
SENATE RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A TASK FORCE TO STUDY THE FEASIBILITY OF A NATIVE HAWAIIAN HEALING PROGRAM THAT EMPHASIZE THE PRACTICE OF HO'OPONOPONO AND THE CONCEPT OF PU'UHONUA FOR EX-OFFENDERS AND PAROLEES TO FACILITATE THEIR REHABILITATION AND REENTRY INTO SOCIETY AND TO REDUCE RECIDIVISM.

1 WHEREAS, according to Department of Public Safety
2 statistics published in 2005, approximately forty-four per cent
3 of female offenders and thirty-seven per cent of male offenders
4 are of Native Hawaiian ancestry; and 5

6 WHEREAS, Native Hawaiians cultural practices include the 7 principle of ho'oponopono, or the act of righting a wrong through 8 traditional means of conflict resolution; and 9

10 WHEREAS, Native Hawaiians cultural practices include the 11 concept of pu'uhonua, or place of refuge, where one who breaks
12 the kapu, or rules, can go to avoid punishment, and after making 13 the required restitution, can return home; and 14

15 WHEREAS, healing programs based on Native Hawaiian 16 practices have already proven to be effective, such as the 17 Girls' Court Program, a gender-specific and strength-based 18 program targeting female juvenile offenders, which was granted
19 the unique opportunity to volunteer on Kaho'olawe, where they 20 lived together, shared and restored the land by planting native
21 species of vegetation, cleared trails and paths, and learned 22 about the island's history; and 23

24 WHEREAS, these young women benefited personally,
25 spiritually, and educationally from this unique experience
26 through learning about their culture, providing community
27 service, and self-discovery about their young womanhood; and 28

29 WHEREAS, a healing program for ex-offenders and parolees
30 targeted at healing and teaching Native Hawaiian traditions and 31 cultural practices would greatly benefit these individuals who

1 could also develop self worth and pride in their culture by 2 increasing their knowledge and providing a purpose for 3 themselves, their families, and for future generations of 4 Hawaii's people; and

5
6 WHEREAS, this program could teach participants life skills
7 with an emphasis on Native Hawaiian cultural traditions, and 8 help them become acquainted or reacquainted with their rich 9 heritage; now, therefore,
