Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"We have just lost someone who was very active and dedicated in our community, Mr. Adam A. 'Bud' Smyser of the Honolulu Star Bulletin. Mr. Smyser epitomized leadership in this community and dedication to many different activities. He had a long and distinguished 55-year career with the newspaper. During that period of time, he served as a reporter, city editor, managing editor, editor in chief, editorial page editor, and most recently as contributing editor, writing his column 'Hawaii's World' twice a week.

“He came originally from York, Pennsylvania. He was in the United States Navy, and he was recruited and offered a job by the late editor of the Honolulu Star Bulletin and he started his career in 1946. He served on many committees in his community, and he was a very active advocate for Statehood for Hawaii.

“He was a gentle man. He was a good reporter, a good writer, and he was a good friend. I think we’re all going to be less without Bud Smyser in our community.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”

At this time, Senator Chun Oakland, on behalf of the Senate, extended happy birthday wishes to Senator Chumbley.

Senator Chumbley rose on a point of personal privilege as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“I won’t disclose my age today, but you can tell by the gray hair and the frowns in my forehead that life is getting challenging these days.

“Mr. President, I’d also like to request a rising vote of adjournment and a moment of silence for Bud Smyser.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”
