forward for the betterment of this State and also for the Island of Kauai, I feel confident that Mr. Baldwin will have nothing but the best interests of Kauai and of the State and he has the definite ability to move forward into the twenty-first century for the Tourism Authority.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1721 (Gov. Msg. No. 144):

Senator Inouye moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1721 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Kawamoto and carried.

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of JAMES J. NAKATANI as Chairperson, Board of Agriculture, term to expire December 31, 2002, seconded by Senator Kawamoto.

Senator Inouye rose in support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. President, I support Mr. Nakatani's nomination.

"Mr. Nakatani has been Chairperson of the Board Agriculture, Department of Agriculture since January 1995 and has served as an officer or member of numerous agricultural organizations, including the Hawaii Farm Bureau Federation, the Hawaii State Farm Fair, the Watercress Grower's Association, the Agribusiness Development Corporation, and the Western United States Agricultural Trade Association, among others.

"Mr. Nakatani is both an experienced farmer and a seasoned administrator. During his tenure, he has streamlined permitting processes and promoted economic development in the State, while remaining mindful of Hawaii's unique environmental qualities. He has actively sought solutions to problems affecting Hawaii's agricultural and aquacultural industries during a period of extensive change for Hawaii's farmers.

"I urge my colleagues' support of Mr. Nakatani's nomination.

"Thank you, Mr. President."

Senator M. Ige rose in opposition to the nominee and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak against this nomination.

"Mr. President, last year the Legislature passed a bill relating to slaughterhouses for the State, and I had been quite concerned because the slaughterhouse basically uses pork from a lot of hard-working farmers out there. In the bill that we passed last year, it talks about a slaughterhouse or floating $10 million of revenue bonds for a slaughterhouse including a meat-processing facility. And yet today, when you speak to some of the farmers, that has not become a reality, nor has it even been close to where we want to be. And I just hope that during the interim or during these final weeks we can continue to ask these questions so that we can produce a facility that talks about jobs and economic diversity in the community.

"Mr. President, I've never come across so many people telling me that they support my 'no' vote in the committee and that they would want to say things to me off the record. And my response has been, if you cannot put it on record, then I don't want to hear it. You come up with the criticism and I'll help you. But if you come to me with anonymous phone calls, forget it, I'm not interested.

"Mr. President, this is not the kind of leader we need to bring the agricultural community to meet the challenges of the twenty-first century.

"Thank you."

Senator Kawamoto rose in support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. President, I speak in favor of the nominee.

"Mr. President, I had the opportunity not this past Saturday but two Saturdays ago on Ag Day . . . we had diversified ag from all over the State come to the Ag Day out in Pearl City, and not one, not one had any negative comment about Jimmy Nakatani. They all had glowing words. They said things like if it wasn't for Jimmy they wouldn't have had this opportunity for diversified ag.

"I've been on the Economic Committee for four years and his devotion to the water situation, his devotion to diversified ag was of utmost importance to the success of these activities. Therefore, Mr. President, I urge all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this nominee.

"Thank you."

Senator Buen rose to speak against the nomination as follows:

"Mr. President, I, too, want to speak against this appointment.

"Many of the Maui farmers have called me. I know in the Economic Development Committee I had voted in favor, however, after that I had received many calls regarding this appointment and these are farmers who have expressed their concern about the administration, and I need to let you know and to my fellow colleagues that I'm opposed to the nomination because of the farmers' concerns on Maui.

"Thank you."

Senator Chumbley rose to speak in favor of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this nomination.

"Mr. President and colleagues, this is a changing time for agriculture, however it is also a time where we have great opportunities. The mono-crop of sugar is nearly gone from our islands. In fact, there's only two islands left with sugar, both of which I represent. The vast amount of lands that are left behind need a diversified agricultural crop. And I can attest, having been a previous board member of the Department of Agriculture, that the department is going in the right direction, Mr. President. And under the leadership of Jimmy Nakatani, we've taken some great steps forward in the recent years.

"I want to support his nomination and I urge all my colleagues to do so. We will move forward with agriculture. We will become diversified, and I think he is the right person to lead us in that direction.

"Thank you."

Senator Hanabusa requested her vote be cast "aye, with reservations," and the Chair so ordered.

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 2 (Buen, M. Ige).

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1722 (Gov. Msg. No. 147):

Senator Inouye then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of SEIJI F. NAYA, Ph.D., as Director of Business, Economic Development, and Tourism, term to expire December 2, 2002, seconded by Senator Buen.

Senator Inouye rose to speak in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I speak on behalf of the nominee, Dr. Seiji Naya.

"Dr. Naya has brought a global perspective to the department and his longstanding experience and extensive networks with the Asian Development Bank have allowed Hawaii companies to access markets throughout Asia, in part due to the high degree of respect many of American's trading partners hold for Dr. Naya. Dr. Naya has also been an active participant in reducing the State's regulatory burden for business, and has worked with a broad selection of public and private sector agencies to support and promote Hawaii's business community.

"Mr. President, I urge all of my colleagues to support Dr. Naya's nomination.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1723 (Gov. Msg. No. 149):

Senator Kawamoto then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of EDWARD V. RICHARDSON as Adjutant General, term to expire December 2, 2002, seconded by Senator Bunda.

Senator Kawamoto rose to support the nominee as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of this nominee.

"Mr. President, your nominee General Edward V. Richardson has served as Adjutant General since 1991. He first showed his immense management capability when Hurricane Iniki came in 1992. By collecting all the forces, he did a tremendous job in ensuring disaster preparedness and disaster relief for the Island of Kauai and in Waianae.

"For all the things he did, your Committee has reviewed his extensive background and finds the utmost qualified person in General Richardson. Therefore, I recommend our colleagues to vote 'aye' on General Richardson."

Senator M. Ige also rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I, too, rise in support of General Richardson.

"Mr. President, General Richardson and the Government Operations Committee, a couple of years back, had, I guess, a misunderstanding on an appropriation involving half a million dollars. The committee questioned the department. And I just want to say for the record that the General handled himself with integrity. His word was always good. He was always open to staff inquiries into the appropriation, into the amount that was in discrepancy.

"And Mr. President, I just want to say that I've come to know him a little better during these last couple of years. And I believe that he is the kind of person that we do need in our government -- a person who is good for his word, who has integrity.

"Mr. President, I'm deeply concerned about Y2K and the State not being ready. He anticipated a lot of the concerns of the community regarding Y2K and began meeting immediately with various sectors of the community. And I think this is the kind of leadership we need. I have every confidence that we are going to be facing problems on January 1 of the new year, but I believe that the General has everything well under control.

"Thank you."

Senator Inouye added her remarks in support of the nominee as follows:

"Mr. President, I speak on behalf of the nominee.

"General Richardson has been good for Hawaii. He's the head of the civil defense operation for the State, and as former mayor of the County of Hawaii I've had extensive working relationships with the General. I urge my colleagues to support this fine gentleman."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Kawamoto introduced General Richardson who was seated in the gallery.

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1724 (Gov. Msg. No. 158):

Senator Kawamoto moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1724 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Bunda and carried.

Senator Kawamoto then moved that the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of KAZU HAYASHIDA as Director of Transportation, term to expire December 2, 2002, seconded by Senator Bunda.

Senator Kawamoto rose in support of the nominee and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in favor of the nominee.

"Mr. President, this nominee has worked hard in the administration these last four years and has done a tremendous job. We have received, I think more than any other director, the most capital improvements money wise than any director since the history of the State Department of Transportation. So I'd like to congratulate him for that.

"When we all started, we agreed to get capital improvement projects out and got out in the fields so that the construction guys could go back to work and help our economy. We worked to expedite the process and got many projects out on time and on budget.

"So, Mr. President, I urge all my colleagues to vote 'aye' on this nominee.

"Thank you."

Senator Anderson then rose in support of all the nominees and stated:

"I waited till last, Mr. President, so that I can vote in favor of all the nominees that are here, and last time I did have a conflict since General Richardson is relation. At that time you said no conflict so I didn't think I'd have one this time. But I did want to say that I support all of them and wish them the best of luck. And I thank you very much, Mr. President."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 25. Noes, none.

At this time, Senator Kawamoto introduced Mr. Hayashida who was seated in the gallery.

Senator Inouye then introduced Dr. Naya and Mr. Nakatani who were also seated in the gallery.

Senator Chumbley, on behalf of the Senate, extended happy birthday wishes to Senator Ihara.

Senator Buen rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"The Honolulu Advertiser on Sunday, April 18, 1999, had an article that stated that 'Lanai Co. offers to help with repairs -- Harbor breakwater destroyed in 1992.'

"This is good news for me and all of the residents of Lanai. For a very long, long time many people have worked very hard to find funding for the repairs to Kaunalapau Harbor. This harbor is vital to the residents as one of the means for commerce and economic development of this island.

"I have, on behalf of the Lanai residents, met with Mr. David Murdock, CEO of Lanai Co., to encourage him to fund the $1.5 million with a match of $1.5 million from Governor Cayetano. Governor Cayetano has agreed to fund this amount.

"My greatest concern is that in the upcoming conference meetings, the $1.5 million is maintained in the Senate budget. We must ensure that we maintain our part to make matching funds available from the State for the repairs to Kaunalapau Harbor.

"I look forward to receiving the check from Mr. Murdock and passing it on to Governor Cayetano.

"Thank you."
