

SECOND DAY

Thursday, January 17, 2008

The Senate of the Twenty-Fourth Legislature of the State of Hawai'i, Regular Session of 2008, convened at 11:50 a.m. with the President in the Chair.

The Divine Blessing was invoked by the Honorable Rosalyn H. Baker, Hawai'i State Senate, after which the Roll was called showing all Senators present with the exception of Senator Hee who was excused.

The President announced that she had read and approved the Journal of the First Day.

At this time, the President made the following announcement:

"Members, the Chair thanks you for using your laptops. It looks like we are almost at 100 percent. As you know, the electronic Order of the Day includes links to measures and other information that will make it easy for you to view the measure, status, and other relevant information as we are proceeding.

"You'll notice that the Data Systems staff are among us this morning, and they will be available to assist anyone who needs help during the Session. Just signal one of them if you need their assistance."

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The following concurrent resolution (S.C.R. No. 1) was read by the Clerk and was disposed of as follows:

Senate Concurrent Resolution

S.C.R. No. 1 "SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE TO ISSUE A POSTAL STAMP HONORING THE WORLD WAR II JAPANESE-AMERICAN NISEI SOLDIERS."

Offered by: Senators Ihara, Chun Oakland, Espero, Fukunaga, Gabbard, Hanabusa, Hee, Sakamoto, Tokuda, Taniguchi.

On motion by Senator Ige, seconded by Senator Whalen and carried, S.C.R. No. 1 was adopted.

Senator Slom rose on a point of personal privilege and said:

"Madam President, I have a point of personal privilege.

"The event of yesterday, the horrific murder in Kailua, should get our attention, particularly for this Session. We talk about ending domestic violence. We have marches, we have proclamations, we have bills, we have resolutions, and we have been talking about this for many, many, many years now, but we haven't really done anything constructively. And the fact is that this horrific occurrence took place before so many eyewitnesses who absolutely could do nothing, who were horrified, and the only person who tried to do something was a 60-year-old man, according to reports, who tried to battle with a 300-pound, six-foot-three perpetrator, who had first run over his former girlfriend and then had either a shotgun or rifle in his possession.

"A number of people have questioned over the years why I have introduced bills for concealed-carry or open-carry for people to protect themselves. All of the things that we talk about in terms of TROs and resolutions and the marches have not done anything. If we don't do something constructively, if we don't allow people choices and options to protect themselves or others as they see these crimes being committed, then we're going to continue to have midnight vigils and continue to have marches. But more importantly we are going to continue to have dead women and dead individuals in our community.

"The first responsibility of government is to protect and preserve the safety and tranquility of its citizens. We have not done a good job. We have to look for other options, and as I say, to allow other people to choose to do things that they cannot do under circumstances like yesterday. We need to take more responsibility for this, and that I hope we will be serious when we have our other deliberations. Thank you, Madam President."

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:00 noon, on motion by Senator Ige, seconded by Senator Whalen and carried, the Senate adjourned until 11:30 a.m., Friday, January 18, 2008.
