
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the United States
2 Congress operates on a seniority system of granting privileges
3 to its members (senators and representatives) who have served
4 the longest. Those privileges range from the selection of 5 members' offices to committee assignments. In addition, members
6 with a longer term of service on a committee assume senior 7 status and wield more power in the committee. Seniority is also 8 often considered in awarding committee chair positions.

9 The legislature further finds that it is in the best
10 interest of the State for Hawaii's congressional delegation to 11 accumulate seniority in office as quickly as possible to ensure 12 that the delegation can successfully represent Hawaii's 13 citizens. One possibility of assisting Hawaii's delegation in 14 rapidly building seniority would be to automatically appoint
15 newly-elected United States senators to office immediately if 16 the incumbent vacates the office after the general election but 17 prior to the end of the incumbent's term, which is January 3 as

1 established under Section 1 of the Twentieth Amendment to the 2 United States Constitution. Under those circumstances, an
3 automatic procedure would be in place to ensure that Hawaii's
4 newly-elected United States senators will assume office earlier 5 than newly-elected senators from other states who must wait for 6 the incumbent's term to expire.

7 The purpose of this Act is to establish an automatic
8 procedure that allows Hawaii's newly-elected United States
9 senators, under certain circumstances, to begin their terms of 10 office with greater seniority that maximizes their ability to 11 represent this State, by providing that when a candidate other
12 than the incumbent is elected to the office of United States
13 senator, and the incumbent vacates the office prior to the 14 expiration of the incumbent's term, the governor must appoint
15 the member-elect to immediately fill the vacancy.

16 SECTION 2. Section 17-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 17 amended to read as follows:

18 "§17-1 United States senator. [~~When~~] (a) Except as 19 provided in subsection (b), when a vacancy occurs in the office
20 of United States senator, the vacancy shall be filled for the 21 unexpired term at the following state general election; provided

1 that the vacancy occurs not later than 4:30 p.m. on the twenty-
2 first day prior to the date specified in section 12-6 for the 3 close of filing nomination papers for regularly scheduled
4 elections; otherwise at the state general election next
5 following. The chief election officer shall issue a
6 proclamation designating the election for filling the vacancy.
7 All candidates for the unexpired term shall file nomination
8 papers not later than the date and time specified in section
9 12-6 and shall be nominated and elected in accordance with this 10 title. Pending the election, the governor shall make a
11 temporary appointment to fill the vacancy by selecting a person 12 from a list of three prospective appointees submitted by the 13 same political party as the prior incumbent. The appointee
14 shall serve until the election and qualification of the person
15 duly elected to fill the vacancy and shall be, at the time of 16 appointment, and shall have been, for at least six months
17 immediately prior to the appointment, a member of the same
18 political party as the prior incumbent. The appointee shall be 19 a resident of the State. If the prior incumbent was not a
20 member of any political party, the governor shall appoint a
21 person who is not and has not been, for at least six months

1 immediately prior to the appointment, a member of any political 2 party.

3 (b) Subsection (a) notwithstanding, when:

4 (1) A candidate other than the incumbent is duly elected
5 to the office of United States senator at a general
6 election; and

7 (2) The incumbent vacates the office at any time following 8 the general election but prior to the expiration of 9 the incumbent's term of office;

10 the governor, no later than the business day following receipt 11 of official notice of the vacancy, shall temporarily appoint the 12 person duly elected to succeed the incumbent to immediately fill 13 the vacancy for the unexpired term."

14 SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
15 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

16 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2035.

Report Title:

United States Senator; Members-elect; Vacancies; Governor

Description:

Provides that when a candidate other than the incumbent is elected to the office of United States senator, and the incumbent vacates the office prior to the expiration of the incumbent's term, the Governor must temporarily appoint the member-elect to immediately fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. Effective 7/1/2035. (SD1)

The summary description of legislation appearing on this page is for informational purposes only and is not legislation or evidence of legislative intent.

