SENATE RESOLUTION

ACKNOWLEDGING THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MANOA COLLEGE OF
TROPICAL AGRICULTURE AND HUMAN RESOURCES HISTORIC COSTUME
COLLECTION AS A STATE TREASURE OF NATIONAL IMPORTANCE AND ENCOURAGING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MUSEUM FOR ITS PRESERVATION

1 WHEREAS, the University of Hawaii at Manoa College of
2 Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources Historic Costume
3 Collection is a world class, hidden treasure; and 4

5 WHEREAS, the Historic Costume Collection contains 6 approximately sixteen thousand items of well-documented
7 Hawaiian, Pacific Islander, Pacific Rim, Asian, and Western 8 costumes, textiles, accessories, and dolls that preserve the 9 historic legacy of these cultures through clothing and apparel
10 artifacts; and
11

12 WHEREAS, expert Dr. Linda Arthur, Professor and Curator at 13 Washington State University, examined the College of Tropical 14 Agriculture and Human Resources' Historic Costume Collection and 15 stated that it is one of the most significant collections in an 16 American university because it is the largest collection of 17 Asian, ethnic, and Hawaiian textiles and garments, dating as far 18 back as the early 1800s; and 19

20 WHEREAS, many items in the collection are worth thousands 21 of dollars and are unique, rare, and irreplaceable; and 22

23 WHEREAS, donations of these precious items are made to the 24 University of Hawaii with the understanding that the gifts will 25 be preserved and protected for as long as possible; and 26

27 WHEREAS, although this large and valuable collection should 28 be shared with the academic world and the general public, its 29 integrity and prominence are severely limited by the absence of 30 three important factors: a permanent and secure museum display
31 space; a full-time curator to manage the collection; and a
32 sufficient financial base to support its legacy for future
33 generations; and

1
2 WHEREAS, because of the University of Hawaii's inability to 3 offer a permanent display area, the collection lost a
4 significant part of Hawaii's plantation history when valuable
5 costumes that documented that era were donated to the Japanese
6 American National Museum in Los Angeles in 1993; and 7

8 WHEREAS, the designation of a curator, whose primary job is 9 to manage the costume collection, is critical for the proper 10 oversight and preservation of the collection; and 11

12 WHEREAS, this priceless collection also needs proper 13 organization and identification to preserve and connect the 14 historical documentary record with the corresponding garments;
15 and

17 WHEREAS, the storage of the garments poses a high risk of 18 damage caused by inadequate storage space, the use of lining
19 paper with acid content and wire hangers instead of padded
20 plastic hangers, lack of archival storage boxes and adequate 21 shelving, and improper handling of materials; and 22

23 WHEREAS, the absence of a museum presents security
24 problems, with too many people entering the collection's storage
25 room, thereby posing the risk of disorganization, theft, and 26 lack of control in tracking items; and 27

28 WHEREAS, insects have damaged some of the textiles and the 29 extent of that damage is not known; and 30

31 WHEREAS, the absence of a proper display and lack of 32 storage space poses environmental threats to the collection;
33 now, therefore,
34

35 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-fifth
36 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2009,
37 that this body acknowledges the University of Hawaii at Manoa
38 College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources Historic 39 Costume Collection as a world class collection of historic and 40 national quality, integrity, and significance; and 41

42 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this body encourages the 43 University of Hawaii to find and secure a permanent home to

1 properly manage, display, preserve, and promote this cultural 2 and academic treasure; and

3
4 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 5 Resolution be transmitted to the Chairperson of the Board of 6 Regents and the President of the University of Hawaii.
