JUSTIFICATION SHEET

SB. NO. 1181

DEPARTMENT: Public Safety.

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO COMMITTED PERSONS ON FURLOUGH.

PURPOSE: To add child support payments as obligations for inmates on furlough who are employed and delineates percentage of net earnings that shall be deducted to satisfy outstanding restitution and child support orders.

MEANS: Amend section 353-17(a), Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: Child support orders are not included in statute as financial obligations for committed persons on furlough who are employed outside of the correctional facility. The proposed amendment will require thirty percent of net earnings be dedicated to outstanding child support orders.

This proposal also specifies twenty-five percent of net earnings be deducted to satisfy outstanding restitution orders, which is in alignment with Act 139, Session Laws of Hawaii 2012. Current law is silent on what percent shall be deducted. In addition, it adds other court ordered fees and fines as obligations.

These percentages conform to those required for deductions as found in sections 353-22.6 and 353-22.8, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

Impact on the public: Child support and restitution orders shall be enforced, benefiting dependent children and victims of crime.

Impact on the department and other agencies: None.

GENERAL FUND: None.

OTHER FUNDS: None.
