A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO MEDICINES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

SECTION 1. The legislature finds that biologics are a class of medicines available to treat disease. Unlike traditional drugs, which are chemically manufactured, biologics are manufactured in living cells. Common biologics in use today include human growth hormone, injectable treatments for arthritis and psoriasis, the Hepatitis B vaccine, and stem cell therapy.

8 The term "biosimilars" refers to substitute versions of 9 brand-name biologics, similar to generic versions of brand-name 10 drugs. These substitutes are not exactly identical to brand-11 name biologics but are designed to provide commensurate benefits 12 to patients at lower costs. At least nineteen biosimilars are 13 currently approved for use in the European Union.

14 The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, signed into 15 law by President Barack Obama in 2010, created an abbreviated 16 licensure pathway for biological products that are demonstrated 17 to be biosimilar to or interchangeable with a biologic product licensed by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA). In early 2015, the FDA approved its first biosimilar drug, Zarxio for use in the United States. Zarxio is used to help prevent infections in cancer patients receiving chemotherapy and is a close copy of an existing medication called Neupogen. Market research reports that there are at least one hundred fifty biosimilars in development.

8 As of September 15, 2015, sixteen states and Puerto Rico 9 have passed legislation to regulate the substitution of 10 biosimilars for brand-name biologics by pharmacists, and at 11 least thirty-one states have considered similar legislation. 12 Other important issues relating to state regulation of 13 biosimilars include the powers and duties of prescribing 14 authorities, notice to patients, safety, and recordkeeping.

15 The purpose of this Act is to allow for the regulation of 16 biosimilar medicines to ensure patient safety and access to 17 medicines at lower prices.

18 SECTION 2. Section 328-16, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 19 amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:
20 "(a) A prescription drug shall be dispensed only if its 21 label bears the following:

3		the formulary adopted pursuant to section 328-96; and
4	(2)	Upon the request of the consumer, inform the consumer
5		of the savings; and
6	(3)	Inform the consumer of the consumer's right to refuse
7		substitution.
8	The pharm	acist shall substitute an equivalent generic drug
9	product o	r an interchangeable biological product if the
10	practitio	ner does not prohibit substitution under subsection
11	(b), and	the substitute equivalent generic drug product or
12	interchan	geable biological product results in a savings. The
13	pharmacis	t shall not substitute if the consumer refuses.
14	(b)	The pharmacist shall not substitute an equivalent
15	generic d	rug product or an interchangeable biological product if
16	the pract	itioner indicates "brand medically necessary" or words
17	of simila	r meaning on the prescription. The designation "brand
18	medically	necessary" or other similar words or phrases must be 19	handwritt	en by the practitioner and shall not be preprinted or 20	stamped c	on the written prescription. The pharmacist shall not
21	substitut	e an equivalent generic drug product or an

interchangeable biological product if a prescription is orally or electronically ordered and the practitioner or authorized employee of the practitioner indicates "brand medically necessary" or other similar words or phrases.

5 The pharmacist shall note the practitioner's instructions 6 on the prescription record required to be maintained under 7 section 328-17.7.

8 This subsection shall not apply when it does not comply 9 with any federal requirement for services reimbursable by 10 medicaid or medicare.

(c) The pharmacist shall not substitute an equivalent generic drug product or an interchangeable biological product for any prescription for an anti-epileptic drug, except upon the consent of the practitioner and the patient or the patient's parent or guardian. This narrow exception for epileptic patients shall not be construed as a policy decision to make exceptions for any other conditions.

18 (d) Within five business days following the dispensing of 19 a biological product, the dispensing pharmacist or the 20 pharmacist's designee shall communicate the specific product 21 provided to the patient, including the name of the product and

2	an entry	that is electronically accessible to the prescriber
3	through:
4	(1)	An interoperable electronic medical records system;
5	(2)	An electronic prescribing technology;
6	(3)	A pharmacy benefit management system; or
7	(4)	A pharmacy record.
8	(e)	Entry into an electronic records system as described
9	in subsec	tion (d) is presumed to provide notice to the 10	prescribe	r. Otherwise, the pharmacist shall communicate the 11	biologica	l product dispensed to the prescriber using facsimile,
12	telephone	, electronic transmission, or other prevailing means,
13	provided	that communication shall not be required where:
14	(1)	There is no approved interchangeable biological
15		product approved by the United States Food and Drug
16		Administration for the product prescribed; or
17	(2)	A refill prescription is not changed from the product
18		dispensed on the prior filling of the prescription.
19	[(d)]	(f) The county prosecutors and the attorney general

3 SECTION 5. Section 328-94, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 4 amended to read as follows:

5 "$328-94 Prescription record. Each pharmacist or 6 practitioner shall maintain a record of any substitution of an 7 equivalent generic drug product or an interchangeable biological 8 product for a prescribed brand name drug product as provided in 9 this part."

SECTION 6. Section 328-96, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
amended to read as follows:

12 "§328-96 Drug formulary; Hawaii additions and deletions 13 list. (a) The board may adopt rules, pursuant to chapter 91, 14 to effectuate the purpose of this part. Without regard to 15 chapter 91, the director may adopt as rules the compendia of 16 therapeutically equivalent generic drug products and 17 interchangeable biological products as the state drug formulary 18 of equivalent multiple source drug products [-] and 19 interchangeable biological products. The board may adopt rules 20 pursuant to chapter 91 to establish a Hawaii additions and 21 deletions list [-]; provided that section 328-92(c) shall apply,
