THE SENATE TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE, 2010 STATE OF HAWAII S.B. NO.2578

JAN 22 2010

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO TAXATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the economic 2 multiplier effect from large construction projects can have a 3 profound effect on stimulating the economy in this State. 4 However, the looming expiration of the federal government's 5 $8,000 first-time homebuyer income tax credit and $6,500 income 6 tax credit for other qualified homebuyers could hamper any 7 momentum that large construction projects generate, which may 8 consequently prevent a complete recovery of the construction 9 industry in this State.

10 The legislature finds that stimulating the demand side of 11 buying new homes by providing financial incentives to homebuyers 12 would be the greatest asset in turning around the current 13 economic crisis faced by the construction industry and the 14 overall state economy. The legislature further finds that 15 establishing a state income tax credit for qualified taxpayers 16 who purchase a newly constructed principal residence would help 17 to reduce or avoid a potentially crippling housing market 18 scenario in Hawaii once the federal tax credit expires by 2010-0603 SB SMA.doc putting back to work many Hawaii taxpayers who make a living in the construction industry. A tax credit could also influence contracts to develop a greater supply of affordable housing in the State if the contractors feel that there is sufficient demand for purchasing affordable housing.

6 The purpose of this Act is to establish a refundable state 7 income tax credit that mirrors the federal income tax credit but 8 limits the tax credit to qualified taxpayers who purchase a 9 qualified principal residence on or after April 1, 2010, and 10 before January 1, 2012.

SECTION 2. Chapter 235, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

14 "§235-Ohana residential housing income tax credit. (a) There shall be allowed to each qualified taxpayer subject to the 15 16 tax imposed by this chapter an ohana residential housing income tax credit which shall be deductible from the taxpayer's net 17 18 income tax liability, if any, imposed by this chapter for the 19 taxable year in which the credit is properly claimed. 20 (b) For purposes of this section: "Newly constructed principal residence" means a dwelling or 21 residential unit that did not previously exist and that will 22
