Ayes, 22. Noes, 1 (Kawamoto). Excused, 2 (Hanabusa, Kim).

S.B. No. 1362, S.D. 3:

On motion by Senator Chun Oakland, seconded by Senator English and carried, S.B. No. 1362, S.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO MENTAL HEALTH," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, none. Excused, 2 (Hanabusa, Kim).

S.B. No. 2474, S.D. 3:

Senator Menor moved that S.B. No. 2474, S.D. 3, having been read throughout, pass Third Reading, seconded by Senator Baker.

Senator Slom rose to speak in opposition to the measure and said:

"Mr. President, I rise in opposition to this bill.

"Let me say that I absolutely support the concept of renewable energy and I voted for many bills over the past several years that would give us incentives to do that. However, this bill again is a bill that mandates the utility not only that it must do certain things, it must do them by a certain date, but also picks percentages of its total sales as to what it should be.

"These percentages, I've never seen any testimony that has had a basis for where these percentages have come from, and they certainly have not come from anybody in the energy industry, whether it be regular, or alternative, or whatever. I noted the other day that we have had bills in the past where we've suggested that the government lead the way by example by having schools and other public buildings using renewable energy, and when the bills were passed they were vetoed by the former Governor as being too costly.

"So, here again we are just looking at the private sector. I think that the public sector could go a long way as being a model for renewable energy if we did that, but we're not doing that. And in addition, instead of providing incentives, we're providing penalties. So I cast my 'no' vote.

"Thank you."

Senator English rose to speak in support and stated:

"Mr. President, I rise in support.

"Well, there you go again comparing apples and oranges. You know, the thing that we talked about earlier – that was mentioned by the speaker earlier – was requiring use of solar energy on government buildings. I still think it's a great idea, but the mandate that comes out of this particular bill requires everyone to meet a new standard – not just the private sector, government as well.

"I have to say that these numbers are important, and they're important because it's supported by the administration and supported by many of us. The administration came out with the number that they picked that sounded very nice. They proved to the Committee that they could meet those numbers. And when you have things that are very easy to meet, you always want to set a higher standard. So what we did was set a higher standard for Hawaii and asked for even higher renewables because if we can meet 20 percent by the year 20 and the administration says 'yes we can, this is our goal,' then we said let's try and strive for 30 percent, 10 percent more. Because if it's too easy to do, then there's really no challenge. So now, the administration is working very hard, along with industry, to come up with how we're going to meet these numbers.

"As you know, this goes over to the House for discussion. I think that we'll come out with a nice number at the end, but at this point, I think our position is firm at 30 percent. So I ask for your continued support.

"Thank you."

Senator Slom rose in rebuttal and said:

"Mr. President, just a very brief rebuttal.

"Again, when we first started this kind of legislation years ago, we could use words like strive. But this bill, and the reason I'm voting against it, does not talk about strive. It is a mandate. It is compulsory. It is forced. It's not a goal; it is a standard.

"Thank you."

Senator English rose to respond as follows:

"Mr. President, just so that the record is absolutely clear, that's the exact same mandate that was sent down by the administration. They wanted the exact same type of mandate. So, we're simply helping to accommodate that and moving a compromised hybrid bill forward.

"Thank you."

The motion was put by the Chair and carried, S.B. No. 2474, S.D. 3, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO RENEWABLE ENERGY," having been read throughout, passed Third Reading on the following showing of Ayes and Noes:

Ayes, 23. Noes, 1 (Slom). Excused, 1 (Kim).
