"Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of H.B. No. 1547, H.D. 1, with reservations.

"Briefly and to the point, this is just another fee heaped on the people of Hawaii which adds to the total cost and burden of living in Hawaii, albeit some people may find it rationalized by the modest increase in the fees. Nevertheless, the proponents of this bill never did explain to the Committee at the hearing, to my satisfaction, that it was necessary. Hence, I will be voting for it, with reservations, in the hope that we can moderate fee increases such as this in the future.

"Thank you."
