- At 12:20 o'clock p.m. the Chair declared a recess subject to the call of the Chair.
- The House of Representatives reconvened at 12:41 o'clock p.m.
- At this time, the Chair announced:
- "Members, at this time we are on the Supplemental Calendar, Introduction of Resolutions."

SUPPLEMENTAL CALENDAR #1

INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions (H.R. Nos. 5 and 6) were read by the Clerk and disposed of as follows:

H.R. No. 5, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ELECTING THE VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE," was jointly offered by Representatives B. Oshiro and Ward.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.R. No. 5 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Ward rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Mr. Speaker, I would commend the gentleman to everyone as one who is a bridge, a diplomat, and one who even if he doesn't always agree with you, smiles and is a facilitator of the people's business. I think it's a good choice and as I said earlier, I heartily second it, and I would third it if there was such a need to do so. Thank you."

Representative Yamane rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'm standing in strong support with brief comments. I would just like to say that we all have our hopes and dreams in working with Mr. Vice Speaker, and that he will represent us well as the House as a whole. Thank you."

Representative McKelvey rose to speak in support of the measure, stating:

"Now that the good Representative of Hawaii Kai talked, I feel I have to weigh in, in strong support Mr. Speaker. I just think that the good Representative will represent the House well, and that he will continue to work with all of us in addressing the people's issues. So again, in strong support. Thank you."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 5 was adopted.

At this time, the Chair invited Representative Manahan to approach the rostrum, and presented to the Members of the House their new Vice Speaker.

H.R. No. 6, entitled: "HOUSE RESOLUTION ACKNOWLEDGING AND RECOGNIZING THE CAUCUS LEADERS AND NAMING THE CHAIRS, VICE CHAIRS, AND MEMBERS OF THE STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE," was jointly offered by Representatives B. Oshiro and Ward.

Representative B. Oshiro moved that H.R. No. 6 be adopted, seconded by Representative Ward.

Representative Thielen rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker, I'm rising to speak against the motion. Thank you. Mr. Speaker, there are fifty-one Members in the House of Representatives. There is a group that is totally ignored in the leadership of the different Committees. Of those fifty-one Members, we all received votes from our constituents. I believe when you total the votes of the Minority Caucus, they're well over 200,000.

"When you take a look at putting together a team of leadership, what you want to do is do it fairly, and you want to do it with merit. Take a look at the International Committee, we have a member among us, our Minority Leader, Representative Gene Ward, who has an international background that is not equaled by anyone in this Body I would say, and yet his name was not included either as the Committee Chair or the Vice-Chair and I think that's disgraceful.

"You take a look at a couple of other Committees, both Tourism, and Economic Development. One of the most senior members in this Body, Representative Barbara Marumoto has great skills in both of those areas, great experience, and yet when you look at the Committee Chair and the Vice-Chair, her name is not among those.

"Mr. Speaker, you also take a look at Public Safety and Military Affairs. We have a new Member in our Caucus, Representative George Fontaine, a former police officer. What better person to appoint as the Vice-Chair for that. And you can't say, 'Wait a minute. He's a freshman,' because you have appointed a freshman as the Vice-Chair to that Committee.

"And then you take a look at the Education Committee, Representative Corinne Ching is a teacher, a former teacher. The perfect expertise to be on the Education Committee and yet her name is not there.

"And without promoting myself, I do want to say that I have twenty years as an environmental and land use attorney, and won some of the landmark cases in the State of Hawaii. I'm the ranking member on Energy and Environmental Protection, and ranking member on Water, Land, but not a Vice-Chair of either Committee.

"Mr. Speaker, I think that this is wrong, and I would just question all of the Members in this Body. I know you have a minority faction among the Democrats so you have the minority Democrats and the majority Democrats, and you're trying to work things out among each other, and you're trying to make things so called 'fair' among them, but you are incredibly discriminatory, incredibly discriminatory against the Republican Caucus. And yet, about a quarter of a million people believe that we can do a good job and support us. Yet in this Body, I don't see one of you standing up for the rights of our Minority and that is shameful."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and H.R. No. 6 was adopted, with Representative Thielen voting no.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, this is another thank you, not a mutual admiration society, but I want to commend all the Members of this House for staying the course. You, Mr. Speaker, and I want to thank 'Reverend' Choy for his prayer this morning, and how we're sticking with our eclectic openings, whether it's a Tom Brower rap, or it's a moment of silence, or if it's a prayer, it works. I think what the Senate has done Mr. Speaker, is something that we should not be involved in. I'm not going to go through all the litany the US Supreme Court has already said about this being the history and the tradition of who we are as a people, and to take the divine providence, whether you believe or not, out of this I think, is immaterial and not necessary.

"I found, as I was preparing a couple remarks, that the Hawaii Constitution's preamble says, "We the people of Hawaii, grateful for divine guidance. ..." I never knew that before so to open a prayer, with either a rap or something else, I mean it's appropriate. It's traditional.

"So Mr. Speaker, my basic bottom line is, e pule kakou. Let's carry on with where we are. We're ecumenical as we did on Opening Day. We will continue to be so, and I look forward to Representative Brower's rap. Aloha. Thank you."

Representative Herkes: "A point of order. Will you advise the Members of the Minority to address the Chair, and not the Members?"

Representative Chong: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd like to make a short, but delightful announcement. One of our colleagues from the Island of Hawaii had a recent anniversary birthday yesterday. It is no other than our colleague, Clift Tsuji. Aloha."

Speaker Say: "Members of the House, the Chair has two major announcements to make. The first announcement is that I'd like to encourage the Chairs and Vice-Chairs on Monday, January 24 at 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. to attend a training session. All Chairs and Vice-Chairs will be having a training session at 1:00 to 3:00 in Room 329.

"After that, from 3:15 to 5 p.m. there will be training for your Committee staff. So I truly expect all of the Chairs and Vice-Chairs to attend the training, and their staff, so that they can understand the process of being a Chair and Vice-Chair and running your Committees. You'll be getting an email from me and a memo this afternoon, but I wanted to state it for all you so you know you have to attend.

"Secondly, after today's session, the Chair expects all of you to attend the mandatory safe workplace training in Room 329 which was supposed to start at 12:30. All of you should be attending because I personally feel it is very important and mandatory for you to attend."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Today I announce that there was a celebration of life for a very important person of Hawaii who passed away this month. It was Agnes Conrad, the State Archivist who was the first Territorial Archivist, as well as for the State. She received the Historic Hawaii Honor Award. She was named a living treasure by Honpa Honwanji Mission of Hawaii, received the Governor's Award, Pa'a Mo'olelo Award, President of the Hawaiian Historical Society, and the Legislature had actually bestowed upon her the Hawaii State Archivist Emeritus.

"She was known as someone you could go to to answer any question about Hawaii's past, and she organized the professional archival standards for the Territorial Archives before we were a State. She was involved in the early historic preservation of Diamond Head. She was involved in the founding of the Hawaii Museum's Association, the restoration of Iolani Palace, and was instrumental to the publication of the songs of Queen Liliuokalani.

"And there was an African proverb that says, once an elder passes away, the book is closed. For Agnes Conrad, she wrote much of that book. So at the appropriate time, Mr. Speaker, I'd like to ask for a moment of silence for Agnes C. Conrad."

Representative Souki: "Yes, Mr. Speaker and Members. I just want to add a little comment about the mandatory training for Members and staff. Leadership must remember that Members are elected by their respective constituents and I would ask that leadership be mindful of that, that even though we respect the Speaker, and we support him, but we're beholden, as far as anything mandatory, to our constituents. Thank you, very much."

Representative B. Oshiro: "Mr. Speaker, I just would like to make a short acknowledgement. Today is the last day of employment for the person in my office who's been assisting me for the past three or four years, Jace Mikulanec. In the continual shifting that's going on, he has a higher calling. He's going to the Fifth Floor and he'll be working as the Deputy on the Federal Fair Share Initiative. So after session, except for Members, staff, please feel free to go to Room 437 for some cake and ice cream, and wish him well."

Speaker Say: "For the last announcement, Members of the House, and this is a reminder to all of you. The Governor will address the Legislature in Joint Session on Monday here in the House Chamber for the State of the State Address. Since the Joint Session will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m., our Regular Session will convene beforehand at 9:00 a.m. So everyone should be here at 9:00 a.m. for the Regular Session.

"Members of the House, please stand for a moment of silence for the late Agnes Conrad."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late Ms. Agnes C. Conrad.

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:56 o'clock p.m. on motion by Representative Evans, seconded by Representative Pine and carried, the House of Representatives adjourned until 9:00 o'clock a.m. Monday, January 24, 2011.
