21 ~~resources development.~~] in a range equivalent to the 22 deputy comptroller's range. Effective July 1, 2005,

1 the deputy manager shall be paid a salary not to 2 exceed eighty-five per cent of the manager's salary.
3 The manager shall have full power to administer the 4 affairs of the stadium and related facilities, and to 5 provide for a management contract for the Kapolei
6 recreational sports complex, subject to the direction 7 and approval of the authority. The manager shall,
8 subject to the approval of the authority, have power 9 to appoint, suspend, and discharge a secretary who 10 shall be exempt from the requirements of chapters 76
11 and 89, and such other employees, subordinates, and 12 assistants as may be necessary for the proper conduct
13 of the business of the authority. Except for persons 14 hired on contract or otherwise as provided in section 15 109-3 and except for the manager, deputy manager, and 16 secretary, all appointments, suspensions, or 17 discharges shall be made in conformity with the 18 applicable provisions of chapter 76; and 19 (6) To plan, promote, and market the stadium, its related 20 facilities, and the Kapolei recreational sports
21 complex."

JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Accounting and General Services

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO SALARIES.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this bill is to establish a salary for the Aloha Stadium Manager that is commensurate with this position's responsibilities.

MEANS: Amend section 109-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: The Stadium manager manages the State's largest arena for sports and special events. The position must manage a full time staff of over 40 and a part-time workforce of over 600 people and is depended upon to create new revenues and markets while operating the stadium in a self-sufficient mode. The position's compensation should be at the level of the Deputy Comptroller, consistent with its reporting relationship to the Comptroller.

Impact on the public: The public will benefit from the high quality of applicants the position will attract.

Impact on the department or other agencies: This bill will create equity for this position and allow the department to attract qualified candidates for the position.
