Testimony in support of GM 604& 605.

Chairperson Senator Michelle Kidani and members of the committee, my name is Joan Lee Husted, the retired executive director of HSTA and one of the architects of the Hawaii Teachers Standards Board. I wholeheartedly support the Governor's nomination of Leslie Murashige as a member of the HTSB.

I have known Les for a number of years including his time as the President and COO of Island Air, the chief executive of Lanikila Pacific and as a member of the PBS Hawaii's Advisory Council. He clearly brings his business and non-profit experience to the board. In addition, I know he has a deep understanding of the role of teachers and what is needed to be successful in the classroom. He is an excellent choice.

I urge the committee to approve Mr. Murashige's nomination. Thank you for allowing me to testify.

Ref: GM 604 & 605, Supporting Leslie Murashige's nomination to the Hawaii Teacher Standards Board

Dear Senators Kidani and Harimoto:

Thank you for this opportunity to provide testimony in support of Leslie Murashige's nomination. I first met Les when he was leading Island Air soon after its divestiture as an independent airline. In a fiercely competitive business, Les' leadership, intelligence and values earned him the respect of colleagues and competitors alike. It was a tremendous learning opportunity for me to observe Les negotiate complex issues with local, national and international interests. No matter what the situation, Les' leadership style inspires everyone to reflect back his honesty, selflessness and respectful nature. No matter where he is in the world, Les is a teacher and the embodiment of the Aloha Spirit.

Over the years, I have also had the pleasure to serve with Les on non-profit organizations and other community efforts. With his wife Stacy, Les' commitment to education has always been a priority and together they volunteered tirelessly to support teachers and students alike. Although sadly Stacy is no longer with us, Les continues their commitment to education and its power to make Hawaii and the world a better place.

I strongly support Les' nomination. While I am sure that there are others worthy of consideration, I believe that the timing is optimal both personally and professionally for Les to serve on the Hawaii Teacher Standards Board.

Should you have any questions or wish to discuss further, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan K. Eichor

I have known Leslie Murashige in a professional capacity for over eight years, during his terms in executive leadership positions with Island Air and Lanakila Pacific. I strongly support his nomination as a member of the Hawaii Teacher Standards Board.

Leslie's is a very well-rounded individual who will bring an informed perspective to the board. Having served in executive level positions with both profit and non-profit organizations, he has a proven ability to work with individuals of varying backgrounds and experiences and in organizations with very different missions. Leslie's likeable personality, intelligence, and sense of "aloha" for Hawaii make him a great fit for the Teacher Standards Board.

Thank you for your consideration.
