THE SENATE TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE, 2011 STATE OF HAWAII

S.B. NO. 278

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO LABOR.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

The legislature believes that all employees 1 SECTION 1. 2 within the State should be protected in their employment and 3 should be free to independently decide whether or not they wish to belong, or pay dues, to a labor organization. Regardless of 4 5 an individual's determination on membership, the individual's right to work must be protected. Currently, the citizens of 6 7 twenty-two U.S. states enjoy a freedom of choice in this regard; those citizens enjoy a right to work, and a right to make an 8 9 independent decision as to whether or not they shall join or 10 financially support a labor organization. It is time that this 11 freedom of choice be made available to the citizens of this 12 The purpose of this Act is to protect the employability State. 13 of persons who are not members of labor organizations.

SECTION 2. Chapter 377, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended by adding a new part to be appropriately designated and to read as follows:

"PART . RIGHT TO WORK

Definitions. In this part, unless the context 1 §377-2 otherwise requires: "Labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or 3 any agency or employee representation committee or plan, in 4 which employees participate and which exists for the purpose, in 5 whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning 6 grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of 7 8 employment, or other conditions of employment. "Person" includes a natural person, a corporation, 9 association, company, firm, or labor organization. 10 11 Prohibition of agreements denying employment §377-12 because of nonmembership in labor organization. No person shall be denied the opportunity to obtain or retain employment because 13 of nonmembership in a labor organization, nor shall the State or 14 15 any subdivision thereof, or any corporation, individual, or association of any kind, enter into an agreement, written or 16 17 oral, which excludes a person from employment or continuation of 18 employment because of nonmembership in a labor organization. 19 §377-Illegality of acts or agreements violating this 20 part; strike or picketing for illegal purpose. Any act or provision in an agreement which is in violation of this part is 21 22 illegal and void.

$377- Prohibition of threatened or actual interference 1 with a person, the person's family, or property, to compel that 2 person to join a labor organization, strike, or leave 3 employment. It is unlawful for an employee, labor organization, 4 or officer, agent, or member thereof, by any directly or 5 6 indirectly threatened or actual interference with the person, the person's immediate family, or property, to compel or attempt 7 to compel the person to join a labor organization, to strike 8 against the person's will, to leave employment, or to dissuade 9 the person from crossing the picket line. 10 11 Prohibition of conspiracy against persons not §377-12 members of labor organization. It is unlawful for two or more 13 persons to conspire for the following purposes: To induce any other person to refuse to work with a 14 (1)person who is not a member of a labor organization; 15 16 (2) To cause the discharge of any person who is not a member of a labor organization; or 17 To cause a person who is not a member of a labor 18 (3) 19 organization to be denied employment because of the 20 person's nonmembership.

21 §377- Civil liability of person violating this part. A 22 person who violates any section of this part, or who enters into

1 an agreement containing a provision that is in violation of any 2 section of this part, or who brings about the discharge of or 3 denial of employment to any person because of nonmembership in a 4 labor organization shall be liable to the person injured as the 5 result of the act or agreement and may be sued therefor, and in 6 the action, any labor organization, subdivision, or local 7 thereof, shall be bound by the acts of its duly authorized 8 agents acting within the scope of their authority, and may sue 9 or be sued in its common name.

10 §377- Injunctive relief from injury resulting from 11 violation of this part. A person injured or threatened with any 12 type of injury or loss by an act declared illegal by this part 13 shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the 14 contrary, be entitled to injunctive relief."

15 SECTION 3. Chapter 377, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is amended 16 by designating sections 377-1 through 377-18 as "Part I. General 17 Provisions."

18 SECTION 4. Section 377-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 19 amended to read as follows:

20 "\$377-4 Rights of employees. Employees shall have the 21 right of self-organization and the right to form, join, or 22 assist labor organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to engage in lawful, 1 concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or 2 other mutual aid or protection, and such employees shall also 3 have the right to refrain from any and all such activities $[\tau]$ 4 provided that employees may be required to join a union under an 5 6 all-union agreement as provided in section 377-6(3)]." SECTION 5. Section 377-6, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 7 amended to read as follows: 8 "§377-6 Unfair labor practices of employers. It shall be 9 an unfair labor practice for an employer individually or in 10 11 concert with others: To interfere with, restrain, or coerce the employer's 12 (1)employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in 13 14 section 377-4; To initiate, create, dominate, or interfere with the 15 (2) 16 formation or administration of any labor organization 17 or contribute financial support to it, but an employer 18 shall not be prohibited from reimbursing employees at their prevailing wage rate for time spent conferring 19 with the employer, nor from cooperating with 20 representatives of at least a majority of the 21 22 employer's employees in a collective bargaining unit, at their request, by permitting employee 1 organizational activities on employer premises or the 2 use of employer facilities where the activities or use 3 create no additional expense to the employer; 4 To encourage or discourage membership in any labor (3) 5 6 organization by discrimination in regard to hiring, 7 tenure, or other terms or conditions of employment. An employer, however, may enter into an all-union 8 9 agreement with the bargaining representative of the employer's employees in a collective bargaining unit, 10 11 unless the board has certified that at least a 12 majority of the employees have voted to rescind the 13 authority of their bargaining representative to 14 negotiate such all-union agreement within one year 15 preceding the date of the agreement [-,]; provided that 16 such agreement shall not displace employees who are 17 not union members. No employer shall justify any 18 discrimination against any employee for nonmembership 19 in a labor organization [if the employer has 20 reasonable grounds for believing that:
