

Jane Clement

Education

March 1992 | Bachelors of Secondary Education English
Cebu State College | Cebu City, Philippines

Employment

- June 2004 – Present
Co-owner, Deep Steam Carpet Cleaners
Kailua-Kona, HI 96740
- December 2013 – Present
Legislative Assistant to Councilman Dru Kanuha
County of Hawaii
- July 2010 – September 2013
Parent –Community Networking Center Coordinator and After-School Program Director
Kahakai Elementary School, Kailua-Kona, HI 96740
- July 2010 – September 2013
Parent –Community Networking Center Coordinator and After-School Program Director
Kahakai Elementary School, Kailua-Kona, HI 96740

Leadership

January 2014 - Present | President, COVO Foundation, Inc.

- Partnered with Gawad Kalinga and Congress of Visayan Organizations (COVO) in building two 20-home villages in Bohol and Leyte, Philippines for the earthquake and typhoon victims.
- Partnered with Hawaii Construction Alliance and Hawaii County in building a housing project in Ormoc City, Leyte, Philippines.

2007 - Present | President, Kona Visayan Club

- Raised $22k and partnered with Feed the Hungry, Inc. to build two classrooms in Naga City, Cebu and a nutrition center in Cambuac Norte, Bohol.

- Organized “Aloha Sagip Philippines” benefit concert and raised $20K for the victims of typhoon Sendong in the Philippines. Funds were used to build a classroom in Cagayan De Oro and Iligan City.
- Organized a benefit concert and donated $3K to the St. Michael’s Catholic Church building funds. The church was destroyed during the October 2006 earthquake on the Big Island.
- Partnered with the Office of Social Ministry to provide quarterly feeding to the West Hawaii homeless community through its ‘Feed the Homeless” program.
- Awarded over $40K in educational scholarships to West Hawai’i college-bound students.

2010 - 2013 | President, Congress of Visayan Organizations (COVO)

- Developed the sister-city relationship between Ormoc City, Leyte, Philippines and Hawaii County.
- Planned, organized and coordinated Hawai’i County’s reciprocal visit to its sister-city Ormoc City with Hawai’i County mayor Billy Kenoi and fourteen other business and community leaders.

Community Service

- Host of Truly Pinoy – a Filipino television show on the local cable channel
- Column writer for the Fil-Am Courier
- Coordinator for the Philippine Consulate of Honolulu Mobile Consular Outreach in Kona
- Advisory board member of the Hawai’i-Philippines Business & Economic Council representing the Big Island
- Founder of the Annual Philippine Cultural Festival celebration in Kona, Big Island.

References

•

•

•