could steer the ship during COVID. We really appreciate all of his time and effort. I go walking every Saturday in Mililani Mauka, and I see him running. And now I know why he had to run: because he had to work to fit into that suit. But strong support. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

The Chair made the following comments:

"I thought, when Senator Dela Cruz rose, he was going to terminate my feeling the need to speak, but I want it entered into the record that Senator Dela Cruz called every department head into the Ways and Means conference room at the onset of the pandemic, and I, like many others, thought that maybe this would be a month, perhaps two, and we would be past this like other disasters, weather-related, that have hit us. And when Senator Dela Cruz asked, 'Who has a plan?', General Hara was one of only two cabinet members who stepped forward, and he had modified the Washington state plan to fit Hawai'i, and he was prepared. He clearly understood the severity of the situation we were about to face, and he was ready to serve, and I think it's important that this be in the Senate Journal as to acknowledge your action and our gratitude for you being prepared and, as others have said, seeing us through an incredibly difficult time."

Senator Wakai introduced Adjutant General Kenneth Hara, who was present in the gallery with his wife, Myoung; son Justin; brother, retired major general Gary Hara, and his wife, Dianne; and General Stephen Logan.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1436 (Gov. Msg. No. 510):

Senator Wakai moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1436 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Elefante and carried.

Senator Wakai then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of JORDAN LOWE as Director of the Department of Law Enforcement, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Wakai rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"Senators, we go from the Department of Defense that benefits from continuity in leadership to one just being established. Jordan Lowe will be an outstanding founding father of the new Department of Law Enforcement. During his confirmation hearing, I referred to him as the George Washington of DLE, and, in fact, look: There's an effort to put his face on a dollar bill. That'll be for another confirmation. He has four decades of law enforcement experience with the feds, state, and county. If you scoured the Earth, you would not find a person better to lead this new agency.

"Mr. Lowe is uniquely qualified to do everything: to find criminals, chase them down, and bring them to justice. He has a degree in accounting with skills to conduct high-risk audits within the Internal Revenue Service. He was also responsible for conducting U.S. congressional inquiries within the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives. Jordan Lowe has conducted hundreds of complex investigations relating to narcotics and organized crime. Those experiences included the state Department of Taxation, Department of Public Safety, and the Honolulu prosecutor's office. His array of assignments required him to work closely with other law enforcement agencies, where he established close relationships with their departments' leadership.

"That's his illustrious past, but what does he have for us for the future? Mr. Lowe is already working on lease agreements for department headquarters, increasing pay for sheriffs, updating outdated equipment and technology, and embarked on an intensive recruiting plan to fill vacancies. He is widely hailed as a respected leader. The Sheriffs Division has been moved from the Department of Public Safety to DLE. In the past, some of us may know this was kind of a dysfunctional group of officers, but in the past two years, Mr. Lowe has dramatically reduced the number of grievances filed by sheriffs against the administrators.

"In life, we are told to aim high. Colleagues, in this case, I ask you to set your sights low—on Jordan Lowe. He has a bulletproof résumé that will contribute to a safer and more secure Hawai'i. Let's vote in favor of Jordan 'George Washington' Lowe to be the first director of the Department of Law Enforcement."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Wakai introduced Director Jordan Lowe, who was present in the gallery with his wife, Lynne, and son Ryan.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1437 (Gov. Msg. No. 501):

Senator Gabbard moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1437 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Richards and carried.

Senator Gabbard then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of SHARON HURD as Chairperson of the Department of Agriculture, term to expire at noon on December 31, 2026, seconded by Senator Richards.

Senator Gabbard rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"Colleagues, Sharon Hurd has 16 years of experience with the Department of Agriculture and recently as business development program manager. She has a keen knowledge of state and federal agricultural policy, administration, and a strong passion for improving Hawai'i state agriculture. I find her to be intelligent, caring, capable, and committed to doing what's best for our state in the agriculture arena. And, by the way, colleagues, I was glad to see so much support for our agriculture bills last session here at the Leg, but, obviously, there's still much more work we can do if we're ever going to decrease our dependence on imported food.

"I believe that Sharon's vision and leadership will help take us there. While testifying on bills and during her Senate committee hearing, Sharon listed among her priorities implementing Act 90 and working with the Department of Land and Natural Resources and the Agribusiness Development Corporation on securing and upgrading the Wahiawa Dam. As chairperson for the state Department of Ag, Sharon has said that she will work with each senator and representative to seek support for these priorities to move Hawai'i agriculture operations into commercial production. There were more than 186 supporting testimonies, including every major agriculture, livestock, and floriculture association. I've been truly impressed with Sharon's enthusiasm and her vision for the future of ag in Hawai'i. And here's a brief quote from her personal statement that encapsulates her positive attitude. Sharon wrote, 'There is nothing that is wrong with the Department of Agriculture that cannot be remedied by what is right with the Department of Agriculture.' So, colleagues, I ask you to join me in supporting Governor's Message 501. Mahalo."

Senator Richards rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"I wanted to compliment the director of Department of Agriculture, Sharon Hurd, the nominee. She started out slow from the blocks, as we all know, but she has pushed hard and gleaned the support of cross industries in the agriculture world. Her efforts are exemplary. She's reached out, built bridges with DLNR, and I fully support her going forward because we're going to make a difference with this director. Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"I'd just like to say, when many had refused to acknowledge that Sharon Hurd would have even had a chance to become the director or put forward, she took the time to go out to the different ranches and the different farms, and, as she came before WAM and she was questioned, I thought she had the most dirty lickings I've ever seen, and she rebounded from that. She has put Act 90 on the front burner and the transfer of those lands and to work directly with the DLNR nominee. I look forward to working with her, and she has literally peeled many of those fires that were brewing for many, many years, and I think she'll make an excellent director. For that reason, I'm in strong support, Mr. President."

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

"I would like to echo the words of the previous speaker, very much so, and I think it's a message that should be perhaps taken to heart by others that are going to come before this body. Despite the rough start and everything, she's really stepped up to the challenge, gotten to know her department, gotten to know the issues, and has set a direction of policy. She understands that she is the director as of the here and now, and has gone forward beyond just having dialogue and actually implementing things. And to see these parties who were often at each other's crossroads, if you will, in opposite views, coming together to support her also speaks volumes, so thank you very much."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Gabbard introduced Chairperson Sharon Hurd, who was present in the gallery with her husband, George, and son George.

The Chair acknowledged Chairperson Hurd's nephew Ryan Sakuda.

ORDER OF THE DAY

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1482 (Gov. Msg. No. 504):

Senator DeCoite moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1482 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Wakai and carried.

Senator DeCoite then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of MARK GLICK as Chief Energy Officer of the Hawai'i State Energy Office, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Wakai.

Senator Fevella rose to speak in opposition to the nominee as follows:

"Colleagues, the nominee came before the committee, and I had concerns of the ongoing pursuit of offshore wind turbines and the need for more solar farms on ag land and not having an opportunity to close down our landfills in our community and not having the opportunity of having the energy chair to look into another alternative of having a waste-to-energy plant. We continue to kick the can down the road, and I don't want to use the word 'impressed,' but I continue to look in my community, where I'm very in tune in my community, how, when they tell me they're in opposition to something, I try to be the voice in their chamber. Having these solar farms on Makakilo mountain, trying to put windmills on top of Camp Pālehua—all of these things that is trying to be put in into our community is not pono. There should be a better solution. We should be holding the City and County of Honolulu more accountable because they pick and choose how to burn their rubbish, and they never, ever found a new area for a new landfill. So, again, we need somebody that's going to come and give more innovations and not same creations of windmills and solar farms that are not helping nobody because none of that is firm energy; my colleague, Senator Dela Cruz, always talks about firm energy. Now the Hawaiian Electric is putting out a proposal for firm energy. Before that, we never had that, and I didn't see anything in his plan or his comprehensive plan that he's going to be pursuing any of that, and that's the reason why I'm in opposition. Thank you, Senate President."

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"As chair of your Committee on Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism, I carefully reviewed Mr. Glick's personal history, résumé, and statement along with my EET committee members. He received 53 pieces of testimony, all in support, which specified his various skills and strengths. Upon review of the testimony, your Committee finds that Mr. Glick's professional background, knowledge of energy policy, and experience in the development of projects for the private and public sectors qualify him for appointment as the chief energy officer of the Hawai'i State Energy Office.

"His experience in public service in the state spans nearly two decades. Having served in several capacities and multiple state agencies, most recently, he served as a specialist on energy policy and innovation at the University of Hawai'i's Hawai'i Natural Energy Institute, where he led the Hawai'i Energy Policy Forum and Hawai'i Natural Energy Institute's energy policy practice in support of energy transitions and decarbonization efforts in the state through projects, publications, technical assistance, and consulting. Furthermore, Mr. Glick previously served as the Hawai'i State Energy Office's energy administrator and as an energy project manager and senior advisor. During his previous roles with the Hawai'i State Energy Office, he contributed to the drafting of Hawai'i's 100 percent renewable portfolio standard goal and helped the state exceed its 2015 interim renewable portfolio and energy-efficiency portfolio standards by nearly 10 percent. He also managed over $9 million in federally funded projects to increase the number of renewable energy and energy-efficiency installations in the state.

"Prior to his work in the public sector in Hawai'i, he co-founded and led a business system integration and consulting firm in Austin, Texas, that was dedicated to establishing alternative fuel transportation and pioneered efforts. Your Committee believes that Mr. Glick's work experience in both the public and private sectors demonstrate his ability to be an effective leader and provide guidance on clean energy infrastructure as a catalyst for economic growth and energy security. He brings more than 40 years of experience working with energy issues and has published exclusively on the topic. He holds a bachelor of arts in mathematics from Lamar University and a master of science in public management and policy from Carnegie Mellon University and has authored more than 10 publications on energy issues since 2000. Additionally, Mr. Glick has testified before the Hawai'i Legislature on more than 200 legislative proposals relating to energy, economic development, and the environment, and was the Hawai'i state energy administrator before the United States Senate Energy Subcommittee on issues such as energy and infrastructure challenges in the state and suggested actions the federal government could take to support job creation and innovation at the state and local level. His wealth of subject-matter expertise gives your Committee great confidence that he will serve the state well as chief energy officer and provide the Hawai'i State Energy Office excellent policy guidance on clean energy infrastructure to help the state reach its renewable energy goals.

"I would also like to add that Mr. Glick personally attended the second annual Molokai Community Resource Fair and met with many residents on the Friendly Isle who were very friendly to him, and he actually engaged them. I deeply appreciate the time he took to fly over for the day. It made a big impact on a rural community, and I am very thankful. Based on this information, Mr. President, I ask for your support on the decision made by your Committee on Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism to advise and consent on this nominee. I ask that my colleagues support. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Awa, Fevella).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1483 (Gov. Msg. No. 534):

Senator DeCoite moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1483 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Wakai and carried.

Senator DeCoite then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DANE WICKER as Deputy Director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, term to expire December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Wakai.

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"As chair of your Committee on Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism, I carefully reviewed Mr. Wicker's personal history, résumé, and statement along with my EET committee members. He received 93 pieces of testimony, all in support, which specified his various skills and strengths. Upon review of the testimony, your Committee finds that Mr. Wicker's background, government work experience, and business knowledge qualify him for appointment as the deputy director of the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism.

"Mr. Wicker has over a decade of experience and understanding of government and its processes, budgeting, and public policy. He previously served as chief of staff and committee clerk to the chairperson of the Senate's Committee on Ways and Means for 11 years, where he gained valuable experience with budgets, economic development, office management, and governmental administrative procedures. Mr. Wicker further directed the operating and capital improvement projects and oversaw the review of the governor's executive operating budget of approximately $16 billion. Your Committee believes that Mr. Wicker's understanding of departmental operations, the budgeting process, and financial impact analysis will be invaluable to the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism and its attached agencies to prepare for their budget briefings, and will be crucial to assist the department in revitalizing and diversifying the state's economy.

"Your Committee further finds that, most recently, Mr. Wicker served as an executive assistant at the Department of Planning and Permitting for the City and County of Honolulu, where he coordinated and communicated administrative decisions, work programs, budgets, and objectives to all stakeholders. Mr. Wicker also previously served as assistant to the director of Pacific Asian studies at the University of Hawai'i's East-West Center, where he pursued federal grants and supported the creation of programs in schools to spread awareness of climate change. Having worked at both the state and county levels of government, your Committee believes that Mr. Wicker has acquired the necessary leadership and professional attributes that will enable him to serve the state and community well at the departmental level.

“Mr. Wicker also holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science from the University of Hawai‘i at West O‘ahu and is currently pursuing a master’s in urban and regional planning from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa. Additionally, he is a small business owner and operates businesses in retail and farming. Your Committee believes that Mr. Wicker’s business experience and his current efforts to further his education by attaining a master’s degree are indicative of his desire to continually challenge and improve himself. These qualities demonstrate that Mr. Wicker will make an excellent leader at the Department of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, where he will be required to think productively and innovate to move the department forward in a positive manner. Based on this information, Mr. President, I ask for your support as well as my colleagues’ in the decision made by your Committee on Energy, Economic Development, and Tourism to advise and consent on this nominee. Mahalo.”

Senator Dela Cruz rose to seek a ruling on a potential conflict of interest as follows:

“The nominee and I own a māmaki tea farm.”

The Chair responded:

“Since there is no direct appropriation related to this that would be of a direct financial benefit to you or Mr. Wicker, there would be no conflict on this vote. If it’s about the 11-year relationship, he’s worked for me, as the president, a majority of those years, and I don’t feel I have any conflict in voting on Mr. Wicker’s nomination.”

Senator Keohokalole rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“As someone who the nominee has never worked for, I would like to just voice my strong support for the confirmation of Dane Wicker as deputy director. Having come to know and work with him over my five years in the Senate—not as a member in any of those years of the Ways and Means committee, I don’t own any businesses, he doesn’t live in my district—there’s no personal connection other than the one that I’ve gained through working with him as a member of the Senate, and I can tell you that we have a desperate shortage of leaders with energy who are responsive and can help us get things done. That’s all I’ve known him to do, especially during our tenure as members of the Special Committee on COVID-19, where he was a fundamental part of making sure we were organized and doing the people’s business. I’m really happy that he stepped forward. I thought it was a loss for us in the Senate when he left the Ways and Means committee, and I enthusiastically support his nomination. Thank you.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“In the short time that I’ve been here, he’s just a breath of fresh air. I’ve never seen anybody so prepared in coming to a committee hearing or info briefing and giving us his full scope of, not only his job, but the job that he wants to accomplish in his position. Knowing him through the task force and through Ways and Means and pretty much no other connection because I’m still new here, but he was just always professional and always willing to do the job and get the job done. And I’m very happy for him that he is moving on, but also I was one of the other ones that was very sad that he did leave because of his great works and great into detailing and always having an ear when you have questions on certain CIPs or certain bills; he was always there to guide us and keep us informed, so I’m in strong support, Senate President. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator DeCoite introduced Deputy Director Dane Wicker, who was present in the gallery.

RE-REFERRAL OF A HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Chair re-referred the following House concurrent resolution that was received:

H.C.R. No.: Re-referred to:

H.C.R. No. 139, Committee on Housing
H.D. 1

At this time, Senator Keohokalole, Chair of the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection, requested a waiver of the public notice requirement pursuant to Senate Rule 21 for H.B. No. 1509, H.D. 2.

Senator Keohokalole noted:

“The reason is, after reconsidering scheduling, I think it is necessary that we keep the conversation on this measure going and move on into conference.”

The Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Keohokalole announced that the Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection would be holding a public hearing on the measure on Wednesday, April 5, 2023, at 10:15 a.m. in Conference Room 229.

The Chair extended his congratulations to the LSU women’s basketball team, which had won the national championship over Iowa by 17 points the day before. The Chair noted that the Rainbow Wahine basketball team had opened the tournament by traveling to LSU and losing by about 20 points. The Chair stated that, in light of what LSU had accomplished, Coach Beeman and the Rainbow Wahine, with their injury-shortened lineup, had represented Hawai‘i well.

Senator Chang stated that he and Senator Lee had had a great conversation with the students that morning, and that some of them may be sitting in Senate seats before too long.

The Chair commented, in good humor, that hopefully the students would choose to reside in Senate District 24 or 25 and not branch out.

On behalf of Senate President Kouchi, Senator DeCoite introduced constituents who were involved with Boys & Girls Club. Seated in the galley were Kaua'i High School ninth grader David Braman; Kaua'i High School tenth grader Nainoa Hirokane; Kaua'i High School tenth grader Michaela Alcaraz; staff member Dallas Albao; and clubhouse director Asaka Herman.

“Colleagues, today we are pleased to acknowledge the finalists for the 2023 Boys & Girls Club of Hawaii State Youth of the Year. The Youth of the Year program, which takes place annually, recognizes exceptional teenagers for their commendable choices and positive behavior. This distinguished program emphasizes the development of character and leadership skills while celebrating the service of club members to their club, community, and family. It also highlights academic performance, ethical values, life goals, poise, and public-speaking ability. The program's primary objective is to cultivate the personal growth and leadership abilities of young people. By recognizing their service and leadership qualities, the Boys & Girls Club of Hawaii Youth of the Year program encourages teens to continue making positive contributions to their communities. It's an opportunity for outstanding teens to be recognized for their achievements and inspire others to strive for excellence. To start off today's recognition, I would like to yield the floor to our colleague from 'Ewa Beach, who will introduce our first Youth of the Year finalist.”

Senator Fevella rose to present the following remarks:

“Colleagues, I have the great pleasure of introducing our first Youth of the Year finalist, hails from 96706—south 'Ewa Beach—Melanie McLean. As a sophomore at James Campbell High School and a representative of Boys & Girls Club of Hawaii Hale Pono Clubhouse, Melanie is very involved in our 'Ewa Beach community and assisting with various volunteers such as parking lot detail, which is very important in our community because we have no parking—not yet, though, not yet—volunteering at the parking lot for James Campbell High School football games, organizing food drives with her church, helping with renovations and upkeep and cleaning up of the Boys & Girls Club, and participating in the junior leader intercession programs. She's a bright young woman with a grade point average of 3.6 who participates in the Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (Navy JROTC) and advancement via individual determination (or AVID) programs, both of which are designed to prepare students for college life beyond high school. Melanie is also an active member of various clubs, including leadership training, and, again, I just wanted to thank her for being one of the finalists for Youth of the Year. I now yield the floor to Senator McKelvey.”

Senator McKelvey rose to present the following remarks:

“I am pleased to introduce to you and the members our second Youth of the Year finalist. Hailing from West Maui and representing the Boys & Girls Club of Maui Lahaina Clubhouse is Arissa Kahaiali'i of the esteemed Kaiali'i 'ohana—please stand. Arissa actively participates in various community service activities, including the Maui Teen Expo planning committee, the Lā 'Ohana Thank You First Responders Event, and several events as a member of the Boys & Girls Club of Lahaina Clubhouse. Not only are Arissa's academic achievements impressive with a 3.4 GPA, but she also serves as the trombone section leader in the Kamehameha Schools Maui band. She is a Maui Interscholastic League athlete in swimming, water polo, and volleyball as well, and Arissa's dedication and commitment extend beyond her community service and academic pursuits. She's an active member of the Boys & Girls Club of Maui, participating in Torch Club, Keystone, SMART Girls, Power Hour, Project Learn, UPS Road Code, and Leaders in Training. She was also recognized as Lahaina Clubhouse Youth of the Month for August in 2022, and was named 2023 Boys & Girls Club of Maui Youth of the Year.

Mr. President, Alia is a high school senior at Moanalua High School who is committed to serving her community and peers. Alia currently holds multiple leadership roles in the Torch Club, the youth center, and is the president of the Keystone Club. Furthermore, Alia serves as an ambassador for the World Language Learning Center, and played an instrumental role in launching the Be a Star program at Fort Shafter. Her passion for volunteering is evident through her 165 hours of community service at the teen center, where she, through her 165 hours, enjoys participating in art and cooking projects. Alia is an exemplary student leader, and I wish her the best of luck in this year's Youth of the Year competition. Now, I'd like to yield the floor to my neighbor from Senate District 15."

Senator Wakai rose to present the following remarks:

"Colleagues, our last finalist competing in the Youth of the Year competition is Madeline Myers—Madeline, if you could please stand? Madeline is representing the Joint Base Pearl Harbor—Hickam Teen Center. She actively participates in her community and holds the position of vice president in the Keystone Club, where she collaborates with her peers to organize community events and other activities at the teen center. Apart from her exceptional volunteer work, Madeline has also showcased her talents by competing and winning in two categories at the local level of the Boys & Girls Club of America National Arts competition. Additionally, she is a member of various clubs, such as the cooking club and the Dungeons & Dragons club. Colleagues, please join me in congratulating our last Youth of the Year finalist, Madeline Myers. Mr. President, I now yield the floor back to our esteemed majority leader."

Senator Kanuha rose and stated:

"Mr. President, before we end, I would like to draw attention to some esteemed guests who have joined us in the gallery. These are students who participated in the Youth of the Year competition on their own respective islands, and I know some of them have already been recognized. As you are well aware, this is a highly competitive event, and all of the students who competed are exceptional in their own right. Could I ask that all of our Youth of the Year honorees who are present in the chamber today please stand and be recognized? Mahalo for being here, and mahalo to the finalists that we have on the floor. Mr. President, I request a recess at the appropriate time so that we can have the privilege of meeting our distinguished guests."

The Chair made the following comments:

"Before calling for the recess, I had the opportunity and pleasure of going to the Auditorium this morning and hearing the finalists make their presentations from the Auditorium stage. Ms. Myers was first, and we ended with Ms. McLean. The first three used the microphone, like most of us are doing here this morning, but Ms. McLean announced to the audience that she had a powerful voice and a microphone was not needed, which, based on my experience with Senator Fevella, seems to be a trait of the 'Ewa Beach area. They were all excellent in their presentations, and I do not envy the judges in having to determine which is going to be the ultimate winner."

At 11:49 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:54 a.m.

“This resolution would urge Hawaiian congressional delegation to reintroduce and support the passage of the Hawaiian Home Lands Preservation Act. This is an important resolution that would recognize the need to address the historical injustice that had been inflicted on the Native Hawaiians and to ensure that they have an access to the land that was rightfully ours. For a long time, Hawaiian home land programs has been hindered by the strict blood quantum requirements. They have made it difficult for many Hawaiians to access the program and benefits. I would like to clarify that this resolution does not lower the blood quantum to get on the waitlist but lowers the blood quantum for Hawaiians to inherit the land that has been passed on to them by lowering the minimum blood quantum from one-quarter to one-thirty-second. The Hawaiian Home Lands Preservation Act would help address these issues to provide a greater opportunity for Hawaiians to connect with their ancestral lands. I urge you, my colleagues, to please support S.C.R. 104, S.R. 93 and join me in calling on Hawaiian congressional delegates to reintroduce and support the passage of Hawaiian Home Lands Preservation Act. Let us all together right the wrong of the past and ensure that Hawaiians have access to the land that is rightfully ours. Thank you, Senate President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 104, S.D. 1, entitled: “SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING HAWAII’S CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION TO RE-INTRODUCE AND SUPPORT THE PASSAGE OF THE HAWAIIAN HOME LANDS PRESERVATION ACT, H.R. Senator Wakai moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1656 and S.C.R. No. 92 be adopted, seconded by Senator DeCoite.

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, these are resolutions—they're not even bills, but resolutions urging respective departments to establish and implement a five-year pilot program to mitigate and control the significant increase in the population of feral chickens, roosters, and pigs. Mr. President, the top four issues of my constituents of Moanalua and Kalihi that have been raised during the campaign and again in my community surveys mailed out to the entire district were the Red Hill water contamination, rock falls, low-flying helicopters, and feral chickens. Sixty percent of the survey respondents said their neighborhoods were affected by feral chickens. One of them suggested that the state provide free traps to the public to capture feral animals on their property since the city program only applies to public property. I also have other comments in my community bulletin regarding feral chickens, and one of them stated, 'One way to control them is by animal control team, but no one does anything anyway, so why even ask the question.'

"Mr. President, these feral chickens have multiplied and have become a nuisance. They also carry diseases that threaten other animals and our native birds. I know you all know this because this problem is island-wide. Many bills were introduced last year and this year only to die in committee, which is why this resolution is important. I want to thank the Ways and Means committee for including $5 million in the budget for feral chickens early on in the budget process.

"Mr. President, you know, I will continue, as I have in my tenure as an elected official, to advocate for my district and do all that I can to help the people no matter what district they reside in when they are crying out for help on state issues that we have jurisdiction. There is nothing nefarious about this measure being reconsidered, Mr. President. Rule 66, Motion for Reconsideration, is part of our rules, and I'm sure that there is not anyone on here, in this body, that has ever not reconsidered the vote that they have taken.

"And, finally, Mr. President, having served on this body for 21 years, I've come to the conclusion that you don't get angry over any of your bills because it's dying because if you did, you'd be angry all the time, so I never get angry about a bill going down, but I do advocate and will continue to advocate for my constituents. Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the report of the Committee was adopted and S.C.R. No. 92, entitled: "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, DEPARTMENT OF LAND AND NATURAL RESOURCES, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, THE CITY AND COUNTY OF HONOLULU, AND THE COUNTY OF HAWAII, TO COLLABORATE TO ESTABLISH AND IMPLEMENT A FIVE-YEAR PILOT PROGRAM TO MITIGATE AND CONTROL THE SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN THE POPULATION OF FERAL CHICKENS, ROOSTERS, AND PIGS," was adopted, with Senator Awa voting "No."

Senator Kim rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, in order for anything to get passed in this body, you must have a majority to prevail—that’s democracy. And I know this is a civic lesson review, but we are elected by our districts to be their voice and to be effective. We do so, we inform, we educate, and we try to influence our colleagues in order to advocate for our constituents. When you campaign door to door, members, you put up signs, you wave signs, you pass out swag—you are guilty of influencing voters to vote for you. The public send in testimony hoping to influence us to vote for or against a measure. Unions, nonprofits, business, the general public call our offices, send in testimony, ask to meet with us, all trying to inform, educate, and influence our vote. Whenever any of you stand up on this floor and make a speech for or against a measure, you have a purpose. You often end your remarks by urging the body to vote for or against. Thus, you are guilty of using your influence (what little you may have) to sway members with your arguments and with your reasoning.

“According to the Internet, influential people move through life with a purpose; they focus on ways to create the impact they wish to have and achieve the outcomes they are aiming for. They give constructive feedback and show appreciation for hard work. So, Mr. President, I have been accused of using my influence, but according to my data, I have had more bills die and don’t get heard or passed, so so much for using what little influence I have. Thank you, Mr. President.”

At 12:11 p.m., on motion by Senator Wakai, seconded by Senator DeCoite and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Thursday, April 6, 2023.

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1708 (Gov. Msg. No. 516):

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1708 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Elefante and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of DAWN CHANG as Chairperson of the Department of Land and Natural Resources, term to expire December 31, 2026, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Dawn Chang has demonstrated extraordinary leadership skills during her brief time as DLNR chairperson. She has shown a willingness to work with others, including the Legislature, other departments, and community stakeholders—even those who do not agree with her positions. Dawn has repeatedly emphasized that her process will always include making sure others are heard.

“Chairperson Chang is highly qualified for the position she has been nominated to. For slightly more than 10 years, Dawn was the principal of her own consulting company, Ku’iwalu, a firm that worked on strategic planning and facilitating culturally sensitive issues for public- and private-sector projects. Dawn was also a ‘seasoned team’ member of Accord3.0, which provided strategic consulting services to ‘engage in complex, multi-party problem-solving’ tackling difficult problems in areas such as partnership development, facilitation, planning, conflict assessment, and management strategies.

“She gained her knowledge and experience by also serving as the state land use commissioner from 2016 to 2022. A graduate of the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai’i, she has had numerous opportunities to apply her legal knowledge and experience to her professional résumé through the years. This included her years serving as a deputy attorney general for the State of Hawai’i and a law clerk for the Honorable Judge Walter M. Heen. Today, with her legal background, Dawn is able to use that knowledge when making decisions in both her private- and public-sector occupations.

“Dawn has a passion for working on hard issues. She stated, ‘As a Native Hawaiian woman, lawyer, community organizer, and someone who is working on “hard issues” involving the Native Hawaiian community, the time is right for healing.’

“It has been a privilege to work with Dawn Chang as chair and member of the Water and Land committee over these four months to help improve the state’s natural and cultural resources. Whether it be advocating for the preservation of Hawai’i’s precious marine ecosystems; managing water and land resources; or preserving the island’s fragile forests, fauna, and native wildlife, Dawn is there to listen to and engage with the community and all stakeholders before making decisions that impact the future of our communities and the Hawaiian islands. She is known for engaging with local communities and stakeholders by visiting them at their locations to understand the issues that concern them; whether it be in Hilo, Līhū’e, Maui, or Wai’anae, Dawn is there!

“I look forward to working with Dawn Chang in the coming weeks and months. She is an excellent fit for the Department of Land and Natural Resources as its chair and leader. Mr. President and members, my strong recommendation to the Senate is to support and vote in favor of our nominee, Dawn Chang (G.M. 516) to be the chairperson for the Department of Land and Natural Resources. Thank you, Mr. President. Thank you, colleagues.”

Senator Richards rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“I wanted to extend my strong support for Dawn Chang as being the DLNR chair. In the last several months, we’ve been working together, and this is the first time in my business career here within the state I’ve seen a cohesiveness between DLNR and DOA trying to work forward to establish and reestablish and promote agriculture going forward. Because of that and her word given she’ll be working hard to promote this, I’m supporting her. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“I’ve had the opportunity to work with Dawn many years back when she also came into our communities on the restoration of East Maui water and she met with many of our Native Hawaiian communities. I have known her to be upfront and honest and to work diligently on many of the subject matters between agriculture and aquaculture and forestry and environmental issues. I look forward to working with her, and I look forward to her being the first Native Hawaiian woman to serve in this capacity. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Kanuha rose to request that remarks in support of the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Kanuha’s remarks read as follows:

“I am proud to stand in strong support of Dawn Chang’s nomination to serve as Chairperson of the Department of Land and Natural Resources. Ms. Chang is a Native Hawaiian, born and raised in Hawai’i, that truly understands the unique historical, cultural, and contemporary value of our State’s land and ocean resources. Through her extensive experience, Ms. Chang has proven, time and time again, her ability to empower local communities to steward the preservation of their own communities.

“Throughout this process, I have found Ms. Chang’s tenacity and grit admirable in the face of adversity. Her commitment to expediently facilitate the transfer of non-agricultural park lands from the Department of Land and Natural Resources to the Department of Agriculture, pursuant to Act 90, Session Laws of Hawaii 2003, is especially compelling, as I believe her strong ability to connect with people from all walks of life will greatly improve collaboration between the Department of Land and Natural Resources, the Department of Agriculture, and lessees.

“For these reasons, colleagues, I firmly believe Dawn Chang will be an important asset to the State of Hawai‘i in the coming years, and I urge you to join me in voting for her confirmation to serve as Chairperson of the Department of Land and Natural Resources.”

Senator Awa rose to seek a ruling on a potential conflict of interest as follows:

“Dawn Chang and I are cousins.”

The Chair asked Senator Awa if he had any direct business dealings that would result in any financial benefit, and Senator Awa replied that he did not.

The Chair ruled that there was no conflict. The Chair added that, in the future, any individual situation that may arise would be looked at, but for now, there was no conflict.

Senator Awa continued, speaking in support of the nominee as follows:

“Even in our family, there’s people with reservations. In our communities, people with reservations, but for the past four months, like the other senator said, Dawn’s been nothing but helpful in our community and working with us and our problems. She’s been out couple times to District 23 and we’re getting stuff done, so look forward to what she can do in the role coming up. Mahalo.”

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“I’m rising because I did go with reservations on the committee of the nomination, not because of qualifications of the nominee whatsoever. I am going to stand in support, but it’s important that the record and everybody know that what I brought up in that committee hearing still stands. I’m trusting on her—when she first came into this role, there was a lot of opposition (I think I noted that), and in the time, she’s taken it head on. But there’s more work to be done, and I’m relying on her to reestablish a safe working environment and much-needed change in the different divisions within the DLNR. I’m hopeful that she will continue with her deputy to take these issues head on, but they remain, Mr. President, and so I think I have to note them for the public and for the record, and I’m hopeful that she will continue to do what she did—is doing—and will take this head on and not let the status quo remain. So thank you, and congratulations again.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23; Ayes with Reservations (Ihara, San Buenaventura, Shimabukuro). Noes, 1 (Fukunaga). Excused, 1 (Fevella).

Senator Inouye introduced Chairperson Dawn Chang, the first Native Hawaiian woman to lead the Department of Land and Natural Resources, who was present in the gallery with her daughter Dayna Williams, Dayna’s husband, Kahea, and their children Olivia and Harry; her sons Kaulana Chang and Kapono Chang, and Kapono’s wife, Monica; and her assistant Kanani Kealalio. Senator Inouye then acknowledged members of her staff: Tammie Kotani and Brad Knowlton.

Senator Inouye requested that, at the appropriate time, the members visit with the newly confirmed chairperson.

The Chair replied that he did not believe it would be long and that they would greet the new chair after adjournment.

The Chair then recognized supporters of Chairperson Chang from the Department of Land and Natural Resources who were present in the gallery.

Senator Gabbard rose to request that remarks in strong support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Gabbard's remarks read as follows:

"Senator Mike Gabbard's Journal Remarks on HB308 HD1 SD2

"(Sustainable Food Systems Working Group) – June 12, 2023

"Colleagues, we keep complaining ad nauseam about how we import 85-90% of our food at cost of $3 billion annually, and why aren't we doing more to fix the problem. We know there's plenty of agriculture land available...we know about the importance of supporting local agriculture... and we want to do so in a way that's sustainable.

"But where's the plan? We've got to have a plan.

"In my seven years as Agriculture and Environment Chair, House Bill 308 is the best opportunity I've seen to solve this nagging problem in local agriculture. I'd like to give a strong shout out and mahalo to Dr. Albie Miles for bringing this idea to me and the countless hours of work he's put into it.

"HB308 would establish a sustainable food systems 'working group' within the Department of Agriculture. The purpose of this working group would be to develop an interagency food systems plan linked to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals for a more sustainable, resilient local food economy that enhances and sustains the environmental, economic, and social health of the community.

"What Is a sustainable food system, you may ask?

"A sustainable food system is defined as one in which producers, retailers, members of the community, non-governmental organizations, and government agencies partner to create a vibrant and resilient local food economy that enhances and sustains the environmental, economic, and social health of the community.

"HB308 would require a working group to come up with and submit a plan with recommendations for implementation, including any proposed legislation to the legislature. As mentioned, the plan would be aligned with the 2015 United Nations 17 SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals.)

"HB308 would appropriate funds to establish the working group and develop the plan and for an unspecified number of sustainability specialist positions to be employed by the Department of Agriculture, along with $100K-$120K /year for a Professional Facilitator to facilitate the group. This bill is my number one priority this session, and I'm asking for your support. Unfortunately, the companion bill, SB420 did not pass. With HB308, we have another opportunity to move local agriculture forward in Hawai'i nei.

"HB308 received strong support from members of the community, along with numerous stakeholders and individuals; including Anna Wiczorek, Interim Dean College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources and Michael Bruno, Provost University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, who recognized the value of such a plan. Like other island states, we know Hawai'i is particularly vulnerable to natural and human disasters that stand to seriously threaten our food security. Creating a plan to ensure a more sustainable food system is more important now than ever.

"Please join me in supporting this important bill. Mahalo."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1603 was adopted and H.B. No. 308, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SUSTAINABLE FOOD SYSTEMS," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

So, yes, the toffee has been delivered, and mahalo, Dru, for all you do for the Senate, your district, and our state. Give him a hand, please."

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

Tuesday, April 11, 2023

The Senate of the Thirty-Second Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2023, convened at 10:03 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present, with the exception of Senator Keohokalole who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Forty-Sixth Day.

At this time, Senator Ihara introduced Mike and Laura Crimmins from Prescott, Arizona, the parents of his legislative aide, Megan Crimmins, who was accompanying them in the gallery.

The Chair stated:

"Before we start today's agenda: We have five floor amendments, three of which are on your desk, so once we get to floor amendments, we will take up the first three floor amendments that are prepared. We will then proceed on to the consent and ordinary calendar, and hopefully the other two amendments will be done prior to 11:30 this morning, since we need to lay them on the table for 48 hours. So, either we will recess until they're ready if we get through the calendar or we will recess at about 11:20 to have the other two amendments passed out and take the vote on those to make that 11:30 timing that would allow us to take action at Thursday's full session."

In this floor amendment, we have a few changes to address from the S.D. 1 approved last week. In this proposed S.D. 2, we address some percentages and amounts that were inadvertently left blank in the S.D. 1. The percentage blank in section 3 is now ‘25 percent’ in concurrence with the WAM chair. The dollar amount and percentage blanks for the workforce development incentive program were filled in from the original H.B. 1373 amounts as proposed by the introducer. Additional staff position: After conferring with DBEDT, leadership, and the WAM chair, it was determined that a staff position to carry out the workforce development incentive program was needed; this floor amendment includes funding for a program specialist IV for the purpose of administering the workforce development incentive program. Clean up language: The other changes in this floor amendment are revisions for clarity and consistency provided by DOTAX, B&F, and SMA. Mr. President, this has been an all-hands-on and around-the-clock effort these past few days, working to get this bill clean and effective. I ask that you join the WAM chair and myself in supporting the floor amendment. Thank you.”

(c) For the purposes of this section, a qualified exemption is defined to include those exemptions permitted under this chapter; provided that no additional exemption may be claimed by a taxpayer who is sixty-five years of age or older; provided that a person for whom exemption is claimed has been physically present in the State for more than nine months during the taxable year; and provided further that multiple exemptions shall not be granted because of deficiencies in vision or hearing, or other disability. For purposes of claiming this credit only, a minor child receiving support from the department of human services of the State, social security survivor’s benefits, and the like, may be considered a dependent and a qualified exemption of the parent or guardian.

(d) The tax credit under this section shall not be available to:

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a felony and who has been committed to prison and has been physically confined for the full taxable year;

(2) Any person who would otherwise be eligible to be claimed as a dependent but who has been committed to a youth correctional facility and has resided at the facility for the full taxable year; or

(3) Any misdemeanant who has been committed to jail and has been physically confined for the full taxable year.

(e) The tax credits claimed by a taxpayer pursuant to this section shall be deductible from the taxpayer's individual income tax liability, if any, for the tax year in which they are properly claimed. If the tax credits claimed by a taxpayer exceed the amount of income tax payment due from the taxpayer, the excess of credits over payments due shall be refunded to the taxpayer; provided that tax credits properly claimed by [an] individual who has no income tax liability shall be paid to the individual; and provided further that no refunds or payment on account of the tax credits allowed by this section shall be made for amounts less than $1.

(f) All claims for tax credits under this section, including any amended claims, shall be filed on or before the end of the twelfth month following the close of the taxable year for which the credits may be claimed. Failure to comply with the foregoing provision shall constitute a waiver of the right to claim the credit.

(g) This section shall not apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2028.

~~(e)~~ (h) For the purposes of this section, "adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code."

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“Because this bill has a clean date, it won’t be going to conference; it’s my last chance to vote on the record, so I’ll be going ‘no.’”

Senator Gabbard rose to request that remarks in opposition to the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

“Senator Mike Gabbard’s Journal Remarks on HB525 HD2 SD2

“(Implements the 2022 Uniform Commercial Code Amendments) – June 12, 2023

“Mr. President. I rise in opposition of House Bill 525 and would like to have remarks inserted into the journal.

“In my humble opinion, it’s too early in the process of creating a digital currency to vote ‘yes’ on HB525.

“Much still remains unknown about the future of cryptocurrencies and CBDCs (Central Bank Digital Currency.)

“This bill would update the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) so that only CBDC is ‘money’ – which could potentially create a monopoly of CBDCs over all existing cryptocurrencies, including Bitcoin.... the amendments in HB525 would help lay the foundation for a CBDC.

“Until we have a better understanding of how a CBDC will operate, as well as all of the relevant costs and benefits related to cryptocurrencies being classified as ‘controllable electronic records’ instead of ‘money,’ it would be unwise to rush to prohibit cryptocurrencies from being considered ‘money’ under the UCC. The UCC shouldn’t be altered until revisions include protections against the use of CBDCs.

“Unfortunately, this bill is not ready for prime time.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“The Uniform Commercial Code deals with our business transactions interstate. Digital currency, as the commenters have stated in the last committee, is only dealt with by Congress. If you look at what H.B. 525 says, basically, it deals with what we have already taken into account: how we use Zelle, how we use Venmo, how we use all these e-signatures regarding real estate transactions. If, for some instance, we want to deal with real estate transactions with another bank to get them to transfer moneys over—if we want those transactions to be valid, we need to pass the Uniform Commercial Code in order for the interstate types of transactions we deal with every day. It is the 21st century; we do a lot of e-banking. If we don’t pass this, we’re basically telling interstate banks that Hawai’i is not open for e-banking; we are not open for the kind of 21st-century transactions that we deal with now on everything. And for those reasons, I am in favor, and I support H.B. 525.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1728 was adopted and H.B. No. 525, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Dela Cruz moved that H.B. No. 300, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I'd like to begin by thanking you, the Senate leadership, and the Senate subject-matter committee chairs for their leadership and for assisting the Ways and Means committee in crafting a budget that closely aligns with Governor Green's statewide priorities that addresses long-standing challenges, such as homelessness, threats to our fragile ecosystem, and replacing or modernizing our aging government infrastructure, just to name a few.

"The biennium budget was unique and challenging. First, the steady state budget was lean and scaled back, followed by Governor's Messages 2, 3, and 5, which comprised a host of requests ranging from new positions, millions for programs and services, vehicle replacements, and overdue electricity payments. With a carryover of $2.2 billion from fiscal year '23, we made prudent and strategic economic decisions that we believe will ensure that Hawai'i can be affordable and livable for every resident of our state. Many hours were dedicated to identifying specific ready-to-go projects to help realize the administration's ambitious statewide goals. The Ways and Means committee shares the administration's urgency and commitment to appropriating funds to areas in government that have been resource-strapped but now can be addressed because of the $2.2 billion in carryover funds.

“We are presenting a solution-oriented biennium budget that is both bold and financially sustainable. For fiscal year ’24, we appropriated funds that many one-time, non-recurring, large expenditures for infrastructure repairs; maintenance or replacements; construction projects; land acquisitions; climate change initiatives; and paying down the state’s unfunded liabilities, including debt service, the Employees’ Retirement System, and replenishing the rainy day fund. We invested strategically in programs that will assist thousands of low- and middle-income individuals and families through rental and child-care subsidies, increases in payments to nursing facilities, Medicaid, and state-contracted service providers who have not been provided an increase in over five years, therefore impacting their ability to continue providing essential programs and services across the state.

“In an effort to recruit and retain a qualified, skilled workforce for state government, funding was appropriated for the department, high school, and college internships; retention incentives for education loan forgiveness; and salary repricing for hard-to-fill positions in various departments, such as Law Enforcement, the Office of the Attorney General, Education, Health, and Human Services. There are many more noteworthy priorities that are addressed in the Senate’s biennium budget, but with our limited time, I’ll end with sharing a couple more critical budget priorities, and the remaining can be found in the Senate budget worksheets.

“First, funding is being provided for long-overdue technology modernization projects for various departments and agencies, including the Office of the Attorney General, Department of Taxation, Department of Law Enforcement, Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, Department of Human Resources Development, and the Department of Accounting and General Services.

“Also important to note is that our education institutions are experiencing a growing demand for specialized intensive and more expansive student support services. As a result, appropriations have been earmarked for workforce development for our special-education students, after-school care for students with disabilities, contracted skilled nursing services, applied behavior analysis, and bilingual school-home assistance.

“With increasing operating costs and greater demands for state-funded programs and services, the Senate’s approach to balancing the budget included considering the costs of the administration and the Senate priorities, the Council on Revenues’ general fund forecast, and, for the next two years, while ensuring the base budget was one that could be sustained in the outyears. Leveraging federal dollars through state-matching funds and increased expectations for select departments and agencies to be more entrepreneurial should result in additional sources of funding. Additionally, department vacancies were reduced to offset new positions requested so that we can continue to limit the growth of government.

“In conclusion, I’d like to thank the Senate subject-matter chairs for their countless hours spent with the departments and the Ways and Means team as well as scrutinizing and asking critical questions on hundreds of budget requests. Your good work is reflected in this Senate draft. I’d like to thank the Ways and Means committee members for their hard work, time, and dedication in putting forth a budget that is reflective of action-oriented leadership and a spirit of collaboration between the legislative and executive branch. As always, thank you to the vice chair and his team for putting together the CIP budget. And, lastly, thank you to the Ways and Means budget staff for their commitment, diligence, and extended hours they have put in to help shape the Senate draft.”

Senator Dela Cruz acknowledged members of the Ways and Means budget staff and his office staff who were present in the gallery: committee clerk Chung Chang; budget chief Stacy Ferreira; budget analysts Colin Peros, Parker Spencer, Shirley Kan, and Alex Ozawa; advisors Kathy Sokugawa and Ford Fuchigami; legislative assistants David Cho and Makoa Nakamura; and office manager Dot Fujinaga. Senator Dela Cruz then introduced members of the Ways and Means bills section, who had assisted the budget team. Seated in the gallery were bills chief Duncan Osorio; bills researchers Cody Rex, Malcolm Iwami, and Nathaniel Isei; and legislative aides Mary Deneen and Carey Price.

Senator Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“The capital improvement portion of the Senate draft reflects the priorities of the communities and people we represent, including $203.5 million for harbors on all islands, $1.03 billion for our airports, and $1.03 billion for our highways. We also dedicated $381 million for our community colleges and university campuses, $156.2 million for public hospitals throughout the islands, including important projects for Kona and Hilo. We also provided additional funds for modernizing our state laboratories in preparing for the next pandemic as well as investing in our state parks and our watersheds and trails. We’re providing $10 million in help to the Honolulu Board of Water Supply to monitor key aquifers providing fresh water for Central O’ahu, including residents affected by the Red Hill leak. The Senate draft also makes an investment of $175 million in our public schools for new schools and classrooms, $265 million in additional resources for repair and maintenance in addressing ADA and athletic equity.

“I would like to thank my colleagues for identifying the priorities and public-works projects that may provide value to the lives of their friends, neighbors, and communities. I would also express my appreciation to the hard work of the Ways and Means chair and his operating budget staff for their assistance since this Senate draft, like last session, continues the effort to address the backlog of repairs and maintenance for public facilities in our schools or in our campuses or community colleges and other public buildings through the appropriate use of general funds. I’m also grateful to our various partners in the various departments and state agencies for their work in responding in a timely way to our questions and requests for information. I finally want to thank my own staff: my office manager, Susan Wong; my session staffers, Moya Gray and Jimmy Nelson; and the two staffers who worked on the CIP portion of this draft, Danielle Evangelista and Robert Nishimoto. I think they’re upstairs still working on the bill. With that, I also have some written remarks I’d like to submit in support of the bill.” (The Chair so ordered.)

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Keith-Agaran’s additional remarks read as follows:

“Thank you Mr. President. I rise in support of H.B. No. 300, S.D. 1, and specifically on the capital improvement projects portion of the measure. With a general fund surplus, we have an opportunity to continue what was started last session in using general funds for repair and maintenance projects that would be difficult and impractical to finance with general obligation bonds— projects that need to be done, can be accomplished without a lot of design or planning work, but are not the kind of improvements that align well with the twenty to thirty year life of a bond issuance. A good portion of our backlog of deferred maintenance can be characterized in this way— painting, small repairs, and roof replacements. Also, we can purchase alarm and bell systems at our schools, and even fund the security cameras and newer equipment, carpeting and furniture that many of our aging public school campuses would like. I support the prudent approach of the Ways and Means Chair in strategically investing general funds for these types of projects.

"I urge my colleagues to support the Senate Draft of the State Budget."

H.B. No. 954, H.D. 2, S.D. 2:

On motion by Senator Dela Cruz, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran and carried, H.B. No. 954, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO TAXATION,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Wakai moved that H.B. No. 1373, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Dela Cruz.

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“This is Relating to Workforce Development, Mr. President. I support this measure for our local families who are in the working film and television industry. This bill will make sure that our tax dollars used for tax credits and rebates are used for the benefit of our local residents. This bill will close the loopholes in exceeding the film tax credit, and this bill will provide more public transparency by disclosing the names and the amount of tax credit received by the production companies. I just want to thank my colleagues in the WAM: WAM chair and his staff and all the WAM committee members that worked very hard on this (Senator DeCoite, you know we pray for her healing and recovering and coming back to us in full). But, again, I just want to thank all of my colleagues who had a part in putting this in transparency for our industry that is so viable to our community, so I strongly support H.B. 1373, and I urge the rest of my colleagues to please do the same. Thank you, take care, God bless, and aloha.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to seek a ruling on a potential conflict of interest as follows:

“My husband works in the film industry.”

The Chair ruled that, because the bill would benefit anyone in the film industry and that Senator San Buenaventura’s husband would be part of a general class and not a specific beneficiary, there was no conflict.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, H.B. No. 1373, H.D. 2, S.D. 2, entitled: “A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT,” having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

ORDER OF THE DAY
ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1892 (Gov. Msg. No. 517):

Senator Wakai moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1892 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Elefante and carried.

Senator Wakai then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of TOMMY JOHNSON as Director of the Department of Public Safety, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Wakai rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Mr. President and colleagues, watching over criminals and straightening them out is a daunting task; very few of us would want this job. Thank goodness we have Tommy Johnson, because he wants it, and he thrives in this environment. He’s the right man to guide the department to successfully transition from the Department of Public Safety to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation: agencies undergoing a paradigm shift under his guidance from a punitive model (lock ‘em up and toss out the keys) to a more treatment- and program-oriented approach. During his confirmation hearing, a couple of former inmates testified in favor of Mr. Johnson. They said he was strict, but he was always fair. This is the kind of leadership necessary to turn lives around: tough love for tough dudes. In the past, inmates walked out of jail with no identification and had to reintegrate into society somehow on their own. A small but significant change was to provide inmates with proper documentation upon their release so they could apply for jobs and safety net programs—small, but significant.

“Mr. Johnson has his detractors: About six guards showed up at his confirmation hearing to talk about how they believed he was unfair and played favorites. For years, staffing and morale have been significant challenges at DPS, and the correctional system has about 300 vacancies out of their 1,500 officer positions. The situation is aggravated by corrections officers who repeatedly fail to show up to work. This forces others to work longer shifts to cover absent staff. Guards complain about working 16- or even 24-hour shifts. In a few months on the job, Mr. Johnson has already increased recruitment hirings by 50 percent to address part of this issue. But the bigger issue is ACOs often out sick, on family leave, vacation; many game the system so they really only work seven months out of the year and pocket loads of overtime pay. Last year, overtime cost taxpayers $34 million. Mr. Johnson has assembled a management team to address this lingering issue. If you benefited from the old way of getting more by doing less, you are not going to welcome Mr. Johnson’s style, but the public deserves better, and he’s delivering.

“Changing the work ethic in any environment is not easy. Mr. Johnson assured the PSM committee that he would reach out and build bridges with the union, and he met with those union leaders this past week to iron out those differences. They discussed several issues, including joint recruitment efforts and employee incentives for those who actually show up to work. I admire Mr. Johnson’s willingness to make peace with his adversaries. His word is good.

“Tommy Johnson has been a deputy director of corrections at the Department of Public Safety since 2017. He has more than 25 years of experience in corrections: 10 years in Hawai‘i, 15 years with the military. He understands corrections on many different levels. He’s a graduate of the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa with a bachelor’s degree in criminal justice.

“Under Mr. Johnson’s stewardship, we can expect to see a number of improvements, including continued advancements in public safety initiatives, reduced recidivism, lowering of overtime costs, betterment of morale, improvements to correctional facilities across the state. Mr. Johnson’s outstanding accomplishments coupled with his unyielding dedication to the betterment of our community make him a beacon of hope for a safer Hawai‘i. I encourage you, colleagues, to join me in voting in favor of Tommy Johnson’s confirmation to be the director of the Department of Public Safety.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 22. Noes, 1 (Rhoads). Excused, 2 (DeCoite, Fevella).

Senator Wakai introduced Director Tommy Johnson, who was present in the gallery with his wife, Ronalyn Johnson; their daughters Precious Leigh and Andrea; and his mother-in-law, Corazon Watson.

Senator Shimabukuro then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of KATIE DUCATT as Deputy to the Chairperson of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands, term to expire December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Ihara.

Senator Shimabukuro rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Your Committee on Hawaiian Affairs notes that, during and after the hearing, Ms. Ducatt took the time to recognize and directly address the testimony in opposition to her nomination, displaying a strong willingness to listen to the concerns of all beneficiaries. Your Committee finds that Ms. Ducatt, with her extensive legal background, deep understanding of real property law and Native Hawaiian issues, and core institutional knowledge gained through eight years of dedicated service, possesses the requisite qualifications to serve as deputy to the chairperson of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands. Your Committee believes that Ms. Ducatt’s legal expertise and knowledge of the Department is a tremendous asset and will help Ms. Ducatt carry out her expressed intent to implement formal training, internal policies, and workflows to minimize gaps in current processes to ultimately help reduce the number of beneficiaries on the waiting list. Your Committee believes that Ms. Ducatt, with a reputation as a trustworthy, highly organized, and detail-oriented public servant, will greatly complement Chairperson Watson as he seeks to take immediate action on the 20 projects identified in the strategic plan approved by the Hawaiian Homes Commission. And, therefore, your Hawaiian Affairs committee recommends that Katie Ducatt be appointed as the deputy to the chairperson of the Department of Hawaiian Home Lands based on her knowledge, experience, and commitment to public service. Mahalo.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

“Before considering the reports, I want Mr. Brian Lee to know that there is no trouble with his nomination, but there are members who would like the opportunity to meet with him before casting the vote. The Land Use Commission is certainly an important position, so if there are no objections, I’m going to ask that Standing Committee Report 1895, Governor’s Message 535 and 536 be deferred till Monday, until we figure out how to get the meeting scheduled and the members an opportunity to talk to him.”

By unanimous consent, action on Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1895 and Gov. Msg. Nos. 535 and 536 was deferred until Monday, April 17, 2023.

She has since spent more than 20 years in private practice handling criminal and civil litigation. She was a named partner in the firm Ranken & Drewyer, LLC, and later served in her own solo practice.

She has presided over various calendars and cases including child protective services, criminal juvenile matters, family court drug court, adoptions, guardianships, temporary restraining orders and protective orders, divorce, and landlord-tenant issues as well. She has also traveled around the circuit as a per diem judge including sitting on Moloka’i and Lāna’i.

The number of state court judges and justices overall will also be equally split, with 40 sitting female judges and justices and 40 sitting male judges and justices. Should the governor’s recent appointment of Kimberly Tsumoto Guidry to the Intermediate Court of Appeals also be confirmed by the Senate, it would be the first time in Hawai‘i history that more than 50 percent of sitting judges and justices are female. Mahalo.”

And we did have a food stand this year, which was helpful, and hopefully we can do it again next year. But thank you, everyone, for your support, for keeping your offices open. Mahalo.”

“On S.B. 739, which has to do with desecration, all that the House did was change the state of mind from ‘knowingly’ to ‘intentionally or knowingly,’ which I think is a good addition, considering the subject matter of the bill.”

“S.B. 911: This is allowing former felons to serve on jury duty and serve on jury duty once they’ve completely fulfilled the terms of their sentence—probation, parole, everything. The House used an existing definition of that term of ‘fully completed term’ instead of the one that we had put in there to start with, and it’s a perfectly good definition for the purposes of that bill.”

At this time, Senator Kim suggested to the members that they watch American Idol because a local boy from Kahuku, 18-year-old Iam Tongi, had made it to the top 26, the only Hawai’i contestant to have made it that far. Senator Kim noted that the show would be cutting contestants, but that unlike voting on measures, where only one vote could be cast, viewers could vote 10 times per candidate on American Idol. Senator Kim explained that Mr. Tongi reminded her of Iz and was emotional and very talented. Senator Kim stated her belief that all of Hawai’i needed to support Mr. Tongi because residents of other states would be voting for their own contestants. Senator Kim reiterated the need to vote for Mr. Tongi.

The Chair noted, in good humor, his appreciation of Senator Kim’s working in such a bipartisan way in support of the young man.

The Chair then announced that there would be a leadership meeting immediately following adjournment.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"Mr. President, colleagues, the purpose of this measure is to allow nonresidents to apply for a temporary restraining order or order for protection in cases of domestic abuse and an injunction from further harassment. We'd like to thank our esteemed member, our Judiciary chair, for passing this measure over to the House, which it did see its final adoption in the judiciary in the House. And this measure is in support of the significant gap under existing law as out-of-state victims are prohibited from filing restraining order petitions, even if the offense occurred in the state. This closes the gap to ensure that all persons have access to justice, and I ask my colleagues for support of this measure. Thank you, Mr. President and colleagues."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1267, S.D. 1, and S.B. No. 1267, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PROTECTIVE ORDERS," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Moriwaki moved that S.B. No. 1314, S.D. 2, H.D. 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Wakai.

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"You know, at a time when we have hundreds and hundreds of vacant positions, it doesn't make any sense to me to reduce the pay that we give to state employees, and it wasn't that many years ago that we made a major adjustment to the retirement side of post-employment benefits, where we reduced the average pension by about 30 percent, so I think it's going the wrong way. I think we've gone as far as we can realistically go and continue to expect to get good employees. Mahalo."

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong opposition to the measure as follows:

"Colleagues, we're having a difficult time hiring and retaining talent in state jobs. It is a well-known fact that we may not offer the best pay in some of our jobs that we have here in the state, but the state is among the best for employing and having and offering attractive benefits. The Department of Human Services report that there is a rate of 23 percent of vacancies for nearly 4,000 vacancy positions. How are we supposed to appeal to the new hires when we're cutting back the very benefits that makes us appealing and attractive for work? I ask my colleagues to strongly oppose Senate Bill 1314, and thank you, Senate President. Mahalo and God bless."

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"I understand the concerns and the vacancies we have and incentives, but this bill addresses spousal Medicare reimbursement of future retired employees. I ask my colleagues to support this."

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

"What this does is clean up what was originally passed when we did civil service reform quite some time ago. This is for the Part B section of the spouse benefit. Currently, when you retire, for new employees, their spouse is not covered with health benefits, so this tries to clean this up.

"If we're really trying to get better employees and more employees, what we should be focusing on is pay differentials, reclassifications—not necessarily this. I don't think this actually solves the problem of trying to attract new employees. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the Senate agreed to the amendments proposed by the House to S.B. No. 1314, S.D. 2, and S.B. No. 1314, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII EMPLOYER-UNION HEALTH BENEFITS TRUST FUND SPOUSAL MEDICARE PART B PREMIUM REIMBURSEMENT," having been read throughout, passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Kidani stated that purple represents a combination of all service colors, including Air Force blue, Army green, Navy blue, Marine red, and Coast Guard blue. Senator Kidani further explained that there are 56 O’ahu public schools on the Department of Education’s list of military-impacted schools, or schools that have significant numbers of military dependent students on their campuses. Senator Kidani then explained that, thanks to the efforts of the Military Interstate Children’s Compact Commission and Joint Venture Education Forum, deserving students and families are provided the support they need to navigate military-impacted transitions and further their studies. FIFTY-FOURTH DAY

Friday, April 21, 2023

The Senate of the Thirty-Second Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2023, convened at 11:41 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Roll was called showing all Senators present, with the exception of Senators Keohokalole and Shimabukuro who were excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Fifty-Third Day.

At this time, Senator Inouye introduced her youngest intern, Hope Matsuura, the daughter of late state senator David Matsuura and granddaughter of state senator Richard "Dick" Matsuura, who had been a big supporter of agriculture. Senator Inouye explained that Ms. Matsuura was on O'ahu attending Hawaiian Mission Academy as a sophomore. Senator Inouye then recognized her Hilo liaison, Rhea Lee-Moku, who handles her district work while she is at the Capitol and was accompanying Ms. Matsuura in the gallery.

Senator Lee welcomed President Surangel Whipps Jr. of the Republic of Palau, who was seated in the gallery with his delegation.

Senator Fevella recognized a group of students from Papahana 'o Kaiona on the Wai'anae Coast who were involved in a statewide effort to speak up for Hawai'i's birds by advocating for H.C.R. No. 81, which would establish Hawaiian Honeycreepers Celebration Day. Senator Fevella explained that, over the past four months, these students, along with about 2,000 others across the state, had learned about the Hawaiian honeycreeper and the legislative process in advocating for the resolution, with over 1,500 pieces of testimony submitted by students. Senator Fevella noted that the courageous students who had stepped forward to share their stories, knowledge, and art looked forward to the day the honeycreeper would be celebrated by highlighting conservation efforts to protect them. Present in the gallery were Vice Principal Ryan Oshita; Kumu Shannon Bucasas; students Abigail Asuega, Brianna Joshua, Precious Noble, Akena Talley, and Travis Kahaloa; Kumu Kailee Lefebvre; and Kumu Yumi Miyata.

On behalf of Senator Shimabukuro, Senator Kidani introduced students from Nānākuli High & Intermediate School who have been developing a prototype environmental business plan for the recycling and repurposing of community cardboard waste. Senator Kidani noted that the students, a team known as Scrappahz Union 96792, had entered their business plan in a competition with hundreds of other students from various schools and had come in first place, winning $25,000. Senator Kidani clarified that the students had decided to donate the money so that other schools could purchase their own shredders. Seated in the gallery were teachers Kumu Michelle Pieper, Kumu Mikes, and Ms. Helena Bakutis-Kekaula; students Tilionapuanani Keohuhu, Keola Mahoe, Kanoe Torres, Nahe Ka'awa-Kawai, Brensen Yuen, and Jeanna Lei; and members Jeremiah Magalones and Paul Nahulu. Senator Kidani then reminded the members that the students had invited them to join them for lunch in Conference Room 016 following session that day.

Senator Wakai introduced three UH students who were supporters of equity in criminal justice reform in Hawai'i and who were interns at Opportunity Youth Action Hawai'i: Haumea Velasco, Sydney Story, and Leah Delos Santos. Accompanying them in the gallery was Melissa Pavlicek.

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, I urge you to join me in supporting the nomination of Dr. Kenneth Fink as the director of Department of Health. Dr. Fink has an extensive background of public-, private-, academic-, and military-sector experience. Prior to joining the Department of Health, Dr. Fink worked as a vice president for Medicare & Medicaid Programs at HMSA before he was a director of Student Health Services for Kamehameha Schools. His government work includes serving as a state Med-QUEST director for Hawai‘i under Governors Lingle and Abercrombie; the chief medical officer for the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Region 10; and director of the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force and the Evidence-Based Practice Centers Programs at the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality.

“It is not presumptuous to say that Kenny Fink—he does like to be called Kenny—is supremely qualified for this position. I have over two pages in small type of the many awards and commendations he has, yet he is so humble that even after decades of being an administrator, he thinks of himself as a family doctor first. His work with Native Americans in Juneau, Alaska, and as a family doctor in Seattle, Washington, and other states prior to government experience shows that he is able to work with people. Indeed, he is board certified in both family medicine and preventive medicine.

“Like our governor doctor, Kenny Fink also holds many titles: professor for the many classes he has taught in universities, and colonel. He’s a retired flight surgeon for the U.S. Air Force and has served with the Air National Guard for the past seven years. He earned numerous medals, such as a Defense Meritorious Service Medal and an Air Force Commendation Medal with one oak leaf cluster. It would be an honor to have a veteran serve the state of Hawai‘i as he has served our country. His experience as an Air Force colonel will be invaluable in working with the military on the current Red Hill water crisis and to lead us out of this pandemic. I trust that he will meet the high expectations set by his team and the public, and, frankly, in working with him, it appears that he has already been made a family of Department of Health. So I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting his nomination. Thank you.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Keohokalole, Shimabukuro).

Senator San Buenaventura introduced Director Kenny Fink, who was present in the gallery with his Department of Health family, including Dr. Marian Tsuji, Dr. Michael Champion, Kathy Ho, and Susan Fernandez.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1943 (Gov. Msg. No. 527):

Senator San Buenaventura moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1943 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Aquino and carried.

Senator San Buenaventura then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of SUSAN FERNANDEZ as Deputy Director of the Department of Health, term to expire December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Aquino.

The Chair stated:

“I should have said this before entertaining the discussion on Dr. Fink: As we have about five minutes of agenda after we conclude with the three nominees, we will not recess to greet them, but we’ll finish the agenda, adjourn, and then greet the cabinet members who are confirmed.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Colleagues, I urge you to join me and support the nomination of Susan Fernandez to continue as deputy director of the Department of Health. Deputy Director Fernandez has over a decade of experience in various administrative and managerial government positions. As a former resident of the Puna district, Deputy Director Fernandez has an intimate understanding of the healthcare challenges unique to our neighbor island ‘ohana and rural communities of O‘ahu. She’s a good support for Dr. Fink.

“She has earned a bachelor of business administration and master’s of business administration from the UH at Mānoa. Prior to her appointment, Ms. Fernandez served as deputy director of the Department of Community Services for the City and County of Honolulu; assistant hospital administrator at Hilo Medical Center; chief budget, planning and management officer with the Department of Human Services; budget chief and analyst at the Hawai‘i State House of Representatives for the Standing Committee on Finance—don’t hold that against her, please—and operations senior manager of the New Ventures/Optical Department at Kaiser Permanente.

“During Deputy Director Fernandez’s advise and consent hearing, your Committee on Health and Human Services received an overwhelming number of testimonies affirming that

Ms. Fernandez possesses the commitment, experience, and work ethic to achieve the Department's goals and ensure that all Hawai'i residents have a fair and just opportunity to achieve optimum health and well-being.

"In closing, I'm confident that, if given the opportunity, Deputy Director Fernandez will exceed the high expectations set by those before her, and I urge my colleagues to join me and support her nomination."

The Chair commented:

"So that you don't have to worry, Senator San Buenaventura, nobody's going to hold the House service against her. We have 12 members of this body who unfortunately served in the House before they came here, so I'm sure that half the caucus understands."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Keohokalole, Shimabukuro).

Senator San Buenaventura introduced Deputy Director Susan Fernandez, who was present in the gallery.

The Chair noted that the same Department of Health family who was present in support of Director Fink was also in support of Deputy Director Fernandez and that there was no need to introduce them again.

Senator Fukunaga introduced Colin Yost, newly confirmed commissioner of the Public Utilities Commission, who was seated in the gallery with his family and Public Utilities Commission staff.

The Chair extended apologies to Commissioner Yost, noting that he was seated above Senator Fukunaga, who could not initially see him, and that Senator Keohokalole, who would have normally introduced him, was attending a conference and not present.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1944 (Gov. Msg. No. 530):

Senator Lee moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1944 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Inouye and carried.

Senator Lee then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of TAMMY LEE as First Deputy Director for Administration of the Department of Transportation, term to expire December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Inouye.

Senator Lee rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"After reviewing Tammy's résumé and qualifications, your Committee on Transportation and Culture and the Arts voted to advise and consent on her nomination. She has spent 17 years at the Department of Transportation, where she has been an effective and innovative administrator who has improved Department of Transportation operations at every step of her career. Before being appointed as first deputy director, Tammy served as the administrative services officer at the Department's Highways Division. She also held management roles within the Department's administration program as the business management officer and contracting officer.

"Some of her most notable accomplishments include upgrading the Department's financial management system, H4, which is set to launch next fall; the electric bicycle and electric moped rebate program; and the Hawaii Road Usage Charge Demonstration. Throughout her career, Tammy has made meaningful strides to modernize the Department by streamlining internal processes for hiring, contracting, and fiscal management. She has reorganized outdated departmental structures and practices to better meet Hawai'i's changing transportation needs. Tammy was the architect of the Highways Division Engineer Wiki Wiki Hire pilot program, an innovative response to pervasive vacancies, and in just nine months, she onboarded an impressive 46 highly skilled engineers. As deputy director, she will expand the Wiki Wiki Hire Program to fill even more vacancies throughout DOT. She has led the Highways Division through the pandemic with grace, developing telework policies that strengthen her team in the face of chaos and uncertainty. And she also has an extensive experience managing the Department's finances. As the Highways Division ASO, she led the acquisition of $300 million worth of bond proceeds. She has overseen many aspects of the Department's budget, ensuring that taxpayer money is used ethically and productively.

"In my interactions with her, I found Tammy to be a humble team player and a dedicated civil servant. She is passionate, goal-oriented, and ready to work with the Legislature to get things done. I'm confident that Tammy will be successful as the first deputy director. Her depth of experience, problem-solving skills, and organizational expertise are just what the Department needs as we work together to modernize transportation in Hawai'i. I urge you all to vote to advise and consent on G.M. 530, Tammy Lee, for first deputy director of the Department of Transportation. Thank you."

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"One of the things that she brings to the table which isn't discussed but affects your Committee on Government Operations greatly is her skill and knowledge and innovation in the Procurement Code and the procurement of projects—projects that are desperately needed to be delivered in order to expend the CIP that this body allocates and to ensure that we have a transportation system that is needed. I've already begun discussions with her on some of her ideas and initiatives for next session, and I'm pleased and hopeful in working with her and your Committee on introducing bills next session to help to expedite the procurement process and continue to ensure that our CIP moneys are expedited in the best way possible. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Keohokalole, Shimabukuro).

Senator Lee introduced Deputy Tammy Lee, who was present in the gallery with her family members Chris Tangjian and Gail Ontai; several friends; and Ed Sniffen, nominee for director of the Department of Transportation.

Gov. Msg. No. 1128, dated April 21, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 921, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
April 21, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 921

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 921, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Limitations of Actions."

The purpose of this bill is to extend the deadline to clarify and expressly state that the tolling provision in section 514B-141, Hawaii Revised Statutes, applies to protect the rights of condominium associations to assert legal claims for construction defects against developers until two years after the developer's control of the condominium development is terminated.

This bill is objectionable because it appears to have the unintended consequence of increasing the costs of housing. The bill creates the potential for increased liability which results in the need for additional insurance coverage, which costs are ultimately borne and paid for by the buyers. Our administration is focused on alleviating our critical housing shortage in Hawai'i and we are reluctant to enact any new law that could add costs to housing or delays in construction. While this bill has merit and I commend its sponsors for their work, I am concerned that it will only add costs on future projects, and therefore, have decided to veto this bill.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 921 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.
JOSH GREEN, M.D.
Governor of Hawai'i"

His leadership during the state’s challenging COVID times included rapidly implementing Safe Travels, protecting the health of over 12 million residents and visitors, and fixing the antiquated unemployment insurance system, helping over 190,000 residents file their claims in 2020. His accomplishments were recognized by Center for Digital Government, Google, and Statescoop named Doug as its 2022 State Executive of the Year.

“Doug’s priorities and accomplishments have proven to be consistent with those of the Senate. He has modernized legacy systems such as the payroll, time, and leave systems; moved the state’s mainframe applications to cloud; enhanced the state’s cybersecurity system; and is currently working on IT consolidation of the executive branch departments to modernize business operations and technology to better serve the public and attract and keep the talent we need. The state has benefited from Doug’s outcome-driven team-building. One manager said he ‘fosters a team culture which promotes collaboration, creativity, and innovation, and encourages his team members to take ownership of their work—an inspiration for everyone around him.’ I enthusiastically urge the Senate to consent to Doug Murdock’s reappointment as the state’s chief information officer. With his broad knowledge and practical experience with labor policies and issues in Hawai’i, his demonstrated understanding of the Department’s mission, his institutional knowledge and working relations with staff and stakeholders—both management and labor—and his dedication to public service, Bill is eminently qualified to assist the director and the Department in meeting the challenges facing our state’s workers and employers. She was with HHSC for seven years before being selected by the governor to return to the Department of the Attorney General. Immediately prior to her work at HHSC, Ms. Lopez was the special assistant to the attorney general, an important role which provided her with a strong understanding of the workings of the department.

“Ms. Lopez brings with her 10 years of litigation experience in the private sector, with the firms of Kobayashi Sugita & Goda and Chun Kerr Dodd Beaman & Wong. She was also a law clerk for former justice Paula Nakayama, who recently retired from the Hawai‘i Supreme Court. Ms. Lopez received her law degree in 2001 from the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa, where she was the co-editor in chief for the University of Hawai‘i Law Review and graduated summa cum laude. Her legal career followed an earlier career as an occupational therapist for more than a decade, and she received her undergraduate bachelor of science degree from San Jose State University.

“The committee received voluminous testimony on Ms. Lopez’s nomination from a wide range of current and past colleagues as well as government and nonprofit leaders and two former attorneys general. She has been serving as attorney general since December and seeks to bring a new style of leadership to the department.

“After having reviewed the testimony on the nomination, which was overwhelmingly in support of her confirmation, and other materials submitted to the committee and having examined the nominee in a hearing, your Judiciary committee finds that Anne Lopez is qualified to serve as Hawai‘i attorney general and recommends that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination. Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2011 (Gov. Msg. No. 519):

Senator Lee moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2011 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Inouye and carried.

Senator Lee then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of EDWIN SNIFFEN as Director of the Department of Transportation, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Inouye.

Senator Lee rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"After reviewing Ed's résumé, qualifications, and experience, your Committee on Transportation and Culture and the Arts voted to advise and consent on his nomination. As a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and Santa Clara University, Ed has been a professional licensed engineer with almost 30 years of experience in transportation. For the past eight years, he served as the DOT deputy director for Highways where, in this role, he was responsible for 780 employees, $500 million in capital improvement projects, special maintenance projects, and operational funding. He's championed safety for all users, modernization of the highway system, and among many things Ed's worked on were upgrading highway roads and bridges; expediting conversion to clean energy fleets; reducing environmental impacts from construction; and leveraging federal dollars to effect the overall priorities of the state, including broadband, housing, homelessness, and education.

"As Highways director, Ed leveraged resources and key partnerships to tackle our state's highest priorities. He incentivized affordable housing development with strategic infrastructure projects, collaborating with the counties, developers, and community members to increase access to low-cost housing. He also directed $25 million of federal highway funds toward broadband pilot programs in eight underserved communities. And when the pandemic struck, Ed responded proactively, authorizing the use of Highways facilities, notably the H-3, for COVID reporting, awareness, and testing, which I think has been a first in the state for use of those kinds of facilities.

"Throughout his time at DOT, Ed has overseen innovative responses to vacancies in the department, like the Wiki Wiki Hire pilot program, which hired 46 highly skilled engineers in just over nine months. As director of Highways Division, he worked hard to bring federal money to the state, finding creative solutions to fund projects by thinking outside the box. He's pledged to collaborate with the Legislature, increase transparency and accountability, work with communities that we serve to continue addressing Hawai'i's most critical needs through a connected and modernized transportation system. Given his depth of experience, I believe Ed is well qualified to lead the Department of Transportation, and I recommend we advise and consent on G.M. 519, Edwin Sniffen, for the director of the Department of Transportation."

Senator Rhoads rose to request that remarks in opposition to the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Rhoads's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President: I rise in opposition to Governor's Message 519 nominating Ed Sniffen as Director of the Department of Transportation.

"I genuinely hope I am wrong about Mr. Sniffen and that, if confirmed, he will have a successful tenure in office.

"However, I have several concerns which lead me to vote no.

"1. He appears to believe that the federal money that the Department receives is 'his' money. Of course, it is taxpayers' money like any other source of funding and the Legislature must appropriate it, just like any other source of State income.

"2. I am not convinced he will lead the Department out of the 1970's. Cars are still the highest priority to the Department and seemingly to Mr. Sniffen as well. Pedestrian and bicycle safety consistently takes a backseat to the flow of vehicular traffic. In the district I represent, there are dangerous crosswalks that he refuses to take the necessary steps to make safer despite being handed funding to do so on a silver platter.

"3. Finally, he apparently believes that the Legislature has no role in transportation policy. He seems to believe that transportation policy should be left to the Department. This is of course nonsense. The Legislature is constitutionally granted policymaking authority and is the body that gets to decide what transportation priorities should be.

"Despite my no vote, if confirmed, I will continue to work with him in areas where we agree. We both owe the people of the State of Hawaii our best efforts regardless of our differences."

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"May I have the remarks from the previous speaker, the chair of the transportation committee, be entered into the Journal as if it was mine? Mahalo." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Since I’ve been here (a very short time), Ed Sniffen and the Department of Transportation, everything that he did, everything that he had accomplished and he said he was going to do, he really put his mouth to the pavement, literally. When we were in dire need of information on what was going on with our money from our communities, he was very much so that he was okay to explain to the community. Same thing as what Senator Lee said: He really knows how to work with the community and convince them, because I was very much in my community, as you guys know—was very against teacher housing because of our traffic situation. He sat me down, and he convinced me that if we work together with teacher housing, that he can work with my community in getting better ways of transportation in and out of ‘Ewa Beach. And that’s the reasons why, colleagues, I ask you guys for your guys’ support for Ed Sniffen for director of DOT because he put his mouth where our money is, or something like that. Thank you again, God bless.”

The Chair commented that he liked Senator Fevella’s “mouth to the pavement” example.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Rhoads).

Senator Lee introduced Director Edwin Sniffen, who was present in the gallery with his mother, Lynette Sniffen; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Randy and Bev Kim; wife, Heidi Kim; sons Sam, Simon, and Eli; and friends, supporters, and ‘ohana from the Department of Transportation.

The Chair requested that Director Sniffen stand above the nearby descending steps, and Director Sniffen did so. The Chair then explained that much had been made of the orange slippers Director Sniffen had apparently worn the previous Tuesday night for the budget hearing. The Chair then noted that Director Sniffen had chosen to wear shoes to his confirmation that evening, and thanked Director Sniffen.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2012 (Gov. Msg. No. 515):

Senator Moriwaki moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2012 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Lee and carried.

Senator Moriwaki then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of JADE BUTAY as Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Lee.

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in support of the nominee with reservations as follows:

“I believe it is a solemn responsibility of the Senate to evaluate whether the governor’s nominees are qualified to lead their departments. We look at the nominee’s vision and goals, ability to inspire and lead staff, and integrity. We look at past performance, performance during committee hearings, and testimony from those with direct knowledge of the nominee.

“Jade Butay served for almost 11 years as deputy director of Labor and Industrial Relations, and as director of Transportation. He holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa and also a master’s from Babson College.

“Supportive testimony spoke of Jade as personable, collaborative, a good listener. Those who have worked with him agree that he is nice and friendly but state that he did not lead or inspire. Several staff called him a ceremonial director. One said he was unsuccessful in gaining Jade’s support to improve the agency. Instead, Jade told him their job was to be caretakers, ensuring nothing went wrong. Another complained he returned $2 million in federal funds that was to address helicopter noise without a good explanation. We also heard about the lost opportunity to get federal funds to help modernize our harbors when it became the Akaka Marine Harbor 1. And he reclassified civil service positions into excluded managerial positions by bypassing the state’s required review and approval, then filled the position without open recruitment, an act that lacked integrity. During labor committee hearings, he read written testimony but was unable to answer questions. He lacks vision beyond caring for our workers and having a thriving workforce by enhancing current department programs.

“I believe the state needs a leader who is proactive and who will inspire staff to solve our post-COVID labor challenges. I have had discussions with Jade and the governor to address his performance. Jade has agreed to work together with us, his department managers, staff, and stakeholders on workforce shortage and incentives to retain talent, unemployment insurance modernization, enforcement of wage standards, worker health and family leave benefits, occupational safety and health in the workplace, support for small businesses, and addressing the need to balance labor and management concerns, and to be fair and transparent in staffing his department. Yes, I have concerns, but with others testifying to his professionalism and good character, and with his promise to hold himself accountable to lead the Department jointly with his administrators—not ceremonially—and to meet specific performance outcomes, I ask my colleagues to recommend (with reservations) Jade Butay as director of the Labor and Industrial Relations Department. Thank you.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“I respect and I love my colleague, Senator Sharon Moriwaki. I don’t have all the intel that she has. The only thing that I have, Senate President and colleagues, is the experience that I had personally. In my heart, when I had asked him very kindly—not everybody maybe remember this—he was going to let go our own Ed Sniffen when I first got into this building, and I reached out to him, and I begged and plead to him to reconsider, and giving him, Ed Sniffen, the position that he deserved, and now look where he’s at today. And he took my words seriously, came in to me, and I know I made mistakes here, colleagues, before—I did, and I know I did and I regret it. There was one that I did that I voted for that I thought he was going to be doing good in DBEDT, and he turned around and flipped this up on all of us and stabbed most of us in the back. But this time, I really believe that Jade Butay, going forward, is going to be able to do the job because, not only with Senator Sharon Moriwaki, myself—and I told you this, Jade—that we’re going to hold your foot to the fire. But I support him because of his opening his heart, mind, and soul and gave my good braddah—my good friend, Ed Sniffen—another chance to serve this community and this state that he did a great job in, and now he’s director. Thank you, Senate President.”

Senator Inouye rose to request that remarks in support of the nominee be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Inouye’s remarks read as follows:

“I have known Director Jade Butay for a long time during my time in public office. He has always shown a willingness to collaborate with others and find solutions that are best for the people of Hawaii. His track record and substantial experience in Hawaii State Government more than qualifies him for the position of Director of the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations. I am pleased that Governor Josh Green has decided to leave a critically important department such as the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations in the hands of Jade Butay.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Dela Cruz, Keohokalole, Lee, Moriwaki). Noes, none.

Senator Moriwaki introduced Director Jade Butay, who was present in the gallery with Department of Labor and Industrial Relations deputy director Bill Kunstman, executive assistant Grace Ichikawa, state equal opportunity officer David Rodriguez, Bobby Ichikawa, Jovanie Dela Cruz, Amy Agbayani, Agnes Malate, Deanna Espinas, Brian Lee, and Pane Meatoga.

At this time, Senator Fevella rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Today, our staff, Minority director Joyce Oliveira, is retiring. She's been of service to this state and the county for decades. Before she came to my office, everything that I wanted and how I wanted the office to be run, she—over and beyond, what she had done. I'm going to truly miss her. What I'm saying here is very small to whatever that she had contributed to this state; I mean, she worked with a lot of people here in this chamber, in the city and state. And she contributed that she did to making us successful and being great in what we do, from not only with the senators and representatives and councilmembers—you guys know that she also used to work for the mayor and the rail, and she did a great job when she was there. So, again, I just want to give a round of applause to Joyce Oliveira on her retirement, and best wishes."

Senator Gabbard reminded the members that he had encouraged them to go out and hug a tree on Earth Day the previous week. Senator Gabbard noted that it was Arbor Day that day, when appreciation is shown for trees. Senator Gabbard then encouraged the members to go out and plant a tree the following day.

Senator Kim rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"I like to think that I taught Joyce Oliveira everything she knows. She first worked for me my first session in 1982 in the House of Representatives, and then later on worked for me for, I don't know how many years in the Honolulu City Council. And then, when I came over here, we couldn't pay her enough to bring her over here, so she stayed over there at the Council and worked there until she finally came back over here. I'm saddened that she is retiring, but I'm sure we're going to have her come back in some other way, so thank you."

Senator Shimabukuro invited members, staff, and guests to a free public showing of aloha 'āina films Hawaiian Soul, Like a Mighty Wave, and Standing Above the Clouds in the Auditorium immediately following floor session. Senator Shimabukuro explained that the short films were about the Hawaiian movement and that the showing would be hosted by Lanakila Mangauli, a newly appointed member of the Mauna Kea Stewardship and Oversight Authority.

Senator Kidani invited members and guests to an exclusive screening of the film Beyond Bars: Prison Women Speak on Monday, May 1st, at 2:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. Senator Kidani noted that the locally made film was produced by Kailua resident Tadia Rice and featured the poignant stories of five currently and formerly incarcerated women from the Women's Community Correctional Center who allowed profound insight into their experiences in the prison system and who they are today. Senator Kidani explained that the screening would be followed by a question-and-answer panel discussion with Beyond Bars participants, including entrepreneur Zoe O'Brien and Paipai o Ko'olau peer mentor Momilani Cody from Windward Community College.

Senator San Buenaventura introduced members of the Hawai'i State Teachers Association who were seated in the gallery. Senator San Buenaventura noted that they had just ratified their agreement.

Senator Kim moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2005 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kidani and carried.

Senator Kim then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nominations to the Board of Regents of the University of Hawai'i of the following:

LAUREL LOO, term to expire June 30, 2027 (Gov. Msg. No. 600); and

ABIGAIL MAWAE, term to expire June 30, 2024 (Gov. Msg. No. 601), seconded by Senator Kidani.

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the nominees as follows:

"Laurel Loo has a long history with the University of Hawai'i since she was an undergraduate and graduate student during the '70s and '80s. She was born and raised on your island, Mr. President: Kaua'i. Going off to school at Mānoa and experiencing dorm life was a new adventure for Laurel. Ambitious from the start, she was the editor-in-chief of the student newspaper, Ka Leo O Hawai'i, and later education writer for the Honolulu Advertiser. Laurel also obtained her law degree at the William S. Richardson School of Law, where she was an editor of the University of Hawai'i Law Review. During her time as an attorney, Laurel has trained various government and private boards and commissions in governance issues. Laurel is also a professionally trained mediator and per diem judge, the district and family courts of the Fifth Circuit. For her work in the justice system, Laurel was recognized by the Kaua'i Commission on the Status of Women and her alma mater, Waimea High School, as an outstanding community leader. Laurel's integrity, intelligence, commitment, and dedication has been attested to by individuals she has previously and currently works with. During the past several months, while serving as an interim regent, Laurel has proven to be an outstanding addition to the Board, so I urge my colleagues to advise and consent to her nomination to the Board of Regents of the University of Hawai'i.

"I also rise in strong support of Abigail Mawae for the position of student regent on the University of Hawai'i Board of Regents. Abigail is a Native Hawaiian and has an accomplished history with the University of Hawai'i, graduating cum laude with a BA in communicology and serving as captain of UH's Fellowship of Christian Athletes. As a former Division I student athlete and as a current William Richardson School of Law student, Abigail has had ample preparation to be an advocate and voice for the student population in the decision-making process of the University. Abigail has already been serving as an interim student regent since her appointment by Governor Ige in 2022, during which she has helped formulate policies and exercise control over the 10-campus system. Abigail knows how to serve as a student liaison between UH student government and Board, and works diligently on the Committee for Academic and Student Affairs, Intercollegiate Athletics, and Research and Innovation. Her goal as a regent is to bring these perspectives to the decision-making process so that student voices and opinions are elevated and that the interests of the students are taken care of during the governing process. Three qualities Abigail possesses are her leadership skills, determination, and commitment. As a proud graduate and current law student, Abigail is determined and committed to this university. Abigail's qualities have been attested by many individuals she has previously and currently works with. During the past several months, while serving as an interim regent, Abigail has displayed her exceptional, outstanding role by asking the right questions and taking the right steps to represent the best of UH. So I urge my colleagues, please advise and consent to her nomination on the Board of Regents. Mahalo."

Senator Keohokalole then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of NADINE ANDO as Director of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, term to expire at noon on December 7, 2026, seconded by Senator Fukunaga.

Senator Keohokalole rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. President, your Committee on Commerce and Consumer Protection finds that Ms. Ando's abilities, professional experience, and career accomplishments will be valuable assets to the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, the state, and its consumers and businesses. Ms. Ando has extensive background in commercial and real estate litigation, professional liability law, insurance coverage, products liability, and employment litigation, having been a partner with some of the state's most highly respected law firms over the course of her 40-year career as an attorney. Ms. Ando has also received consistent professional recognition for her work, having been listed in Best Lawyers of America and Super Lawyers for her commercial litigation practice since 2006 and 2008, respectively. At the time of her appointment as interim director in December, Ms. Ando was working as litigation counsel with the law firm of Fukunaga Matayoshi Ching & Kon-Herrera LLP. Ms. Ando serves on the advisory committee of the Bar Leadership Institute; is the lawyer-delegate for the United State District Court, Hawaii Judicial Conference; and previously served in multiple positions on the Hawaii State Bar Association Board of Directors, including as president, and now as the elected representative to and chair of the Hawai'i State Judicial Selection Commission. Upon review of the testimony, your Committee finds that Ms. Ando's background, experience, and commitment to public service qualify her for appointment as director of the DCCA.

"And, Mr. President, perhaps the best thing I can say about the nominee is that she has shown a commitment to working with us in the Legislature through the often-bumpy legislative process to get to a point where we can communicate and work together in the public interest while also acknowledging that we are going to have disagreements and that those disagreements cannot disrupt the need for us to keep open lines of communication and to maintain a collaborative working relationship. I think the Department and the people of Hawai'i will be better for it. Thank you very much, and I ask my colleagues to support her confirmation."

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of the nominee with reservations as follows:

"I understand that Ms. Ando has a lot of litigation experience, but I see no experience in the regulatory matters. At a time that we are coming out of a pandemic, we need DCCA more than ever. We need those permits to be issued timely; we need those licenses, those certifications to proceed efficiently. I understand that Ms. Ando is inheriting the problems with DCCA, and that is the reason why I will support her. And I am hopeful that our CPN chair's recognition of her commitment to the Legislature will be followed through because it is with DCCA that our shortage of nursing staff has been exacerbated with the delay in processing their permits. It is with DCCA that our constituents who are having problems with getting their licenses through because now they really want to go to work is meeting one-hour-long delays when calling DCCA. So I'm hopeful that Ms. Ando will follow through with her promises to us, and that's the reason I will support her, but at this time, it's with reservations."

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

"It's pretty well known to everybody I did not come to this at all—in fact, I was in strong opposition for a good chunk of the session. I shared many of the concerns that were echoed by my colleague from Puna as well as the chair of CPN, but, you know, he did his due diligence and had numerous hearings on the nominee, asking numerous questions across all the spectrums. However, I think, during that time, she has risen to the challenge and shown us that she can, in the words of the CPN chair, do the job. It was in a meeting with her about an unrelated bill that she brought up the process of the nurse licensing and the inequities that have been basically digitized, for lack of a better word, and her belief that to take an affirmative role and going out and looking at what other states have done and working with other vendors to create a more streamlined and responsive system—I think that, to me, having that outside perspective and that now-new willingness. Also, she's done is, she's surrounding herself with people to advise her and work with her who have a deep, rich knowledge of the DCCA, and there's a lot of problems, as you've heard earlier, that are going on. We have numerous other problems that DCCA will be the point entity for our constituents, but I am hopeful that she will continue the growth pattern that she's been on, and I share the confidence of the CPN chair in supporting him and the others in the nomination today. Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25; Ayes with Reservations (Kim, Moriwaki, San Buenaventura). Noes, none.

Senator Keohokalole introduced Director Nadine Ando, who was present in the gallery with Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs deputy director Dean Hazama and supporters and members of the Department.

The Chair stated that the Senate would take up several time-sensitive floor amendments before recessing and having Director Ando escorted to the floor to be greeted by the members.

“SECTION 2. Section 205-3.1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

“§205-3.1 Amendments to district boundaries. (a) District boundary amendments involving lands in the conservation district, land areas greater than fifteen acres, or lands delineated as important agricultural lands shall be processed by the land use commission pursuant to section 205-4[-], except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Any department or agency of the State, and department or agency of the county in which the land is situated, or any person with a property interest in the land sought to be reclassified may petition the appropriate county land use decision-making authority of the county in which the land is situated for a change in the boundary of a district involving lands less than fifteen acres presently in the rural and urban districts and lands less than fifteen acres in the agricultural district that are not designated as important agricultural lands.

- (3) Requires that one hundred per cent of the land area be used for affordable housing as defined by county ordinance;

Within sixty days of the effective date of any decision to amend state land use district boundaries by the county land use decision-making authority, the decision and the description and map of the affected property shall be transmitted to the land use commission and the department of business, economic development, and tourism by the county planning director."

SECTION 3. House Bill No. 676, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, is amended by adding a new Section 3 to read as follows:

"SECTION 3. Section 205-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by amending its title and subsection (a) to read as follows:

~~"§205-4 Amendments to district boundaries [involving land areas greater than fifteen acres]; proceedings before the land use commission.~~ (a) Any department or agency of the State, any department or agency of the county in which the land is situated, or any person with a property interest in the land sought to be reclassified, may petition the land use commission for a change in the boundary of a district. This section applies to all petitions for changes in district boundaries of lands within conservation districts, lands designated or sought to be designated as important agricultural lands, and lands greater than fifteen acres in the agricultural, rural, and urban districts, except as provided in ~~[section]~~ sections 201H-38[-] and 205-3.1(d). The land use commission shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 91 to implement section 201H-38."

Senator Inouye moved that Floor Amendment No. 10 be adopted, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in strong support of the amendment as follows:

"H.B. 676 was introduced to incentivize each county to entitle and to invest infrastructure on county-owned lands for the purpose of creating affordable housing.

"During the drafting of the latest conference draft, a provision was added to ensure counties addressed state impacts if they were given the power to bypass the Land Use Commission, in addition to all the other requirements that were already included in the bill, which is for affordable housing. This was added as an additional section and not a subsection. This request to amend the conference draft came from the Land Use Commission. While there might be confusion now with the current language, I believe this amendment makes clear the legislative intent of the conference committee to have the counties take on more accountability, not less. It was never the intent to make the process less transparent, and I believe this amendment makes this clear. This amendment will now ensure that the counties issue a finding that it considered all impacts that the Land Use Commission would have considered under a petition to the Land Use Commission for a district boundary amendment, in addition to the seven other requirements as included in the bill.

"Mr. President, I humbly ask for the support of my colleagues."

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the amendment as follows:

"While I appreciate the work that's being done on the measure, I have not read the floor amendment yet, so I don't feel comfortable in supporting it at this time. I think, however, that the Senate Draft 1 of this measure is something that everybody seemed to agree upon, and I think it's something that should be, perhaps, looked at again. I also think that there's a lot of things that have been put into this measure now, both in conference and in the floor amendment, that the public hasn't had a chance to weigh in on, so at this time, I'm just going to have to regretfully not be able to support it. Thank you."

Senator Kidani rose to speak in opposition to the amendment as follows:

"May I have the remarks of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as my own?" (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator DeCoite rose to speak in opposition to the amendment as follows:

"Likewise, can I have the remarks of the senator from the West side be inserted into the Journal as if it was my own, and I'd like to also add that, you know, we're talking about 100 acres, and while I am in full support of housing and affordable housing, we've had many challenges, as you know, within the past years of encroaching on those ag lands. There's farms that exist, we have housing that come up, and we have tenants or people that continue to make those complaints in a time when we are trying to grow food for food sustainability and to do what we have to do to feed the people of Hawai'i. I think, at this time, there are several challenges here that, not just myself, but many of my constituents have been faced with. For those reasons, I am in opposition."

Senator Fevella rose to speak in opposition to the amendment as follows:

“We’re so fast to criticize on our moving and having affordable homes, and we just want to just go into stuff, to the hundred acres and then going that way. In my community, I wasn’t the leader at the time, but if I was the leader, we would have been a little bit more overlook on how we’re just destroying and taking away a lot of our ag land, and it’s also for affordable housing when there’s a lot of opportunities in a lot of places on Barbers Point and other places in the community that is empty. It stays there stagnant, but then we’re going to go and try to get a hundred acres or so of ag land because we need affordable homes. We should do a little bit more homework in the places that are abandoned, places that don’t even have people living in the homes, and apartment buildings that are abandoned, and let’s go for that first before we start going to our precious ag land.

“Every year that I’ve been here, been saying from the WAM chair, ‘How much ag land do we need to develop so that we can be sustainable?’ In this building, we talk about being sustainable with agriculture and trying to compete with not having overseas products. But where do we put our mouth there? Zero. We talk about it in this building, but every single year, I listen to the WAM chair ask the agriculture people how much land we need to sustain our islands, sustain our community, sustain Hawai’i for ag, and nothing has ever been really going forward. By doing this and not relying on the community and other people to weigh in on this, I think it’s going to be a travesty to our community and to our ag lands. Thank you, Senate President.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 10 was put by the Chair and carried, with Senator Dela Cruz voting “Aye with Reservations” and Senators Awa, DeCoite, Fevella, Kidani, Kim, McKelvey, and Shimabukuro voting “No.”

Senator Inouye then moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 143 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Elefante and carried.

SECTION 2. House Bill No. 600, H.D.1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, section 3, is amended as follows:

1. By amending page 10, lines 6 to 17, to read:

““§291C-3 State and county safe routes to school programs; coordinators; grants; reports. (a) There is established, within the department of transportation, a safe routes to school program that shall, among other things, enhance traffic safety around Hawaii’s schools, enable and encourage children to walk and bicycle to school, and make bicycling and walking to school a safer and more appealing transportation alternative. 2. By amending page 11, lines 12 to 20, to read:

“(d) The ~~[legislature shall appropriate]~~ department of transportation shall expend funds from the safe routes to school program special fund ~~[to the counties]~~ in coordination with the safe routes to school advisory committee to be used for the implementation of ~~[county]~~ the safe routes to school program plan and projects[-] pursuant to section 291C- (b)(2) and (3). Senator Lee moved that Floor Amendment No. 11 be adopted, seconded by Senator Inouye.

Senator Lee rose to speak in support of the amendment as follows:

“This floor amendment will make clarifying technical amendments to the measure as well. Department of Transportation did ask for a little bit of flexibility in the transition, so the floor amendment would also provide a delayed effective date for one portion of the measure.”

The motion to adopt Floor Amendment No. 11 was then put by the Chair and carried.

Senator Lee then moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 145 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Inouye and carried.

Senator Kim moved that Floor Amendment No. 12 be adopted, seconded by Senator Kidani.

Senator Kim rose to speak in support of the amendment as follows:

“Mr. President, this floor amendment is to ensure the proper MOF, or mode of funding, is reflected in the final version of the measure respective to the WAM/FIN release memo. The financial release memo stated B funds to be used, but the use of general funds was what was being reflected.”

Senator Keith-Agaran moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 88 be adopted and S.B. No. 1437, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Kanuha.

Senator Keith-Agaran requested that remarks regarding the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Keith-Agaran's remarks read as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise in support of this measure.

"S.B. No. 1437, S.D.1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1 revises the state tax code to allow local so-called 'pass-through entities' such as partnerships, S corporations and limited liability companies (LLCs), which in many instances are not taxed at the entity level, to instead elect to pay state income taxes at the entity and thereby possibly avail themselves and their members of a deduction for state and local taxes (SALT) from taxable federal income.

"The federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 limited the SALT deduction by individuals to $10,000 per year. Before 2018, the SALT deduction was unlimited. Since then, approximately 30 other states have enacted legislation such as that proposed by this measure to allow pass-through entities to elect to be taxed at the entity level.

"This measure requires eligible entities to make an annual election to file for state-level taxation for each taxable year. The measure allows for individuals who are members of eligible entities to take a pro-rata non-refundable tax credit for state taxes paid. Although the effective date of the measure is January 1, 2024, the first taxable year for which a pass-through entity may choose to be taxed at the entity level will be 2023.

"This bill will provide a new option and potential federal tax relief to many local businesses, and for that reason I urge my colleagues to extend their support."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 88 was adopted and S.B. No. 1437, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO PASS-THROUGH ENTITY TAXATION," passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of H.B. No. 954, H.D.2, S.D.2, C.D.1, which will provide some sweeping tax relief for much of Hawaii's working families. The measure more than doubles the household and dependent care services tax credit. It also doubles Hawaii's refundable earned income tax credit from 20% to 40% of the federal amount. Finally, the bill increases the income thresholds and credit amounts of the refundable food/excise tax credit. This is a big first step in providing much needed tax relief for Hawaii residents. I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this bill."

- Four counties have submitted testimony either in opposition or significant concerns to this Bill.

"For these reasons, I am not able to support HB 1088, HD1, SD, CD1 and I am voting no. Thank you."

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“At a time when employers are reeling because of the pandemic, this is a slippery slope, requiring 0.01 percent in additional tax on gross wages that they’re already having difficulty filling, and, as such, I see this as a slippery slope to tax them on something that they have no ability to prevent. The Employment Security Law was meant to protect those who were laid off or fired unjustly. A 0.01 percent tax on technology that they have no ability to control, I don’t think rises to the purpose of the Employment Security Law, and, as such, I’m in opposition.”

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

“I would like the comments of the previous speaker entered into the Journal as if they were my own. (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.) And I think if we’re going to modernize IT in different departments, we should be doing it through general appropriations and other ways that will give us the legislative oversight necessary to ensure it’s being done properly. Thank you.”

Senator DeCoite rose to request that remarks in opposition to the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator DeCoite’s remarks read as follows:

“I am in opposition to this bill because I do not believe employers should be assessed an additional .01 per cent of their taxable wages to be paid into a new Unemployment Insurance Technology Special Fund. Moneys in the Fund shall be used by the department to pay for the operating and maintenance expenses of the department's information technology infrastructure. As we saw during the pandemic, the Department could not handle the extraordinary increase in Unemployment claims due to their antiquated computerized systems used to process Unemployment claims.

"Instead of creating this new Fund to be paid for by employers, I believe that the Legislature needs to be able to scrutinize such expenditures with legislative requests for funding from the Department. We should continue to have oversight for such an important function that the Department failed to meet when it was challenged by the pandemic and could not pay the claims to our constituents when their livelihoods depended on the Department. If this bill passes, the Legislature will give up its oversight responsibilities.

"For these reasons I cannot support this bill."

Senator Inouye rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"May I have the comments from the senator from Puna be introduced into the Journal as if my own? It's just not the right time as well to raise taxes. Thank you." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

"As you know, we came through the pandemic with a very old legacy system. The federal government does provide grants to the states for technology for nonpersonal services, but that money, all of it, that we collect from employers for their employees, goes to pay for employees when they are unemployed. There is very little that is for the infrastructure that we need to stand up our technology systems so we can help claimants who came through the pandemic and could not get their claims processed because of an old system. We also helped with the technology the employers who have to quarterly report the wages and the benefits that are charged to their employees. Without the state support of this kind of program, we are going to always be behind and not serving our people, so I ask my colleagues to join me in voting for this measure. Thank you."

Senator Richards rose to speak in opposition to the measure as follows:

"Yeah, I think that the reasons have been echoed, and I agree with my colleague from Puna. Thank you."

MOTION TO OVERRIDE VETO

S.B. No. 921:

In accordance with Article III, Section 17 of the Hawai‘i State Constitution, Senator Kanuha moved that the Senate override the veto of S.B. No. 921, as contained in Gov. Msg. No. 1128, seconded by Senator Wakai.

The Chair clarified the voting procedures.

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in support of the motion to override the veto as follows:

“The veto hurts a very narrow group of condominium purchasers, but it can hurt them pretty badly because it transfers liability for construction mistakes to them, and they may end up having to pay large special assessments. Any cost savings to the developer is because the developers have transferred liability for defective construction to the purchasers—the very people the developers are saying that they’re trying to help—so I hope everyone will vote for the override. Mahalo.”

Senator Keohokalole rose to speak in support of the motion to override the veto as follows:

“To echo the sentiments of the Judiciary chair, these are, again, very narrow circumstances in which case the result is really, really unjust in terms of outcome. These are situations where, six, seven, eight years later, there is an obvious construction defect that was caused by the developer, and the developer in these situations is able to avoid responsibility for it, in which case all of the residents of these condominiums are going to be required to foot the bill and provide some accountability where it’s not due, and it only takes place in these situations where these unfortunate individuals fall into this category. So, for those reasons, I agree and ask you to support overriding the veto. Thank you.”

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the motion to override the veto as follows:

“I would like the words of the previous speakers entered into the Journal as if they were my own. (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.) After the veto was issued, I got contacts and communications, as my friend from the Big Island says, from several condo owners who are now stuck with huge construction defects: unshielded coaxial cables, cracks in swimming pools, foundation work, parking lots that don’t drain properly—expenses and costs that are going to absolutely crush them and eliminate their reserves. Now, on top of that, you have the increase of insurance rates upon all the condominium owners, including them, which only makes a bad situation worse. I’m proud of the work that we do for consumer protection—this measure is a consumer protection issue; it’s a justice issue and a responsibility issue. So, with that, I stand in support of the override. Thank you.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in strong support of the motion to override the veto as follows:

“I’d like to echo Judiciary chair’s and CPN chair’s remarks, but I’d also like to add that the narrow group of individuals, the reason why we need to override the veto, is because the statute of repose—which is the statute of repose versus the statute of limitations—is because the developers had retained majority control on the board, so even when the condo owners know that there is a defect during the six to seven years, because the developer remained in the board, they were able to prevent the kind of actions against themselves, and that’s the reason that this bill is necessary, and it is a justice measure. Thank you very much.”

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in support of the motion to override the veto as follows:

"I, too, would like to echo the CPN and the Judiciary chairs' remarks as my own. (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.) We have seen situations in which new owners, not knowing the defects, have learned of it later and have not been able to do anything about it, so we really would like to support our condo owners. Thank you."

Senator Kidani rose to speak in strong support of the motion to override the veto as follows:

"I'd like to have the remarks of the CPN chair and Jud chair entered into the Journal as if they were my own." (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

The Chair then called for a Roll Call vote.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, the veto of S.B. No. 921, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS," was overridden by not less than two-thirds vote of all members to which the Senate is entitled, on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, 1 (Kim).

At this time, Senator Gabbard rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, colleagues, I just want to say mahalo for passing the five hemp bills today. You're helping a blossoming local industry that's experienced some struggles in the past few years. You may not recall, but it was December 14, 1999, when Governor Cayetano proclaimed that day as Hawai'i Hemp Day, and then the government fell asleep for 15 years as it tends to do sometimes. So, in 2014, at the request of a dear friend of mine, John Rogers, who recently passed away from cancer, I was honored to introduce S.B. 2175, which became Act 56, setting up a two-year UH industrial hemp research program, and then more hemp-friendly bills passed in the ensuing years. So my hope then and now is to have Hawai'i nei become the hemp capital of the world based on our one-of-a-kind Hawai'i branding and 365-day-a-year growing season. And while we've yet to reach that goal, today increases my optimism that we will get there. So again, mahalo nui loa, and, by the way, I proclaim you all to be official hempsters, and hemp hemp hooray. Mahalo."

The Chair responded with a "hemp hemp hooray" for Senator Gabbard.

The Chair then addressed Senator Wakai, stating that he had been informed that all floor amendments had been registered by 10:30 a.m. that morning, and so the Senate would reconvene at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, given the number of floor amendments and fiscal bills the members would need to consider.

ADJOURNMENT

At 11:40 a.m., on motion by Senator Wakai, seconded by Senator DeCoite and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:00 a.m., Thursday, May 4, 2023.

ORDER OF THE DAY

FINAL READING

Conf. Com. Rep. No. 190 (H.B. No. 300, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1):

Senator Dela Cruz moved that Conf. Com. Rep. No. 190 be adopted and H.B. No. 300, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 pass Final Reading, seconded by Senator Keith-Agaran.

Senator Dela Cruz rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“Over the last four months, the Senate Ways and Means committee worked diligently with Senate leadership and Senate members, the governor and executive branch leaders, constituents, stakeholders, and House Finance to deliver a state budget bill that answers the call to address a myriad of persistent and challenging issues for the state.

“With projected state revenues of $10.35 billion in fiscal year '24 and $2.2 billion in carryover from fiscal year '23, and projected state revenues of $10.73 billion in fiscal year '25 and $500 million in carryover from fiscal year '24, the conference draft of House Bill 300 appropriates in general funds for fiscal year '24 $11.3 billion, for fiscal year '25, $10.4 billion; and in all means of financing, fiscal year '24 is $19.6 billion, and fiscal year '25, $18.7 billion.

“There were key Senate priorities that did not make it out of conference, such as broader tax relief to help the middle class; cost-of-living increases for the nonprofit sector providing critical programs and services for the Departments of Health and Human Services; the Department of Agriculture’s Da Bux program; cesspool conversion resources to assist hundreds of DHHL homesteaders, residents in most of our rural areas, and protection of our islands’ water resources; various K–12 education initiatives; the Banyan Drive Master Plan; and, lastly, significant funding increases for senior housing and middle-income family rental supplement payments.

“These vital programs, services, and resources remained important Senate priorities, and they reinforce our resolve and commitment to the work ahead.

“I encourage you to compare the Senate draft and the conference draft to see the various Senate adds and funding measures we were unable to get House agreement on, resulting in the $500 million carryover left on the table.

“There were, however, many points of agreement in the C.D. prioritized for the biennium to serve our great state. They include but are not limited to:

- Homeless and housing programs and services;
- Additional funds to be deposited into the rainy day fund;
- Early childhood classrooms and the expansion of the Preschool Open Doors Program for three-year-olds;
- Critical state infrastructure repairs and maintenance and replacements;
- Climate change mitigation and abatement programs;
- Health and wellness programs and services across the state;
- Promotion and perpetuation of arts and culture, including funding for ‘Iolani Palace and Bishop Museum;
- Pay differentials and loan forgiveness for hard-to-recruit-and -retain state positions and in-demand industries such as education and healthcare workers;
- IT system modernizations for numerous state departments to replace outdated systems and aging equipment and infrastructure;
- Increased agriculture biosecurity and funding for agricultural development;
- The state match for broadband implementation;
- Additional funds for increased electricity and security costs for various state departments;
- Funding for K–12 career technical education, distance learning, special education, after-school care, summer learning, digital literacy, mental and behavioral health supports;
- Land conservation, acquisition, watershed, and ecosystems protection and restoration;
- Funding for KIRC and the Mauna Kea Stewardship and Oversight Authority;
- Positions, funds, and safety equipment for the newly established Department of Law Enforcement;
- Funding to support new housing units for various community correctional centers across the state, 24-hour health care at correctional facilities on the neighbor islands and O‘ahu, and expansion of the community work furlough program from O‘ahu to statewide;
- Also including routine maintenance and repairs for the Department of Transportation airports, harbors, and highways, and traffic control on O‘ahu;
- And the restoration of University of Hawai‘i funds reduced during the COVID, UH Mānoa and Hilo athletics, Promise Program funding for community colleges, and non-credit workforce development and early college programs.

“In conclusion, I’d like to thank the House Finance chair, Kyle Yamashita, and Vice Chair Lisa Kitagawa and, from the Senate, yourself, Mr. President, and the vice chair of Ways and Means and his team for putting together the CIP budget. I’d also like to thank the subject-matter chairs and the members of Ways and Means and the Finance committees. And, lastly, thank you to the Ways and Means budget staff for their commitment, diligence, and extended hours they put in to help shape the conference draft: committee clerk Chung Chang; budget chief Stacy Ferreira; budget analysts Colin, Parker, Shirley, and Alex; advisors Kathy and Ford; legislative assistants David and Makoia; and our office manager, Dot. Also assisting our budget team from the bills section is bills chief Duncan Osorio; researchers Cody, Malcolm, and Nathaniel; and legislative aides Mary and Carey. Thank you.”

Senator Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I echo the words of the Ways and Means chair. What’s reflected in the budget is the priorities of this body but also, I think, for the communities that we represent. I’d like to thank the Ways and Means chair for all the coordination that he provided to make sure that we could find the funding for your priorities and the priorities that you identified from your communities. I also would like to express my thanks to my counterpart in the House, Representative Scott Nishimoto, who did a yeoman’s job in his first year as their CIP negotiator. I think that we come out with a product I believe that all of us can bring back to our communities to tell them that we were listening to what they said they needed. Finally, I would like to thank the Ways and Means staff for all the help that they provided to us, and especially to my own staff, especially Robert Nishimoto, who was our CIP specialist, and Danielle Evangelista, who, in the negotiations, worked with us in working not just on the CIP itself but also on the grants-in-aid, making sure that we reviewed all the grant-in-aid applications very carefully. I know that on the CIP side, there were at least 117 applications asking for approximately $124 million when we had about $20 million to distribute. With that, Mr. President, I also would have some written remarks I would like to enter into the Journal.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Keith-Agaran’s additional remarks read as follows:

“Thank you Mr. President. I want to highlight a number of key provisions in H.B. 300, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 which will have long term implications for our communities. If budgets reflect what we value as a legislature and as a community, this State Budget is easily a banner year for public health care in terms of public works projects. Along with needed improvements for Hilo Medical Center ($50M) and Kona Community Hospital ($18.547M), and Kauai Veterans Memorial ($3M), Wilcox Medical Center and Samuel Mahelona Memorial ($20.2M) on Kauai, and Kahuku Medical Center ($6M), this budget also includes $39.7M for Maui Health Systems for capital improvement projects over the two years and a $22M operating subsidy. These investments will have long-term consequences for better health care outcomes, especially in our rural communities and neighbor islands. The State Budget also allocates $30M in FY24 and FY25 towards increased reimbursements for medical service providers for Medicaid patients, a number of bills sent to the Governor for his consideration will complement the budget provisions I’ve mentioned today.

“Housing for local working families is also supported strongly in this budget. We add financial support for our public housing agencies, and invest $280million to the rental housing trust fund and providing $50million into the dwelling unit revolving fund.

“I also would commend the Ways and Means chair for including approximately $100million for infrastructure along the Honolulu rail line and to support other government lands in the Kalaheo, Kapolei and West Oahu region which, if implemented by the State agencies hold those lands or managing those properties, can accelerate the development of those parcels for additional housing and expanded business opportunities. I hope that all agencies provided general fund appropriations for these strategic interment projects will do their best to meet the challenge in implementing them or encumbering the funds before the lapsing dates on these financial resources.

“I urge my colleagues to support this State Budget.”

Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I’d just like to point out that although key Senate bills—behavioral health bills—did not pass, it did make it into the budget. For that, I thank the Ways and Means committee and the Ways and Means chair. And I just want to point out, over $73 million specifically for crisis intervention, behavioral health services was in the budget, and we intend to hold Department of Health accountable for their use. Thank you.”

Senator Fevella rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“I’ve been here only about five years, and every year I’ve been here, I’m very impressed with the WAM chair and vice chair, Senator Dela Cruz and Senator Keith-Agaran—their leadership and how they balance and move the budget with CIPs and grants, and especially trying to balance the budget when we’re having a WAM hearing is always difficult, and everybody always think they’re on the hot seat. But one thing that I know about the WAM chair since I’ve been here: He’s always been consistent, and every question that he asks, the passion that he asks it, and he teaches us, and we get to learn how to go with the process. Sometimes it’s not easy with the directors and the different divisions that come before us, but at the end of the day, he just wants the best for our communities and our state of Hawai‘i. I want to thank you, Senate President Kouchi, and Senate Vice President Michelle Kidani for your guys’ leadership and always encouraging us to do the best we can in this building. But again, my hat goes off to WAM chair and vice chair and their staff because what they do—I mean, I don’t know how they do it every year. This year was the most difficult year that I have been a part of the process and a process that was not very easy, but it was accomplished, and I just thank them very much on the sleepless nights and the overnights that they had to be here to do good for all of us in this chamber and in the state of Hawai‘i. Thank you. Thank you, Senate President.”

The Chair stated:

“I’d briefly say, with the exchange of text messages, the WAM staff was here till 1:40 Saturday morning, working through the midnight deadline on Friday to get the budget details put together, and returned by 9:00 a.m. to hand-deliver it to House Finance, so to the WAM chair, vice chair, and the staff who put in incredible hours and produced a really fantastic document, I want to extend my personal thanks as well.”

Senator Moriwaki rose to speak in strong support of the nominee as follows:

“Your Committee on Labor and Technology reviewed Brenna Hashimoto’s background and her past and current performance, and find that she’s eminently qualified to lead the Department of Human Resources Development and the state government in meeting our human resources challenges.

“Ms. Hashimoto served over 30 years in state government, specializing in nearly every aspect of human resources: 11 years in the Department of Health, 13 years at the University of Hawai‘i, and, more recently, 7 years in the Human Services Department, managing recruitment, classification, employee benefits, training, records management, labor relations, and civil rights compliance. She also served in the employer’s bargaining unit 9 and 10 negotiating teams and chaired the state’s Human Resources Council.

“Since her appointment in December, Brenna has provided a vision for the Department: modernization, efficiencies, and accountability. Knowing that filling the state’s over-4,000 vacancies is the biggest challenge, she has already begun working with her managers on modernization initiatives. She is creating teams to assist departments in filling the most-needed vacant positions. She also began training managers and employees on the new telework policy that we want to emphasize for our employees as incentives. And she already began working on conducting a job fair, which we already saw, to encourage recruitment and has engage department human resource officers of each of the departments to regularly meet to share information and plans.

“Appearing before our committee, she demonstrated her grasp of personnel laws and policies as she provided accurate and detailed responses to our questions. Those who work directly with Brenna spoke of her extensive knowledge and distinguished track record of providing creative and practical solutions to human resources issues. Others spoke of her proactive leadership and interpersonal skills. The department senior management team said this: ‘From the moment she started on December 5, Brenna’s transition was seamless thanks to her familiarity with many of the department’s programs and functions. Many of us have also worked with Brenna over the years, and we know she is dedicated, hard-working, and responsive, and her approach to human resources matters is inspired by her creativity and innovation.’

“I believe Brenna Hashimoto is the best person to lead the state in recruiting and retaining the best and brightest employees to serve Hawai‘i. I urge my colleagues to advise and consent to Brenna Hashimoto as the director of the Department of Human Resources Development.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Moriwaki introduced Director Brenna Hashimoto, who was present in the gallery with her husband, John; Department of Human Resources Development deputy director Ryan Yamane; and staff.

The Chair stated:

“And for Chair Rhoads, who’s going to do the next one, after we take up that advise and consent, we have a few resolutions we’ll quickly dispense with, and then recess to greet our honored guests.”

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2027 (Gov. Msg. No. 675):

Senator Rhoads moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 2027 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Gabbard and carried.

Senator Rhoads then moved that the Senate consent to the appointment of KIMBERLY TSUMOTO GUIDRY as Associate Judge of the Intermediate Court of Appeals, for a term of 10 years, seconded by Senator Gabbard.

Senator Rhoads rose to speak in support of the appointee as follows:

“The appointment of Kimberly Guidry provides the Senate with a unique opportunity. First, we have the option to confirm to the Intermediate Court of Appeals an appellate specialist with 20 years of state court experience working for the state’s largest law firm, the Department of the Attorney General. Second, her confirmation will fulfill the goal of the Legislature in passing Act 90 last session to expand the Intermediate Court of Appeals to a total of seven judges comprised of six associate judges and one chief judge.

“Ms. Guidry is a proud product of Hawai‘i’s public education system, having graduated from Kalani High School with honors, the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa undergraduate history program with highest honors, and the William S. Richardson School of Law. She has been licensed to practice law in the state since 2002 and has worked exclusively at the Department of the Attorney General.

“Ms. Guidry currently serves as solicitor general and supervising deputy attorney of the Appellate Division, where she oversees most state and federal appeals and appears and argues in civil and criminal cases before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, the Hawai‘i Supreme Court, and the Hawai‘i Intermediate Court of Appeals. Her work at the Department has been recognized individually and as a member of a team, including the 2021 Attorney General’s Team of the Year Award and the 2015 Department of the Attorney General Employee of the Year Award.

“Ms. Guidry also serves on the Department of the Attorney General’s Appeal and Opinions Review Committee and the Judiciary’s Hawai‘i Rules of Appellate Procedures Standing Committee, and is a bar examiner for the Hawai‘i State Board of Bar Examiners.

“After having reviewed the testimony, which was overwhelmingly in support of her confirmation, and other materials submitted to the Committee and having examined the appointee in a hearing, your Judiciary committee finds that Kimberly Tsumoto Guidry is qualified to serve as an associate judge on the Intermediate Court of Appeals, and recommends that the Senate consent to the appointment. Mahalo.”

The Chair stated:

“Senator Rhoads, I have a quick question for you if you’d remain standing. I know from everything you read, she was selected, and your recommendation is solely based on her qualifications, but if you could enlighten the gallery, she is, gender-wise, significant in her confirmation today as well.”

Senator Rhoads stated:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I was going to bring that up later, but I’m happy to do it now. I would like to share the following update about the composition of our state court: I announced after the recent confirmation of Maui Circuit Court Judge Michelle Drewyer that the overall composition of our state court judges and justices was equally split between males and females and that the confirmation of Ms. Guidry to the ICA would reach a milestone with a greater number of female judges and justices in Hawai‘i’s courts. I’m sorry, Ms. Guidry; it slipped my mind that Justice Nakayama was about to retire, so with Judge Guidry’s confirmation today, we are back to a 50–50 split, but this does keep Hawai‘i as one of the leaders in judicial gender equality in the United States and, really, all around the world. Mahalo.”

The Chair thanked Senator Rhoads, then acknowledged that he had been right: It would have been nice to confirm Ms. Guidry first.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Senator Rhoads introduced Judge Kimberly Tsumoto Guidry, who was present in the gallery with her husband, Michael, and their children Del and Tess; her parents, Stan and Ruth Tsumoto, and her sister Courtney Tsumoto; her colleagues from the Department of the Attorney General; Rod Maile, administrator of the courts; Attorney General Anne Lopez; and Jessica Faige, Dave Nagaji, Sky Chun-Matsukawa, and Audrey Stalcup, members of Senator Rhoads’s staff.

Senator Fevella rose to speak in strong support of the measure as follows:

“Pu‘uloa Gun Range has been in my community for over a hundred years. During the live fire training hundred years ago, ‘Ewa Beach was a plantation area and not as densely populated community like it is now. I have received numerous and numerous complaints of noise pollution and the risk of being hit accidentally, strays of bullets. The environment study shows that lead contamination more than 70 times the legal limit. Although I support the training of military to protect us, but I cannot support when it jeopardizes the quality of life and harming my community that they cannot rest and they cannot have peace of mind and not worrying about getting hurt. There are other locations sustainable in this state for training, such as Kāne‘ohe Marine Base. Pu‘uloa Range has outlived its place in its growing community like ‘Ewa Beach. I ask my colleagues to join me in supporting this resolution to urge the relocation of the live fire and aviation away from my community. Mahalo, and God bless.”

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“In the spirit of bipartisan and cross-island support, I’d like to stand in support of the reso and adopt the words of the previous speaker as if they were my own. Thank you.” (The Chair so ordered, by reference only.)

“Thank you Mr. President. I rise in support of H.B. No. 353, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1 which will continue and expand a pilot program to increase the number of licensed practical nurses (LPN) in Hawaii by supporting the workforce glidepath supporting certified nurse aides (CNAs) in their journey to become LPNs. There is a great need for more LPNs in the state—the 2022 Healthcare Workforce report noted a statewide demand for 211 additional LPNs. Unfortunately, there were not enough opportunities to educate and train for this particular type of clinicians. The Health Care Association of Hawaii (HAH), partnering with Ohana Pacific Health/Hale Makua and UH Maui College, created an innovative, first of its kind CNA to LPN Glidepath pilot program. This program enabled an ‘earn and learn’ glidepath model that delivers online didactic curriculum and hands-on clinical education at a student’s place of work. The program is one year long, and CNAs can double their salary if they successfully complete the program.

“This pilot program was launched in January 2023, and serves students through UH Maui College on Maui, Oahu, and Kauai who are employed by Ohana Pacific Health and Kaiser Permanente. There was a huge demand for participation in the program, which ultimately included 40 students. This funding will enable the program to continue and, hopefully, expand to all islands and include more students to meet the demonstrated interest in this expanded opportunity. I urge my colleagues to vote in support of this measure.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Gabbard’s remarks read as follows:

“Senator Mike Gabbard’s Journal Remarks on HB1359 HD2 SD2 CD1

“(Relating to Hemp) – June 12, 2023

“I’m hempy to report that 5 of the 13 bills we introduced to propel our hemp industry in Hawai’i forward made it to the Senate chamber floor. (SB516, SB655, SB637, SB973, HB1359.) Hemp, Hemp Hooray.

“Colleagues, in 2016 the hemp industry was worth $400M, with projections to grow to $1.5B by 2020. Talk about an opportunity to boost our economy! (via growing and selling hemp products with the Hawaiian branding.) Check out my hemp aloha shirt...just one of over 50K uses for this amazing plant.

“I’ve talked about the Hawai’i hemp history numerous times over the years, so I won’t belabor the point. But it was Dec.14, 1999 when Governor Cayetano proclaimed it Industrial Hemp Day in Hawai’i, since we were the first state to plant hemp since WWII. Then, government fell asleep, as it tends to do sometimes. Fifteen years later, in 2014, I introduced a hemp bill that passed into law. Additional bills were passed in the years following and I was thinking we’re on our way!

“Then the pandemic hit, causing a complete standstill in 2020... with many unhemp hemp farmers....

“Enter 2023 and wow! Things started moving again. While five bills actually made it to the Senate floor for final reading; unfortunately, I just got word that they were recommitted by the House at the last minute....

“However, fortunately, one survived: HB1359.

“HB1359 implements a much-needed hemp task force under the purview of DOA, to assess the viability of hemp farming and production statewide. It also reduces buffer zones (the area that limits where hemp can be grown) from 500 to 300 feet for playgrounds, daycares and schools, and 100 feet for residential areas. This allows for more farmland for growing, increases harvest size, and improves the livelihood of hemp farmers, (and theirs’ is no easy job!)

“HB1359 also repeals duplicate regulations, requires transparency in labeling, provides funds for the Department of Agriculture to hire a hemp consultant; moneys for the Department of Health to hire or consult a toxicologist; and extends the State’s hemp processor law through 7/1/2027. This is a comprehensive bill that would be good to pass. Mahalo to all who helped provide input. Please join me in voting 'yes' on this important bill. Mahalo.”

Senator DeCoite rose to request that remarks in support of the measure with reservations be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator DeCoite's remarks read as follows:

“I am voting with reservations on this bill because we needed more time to review the many changes that were made to the bill however, I recognized the importance this bill had to the hemp industry. I also look forward to the work that will be done by the Hemp Task Force that will be established with the passage of this bill. It will gather information to help us to better understand the needs of the hemp industry. Hemp regulation is a work in progress and one that we will continue to address in the next legislative session.”

This measure requires the Office of Elections to prepare a digital voter information guide and to post the guide on its website in compliance with certain accessibility standards; and include a notice with each mailed ballot that states a voter information guide may be found on its website. It also requires the Attorney General and county corporation counsels to draft explanations of proposed constitutional or charter amendment ballot questions and translate them into certain languages for purposes of the digital voter information guide.

They assist in the field with everything from spreading warnings in remote areas before an incident, providing pre-assessment aerial reconnaissance, to assessing the damages and impacts afterward.

“HI-EMA testified that CAP recently provided vital support and assistance during the Mauna Loa eruption on the Big Island, providing overflights that allowed for aerial photography to monitor the status of the lava flows and document damage to support a request for a federal disaster declaration.

"Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of S.B. No. 674, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, which authorizes our Governor, himself a medical doctor, to enter into a compact with other states who have adopted the Interstate Medical Licensure Compact (Compact). The Compact system creates a comprehensive process that complements the existing licensing and regulatory authority of state medical boards and provides a streamlined process that allows physicians to become licensed in multiple states, thereby enhancing the portability of a medical license and ensuring the safety of patients.

"Many who have been concerned about recruitment of quality physicians into our State have been active supporters of the Compact, including local hospitals and doctors, health plans and management organizations, and our local medical board. They support the Compact as it will increase access to quality health care – particularly for patients in underserved or rural areas. The Compact will increase the ability for physicians to practice across participating jurisdictions, but also ensure that our local medical Board is still able to meet its legal responsibility to issue licenses to qualified, safe, and competent physicians only.

"I urge my colleagues to support his measure."

Senator Chang rose to request that remarks in support of the measure be entered into the Journal, and the Chair so ordered.

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Chang's remarks read as follows:

"I rise in strong support for SB865, which establishes a ninety-nine year leasehold program to make low-cost leasehold condominium units available for Hawaii residents.

"Hawaii's severe housing shortage is our most urgent public policy priority. Because the market has been undersupplied for decades, housing prices are out of reach for all but the very wealthy. As a result, we have now experienced seven straight years of population decline. There are more Hawaii-born college graduates residing outside Hawaii than in Hawaii, and more Native Hawaiians living outside Hawaii than in Hawaii. My father, an immigrant from China who came to the U.S. with nothing, was able to buy a house with one state salary as a UH professor in 1983. Today, for me to buy that same house would take over 40 years of my entire salary.

"I have been fighting for this bill since 2018 because I believe that one job should be enough. Every Hawaii resident should be able to buy a home, raise a family, and retire comfortably, all with one job. That's the social compact that generations of local people have had, and which young people today deserve.

"The housing model in this bill is based on Singapore's successful housing system and is often referred to as social housing. Two features of this model are revolutionary for government-built housing in this country: income blindness and revenue neutrality. Income blindness means people across the socioeconomic spectrum will live side by side, instead of in concentrated poverty. With revenue neutrality, the program need not be heavily subsidized by taxpayers, ensuring that it is scalable regardless of the state's ability or willingness to pay for more. This is housing for all, like public school for housing: a low cost, mass option that will enable most people to achieve home ownership, the American dream. It's essentially the method that Singapore and Vienna use to house 82 and 60 percent of their populations, respectively, in attractive, desirable, well maintained public housing.

"This bill will create a pilot project on one site in urban Honolulu to test the viability of this model. If it is successful, as I believe it will be, that will create the momentum for many more projects on state lands along the rail line, eventually creating the critical mass of inexpensive housing that will house our state's future population growth.

"I am truly grateful for the many people who have contributed to this bill's passage. In particular, I want to thank my counterpart in the House, the House Housing Chair, for his hard work in shepherding this measure through his chamber, the Ways and Means Chair for delivering the funding in this bill, and you, Mr. President, for reviving this measure from the dead on no less than three separate occasions this session alone.

"Mr. President, I believe we will look back to today as a historic day. It is the day that the State finally took action to ensure that every single one of our residents has the opportunity to thrive and prosper in this unique place we call home."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, Conf. Com. Rep. No. 180 was adopted and S.B. No. 865, S.D. 2, H.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO HOUSING," passed Final Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Senator Keith-Agaran rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

“This is a good bill. I would like to insert some written remarks in support of it.”

The Chair having so ordered, Senator Keith-Agaran’s additional remarks read as follows:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I rise in support of S.B. No. 1064, S.D.2, H.D.2, C.D.1, which establishes a long-needed Dam and Appurtenance Improvement or Removal Grant Program. This measure will provide the owners of private dams and appurtenances with funds for plans, design, construction, and equipment to improve or remove deficient dams and appurtenances.

“Many privately owned dams and appurtenances – often constructed during the plantation era – have not been properly maintained and may be hazardous to public health and safety. Many may now be owned by families or communities that lack the resources that the old plantations and agribusinesses had to repair and maintain these old reservoirs, and certainly little funding to bring these earthen dams into compliance with modern safety standards. With the costs to improve or remove these deficient dams and appurtenances often prohibitive, a grant program to provide funding for these costs could provide a viable solution for both owners and the public.

Senator McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure as follows:

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions (S.R. Nos. 222 and 223) were read by the Clerk and were disposed of as follows:

S.R. No. 222 “SENATE RESOLUTION REGARDING COMPLETION OF THE WORK OF THE THIRTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE, REGULAR SESSION OF 2023, SUBSEQUENT TO THE ADJOURNMENT THEREOF.”

Offered by: Senator Kanuha.

On motion by Senator Wakai, seconded by Senator DeCoite, S.R. No. 222 was adopted.

S.R. No. 223 “SENATE RESOLUTION INFORMING THE HOUSE AND GOVERNOR THAT THE SENATE IS READY TO ADJOURN SINE DIE.”

Offered by: Senator Kanuha.

On motion by Senator Wakai, seconded by Senator DeCoite, S.R. No. 223 was adopted.

At this time, Senator San Buenaventura rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Last year, I spoke about how well we did in passing laws to protect our children, and I just want our colleagues to realize how much we have done to end this session with. I mean, we have realized, and despite the veto of the governor, we have passed a Mālama ‘Ohana working group, we increased the pay differential of our social workers, we fulfilled our promises of last session to protect our children, and we continue to do more. In the health committee, we passed landmark Senate bills: S.B. 1, reproductive rights; S.B. 975, taxation of vape products (hopefully we can end the kind of vaping that our children are being exposed to); and even the last-minute S.B. 674, physician interstate compact (because, believe me, Queen’s, Kaiser, the military—all of these people who are having trouble filling physician vacancies in states have told me that this innocuous bill is a game changer). And I want to thank our money committees for putting over $100 million in our behavioral health.

“But I want my colleagues to understand that we have a lot more to do because yesterday was the fifth anniversary of the beginning of the 2018 lava flow disaster that did not officially end until seven months later. Over 700 homes were destroyed, but in reality, over 1,839 structures were severely damaged, including the Jaggar Museum at the precipice of the Kilauea Caldera. I remember how hopeless and helpless I felt when my community looked to me for answers that I did not have. How was I supposed to stop the turtles from being boiled alive? There were many of them. We didn’t understand that. And how the passage of the-then landmark ‘ohana zones bill that we had previously passed at Sine Die in 2018 was going to be the lifeline I was hoping for, but the governor held it up. And Pohoiki, which is still not available, is still not available to our fishing industry. Thankfully, the ‘ohana zones bill is being realized to its potential.

“The lessons learned was that if we give the tools to the community, the community will pull together. Grants from the Hawai‘i Community Foundation, United Way, and others helped build the first kauhale, really—the first tiny homes—out of necessity because the ‘ohana zones bill was not signed by the governor. That is why the GIAs and the fundings we received to our nonprofits cannot be overlooked because, at times of disaster when there is no session, they come through for us. When the community did not get answers fast enough from officials, the community held Internet sessions abuzz with the Hawaii Tracker. They told us where it was dangerous; they told us where the evacuations were. And it is this kind of community getting together—the nonprofits, the volunteers—that provided temporary shelter, food, and guidance that I am so most grateful for. And to all those who donated and helped in 2018: You are not forgotten. Mahalo.”

Senator Inouye rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“I’d like to share with you and congratulate Waiākea High School students Taylor Aburamen, Paul Brillhante, Madison Manguso, Gavin Nishida, Jaelee Picar-Cabal, Maya Polloi, and Alexander Tuson and their AP environmental sciences teacher, Whitney Aragaki. They were selected from a pool of 300 state finalists as the Hawai‘i state winners of the 2023 Samsung Solve for Tomorrow STEM competition. As the Hawai‘i state winner, Waiākea High School was awarded a prize package worth $12,000 in Samsung technology and supplies. Understanding that coral bleaching of the reefs surrounding the Hawaiian islands is caused, in part, by sunscreen, this team of students is developing an environmentally friendly sunscreen that can be produced locally with natural ingredients that will also reduce pollution. At least the Senate congratulates Waiākea High School for their accomplishments and their success in using STEM education to improve the future of our Hawai‘i communities. Mahalo.”

Senator Awa rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“The rivalry between Kahuku Red Raiders and Farrington Governors has been going on forever, so I wasn’t surprised this session when myself and the senator from Kalihi got into a disagreement over one of the bills. We’re never going to agree about chickens, but one thing we do agree on . . . Real quick, if you can bear with me, for the biggest fan in the State Senate, Iam Tongi is in the top eight, and he shot this message [holds up tablet playing a video in which Iam Tongi says, ‘Aloha, this Iam Tongi. I want to dedicate this song to Donna Kim in the Hawai‘i Senate.’]. I’ll let it run for a minute [continues to display tablet with video of Iam Tongi performing the song ‘Waimanalo Blues’]. So he shot that for us, and then today I got a call from American Idol’s producers. If he makes it to the top three (we’ll know on Sunday, the 14th)—if he makes it top three, and all you guys should vote, they’re going to fly back over here, we’re going to hold a concert on the 16th and a parade in Kahuku. Trying to find a venue; I’ll let you guys all know the details—we’ll send it out. But we really hope he gets to the top three because he’s been representing, as you know, Senator Kim, not just Kahuku, but the state of Hawai‘i. Aloha.”

The Chair noted that, with Senator McKelvey’s and now Senator Awa’s remarks, bipartisanship was springing up all over the place that day.

Senator Kidani rose to speak on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Colleagues, today it is my pleasure to recognize an outstanding individual who has dedicated many years serving our Senate, his community, and the people of Hawai‘i: Jacob Aki.

“Jacob has been an exceptional leader and contributor to the Hawai‘i State Senate. He has been committed to uplifting our culture, his community, and his commitment is evident in his educational background and professional career. He is a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and holds a BA in Hawaiian studies from the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa. He also received an MA in political management from George Washington University, where he honed his leadership skills.

“Jacob joined our Hawai‘i State Legislature as a legislative staffer in 2016 and has been an integral part of the Senate ever since. He has served as the Communications director for the Hawai'i State Senate, demonstrating tremendous leadership and communication prowess, particularly throughout the challenges of the pandemic. Under his direction, the Communications team established impactful digital media efforts to elevate the public platforms of the Hawai'i State Senate as well as our senators. Jacob has been a key figure in communicating legislative initiatives and policy issues, and his work has been vital to the success of the Senate.

"In addition to his work at the Legislature, Jacob has also been an active leader in the Native Hawaiian community, holding various positions in organizations and on boards dedicated to perpetuating Hawaiian culture and supporting the Hawaiian community. He is a former member of the Kalihi-Pālana Neighborhood Board and former director of the Kamehameha Schools Alumni Association for the O'ahu region. Jacob is a board member of 'Ahahui 'Ōlelo Hawai'i, a member of Pā Ku'i a Lua, and a member of the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs and Hale O Nā Ali'i O Hawai'i. He also serves as president of Ke One o Kākuhihewa—the O'ahu Council (Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs) and holds the position of ikū ha'i (president) for Hālau 'O Wahīka'ahu'ula, a benevolent royal society founded by King David Kalākaua.

"On behalf of the Senate, I extend my sincere mahalo to Jacob Aki for his profound commitment to community, his exemplary contributions to the Hawai'i State Senate, and his dedication to perpetuating Hawaiian culture and supporting the Hawaiian community. We are proud to honor and recognize Jacob for his outstanding leadership and contributions to our great state, and we wish him great success in his future endeavors. Mahalo."

Senator Kidani then presented a lei and certificate to Senate Communications Director Jacob Aki.

The President then addressed the members of the Senate as follows:

"It was a year ago that I stood here and said, for the first time ever, we were able to accomplish everything I talked about on Opening Day and then some. This year, I indicated that we would be welcoming six new members to our chamber, we would be losing 90 years of legislative experience through retirements, we would be working with a new governor and 18 new members of the House and many new chairs, and that finding our way through these relationships would provide its own challenges, like any new relationship that you undertake. With the governor, we took our advise and consent role seriously, and when we found nominees that we thought could not stand up to the standard we set, we indicated that by voting 'no,' and there were three of those instances. But everyone was given more than one opportunity to appear before the respective committees and to show that they would eventually have the ability to succeed. Several who had tough starts were able to utilize the opportunity to get better, work on their communication and their relationship with the committee chairs, and ultimately won confirmation to the jobs that they now are fulfilling. And so, to the members: I commend you for taking the job seriously, not worrying about what public opinion or the press was saying about what was happening but continue to go about doing your job.

"As we've gone through conference, there are certain bills that I wish maybe had passed, but with the new people on both sides, we could not come to an agreement. And, you know, I look at it as a first step in building a better relationship, having a better understanding so that we can come back and be more successful next year.

"But when I look at what we passed, wow. Senator San Buenaventura has mentioned S.B. 1. There was much made during the interim that the Obrero decision was going to result in a crime wave upon our community. Fortunately, that did not happen, but we also said we'd come back and put a fix to it right away, which, with the leadership of Senator Rhoads, we did. And with the surplus we had, Senator Dela Cruz, Senator Keith-Agaran, the members of Ways and Means, and the staff did a tremendous job. And people somehow wanted to create division because I guess that sells more media, but when you look at the budget crafted by the Ways and Means chair and the committee that the Senate unanimously approved today, there are so many elements of what the governor talked about in his State of the State that we truly came together to work on the best product for the people of Hawai'i, and we weren't here arguing about personalities, and we weren't getting offended if something didn't work our way earlier. Instead, we found where do we agree, how do we go forward. A key area, and the Speaker and I had been clear from the beginning, is that we were not very excited about overhauling the tax system, which may have required those that we wanted to help to keep detailed records to file to get the money back, but we were looking for mechanisms that would be simpler and that would ensure that the ALICE community that we are trying to help would get the money into their pockets. With what Senator Dela Cruz and the Ways and Means staff have put together, we have met that challenge. The lieutenant governor at the beginning said she was tackling universal pre-K. There has been tremendous progress made in that area, including the exciting announcement of the scholarships to try and make sure that we have the employees to staff the classrooms and the seats that we are building. Tremendous investment in homelessness—Senator San Buenaventura, again, talked about the mental health services, affordable housing, and everything else.

"And I'm the person standing between you and lunch, so, in conclusion, the one thing I didn't talk about on Opening Day that I have talked about in the past was looking forward to the opportunity to be a grandfather. And so I am so thrilled to be before you today to let you know that, within the past week, I am now able to stand before you as Papa Kouchi. We have a new grandson in our family, and when I hit the gavel, I'm excited to return back to Kaua'i and spend some time with my grandson."

Gov. Msg. No. 1233, dated June 29, 2023, transmitting House Bill No. 300, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE BUDGET," with specific appropriation items stricken or reduced, and the Governor's statement of objections to the specific items contained in the bill, which reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
June 29, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 300

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 300, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the State Budget."

The purpose of this bill, the General Appropriations Act of 2023, is to adjust and request appropriations for the fiscal biennium 2023-2025 to fund the operations and capital improvement projects of Executive Branch agencies and programs.

While the bill as a whole has merit, the use of general fund moneys must be reprioritized due to: (a) the change in the Council on Revenues' general fund tax revenue projection in May 2023 that necessitates that the State's financial plan be rebalanced through line-item vetoes and reductions to the budget; and (b) the need to maintain healthy financial reserves so that the State can meet its reserve policy requirements. Because of this, the following general fund appropriations were subject to: (a) an assessment of items that require additional planning, public input, and clarity on the use of moneys; and (b) an evaluation of each expending agency's ability and capacity to spend down the moneys efficiently within the authorized appropriation period.

Consequently, I object to the expenditure of the following appropriations for the reasons indicated:

A. For the following thirteen general fund appropriations, I object to their expenditure due to the need for additional planning, public input, or clarity on the use of moneys; or concerns regarding each expending agency's ability and capacity to spend down the moneys efficiently within the authorized appropriation period.

1. The $5,000,000 appropriation of the total $28,735,463 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for LNR172 - Forestry - Resource Management and Development, designated in section 3, item A-11, page 7, line 19, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 699, seq. # 3000-001, may have been intended to be used for operating and renovation; improvement; acquisitions; motor vehicles; equipment and appurtenances.

2. The $5,000,000 appropriation of the total $8,974,146 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for AGR192 - General Administration for Agriculture, designated in section 3, item A-15, page 8, line 16, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 30, seq. # 2100-001, may have been intended to be used for the mitigation and population control of feral animals. I will be allotting funds to the Department of Land and Natural Resources from that department's appropriation in this bill to help with this need because that department has the appropriate staff and capacity to undertake this task.

3. The $50,000,000 appropriation of the total $100,000,000 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for BED138 - Hawaii Green Infrastructure Authority, designated in section 3, item A-21, page 9, line 17, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 144, seq. # 1000-001, may have been intended to be used for the solar energy storage loan program.

4. Four appropriations totaling $123,000,000 of the total $201,814,260 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for BED150 - Hawaii Community Development Authority, designated in section 3, item A-23, page 9, line 33, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically, $1,500,000 of those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 164, seq. # 2100-001, may have been intended to be used for East Kapolei infrastructure implementation master plan and programmatic environmental impact statement; $18,500,000 of those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 165, seq. # 2104-001, may have been intended to be used for Kakaako Street upgrades; $42,000,000 of those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 165, seq. # 2106-001, may have been intended to be used for Kalaheo electrical improvements-districtwide; and $61,000,000 of those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 166, seq. # 2108-001, may have been intended to be used for the Iwilei-Kapalama TOD infrastructure design and construction.

5. The $25,000,000 appropriation of the total $62,545,402 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for LNR806 - Parks Administration and Operation, designated in section 3, item H-5, page 36, line 8, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 745, seq. # 3000-001, may have been intended to be used for state parks-renovations; improvement; acquisitions; motor vehicles; equipment and appurtenances.

7. The $5,000,000 appropriation of the total $61,022,542 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for LAW900 - General Administration, designated in section 3, item I-20, page 39, line 20, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 650, seq. # 2101-001, may have been intended to be used for plans, design, construction, and equipment for new building.

8. The $12,000,000 appropriation of the total $26,362,784 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for DEF118 - Hawaii Emergency Management Agency, designated in section 3, item I-30, page 41, line 11, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 295, seq. # 2100-001, may have been intended to be used for plans, design, construction, and equipment for new headquarters for the Hawaii Emergency Management Agency.

10. The $3,000,000 appropriation of the total $7,786,554 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for HRD191 - Supporting Services - Human Resources Development, designated in section 3, item K-24, page 47, line 25, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 459, seq. # 2101-001, may have been intended to be used for information technology support and computer equipment and infrastructure.

11. The $100,000 appropriation of the total $274,977 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for LNR101 - Public Lands Management, for operating costs, designated in section 3, item K-30, page 48, line 7, of the bill, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 685, seq. # 2101-001, may have been intended to be used for the Kawehewehe Waikiki Boardwalk.

12. The $1,050,000 appropriation of the total $15,380,669 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for AGS221 - Public Works - Planning, Design, and Construction, designated in section 3, item K-35, page 48, line 35, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 61, seq. # 2103-001, may have been intended to be used for proof of concept and master planning.

13. The $500,000 appropriation of the total $4,091,600 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for AGS233 - Central Services - Building Repairs and Alterations, designated in section 3, item K-38, page 49, line 10, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 69, seq. # 2100-001, may have been intended to be used for planning for the relocation of the Mapunapuna baseyard.

B. For the following general fund appropriation, I object to the expenditure of $50,000,000 for the Hawaii Technology Development Corporation, for infrastructure improvements for regional economic development for the First Responder Technology Campus. I understand that planning for the Campus is still in its initial stages. Given that the timing of construction will be subject to the approval of necessary land use entitlements and permits, it would not be fiscally prudent to commit such a large amount to this project without having secured such authorizations. Further, it appears highly unlikely that the contracts and encumbrances for this project can be completed before funding for the project lapses on June 30, 2024. I also object to the expenditure of $2,000,000 of the $4,000,000 appropriation for the Hawaii Center for Advanced Transportation Technologies for renewable energy technology, as this program is in its early stages of development, and I will be allotting $2,000,000 from the remaining balance of this appropriation to support this program.

The $50,000,000 appropriation of the total $60,624,444 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for BED143 - Hawaii Technology Development Corporation, designated in section 3, item A-19, page 9, line 4, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 153, seq. # 2102-001, may have been intended to be used for infrastructure improvements for regional economic development, and the $2,000,000 appropriation of the same total appropriation, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 151, seq. # 1002-001, may have been intended for the Hawaii Center for Advanced Transportation Technologies for renewable energy technology, microgrid, and other related programs.

C. For the following general fund appropriation, I object to the expenditure of $88,800,000 to the Agribusiness Development Corporation for the Wahiawa Irrigation System because this is a major policy decision for the State that requires thorough review and planning that would exceed the one-year timeline of the appropriation. This decision involves more than the preservation of the system for irrigation purposes. It is unclear if sufficient funding is provided for the operation and maintenance of the irrigation system. I understand that a report is being prepared evaluating the cost of repairs and other operating expenses needed to maintain the irrigation system. Further, a clear framework as to the responsibilities of the Agribusiness Development Corporation, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of Land and Natural Resources with respect to operating and maintaining the Wahiawa Irrigation System and Lake Wilson needs to be developed. However, I am committed to the development of diversified agriculture in Central Oahu and I will be allotting $5,000,000 from the remaining balance of this appropriation to support the initial planning and design to improve or further develop the irrigation system.

The $88,800,000 appropriation of the total $106,160,761 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for BED170 - Agribusiness Development and Research, designated in section 3, item A-16, page 8, line 23, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 181, seq. # 2100-001, may have been intended to be used for water infrastructure, land acquisition, and irrigation system management.

D. For the following general fund appropriation, I object to the expenditure of $120,000,000 of the $170,000,000 appropriation to the School Facilities Authority for teacher housing. I support the need to provide housing for our teachers and I will be allotting $50,000,000 from the remaining balance of this appropriation to support the State's commitment to this endeavor. This funding will assist in the initial phases of providing much-needed teacher housing.

The $120,000,000 appropriation of the total $171,761,193 appropriation for fiscal year 2023-2024 funded by general funds for EDN450 - School Facilities Authority, designated in section 3, item G-6, page 31, line 33, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 365, seq. # 3000-001, may have been intended to be used for teacher housing.

E. For the following general fund appropriation, I object to the expenditure of $500,000,000 for deposit into the emergency and budget reserve fund for fiscal year 2024-2025. With the deposit of $500,000,000 into the emergency and budget reserve fund in fiscal year 2023-2024, the State will meet its financial reserve policy requirements for the fiscal biennium 2023-2025. By line item vetoing this amount for fiscal year 2024-2025, the negative impact of reducing funding needed for public services will be mitigated. In addition, I object to the expenditure of $33,000,000 for the State's matching portion of federal broadband grants for fiscal year 2024-2025. I believe that the $33,000,000 appropriated in fiscal year 2023-2024 for the State's matching portion of federal broadband grants will be sufficient to meet the federal matching requirements at this time and that state match requirements can be revisited when additional federal funds are secured.

The $500,000,000 appropriation of the total $545,351,873 appropriation for fiscal year 2024-2025 funded by general funds for BUF101 - Departmental Administration and Budget Division, designated in section 3, item K-5, page 44, line 31, of the bill, for operating costs, specifically those funds that, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 196, seq. # 3001-001, may have been intended to be used for deposit into the emergency and budget reserve fund, and the $500,000,000 amount in the proviso in part III, page 51, section 4, line 5, of this bill, and the $33,000,000 appropriation of the same total appropriation, as indicated by the Budget Comparison Worksheet dated May 15, 2023, at page 195 seq. # 3000-001, for operating costs, specifically those funds that may have been intended to be used for the State's matching portion of federal broadband grants.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 814

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 814, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Electronic Information Technology Accessibility for Persons with Limited English Proficiency."

The purpose of this bill is to require the Office of Enterprise Technology, in consultation with the Office of Language Access and a working group comprised of stakeholders, to develop and publish, and periodically review and update, electronic information technology (IT) multilingual accessibility standards for State agencies. These standards shall require that all electronic information developed, purchased, used, or provided by a State agency must be made language accessible to persons with limited English proficiency. This bill also appropriates $100,000 for one full-time equivalent program manager position for the Office of Enterprise Technology Services.

This bill is objectionable and cost prohibitive because the State uses almost 600 IT systems and the cost of compliance with this bill could reach hundreds of millions of dollars. The cost and effort required also would have a chilling effect on the modernization of State IT systems. State agencies already provide language access support for the State's public-facing systems and should be given the discretion to provide cost effective language access, such as providing access by using multilingual staff or written publications.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 814 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Josh Green, M.D.
JOSH GREEN, M.D.
Governor of Hawai'i"

Gov. Msg. No. 1363, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 945, S.D. 2, H.D. 2, C.D. 2, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SPECIAL PURPOSE DIGITAL CURRENCY LICENSURE," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 945

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 945, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Special Purpose Digital Currency Licensure."

The purpose of this bill is to establish a licensing program for special purpose digital currency companies. Several of these types of companies currently operate through a program known as the Digital Currency Innovation Lab. This digital "sandbox" program has been instrumental in allowing the State to study these types of companies and develop data that will ultimately help the State to craft an appropriate regulatory environment for digital currency companies.

This bill is objectionable because it would establish a licensing program before the State has the resources it needs to effectively implement the program. Furthermore, additional study under the Digital Currency Innovation Lab would be helpful to gather more data through the digital sandbox before proceeding with a licensing program, particularly after the recent troubles surrounding the collapse of FTX, which operated a cryptocurrency exchange.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 945 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Josh Green, M.D.

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1079

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1079, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Expungement."

The purpose of this bill is to allow first-time offenders who were sentenced for operating a vehicle after consuming a measurable amount of alcohol for persons under the age of twenty-one years, pursuant to 291E-64, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), and first-time property offenders sentenced pursuant to section 706-622.9, HRS, to apply to have these convictions expunged from their records, if the offenders were sentenced before July 1, 1998.

This bill is objectionable because the purpose of this bill cannot be accomplished. Sections 291E-64 and 706-622.9, HRS, were not enacted until June 8, 2000, by Act 189, Session Laws of Hawaii 2008, and until June 22, 2006, by Act 230, Session Laws of Hawaii 2006, respectively. Consequently, no person was sentenced pursuant to these statutes before July 1, 1998, and no person can qualify for expungement of conviction records under this bill.

For the foregoing reason, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1079 without my approval.

Respectfully,
/s/ Josh Green, M.D.
JOSH GREEN, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1365, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 1518, S.D. 2, H.D. 3, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1518

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1518, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Department of Education."

The purpose of this bill is to provide procurement exemptions for the Department of Education for certain goods, services, and construction.

This bill is objectionable because the general exemption of the Department of Education's procurement of certain educational materials from chapter 103D, Hawaii Revised Statutes (Hawaii Public Procurement Code), is contrary to the principles of public procurement to foster public confidence and promote government accountability. Purchases of a wide range of educational materials by the Department of Education should be competitively procured, not exempted from the procurement code. Moreover, research and reference materials are already exempt from the procurement code under section 103D-102(b)(4)(C), Hawaii Revised Statutes, to allow governmental bodies, including the Department of Education, to obtain the latest books and related materials for the public in the best possible manner. Consequently, it is not necessary to create a new statutory exemption for these materials.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1518 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.
JOSH GREEN, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1366, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to Senate Bill No. 1586, S.D. 1, H.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII COLLEGE OF TROPICAL AGRICULTURE AND HUMAN RESOURCES," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO SENATE BILL NO. 1586

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 1586, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the University of Hawaii College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources."

The purpose of this bill is to appropriate funds out of the University of Hawaii Tuition and Fees Special Fund for the College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources to establish two full-time extension specialist positions and three full-time extension agent positions.

This bill is objectionable because it erroneously classifies these new positions as "administrative, professional, and technical" positions. Pursuant to section 304A-1002, Hawaii Revised Statutes, extension specialists and extension agents are a part of the faculty classification. Faculty are represented by the University of Hawaii Professional Assembly (UHPA), in bargaining unit 7, whereas administrative, professional, and technical positions are represented by the Hawaii Government Employees Association in bargaining unit 8. This bill would compel the UHPA to file a petition for clarification or amendment with the Hawaii Labor Relations Board to correct the classification to faculty, consistent with all other extension specialists and extension agents.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning Senate Bill No. 1586 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1367, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to House Bill No. 153, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO STATE WATER CODE PENALTIES," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 153

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 153, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to State Water Code Penalties."

The purpose of this bill is to establish minimum and maximum penalties of $50 and $60,000 respectively for each day that a violation of the State Water Code, chapter 174C, Hawaii Revised Statutes, exists or continues.

This bill is objectionable because, while we understand and respect the need to hold violators of the State Water Code accountable, there are concerns that the significant increase of the maximum fine from $5,000 a day to $60,000 a day is not sufficiently justified. Several state agencies pump water to their housing developments, and there are indications that daily over-pumping from wells occurs throughout the State. This bill could have an adverse impact on new housing developments, because this is one of the first places county boards of water supply may look when there is a need to cut water usage.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 153 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1368, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to House Bill No. 475, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE STATE FOUNDATION ON CULTURE AND THE ARTS," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 475

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 475, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts."

The purpose of this bill is to establish the Art in Private Places Pilot Program and the Art in Private Places Special Account within the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts.

Under the pilot program, the Executive Director of the State Foundation on Culture and the Arts may loan State-owned art to non-State individuals, businesses, or entities for reasonable financial consideration. Moneys received from the pilot program would be deposited into the Art in Private Places Special Account.

This bill is objectionable because the intent of the works of art program is to provide works of art for new and renovated State buildings funded from one percent of the amount appropriated for the project's construction cost element. Using State-purchased works of art for non-State individuals, businesses, or entities does not fulfill the intent of the works of art program and denies the public the opportunity to enjoy works of art in public buildings. It may result in public property being used for a non-public purpose in violation of Section 4 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i.

Further, given that some of the art pieces may have been purchased using tax-exempt bond proceeds, there could be adverse tax consequences to the State if the amount of revenues generated from the loan program are significant when compared to the amount of tax-exempt bond proceeds used to acquire the works of art. Also, this bill would have a negative impact on Hawai'i's creative economy as businesses and individuals could rent works of art from the State rather than purchase art pieces from the artists.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 475 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1369, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to House Bill No. 964, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE CERTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 964

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 964, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Certification of Documents."

This bill, among other things, requires the Lieutenant Governor to assess a fee of $10 for each apostille or non-apostille certification issued. The current fee is $1.

This bill is objectionable because the increase from $1 to $10 is substantial and may be unaffordable to members of the public.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 964 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Gov. Msg. No. 1370, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to House Bill No. 999, H.D. 1, S.D. 2, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO THE HAWAII TECHNOLOGY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 999

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 999, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to the Hawaii Technology Development Corporation."

The purposes of this bill are to: (1) amend the composition of the Hawaii Technology Development Corporation (HTDC) Board of Directors; (2) establish a public policy framework that addresses state goals in the area of economic diversification; (3) appropriate $6,000,000 to HTDC for economic diversification for fiscal year 2023-2024 and fiscal year 2024-2025, respectively; and (4) require HTDC to submit annual reports to the Legislature.

This bill is objectionable because, although it provides much needed funding that supports HTDC core programs, it also proposes a new composition of the HTDC Board of Directors that targets a current sitting member and removes this member from serving. The bill requires the University of Hawai'i (UH) to designate a UH Regent to serve on the HTDC Board and eliminates UH's ability to decide and designate the most appropriate representative within its organization. UH Regents devote a significant amount of time and effort to ensure the higher education needs of the State are met through their duties as Regents; adding further duties, unrelated to higher education, would detract from this.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 999 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1371, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to House Bill No. 1088, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO DECLARATION OF WATER SHORTAGE AND EMERGENCY," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1088

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1088, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Declaration of Water Shortage and Emergency."

The purpose of this bill is to amend the conditions, manner, and areas in which the Commission on Water Resource Management (CWRM) of the Department of Land and Natural Resources can declare and provide notice of water shortages and emergencies.

This bill is objectionable because the current provisions of the State Water Code, found in chapter 174C, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), sufficiently protect our water resources in an emergency. The CWRM is tasked in section 174C-62, HRS, with formulating a plan for implementation during periods of water shortage and is already authorized by statute to declare water shortages and impose restrictions. I share some of the concerns raised by the Board of Water Supply of the City and County of Honolulu about the amendments to the State Water Code made in this bill, and I have concluded that until the CWRM completes its plan, thereby establishing a foundation for emergency actions, it is premature to substantively amend the State Water Code.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1088 without my approval.

Respectfully,

/s/ Josh Green, M.D.

Gov. Msg. No. 1372, dated July 7, 2023, transmitting the Governor's statement of objections to House Bill No. 1090, H.D. 1, S.D. 1, C.D. 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO OCEAN RECREATION COMMERCIAL PERMITS," which was returned to the Senate without approval and reads as follows:

"EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU
July 7, 2023

STATEMENT OF OBJECTIONS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1090

Honorable Members
Thirty-Second Legislature
State of Hawai'i

Pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, I am returning herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1090, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Ocean Recreation Commercial Permits."

The purposes of this bill are to (1) allow the Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) to designate moorage space within State small boat harbors to accommodate commercial fishing vessels and transient vessels, (2) specify the method by which the DLNR may issue new ocean recreation commercial permits to owners of vessels, and (3) require the DLNR to determine which permittees will be allowed to continue to renew their commercial use permits when the permit limit established by law is exceeded. In the event of an exceeded limit, issuance of new and renewal of existing permits will be based on seniority.

This bill is objectionable because, while I understand and respect the need to limit commercial uses in our shared oceans for the safety and protection of our natural and cultural resources, determining the issuance of new commercial use permits and the renewal of existing permits solely based on seniority may not be the singular metric to adequately achieve the necessary limits. Our laws provide the DLNR an objective means to issue new permits—by lottery. This lottery system will continue to allow the DLNR to issue new permits while the DLNR may seek a more balanced approach to prioritizing applications. Additionally, the law already provides that DLNR may refrain from renewing permits to permittees who fail to comply with permit terms and conditions.

For the foregoing reasons, I am returning House Bill No. 1090 without my approval.

Respectfully,

Concerning all other bills requiring appropriations, it shall be the duty of the Committee on Ways and Means to inform the Standing Committee responsible for the program area to which the appropriation relates of the amount and type of financial resources available, and it shall review the expenditure recommendation of the Standing Committee to determine that the recommendation is consistent with the resources available.

In determining the amount and type of resources available for a bill requiring an appropriation and in reviewing the expenditure recommendation of the Standing Committee, the Committee on Ways and Means shall invite the recommendation of the chair of the Standing Committee responsible for the program area to which the appropriation relates.

Rule 19 Leadership Committees.

Leadership Committees, upon consultation and agreement with the Majority and Minority Leaders, may be appointed by the President at the opening of the session, or as soon thereafter as necessary. A leadership Committee on Legislative Management, upon consultation and agreement with the Majority and Minority Leaders, may be appointed by the President to perform the duties and responsibilities of the Committee as may be provided by law, or to make recommendations to the President on issues of Senate policy. Because Leadership Committees have jurisdiction over issues of organizational and institutional interest to the Senate, their membership shall include members drawn from the ranks of the Senate Leadership, thus assuring high-level consideration of these issues.

Rule 20 Special Committees on Accountability.

The President may appoint a Special Committee on Accountability which shall conduct informational briefing on matters referred to it by Senate Leadership or investigate matters referred to it by single house or concurrent resolutions. The committee shall be composed of not less than five members, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, and include a member or members of the minority party. The President shall appoint the committee's vice chair, who may change from time to time, to represent the standing committee having primary jurisdiction over the subject matter referred to the special committee.

Rule 21 Meetings of Committees.

The notice for any meeting to be held on the first work day of the week shall be filed no later than 4:00 p.m. on the last work day of the prior week.

These notice requirements may be waived with the approval of the President upon good cause shown. The 72 hour notice requirement is waived for the initial decision-making meeting for short form bills and informational briefings.

To the extent practicable, meetings, including decision making sessions, of leadership committees appointed by the President, and Standing Committees shall be livestreamed via the Internet in real time and archived for later viewing on a publicly available platform.

To the extent practicable, for any meeting where public testimony will be received at the meeting, testifiers shall be allowed the option to testify remotely via Senate provided telecommunications, digital, or video-conferencing technology.

Instructions to access the livestream, archive, or to testify remotely, shall be included on the notice of the meeting.

No committee shall sit during the time when the Senate is actually in session without first securing the approval of the President, except Conference Committees that may sit at any time.

As practicable, committees shall schedule their meetings at times and at places as are convenient for attendance by the general public, and in coordination with other committees of the House or Senate, shall endeavor to hold joint meetings and public hearings on matters of mutual interest.

The meetings of a Conference Committee shall be conducted as agreed upon by the members of the Conference Committee. Conference Committee meetings and decision-making sessions shall be public. Public notice of Conference Committee meetings shall be given to the extent practicable.

A quorum shall be a majority of the membership of the committee.

(2) A favorable vote of a majority of the members present at a decision-making meeting duly constituted with a quorum is required to report a matter out of committee. A member voting "with reservations" shall be counted as a favorable vote.

(3) The presence of a quorum and the final vote of each member who is present at the decision-making meeting of a standing committee shall be recorded by the chair or by a member of the committee designated by the chair. This record shall be attached to and shall be a part of the report of the standing committee.

Rule 23 Public Hearings on Bills.

(1) Subject to this rule, the selection and scheduling of a bill for public hearing shall be at the discretion of the chair of the committee having jurisdiction over the bill.

(2) The chair's determination that a bill will have a public hearing shall be final notwithstanding the opposition of a majority of the members of the committee.

(3) At the written request of a majority of the members of the committee, the chair shall schedule a bill for public hearing.

(4) If a bill:

(A) Has been referred to more than one standing committee and at least one committee hearing is required for passage of the bill out of the Senate;

(B) Contains any significant or substantial amendment made by a committee other than the last standing committee to which the bill has been referred; and

(C) The public has not been provided with an opportunity to submit testimony on the significant or substantial amendment;

then, prior to reporting the bill out of the last standing committee, the last standing committee to which the bill was referred shall hold a public hearing to provide the public with the opportunity to testify on the bill.

Rule 24 Committee Reports.

(1) The leadership committees as may be appointed by the President and Standing Committees shall report from time to time upon all matters referred to them.

(2) Special Committees shall report upon matters referred to them within the time permitted in the appointment of the Special Committee unless further time is given by vote of the Senate.

Rule 25 Committees: Fact-finding and Content of Reports.

(1) Whenever any matter shall be referred to a committee it shall be the duty of the committee to make diligent inquiry into all of the facts and circumstances connected with the matter. If necessary, witnesses shall be summoned or subpoenaed, and everything shall be done to bring all facts pertaining to the matter before the Senate in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 21 of the Hawai'i Revised Statutes. The President may exercise such powers authorized under Chapter 21, relating to the issuance of subpoenas, and the President, committee chair and other duly delegated members of the Senate may exercise such powers authorized under Chapter 21 aforesaid, relating to the administering of oaths, and the compelling of witnesses who have been subpoenaed to testify. All committee meetings held on matters referred to it by the Senate shall be open to the public unless otherwise ordered by the Senate or otherwise provided by these Rules.

(2) The report of the committee shall state findings of fact and conclusions based thereon, together with a distinct recommendation as to the disposal of that matter. A report recommending a measure for passage shall clearly state the legislative intent and purpose of the measure.

A summary of any individual or individuals who submit testimony as private citizens shall also be provided.

(4) A report upon a bill shall state clearly the amendments, if any, proposed. If a substitute bill for one or more referred to the committee shall be reported, such substitute bill shall agree with the subject of the bill or bills referred to the committee.

The report, after being made available, for review by the members of the committee, and after subsequent revisions thereto, if any, shall be the final report of the committee. The final report of the committee shall be attested to by the signature of the chair on behalf of the members of the committee. The action of the committee on the bill or resolution or any amendments thereto, if any, and the final vote of each member of the committee recorded by the chair or the chair's designee at a decision-making meeting shall not be changed in the review of the report, unless the change is made at an open decision-making meeting conducted with a quorum of the committee present. The minority of the members present at any decision-making meeting duly constituted with a quorum may report.

(4) When a bill shall be referred to the Committee of the Whole, the bill shall be first read throughout by the Clerk, and then again read and debated by sections, leaving the preamble to be the last. All amendments, noting the page and line, shall be duly entered by the Clerk on a separate paper, as the same shall be agreed to by the committee, and so reported. When a bill is ordered into Committee of the Whole, such order may dispense with the reading of the whole bill before considering it section by section.

(5) In Committee of the Whole, the rules of procedure in the Senate shall be observed except that any member may speak more than once on the same subject, but no person shall speak a second or further time until others desiring to speak shall have had an opportunity, nor shall the motion for the previous question be allowed. However, a Supplemental Appropriations Bill need not conform to this rule, nor an amending bill where the intent and effect of the amending bill can be clearly identified and understood without repeating the entire section or subsection, in which case only the paragraphs, subparagraphs, clauses or items to be amended need be set forth as the President may allow. (5) Any proposed senate draft that makes major amendments or wholesale changes that could affect the referral of the bill shall be submitted to the President for review and if the President deems it appropriate, the bill may be re-referred as determined by the President. The President's determination of any proposed re-referral shall be made within twenty-four hours of receipt of the proposed senate draft.

(1) All amendments proposed to any bill shall be in writing, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, and shall be sent to the Clerk's desk to be filed with the bill.

(2) The fundamental purpose of any amendment to a bill shall be germane to the fundamental purpose of the bill.

(3) The Clerk shall prepare and distribute copies of any proposed floor amendment to each member of the Senate present.

(4) A floor amendment shall be deemed pending only after its proponent has been recognized by the President and its adoption has been properly moved and seconded.

(5) A floor amendment that relates to a different subject, is intended to accomplish a different purpose, incorporates any other bill pending before the Senate, or would alter the nature of the bill as reported, is not germane and shall not be considered by the Senate.

(6) An amendment to a floor amendment that is not germane to both the floor amendment and the bill as reported shall not be considered by the Senate.

When a bill originating in the Senate shall have passed its third reading, or when a bill originating in the House which has been received from the House shall have been amended, or when a carry-over bill from an odd-numbered year originating in the House passes its third reading in the Senate in an even-numbered year session, such bill or such amended bill shall immediately be certified by the President and Clerk and sent to the House of Representatives for its consideration.

Rule 58 Bills: Correction of Errors.

Rule 59 Bills: Order of Consideration.

(1) The Clerk shall ensure that bills that have passed first reading are made immediately available. When the bills have been made available to the members of the Senate, the Majority Leadership, appointed by the President, shall refer the bills to the various committees. When the committees have considered the bills and reported on them, the committees shall return the bills to the Clerk, and the Clerk shall place the bills in the Second Reading File. The Senate shall consider the bills in the order in which they appear in the Second Reading File.

(2) The Clerk shall arrange bills that have passed second reading in the order of their passage on second reading, regardless of the date of their reference to committee or the date of the committee report on them. The Clerk shall place them on the Third Reading File in the order in which they passed second reading and the Senate shall consider them on third reading in that same order. However, if the third reading of a bill is set for some particular date, that bill shall be removed from the Third Reading File.

Rule 60 Bills: Special Order of Consideration.

All bills and other matters set for consideration on particular dates, shall be arranged in the order of the several votes making such assignments. A list shall be made of such special orders, and when the time for consideration arrives, such bills and other matters shall be considered in the order of assignment. Motions and amendments may be verbal but shall be reduced to writing if requested by the President, and shall be read from the desk if so ordered.

Rule 62 Motions: Disposition.

After a motion is stated or read by the President, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the Senate, and shall be disposed of by vote of the Senate; however, it may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before an amendment has been adopted or before the decision on the motion if not amended.

Rule 63 Motions Applicable to Pending Matters.

Whenever any bill or resolution or other matter shall be under discussion, the only motions relative thereto shall be:

- (1) To lay upon the table,
- (2) To postpone to a certain time,
- (3) To postpone indefinitely,
- (4) To commit or recommit, and
- (5) To amend, which motions shall have precedence in the order named.

The first two motions shall be decided without debate and shall be put as soon as made.

A motion to recommit will require a floor vote.

When any of the motions shall be decided in the negative, they shall not be revived the same day relative to the main question under discussion. If all are negative as aforesaid, the only remaining question shall be as to the adoption of the bill, resolution or other main question.

Rule 64 Matters Postponed Indefinitely.

When a question is postponed indefinitely, the question shall not be acted upon again during the session in which it was introduced.

Rule 65 Motion for Previous Question.

The object of the motion for the previous question is to cut off debate. It shall always be in order. It shall require a three-fifths vote to carry it.

Whenever the motion shall be carried, the author of the resolution or introducer of the bill under discussion shall be permitted to close the debate, after which the main question, subject to Rule 63, shall be put. The author or introducer may delegate to another such right to close.

Rule 66 Motion for Reconsideration.

(1) When a motion has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall not be in order for any member who voted on the side that did not prevail to move for a reconsideration thereof; but any member who voted on the prevailing side may move to reconsider it on the same or the succeeding day of session, or, with the consent of the Senate, on any subsequent day and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions, except a motion to adjourn.

(2) When a motion for reconsideration has been decided by vote, that vote shall not be reconsidered.

(3) When a bill or resolution or other matter upon which a vote has been taken shall have gone out of the possession of the Senate, and shall have been transmitted to the House of Representatives, a motion to reconsider shall be deemed to include a request to the House to return the same. If not complied with by the House, then the vote on the motion to reconsider shall be set aside. If such motion shall pass, the Clerk shall promptly communicate to the House the request for return of the matter to be reconsidered.

PART VII. PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

Rule 67 Petitions, Memorials, and Miscellaneous Communications.

(1) Any person may petition the Senate. Petitions and other memorials, except as provided in Rule 61, shall be in writing, signed by the petitioners.

(2) All petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the Senate or to the President and members shall be presented to the Senate by the Clerk.

(3) A brief statement of the contents of such petitions, memorials or other papers shall be made orally by the Clerk.

(4) Every such petition, memorial or other paper shall be ordered filed or referred to a committee, as of course, by the President, unless such action is objected to by a member at the time such petition, memorial or other paper is presented.

(5) No such petition, memorial or other paper shall be debated on the day it is presented, except with the consent of the Senate.

PART VIII. ORDER; DEBATE; VOTING

Rule 68 Questions of Order.

(1) A question of order may be raised at any stage of the proceedings, except during the calling of the roll when the Ayes and Noes are called for. Unless submitted to the Senate, such questions shall be decided without debate by the presiding officer, subject to an appeal to the Senate. Laying such appeal on the table shall be held as sustaining the ruling of the presiding officer.

(2) Any question of order may be submitted to the Senate for its decision.

Rule 69 Debate: General Limitation.

No member shall speak more than twice, unless such member be the mover of the matter pending, in which case such member shall not be permitted to speak in reply until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

Rule 70 Voting: Methods.

There shall be five methods of ascertaining the decision of the Senate upon any matter.

(1) First, by voice; Second, by raising of hands; Third, by rising; Fourth, by call of the roll of the members and a record of the Clerk of the vote of each; and Fifth, by unanimous consent.

(2) Whenever the Senate is ready to vote on any question, the President shall rise, and after stating the question, shall request all those in favor of the affirmative of the question to vote "Aye." The President then shall call upon all voting in the negative of the question to vote "No." The President then shall announce the result to the Senate.

(3) If any member shall doubt the result, as announced, the President again shall state the question and call upon the members to vote either by rising in their places, and they shall remain standing until counted, or by raising their hands and the result again shall be announced.

(4) The President shall, when one-fifth of the members present so request, and may, when one member so requests, allow a roll-call vote. Clerk shall call the roll of the members of the Senate. Each member, when called, shall vote in a clear loud voice, "Aye," if voting in the affirmative, or "No," if voting in the negative. The Clerk shall record each vote and such record shall become a part of the Journal of the Senate. The President shall announce the results as above set forth.

(5) With the unanimous consent of the Senate, the President may direct the Clerk to record an "Aye" vote for each member of the Senate. If there is no objection, the Clerk shall so record the vote. If there is objection, the President shall ask for the names of the members voting "No" and order the Clerk to record no votes for them.

Rule 71 Voting: Rights of Members.

(1) No member, on any account, shall refrain from voting unless excused by the President. A member voting "with reservations" shall be counted as a favorable vote. A member may vote "Kanalua" the first time the member's name is called by the Clerk on any vote, but if the member votes "Kanalua" on the next call of the member's name, the member's vote shall be recorded as "Aye."

(2) The President may excuse a member who has a monetary interest in the question, or whose right to a seat in the Senate will be affected by the question, or whose official conduct is involved in the question. If a member thinks there may be a personal interest in the question, the member shall rise and disclose the interest to the President. The President then shall rule whether the member has a conflict of interest. If so, the member shall be excused from voting.

- (3) Whenever the Ayes and Noes are called, no one, without unanimous consent, shall be permitted to explain a vote.
- (4) After the announcement by the President of the result, no one shall be allowed to vote or to change a vote.

PART IX. DECORUM; DISCLOSURES; PEER REVIEW; PUNISHMENT

Rule 72 Misconduct; Procedure; Peer Review.

No member of the Senate shall be subject to a charge for misconduct, disorderly behavior, or neglect of duty unless the person making the charge shall have first given notice of the charge to the President and to the member being charged.

Upon receipt of the charge, the President shall attempt to resolve the matter in an administrative proceeding. If the matter cannot be resolved administratively, the President may appoint a Special Committee to be chaired by the Vice-President or such other member as the President may designate to investigate, hear and report upon the conduct of the member charged for misconduct, disorderly behavior or neglect of duty. Any member so charged shall be informed in writing of the specific charge or charges made against the member and have opportunity to present evidence and be heard in the member's own defense before the Special Committee. Following its investigation and hearing, the Special Committee shall file its report with the President setting forth its findings and recommendations.

If the committee recommends dismissal of the charge or charges, the President may dismiss the charges without further hearing, or the President may present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration. The Senate, by a majority vote, may dismiss the charge or charges against the member without a hearing.

If there is no dismissal of the charge or charges, or if the committee recommends censure, suspension or expulsion, the President shall present the report of the committee to the Senate for its consideration and decision. The member who is charged, shall be informed in writing of the presentation of the charge or charges of the committee report to the Senate and be given an opportunity to be heard in the member's own defense. The Senate, by a majority vote, may dismiss the charge or charges without a hearing, or with notice and an opportunity to be heard in the member's own defense, censure a member or, upon a two-thirds vote of all the members of the Senate, suspend or expel a member.

At any stage of the charge against a member, the member shall have a right to be represented by a person or persons of the member's own choosing.

Rule 73 Decorum: Transgression of Rules.

If any member transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President, or any member, may call such member to order, and, when so called to order, the member immediately shall sit down. The President then shall decide the question of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Senate.

The President may call for the sense of the Senate on any question of order.

Rule 74 Decorum: Address.

When any member is about to speak, such member shall rise from the member's seat and address all remarks to the President. While speaking, the member shall confine all remarks to the question under debate, shall refer to other Senators by title only (e.g., "Senator from the _____ District"; "The Chair of the Committee on _____"; "The Majority Leader;") and not by name and shall avoid personalities.

Rule 75 Decorum: Person Called to Order While Speaking.

Whenever any person shall be called to order while speaking, such person shall be deemed to be in possession of the floor when the question of order is decided and may proceed with the matter under discussion.

Rule 76 Decorum: Presence in Senate.

No person shall sit at the desk of the President or Clerk, except by permission of the President, nor shall any person, other than a member, officer or permitted employee or person, sit in the main Senate floor area during any of the sessions of the Senate.

Rule 77 Decorum: Conduct in Session.

When the President is putting any question or addressing the Senate, no one shall walk out of the room or across the floor. When a member is speaking, no one shall entertain a private discourse, nor shall anyone pass between the member speaking and the Chair.

No one shall cause any annoyance or disturbance on the Senate floor by use of sound-emitting electronic devices such as cell phones or pagers.

Rule 78 Decorum: Disorderly Conduct in Session.

If, during any session of the Senate, any member should behave in a disorderly manner the President shall order the member to be seated and preserve the peace. If such member then shall persist in disorderly conduct, the President shall order the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove the member from the Senate and the member shall not be permitted to take a seat during the remainder of that day's session, except upon satisfactory pledge given to the Senate for future good behavior.

Rule 79 Decorum: Recording of Debate Called to Order.

If any Senator is called to order for words spoken in debate, upon the member's demand or on that of any other Senator, the words objected to shall be taken down in writing and noted by the Clerk, and, if required, shall be read for the information of the Senate.

Rule 80 Decorum: Smoking.

No member or other officer shall smoke anywhere within the capitol.

Rule 81 Standards of Conduct.

(1) Members should conduct themselves in a respectful manner befitting the office with which they as elected officials have been entrusted, respecting and complying with the law and acting at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity of the Senate.

(2) Members should not lend the prestige of public office to advance the private interests of themselves or others; nor should members convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to unduly influence pending public business before them.

(3) Members should treat their fellow Senate members, staff, and the general public with respect and courtesy, regardless of political or religious beliefs, race, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, or physical disability.

(4) The legislative duties of members as prescribed by law and these Rules should take precedence over all of their other business or professional activities. Members should freely and willingly accept certain restrictions on their business activities and professional conduct that might be considered burdensome by an ordinary private citizen, and should perform the duties of elected office impartially and diligently. To the greatest extent reasonably possible, members should:

- (A) Refrain from allowing family, social, business, or other relationships to unduly influence the member's legislative conduct or judgment.
- (B) Refrain from showing bias or prejudice, including but not limited to bias or prejudice based on political or religious beliefs, race, ethnicity, sex, sexual orientation, or physical disability, in the performance of their official duties.
- (C) Exercise patience, tolerance and courtesy to all those with whom they deal with in an official capacity, and require staff and others subject to their direction and control to maintain similar standards of conduct, fidelity, and diligence inherent in public service.
- (D) Exercise the power of appointment impartially and on the basis of merit, refraining from making unnecessary appointments and approving compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.
- (E) Afford to every person who wishes to participate in the legislative process the opportunity to be heard according to established procedures.
- (F) Consider at all times whether their conduct would create in reasonable minds the perception that their ability to carry out legislative responsibilities with integrity and independence is either questionable or impaired.
- (G) Refrain from using, or permitting the use of, the privileges and prestige of their public office to derive undue personal, professional, or financial benefits for themselves, members of their families, or others with whom they maintain personal, business, or professional relationships.
- (H) Refrain from engaging in financial and business dealings that involve them in frequent transactions, or continuing business or professional relationships, with those persons likely to derive benefits from public financial matters either pending or already deliberated and voted upon by the Senate, to the extent that such conduct may reasonably be perceived as personal exploitation of their public office.

Rule 82 Decorum: Solicitation Prohibited.

An officer or employee of the Senate shall not solicit subscriptions, for any purpose, from any other officer or employee thereof, nor from any Senator. Nor shall any person be permitted to solicit or receive subscriptions or contributions for any purpose on the floor or in the lobby of the Senate or in any Senate office.

Rule 83 Disclosures.

Each member shall file with the Ethics Commission of the State of Hawai'i, a disclosure of the member's private financial interests, as prescribed by law. Each member shall file with the Ethics Commission any change in such financial interests.

If a legislative matter which affects a member's interests arises before the member has made a disclosure to the Ethics Commission, the member shall disclose orally such interest to the Senate before voting. The member then shall immediately make the written disclosure required by law and the Rules of the Senate.

Any member who has filed a disclosure as required by this Rule need not make a further oral disclosure on the Senate floor of any interest so filed.

Rule 84 Violating Confidence.

If any matter covered in Rule 35 or 36 shall be disclosed by any Senator, the Senator shall be liable to censure, or, by a two-thirds vote, to suspension or expulsion from the Senate. If an officer or other person authorized to hear such matter shall disclose the matter, such officer shall be dismissed and such other person shall be liable to punishment for contempt comparable to the punishment provided for by Article III, Section 18 of the Hawai'i State Constitution and in the manner as therein prescribed.

Rule 85 Conflicts of Interest.

(1) No member shall vote on any legislation if the member has a direct financial interest in the legislation, unless the member is part of the class of people affected by the official action based upon the member's profession, trade or business; provided that this rule shall not apply to votes on the recommendations of a committee when a member has disclosed a potential conflict. For the purposes of this rule, a "direct financial interest" means that the legislation affects the legislator's personal business, property, or financial interest.

(2) If a member is uncertain as to whether a conflict of interest exists, the member may request a ruling from the President by giving notice and disclosing the direct financial interest to the President prior to voting. When making a determination in cases where a portion of a measure may place a member in a conflict of interest, the President shall give due consideration to the context of that portion as it relates to the overall purpose of the measure. If the President determines that a conflict exists, the President shall excuse the member from voting.

PART X. QUESTIONS TO STATE OFFICERS

Rule 86 Questions to State Officers.

Any member of the Senate may ask any question of any state officer relating to the officer's respective department by reducing such questions to writing, over the member's signature, reading the same before the Senate, and furnishing the officer with a copy of such written question. Any officer questioned shall reply to such question upon the following day, unless the Senate shall grant a definite extension of time for replying.

PART XI. AMENDMENT, SUSPENSION AND INTERPRETATION OF RULES

Rule 87 Amendments; Suspension; Violations.

(1) No rule of the Senate shall be amended or rescinded nor shall any new rule be adopted, without one day's notice of such change. Any such action shall require a majority vote of the members of the Senate.

(2) Any rule may be suspended for a particular purpose upon a majority vote of the members of the Senate.

(3) Any violation of these Rules shall be referred to the President for appropriate action.

PART XII. MISCELLANEOUS POWER

Rule 89 Legal Action.

Except in legal proceedings where the Senate of the State of Hawaii is named as a defendant, the President shall obtain written consent of a majority of the members to which the Senate is entitled prior to undertaking any affirmative legal action taken on behalf of the Senate, such as the filing of a lawsuit or amicus curiae brief or intervening as a party to a lawsuit.

Rule 90 Administrative and Financial Manuals.

The Senate shall adopt by majority vote an administrative and financial manual of guides, the purpose of which is to establish uniformity in administrative practices and to ensure compliance with Senate policies.

Rule 91 Decorum; Disrespectful Conduct During Session by Non-member.

If, during any session of the Senate, any non-member should behave in a disrespectful or disorderly manner the non-member shall be subject to arrest and removal from the Senate Chamber by the Sergeant-at-Arms or by any other law enforcement officer of the State, as directed by the Sergeant-at-Arms. Any removal of a non-member by the Sergeant-at-Arms and its personnel shall be restricted to removal of the non-member from the Senate Chamber and through non-physical means, whenever possible. Once a non-member is removed from the Senate Chamber, the Sergeant-at-Arms shall relinquish control of the non-member to the Department of Public Safety or other law enforcement officers of the State.

For the punishment of a non-member, the provisions of Article III, Section 18, of the Hawai'i State Constitution or section 710-1078, Hawai'i Revised Statutes, pursuant to Act 204, Session Laws of Hawaii 2012, shall govern.

Rule 92 Issuance of the Senate Pin.

(2) The President may choose to commission and present the Senate pin to current or past members.

(3) The Senate pin presented under this Rule shall only be worn by current or past members to whom it was presented.

(4) The Senate pin shall not be presented to an individual or representative acting on behalf of any current or past member.

(5) If the Senate pin presented under this Rule is lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use without fault or neglect on the part of the current or past member to whom it was furnished, the President may replace the Senate pin upon request.

Rule 93 Committee on the Declared State of Emergency.

When a state of emergency has been declared by the Governor, the President may appoint a Committee on the Declared State of Emergency which shall investigate or conduct informational briefings on matters relating to the State’s emergency response. The committee shall be composed of not less than five members, unless otherwise ordered by the President, who shall appoint a chairperson from among the members. The committee shall include a member or members of the minority party.

Any member of the committee may ask any question of any state officer appearing before the committee relating to the officer’s respective department, the department’s role in the emergency, and its emergency response. Any member of the committee may also submit written inquiries by reducing the member’s questions to writing, over the member’s signature, reading the same before the committee, and providing the officer with a copy of such written questions. Any officer questioned in writing shall reply to such question upon the following day, unless granted an extension of time in which to reply by the committee.
