Comments: Aloha, As the co-founder of Maui Dance Advocates we have been trying for 9 years to reform the dancing rules in Maui. I have seen people thrown out of establishments for dancing. Dancing is a freedom and I feel we should be able to move our bodies moderately every where we are. The Maui County Liquor Control has no definition for dancing so any rhythmic or non-rhythmic movement could be illicit. Let the people tap their toes, bob their heads and sway their hips off the dance floor. I love dane floors, but I feel as a human I am entitled to move within my personal space as I please. Mahalo for your time, Jiva Jive President of Maui Dance Advocates
