SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT TO STUDY WORKPLACE FLEXIBILITY.

1 WHEREAS, the term "workplace flexibility" includes the
2 options of flex time, telecommuting, and compressed work weeks;

3
4 WHEREAS, section 76-1.6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, provides
5 that the offices of the State and counties must be open for the 6 transaction of business as determined by the chief executive;
7 and

8
9 WHEREAS, state departments generally have the discretion to 10 set the work hours for its employees; and

11
12 WHEREAS, state departments have some operations that serve
13 the public face-to-face, which require normal business hours of 14 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., or the normally accepted business; and

15
16 WHEREAS, state departments may desire to make accommodation
17 in work hours for the personal convenience of individual
18 workers, such as for child care or transportation; and

19
20 WHEREAS, telecommuting and compressed work weeks may be 21 feasible for some state agencies; and

22
23 WHEREAS, line managers must ensure adequate office staffing
24 to meet public service needs, which may not be feasible with 25 flex time; and

26
27 WHEREAS, in deciding whether or not to allow telecommuting
28 from home as an option, managers must consider workers'
29 compensation and other liability concerns, plus additional 30 equipment, telephone lines, and other expenses; and

31
32 WHEREAS, the Department of Human Resources Development has
33 negotiated a memorandum of understanding with the Hawaii

1 Government Employees Association that makes it easier for
2 departments to implement "alternative workweek programs" for
3 their workforces, with various individual scheduling options for 4 daily work times and designated days; and

5
6 WHEREAS, the Department of Human Resources Development also
7 has a "flexible working hours policy and procedure" for full-
8 time and part-time state employees, affording employees the 9 opportunity to arrange their individual work schedules according
10 to specific guidelines and within certain time limits
11 established by management, such as glide-time and staggered
12 hours; and

13
14 WHEREAS, at the Department of Human Resources Development,
15 more than half of its employees are currently participating in 16 flexible work schedule options; now, therefore,

17
18 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-fourth
19 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2007, the 20 House of Representatives concurring, that the Department of 21 Human Resources Development is requested to conduct a study of 22 workplace flexibility options, including:

- 23
24 (1) Data on the agencies, departments, and employees that
25 participate in the program;
26
27 (2) Data on the workplace flexibility options chosen by 28 participating employees;
29
30 (3) Effect on employee productivity levels and employee
31 morale;
32
33 (4) Estimates on the amount and cost of gasoline saved and 34 transportation time saved by employees due to 35 participation in the program;
36
37 (5) Other findings, recommendations, including proposed
38 legislation, if any, and pertinent information about
39 the pilot program and its impact, consequences, or 40 benefits on participating departments or agencies; and
41
42 (6) Past experience of departments and agencies with 43 utilizing workplace flexibility options; and
44

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Department of Human
2 Resources Development submit a report on findings and
3 recommendations to the Legislature no later than twenty days
4 prior to the convening of the Regular Session of 2008; and
5

6 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this
7 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Director of Human
8 Resources Development.
