ORDER OF THE DAY

APPROVAL OF JOURNAL

MATTER DEFERRED FROM MONDAY, APRIL 14, 2003

The President deferred the approval of the Journal of the Senate of the Forty-Seventh Day until Monday, April 21, 2003.

ADVISE AND CONSENT

Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1575 (Jud. Com. No. 4):

Senator Hanabusa moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1575 be received and placed on file, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland and carried.

Senator Hanabusa then moved that the Senate consent to the nomination of FAYE KOYANAGI as Judge of the District Court of the First Circuit, for a term of six years, in accordance with the provisions of Article VI, Section 3, of the Hawaii State Constitution, seconded by Senator Chun Oakland.

Senator Hanabusa rose to speak in support of the nominee as follows:

“Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of Jud. Com. No. 4, submitting for communication and confirmation to the District Court of the First Circuit, State of Hawaii, judicial nominee Faye Koyanagi.

“Mr. President, Faye Koyanagi is truly a local girl. She’s a Kaimuki High School grad and, Mr. President, we all know that where you went to high school is what’s important in this state. She’s a Kaimuki High School graduate with a Bachelor of Arts from UCLA, teaching credentials from the University of California, Berkeley, and she actually taught for five years on the mainland. She has a law degree from Hastings where she served as student note author for the very prestigious ‘Hastings Constitutional Law Quarterly.’

“The Hawaii State Bar Association said that Ms. Koyanagi is highly qualified. Mr. President, I did ask whether the fact that she served as a director affected that rating, and they assured me that it did not. Mr. President, I also must disclose that when Ms. Koyanagi was up for the various positions that she’s held with the Hawaii State Bar Association, that in my other life as a lawyer I have supported her in her elections to those various positions.

“Ms. Koyanagi is before us for the district court. The issue that we always face when we’re looking at these confirmations is what are the characteristics of the person to fill that job. Ms. Koyanagi comes with all the necessary experience to meet those characteristics. First of all, she has served as a prosecutor, a Corporation Counsel, and at the same time, her latter career was in insurance defense.

“About, oh, maybe 10, 15 years ago, insurance companies made a decision that they would take key lawyers and make them in-house counsels. In other words, they kind of form their own law firms. Ms. Koyanagi was one that one of the largest ones selected, and that was Fireman’s Fund. She has served for the past 10 years as their main counsel in this state.

“She has the necessary experience that will be facing anyone who serves in the district court. Now, when you think about the district court, and we’ve asked this of every single nominee, why the district court? The district court is – remember the old TV program Night Court – where almost every conceivable type of dispute comes before you. So why, why district court? Ms. Koyanagi said it best – she said that’s where the real people of Hawaii are and she feels that it’s an obligation to make sure that when people come to the court, the district court, which is where most people really experience the judiciary system, that their first impression is a positive one.

“Ms. Koyanagi comes before you and believes that the role of a court is to be a jurist, to have civility in treating those before her, and of course she must do a good job in dispensing justice and she must work to have people trust in the judicial system. She has been described as somebody who is calm but decisive, and she is very, very conscious of the fact that she can provide or she will have a sense of the first impression that many have of the court system.

“We are all very well aware of the recent criticisms that our judiciary has been faced with, and someone like Ms. Koyanagi will bring to that system credibility, confidence, and she will have the necessary traits to treat the people who go to the judiciary with the kind of respect and honor that they each deserve.

“So Mr. President, I ask that you and my colleagues join me in consenting to Jud. Com. No. 4, Faye Koyanagi for the District Court of the First Circuit, State of Hawaii.

“Thank you.”

Senator Hemmings rose in favor of the nominee and said:

“Mr. President, I rise to speak in favor of the nomination of Faye Koyanagi to the judicial district court.

“Mr. President and colleagues, speaking on behalf of your loyal opposition, the Minority Party, we do believe that it’s important that all judicial nominees have a broad and firm foundation of support, and this includes bipartisan support. So with these brief, short words, I’d like to advise our colleagues that the Senate Minority, in a bipartisan manner, are behind this nomination and give our full support to it.

“Thank you, Mr. President.”

The motion was put by the Chair and carried on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 24. Noes, none. Excused, 1 (Whalen).

At this time, Senator Hanabusa introduced Judge Koyanagi to the members of the Senate. (Judge Koyanagi, who was seated in the gallery with family and friends, rose to be recognized.)
