A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CHILDREN.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

- 1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that children benefit 2 from positive relationships with their parents, and it is widely recognized that children are more likely to thrive with support, 3 4 guidance, and nurturing from both parents. In divorce, 5 paternity, or custody actions, the term "visitation" is used 6 throughout the Hawaii Revised Statutes. Rather than promoting meaningful and involved parenting, the term "visitation" limits 7 8 parents to fill temporary and limited roles. Hawaii's children 9 are better served by referring to and promoting "parenting time" rather than "visitation". This sets a more positive and 10 11 optimistic approach to parenting situations where the child does 12 not live with both parents. 13 The purpose of this Act is to replace the term "visitation" 14 with the term "parenting time" only within those sections that 15 pertain to child custody, care, and maintenance between children 16 and their parents, and to add the term "parenting time" to those
- 18 child custody, care, and maintenance between children and any 2011-0485 HB SMA.doc sections that reference the term "visitation" and pertain to

- 1 other appropriate parties. This Act is not meant to replace the
- 2 term "visitation" with the term "parenting time" in chapter
- 3 583A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, the Uniform Child-Custody
- 4 Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act.
- 5 SECTION 2. Section 571-2, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
- 6 amended by amending the definitions of "quardianship of a minor"
- 7 and "residual parental rights and responsibilities" to read as
- 8 follows:
- 9 ""Guardianship of a minor" means the duty and authority to
- 10 make important decisions in matters having a permanent effect on
- 11 the life and development of the minor and to be concerned about
- 12 the minor's general welfare. It includes $[\tau]$ but shall not
- necessarily be limited[7] in either number or kind to:
- 14 (1) The authority to consent to marriage, to enlistment in
- 15 the armed forces of the United States, or to major
- 16 medical, psychiatric, and surgical treatment; to
- 17 represent the minor in legal actions; to make other
- decisions concerning the minor of substantial legal
- 19 significance;
- 20 (2) The authority and duty of reasonable visitation $[\tau]$ or
- 21 parenting time, except to the extent that the right of

1		visitation or parenting time has been limited by court
2	V	order;
3	(3)	The rights and responsibilities of legal custody when
4		guardianship is exercised by the natural or adoptive
5		parent, except where legal custody has been vested in 6		another individual, agency, or institution; and
7	(4)	The authority to consent to the adoption of the minor
8		and to make any other decision concerning the minor
9		that the minor's parents could make, when the rights
10		of the minor's parents, or only living parent, have 11	•	been judicially terminated as provided for in the 12		statutes governing termination of parental rights to
13		facilitate legal adoption, or when both of the minor's
14		legal parents are deceased.
15	"Res	idual parental rights and responsibilities" means those 16	rights an	d responsibilities remaining with the parent after the 17	transfer	of legal custody or guardianship of the person,
18	including	$[_{ au}]$ but not necessarily limited to $[_{ au}]$ the right to 19	reasonabl	e [visitation,] parenting time, consent to adoption or 20	marriage,	and the responsibility for support."
21	SECI	TION 3. Section 571-46, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
22	amended a	s follows:

1	1. By amending its title to read:
2	"§571-46 Criteria and procedure in awarding custody [and],
3	visitation[+], or parenting time; best interest of the child."
4	2. By amending subsection (a) to read:
5	"(a) In actions for divorce, separation, annulment,
6	separate maintenance, or any other proceeding where there is at 7	issue a dispute as to the custody of a minor child, the court,
8	during the pendency of the action, at the final hearing, or any 9	time during the minority of the child, may make an order for the 10	custody of the minor child as may seem necessary or proper. In
11	awarding the custody, the court shall be guided by the following
12	standards, considerations, and procedures:
13	(1) Custody should be awarded to either parent or to both
14	parents according to the best interests of the child,
15	and the court also may consider frequent, continuing,
16	and meaningful contact of each parent with the child
17	unless the court finds that a parent is unable to act
18	in the best interest of the child;
19	(2) Custody may be awarded to persons other than the 20	father or mother whenever the award serves the best
21	interest of the child. Any person who has had de facto custody of the child in a stable and wholesome

1 .	home	and	is	a :	fit	and	prope	r person	shall	be	entitled
2	prima	fac	ie	to	an	awar	d of	custody;

- (3) If a child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason, so as to form an intelligent preference, the child's wishes as to custody shall be considered and be given due weight by the court;
- 7 (4) Whenever good cause appears therefor, the court may 8 require an investigation and report concerning the 9 care, welfare, and custody of any minor child of the 10 parties. When so directed by the court, investigators 11 or professional personnel attached to or assisting the 12 court, hereinafter referred to as child custody 13 evaluators, shall make investigations and reports that 14 shall be made available to all interested parties and 15 counsel before hearing, and the reports may be received in evidence if no objection is made and, if 16 17 objection is made, may be received in evidence; 18 provided the person or persons responsible for the 19 report are available for cross-examination as to any 20 matter that has been investigated; and provided 21 further that the court shall define the requirements 22 to be a court-appointed child custody evaluator, the

1		standards of practice, ethics, policies, and
2		procedures required of court-appointed child custody
3		evaluators in the performance of their duties for all
4		courts, and the powers of the courts over child
5		custody evaluators to effectuate the best interests of 6		a child in a contested custody dispute pursuant to
7		this section. Where there is no child custody
8		evaluator available that meets the requirements and
9		standards, or any child custody evaluator to serve
10		indigent parties, the court may appoint a person
11		otherwise willing and available[+];[+]
12	(5)	The court may hear the testimony of any person or
13		expert, produced by any party or upon the court's own
14		motion, whose skill, insight, knowledge, or experience
15		is such that the person's or expert's testimony is 16		relevant to a just and reasonable determination of 17		what is for the best physical, mental, moral, and
18		spiritual well-being of the child whose custody is at
19		issue;
20	(6)	Any custody award shall be subject to modification or
21		change whenever the best interests of the child
22		require or justify the modification or change and,

1	herever practicable, the same person who made the
2	original order shall hear the motion or petition for
3	nodification of the prior award;

- (7) Reasonable visitation or parenting time rights shall be awarded to parents, grandparents, siblings, and any person interested in the welfare of the child in the discretion of the court, unless it is shown that rights of visitation or parenting time are detrimental to the best interests of the child;
- (8) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of the child and may assess the reasonable fees and expenses of the guardian ad litem as costs of the action, payable in whole or in part by either or both parties as the circumstances may justify;
- (9) In every proceeding where there is at issue a dispute as to the custody of a child, a determination by the court that family violence has been committed by a parent raises a rebuttable presumption that it is detrimental to the child and not in the best interest of the child to be placed in sole custody, joint legal custody, or joint physical custody with the

1		perpetrator of family violence. In addition to other
2		factors that a court shall consider in a proceeding in
3		which the custody of a child or [visitation] parenting
4		time by a parent is at issue, and in which the court
5		has made a finding of family violence by a parent:
6		(A) The court shall consider as the primary factor
7		the safety and well-being of the child and of the 8		parent who is the victim of family violence;
9		(B) The court shall consider the perpetrator's
10		history of causing physical harm, bodily injury,
11		or assault or causing reasonable fear of physical
12		harm, bodily injury, or assault to another
13		person; and
14	•	(C) If a parent is absent or relocates because of an 15		act of family violence by the other parent, the 16		absence or relocation shall not be a factor that
17		weighs against the parent in determining custody
18		or [visitation;] parenting time;
19	(10)	A court may award [visitation] parenting time to a
20		parent who has committed family violence only if the 21		court finds that adequate provision can be made for 22		the physical safety and psychological well-being of

1		the o	child and for the safety of the parent who is a
2	!	vict:	im of family violence;
3	(11)	In a	[visitation] parenting time order, a court may:
4		(A)	Order an exchange of a child to occur in a
5			protected setting;
6		(B)	Order [visitation] parenting time supervised by
7			another person or agency;
8		(C)	Order the perpetrator of family violence to 9			attend and complete, to the satisfaction of the 10			court, a program of intervention for perpetrators
11			or other designated counseling as a condition of 12			the [visitation;] parenting time;
13		(D)	Order the perpetrator of family violence to 14			abstain from possession or consumption of alcohol
15			or controlled substances during the [visitation]
16			parenting time and for twenty-four hours
17			preceding the [visitation;] parenting time;
18		(E)	Order the perpetrator of family violence to pay a
19			fee to defray the costs of supervised
20			[visitation;] parenting time;
21		/ ይነ	Prohibit overnight (vigitation) parenting time:

1		(G) Require a bond from the perpetrator of family
2		violence for the return and safety of the child.
3		In determining the amount of the bond, the court
4		shall consider the financial circumstances of the 5		perpetrator of family violence;
6		(H) Impose any other condition that is deemed
7		necessary to provide for the safety of the child,
8		the victim of family violence, or other family or
9		household member; and
10		(I) Order the address of the child and the victim to
11		be kept confidential;
12	(12)	The court may refer but shall not order an adult who
13		is a victim of family violence to attend, either
14		individually or with the perpetrator of the family
15		violence, counseling relating to the victim's status
16		or behavior as a victim as a condition of receiving
17		custody of a child or as a condition of [visitation;]
18		parenting time;
19	(13)	If a court allows a family or household member to
20		supervise [visitation,] parenting time, the court
21		shall establish conditions to be followed during 22		[visitation;] parenting time; and

1	(14) A supervised [visitation] parenting time center shall
2	provide a secure setting and specialized procedures
3	for supervised [visitation] parenting time and the
4	transfer of children for [visitation] parenting time
5	and supervision by a person trained in security and
6	the avoidance of family violence."
7	SECTION 4. Section 571-96, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
8	amended by amending its title to read as follows:
9	"[+] §571-96[] Visitation Parenting time and contact."
10	SECTION 5. Section 587A-15, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
11	amended by amending subsection (c) to read as follows:
12	"(c) Unless otherwise provided in this section or as 13	otherwise ordered by the court, a child's family shall retain 14	the following rights and responsibilities after a transfer of 15	temporary foster custody or foster custody, to the extent that 16	the family possessed the rights and responsibilities prior to 17	the transfer of temporary foster custody or foster custody:
18	(1) The right of reasonable supervised or unsupervised
19	visitation or parenting time at the discretion of the 20	authorized agency or the court;
21	(2) The right to consent to adoption, to marriage, or to 22	major medical or psychological care or treatment; and

1	(3)	The continuing responsibility to support the child,
2		including repayment for the cost of any care,
3		treatment, or other service provided by the authorized
4		agency or the court for the child's benefit."
5	SECT	ION 6. Section 587A-26, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
6	amended by	y amending subsection (e) to read as follows:
7	" (e)	The court may further order that:
8	(1)	Any party undergo a physical, developmental,
9		psychological, or psychiatric evaluation and that a
10		written or oral report be submitted or communicated to
11		the court and all parties before the next court
12		hearing;
13	(2)	The child's family members who are parties provide the 14		department or another authorized agency the names and 15		addresses of other relatives and friends who are 16		potential visitation or parenting time supervisors or
17		resource families for the child;
18	(3)	The child's family members who are parties be
19		permitted reasonable supervised or unsupervised
20		visitation or parenting time with the child at the 21		discretion of the child's guardian ad litem, the department, or another authorized agency;

1	(4)	The court and the parties view a video or listen to an
2		audio recording of the child's statements at such time
3		and in such manner as the court deems appropriate;
4	(5)	A criminal history record check be conducted by the 5		department or another authorized agency on a party who
6		is an alleged or potential perpetrator of imminent
7		harm, harm, or threatened harm to the child;
8	(6)	A protective order be entered;
9	(7)	The department or another authorized agency prepare a
10		written supplemental report;
11	(8)	The child's guardian ad litem visit the child's family
12		home and resource family home, be present during 13		supervised visitation[7] or parenting time, and
14		prepare a written report that includes specific
15		recommendations concerning services and assistance to 16		the family; and
17	(9)	Any other orders be entered that the court deems
18		necessary and in the best interests of the child."
19	SECT	ION 7. Section 587A-30, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
20	amended b	y amending subsection (b) to read as follows:
21	" (b)	At each periodic review hearing, the court shall review the status of the case to determine whether the child is

1	receiving	appropriate services and care, whether the case plan
2	is being p	properly implemented, and whether the department's or
3	authorized	d agency's activities are directed toward a permanent
4	placement	for the child. At the hearing, the court shall:
5	(1)	Determine whether the child is safe;
6	(2)	Determine the continued need for and appropriateness
7		of the out-of-home placement;
8	(3)	Determine the extent to which each party has complied
9		with the case plan and the family's progress in making
10		their home safe for the child;
11	(4)	Determine the family's progress in resolving the 12		problems that caused the child harm or to be
13		threatened with harm and, if applicable, the necessity
14		for continued out-of-home placement of the child;
15	(5)	Project a likely date for:
16		(A) The child's return to a safe family home; or

Report Title:

Children; Family Court

Description:

Substitutes "parenting time" wherever the term "visitation" appears in the Hawaii Revised Statutes, but only within the sections that pertain directly to relationships between children and their parents. Adds the term "parenting time" to sections that reference "visitation" between children and other parties. Does not apply to the Uniform Child-Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, chapter 583A, Hawaii Revised Statutes.
