Senate Bill	Referred to:
No. 635	Jointly to the Committee on Labor and Environment and the Committee on Judiciary
No. 677	Jointly to the Committee on Labor and Environment and the Committee on Transportation and Intergovernmental Affairs
No. 1230	Jointly to the Committee on Health and Human Services and the Committee on Judiciary
No. 1623	Committee on Ways and Means

Senator Kawamoto, for the Committee on Transportation and Intergovernmental Affairs, requested a waiver pursuant to Senate Rule 20 for S.B. No. 17, and the Chair granted the waiver.

Senator Iwase rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I'm rising on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I'd like to express some comments about an article which appeared in this morning's newspaper, Section B, written by Mr. Kresnak who's no longer with us. But it's titled a 'Major tax overhaul not likely,' and in it, it quotes the Senate as saying that major tax initiatives are not likely to pass in the Senate and that the Senate's priorities would be 'to determine which state services are essential and to underwrite retroactive pay raises to government employees.'

"Mr. President, I can agree with the sentiments expressed with respect to which state services are essential, and matters relating to retroactive pay, relating to down-sizing government, because it is important when we talked about, in the beginning of this session, the economy and the actions which must be taken by the Legislature to send a message to those who would come to Hawaii that this is a business-friendly state, that we will undertake reforms, that we recognize problems. Reducing government expenditures is one. But I think it is also very important that we undertake tax reform if we are to send a message that this State is willing to undertake major reforms to improve the business climate and to improve the State's image.

"And while there may be issues relating to the House bill -- the sales tax, eliminating the personal income tax, which by the way, I think, would result in double digit sales tax cost to the public -- I think that we have to initiate and look at proposals. There is Senate bill 502 which relates to the value added tax. It is one which phases in tax reform but it does seek an end goal of eliminating the GET. Eliminating the GET would eliminate the pyramiding issue and it phases this whole process out to the year 2002 and allows the Department of Taxation direct input in drafting the bill, in looking at whether it's necessary.

"But I hope that as we move along (this is a single referral bill) that the Senate would not be foreclosed from looking at major tax reforms, particularly the GET, with the hope and the goal of eliminating the GET and also with the hope and the goal of establishing a fair tax system in a service industry oriented economy, in contrast to a manufacturing industry oriented economy. We are no longer a manufacturing economy. We are a service economy, and our tax base must reflect that.

"Thank you, Mr. President."
