STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

The President made the following observation:

“Members, today is the First Crossover deadline for concurrent resolutions. At this time, the Chair will entertain a motion to adopt Stand. Com. Rep. Nos. 1735-1819 in order to meet this deadline.”

Senators Sakamoto and Inouye, for the Committee on Education and the Committee on Intergovernmental and Military Affairs, presented a joint report (Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1735) recommending that S.C.R. No. 57, as amended in S.D. 1, be adopted.

Senator Ige moved that Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1735 and S.C.R. No. 57, S.D. 1, be adopted., seconded by Senator Whalen.

Senator Hemmings rose in opposition to the measure as follows:

“Madam President, I rise to speak against Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1735 and Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1736, resolutions concerning requesting the United States Congress to propose amendments to the No Child Left Behind Act.

“In the very well thought out, excessively, profusely written resolution full of inaccuracies and misrepresentations, I’ll direct the Floor’s attention to the committee report: ‘Your Committees find that the Department of Education has been subject to several mandates that have drained resources and taken the focus away from various programs and objectives under the No Child Left Behind Act.’ I won’t go into the details about the $2.3 billion the public education system siphons away without much accountability. If we’re going to examine everything, maybe we should examine and audit the DOE’s mismanagement of funds.

“But on that particular issue, our research shows that the DOE did not spend the federal No Child Left Behind money that was given for the years 2003-2006. The Governor’s report to the Legislature dated January 26, 2007, on the adequacy of federal funding for the No Child Left Behind Act noted in the reports, pages 16 and 17, the DOE only spent an average of 52 percent of the federal money given to them in these years. In other words, they have received money from the federal government and they’re complaining about not having enough money when they’re not even spending what they’re getting.

“This is the very reason why we really should be passing a resolution to audit the DOE which consumes approximately 20 percent of the total budget, and of course close to 40 percent of the A-funds or direct funds.

“Thank you, Madam President.”

"First of all, Madam President, I'd like to thank the Human Services Chair for giving this resolution a real fair hearing. But what appears before us today is a resolution that simply asks the Hawaii Disabilities Rights Center to outline their authority on facilities serving individuals with disabilities. The original resolution asked for an independent audit of their activities. This committee report basically, Madam President, asks the Hawaii Disabilities Rights Center to report on themselves. This can hardly be considered independent or objective.
