GOVERNOR'S MESSAGES

The following messages from the Governor (Gov. Msg. Nos. 306 through 324) were received and announced by the Clerk and were placed on file:

Gov. Msg. No. 306, dated April 29, 2009, informing the House that on April 28, 2009, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 1676 SD2

On April 28, 2009, Senate Bill No. 1676, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Health" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to clarify that telemedicine is within the scope of a physician's practice and sets requirements and standards for the practice of telemedicine services. Telemedicine means the use of telecommunications services, such as video or web conferencing, telephone, or internet links between a physician and a patient to evaluate or treat a patient.

Modern technology has given us the ability to perform activities not imagined just a few years ago. The advent of telemedicine is a recent phenomenon that now allows patients to contact their doctor outside of the normal medical office arrangements. This technology also allows doctors to provide services to remote or hard to reach locations, as well as consult in real time video conferences with colleagues and specialists out of state who can help diagnose a disease or recommend a specific treatment program not available locally.

Senate Bill No. 1676 attempts to foster the use of telemedicine by better defining the practice, setting forth the circumstances under which treatment recommendations can be made, clarifying the medical licensing requirements for telemedicine practices, and reaffirming that medical insurance covers this technique for delivering medical services.

Modern technology also brings new issues and concerns that have not been adequately addressed in this bill. Three areas in particular are of concern to the medical community and deserve further attention in forthcoming legislative sessions.

First, there remains an understandable concern that a face-to-face relationship should be developed first between a primary care physician and a patient before the doctor is allowed to provide diagnoses or treatments via telemedicine. The Hawaii Medical Board has acknowledged this preference and believes it is fundamental to the delivery of appropriately provided medical services within generally accepted community standards of care.

Second, as written, the bill appears to allow both an individual patient, as well as that patient's doctor, to consult with and obtain treatments from an out-of-state physician or other non-Hawaii-based medical services provider. It would appear more prudent for these out-of-state consultations to be restricted to doctor-to-doctor discussions where the Hawaii-based physicians know their consulting colleague and can ensure the discussions are technically and medically accurate.

Third, enforcement oversight issues for out-of-state physicians have not been adequately addressed in this bill. Neither the Hawaii Medical Board nor the Regulated Industries Complaints Office of the State Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs has jurisdiction over out-of-state practitioners and cannot sanction them for actions that may not meet Hawaii's standards of medical care. As the medical community seeks out and uses specialists and medical providers outside of Hawaii, it is important that states like Hawaii work with other jurisdictions to address how best to ensure that the out-of-state individuals providing medical advice meet the educational, licensing, and ethical standards we have established for our own medical community.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 1676 to become law as Act 20, effective April 28, 2009, without my signature.

Sincerely,

LINDA LINGLE"

Gov. Msg. No. 310, dated April 30, 2009, informing the House that on April 29, 2009, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution, the following bill became law without her signature, stating:

"Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

Re: Senate Bill No. 438

On April 29, 2009, Senate Bill No. 438, entitled "A Bill for an Act Relating to Board of Education Meetings" became law without my signature, pursuant to Section 16 of Article III of the State Constitution.

The purpose of this bill is to shorten the time requirement for posting Board of Education meeting notices, from six days to two days, if the agenda items are related to legislation pending before the Legislature.

Currently under the Sunshine Law, boards and commissions are able to file meeting notices less than six days prior to board meetings, as long as certain requirements are met pursuant to the emergency meetings provision of Section 92-8, Hawaii Revised Statutes. As stated by both the Office of Information Practices and the League of Women Voters of Hawaii, the Sunshine Law was enacted to facilitate public participation in government processes and should not be tinkered with for expediency's sake. As a result, I am concerned that making an exception to shorten the time requirement for filing meeting notices may not be the correct approach for resolving the issue of responding to legislation in a timely manner.

I am also concerned that this bill will allow for special treatment of the Board of Education under the Sunshine Law, as no other board or commission will be provided with the same exception provided under this bill. This bill will require the Office of Information Practices to make a distinction for the Board of Education and treat it differently from the numerous other boards and commissions that must also respond to tight legislative deadlines. Moreover, because the Sunshine Law, like the Uniform Information Practices Act, is supposed to be administered uniformly across all agencies and boards, creating a special exception for only the Board of Education sets an unnecessary precedent.

I call upon the Legislature to address in a comprehensive manner the conflicts between the Sunshine Law and legislative notices that provide inadequate time for boards, commissions and the public to respond. At a minimum, the Legislature should consider revising emergency meeting procedures for all boards and commissions that should be afforded the opportunity to comment on pending legislation.

For the foregoing reasons, I allowed Senate Bill No. 438 to become law as Act 24, effective April 29, 2009, without my signature.

Sincerely,
