

Bruce Voss is a partner with the law firm of Bays Lung Rose & Holma. His practice emphasizes business, real estate, and employment law and litigation. Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Voss worked as a news reporter in Honolulu, for Pacific Business News and KHON Channel 2 News, covering business and government issues. Mr. Voss is a proud graduate of Kalaheo High School, and the Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii. Mr. Voss also serves on the Board of PBS Hawaii, assisting with the Hiki No Student News Network, and was a founding member of the Kalaheo High School Foundation. Mr. Voss' wife Liane has worked as an English teacher at Moanalua High School for the past 25 years. Bruce and Liane live in Kailua and have two children: Erin, a sophomore at UC-Berkeley after graduating from Moanalua High School, and Michael, who is a freshman at Moanalua H.S.
