JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Attorney General

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CONFIDENTIAL PERSONAL INFORMATION.

PURPOSE: To amend the definition of "confidential personal information," in section 708-800, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS), to eliminate unconstitutionally vague provisions in the law as determined by the Hawaii Supreme Court, in its decision of State v. Pacquing, 139 Haw. 302 (2016).

MEANS: Amend section 708-800, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS).

JUSTIFICATION: The Hawaii Supreme Court, in its decision of State v. Pacquing, 139 Haw. 302 (2016), found that part of the definition of "confidential personal information" in section 708-800, HRS, was unconstitutionally vague as it relates to the offense of unauthorized possession of a confidential personal information, in section 708-839.55, HRS. The Court stated:

In conclusion, given the uncertainty in meaning and scope of HRS § 708-800 and the indefinite and varying standards it provides for adjudging guilt, the UPCPI statutes are inordinately vague.

The Court went on to conclude:

To eliminate the unconstitutional aspects of the UPCPI statutes, portions of the HRS § 708-800 definition of "confidential personal information" must be excised. . . .

The Court specified exactly how the definition should be amended. This bill adopts the Court's specified amendments.

Impact on the public: A person will have a better understanding of the offense of unauthorized possession of confidential information and will know how to conform the person's conduct to the law.

Impact on the department and other agencies: This bill will allow for more effective and less subjective enforcement of the law regarding the unauthorized possession of confidential information by law enforcement officers.
