JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Attorney General

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO FIREARMS OWNED, POSSESSED, OR CONTROLLED BY PERSONS WHO POSE A SERIOUS RISK OF VIOLENCE OR HARM TO PUBLIC SAFETY.

PURPOSE: Allow law enforcement to seize and retain firearms or ammunition owned, possessed, or controlled by a person who poses a serious risk of violence or harm to public safety, pursuant to court order.

MEANS: Add a new section to chapter 134, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: Hawaii law currently allows people in certain circumstances to be disqualified from gun ownership.

According to section 134-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), this includes: (a) fugitives from justice; (b) persons under indictment for, or who have waived indictment for, or who have been bound over to the circuit court for, or have been convicted of having committed a felony, or any crime of violence, or an illegal sale of any drug; (c) persons who are under treatment or counseling for addiction to, abuse of, or dependence upon any dangerous, harmful, or detrimental drug, intoxicating compound as defined in section 712-1240, HRS, persons who have been acquitted of a crime on the grounds of mental disease, disorder, or defect pursuant to section 704-411, HRS, persons who have been diagnosed as having a significant behavioral, emotional, or mental disorders as defined by the most current diagnostic manual of the American Psychiatric Association or for treatment for organic brain syndromes; (d) persons who are less than twenty-five years old and have been adjudicated by the family court to have committed a felony, two or more crimes of violence, or an illegal sale of any drug; (e) minors who have been under treatment for addiction to any dangerous, harmful, or detrimental drug, intoxicating compound as defined in section 712-1240, HRS, or intoxicating liquor, are fugitives from justice; or have been determined not to have been responsible for a criminal act or has been committed to any institution on account of a mental disease, disorder, or defect; and (f) persons who have been restrained pursuant to an order of any court from contacting, threatening, or physically abusing any person.

Sometimes law enforcement becomes aware of a person, however, who poses a serious risk of violence or harm to public safety, and who currently possesses firearms, who nevertheless does not fit into one of these existing categories. This may include persons named on the Terrorist Screening Database maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation or persons who have made troubling or disturbing statements in support of Foreign Terrorist Organizations, as designated by the United States Secretary of State, or who have expressed a credible desire to kill or harm others, but without the factors ordinarily required to obtain a temporary restraining order. When that occurs law enforcement is currently limited in what it can do to remove the firearms, even when it recognizes such a serious risk of harm or violence.

This bill would allow law enforcement, upon a showing of clear and convincing evidence and upon a court order, to remove the firearms from that person and disqualify them from ownership.

Impact on the public: Decreased likelihood of mass shooting incidents.

Impact on the department and other agencies:
This bill will allow the appropriate county, state, and federal officers, upon a showing of clear and convincing evidence and pursuant to a court order, to remove firearms from someone who poses a serious risk of violence or harm to public safety.
