CASTLE HIGH SCHOOL AND LE JARDIN ACADEMY STUDENT ARTWORK ON DISPLAY AT THE HAWAII STATE CAPITOL

Honolulu, Hawai'i - Senator Tokuda's Art Review (STAR) Program will once again be displaying the artwork of students from Windward O'ahu at the Hawai'i State Capitol. The artwork from students attending Castle High School and Le Jardin Academy can be viewed in the chamber level of the State Capitol throughout the month of February and will feature various mediums of artwork.

"Our teachers, in both our public and private schools, are doing an amazing job of inspiring our students to express themselves through art," stated Tokuda. "Showcasing their work is a testament to both our teachers, students and to the great things going on in our schools."

The STAR Program was established by Senator Jill Tokuda in 2007 for the purpose of showcasing the artistic expressions of students from Windward O'ahu and providing them with a venue to share their art with the community.

Since the spring of 2007, the STAR Program has displayed the artwork of over 1,300 Windward students from public and private schools on the windward side. These schools include 'Aikahi Elementary, Ben Parker Elementary, Castle High, Enchanted Lake Elementary, Hakipu'u Learning Center, Kailua High, Kalāheo High, Ka'elepulu Elementary, Ke Kula 'o Samuel M. Kamakau, Kāne'ohe Elementary, Kapunahala Elementary, King Intermediate, Le Jardin Academy, Maunawili Elementary, Mokapu Elementary, Pū'ōhala Elementary, Olomana School, Trinity Christian School, and the Hawai'i Youth Correctional Facility.

In 2011, the STAR Program displayed approximately 300 art pieces that were created by over 250 student artists from the windward community.

The public is welcome to view the artwork at the Hawaii State Capitol, Chamber Level, Monday through Friday from 6:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. (excluding holidays) and Saturday from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. For more information, call 587-7215.
