Comments: We STRONGLY OPPOSE this resolution as it is vague and could infringe upon free speech. Plus, this pursues an endeavor that will be a complete waste of time, money & effort. Is the Attorney Generals office so under worked that this legislative body needs to create work for it? If this is true, why not save the taxpayers some money & reduce the Attorney Generals work force. Besides, whose definition of "defamatory" will be used? We also do not want to embarrass the State by requesting of the Federal Government to pursue such a frivolous endeavor, when their priorities include, but is not limited to: CATCHING TERRORIST! This resolution is a total waste of time!

Please note that testimony submitted less than 24 hours prior to the hearing, improperly identified, or directed to the incorrect office, may not be posted online or distributed to the committee prior to the convening of the public hearing.
