MISCELLANEOUS COMMUNICATION

Misc. Com. No. 1, from the County of Kauai, Department of Water, dated November 28, 2005, transmitting the "Proposed C.I.P. Projects, Request for State Aid, 2006 Legislative Session," and Resolution No. 3, 2006-2007, was read by the Clerk and was placed on file.

Senator Sakamoto rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

"Mr. President, I rise in response to an article that the Hawaii Reporter put out, written by Laura Brown. It was posted on January 20, 2006. In part, what it says is, 'Some contractors – including the company owned by the brother of the Senate Education Chair – got paid for projects they did not complete.' In the article it also states that the 'Hawaii Reporter contacted S&M Sakamoto and its office and confirmed that the company completed the $20,000 work order on the bleachers at Mililani High School last summer. However, Mililani High School administrators confirmed that the work was done, not by Sakamoto's company, but instead by military volunteers.'

"Mr. President, I don't know what the rationale for this is. I don't know if it's my responding to the Governor and the Minority Leaders of the Party in trying to clear up the repair and maintenance dollars. I don't know if it's my responding to misstatements or statements or puffery on this Floor with some of my colleagues here, Mr. President.

"With this incorrect portrayal of my brother, his company, this places sort of a dim view of this publication or this author's view of government, of small business. This isn't right. Do they feel that government is fraught with cheating, stealing, deception? Maybe the people they're associated with think that's the common practice. But it's a sad day when jumping to this kind of conclusion can make innocent people at the school, in the business world, some contractors, including my brother's company, put in a wrong light.

"So let me set part of the record straight. We can go on and on. I have documentation that can backup what I'm saying. But in part, S&M Sakamoto was awarded the Mililani High School wooden bleachers repair project on May 10, 2004, and the work was completed on August 1, 2004. The bleachers were located at the football stadium, tennis courts, and baseball field. I've been given payroll affidavits from S&M Sakamoto and their painting subcontractor that were submitted to DAGS to certify who worked on the project and what they were paid.

"The custodian at Mililani High School reported in July of 2005, eleven months after S&M Sakamoto completed the project, that parents and volunteers did paint the stadium bleachers a similar brown color to what was used. Some power washing of the concrete base was done, but no repairs to the bleachers themselves. The volunteer work apparently was done only to the stadium bleachers.

"S&M Sakamoto denies it got paid for any of the work they did not perform and asks that the news report be retracted and that an apology be issued to S&M Sakamoto for accusing them of fraud in performing this work. There are documents to show that it was a bid. Four contractors bid and they were the lowest bidder. I got an e-mail from my brother. He had talked to the current principal at the school. Dr. Brummel said that Laura Brown was wrong in her facts, if indeed you can call them facts, but was wrong. There was volunteer work done to the bleachers but it was done last year and totally nothing to do with the work that the company had done.

"Mr. President, we need to rise above the dim corridors that these tabloids or pseudo-whatever puts out, Mr. President. They need to report the facts, not just jump to conclusions seeing one event and another event and immediately saying there's something wrong. There is something wrong when people take a dim view of government, a dim view of small business, a dim view of people who are trying to do their best – that's what is wrong.

"So Mr. President, we need to set the record straight and I ask that the people involved do set the record straight with the appropriate apologies, retractions, or corrections.

"Thank you, Mr. President."
