
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that protecting the 2 environment and underground sources of drinking water is in the 3 best interest of public health and safety and required under 4 article XI, section 7, of the state constitution.

5 The legislature also finds that since 2005, petroleum 6 chemical contaminants have been detected in the groundwater and 7 rocks beneath the United States Department of the Navy's Red
8 Hill Bulk Fuel Storage Facility fuel tanks. In January 2014,
9 the facility's tank number five released twenty-seven thousand 10 gallons of fuel into underground rocks and groundwater. The 11 current location of the released fuel is unknown.

12 The Red Hill Bulk Fuel Storage Facility fuel tanks have 13 been corroding for more than seventy years. The corrosion has 14 caused significant thinning of the steel tank walls and, in some 15 cases, has fully penetrated the steel. The ongoing corrosion
16 damages the steel walls of the fuel tanks, as well as the steel
17 reinforcement in the surrounding concrete, and can lead to more

1 frequent and larger fuel releases than have occurred in the 2 past.

3 The legislature further finds that the installation of 4 monitor wells is crucial to test groundwater underneath and 5 surrounding the Red Hill Bulk Fuel Storage Facility to protect 6 Oahu's fresh water supply. While it should be the duty of the 7 United States Navy to fund efforts to monitor and remediate fuel
8 leaking from the Red Hill Bulk Fuel Storage Facility, the 9 protection of Oahu's drinking water supply is of such critical 10 importance to the health and safety of the people of Hawaii that 11 as a first step, the local board of water supply is funding the 12 installation of two test wells in the area. The State is also 13 funding two test wells in the area, and the people of Hawaii are 14 waiting for the United States Navy to provide funding for at 15 least four additional wells.

16 The purpose of this Act is to protect public health by 17 establishing a permanent fuel tank advisory committee.

18 SECTION 2. Chapter 342L, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 19 amended by adding a new part to be appropriately designated and 20 to read as follows:
