Representative Ward rose in support of both measures and asked that his written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to offer my support for House Resolution 281 and its companion House Concurrent Resolution 309.

"Mr. Speaker, it is important that this Body join the global community in condemning the senseless acts of human rights violations being committed by the Chinese government against the people of Tibet. Human rights violations such as arbitrary arrest, and torture, sexual abuse and racial discrimination in hiring within the Chinese government are atrocities that we should not be silent about. The State of Hawaii must join others in taking this stand, and so I offer HR281/HCR309 my full support.

"Thank you for this opportunity to offer my support to these measures."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 281, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION DENOUNCING THE VIOLATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN TIBET," was adopted, with Representatives Har and Takai being excused; and

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the both measures, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, strong support with written comments. And a footnote, for the expansion of the Peace Corps, basically asking President Obama and the Congress to do what the world is asking for to get more Americans to help out in some of the underdeveloped areas.

"The real footnote is, there's no age limit, and there's no penalty for being previously in political office. I just encourage all my colleagues to consider that at some point in their life and career. Thank you."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to offer my support for House Resolution 275 and House Concurrent Resolution 303, which support the Peace Corps Expansion Act of 2009.

"Mr. Speaker, introduced by Congressman Sam Farr of California, himself a former Peace Corps Volunteer, the Peace Corps Expansion Act of 2009 would authorize greater appropriations for the Peace Corps and increase readjustment allowances for Peace Corps volunteers and volunteer leaders. These measures are important in the current international climate, as greater appropriations will better equip the Peace Corps in its vital role of furthering our relations with countries across the globe.

"Moreover, as a former Peace Corps volunteer in North Borneo and later the Country Director in East Timor, I know first-hand of the sacrifices that many of these workers make. Increasing their allowances can only further encourage their efforts, thus I offer HR275/HCR303 my full support.

"Thank you for this opportunity to offer my support to these measures."

Representative Ward's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, thank you for the opportunity to offer my support for House Resolution 276 and its companion House Concurrent Resolution 304.

"Mr. Speaker, after twenty-three years of civil war, the Lord's Resistance Army, led by Joseph Kony, has engaged in an armed conflict with the Government of Uganda, resulting in thousands of murders, at least twice that number of children abducted, and nearly two-million people displaced.

"On April 26, 2006, the State Department's Deputy Assistant Secretary for Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights and Labor testified before Congress that those who suffer most from the Lord's Resistance Army tactics are the children, who face enslavement, sexual exploitation, and forced soldiering. Hawaii and its citizens cannot be bystanders, as child enslavement, exploitation, soldiering, and human trafficking are moral and ethical issues that implicate us all, so I offer these measures my full support for this State to stand with the children of Uganda.

"Thank you for this opportunity to offer my support to these measures."

The unfortunate failure of our Government in the past to keep promises made to a quarter of a million Filipinos who answered our call to battle in World War II is a scar on our nation's past. The least we can do is to extend what we can to the beloved family members of those who fought so valiantly and diligently on our behalf, to simply expedite immigration visas to reunify families that paid a price literally in blood for the freedoms that we have today. I strongly urge the United States President, Senate, and House of Representatives to expedite these immigration visas."

"Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker. In support for both 1752 and 1753, and just some brief comments. Members, there's been legislation introduced in Congress to allow the Veterans of the World War II to be able to be reunited with their family members. These are very timely Resolutions, because hopefully by sending it up there now, it will give our Congressional Delegations some added steam power to get it through Congress and to President Obama's desk. So, again, thank you for all your support, Members. Mahalo."
