Subject: Support for GM530 – Appointment of Michael Golojuch, Sr. to the Hawaii
Community Development Authority Kalaeloa

I support the appointment of Michael Golojuch, Sr. to the Hawaii Community Development Authority (HCDA) for Kalaeloa. I have known Mike for 38 years, and he is one of the hardest working and dedicated people I know. His work ethic, coupled with his proven leadership skills, makes him an ideal candidate for this position. I first met Mike when I had the pleasure of working for him when I was an inexperienced first lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force, and I could not have asked for a better mentor. We became friends, and my wife and I have traveled with Mike & his wife and spent countless hours enjoying their company. I can assure you that he is a top notch individual.

Thank you for the opportunity to express my views on Mike's appointment to HCDA.

Comments: Mike Golojuch is a very dedicated community member. He puts a lot of his time and efforts into various issues he believes strongly about. When he makes a commitment to something you know you will get more than 100% from him. He is very educated and comes with a lot of various experience. He will be a huge asset to this committee.
