
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO SPORTS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that, according to 2 Forbes, the sports market in North America was worth
3 $60,500,000,000 in 2014 and is expected to reach $73,500,000,000
4 by 2019. In addition to spectator fees, the sports industry
5 generates revenue in advertising, endorsements, media broadcast
6 rights, and licensing. Hawaii hosts at least ten major national 7 and international sporting events each year, including the 8 Honolulu Marathon, Vans Triple Crown of Surfing, Molokai Hoe,
9 XTERRA World Championship, Ironman World Championship, Maui Jim 10 Maui Invitational, and the PGA Sony Open.

11 From 1979 to 2008, Hawaii hosted the highly-successful
12 annual all-star game currently played before the Super Bowl
13 known as the National Football League Pro Bowl. Hawaii's streak
14 of hosting thirty consecutive Pro Bowls at Aloha Stadium was 15 broken in 2009 when the game moved to Miami, Florida, but the 16 Pro Bowl returned to Hawaii in 2010. However, Hawaii lost the 17 Pro Bowl for a second time in 2015 when the game moved to

1 Phoenix, Arizona, and then again in 2016 when the game moved to 2 Orlando, Florida, as part of a multi-year contract.

3 Soccer is also an attractive sport for Hawaii, which has 4 several prime venues, including the Waipio Peninsula Soccer
5 Complex. Soccer is played by more than two hundred fifty 6 million players in more than two hundred countries, making it
7 the world's most popular sport. In 2008, Hawaii hosted the Pan-
8 Pacific Championship competition, a combination of top teams in 9 Major League Soccer, the J-League, and A-League. The 10 tournament's championship round at Aloha Stadium, which featured
11 international soccer star David Beckham and Kamehameha Schools
12 alumnus Brian Ching, drew 23,087 people, reportedly the largest 13 soccer crowd ever to see a game in Hawaii. Fueled by the 14 appearance of Beckham, the tournament brought considerable media
15 attention, including global telecasts, to Hawaii.

16 Hawaii has also embraced mixed martial arts, a full-contact
17 combat sport that allows the use of both striking and grappling
18 techniques; involves both standing and on-the-ground
19 competition; and blends boxing, wrestling, Brazilian jiu-jitsu,
20 muay Thai, kickboxing, karate, judo, and other styles. Mixed
21 martial arts events have drawn capacity crowds to the Neal S.

1 Blaisdell Arena. A Rumble on the Rock card featuring Hilo's BJ
2 Penn against Rodrigo Gracie in 2004 drew a standing-room-only
3 crowd of more than eight thousand. The prestigious Ultimate 4 Fighting Championship organization has never staged a match in 5 Hawaii, but the idea has been floated many times.

6 Numerous other sporting events have also been held in 7 Hawaii including golf tournaments, tennis tournaments, sailing
8 championships, the IRONMAN world championship triathlon,
9 Honolulu marathon, National Basketball Association games, minor
10 league baseball, and professional wrestling.

11 The legislature believes that there is significant room for 12 growth in the Hawaii sports industry and that attracting more
13 sporting events to use Hawaii as a venue will increase visitor
14 arrivals and expenditures.

15 The purpose of this Act is to create the Hawaii sports task 16 force within the department of business, economic development,
17 and tourism to plan and coordinate efforts to bring the Pro Bowl
18 back to Hawaii and to establish Hawaii as a host site for a
19 National Football League preseason game, world-title soccer
