
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. In 1994, the legislature passed Act 283,
2 Session Laws of Hawaii 1994, to improve the administration of 3 the office of Hawaiian affairs by giving the office of Hawaiian 4 affairs the authority to issue revenue bonds secured by the 5 moneys received by the office of Hawaiian affairs from the 6 twenty per cent share of the revenue from the public land trust.
7 Act 283 accomplished this purpose through amendments to chapter
8 10, Hawaii Revised Statutes, that primarily added a new part
9 entitled "Revenue Bonds."

10 Section 1 of Act 283 noted that the office of Hawaiian 11 affairs was established as a body corporate and as a separate 12 entity independent of the executive branch. Further, section 1 13 noted that the 1978 constitutional convention intended that the 14 office of Hawaiian affairs have maximum control over its budget, 15 assets, and personnel. The Act also enabled the office of 16 Hawaiian affairs to maximize the trust funds without eroding the 17 trust corpus by providing another alternative to leverage the

1 trust funds. Act 283 required that the revenue bonds authorized
2 by the office of Hawaiian affairs be issued by, and on behalf 3 of, the agency's board of trustees and not by, or on behalf of,
4 the State. The Act provided that these revenue bonds would be 5 excluded from the State's debt ceiling and that issuance of 6 office of Hawaiian affairs revenue bonds would have no effect on 7 the State's power to issue general obligation bonds or the 8 funded debt of any political subdivision under article VII,
9 section 12, of the Hawaii Constitution.

10 The legislature finds that although the office of Hawaiian 11 affairs has never issued revenue bonds, the Hawaii and national 12 economies are now creating a renewed impetus for the office of 13 Hawaiian affairs to seek alternative sources of funding for its 14 projects. In addition, the legislature finds that the revenue 15 bond provisions of chapter 10, Hawaii Revised Statutes, which 16 have not been amended since their enactment, need updating to 17 better reflect current government bond practices and to ensure 18 that the office of Hawaiian affairs has maximum independence in 19 issuing bonds.

20 The purpose of this Act is to clarify and strengthen the 21 office of Hawaiian affairs' bond authority. The Act contains, 22 among other things, provisions clarifying the ability of the

1 office of Hawaiian affairs to meet the requirement that an 2 office project be self-supporting by using office of Hawaiian 3 affairs revenues that consist of rates, rentals, fees, and 4 charges for the use and services of a public undertaking,
5 improvement, or system, or user taxes.

6 SECTION 2. Chapter 10, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended 7 by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to 8 read as follows:

9 "§10- Support facility for variable rate revenue bonds.

10 If revenue bonds issued pursuant to this chapter are issued
11 bearing interest at a rate or rates that vary from time to time 12 or with a right of holders to tender the revenue bonds for 13 purchase, or both, the board may contract for a support facility 14 or facilities and remarketing arrangements as are required to 15 market the revenue bonds to the greatest advantage of the board
16 and the office upon such terms and conditions as the board deems 17 necessary and proper.

18 The board may enter into contracts or agreements with the 19 entity or entities providing a support facility; provided that 20 any contract or agreement shall provide, in essence, that any 21 amount due and owing by the board under the contract or 22 agreement on an annual basis shall be payable from the revenue

1 of the office; provided further that any obligation issued or 2 arising pursuant to the terms of the contract or agreement in 3 the form of revenue bonds, notes, or other evidences of 4 indebtedness shall only arise at such time as either:

5 (1) Moneys or securities have been irrevocably set aside 6 for the full payment of a like principal amount of 7 revenue bonds issued pursuant to this chapter; or

8 (2) A like principal amount of the issue or series of 9 revenue bonds to which the support facility relates 10 are held in escrow by the entity or entities providing 11 the support facility."

12 SECTION 3. Section 10-21, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended by adding a new definition to be appropriately inserted 14 and to read as follows:

15 "Revenues of the office" or "office's revenue" means all 16 rates, rentals, fees and charges, and user taxes, received by 17 the office of Hawaiian affairs, and all money and revenue
18 derived from the operations of the office of Hawaiian affairs, 19 other than:

20 (1) General appropriations; and

21 (2) Funds, the terms of which preclude their being used 22 for payment of the costs of construction or costs of maintenance of an office project or the payment of principal or interest of revenue bonds.

For purposes of the issuance of revenue bonds, the office of Hawaiian affairs or any office project or projects shall constitute a public undertaking, improvement, or system."

SECTION 4. Section 10-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"§10-4 Office of Hawaiian affairs; established; general powers. There shall be an office of Hawaiian affairs constituted as a body corporate which shall be a separate entity independent of the executive branch. The office, under the direction of the board of trustees, shall have the following

1 extent necessary or appropriate to carry out its 2 purpose;

9 activities shall be undertaken or supervised by that

11 qualified person;

12 (8) With or without terminating a project agreement, to 13 exercise any and all rights provided by law for entry
14 and re-entry upon or to take possession of an office
15 project at any time or from time to time upon breach 16 or default by a qualified person under a project
17 agreement, including any action at law or in equity 18 for the purpose of effecting its rights of entry or 19 re-entry or obtaining possession of the project or for 20 the payments of rentals, user taxes, or charges, or 21 any other sum due and payable by the qualified person 22 to the office pursuant to the project agreement; and

(9) To take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the powers conferred upon it by law."

SECTION 5. Section 10-22, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

"~~[§10-22]~~ Powers of the board. In addition to the powers which it now possesses, the board shall have power to:

(1) Prescribe and collect rents, fees, and charges for the use of or services furnished by any office project or the facilities thereof;

9 providing for the full [~~utilization~~] use of office 10 projects in every way conducive to the furtherance of 11 any or all purposes of the office."

12 SECTION 6. Section 10-25, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 13 amended to read as follows:
