A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CHILD VISITATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 The legislature finds that many grandparents 2 today are stepping in to raise their grandchildren when the 3 children's own parents, many of whom are minors themselves, are 4 not able or willing to do so. The high cost of living in Hawaii 5 often necessitates that one or both parents work full-time or 6 part-time jobs, some while also attending school, college, or 7 vocational education, to provide for their family and thus 8 require grandparents to raise their grandchildren while the parents are at work or in school, or both. The financial impact 9 10 of raising a family in Hawaii is further compounded for single-11 parent households who often have to work two jobs to support 12 their family. In addition, grandparents sometimes take on the 13 responsibility to raise their grandchildren when the child's own 14 parents abandon them or when the children can no longer live 15 with them because of the parent's mental disorder, substance 16 abuse, or incarceration. Grandparents may have the added burden 17 of caring for children who suffered from abuse or neglect from

- 1 their own parents. These children may feel insecure and afraid,
- 2 and may be angry at their situation and even embarrassed by it.
- 3 Raising a second generation brings many rewards for
- 4 grandparents, including the fulfillment of giving grandchildren
- 5 a sense of security, developing a deeper relationship, and
- 6 keeping the family together. The bond between a grandparent and
- 7 grandchild may run deeper than the relationship between parent
- 8 and child. Hawaiian and non-Hawaiian grandparents can be great
- 9 role models and influences for children, and they can provide a
- 10 sense of cultural heritage and family history. Hawaiian and
- 11 non-Hawaiian grandparents can also educate their grandchildren
- 12 about Hawaii and Hawaiian culture and traditions. Grandparents
- 13 can further provide their grandchildren with love, have their
- 14 best interests at heart, and can make them feel safe.
- 15 Grandparents also encourage a child's healthy development.
- 16 Overnight trips to Grandma's house, for example, may be less
- 17 traumatic than sleepovers with peers and can help children
- 18 develop independence. Grandparents may have lots of time to
- 19 spend playing and reading to their grandchildren. Such
- 20 dedicated attention only improves a child's developmental and
- 21 learning skills.
