

SEVENTH DAY

Thursday, January 28, 1999

The Senate of the Twentieth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 1999, convened at 11:34 o'clock a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by Lieutenant Mark Nelson, The Salvation Army, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator M. Ige who was excused.

The President announced that he had read and approved the Journal of the Sixth Day.

At this time, Senator Tam introduced Faye Chou F.P. Shei, 1998's Model Chinese Mother of the Year, and Dr. Joseph Wah Chow Young, 1998's Model Chinese Father of the Year. Mrs. Shei was accompanied by her husband, Tien Tsen, and Dr. Young was accompanied by his wife, Barbara. Also accompanying the honorees was Ernest Loo, President of the United Chinese Society.

At 11:49 o'clock a.m., the Senate stood in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

The Senate reconvened at 11:55 o'clock a.m.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Gov. Msg. No. 131, submitting for consideration and consent, the nomination of REYNALDO D. GRAULTY to the office of Judge, 17th Division, Circuit Court of the First Circuit, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, for a term of ten years, was read by the Clerk and was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Senator Anderson rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I stand on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, after 20 years of being in this Legislature, I called my third press conference today. It was a great party and I must say that Robbie Dingeman from the Advertiser did show. I think the rest of the news media might have been busy. Also, I think with the economic problems that we're having they have cut back on having any of the press around, regardless if it's the printed press or if it's the television people. But if they talk about a two-party system, they're full of it.

"We came up with what I believe was a fair package of what the people wanted. I sent out a survey and got over 700 surveys back. And I think that the response that we got was part of what we are looking at, Mr. President. And now the six major points of the Minority package -- drug testing, streamlining of government, regulatory reforms, education -- are things that the people are interested in. And if the press was not interested, that's tough, because the people are.

"And I would like my colleagues to know, Mr. President, that after 20 years I don't call press conferences for the hell of it . . . never have. And they've always used the excuse that they're busy. So I think the economy has hurt them and I really feel sorry for them.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President, and I think the Minority Leader may have something to say on that. Thank you."

Senator Slom then rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I would just like to add that oftentimes we get calls from our constituents and they say, 'How come no one is talking about that? How come no one says anything about that? How come nobody introduces any bills like that?' And we do, and the media seem to be very selective in terms of what they cover.

"Also, this year people are saying, 'Well, gee, there's no reason for a minority package because the Governor has already said everything that you've been saying for 15, 20 years now.' The Senate President has so very clearly indicated his staunch support for small business and economic reform, and so has the Speaker of the House. So why should there be a package from the Minority? Well let me tell you -- because we have been at it for a long time. We're very happy that you have adopted many of our proposals. But you know what? We're the ones that put our names and our reputations, personally, in advocating these measures. We're the ones that really believe in them. We're the ones that go to the mat to make sure that they get enacted.

"And this year, since it's not a legislative election year, a number of individuals are finding it harder to get specific positions from their legislators. Surveys that are published do not list the names of many of our colleagues nor their positions, as well. So I think this year, more than ever, it's important to have not necessarily a loyal opposition because, Mr. President, we don't want to be opposed. We want to work collaboratively. We want to work cooperatively with you. We stand ready to do that. But what we want to make sure is that there is real intent to enacting the legislation as the kind Minority Leader has said that the public wants, that the public has talked about. We've heard a lot of lip service about change. We want to make sure that there is implementation.

"So we stand ready, once again, to do this, and we hope that the media will continue to help get the word out that, in fact, there are people that are absolutely committed to making these changes.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator Anderson rose again and said:

"A short point, Mr. President, if I may.

"Also, since the Minority Leader mentioned the state of the state address and we've got all of these lovely baskets of agricultural products, there wasn't one point made on ag. We have bills for ag. Agriculture is probably the third largest income group that we have. We depend on them.

"So those are the kinds of things that I believe that the media and everybody else should be looking at. How do we help this economy? What group do we back? Who deserves to be helped? Those are the kinds of things, Mr. President, that we're looking at. I'm also putting in bills for gambling, with a referendum.

"You know, if the media is not interested in what we're doing, then they should find somebody else to come down and do their job here.

"Thank you very much, Mr. President."
