Testimony of the Office of the Public Defender,
State of Hawaii to the House Committee on Judiciary

S.B. No. 9, H.D. 1: RELATING TO ANIMALS

Chair Rhoads and Members of the Committee:

The Office of the Public Defender opposes S.B. 9, H.D. 1, and suggests an amendment to this measure.

This measure would prohibit a person convicted of animal cruelty in the first and second degree from owning, possessing or residing with a pet animal for two years and one year, respectively.

The requirement that a person convicted of animal cruelty “shall be prohibited from possessing, owning, or residing with any pet animal” for a specific period of time is inconsistent with §711-1110.5, H.R.S., which governs the surrender or forfeiture of animals. Surrender or forfeiture of the animal, which was the subject of the cruelty charge, or other animals in the possession or control of the defendant is not mandatory, and the court may allow the animal to remain in the defendant’s possession or control. The defendant or another family member may have owned the pet that was the subject of the abuse. A person convicted of animal cruelty could reside with his family or other people who own a pet animal other than the one abused by the defendant.

Under this measure, the court could allow the animal to remain at the residence, but the defendant would be required to get rid of the animal, or move out. Families may be forced to choose between a pet and a defendant. This pet may belong to a young girl or boy, or a relative in the case of extended families living under a single roof.

We propose amending this measure by replacing the word “shall” on page 2, line 17 with the word “may.” The court would then have the discretion when sentencing a defendant for animal cruelty to order the animal surrendered or forfeited and prohibit the possession or ownership of any other pet animal for a specified period of time.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide input on this measure.

The Honorable Karl Rhoads, Chair
and Members
Committee on Judiciary
House of Representatives
Hawaii State Capitol
415 South Beretania Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

Dear Chair Rhoads and Members:

Subject: Senate Bill No. 9, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, Relating to Animals

I am Richard Schaab, Captain of the Criminal Investigation Division of the Honolulu Police Department, City and County of Honolulu.

The Honolulu Police Department supports Senate Bill No. 9, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, Relating to Animals.

The Honolulu Police Department recognizes our culture's fondness for pets. The Honolulu Police Department also recognizes the illicit use of fighting gamecocks and dogs for the purpose of furthering illegal gambling and the negligence of some owners of puppy mills.

This bill seeks to make it illegal for a person convicted of animal cruelty to possess, own, or reside with any pet animal for a designated period of time.

The Honolulu Police Department urges you to support Senate Bill No. 9, S.D. 1, H.D. 1, Relating to Animals.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Richard Schaab", is written over a horizontal line.

RICHARD SCHAAB, Captain
Criminal Investigation Division

RE: Testimony in SUPPORT of SB9; Relating to Animal Cruelty

Submitted by: Inga Gibson, Hawaii State Director, The Humane Society of the United States,
P.O. Box 89131, Honolulu, HI 96830, igibson@hsus.org, 808-922-9910

On behalf of our members and supporters in Hawaii, we thank the Committee for its consideration and support of SB9 which would prohibit a person convicted of cruelty to animals in the first degree and second degree from possessing, owning, or residing with any pet animal for a minimum period of time from the conviction date. We also appreciate your consideration of the below proposed amendment.

At least 30 states have some provision in statute that relates to prohibiting or limiting the ownership or possession of animals upon an animal cruelty conviction, with prohibition periods ranging from 1 year up to permanent/lifetime bans on ownership. This provision is necessary to protect other animals that may too become the victim of cruelty or abuse, recognizing that those who are cruel to animals often abuse multiple animals or species, and often escalate to violence against humans or other crimes.

There have been a number of cases, most recently involving the sentencing of the Waimanalo “puppy mill” manager convicted of 153 counts of animal cruelty, where there was no prohibition on ownership of animals, and despite our and the prosecuting attorney’s request. Without such sentence, this defendant, as with others who were not prohibited from owning animals post-conviction, may simply return to abusing animals, including in some cases, continuing to profit from their sale.

Much like if one is convicted of a serious driving offense they lose their driver’s license for a period of time, or when one is convicted of harming a child, they are prohibiting from residing with the child or other children, this measure follows that one be appropriately prohibited from owning animals, if convicted of cruelty, for a minimum period of time.

However, we are concerned that PAGE 2, LINE 17 and PAGE 3, LINE 7, may be misinterpreted to only prohibit the convict from possessing the individual animal involved in the offense, rather than any type or species of animal(s) involved in the offense (ie a convicted dogfighter should be prohibited from possessing all his/her fighting dogs, not just the individual dog that may have been fought). In addition we don’t want to limit the courts discretion to prohibit other species from being possessed if deemed appropriate (e.g. someone mutilates their dog but also owns cats or other animals that may be at risk of cruelty).

We are therefore asking that the language be clarified to read (p.2, line 17, p.3, line 7) “...possessing, owning or residing with any animal, including but not limited to any and all types of animal(s) involved in the offense, for a minimum...” Another option would be to strike “involved in the offense” which would prohibit the ownership of any animal

We respectfully urge your support of SB9 with the above-proposed clarifying amendment.

RE: Support SB9, SDI, HDI;
Relating to Animals – Prohibition on Ownership/Possession

The Hawaiian Humane Society supports the passage of Senate Bill 9, Senate Draft I, House Draft I as we strive for stronger sentences and related-penalties on those convicted of animal cruelty.

This bill, which prohibits persons, including legal entities such as corporations, convicted of felony and misdemeanor animal cruelty charges from owning or possessing pet animals for a minimum duration of two years and one year, respectively, will ensure that those who have engaged in abhorrent acts of cruelty toward animals will not lawfully be able to have their own pet animals. Furthermore, this bill is not only deterrent in nature but also punitive in that those convicted will no longer be afforded the privilege of owning a pet animal. Such persons who show that they are unable to care for animals must know that the law will not condone such behavior in the future.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify in support of SB 9, SD I, HD I. On behalf of Hawaiian Humane Society, I ask for your support for this measure.

Comments: COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY Rep. Karl Rhoads, Chair Rep. Sharon E. Har, Vice Chair Dear Representatives Rhoads and Har: I am writing to you regarding SB9 to urge its passage. This bill would create what appears to be a reasonable intervention for a situation that for whatever reason led someone to inflict harm on an animal. Lacking such a "time out" provision, there is no reason to expect a change in understanding or behavior. I hope you agree. Thank you.

Comments: Please support this Bill and not allowing people convicted with animal cruelty to have animals again. It's just a matter of time and they will go back to their old way of treating animals...resulting again in another cruelty case. waste of innocent animal lives and our funds to go after another cruelty case. It shouldn't have to happen again and again. Please support this crucial Bill for the voiceless animals. Thank you kindly!

Comments: Dear Chair, Vice Chair, and Committee Members, Please pass this bill as it will ensure that those convicted of animal cruelty offenses are prohibited from owning or possessing their own pet animals. This bill is reasonable and appropriately punitive. I ask for your support in passing this bill. Thank you. Sincerely, Keoni Vaughn

Comments: Animal abusers should probably be in jail as long as child abusers and should be put on an on-line list (similar to the one available to the public for those that abuse kids). If that is not possible then most certainly they should be prohibited from owning or caring for a defenseless animal or pet.

Comments: Please stop this nightmare. No feeling creature should ever be terrorized and trapped, not helped nor given to someone who has done it before unless you can be right there 24 hrs. protecting them. This is exactly why laws are made because there are people who will go on doing cruel things unless it is outlawed and there are penalties. Please pass this now and make sure your colleagues vote on the floor to make this law. Thank you.
