

THE
THIRTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE
STATE OF HAWAII

In accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Hawai'i, the Senate of the Thirty-Third Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2025, was called to order at 10:06 a.m., by the Honorable Lorraine R. Inouye, Temporary Chair of the Senate.

Mr. Roth Puahala presented remarks and introduced a video presentation.

The Chair introduced Reverend Ai Hironaka, resident minister of the Lahaina Hongwanji Mission. Reverend Hironaka then offered a moment of contemplation.

The Chair thanked Reverend Hironaka.

At this time, the members of the Senate and guests rose for the posting of the colors and the singing of the National Anthem and "Hawai'i Pono'i" by Ms. Nalani Brun, director of the Kaua'i Office of Economic Development.

The Chair thanked Ms. Brun.

Nominations now being in order for a temporary clerk, Senator Chang nominated Carol Taniguchi, seconded by Senator Elefante.

Senator Fukunaga moved that the nominations be closed, seconded by Senator McKelvey and carried.

The Chair declared Carol Taniguchi as Temporary Clerk of the Senate.

On motion by Senator Rhoads, seconded by Senator Kanuha and carried, Spec. Com. Rep. No. 1 was adopted.

The Committee on Credentials was thereupon discharged with thanks.

The Chair thanked the keiki and students in the gallery for their attendance.

The Chair then called upon Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald of the Supreme Court, State of Hawai'i, to the rostrum to administer the oath of office to the newly elected members of the Senate.

Chief Justice Recktenwald administered the oath of office to the newly elected members of the Senate, who were standing at their respective desks.

The Chair noted that Chief Justice Recktenwald would be retiring and thanked him.

The Roll was then called by the Temporary Clerk showing all Senators present.

Nominations for officers of the Senate being next in order, Senator Dela Cruz placed in nomination the name of Senator Ronald D. Kouchi for President of the Senate, seconded by Senator Lee.

Senator Richards moved that the nominations be closed, seconded by Senator Rhoads.

The motion to close the nominations was then put by the Chair and carried unanimously, and the Temporary Clerk was directed to cast a unanimous ballot for Senator Ronald D. Kouchi as President of the Senate.

The ballot having been so cast, Senator Ronald D. Kouchi was declared elected President of the Senate of the Thirty-Third Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2025.

The Chair appointed Senators Keohokalole and DeCoite to escort President Kouchi to the rostrum.

The Chair explained that it was a tradition of both the House and the Senate for the legislator from District 1 of the Big Island to preside at the outset of Opening Day and thanked Senator Inouye. The Chair added, in good humor, that if the guests enjoyed the ceremony, he was responsible, but that if the program was not to the guests' liking, then Mr. Puahala of his office, the Clerk, and the Sergeant-at-Arms had done all of the work.

The Temporary Clerk then proceeded to introduce the following distinguished guests to the members of the Senate:

The Honorable Josh Green, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and Mrs. Jaime Green;

The Honorable Sylvia Luke, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and Mr. Michael Luke;

Representatives from the San Francisco Consular Corps representing Germany, India, Luxembourg, Seychelles, and Canada, who were also seated in the gallery.

The President addressed the members of the Senate and guests as follows:

“This is the time for my remarks, so: aloha. I realized, thinking about today, that this will be the 10th full session that I will be presiding over, and I would like to begin by thanking my colleagues for giving me this opportunity—to you for placing your trust in me—and I want you to know how much I appreciate and value the relationships that we enjoy and the relationships that allow me to be here.

“And, as I have done every year, before talking about anything else, I take seriously my responsibility on speaking on behalf of the Senate to thank each and every one of you, especially those who are seated here on the floor: the family members who have sacrificed so that we may serve, the campaign people who have worked so hard to allow us to get elected to be able to serve. There are no words to really express just how much we appreciate your willingness to share your family member with us for those of you who have given up so much of your time and put in so much energy to helping us get here. On behalf of all of the Senate members, thank you very much.

“So, I have to my left my wife, Joy, who has done that sacrifice; to my right, our eldest son, Dan; to my left behind me, our youngest son, Egan. And before I continue talking about people on the rostrum with me, we have recently produced the goals of the Senate, of the Majority. And we have not yet gotten them put into a booklet, but soon it will be out and available, and we are here to tell you that insurance is a big problem facing our community, but as it's been highlighted by the fires in California and the hurricanes in Florida and North Carolina, this is a national problem, and it may take us working with the federal government to come up with a solution so that we can afford to ensure our homes protect our investments and continue to choose to live in a beautiful place like Hawai'i and not get insurance premiums that are so high that we can no longer choose to live here. So, we are acutely aware of that, and Senator Keohokalole has been working or leading the Senate's efforts in the interim working group that has been doing this. And through his committee, we will be carrying the discussion to look for solutions. In his committee, we'll continue to work on issues to ensure that Hawaiian Electric is able to deliver power to all of our communities on O'ahu, Maui County, and Hawai'i Island. I left Kaua'i out because we are run by a cooperative, and we're the only island in the chain not getting our power through Hawaiian Electric, but it's critically important that everyone get the power so that we have the economic development and the quality of life that we enjoy here.

“Education is going to be the key if we are going to create a better path for each of our children. We in the Senate are committed to continue to work with the administration, and the governor has put Lieutenant Governor Luke on point for getting those seats for universal pre-K at no charge to everyone in the state of Hawai'i. It is expensive to pay for child care, and it is clear that if you go to pre-K as a K-12 student, you have better educational outcomes. And so we are committed to do that; we are committed on the K-12 program. Senator Kidani has been a long and passionate advocate for education, and Senator Dela Cruz, as he's led the Ways and Means committee, visiting each of the islands, has made it clear that the days when we had academies because we wanted to create opportunities for students that were passionate about different things and got a certificate on the wall was not the goal anymore. The goal is to go from internships to apprenticeships: to have these students in the academies working in the area that they're interested in, maybe pursuing a career in later, so that when they are done, it's not the paper on the wall that matters, it's the job that they have or the ability to have prepared them to go to college. And he has been driving this message and changing the paradigm, and I think it's a real game-changer about preparing our children to face the future and to wind up with jobs that pay better and to be able to better support their families.

"He has also been an advocate for purchasing vacant land, and as you see the debates about what would be good, what would be bad, oftentimes the developer has to maximize their investment, and they need that land to pay the highest and best use, but not if we own the land and we're the State of Hawai'i. And a lot of the land that he has land banked initially was in his passion to drive the ag economy, but we are now seeing that if we control land, then if we're going to do development for affordable housing, that that is critically important. And as there is a transition occurring on Kaua'i as Steve Case has now looked at the Grove Farm properties and said, 'I believe that we would like to sell some of this land to see what's happening in the community,' I believe it's important for the Agribusiness Development Corporation to take possession of some of these lands that Grove Farm has: lands that control how the water flows so we can ensure a future in farming for all of the adjacent landowners. They have land that would be great for us to build housing, and there is land where we could relocate our prison out of Wailua, where they're in a tsunami-inundation zone, and we need to look at all of the opportunities that exist on each of the islands. And with Senator Dela Cruz's track record, I am confident that the Ways and Means committee will work with the rest of the Senate to come up with a plan that will create pathways to create that brighter future that we are all looking for.

"We have Senator San Buenaventura in the health space. Health cost is just skyrocketing. And she's from Puna on the Big Island, and for those of us who live in rural O'ahu or the neighbor islands, having qualified health care is a challenge. I found out on Kaua'i last month: I had right trigger-finger issues, but they have a tremendous hand surgeon, so I had same-day surgery done at Wilcox Hospital, and a month later, I can grab the gavel with my right hand again. You know, I am so glad I was able to rehabilitate at home, where we've constructed an ADA-style shower so that you could keep your incision dry and be safe. And I had cataract issues, and there's a doctor on Kaua'i who had a Manhattan practice who decided that wasn't the life and the way she wanted to raise her three children, and she's on Kaua'i now. It took me five months to get to see her because we have so many of us aging and needing the assistance, but I am troubled this morning because the right eye was done for distance, so I can see you better now, but if I need to actually read, I'm going to have to put my glasses on because I still can't see near. But to have someone like that on Kaua'i available to us, you know, is amazing, but that's a unique part of the story and not the common story for each of us. So, healthcare: critically important to us, and with Senator San Buenaventura's leadership, I'm excited about what's going to happen.

"Senator Chang has been in the paper recently about the housing initiatives. Senator Moriwaki, as the Ways and Means vice chair, making the investment in the capital improvement projects. You know, we're excited about what we're going to do. And I see Governor Ige here, and so I will share with you what I told the current governor: He's the luckiest guy I know because we put so much money into housing with Governor Ige, but by the time you go through the planning, you get the permits, you put the things out to bid and everything, all Governor Green is going to be doing is wearing hard hats and using shovels. And then I guess he got upset when I was trying to give Governor Ige all the credit, so he put more money in this year's budget for affordable housing, but that says we're committed to get the affordable housing.

"And I wanted to use a Martin Luther King quote—I gave it to one of my office people last night, and I said, 'Type this in big font so I didn't have to put my glasses back on.' I can't find it here, and it's on my phone, and I don't want to pull out my phone, and I don't want to put on my glasses, and I don't want to try to make the screenshot bigger, so I'll paraphrase Dr. Martin Luther King since we are on the eve of celebrating his birthday. But the essence of one of his speeches said that everything is interconnected in this world, and everything that each and every one of us does affects and interacts with everything else around us. Now, we have a shortage of teachers, but one of the biggest obstacles to getting a teacher is that the housing is too expensive. We have a shortage of medical professionals, nurses. The shortage of housing is an obstacle. In any business, it is an obstacle. I'm thrilled to be standing before you with one son who lives on O'ahu, 20 minutes away from Kaua'i, and the other one 5 minutes away from where we live on Kaua'i. But I know there's a lot of you out there who are still fighting to get your children home or your grandchildren home, and the obstacle is the housing, but that's why we need the investment in the infrastructure. We need to get through the permitting process and build the units faster because this housing affects everything we're trying to do in this economy—everything in what we're trying to do in creating a better life for all of us here in Hawai'i.

"The other interconnectedness that I'd like to talk about is agriculture. Now, they're saying climate change and other issues are affecting some of the disasters we see. But on the wildfire front, there weren't a lot of wildfires when we were growing cane and we had active crops in the ground. And in fact, ironically, there were managed burns by the plantation as they harvested the cane. But with the closing of sugar and so much fallow land, then we have areas that are ripe for the fires that we see. There was a fire on West Kaua'i that started from Hanapēpē Hawaiian Homes and was working its way west to Kaumakani Village. I was out with Bruce Robinson looking at Gay and Robinson land, and you could see the area that burned, and on the dirt road that we stood on, on one side was the black charred ground from the fire. And on the other side, Alec Sou was growing crops, and it was untouched, and it stopped the fire, and it protected Kaumakani Village. Senator Hirono got the money for Pacific Biodiesel to start raising sunflower on Gay and Robinson property: crush the sunflower seeds to get oil for Kaua'i Island Utility Cooperative to run the generators with a renewable fuel; the leftover crushed seeds are nutrient-rich for cattle, which Gay and Robinson raises. And that fire break is there to protect the village of Kaumakani, Makaweli, ultimately to Waimea itself.

"So how do we get more of our crops or our land into active use? Well, I begin by saying that not making the 10 percent goal of locally sourced food for our schools is not going to get us there. But in the interconnectedness of this world, if we are at the public schools that serve a hundred thousand meals a day, buying more local produce from our farmers here that they would be putting more of their agricultural land into cultivation, shouldn't we be spending millions of dollars to do that instead of the report we just got from the AG and spending millions of dollars to put up walls and barriers to protect us from fire? Why not something that would feed our children? And then in the interconnectedness, it shows clearly that if a student has better nutrition, they have better scores. So now, we go from protecting against fire but feeding children, giving them more nutritious meals. There may be an identified cost at the point of the cafeteria purchase that the school lunch costs more, but we need to look beyond just one comparison on making a decision, but we need to look at the bigger picture about how is our money being used and how are we effectively going to deliver for all of the people of Hawai'i? Now, most of the food is frozen and preservatives and in freezers. If we start using fresh food, refrigeration costs less electricity than freezers cost. Many of the students we have—that may be probably the best meal they're going to have because they're challenged in getting food on the table at home, paying rent, making ends meet. So wouldn't we want that to be a great meal for them? But I say to the Department of Education, if you better understand your role in all of this, and to the Department of Agriculture, why this is so critical for us to expand, then, hopefully, we will be telling each other how we can do it and not why we can't do it. And we're not going to be counting bottled water as part of the 5 percent of locally sourced products for our students.

"But you can read all of our stuff later. And this is the least pressure I've felt on any Opening Day remarks that I've made because everybody's going to want to write about what Speaker Nakamura said because she's the first woman to be the speaker of the House here in Hawai'i, unlike the progressive Senate, which has had President Colleen Hanabusa and President Donna Kim, you know. So, to my colleague from Kaua'i, I extend my congratulations to you.

"And there are a few things I'd like to do before I wrap up, so I'm going to need your help. Liliiana is 12 today, and Mike Gabbard is 77 today, but it shows that as we are moving to the twilight, we have people coming with the sunrise. So if you would join me—and I think it would be easier to say, 'Happy birthday, Lily and Mike'—but somebody that's a better singer than I, can we join in singing 'Happy Birthday' to Lily and to Mike?"

"And while I'm not 77 but a decade behind, I'm honored today. I have several of my classmates who are here from Waimea High School. We're celebrating our 50th reunion this year. Governor Ige is also a class of 1975. Unfortunately, he went to Pearl City and not Waimea High School.

"You know, we talk a lot in the past as we're celebrating the 50th anniversary of Title IX and the impact that Congresswoman Mink had on the lives of so many young women in this country. Well, Liliiana's mother, Rachel, went to Pepperdine on a golf scholarship after graduating from Kaua'i High School. And we on Kaua'i were blessed because she chose to come home, meet her husband, raise her family here on Kaua'i. And with her is her daughter Carly, who's a senior in high school at Kaua'i High School this year, and she will be going to Oregon to a small school, and she will be playing soccer. And so the opportunities that were created for the young women here continue to be reaped by our young girls in our high schools here, and so, although she's not here, how about again another big hand for some of the effects of Congresswoman Mink?

"Now, I'm going to brag a little bit about my daughter-in-law, staying on the women's team. You know, neither one of them chose to be here because they know I have a tendency to embarrass them when they're here, but our eldest son, Dan, his wife, Katie, was in communications for the Department of Health, and she was the face of the Department of Health during Red Hill and a strong advocate for the community here on O'ahu and the protection of the aquifer and the water resource for the people of Hawai'i. She works full-time in a private communications firm now but decided a year and a half ago to go to the Richardson School of Law, so, while working full-time, she is doing the four-year night law school program and wants to be an even more fierce advocate than she already was, and my wife and I are incredibly proud of what both Dan and Katie have achieved.

"And my son Egan—I don't want to tell Dan he's my favorite even though he's younger, and I only tease because we do have a grandson from Egan—but his wife, who lived in Hawai'i Kai and did Teach for America, drove from Hawai'i Kai to Wai'anae High School almost every day. She did try briefly to find a few young teachers and see if they could get their rent together and live a little closer, and it just didn't work out, and she went back home to be with her parents. There has been in the past criticism of Teach for America because we train them, and after three years, they run away. When we talk about the problems happening on the Leeward Coast, and we talk about bringing more law enforcement and bringing a presence in that way, how about looking at some love? How about looking at investing in that? And instead of leaving after three years at Wai'anae High School, she chose to stay two more years. She would score keep or keep statistics for the football team; she would be involved in other after-school activities. For the Wai'anae people, if you want anybody to blame, look no further than my son Egan, who convinced her to move to Kaua'i and invest in the students of Kaua'i and be with him there. But, before she moved, he put on his dress shirt, he put on his tie—he chaperoned the prom at Wai'anae. Senator Kidani, with one of her staff members, Danicia, who is a former Cherry Blossom queen, worked with West O'ahu University, and they worked with the young ladies at Wai'anae to get them dressed, worked with the makeup, hairstylists for them to go to the prom. Why? Because we care about those students—their lives matter. But that's the way that we move change.

"My wife has several cousins here, but one of them, one of her cousins—her daughter went to Kamehameha and eventually got her medical degree from Burns School of Medicine. She was supposed to be here today, but she couldn't juggle her patients' schedule. And, realizing that her patients' needs would not be met, she chose to go to work at Waianae Comprehensive, where she is hanging her shingle, not here downtown. Ray Vara, I'm not saying you should go steal her for Kapi'olani or Straub (she's doing great work out at Waianae Comprehensive), but it's the young people who are making these choices to invest in the young people on the Leeward Coast that I believe is going to help turn us around and all get us going in the right direction.

"So, I'd simply end with another Martin Luther King quote: 'Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.' So, let us lead with love; let us lead with aloha. Mahalo."

At this time, the President called on Senate Minority Leader Brenton Awa.

Senator Awa rose to present the following remarks:

"I don't want to do this: In the most prestigious room in Hawai'i's Legislature in front of all of the most prominent leaders who run this state, I don't want to be the one to have to point out what's going wrong. I'm one of the youngest people in here—I don't know why I gotta be that guy.

“Aloha! Three years ago, they pulled me off of television news and ended my career for standing up for truth and integrity, and then the people put me here. So, over the past two years, this journalist in me has been collecting stories from behind government’s curtain, and today, once again, because of the people, we are back being streamed live, and we welcome you into the Senate Chamber 2025 on this Opening Day. I hope you’re all having a pleasant morning. We begin with a new series looking into Hawai‘i’s model, questioning whether the life of the land is really being perpetuated in righteousness, or has our state become the land of the fee and the home of the ones who can pay it? I’ll stop there because the last time I went anchorman in the Senate, everybody voted against us, so I’m going to leave it up to Keahi Tucker and Joe Moore to continue that. Daryl Huff, you can take the message back with you.

“You know, this was supposed to be a roast, but the governor has a State of the State in a week, and I didn’t want him to get the final say—we know he can doctor it up really well. Plus, the mayor owns the media, figuratively, much like Donovan Dela Cruz owns the Senate. Scott Saiki used to own the House, but the mahus changed his pronouns to ‘has-been.’ I don’t want to be the one to do this, but Tumua wasn’t available. Our mayor is 78 years old, well old enough to be my dad, and when I try to introduce new ideas there, it rarely goes well. I can only imagine how the rest of this is going to go.

“Joking aside, we’re all more similar than we are different. Take the governor and I. He was raised in Pennsylvania; I went there to college to wrestle. He loves the Steelers; I’m also a fan. In fact, during the pandemic, when the lieutenant governor at the time was trying to be the governor and he was hogging all the TV time, he was coming on our newscast; I was behind the desk with my coat and tie but shorts on the bottom. The governor must have liked it so much that he started showing up that way, too. You know, the governor and all those who came before, they’re not bad people; it’s just their decisions is why Hawai‘i is where it is. Many of us have that voice on our shoulder that says, ‘What if?’ The difference is, when ours says, ‘What if we stop foreigners from buying our lands?’ theirs says, ‘What if we get sued?’ I don’t want to be the one to keep Governor Green from helping California fire victims, but if he wants to fly them in and offer hotel rooms for free, what if we offer that to all the Hawaiians who’ve been displaced up there? To all the people who used to live here who are now displaced, what if we be the bridge to bring them back? What if we took care of our own? What if we helped Lāhainā victims still recovering or the Hawaiians in tent after tent on the side of Waimānalo Beach, Kaka‘ako, right outside this capitol? What if we helped local residents who are a paycheck away from losing their place?

“Our government keeps unveiling one affordable housing project after the next on the news, but on the street, in our communities, we know for a fact our government solution to housing has been for us to move out of state. There is no more hiding it: We know one in three families consider it; 370,000-plus Native Hawaiians are living it. We are the minority in our own land. I don’t want to be the one to point out how many of our leaders, whether they realize it or not, have been pricing us out while they build their own paradise.

“In 2014, we were paying $150,000 for the superintendent’s salary of our public schools. Today, we’re paying $240,000 for that same position. In September, KHON’s headline read, ‘Hawai‘i has allowed education to plummet to new lows.’ Governor Ige signed off on—Governor Abercrombie (excuse me, Governor Ige, we have a pretty good relationship) signed off on that. Even though we still have a teacher shortage, lunch is arguably no better, and a lack of buses comes up every year. Still, last year, Governor Green gave his approval to raise the superintendent’s salary up to $300,000 per year if needed.

“And I don’t want to be the one to judge, but it doesn’t seem like they’re spending our tax money up in Mānoa any better. We just went from paying $410,000 per year for the University of Hawai‘i’s former president to now $675,000 per year, plus $7,000 a month for housing and $60,000 to relocate UH’s new president from New York. If you’re doing the calculations, that’s a $28,000 check before taxes every two weeks. Who needs a lottery when you have the Board of Regents? Over the next three years, they’re set to give out $2.3 million in a payout to an individual the board spent $150,000 just to find—that is our taxpayer money. I don’t want to admit, but, you know, our fellow senator from Kalihi is sitting right in the crowd over here somewhere, making $72,000. She’s a former Senate president. She knows the ins and outs of UH. We could’ve got away at a third of the cost if we tripled her salary.

“It’s no wonder why the City Council members felt justified giving themselves a pay raise from $69,000 to $113,000 without giving us a say. It’s okay, though: I’m sure Tommy Waters, Esther Kia‘āina, and company are giving 64 percent more effort every day they show up to work. Maybe they can help us stop the luxury development at Turtle Bay, where—like many other places across the state—outside developers are being allowed to squeeze both profits and people off of our land.

“I don’t want to be the one to make enemies, but for as long as we’ve been alive, there’s been barely no resistance in this building—none for the past 10 years, so we will be the ones. We will be the ones to resist all decisions that force locals to leave. When lawmakers want to bring in out-of-state nurses to replace our own, we will resist. When they try to take our rights as parents, we will resist. When they force local businesses to shut down, we will resist. When the life of the land is not being perpetuated in righteousness, we will resist. Where there is greed, we will resist, and we will represent. Everyone who has had to move out of state, we represent. The hundreds of thousands who don’t believe in government, we represent. All of the people who are covered by health insurance but still can’t afford to go to the doctor, we represent. All of the locals who turned down the job and lost their job, we represent.

“I realize this is getting long—I could go on and on about the policies we’re pushing, but historically, because of the lack of balance in this state, the Legislature does not pass bills from our side. If we’re lucky, they’ll take our ideas and run with it. I want to mahalo Senator Mike Gabbard for introducing a copy of our ‘About Time’ bill to stop foreigners from owning agricultural lands. (Gotta be Tulsi’s dad, after all.) We hope one day another one of our colleagues will adopt our ‘Hele On’ bill to stop states from sending their homeless here. We have a project that could be a breakthrough solution to solving our cesspool crisis that won’t cost you your house. But most importantly, this year, we’ll bring transparency into the Capitol like never before. For all the braddahs who are saying ‘trans-what?’ that means we hired Mr. Mean over here to broadcast to 400,000 people every day what’s going on.

“You know, on a sidenote, last year, we shined a light without all of that. We shined a light on one of our bills, and we just took it through the process, and we were blessed that the Senate passed our bill to ban foreigners as a study. We passed it over to the House. We showed people the process. When it got to the House, for political reasons, they decided to not let the people speak on it, and when we showed that to the people, their reaction—many people were triggered, and I’m sidenoting off this speech just because it’s so important. There were threats on Representative Linda Ichiyama’s life, and it doesn’t have to come to that; it shouldn’t come to that. And, while many locals have been forced to take flight and leave the state, the ones who’ve stayed, they’ll fight to stay. And so, the more they sell out our land, the more they sell out our people, the less aloha there will be in this state. We have a governor who is leading it. Maybe we can save the aloha.

“Before we go, just want to clear up a few misconceptions about our party—get ahead of it. They’ll tell you we represent the rich. I had to move back with my parents just to afford to do this job, and I didn’t take a single dollar to get reelected. They’ll tell you we don’t care about the environment and convince you with terms like ‘climate change,’ but they resist when we plant food trees to feed our people. And they tell you that we’ll hate mahus, but just ask Kumu Hina up in the gallery who one of her favorite politicians is. I’m Brenton Awa, leader of the Minority. Good luck, God bless. Mahalo.”

The President responded:

“Thank you, Senate Minority Leader Awa. I’d also like to thank Nalani Brun. She’s always great to do the national anthem and ‘Hawai’i Pono’ī.’ She requires no instruments, no backup, but just her powerful voice and beautiful spirit. I’d like to thank the minister who came from Lāhainā, and, again, the message to Mayor Bissen, who’s here, is that Lāhainā and Maui are still very much on our minds and will be certainly an important issue as we go forward.”

At 11:17 a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:34 a.m.

The Chair then announced that nominations were in order for the office of Vice President of the Senate.

Senator Moriwaki placed in nomination the name of Senator Michelle N. Kidani for Vice President of the Senate, seconded by Senator Kim.

Senator Ihara moved that the nominations be closed, seconded by Senator San Buenaventura.

The motion was then put by the Chair and carried unanimously, and the Temporary Clerk was directed to cast a unanimous ballot for Senator Michelle N. Kidani as Vice President of the Senate.

The ballot having been so cast, Senator Michelle N. Kidani was declared elected Vice President of the Senate of the Thirty-Third Legislature of the State of Hawai’i, Regular Session of 2025.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The following concurrent resolution (S.C.R. No. 1) was read by the Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

S.C.R. No. 1 “SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF THE HAWAII SUPREME COURT TO ADDRESS THE LEGISLATURE ASSEMBLED IN JOINT SESSION FOR THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY ADDRESS.”

Offered by: Senators Kanuha, Awa

On motion by Senator Rhoads, seconded by Senator Gabbard and carried, S.C.R. No. 1 was adopted.

At this time, the Chair made the following statement:

“At this time, the Senate would like to take a moment to make a special presentation to our newest member.

“In conjunction with the 55th anniversary of statehood in 2014, we presented a very special lapel pin to current and past senators. This pin is a symbol of our service in the Senate and to the people of the state of Hawai‘i.

“Under Senate Rule 92, the Senate pin shall only be worn by current or past members of this body. Again, as I say every time we do this, I’d like to thank former president Kim, who took the initiative to have the pin created, so we appreciate this memento that each member will be able to take with them, whether they are here or when their time here has ended.

“At this time, I would like to invite Senator DeCorte to come to the rostrum to receive her Senate pin and Senator Kidani to assist me with the presentation.”

Senator DeCorte then proceeded to the rostrum, where she was presented with the Senate pin by Senate President Kouchi and Senate Vice President Kidani.

The Chair introduced Ms. Kainani Kahaunaele, a 12-time Nā Hōkū Hanohano awardee and Hawaiian song enthusiast, singer, songwriter, teacher, and musician who had been born and raised in Anahola, Kaua‘i, and had lived in Hilo, Hawai‘i, for 27 years as an advocate for Hawaiian language revitalization and the perpetuation of Hawaiian music through education and performance. Ms. Kahaunaele, along with her daughter Ms. Kaniulono Hāpai and Ms. Emma Coloma-Nakano, performed several mele for members of the Senate and guests.

The Chair then thanked Adrian Kamali‘i for helping to arrange for the musical performance and noted that Loke Sasil and her daughter Shar Carillo had performed for the Senate several years ago. The Chair added that Ms. Sasil, like Ms. Kahaunaele, was from the village of Anahola, which was modest in population but large on talent.
