

CURRICULUM VITAE

Roberta Momilani Lovely

Education:

Masters of Public Health
Health Services, Administration and Planning
University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii, December, 1995

Bachelors of Science in Nursing
University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii, May, 1971

Honors:

Excellence Award, SFMC, 2005
National Dean's List, February, 1996
Achievement Award, SFMC, 1988
President, District of Honolulu, Hawaii Nurses Association
1973-1975 and 1985-1988
President, Hawaii Student Nurses Association, 1971
President, Senior Nursing Class, 1970-1971
Recipient, Student Achievement Award, May, 1971

Professional Experience:

Liberty Dialysis Hawaii, 11/07 to current
Supervisor for Hawaii Patient Admission Services
Special Projects Administrator

Primarily responsible for the coordination of special projects affecting statewide operations of the organization. Ensure the accuracy of data collection when changes are made to the improve work flow and cost efficiency.

Liberty Dialysis Hawaii, 1/2006 to 11/07
Regional Director/Program Director, 1/2006 to 11/1/07

The responsibilities were for the planning, development and coordination of renal services on the island of Oahu. Activities include budget development and management (fiscal and human resources), leadership development, compliance with existing laws and regulatory agencies, and program development.

Saint Francis Medical Center, 1971 to 2006

Administrative Director, Renal Institute

June, 1996 to January, 2006

Primarily responsible for the planning, development and coordination of renal services provided under the umbrella of the SFMC Renal Institute and the renal service line. Activities include budget development and management, leadership development, compliance with existing laws and regulatory agencies, adherence to JCAHO accreditation activities, and program development and expansion.

Facility Coordinator, Director of Medical Surgical Services, Inpatient Services

Coordinator, Administrative Supervisor (SFMC)

May, 1985 to June, 1996

Various administrative nurse positions were held during this time period and included the management and oversight of expansion and renovation projects; management and operation of a long term care unit and six acute care units that ensured a safe and therapeutic environment for the delivery of quality patient care; managed and created the budgets and staffing requirements for each department; provided leadership development; compliance with existing laws and regulatory requirements, and adherence to JCAHO accreditation activities.

In-service Instructor, Nursing Staff Development (SFMC)

November, 1981 to April, 1985

Responsible for the orientation and training of new hires into the Nursing Department (RN, LPN, nurse aide, ward clerk), development of self-instructional booklets, tests, and in-services. Ensured the updating and maintenance of nursing policy and procedures. Provided CPR certification.

Staff Nurse/Charge Nurse with St. Francis Medical Center (SFMC)

June, 1971 to November, 1981

Various nursing experiences and positions were held during this period on Medical Surgical Units, Orthopedics, Renal, Psychiatric, and Cardiac care.

Professional Organizations

National Kidney Foundation - Hawaii
National Renal Administrators Association
American Nurses Association
Hawaii Nurses Association
American Public Health Association

Professional Licensure

RN Hawaii License Number: 17178

Certification

Instructor, Basic Cardiac Life Support (1986)

Certified Medical Surgical Nurse, American Nurses Association (1985-1988)

Zenger Miller Leadership Trainer (1995)

St. Francis International Center for Healthcare Ethics Consultant (2007)