“Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

“Now that we’re enmeshed in the final stages of the budget, there were several rumors around the Capitol around a week or so ago about offers being made and checks being proffered to help us balance the budget. Everybody said that they didn’t know anything about those checks, and then a couple of days later there were specific checks in the amount of, I believe, $150 million and $200 million that were discussed. I always look to the Governor for, you know, answers in fiscal matters and he said he didn’t know anything about those checks. And then last night, I understand there was a proposal made for a $300 million check in the area of gambling and again the Governor said he didn’t know anything about it.

“So I’m just wondering if this $300 million check does in fact exist, is that going to be referred to Ways and Means? Is it part of the Conference Committee? Or where will that check wind up?”

The Chair replied:

“It will probably wind up with the Republicans.” (Laughter.)

Senator Slom continued:

“The Republicans . . . good. We’ll look forward to that. (Laughter.) Thank you, Mr. President.”
